ANOTHER NEW BUILDING ON EIGHTH STREET

PATSY FABIANO WILL HAVE A NEW STRUCTURE FOR HIS FRUIT STORE

Leaves Only Two Wooden Buildings On Either Side of Eighth Street

Patsy Fabiano could stand it no longer. Since Pieper and Boter have put up some fine buildings it made Pat's place look like "thirty cents" and he wants to be right up to snuff with the rest of the merchants.

Patsy has made arrangements with the proprietors of the Sprizama and Pieper stores so that he can use the side walls of both of these buildings for his new fruit establishment, and it is expected that by Christmas or at least before next spring, Patsy will have his bananas hanging in front of a beautiful stone front and his California peaches and grapes neatly arrayed behind plate glass show windows.

Patsy says he is going to have one of the most up-to-date fruit stores in Michigan, while on the second floor commodious living rooms for Mrs. Patsy and the other little Patsys will be built.

The full details of the building have not yet been arranged for, however the architect is now drawing the plans, and considerable measuring has been going on in front of the West 8th St. fruit store.

Mr. Fabiano is casting around, trying to find some place to go for the few months that will be taken up while the contractors are erecting the building.

"This seems to be the hardest part of the whole job," said Mr. Fabiano, "as most of the store buildings are taken."

With the erection of this new building, there will only remain two wooden structures in this block, on either side of the street, namely the Kuite Meat Market and the Van Drezer restaurant, and it is rumored that one of these buildings will soon be supplanted by another stone structure. Let us hope so.

WHY HOLLAND HAD TWO AIRPLANES DURING THE FAIR

DETROIT MAN WAS A GAME SPORT; GAVE HOLLAND SEVERAL STUNTS FREE

Was Intended for Allegan Fair; Came to Holland by Mistake

Even airplane men get their dates mixed, but this particular mixing was to Holland's advantage, and the patrons at the fair saw some air stunts executed by one of the most daring aviators in the business.

A Detroit concern had a contract with Allegan and thought they had a contract with the Holland fair. The Detroit aviator flew to Allegan and found that he came a week late as the fair had been held the week before.

He then wired his company who stated that they also had a contract with the Holland fair, so the air man winged it over to this city within a very few minutes.

Secretary Arendshorst however had made arrangements with the Roeswift airplane company of Grand Rapids, and when the man appeared and swooped down on the fair ground, he naturally thought that the Grand Rapids man had arrived. A few minutes afterwards another plane appeared, and Johnny thought he was "seeing things."

It soon developed however, that the Detroit man also came to Holland by mistake, and while the secretary of the fair had been negotiating with the Detroit firm, the secretary felt that he could not afford to pay the price asked for the exhibition, and when the Detroit aviator pulled a Holland contract out of his pocket it was found that the contract was not signed by the local fair secretary, but that instead the contract was turned down, which the company apparently failed to notice.

There was nothing niggardly about the aviator, however, for he gave the fair patrons several air stunts gratis after which he smilingly shook hands with Secretary Arendshorst, started his machine and as he arose he cheerfully waved the secretary good-bye and headed in the direction of Detroit.

CITY'S CHECK IS AGAIN TURNED DOWN

NO CHANCE TO USE $100 FOR SOLDIERS' MONUMENT IN FRANCE

Check Will Be Filed So That No Other City May Get Ahead of Holland

A short time ago the city sent a check to Pres. Wilson to be used for the purpose of starting a nucleus for the erection of a memorial in France in honor of "Our Boys" who gave their all on the battle fields of France. The president wrote Mayor Bosch that although in as much as he would like to accept this first donation to a noble cause of that kind, there was no governmental agency which could handle such a project at the present time.

The check was then sent to Congressman Carl E. Mapes and Mr. Mapes in a communication to the Common Council practically reiterates the reasons given by President Wilson for not accepting the check.

With the letter the check is also returned as it would take special legislation to bring about a project of this kind which may be taken up at some future time.

The mayor personally is now going to try a hand and will take the matter further with Congressman Mapes and the two Michigan senators, Mr. Townsend and Mr. Newberry. In the meantime the check has been deposited with the city clerk until at some future time it may possibly be utilized for the purpose for which it was originally intended.

Some of the aldermen stood for cancelling the check, but the mayor was opposed to this procedure, stating that as long as the check was not deposited, the city was nothing out, but if the project would go through at some future time it could always be said that Holland was the first to donate to the cause and no other city could get ahead of us on that score. The aldermen saw the point and the check remains as it was, uncashed.

JURY CLEARS FERRYMAN OF COURT CHARGE

COURT GETS CHANGE FROM LIQUOR TRIALS, AFTER A LONG STRING

Jury Decides Ottawa Beach Ferryman is Not Guilty of Prohibition Law Violation

The jury in circuit court Wednesday broke the winning streak of the state in the action against alleged prohibition law violators by bringing in a verdict of not guilty in the case of the people against Albert F. Smith, Ottawa Beach ferryman. This is the first verdict of acquittal rendered by the jury in several days relating to alleged liquor law violations.

Smith operates the ferry cross Black Lake channel between Ottawa Beach and Macatawa. He was accused of receiving liquor, after the passage of the state prohibition law, of a colored porter on the Chicago steamer to Macatawa. The porter who is known as Scotti was arrested and pleaded guilty to bringing liquor to a dry state. He involved Mr. Smith in the mess by stating that he was bringing the contraband across the lake for the ferryman.

Smith denied having anything to do with the matter, and said on the stand that he had asked Scotti if he had anything aboard but that he meant "chickens,"—not booze. What sort of "chickens" he referred to was not made very clear. A number of character witnesses were called in Smith's behalf and the jury accepted the defense.

Daniel Ten Cate of the Holland law firm of Diekema, Kollen & Ten Cate, represented the defendant in the trial and Fred T. Miles tried the case for the state.

After the close of the Smith case the character of the cases was switched for the time being and the civil jury case of Dr. Seth Nibelink of Robinson against William Hecksel was called for trial. The testimony thus offered will be a change from the liquor law violation line which has been going into the court records for the last several days.

This is a suit by the doctor to recover $125 which he claims to be due him from the defendant for professional services. A number of witnesses are being used by both sides. Dean Fase of Coopersville represent the plaintiff and D. F. Pagelsen of Grand Haven is the defendant's attorney. It was expected the trial would take up at least two days.

There was considerable excitement in the family of J. W. King, living on the Judge Padgham farm, Allegan county. A child that had been playing with a bolt had tried to swallow a nut. The nut became lodged in its throat and nothing could be done to relieve the infant. King rushed to Allegan in his automobile, called at the home of five physicians before he found one able to go. When the two men reached the King home, the little one had coughed up the nut and the doctor's assistance was unnecessary.

CITY HOSPITAL MAKES MONEY IN AUGUST

REPORT SHOWS THAT LOCAL INSTITUTION IS A GOD-SEND TO THE CITY

Thirty Patients Admitted During the Month of August Alone; Only Three Die

The mayor and city fathers were much pleased with the report of the Holland hospital sent in by the president, Mr. C. M. McLean.

Not alone does the report show the great good that this institution has accomplished, but it also shows that the finances have also been coming in fine and during August at least the hospital report indicates that it is self-sustaining not alone, but has made money. The bills paid amount to $1873.26 and the money still owing by patients and taken in amounts to $2114.89 giving the hospital a balance to the good for August of $241.63.

This is a remarkable financial statement and speaks wonders for the hospital management.

The finance however is the smallest part of the benefits derived. The report shows that the institution has been a god-send to the community and has filled a long-felt want. During the month of August alone thirty patients were admitted for treatment.

The detailed report follows: Patients in at close of last month . . . . . 11 Patients admitted during month . . . . . 30 41

Patients dismissed during month . . . . . 26 Death during month . . . . . 3 29

Patients in at close of month . . . . . 12 Average patients per day during month . . . . . 9.87 plus Fees collected during month . . . . . $1343.69 Accounts due . . . . . $771.20 Bills Paid during month . . . . . $1873.26

The nurses have moved into their new home in the Annex, which is furnished with beds and one or two chairs. I am appointing Mrs. Browning and Mrs. Thurber (and this will be their notice of appointment) a committee to consult with Miss Miller and report at our next meeting as to the additional furniture they would recommend purchasing for these rooms.

Yours truly,
C. M. McLean,
President.

RUNAWAY BOY WANTED TO BE SENT HOME

YOUNG TEN-YEAR-OLD WANDERED HERE FROM WAUKESHA, WISCONSIN

"Do you ever send runaway boys home?"

This was the plaint that came from a feeble little voice of a small brown eyed lad, who stood before Chief Van Ry with hat in hand, fumbling with the buttons on his waist-coat.

Tears were streaming down his face as the benevolent chief patted him on the head, and asked him for his story.

Here's what the little lad said: "I had a paper route in Waukesha, Wis., and I earned $10. I wanted to see Milwaukee awfully bad, so I took a train to Milwaukee and when I got there I saw a big boat, called the 'City of Holland.'

"I wanted to ride on that nice big boat, so I got on, and was put off in a city they called Muskegon. I wanted to get out of Muskegon so I rode to Holland in an automobile, and slept in a livery barn when I got to Holland.

My $10 was all gone now and I was cold and hungry, and I had no coat, only a thin waist.

"Then I thought of my home and my mother, so please good Mr. Policeman, can't you send me home?"

Full of compassion, the chief enlisted the aid of Miss Nellie Churchford and between them they cleaned up the boy who was in rags, got him a coat, telegraphed the boy's mother, whose name was Mrs. Mat Roche, who was distracted because her little son was gone. She immediately wired the chief money for the boy's return.

Mr. Van Ry brought out a large tag, securely fastened it to the button hole of the boy's coat and shipped him to Muskegon, and now he is on his way to Milwaukee on the same boat that took him over here before.

His mother will be awaiting him with open arms at the dock. Upon leaving the little lad shook the Holland Chief by the hand and said, "Oh, Mr. Policeman, I'm so glad to go home."

Saturday, Sept. 20, an unusual demonstration is going to take place at the De Fouw Electrical Co. 8 East 8th St. At that time several washing machines will be put in operation for the edification of the housewives in Holland and vicinity. The demonstration is said to be rather unique and mighty interesting to the lady who still uses the washboard. Anyway the women are all invited to come Saturday.

GETZ HEADS FIFTY MILLION COAL FIRM

LOCAL MAN GOES TO NEW YORK AS MORGAN'S AID

Will Be In Charge of Huge Business Venture In Three Eastern Cities

A coal mining and distributing organization which eclipses anything ever attempted in any country in the world is now in process of formation in New York. The new concern will have a capitalization of $50,000,000. At its head will be one who is practically a citizen of Holland—George F. Getz, of Lakewood Farm.

Mr. Getz left for New York to arrange final details of the huge venture. He will be named president of the company.

It is expected that the new company will be chartered under the laws of Delaware and that the incorporation papers will be filed within a week. The financing will be done by a group of New York bankers headed by J. P. Morgan & Co.

As the company will be a holding concern, it is believed a large portion of its securities will be issued immediately to enable absorption of going companies. At the outset the company will confine its activities to New York, Boston and Philadelphia. Once established in these centers, it is expected to work west to Chicago. Its plans embrace coal mining as well as coal distribution, altho the main object will be to build up an organization for distribution.

When seen Mr. Getz admitted the $50,000,000 company was under way, but said it had not as yet reached a stage where details could be discussed.

"We have many plans, but haven't any of them in working order," he said. "We may go out and buy mines that are in operation, or we may decide to buy virgin land and develop our own plants. The same applies to the distributing end of the business. We may absorb going concerns, or we may start new companies."

"I am leaving for New York tomorrow and it is probable the whole thing will be worked out in such shape that a formal announcement can be made within a few days."

"As yet the capitalization has not been definitely fixed. It may be higher or lower than $50,000,000. Actual incorporation of the company is likely to take place within a week or so."

During the latter part of 1918 Mr. Getz was a major attached to the Red Cross and served as associate field director of that organization's general relief in Europe.

ANOTHER BIG BUILDING PROJECT FOR HOLLAND

AN $8,000 STORE HOUSE TO BE ERECTED BY CITIZENS TRANSFER CO.

The common council last evening granted the Citizens Transfer Co. the privilege of building an $8,000 store house back of their place of business on West Eighth street.

The building is to be built of concrete and steel and will be absolutely fireproof. The building is to be 30x80 feet two stories and will be used for storage purposes only.

A regular fee will be charged for storage of furniture and other valuables the same as is done in other cities larger than Holland.

The storage end is simply an added department connected with the transfer business of the Citizens Transfer Co. There has been a considerable demand for these accommodations in the past which will naturally grow as the city grows.

Peter Sluiter of Grand Haven went out on the river with the idea of bringing home a duck or two. At any rate he brought home a good ducking. According to the story Peter was making strenuous efforts to get a duck when his boat went over throwing him into the water. He was obliged to swim considerable distance in the cold water to get to safety.

GRAND HAVEN IS REVIVING TRAP SHOOTING

REMINDS CITIZENS OF THE TIMES WHEN HOLLAND HAD A CLUB

Trap-Shooting Tournaments Were Events in the Annual Sports

C. Beukema, with a number of fellow sportsmen held one of the best clay pigeon trap-shoots ever held in Grand Haven. The trapshooters intend to give the sportsmen an opportunity to take part in this week. The women who are interested in trap shooting will also be given a chance to come and either look on or to take part in the shooting.

Grand Haven has a number of good marksmen and judging from the amount of clay pigeons broken there will be little chance for birds in the marshes this fall. The men left the first shoot with a smile and were pleased with the practice they had in the renewed sport.

It is very likely that Grand Haven will soon have a trap-shooting club which can compete in the sport with the clubs in other cities. Trap shooting is real sport but for a number of years it has been rather neglected though there used to be some shooting among sportsmen a number of years ago.—Grand Haven Tribune.

This item from the Tribune will remind some of the old-timers of the time when Holland had one of the largest trap shooting clubs in the state, and its fame had gone forth through the nation.

Some of the trap shooters of this country came here to contest with the local boys.

The traps from which clay pigeons were thrown were located where the city base ball diamond now is.

Everything was built convenient and permanent, and on trap shooting day and especially when a tournament was held a large tent was erected under which to place ammunition, guns, and also containing a rest room and other conveniences.

Zealand too, at that time had an excellent club, and as in baseball, formerly, there also was a great deal of rivalry between the two shooting clubs.

Among the members of the Holland aggregation was C. J. De Roo of the Standard Roller Mill, J. W. Flieman, Al Finch, E. S. Gale, the late Charles H. Harmon, and his brother Henry, the Van Eyck Bros., Peter Dulyea, David Blom, and the late "Dad" Blom.

The Zealand club was headed by "Dad" Karsten, and the Kamps boys and a score of other hunters whose names we do not recollect at this time.

The shooting of clay pigeons did not need to be advertised, as Holland was soon aware that it was in progress when the banging of the guns began. In a short time half the town was out to see the free show which lasted until darkness prevented the gunners from seeing the birds.

On one or two occasions a live pigeon shoot was held. These were liberated from a cage but the scores on the live birds were not as creditable as those made on the clay variety.

The Holland rifle club has filled the gap of the trap-shoot club, altho the latter is more interesting from the standpoint of the spectators, as the marksmanship is very plainly discernable as the clay pigeons are seen to break in mid-air.

In the rifle shoot you see nothing but take the score-keepers' word for it.

INTERESTED IN FIVE ENTERPRISES ALL TOLD

ZEELAND MAN IS BECOMING PROMINENT IN BUSINESS CIRCLES

Evert J. Pruijm of Zealand is a hustler. After graduating from Hope College he went into the furniture business himself at Zealand, then associated himself with the De Free Hardware Co. of Zealand and Holland.

A few months ago he opened up a large music house in the H. De Kruijff building. He has been an undertaker of Zealand for a long time, having built up a very lucrative business.

Last week he bought out an undertaker in Hamilton, and has taken for a partner, Mrs. B. Voorhoort of that town, and these two partners will combine furniture and undertaking as an added enterprise.

Mr. Pruijm is also interested in the Van Ark Furniture store of this city.

Quite some enterprises for an enterprising young man.

HAMILTON

Mr. Q. Ter Haar, manager of the Drenthe-Hamilton Canning Co., and Mr. P. Voss, a leading farmer of this vicinity, in company with their wives, have made a ten days' trip to the Niagara Falls and other places of importance. They had their auto so rigged up that they could use same for traveling during the day as well as a hotel at night. The gentlemen fitted up an adjustable table that served as the best hotel dining table and the spread was of the best that money could buy. When time for retiring came they unrolled their hammocks and every one slept very sound until even they had to be awakened by the farmers that were near. They said that outdoor sleeping was fine. They camped in the farmers' yards. The farmers of Canada, New York and Pennsylvania were too glad to have the "Gypsy Campers" as they were called in their yards and often were offered free use of their homes. It is no doubt that the fortunes that they told were of the fascinating nature and they at once gained the good will of the people. The party speaks very highly of the trip and have good reports of that section of the country they passed through. The western part of New York state was rather attractive and great interest was taken in the large vineyards. In crossing the boundary line at Port Huron considerable time was lost as it was rather a hard problem for the party to show their "pass" to admit them to go on into Canada. Mr. Ter Haar explained matters very carefully they soon were satisfied to know that they were not "Gypsies" but of the good class of Americans, and were on their way taken care of by England's rule. They came back by way of Cleveland, Toledo and others of the leading places on their way. While in Cleveland they were most pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leatherbury who for many years has been in the canning business with Mr. Ter Haar. When the party arrived at Hamilton they had traveled nearly 1200 miles and they, nor their car, were any the worse for it. In all this drive they were delayed only once and that was for a "puncture." Of course they did not tell us the number of times they were held up by officers who were in question as to who they were and where they came from.

WOMAN SEVERELY INJURED AT THE FAIR

Mrs. Ter Haar of Drenthe was run down by the automobile of Simon Harkema of Laketown.

It is stated that Harkema had purchased a Dodge which he had never driven before and that that he had placed the clutch in neutral, had placed it in high.

The car dashed forward, bowling over Mrs. Ter Haar who was sitting down alongside of one of the fair streets, watching the passersby. The woman was quickly taken to Holland hospital where Dr. Poppen gave her medical attention. Altho considerably bruised, there were no bones broken.

PEA SHOOTERS AND SLING SHOTS ARE DANGEROUS IN GRAND HAVEN

There has been considerable complaint lately concerning the use of pea shooters and sling shots by the boys in Grand Haven. The weapons are used without regard to the danger of hitting people and one little girl was struck over the eye, and badly bruised. Parents are beginning to insist that the sling shot be put under the ban.

TOWING COMPANY CHANGES HANDS IN BIG TRANSFER

Negotiations were completed for the sale of the property of the Walsma & Van Toll Towing company to Harry Spillman of Detroit, president of the National Construction Co. The sale includes the steel tug Robert Johnston, scows, gravel beds on Grand River and shipyard property in Grand Haven. It is understood the purchaser will head a larger company which will develop the local business. The business was founded in 1892 by the fathers of the later owners and has been conducted for twenty years by Ralph Van Toll and John Walsma. Holland and Ottawa County have been purchasing a great deal of the gravel from this company.

HOLLAND MAN IS CONVICTED IN LIQUOR CASE

John Vander Heide of Holland was convicted in circuit court of the charge of violating the state prohibition law. This was the first case to be tried since the jury resumed work this week, and but a short time was required to introduce the state's evidence and get the case to the jury. The whole matter was completed in little more than a half a day.

Vander Heide was charged under the allegation of having imported a quantity of liquor from Chicago contrary to law. Vander Heide pleaded not guilty to the charge, and Visscher & Robinson defended him in the trial. Fred T. Miles, prosecuting attorney handled the case for the people.

The attorneys for Mr. Vander Heide have decided to appeal the case to the supreme court.

A Grand Haven liquor case was started in the matter of the people vs. Charles VanNorman, under the charge of violation of the prohibition law. The defendant is alleged by the complaint to have disposed of liquor to Muskegon parties. He denies guilt in the charge, and C. E. Misner is defending him in the suit.

Care was used in the selection of the jury and Grand Haven residents were excused from serving on the case. Prosecuting Attorney Miles, however, permitted jurors to remain who said upon examination that they were acquainted with the defendant. They stated however, that their acquaintance would have no bearing upon their verdict.

Wednesday afternoon the jury returned a verdict of guilty in the Van Norman liquor case.

HOLLAND FAIR RECEIVES UNEXPECTED FINANCIAL AID

Now surely the fair is a financial success. Secretary Arendshorst received by mail Saturday neatly packed in tissue paper a shiny 25¢ piece.

A young man from the rural districts, who even signed his name stated that he enjoyed the money because some years ago, when he was a little younger he walked into the gate behind another man and stated that he was under age and for that reason the Holland fair gate-keeper passed him in with his supposed parents, that weren't.

The young man states to Mr. John Arendshorst that it will relieve his mind if he pays this money and for that reason he takes the liberty of sending the price of one admission ticket at this time.

HOLLAND BOY CALLS BLUFF OF FAIR WRESTLER

One concession man at the Holland fair has become a sadder and wiser individual. He is a wrestler of some repute and looks it every inch.

In one of the shows he makes his bluff for a "dime, 10 cents," any man that holds me down over five minutes can earn a dollar a minute."

Several farm huskies tried, but the athlete bowled them over easily.

One of our former high school boys in the person of Frank Fabiano who has just returned from the front, thought he would try to give the wrestler a whirl.

Frank is considered some man on the mat, and no sooner had he gone in to try conclusions with the concession man, than the crowd noticed that Fabiano could show the man some tricks that he had never heard of before.

They wrestled along for five minutes, when Fabiano pinned his man to the mat with the hammer-lock, so that he could not budge from his position.

He could have held his opponent there indefinitely and could have bankrupted the man at a dollar a minute before very long.

The henchmen of the show however, saw disaster in sight and tried to call the fight off, but the crowd gleefully prevented this.

At last Fabiano let his man up, but the wrestler refused to settle until the crowd threatened to make a cleanup of the whole show bunch, whereupon the fair wrestler handed Fabiano a dollar which did not near compensate him for the minute he held the athlete to the mat.

Shortly afterward George Ver Hoef, a professional Holland wrestler also cleaned up on this traveling "Sandow" and he was also compelled to pay the second local man $1 for going over the limit.

OLD GRAAFSCHAP FIRM IS SOLD

The oldest established business in the village of Graafschap has now changed hands, and the proprietor will early in November relinquish the management after a continuous period of 36 years in the same place of business. Henry H. Tien has sold the well known general store of Tien & Rutgers to William Van Vliet of Lansing, Ill.

The store was organized many years ago by the late G. W. Mokma. Thirty-six years ago when Mr. Mokma became the cashier of the First State Bank in this city, the business was sold to Tien & Rutgers, and Mr. Tien has been in active charge ever since.

Mr. Tien has decided to become a resident of Holland and will move his family here soon after the transfer has been made.

NEW FIRM IS ORGANIZED HERE

Jas. Westenbroek and Bert Westenbroek have formed a partnership and will conduct a tinsmith business in Holland in the store building at 82 East 8th street. They have purchased the tinsmith business of the Wm. De Pree & Company of Zeeland and will move it to Holland.

James Westenbroek has been employed by the De Pree Company in Zeeland for eleven years and Bert Westenbroek has been employed by the Steel Autobow company and before that by various hardware concerns in Holland. The new firm will conduct a general tinsmith business and will also do furnace cleaning and repairing.

GRAND RAPIDS MAN ERECTING LARGE ALLEGAN CREAMERY

Work has begun on the new Overton creamery, which in point of floor space will be the largest creamery in southwestern Michigan. The building is being erected by J. B. Top of Grand Rapids. The creamery will be constructed of reinforced concrete, will be 60x120 feet, and will be two stories high.

TWO CHURCHES IN ZEELAND MAY UNITE

A controversy about Americanization in one of the Christian Reformed churches of Zeeland may result in the amalgamation of two churches in that city according to some of those who are interested in having the American elements in that city united in one church organization. At present there are three Christian Reformed churches in Zeeland, in two of which the Holland language is used and in the third the English.

Some months ago the North St. Christian Reformed church held a popular election on the question of holding some of the services in English. The majority was slightly in favor of the change, although the consistory stood five to five, half of the members being in favor of continuing the old system while the other half were in favor of adopting the English language for some services.

The change was not made in spite of the majority vote of the members, some legal questions having entered in to stop the execution of the wishes of the majority of the congregation. Another election is however to be held in the near future when the matter will be definitely decided.

Meanwhile, however, a plan has been suggested whereby the English speaking church of Zeeland of the Christian Reformed denomination would amalgamate with the North St. church, making that congregation entirely English. That would give Zeeland two Christian Reformed churches, one using the English language exclusively and one the Dutch language exclusively.

The fact that the pastor of the North Street Church, Rev. John Geerlings, Sunday announced that he would leave that congregation to accept a call to East Saugatuck, has given new impetus to the plan. The North street church is now without a pastor while the English church has a pastor, but not an adequate church building. By amalgamating the two congregations, both would be served, it is pointed out by the proponents of the plan. Rev. D. R. Drukker, formerly of Holland, is pastor of the English speaking church.

IS SAUGATUCK TO BE MENACED BY RACE PROBLEM?

To the city of Holland with only a single negro within its borders it seems somewhat curious that there appears to be race trouble ahead for a town only a few miles from here, namely at Saugatuck. A woman signing herself Mrs. Burdella Buge, contributes to this week's issue of the Saugatuck Commercial-Record an article in which she warns strongly against allowing the blacks to get a foothold in Saugatuck. One paragraph of the communication reads:

"Do not be asleep. Let the good citizens of Saugatuck and Douglas go in a body to those employing the negroes as cooks, etc., and request that they replace them with white help. Backlist any real estate dealer who sells them property or any merchant selling them provisions. Let some of the prominent men go to the black, who I understand, have purchased summer homes, and offer to buy their places, and let them know that life will be made uncomfortable for them if they refuse to sell. There are many rich colored people, and where one family settles others will go until there is a colony, and you will awake some morning to find a black family living next door to your beautiful home. Right there you will discover, too late, that so surely as oil and water will not mix, so black and white will not mix. I expect to purchase a home in Saugatuck, and I shall fight this black menace mentally and physically, and I am sure the best citizens of Saugatuck and Douglas will assist me."

Commenting in an editorial on the communication, the editor says, among other things:

"We doubt the effectiveness of the remedies proposed by Mrs. Buge in a letter in this issue. The same commercialism which in seeking cheap labor brought hordes of Chinese to America and is now bringing hordes of negroes from the plantations of the south to the factories of the north. It required drastic and continuous action by the national government to even check the Chinese invasion and anything less would hardly deal effectively with the black menace. The best that individual communities could hope to achieve would be to purchase temporary immunity."

The American Legion at Grand Haven has swung into action at the first meeting since the summer recess. There was a good attendance at the army, and a number of new members were accepted. The membership of Conklin Post now number well over the hundred mark, and plans are under way for a vigorous membership campaign which is expected to bring in the majority of the 300 or 400 veterans of the late war into the organization. The membership campaign is to be conducted on the personal solicitation plan.

PARTNER OF MAYOR BOSCH DIES SUDDENLY

One of Holland's prominent manufacturers died suddenly Wednesday night at 15 minutes after 12 o'clock when John Boda passed away at his home at 240 West Ninth St. Mr. Boda had been ill only a few minutes. When his wife noticed his condition, she hastened to call her daughter asleep in an adjoining room, but before the daughter could reach her father's bedside he was dead. The cause of death was neuralgia of the heart.

Mr. Boda came to Holland in 1901. He has for 24 years been the business partner of Mayor N. Bosch and this week the two were entering upon the 25th year of their business association. The two men founded and conducted the concern that is now the Valley City Machine Works, at present owned and operated by Mayor Gallmeyer of Grand Rapids. In 1901 they came to Holland and founded the Western Machine Tool Works, which they have conducted here ever since.

Mr. Boda was vice-president of the company and was actively engaged in the manufacturing end of the business. In this capacity he helped to make the Western Machine Tool Works one of the successful manufacturing institutions of Holland.

Mr. Boda had been enjoying his usual good health and there had been nothing to indicate that there was anything wrong until a few minutes before his death.

The deceased is survived by his wife and four daughters: Miss Cora Boda at home; Mrs. John Koopman, Mrs. George Kardux, Holland, and Mrs. John Yonker, Grand Rapids. He was 63 years old. The funeral public and was held last Saturday at 2 o'clock from the home.

LOCAL RESORT WILL ALSO HAVE BIG PAVILION

Plans are now being made for a $30,000 dance hall and moving picture theater to be built directly south of the Mary Jane Inn in the open space just west of Jenison Park.

Mr. Himebaugh of the Strand has been figuring on this project for some time, especially after it has been seen what a land office business the big pavilion at Saugatuck has been doing.

With the opening of the pike with concrete roads all leading to Holland and its resorts, it can be readily seen that an enterprise of this kind can be made to pay more and more each year.

The Saugatuck Pavilion was a white elephant financially at one time, but even isolated the way Saugatuck is, connected up with poor roads up to a few days ago, still all summer this popular resort has been the mecca of sight-seers and those who love dancing with good music.

As high as 2,500 dancers have been on the floor at one time, and the enterprise has become a bonanza financially.

Mr. Himebaugh states that the pavilion will be of the Bunaglow type and only the best of music will be given. The lighting effect will be the last word in electrical display, and it is said that the pavilion is going to stack up well with any in Michigan.

The pavilion being centrally located in the heart of the resort district with all roads leading to it, with half hour interurban service, with the Chicago boats landing right at its doors, it seems that this project should prove a success if the best of everything is offered by the management.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR TEMPERANCE RALLY HERE

Urging strict enforcement of the state-wide, war time and constitutional prohibition and presenting arguments for world-wide drouth, Mal R. Patterson of Memphis, Tenn., a former governor of his state, will speak in the Third Reformed church of Holland Sunday evening, September 21, at 8 o'clock. His address will be made under the joint direction of the Anti-saloon League of Michigan and the Anti-Saloon League of America.

This address is one of the many which he is making in Michigan. His tour began at Niles September 7, and will conclude at Union City on September 30. Two other League speakers also in the state are Joseph G. Camp of Atlanta and Dr. W. G. McAlister of Nashville.

Former Governor Patterson will tell his audience about the recent organization, the purposes and the activities of the World League Against Alcoholism and how the effort of the dries will be not only to make prohibition in the United States a success through enforcement and through the election of proper officials, but also working with temperance organizations in all lands to bring about prohibition throughout the earth.

Peter Notier will be locally in charge of the meeting. Mr. Patterson will reach Holland from South Haven where he is scheduled to speak Friday evening. He will go from Holland to Zeeland for a meeting Monday evening.

Mr. Patterson not only was governor of his state but also was U. S. Senator from Tennessee, succeeding his father in that position. He is one of the best known of southern orators and politicians and formerly was against prohibition.

TO CUT OUT AN HOUR AFTERNOONS

Miss Emily L. Langenberg, manager of the Postal Telegraph office in Holland, announced that a change in hours has taken place in the office. Before this the hours were 8 to 12 forenoons, one to six afternoons and seven to eight evenings. After this the hours will be eight to twelve forenoons, one to three afternoons; then four to six afternoons and seven to eight evenings. The Sunday hours will be nine to ten forenoons and five to six afternoons.

The only change, it will be noted is, that the office will be closed from three to four in the afternoon. This was made necessary because Miss Langenberg conducts the office alone and in order to come within the nine hours a day law it was necessary to cut out one hour a day.

Edward Sisson of Ganges sustained a fracture of his arm in a fall from an apple tree.

Ray Gilbert of El Paso, Texas, is visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Garrod and Mrs. J. C. Post.

PURITAN TO AGAIN RUN ON LAKE MICHIGAN

The steamer Puritan, formerly of the Graham Morton line, is to sail Lake Michigan again. Bought during the war by the government, the Puritan is to come back to the Great Lakes and re-enter the passenger and freight business.

The Chicago, Racine & Milwaukee line, a subsidiary of the Northern Transportation company, has purchased the Puritan from the government. She will be brought back from the Atlantic seaboard shortly and by next year will be in shape to go on the Chicago-Wisconsin run.

The Puritan sold for $287,000.00, but it is said that she has been purchased from the government for over $100,000 less than this amount. After Uncle Sam took her over from the G. & M. line she was cut in two and taken around the lakes and thru the Soo Locks to the Atlantic. At Boston her upper cabins were removed and she was considerably altered for coastwise runs. She has been used very little by the government.

The Puritan was the flagship of the G. & M. line for many years. The late Capt. Boswell was her first commander. She was usually the first out in the spring and the last to lay up at the close of navigation. During the war, when the government needed ships badly, the Puritan was selected because of her general seaworthiness.

Recently it was reported that Mr. Wrigley, the Spearmint man purchased the Puritan and that she was to be taken to the Pacific coast and would run between the mainland and Catalina island, which is owned by Wrigley.

HOLLAND FAIR HAD TWO BIG AIRPLANES THURSDAY

There were two airplanes at the fair Thursday, taking up passengers at a dollar a minute.

The aviators had to discontinue flying, however, after having taken up about ten passengers.

The fair authorities had cleared the aviation field in the morning, and stood guard in order that the people might not cross over and be in the way of the flying men.

When the races started however, and when the flyers began to bid for passengers a stream of people cut across near the racing stables with the result that more than a thousand had gotten across before the tide could be turned.

No amount of deputies could drive them out as they were constantly in the way of the airplanes, trying to find out how these machines worked, and the air men refused to fly again for fear that some one would get killed, and they be held responsible for any accidents of this nature.

One plane from the Detroit aviation company did several stunts over the city and the fair grounds, turning circles, looping the loop, and doing several up-to-date aviators' stunts.

This plane left for Detroit with a passenger at 5 o'clock.

The Rosenswift Airplane Co. of Grand Rapids had its plane flying most of the day with "Fish" Hassel at the helm.

The plane returned to Grand Rapids late Thursday afternoon.

LOCAL RETIRED PASTOR DIES IN THE HOSPITAL

Rev. Berend Mollma, aged nearly 76 years, died Wednesday at Butterworth Hospital, Grand Rapids, where he had submitted to an operation a short time ago. The funeral was held from the home 194 West 17th street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. M. Flipse of this city and Rev. M. A. Stegeman, Cleveland, officiate. Interment will take place Ohio officiated. Interment took place in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Rev. Bernard Mollma was born the 3rd day of October, 1842, at Neizijl, Province Groningen, the Netherlands. He came to America at the age of 22 in company with the Rev. Roelof Duiker. For some years he followed the occupation of a blacksmith at Grand Rapids. At the age of 25 he took a course in Theology under the tutor Rev. D. J. Van der Werp of the Christian Reformed denomination. For 20 years he has served churches of that denomination as follows: Steamboat Rock (now Wellsburg) Ia.; Lansing, Ill.; Lafayette, Ind. After this he served during 18 years the following churches of the Reformed church in America: Platte, S. D.; Ringle, Wis.; and his last years as minister-emeritus he spent at his home in Holland, Michigan.

In 1872 he married Miss Jennine Hartger of Graafschap, Mich., from which union three children survive him; a daughter, Mrs. Sall Versteeg of Harrison, S. D.; a son, Henry pastor of the Reformed church at Spring Lake, Mich.; and another daughter, Mrs. C. Vanderboom of Platte, S. D.

His first wife having died in 1887, he married for the second time in June, 1894, to Mrs. Tryntje Groenvelt of Harrison, S. D., who, with her three married children, a son, Wm. Groenvelt and a daughter, Mrs. Y. Postma, both of Chicago, and another daughter Mrs. Peter Klaver of Holland, survive him.

Mrs. Fred Steketeer returned home Tuesday after spending a week in Holland Hospital.

ADVERSITY NEVER COMES TO ONE SINGLE HANDED

Adversity it seems does not always come single-handed. It seems that when a calamity strikes it brings with it a pack of trouble and sorrow. This may be said of John Toren well known as the bowling alley man of Holland and Jenison.

A few weeks ago the cottage of Mr. Toren burned at Jenison Park together with the grocery standing along side. It has proved a severe financial loss to Mr. Toren.

A week later his estimable wife passed away bringing irreparable sorrow to the local man.

Now at the close of the season Mr. Toren's store at Jenison Park, next to the bowling alley has been robbed of nearly everything it contained, among which was a large quantity of cigars, tobaccos, sweets, and perfumes. The loss will foot up to several hundred dollars, if replaced at this time.

The stand was broken into in the night from the front, one of the shutters being pried off.

Deputy Sheriffs Homkes and Bowman were notified and they were tracing some clues at the Holland fair grounds Friday.

What these clues will lead to is hard to determine, but the local deputies have their suspicions.

In Mr. Toren's case surely trouble has been gathering thick and fast within the past few weeks.

GERMAN PRISONER BECOMES A PROMINENT SOLDIER

Leonard Kammeraad, a Holland boy, and son of Drain Commissioner B. Kammeraad, has had rather an eventful life as a soldier in Uncle Sam's army.

Having been in the thick of the fighting, he was taken prisoner in one engagement, and saw all the horrors of German prison camp life.

He was released after the armistice was signed, and for some time aided in the army of occupation in Germany.

Later General Pershing took the pick of his men and formed them into a regiment, that made a tour of France and Italy. Nothing but the best soldiers were selected and Kammeraad was one of them.

When General Pershing returned from overseas receiving his ovation in New York, Leonard Kammeraad was on the same ship, and when Pershing led a regiment down 5th Avenue, Mr. Kammeraad was one of the soldiers in the regiment.

Mr. Kammeraad is now at Camp Mills, and wires his parents that he expects to be home some time in October.

When General Pershing comes to Chicago, his regiment will also be there, and the local boy will march in back of his general with his fellow soldiers.

HIGH SCHOOL EXPECTS BIG YEAR IN ATHLETICS

The season tickets for all the athletic games of the High school were placed on sale Monday. The Athletic Association is looking forward to one of the greatest years in the history of the school. Never has such enthusiasm, such spirit and pep been displayed at the opening of the year. Every student is a booster, filled with that same spirit which enabled the local school to carry off so many honors in athletics. The prospects for winning teams in every sport are better than ever before. Football is booming. The school is looking forward to having a championship team.

The spirit displayed by the fifty or more candidates shows the determination of each one to win a place on the team. Under the direction and coaching of Physical Director Horne, the candidates are conditioning themselves and are fast rounding into shape. They are full of enthusiasm and prance around for scrimmages every evening with so much pep, they can hardly be held in.

Four teams are working on the field and never has the rivalry been so keen. The second team with all its material has great promise in developing into a worthy opponent for any second team in the state.

All are looking forward to the first game of the schedule and the candidates are more than anxious to show what a wonderful fighting machine has been perfected.

LOCALS

With the first peep of day-light Tuesday morning the rattle of guns was plainly heard. The hunters were busy on the river and in the marshes taking a crack at the ducks. Season opened Tuesday morning.

Rev. John H. Geerlings, for the past three and a half years pastor of the North Street Christian Reformed church in Zeeland, announced to his congregation Sunday that he had accepted the call extended to him by the Christian Reformed church of East Saugatuck. Rev. Geerlings follows Rev. Lamberts in this pastorate.

Former County Clerk Fred McEachron, now a banker in Hudsonville, will also run the hotel there having purchased it from Seth Coburn, a former school teacher.

Rev. John Stenuenberg of Overisel has for the second time declined a call to the Fourth Reformed church. His decision was announced Sunday.

Frank Marsh, conductor of the Interurban, who has been taking a three weeks' vacation, has again resumed his position, returning from Lansing Saturday.

The Reformed church progress campaign, which has for its financial objective the raising of $5,500,000 cover the necessary expenditure to place the work of each board on a thoroughly efficient basis, has been launched in the churches in synod of Chicago, the Western branch of the denomination, by Rev. S. Vanderwerp, field secretary of the board of domestic missions, and Rev. W. J. Van Kersen of Holland, western district representative of the board of foreign missions, it was announced at their headquarters in this city. The campaign will be inaugurated with a grand rally for all the forces of the church on Saturday, Sept. 28.

Peppermint growers near Fennville are a happy lot this season when they reflect upon the experiences of the past few seasons. Last winter when one grower recovered from an attack of influenza he went to the barn to find his team of horses dead, and he was entirely without money. Not all were so unfortunate as this man, but the lot of any was far from being cheerful. This season the yield of oil has been good, one grower having 752 pounds, another 950, another 1050, and still another 1,100 pounds all of which was sold for $6.60 per pound. The amount received for the product has enabled these men to pay their indebtedness and leave a substantial sum for each in the bank.

A peculiar tree malady has hit a row of trees in front of the John Robinson hospital at Allegan. These trees have been attacked by insects which have literally girdled about two thirds of them. This is the second year of the planting of the trees and they had begun to make a promising showing under the careful nursing of Mr. Robinson, who had kept them well watered during the dry weather. It seems quite likely that most of the affected trees will die. In appearance the work of the insects resembles that of a small boy with a knife and a disposition to cussedness.

The steamer United States which formerly ran between Saugatuck and Chicago, was recently reported aground near New Bedford, Mass. LOCAL PASTOR ASSIGNED TO GRAND RAPIDS

It was definitely established at the Michigan Methodist Conference in Lansing Tuesday that Rev. J. F. Bowerman will not return to the local pulpit. Unofficially it was known that Mr. Bowerman would not return here and he preached his farewell sermon a week or so ago. Mr. Bowerman has been assigned to the pulpit of the Burton Heights M. E. church of Grand Rapids. His place in Holland will be filled by Rev. G. B. Flemming.

He was always ready to do his share no matter to what task he was assigned, and he was a leader in many movements, especially in Red Cross work. Announcement

A new kind of Bread to be made by J. Vanderschel & Son's Bakery.

We have been experimenting on a new and better loaf of bread, and now we believe we have succeeded in turning out the best that money can buy.

This bread will be sold under the trade mark of "Blue Ribbon Bread"—this is our own trade mark, and is not got up by some advertising company with whom we would necessarily have to share profits. Therefore we can put the best quality into the bread.

We have been very fortunate in buying a good supply of the best old wheat flour obtainable. Many of the largest bakeries in the state are already using flour of the new crop which everyone knows is very poor. We have enough old flour bought to last until the latter part of November, and by that time the new crop will have aged enough to insure good bread.

We would kindly ask, especially those who now buy bread coming in from other cities to give this "Blue Ribbon Bread" a trial. For sale at all groceries.

The weekly bake-day is disappearing from the household calendar in American cities and towns.

This relief has come to the house wife because progressive bakers everywhere are producing bread of home-baked quality and food value—fresh every day.

From a small beginning and within comparatively few years, bread-baking has become one of the ten leading industries of the United States.

The baker today has a thorough knowledge of bread materials and of fermentation. He uses pure, high grade flour, pure compressed yeast and good, sweet, wholesome shortening. His improved methods insure the utmost cleanliness and produce a loaf that is uniform, nutritious, palatable, healthful and economical.

The progressive baker is performing real service appreciated by the American housewife. The constantly increasing popularity of bakers' bread is his reward.

"65 Delicious Dishes Made With Bread is a delightful little book which will help to extend and vary the family menu. It is to be had free from your baker or grocer."

HOLLAND DAY A BIG SUCCESS AT THE FAIR

The Holland fair opened Wednesday under not very favorable conditions. There was a lowering sky and a drizzling rain a greater part of the day and the directors of the fair were anything but happy when they saw what the weatherman had handed out to them for the day.

As one director expressed it, "we could have held the Holland fair at any time since May 1st, and not struck a rainy day, but the very first day of the fair it rained."

But notwithstanding the bad condition of the weather, Holland was loyal to its fair.

A great many went on Thursday but Wednesday this city showed by attending, that it believes in upholding local institutions.

Last year the attendance was practically nil because of a hard downpour of rain lasting nearly the entire day. Wednesday's rain however did not hold the people back for the reason that 2,451 adults attended, 1,085 children paid, and 153 vehicles entered the fair.

The grandstand too was packed to capacity, 417 paying to get a seat.

The Kilties band made a hit at the fair, and their playing was worth the price of admission alone. An improvised bandstand was erected in front of the grandstand, and the men in Scottish costumes gave a continuous program practically the entire day. It can be summed up in a few words, that Holland has never had such a musical organization in its city before, and people seem to be more taken up with the music of the band than they were with the races.

All the attractions are up to the standard at the fair, except possibly live stock. Getz's hall was used for fruit, vegetables and also had a department showing work done by the pupils of the local high school in the way of drawing, domestic science and domestic art.

The different farmers' clubs of Ottawa and Allegan counties are also taking a special interest in this fair. The North Side farmers club, the Harlem farmers' club, the Forest Grove farmers' club and the North Laketown farmers club had respectively, large displays of fruits and vegetables, all neatly displayed.

Many private exhibitors were also represented in the Getz building. In another section of the building, county agent, D. L. Hagerman, conducts a farm chautauqua, where lectures are given on things incident to conducting a well regulated farm.

The poultry house was filled to the doors and the birds were judged by Mr. Knapp of Grand Rapids. The poultry department was surely well worth seeing.

A new departure that has not been common at the Holland fair is the rabbit show held under the auspices of the Ottawa County Breeders' and Fanciers' association. There are bunnies of all kinds, shapes, hues and sizes, 125 entries having been made in this department. It is a wonderful exhibit, and presents something new at the fair.

Two exhibits are at least creating special interest. These are a pair of natural grey Flemish Giants entered by Merias & Green of Grand Rapids.

These rabbits weigh 16 pounds each, and cost $300, a feast for the king.

The rabbits have been judged by a rabbit expert, Mr. Merias of Grand Rapids.

Another curious rabbit has been entered by W. H. Beach of Holland, called an Angora. The wool taken from a rabbit of this kind is said to be worth $4 a pound.

Mr. Merias, the judge stated that the rabbit is coming into its own, not alone for food, but for fur and soon the Angora raising will be as popular as sheep raising for the fine quality of wool that it bears.

Mr. A. De Ridder superintendent also shows how rabbits are dressed for food, which is very interesting.

Mr. George Van Landegend and Mr. Ludwig of the Holland Breeders and fanciers association are also constantly on the job.

The art hall is again well filled with the exhibits of merchants, a large display of war trophies and elegant display of paintings, fancywork and domestic science, and many other things worth seeing. Nearly every garage in the city too, is represented.

The merchants who are represented are as follows, Holland Furnace Co., Scott-Lugers Lumber Co., The Steel-clad Auto Bow Co., J. Ver Hage Milling Co. of Zeeland, De Vries & Dornbos Music House, Meyers Music House, Home Furnace Co., Van Ark Furniture Co., Du Mez Bros., John J. Rutgers Clothing Co., Harrington Coal Co., Lokker-Rutgers Co., Cook Bros. Music Co., The Hayden-Kardux Auto Co., Holleman-DeWeerd Auto Co., Peoples Garage, Venhuizen Auto Co., Holland Auto & Specialty Co., Oldsmobile; George Huizinga, Jewelry, P. S. Botter & Co. Clothing and Shoes, J. A. Brouwer, furniture, G. Cook & Co., flour and feed, Citizens Telephone Co., Henry Kraker, plumber, Ben Van Raalte and his humidifier, Van Tongeren Cigar Co., Holland Lumber & Supply Co., Holland Engine Co.

Although the attendance Thursday in some respects was a trifle lower than last year, the attendance on Holland day was several thousand higher.

The paid admissions at the gate Thursday were as follows: Adults, 5,985 Children, 1,237 Vehicles, 1,079

Grandstand receipts are way ahead of other years, 930 paying to get a seat or standing room.

Thus far the local receipts for the two days are: Adults, 8,436 Children, 2,322 Vehicles, 1,232 Grandstand, 1,347

The Holland fair is ahead financially on its adult tickets $843.60 for the reason that adults paid 50 instead of 40 cents.

Holland stuck loyally by the fair as it is safe to estimate that at least one half of its population entered the gates in the two days.

The fair also received a liberal amount of concession money from show and stand privileges which will add materially to the sum total.

The fair strong box will also receive substantial revenues from the show that has been put on for the three nights at the Knickerbocker theater.

NEARLY 12,000 PEOPLE ATTEND THE HOLLAND FAIR

Notwithstanding the fact that Friday's fair attendance was light, which has generally been the case in the past, the total attendance for the fair in the three days was 11,400.

It is estimated that including the concession men those persons having entries, and other people having business there, more than 12,000 passed through the gates to see the Holland exhibit.

Friday's attendance was adults 496, children 146, vehicles 95, grandstand receipts 148.

The grandstand receipts for Wednesday and Thursday were way above the average, and for Friday about holds it own with other years.

The Knickerbocker was again filled to the doors last evening with standing room at a premium.

Kilties Band responded to encore after encore and the whole show was appreciated by the vast audience.

The patrons were in high spirits last night and cried their approval after every number was given.

The special attraction men all wanted to come back next year because they said they are stuck on the town and stuck on the fair and they like the Holland people.

The Knickerbocker did a land office business during the three days of the fair, 2,559 admission tickets being sold, and $767.57 in cash was taken in at the ticket window, and it is estimated that after all expenses are paid, even including the $166.67 exacted by the United States government for a year's license to run a theater, when only 3 nights were required, even then the net profits for the benefit of the Holland fair will be over $300.

Efforts will be made to have the government return this money and if this is the case the local organization will be benefited to the extent of $500 because of this show.

People Friday evening were loud in their requests to keep the Knickerbocker open in the future.

Kilties band members and the other actors were loud in their praise of the opera house. They say that the acoustics of this little playhouse are wonderful and that it is really a shame for a property of this kind to go to waste, when people are simply craving to see a good clean show.

The opera house is practically in perfect condition, $50 in paint and painters and a little fixing here and there would make it as good as new.

The actors were also surprised at the size of the stage, which they say is as large as those in the theaters in the big cities.

Judging from the talk they seemed unusually surprised that Holland with a population of 14,000, surrounded with smaller cities, a good farming country, and several big resorts to draw from does not support an enterprise of that kind, and they claim that under the right management it could not help but succeed.

Relative to the Holland fair however it is safe to say, that this year's business has placed it on a more solid financial basis, and the directors of the fair wish to thank the citizens of Holland and vicinity for their very loyal support.

Two racing events took place at the fair grounds Wednesday, half mile heats prevailing.

In the first event, Sam Axworthy, driven by John Boone and owned by J. Scamper, of Holland won three straight heats.

In the second event Rosewood, owned and driven by W. J. Kuite of Holland, won the best three out of four heats.

The summary of the events follows:

That it pays to give attention to fruit was proved by Mr. M. Bohl of the North Side who captured six premiums at the fair on 7 varieties of fruits shown. Mr. Bohl is one of the most careful orchardists in this section and his work is shown in results. The following are the premiums he carried off: Pippins, 1st; russets, 2nd; snows, 1st; talmam second; hubbarston 1st; Flemish beauty pears 2nd. Mr. Bohl is exhibiting specimens of his fruit in the window of the Vaupell store and Thursday he placed the premium cards with each specimen in the window. Mr. Bohl has been a regular exhibitor at the fair here since last year. He has been going in for fairs elsewhere since 1865.

An exhibit that attracted a great deal of attention at the Holland fair was a Persian cat, owned by 12-year-old Lila Fitzpatrick, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George George Fitzpatrick, 174 E. Fifth St. Fitzpatrick's cat has won the blue ribbon and its owner is one of the proudest girls in Holland. She goes to the fair grounds every morning to groom the cat for the day and takes a great deal of pride in making him an object for the admiration of the crowd.

A Health Lesson from Nature

Nature is perfection, and works in many peculiar ways to attain it. Unless stopped by accidental conditions it does attain a high standard of perfection. In man this means Health.

What causes disease? It must be an interference. Sever the roots of a tree and it will slowly starve and die because the sap is cut off. Man's life force may be likened to the sap of the tree. If the nerve cables are pinched where they branch off from the backbone, due to one of the spinal bones slipping out of place, the life power is shut off and disease sets in, in those organs that should be fed by the nerves. The pressure on the nerves can be corrected and healthy conditions restored by

TWO SAUGATUCK CHURCHES JOIN FORCES IN ONE

Following the plan of many other communities the Methodist and Congregational churches of Saugatuck have joined forces and will exist hereafter as one church as shown by the following resolutions adopted at a representative mass meeting held by the trustees of both churches and held at the Congregational church:

"Whereas, There exists on the part of many members of both the First Methodist Episcopal and the First Congregational churches of Saugatuck a desire for unity of the Christian activity as members of one body; and

"Whereas, There exists on the part of the public, a like desire; and

"Whereas, There exists a willingness on the part of many to make concessions and compromises in order to secure a mutual ground upon which all may unite; therefore be it

Resolved: First, That a Presbyterian church be organized, to be known as the First Presbyterian Church of Saugatuck, and that a committee of ten, consisting of five members from each of the two churches, be elected, with full power to affect such organization; this committee to elect its own chairman, secretary and treasurer.

Second, That all members of both churches who so desire shall be made charter members of the newly organized Presbyterian church, and that letters of dismissal be given to any others who so desire.

Third, That all real and personal property of whatever nature, belonging to either the First Methodist Episcopal church or the First Congregational church shall be turned over to the newly organized Presbyterian church, to be owned by it; the Presbyterian church also to assume all indebtedness or incumbrances now held against any such real estate.

Fourth, That upon completion of the new organization and transfer of membership and property each of two churches, the First Methodist Episcopal and the First Congregational, shall give up its charter and become legally dissolved.

Some weeks will be required to complete the new organization. In the meantime union services and Sunday school will be held in the Congregational church. In the absence of any other minister Rev. G. B. Millar has offered to preach until a permanent pastor is engaged.

RETURN BOTTLES, MILK PRICES WILL DROP, IS ADVICE TO MUSKEGON

Muskegon, Sept. 15—Dr. Elvin Smith, city milk inspector, has issued a statement stating that it is the consumer's fault that milk prices are so high and that if every bottle was returned to the dealers milk could be sold for 8 to 10c a quart in Muskegon.

Mr. Smith says one dealer whose books he examined recently showed a loss of $2,500 in bottles last year, and he estimates that the total loss due to the failure to return milk bottles to the owners was over $10,000 last year.

Does it not seem that the most equitable way to deal with this problem would be to charge patrons with the bottles until these are returned, in this way the faithful would not be paying the high milk prices because the negligent failed to return the bottles. Simple and fair remedy it seems.

MAN FOUND GUILTY OF SHOOTING BOYS

Friends of Henry Muller of Crocker, who was last week found guilty of shooting and wounding two boys found stealing in his melon patch, will not let the case rest there. They in turn have sworn out a complaint against the boys for "cooning."

Muller apparently had some friends in Crocker township who believed the action should not be one-sided. A complaint has been made in Justice Wachs court in Grand Haven charging three boys, Leon Porter, Sherman Krause the two who were wounded by Muller, with trespassing in the garden of Henry Muller. The warrant was served Saturday, and the boys were expected to appear in court during the afternoon.

Mr. Muller did not appear in the latest case, the complaint having been made by four men, A. L. Lawrence, J. B. Craven, H. D. Cooper, and L. Vervey. Signers of the complaint against the boys are said to represent the community in which Muller resides, in an action against the practice of cooning fruit and produce which has been going on it is said.

After the shooting it was found that one of the boys was hit in the foot and arm and the other was hit through the hand. The case started in court and when the state had closed the defendant agreed to enter a plea of simple assault provided the more serious charges were dropped.

22 RELATIVES BRING SUIT AGAINST WOMAN

Perhaps the case attracting the most attention at the present term of circuit court is that of James Mouterstock, et al. vs. Clara Johnson. That "et al" sure stands for something in this case, and it is believed that if just the relatives of the parties concerned attend the trial Judge O. S. Cross will have to hold court in the open.

The fact is that 22 relatives of Edward Mauterstock, deceased, are suing Clara Johnson, a niece of the dead man, in an effort to break a will which they say was made while Edward Mauterstock was not in his right mind.

BIG STEAMER IS AGAIN AT SAUGATUCK

The steamer North American arrived at Saugatuck this week to go into winter quarters. Capt. Nutting who was second mate at the start of the season, is in command, Capt. Taylor being master of the South American, which is now in dry dock at South Chicago. The fact that a boat the size of the North American can come up the river with no trouble whatever should set at rest all stories, circulated by interests adverse to Saugatuck, that the harbor is an unsafe one for ordinary craft to negotiate. Other ports have been anxious to provide winter quarters for these boats, and have sent out "pussy-foot" delegations to urge their advantages and incidentally to disparage Saugatuck Harbor.

NOTED MEN ARE SECURED FOR INSTITUTE

County School Commissioner N. R. Stanton announced Monday that arrangements have been made for two county teachers' institutes in October, one to be held in Holland and one in Grand Haven. The date of the Holland meeting is October 7, and of the one to be held in Grand Haven is October 8.

Superintendent C. H. Griffey, of the public school of Adrian, has been secured as conductor of the institute both in Holland and Grand Haven, and the instructors assigned to this county are Dr. E. G. Steiner of Iowa College, Grinnell, Iowa, and President H. M. Crooks, president of Alma College.

All three men assigned to Ottawa county are leaders in their profession and it is believed that the institutes in this county will be very interesting.

County Commissioner Stanton is busy making the local arrangements now for the big gatherings. The one in Holland will probably be held in the high school as usual and on that day the teachers in the southern half of the county will be given a day off and will be expected to come here to take part in the institute. The same plan will be followed for the north half of the county the next day when the institute is being held in Grand Haven.

County Teachers' Institutes have become extremely popular in Ottawa county. They are usually well attended by teachers who find in them practical helps for their work during the coming school year.

School Commissioner Stanton has been unusually successful in securing big men for these school gatherings. During the past four or five years some of the best known educators in America have appeared in Holland and Grand Haven as speakers in these county gatherings.

THREE DEALERS ARRESTED FOR DOCTORING MILK

Charged with putting formaldehyde in the milk they sold to keep it from souring, three milk dealers of Muskegon pleaded guilty in court when arrested on the charges preferred against them. The three dairymen were Olaf and Gus Johnson of Muskegon Heights. Bottles of the milk suspected of being treated with the "embalming fluid", were kept at the offices of Mr. E. Smith city milk inspectors, a week before it soured. Dr. Smith appeared against the dairymen.

The letter was written by Jonkheer A. VanderStar, who is the private secretary to the Queen of the Netherlands.

COLLEGE OPENS WITH MANY NEW STUDENTS

Hope College opened its year's work with public exercises in Winants chapel Wednesday morning. A large number of students were gathered there as well as many town people.

The Freshman class this year numbers approximately one hundred members, while the Senior class will be about the largest in the history of the school. The general enrollment this year, both in the preparatory and college departments will surpass that of other years—one of the largest in the history of the school.

Dr. E. D. Dimment opened the exercises Wednesday morning with an address of welcome to the new students and the old.

Rev. Peter Moerdyke, Hope '66 offered prayer. Immediately following this Dr. Henry E. Dosker Hope '76, delivered the address of the day. Dr. Dosker's talk was stirring and inspirational throughout. During the course of his address he told of his experiences while a student at Hope College. In those days the equipment was not efficient and the buildings not as adequate as those of today. The outlook and prospects for the students of today are more brilliant than those of his day.

"We are living," he said, "in a time when everybody trembles with anxiety about the crisis that is facing the world. Every one feels it and it is for the work of the world, for crises like the present that a college must help to equip the student. It is in college that he receives the training to meet the future problems of life."

Dr. Dosker strongly urged the students to study hard and enter many activities; he advised them to concentrate and be industrious.

The prospects for a banner year are bright. Times are normal again, several ex-service men having returned to school. The old Hope campus is again astir with students from all part of the country.

The Sixth Reformed church was notified Sunday that the call they extended to Rev. J. H. Bruggers of Orange City, Ia., had been accepted by that pastor. Rev. Bruggers left for France as a Y. M. C. A. secretary soon after graduation from the local Theological Seminary. He spent about a year abroad.

The Sixth Reformed church has never had a regular pastor. It was organized a few years ago and for some time the congregation worshipped in a temporary building. This is the third time the congregation tried to secure a pastor.

She relishes the job, too, for upon leaving here she said that the "call to the wild" moved her, as well as the prospect of doing good across the seas.
