FAITH FORMATION

Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the scriptures

Recently we as a nation commemorated the tragic loss of 1 million lives to the pandemic. Each of those deaths leaves a hole in the lives of family and friends. Equally tragic is what that loss reveals about our relationships to one another, as friends, family members, coworkers and even fellow congregants were separated one from the other by bias and disinformation easily found on television and social media. 1 million lives lost.

I find it interesting that our first reading records that those who stoned Stephen first "covered their ears." Is not listening to one another the first step?

Does staying in our own information silos set the groundwork for doing violence to one another? And does that road ultimately lead to the Tops grocery store in Buffalo?

How far we are from the people Jesus prayed for in the gospel, "that they all may be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you."

Real life is complicated and full of gray areas, competing values and perspectives. For most of us adults the simple black and white world of our childhood is long ago and far away.

Pope Francis in his hope for a synodal church seems to believe that when people with different experiences come together with humility and generosity the Holy Spirit will guide them toward truth. But that kind of common cause, that unity, does not come in the world or in the Church without the hard work that is loving the each other.

Hard, but not impossible. Because the holiest petitioner of all has prayed for us: "that the love with which you have loved me may be in them."

Thought experiment:

What do you think? Could a seatbelt law be passed today? Why or why not? What does your answer tell you about your own thinking? About our society?

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori based program that combines the teaching of Hebrew Scholars, Scripture Studies, and Roman Catholic Liturgy and Doctrine. The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd believes that there is a deep bond between God and the child which produces in the child the desire to draw nearer to God. We are seeking new individuals to complete the Level One teacher training this summer and lead our parish preschool program beginning in the fall. Please visit <https://www.cgsusa.org/> to learn more about the CGS content and contact Jeannie Hohlefelder jhohlefelder@sthilarychurch.org in the parish office to learn more about this training opportunity.

WHAT IS WITH THOSE "CRAZY CATHOLICS"?

Are you or someone you know curious about Catholic practices and beliefs, maybe considering becoming Catholic? Are you drawn to certain aspects of the faith but question, or have issues, with others? If something is nudging you to find answers to your questions, come to Inquiry, a series of nonthreatening, no-strings attached sessions about what it means to belong, believe and become "crazy" with us! Join us on Wednesdays, June 29-August 3, from 7-8:30 PM in Meeting Room 3 in the Spiritual Center. The Curious may contact Randy Malick in the Parish Office: rmalick@sthilarychurch.org .330-867-1055.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD Seeking Adult and Teen Leaders for fall '22

"Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with your whole heart, and with your whole being, and with your whole strength. Take to heart these words which I command you today. Keep repeating them to your children. Recite them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you get up."~ Deuteronomy 6:5-7

What is Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW)?

Children's Liturgy meets during the weekend Masses and is about breaking open the Word of God for young people (preschool through grade 3). The Liturgy of the Word for Children is not "Sunday school" or a catechetics class. Rather, the Liturgy of the Word for Children is a component of the ritual prayer of Mass just as it is for adults. Thank you to all those who supported and attended CLOW throughout this past year's Lenten season. It was a great success and gives us joyful hope as we plan to begin CLOW on Sunday, Sept. 25 at BOTH the 9:00 and 11:00am Liturgies. This means we will need a great team of catechists to prepare for and welcome the children. Email: sthilaryparishclow@gmail.com to volunteer or learn more about our parish program. Save the date: Wed., Sept. 7, 2022 – CLOW Catechist Training – 6:30-8:30 p.m.

CARING & PARTICIPATING

...They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues...

June 5 – Pentecost Sunday

We are asking our multilingual parishioners to share their gifts and talents proclaiming our Pentecost Intercessions in their native tongue or second language, and repeating the prayers in English. Please sign up for either the 9 am or 11 am Masses with Dave Dettloff, at 330-867-1055 or ddettloff@sthilarychurch.org.

COME CELEBRATE & SUPPORT THE SUCCESS OF ST. MARY SCHOOL IN AKRON!

Dear parishioners, Over the last few years we have heard many stories about the tragic effects of poverty and racism. Many times we are left feeling helpless, and wondering :“What can I do about it?” Well right here in Akron, in our own backyard, there is a SUCCESS STORY that is helping greatly, a story that could use your help and support! That success story is St. Mary Grade School in downtown Akron! With a student body that is over 90% African American and 85% under the poverty line, St. Mary School is doing amazing things! 98% of their graduating 8th graders are attending a local Catholic High School, and 100% of their 3rd graders are passing the critical 3rd grade reading proficiency test! This success is being supported by many wonderful tutors and donors to the St Mary Educational Endowment Fund. St. Mary School is looking to expand the number of partners in their success from throughout the greater Akron Area. Please come and learn more about this GREAT SUCCESS STORY and how you can help. Join us for a wine and cheese event on Wednesday, June 22 from 5-6:30 p.m. in the Spiritual Center Gathering Area. School representatives will be on hand to share their story and invite you to join them in effecting real and lasting change for some of the most vulnerable children in the City of Akron! RSVP to Fr Steve at sbrunovsky@sthilarychurch.org, or by calling him at 330-867-1055 x 204.

One Minute Meditations

Take your rightful place

As a baptized Catholic, your parish is your home by right.

As such, you have the right to a seat at your parish table.

You take it when you attend weekend Mass, and seek peace from sacraments such as the Sacrament of Reconciliation or Holy Matrimony.

Times change; God doesn't

The Bible tells of countless times when God gave his people victory in otherwise hopeless circumstances, provided for them when they had no resources, and guided them in their decisions. God is ready to work as powerfully for you.

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Honor your father and mother" (this is the first commandment with a promise), "that it may be well with you and that you may live long on the earth." Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:1-4).

God waits for our "Yes"

God loves us and wants us to be happy with Him in Heaven forever, but He won't force Himself on us. Out of respect for our free will, God asks that we cooperate with His grace to save us, but leaves it up to us to say, "Yes!"

Cultivate your faith. The better we know our Catholic Faith the easier it is to know how to live it. The Catechism of the Catholic Church summarizes all major teachings of the Catholic Church. Read an article in it each day and learn a new term from the glossary weekly. Then, there will be no guessing about what Catholics believe.

Keep your conscience in shape.

A well-formed conscience signals us when a choice is virtuous (good) or sinful (bad). Review what the Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes require. Meditate on the examples of Jesus and Mary in the Gospels and how your behavior compares.

Stay close to the Sacraments. Through the Sacraments we directly encounter Christ. Attend Confession monthly and Mass at least weekly. This is the best way to stay close to God and His Heart.

Perform Works of Mercy. God uses these opportunities to conform us more fully to Christ. Find ways to serve your parish in time, resources, or gifts. It is Jesus who ultimately receives our gift (Matthew 25:40).

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics use the different titles when we address the clergy?

After Jesus ascended, the Church grew so quickly that the spiritual needs of the Christian community demanded a global hierarchy of clergy to minister to them while maintaining the unity of the Faith. In response, the Apostles ordained deacons to assist so they could focus on liturgy (Acts 6:2-4).

Today, there are different titles for different roles and levels of authority. For example, we are most likely to encounter priests ("Father"), deacons, and bishops ("Your Excellency," or "Your Grace").

Three invaluable lessons from the Sacred Heart devotion

Attaining holiness can seem overwhelming and complicated, but Jesus makes it simple: “Learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart” (Matthew 11:29). Follow the lessons of His Sacred Heart.

Focus on Jesus. We often get in trouble when we lose sight of who Jesus is (God) and how much He loves us. Actually, God is always close and loves us with an infinite, intense, burning love. Keep an image of the Sacred Heart nearby for when you feel discouraged or disconnected from Him.

Give Him your “Yes.” Instead of relying on your own strength and strategy, consecrate yourself to Jesus’ Sacred Heart and let Him form and direct you. He is patient, gentle, and knows what we can handle. Say “Yes” to whatever He asks.

“Love is not loved!” Jesus wants our love but is often rejected by our sins. Love Jesus for those who won’t. Spend time with Him and thank Him for what He’s done for you. Offer Him your sufferings for a soul in need.

from Scripture Luke 9:51-62, the cost of discipleship

Jesus’ listeners often got swept up by his charismatic manner and professed eagerness to follow him. But they weren’t always prepared for what it took to be a true disciple.

In this Gospel passage, a young man asked to follow Jesus but was deflated when Jesus pointed out that He had no home and none of the things considered necessary for a happy life. Jesus warned that it wouldn’t always be comfortable to follow Him.

The timing wasn’t right for the second man. He promised to follow Jesus but said he needed to fulfill his duty to his dying father first. In truth, Jesus sets the priorities we follow. Our duty is to obey.

Finally, Jesus used the example of plowing a field to make His point. If you look back while plowing it can ruin the job. He used that example to help the third man understand that we need to have a singleness of purpose to be His disciple. We will have to make sacrifices to follow Jesus. But He promises us that the rewards will be worth much more.

Q Why are there & different lists of Apostles?

Ever wonder why there seem to be different Apostles in different Gospels? For instance, there’s a “Judas, not the Iscariot” at the Last Supper (John 14:22) who isn’t mentioned anywhere else.

Likewise, Nathanael, who asked “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” (John 1:46), is absent in the other Gospels.

Usually, the difference is because some of the Apostles had two names. For example, St. Matthew the tax collector, before joining Jesus, is “Levi” (Mark 2:14; Luke 5:27). The “other” Judas is called Thaddaeus. Nathanael is in the other Gospels, too, but under his Jewish surname, Bartholomew (Bar-Tolomai, “son of Tolomai”).

Considering that half of the Twelve Apostles would have shared a name with another Apostle, some may have changed names to avoid confusion, e.g. Judas-not-the-Iscariot changing his name to Thaddaeus. All these differences show that the Apostles, who came from diverse backgrounds, were called for one mission of building up the Kingdom. Likewise, God calls us to build up the Kingdom, and gives each an important role in it.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 4 – St. Francis Caracciolo (1608). St. Francis was born in the Abruzzo region in Italy. He went on to found the Minor Clerks Regular with St. John Adorno. The Order was approved in 1588, and St. Francis became its superior for life.

June 6 – Mary, Mother of the Church (2018). On the Cross, Jesus gave us His mother to be our mother (John 19:27). Even in Heaven, she prays and cares for us as our spiritual mother.

June 19 – Corpus Christi Sunday.

On this solemnity, we celebrate the transformation of the bread and wine into Jesus’ Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist. This solemnity was established by Pope Urban IV in 1264 in response to the need for a Eucharistic feast day.

June 23 – The Nativity of St. John the Baptist (1st century). Before St. John was born, his father, Zechariah received a message from the angel Gabriel foretelling his birth. His doubt was punished by his being struck speechless until John’s birth.
