KARL LIETZENMAYER WILL TALK ABOUT GENERAL LAFAYETTE'S TOUR OF KENTUCKY IN 1824 AT 6:30 ON MAY 18.

Ary Scheffer painting of Lafayette at age 64.

The painting hangs in the US Capitol.

No foreign visitor ever caused so much excitement as General Lafayette when he arrived in 1824 for a farewell visit at age 67. He visited every state (22) and the Kentucky Legislature appropriated thousands of dollars to make his visit memorable. Lietzenmayer will also debunk some urban legends that have appeared concerning this visit. Copies of the article in Northern Ky. Heritage, on which this presentation is based, will be available. Also copies of Robert Webster's new book 'A Short History of Northern Kentucky' will be available.

CAPTAIN DON SANDERS PRESENTATION DELAYED

Due to a recent diagnosed health issue and scheduled surgery, Don Sanders has cancelled his presentation for our May 18th meeting. We have asked him to come and make his presentation at a future meeting when he is ready.

Captain Sanders has spent most of his adult career as a river boat captain including on the Delta Queen riverboat. He is a great storyteller and has written a number of articles about his riverboat experiences in the Northern Kentucky Tribune.

We wish him well and a successful surgery and recovery.

A SPRING TEA AT GAINES TAVERN

9/11 NEVER FORGET Mobile Exhibit

The Tunnel to Towers 9/11 NEVER FORGET Mobile Exhibit will be at the Florence Government Center, 8100 Ewing Boulevard, Florence, Kentucky from May 6 to May 14.

This exhibit has traveled the country educating Americans about what happened on September 11, 2001. Tours are conducted by retired New York City Firefighters who responded on September 11, 2001. They share their stories of what happened that day and the days after, bringing history to life for those who were born after September 11th or are too young to remember it.

The 83-foot tractor-trailer transforms into a 1,100 square foot exhibit which features World Trade Center Steel, aluminum façade from the building, radio transmissions from first responders, and items found in the rubble after the Twin Towers collapsed.

The exhibit will be open to the public May 6—14. 12:00 p.m.—6:00 p.m., except May 12, when hours are 10:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m.

ABOUT THE BOONE COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The mission of the Boone County Historical Society is to develop awareness and promote appreciation of the history of Boone County, Kentucky. We are fortunate to partner with the Boone County Public Library.

The Boone County Historical Society provides program meetings at 6:30pm on the third Thursday evenings of March, April, May, July, September and November.

Meetings (except for July) are held at the Boone County Public Library, Main Library, 1786 Burlington Pike, Burlington, Kentucky. July "out-and-about" meetings are held at various locations around the County.

The Society hosts a number of exhibits at the BCHS Museum (see page 3) each year. Most items for these exhibits are borrowed on a temporary basis from our members and friends, and do not belong to the Society. We greatly appreciate being entrusted with these loaned items that relate to our exhibits.

Items in our permanent collection have been donated by individuals and families who desire to share with others items of historical significance to Boone County. Their generosity is gratefully appreciated.

Annual membership fee is $15 per household, due every March. This covers the cost of printing and mailing our newsletters. Checks, payable to the Boone County Historical Society, can be mailed to the Boone County Historical Society, P.O. Box 23, Florence, KY 41022-0023.

The Boone County Historical Society has received a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status — all gifts to the Society are tax deductible.

All programs and exhibits are free and open to the public.
