THE BREAST CENTER : A MODEL TO IMPROVE PATIENT CARE

Pavillon Dauphine - Place du Maréchal de Lattre de Tassigny - 75116 Paris - France

Letter of Welcome

Dear Colleagues,

We are very happy to welcome you at the Fourth International Congress of Breast Disease Centers in Paris.

This event will gather a lot of clinicians coming from the major centers involved in the detection, prevention and treatment of breast diseases and be supported by major national and international societies or centers of oncology, gynecology, mastology, and radiology.

We have enlarged the Board of Directors of Breast Disease Centers associated with this Fourth International Congress. A preparatory meeting of this board was held in Paris on April 19, 2013 and June 28, 2013 to prepare the 2014 congress and it was decided to structure the congress around workshops and sessions.

We have to thank the executive committee and the speakers that built this nice program having in view to produce original and useful multidisciplinary workshops and sessions.

The key medical specialists of these disciplines have been invited and they warmly support this project.

The response from national delegations has already been extremely positive throughout Europe and other continents and we are expecting a strong level of international participation.

We want to thank the European Society for Medical Oncology, the Senologic International Society, the Federation Latinoamericana de Mastologia, the Breast Centres Network, the Union for International Cancer Control, and all the other societies, that brought us their precious support.

We look forward to your active participation in this innovative event and to welcoming you in Paris next February.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Marc ESPIE

CANCER DRUGS
 A practical approach to drugs available to us
Jean TRÉDANIEL

What do doxorubicin and adriamycin have in common? Why can the indications for platinum compounds vary so much? Have monoclonal antibodies ousted cytotoxic drugs? What is an anticancer antibiotic?

The aim of this book is to answer these questions, and all those that arise from being in contact with cancer drugs. To do this, we first need to classify each one in relation to the others. Each product is then described, detailing its official indications, as validated by its marketing license, then its dose, its mode of administration and the precautions that need to be taken when using it, any eventual resistance it may generate, and finally, the side effects it may cause.

Although cancer treatments evolve more or less on a daily basis, this book hopes to enable the public, specialised or not, to navigate more easily through the maze of the various drug classes.

Jean Trédaniel is a Professor of Oncology at Paris-Descartes University. He leads the thoracic cancerology unit of the Paris Saint-Joseph Hospital Group. He is member of the Scientific Advisory Group – Oncology, of the European Medicines Agency, a body which examines the authorisation requests for all new drugs used in cancerology.

The Power to Improve Lives This is what we're here for Expand the possibilities.

The Selenia® Dimensions® 3D system was just the beginning — we've expanded on the technology to include a total solution for tomosynthesis delivering:

- Faster and lower dose 3D mammography made possible with C-View™ software, which reconstructs 2D images from the 3D data sets and eliminates the need for 2D exposures, while offering superior clinical performance to 2D alone.*
- Fewer procedure steps and exposures compared to stereotactic procedures with the Affirm™ 3D biopsy option and the Eviva® biopsy system. This 3D biopsy option enables a faster and lower dose minimally invasive biopsy procedure.
