THE EVER-CHA

NGING SCENE

Busy students, happy times, a magic year; the thrills, the disappointments, the fatigue, the fulfillment; fall, winter, spring—these many facets all fit together to form a new and ever-challenging background for our college experience.

This is the "Ever-Changing Scene," a kaleidoscope, not just bits of glass, but of people and buildings, events and studies, old wisdom and new knowledge. It is a kaleidoscope operated by time and God, and we are the shifting pieces of glass—the ever-changing factors of the design.

Our kaleidoscope's reflections are as varied as its facets, for they pick up the dreams of today and focus them in brilliant colors onto the promises of tomorrow . . . each forming a new thought and a new design. It is the new pattern formed by many of the same people and the same classrooms, re-designed by the addition of new faces.

In essence, it is life—the minutes, the hours, and the days which make small designs of their own, only to enlarge into an even greater total impression.

Thus with our symbol—the kaleidoscope—we introduce you to our 1961 picture of "The Ever-Changing Scene."

BUTLER OFFERS AN EXPANDING

The main building, Arthur Jordan Memorial Hall, consists of three separate buildings combined into one by towers. It contains classrooms and laboratories, administrative offices, a library, and sub-station B of the Indianapolis Post Office.

The College of Pharmacy building is located one hundred yards to the north of Jordan Hall. It contains classrooms, laboratories, and offices.

In 1848, a charter written by Ovid Butler established a local college of 25 acres at 13th Street and College Avenue. The university opened its doors as Northwestern Christian University in 1855. In 1877, the institution was moved to Irvington. Two years later the name of the school was changed to Butler University in honor of Ovid Butler. By 1925 the university's growth necessitated its move to the present site of the Fairview campus at 46th and Sunset. Originally the university consisted of only the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, but the College of Religion, now the Christian Theological Seminary, the College of Education, the College of Business Administration, the University College, the College of Pharmacy, and the Jordan College of Music have been added. John Herron Art Institute is also affiliated with the Butler University program.

The John Whistler Atherton Center is located to the south of Jordan Hall. It contains the bookstore, the cafeteria, the Campus Club Grill, the organization meeting rooms, the lounges, and the recreational rooms.

PHYSICAL PLANT

Sweeney Chapel is located north of the Pharmacy Building. It houses a chapel, a library, classrooms, and offices.

Overlooking the Holcomb Gardens is the Mrs. James Irving Holcomb Memorial Carillon Tower.

The modern Holcomb Observatory and Planetarium holds a 38-inch telescope. Tours of the building and planetarium shows are open to Butler students and the public.

Clowes Hall, which is now under construction, will contain a 2,200 seat auditorium, a main lobby with ticket booths and coat-check rooms, a stage, an orchestra loft, and a number of basement workshops.

Karen Woodard hands out programs to the new Butler students at the AWS Preview Party.

Guide Carolyn Rass shows Sandy Terrell and Blanche Delp the bookstore on an orientation tour.

PLANNING AND ADJUSTMENT PRECEDES

Tim Toney and Jane Flaningan were chosen as the Most Typical Freshmen at the Freshman Mixer.

The Freshman Mixer, an annual event sponsored by the YM-YWCA, gives the freshmen an opportunity to get acquainted with their classmates.

Getting a class schedule worked out is one problem and then actually getting enrolled in each class is another. Here students wait their turns to get their class cards.

Carefully advising Judy Horst is Dr. Richard Maher. During this pre-registration conference, planning for the next semester must be done.

COLLEGE LIFE

On Wednesday and Friday mornings this is a very busy corner as students file by to get their issues of the Collegian.

INDIVIDUAL IMPROVEMENT IS

Marsha LeBoeuf finds her laboratory work in required science courses a challenging part of her education.

A typical informal class lecture is seen here as Dr. Beyer lectures to his creative writing class.

Physical education classes place importance on individual participation. Rito Koy Moody practices the skills which she has learned.

Monday Air Force ROTC classes find the students in dress uniforms.

STRESSED IN CLASSES

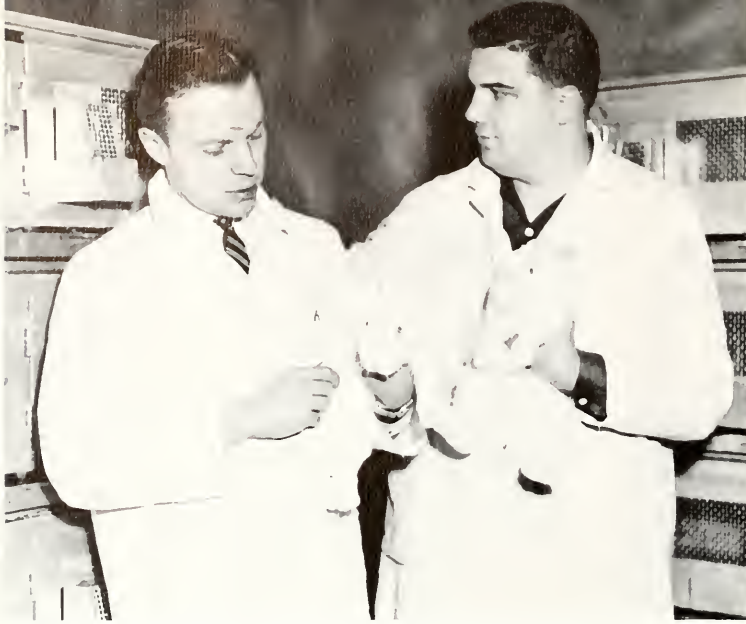

After many hours of out-of-class work, accounting students are prepared for class.

Barbara Darman, who is planning her sewing project, sets up a display for other members of her clothing construction class.

Jady Mustard uses a puppet play as a background for her Children's Literature class story of the Gingerbread Man.

Pharmacy students Don Francis and Carl Erdman get valuable experience by testing their drugs on experimental animals.

CLASSES AND STUDY GIVE STUDENTS

Jordan dance students start their classes by warming up on the bars.

Becky Brawn finds painting one of the challenging and interesting courses which Herron Art Institute has to offer.

Night classes give part-time Butler students as well as Indianapolis people a chance to take additional college courses.

Dave Foreman and Nancy Redding find that studying in the library stacks can be enjoyable.

A FULL-TIME JOB

Examinations have varied impacts upon different students. John Raymand appears to be in agony while Carly Lindberg seems to be taking the test with ease.

Professor Wohler has her work cut out for her as mid-term examinations draw to a close.

CLASS OFFICERS ARE CAREFULLY

Student Council members Marvin Wright and Anita Glaze check Judy McDawell's identification card while Pat Regan casts her ballot.

Before campus elections, Greek caucus members from each sorority and fraternity meet to slate candidates. Trying to decide on a candidate are Mary Ellen Hall, Carol Swanson, Linda Bloemker, Fred Brown, Larry Helms, and Don Hawery.

Independent students hold a convention to prepare a slate of candidates for the coming class elections.

SELECTED

Leading the Junior class this year was Steve Butterbaugh. Other officers were Priscilla Thomas, Vice President, Sue Lindley, Secretary, and Larry Helms, Treasurer.

Senior class officers, eagerly awaiting graduation, are Seth Lewis, Treasurer, Nancy Redding, Secretary, Byron Schoolfield, President, and Sam Stegman, Vice President.

Sophomore class officers are Denny Shearer, President, Larry Ulrich, Vice President, and Dick Stohler, Treasurer. Ann Temple, Secretary, was not present when the picture was taken.

Wielding the Freshman class this year was Rannie Funkhouser. Bob Angell served as Treasurer, Nancy Lapanen served as Secretary, and Dave Foreman served as Vice President.

This year Sigma Delta Pi, a Spanish honorary, was chartered on the Butler campus. New members were Mary Ann Kaantz, Judy Cartwright, Dr. Mocas, Dr. Aldrich, James O. Swain, the National Secretary, Dr. Ziomeck, Judy Irvine, and Toni Ax.

STUDENTS FIND REWARDING

Members of Theta Sigma Phi, a journalism honorary, talk informally after initiation. Seated are: Deirdre Porter, Ellen Eichorn, Mrs. Forest O'Dell, Sponsor, and Bonnie Harrison. Standing are: Marcia Miller, Susie Walker, Dee Williams, Linda Brandt, and Virginia Nizamoff.

Buying a candy apple from S.N.E.A. members Jean Alsopch and Marilyn Miles is Bill Welch.

Elected to the DRIFT Bachelor Court were Tom Bowman and Mickey Seal.

DRIFT Beauty Court members were Karen Hayes, Jane Campbell, Lydia Hildreth, and Sharan Keithley.

EXPERIENCES THROUGH ACTIVITIES

Gary Beplay gave a humorous intermission at the 1961 pageant.

The 1961 DRIFT Pageant saw Larry Helms crowned as the Most Eligible Bachelor and Jane Flanigan crowned as the DRIFT Beauty Queen.

PROGRAMS DISPLAY INDIVIDUAL

The wood flutes appeared in the Nutcracker Suite ballet that was presented by Jordan dance students.

Drama students at Jordan presented the play "Dark Of The Moon."

Broadcasting over WAJC, the Butler FM radio station, are Tom Isaac, Program Director, and Bob Billups, Music Director.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENTS

The University Choir and special soloists directed by Dr. Kaehrn, sang, "The Crucifixion" at the Easter Convocation.

Seniors Dave Graf, Nan Nichols, Dave Kettler, Marcia Miller, Judy Riley, Steve Appletan, Judy Irvine, and Nancy Weed, garbed in their caps and gowns are prepared for graduation.

HOMECOMING---

The homecoming weekend began with the crowning of the queen, Georgia Herring, by President Ross.

Bill Scott appears to be a bit alarmed about the construction that is going on over his head.

Lined up for the beginning of the Chariot Race are Rick Russell, Jeff Blue, Mearle Hawkins, Bert Show, and Rich Florence.

Friday night before the homecoming football game Butler students paraded with torches to the fieldhouse for a pep rally.

A SCHOOL YEAR HIGHLIGHT

Anxious to get the freshman beanie at the top of the greased pole were several freshman boys. They were successful in their efforts so they did not have to wear their little green beanies after homecoming.

Winning house decorations were displayed this year by members of Pi Beta Phi. Their timely election theme won first place in the women's division.

Delta Delta Delta pledges sang merrily as they rode through downtown Indianapolis in the homecoming parade.

After many hours of work, the Phi Delt's were rewarded by winning float competition.

MANY EVENTS FILL STUDENTS'

Susie Abbott and Claudia Carr were targets for the Spurs ring toss at the Student Council Activities Fair.

Trophies were presented by Dick Cohron, Cheer Drive Chairman, at the Christmas Tree Lighting ceremony to Tom Maxwell, representing Sigma Nu, the men's division winners, and Susie Abbott, representing, Kappa Alpha Theta, the women's division winners.

Butler students had a good time at the Annual Valentine Dance which was sponsored by the Student Union Board.

The Annual Pumpkin Prince is put on every year by the Women's Recreation Association.

EXTRA TIME

The Sigma Chi's act "Backwoods Bally-hoo" won fraternity competition in Geneva Stunts.

Members of Kappa Kappa Gamma won sorority competition of Geneva Stunts with their act "Trouble In The Big Top."

Women's Residence Hall members won first place in the Women's division of Spring Sing. In the first row are Marcia Duchess, Joanie Liehe, Marlene Everson, Susan Keim, Carolyn Ice Tyndall, Bev Norder, and Rito Kay Moody. In the second row are Elaine Bever, Betty Murray, Pat Wilson, Judy Bailey, Rae Ann Garver, Olga Raekis, Ruth Ann Feltner, and Marcia Byrd. Jeanie Hays was Song Leader.

SPORTING EVENTS

The pool room is one of the busiest corners in Atherton. William Levi takes aim with his cue stick.

Dick Halst dives from the low board during the men's intramural swimming meet.

Fran Farnam appears ready to catch a loose ball in a women's intramural basketball game.

School was dismissed the morning after the Bulldog basketball team won the ICC title so that the student body could hold a pep rally to honor the championship team.

GET STUDENT SUPPORT

Under the direction of Charles Henzie, the Butler marching band presented many entertaining halftime shows during the football season.

The Half-time Honeys presented many entertaining programs during the football and basketball seasons.

Lambda Chi's Bob Myers and Seth Lewis received the fraternity scholarship trophy during the half-time ceremonies.

GREEKS STAGE AN

During a mock lineup, Larry Helms served as pledge trainer.

Bought in the faculty auction by the Pi Phi's, Dean Schwomeyer had to wear this outfit for one day as his service.

Greek Week was ended by class slumber parties. Juniors at the Alpha Chi house were, on the couch: Barbara Shaak, Sue Lindley, Bonnie Frey, and Judy Gray. Seated on the floor were Jean Alspach, Janet Wagoner, Kathy Blair, Helen Webb, Linda Burton, and Sabra Carmack.

EVENTFUL WEEK

Delta Gamma members entertained fraternity men during their mock rush.

Dr. Hepler doesn't seem to be a bit worried as Ron Galosich prepares to auction him off.

Dee Williams, Panhellenic Council President, crowned Jerry Hornaday as Panhel King.

Greek Week was climaxed by a help project. This year sorority and fraternity members worked together to wash all the windows on the first floor of Jordan Hall.

Rush saw the Tri Deltas staged a Swiss Chalet Party. Putting on skis to complete her Swiss costume is Toni Ax.

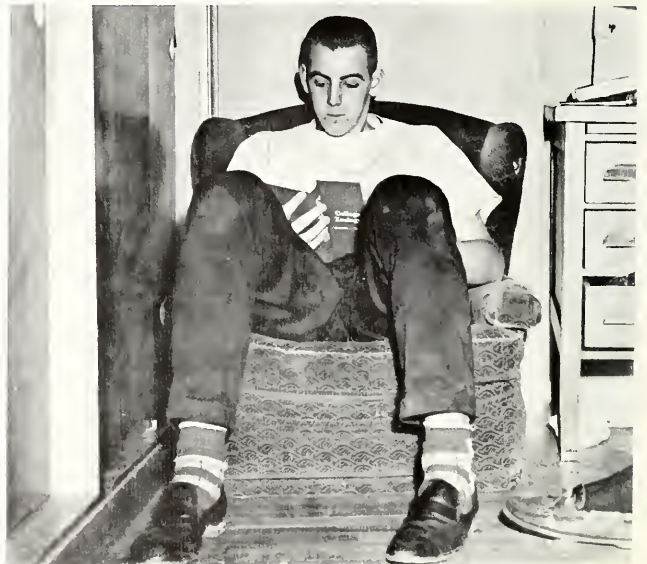

The sororities held open houses after every basketball game this year.

Pat Auxier assists Mary Steinberger while she is on duty at the dorm desk.

Study table is a nightly event in all the fraternity and sorority houses. Freshman Jim Miles finds that he can really get a lot accomplished during this time.

Fran Fornam prepares to blow out the candle signifying her engagement as Tri Delta sisters Marty Hall and Tani Ax sing a sweetheart song.

"To the lake," shout Dave Burnside's Sigma Chi brothers as they carry him to the lake to celebrate his pinning.

Sigma Chi pledges staged a pledge dance with a fake speak-easy that was complete with bottles filled with tea. Sabra Carmack looks on as Jim Lowery enjoys himself.

The Sigma Chis carefully watched the early stages of the construction of their new addition.

CAMPUS LIFE

Because the Thetas do not have a washing machine in their house, their pledge project consists of doing the weekly washing. Judy Rosa and Marilyn Kafoure are putting a load of clothes into the laundromat machine.

Dee Dee Hertz finds concentrating on her studies almost impossible to accomplish in the C-Club while her friends are playing bridge.

During Greek Week, members from all fraternities performed a Half-time Horribles show at the All-Star Basketball game.

Music fills the air as Nancy Fairburn plays the ukelele and Marilyn Sager strums a scrub board while Kaye Ax and Marsha LeBoeuf sing.

OFFERS GOOD TIMES

Dick Eagleson presents Maurine Good with the Miss Watermelon Bust trophy.

Janie Hardin won the Lambda Chi trophy for the Watermelon eating contest.

The pot race was a big event at the Sigma Chi's Derby Day. Still smiling after running around bucket fifteen times is Rita Kay Moody.

Sorority pledges raced to shave balloons at the Derby Day. If their razor blades slipped, the water inside splashed all over the Sigma Chi pledge that was holding the balloon.

WEEKENDS BRING

Butler students often go for a relaxing walk through the scenic Holcomb Gardens. On top of the waterfall are Marty Hall, Bill Welch, Tom Simmons, and Denise Kariolich.

After a quick stop at the ticket window, Marilyn and Dick enjoy a movie.

Off for a Friday night date are Marilyn Sager and Dick Stohler.

SOCIAL TIME

With winter comes snow, and of course this calls for a snowball fight.

Next stop for Marilyn and Dick—"The pause that refreshes."

Last stop—M-m-m-m-m!

ACTIVITIES

MARCIA MILLER, President

CHARLENE BOYLE, Vice-president

Scarlet Quill Chapter of Mortar Board started its year of busy activities, with a booth at the Activities Fair. Mortar Board and Blue Key worked together on Homecoming to make this annual event a success. Mortar Board had a letter sent to all faculty members concerning problems that arise in the classroom. The two senior honoraries sponsored the Key-Board Dance, April 21, with Woody Herman's Orchestra. The weekend of April 15, a scholarship weekend, was promoted by Mortar Board. Outstanding students from the entire state came to Butler that weekend.

Membership requirements for Mortar Board are a 2.9 accumulative average and outstanding action and leadership in campus activities. Sponsors for Mortar Board this year were Mrs. M. O. Ross, Dr. Allegra Stewart, and Dr. Cripe. Not pictured are members Marilyn Dicks and Jean Hollinsworth Steele.

Religious Council

Religious Council is composed of two representatives from each interested campus organization. These people meet biweekly to discuss ways of promoting religious interest on the Butler Campus.

Leading the group this year as president was Frances Russell, assisted by the other officers, Priscilla Thomas, Sylvia Butler, Marilyn Barngrover, and Nancy Clark. This group sponsors such events as Fireside Chats, Religious Emphasis Week, and Student Chapel Services. Dr. Robert E. Andry is faculty advisor.

Ichthus

An interest in religion is the requirement for membership in Ichthus, an interdenominational religious group. The club's bimonthly meetings give inspiration and fellowship to those students with religious interests. Guest speakers come to their meetings to lecture on various facets of the Christian faith.

The meetings were conducted by Ken Musil and Ken Bryant, co-presidents. Sponsors, Dr. Reisinger and Dr. Andry aided the group this year.

Welwyn Club

Home economics majors and minors and girls with an interest in home economics may join the Welwyn Club. It is a member of the State Home Economics College Clubs of Indiana and participates in the meetings of this group. The group had an active year with Kathy Kapontais, president, and her other officers, Janet Wagoner, Diane Bush, and Alicia Norman.

The year's activities started with a picnic in the Garden House. Programs centered around foreign countries, a pancake supper, and a dessert hour were other activities of the group.

FIRST ROW: A. Norman, D. Bush, K. Kapontais, J. Wagoner, Mrs. Porter, Sponsor. SECOND ROW: L. Woodward, A. White, B. Conatsey, C. Clark, C. Koelling, P. Crook, K. Woodard, G. Hole.

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega is a national service fraternity whose members are men with scouting experience. The purpose of the fraternity is to serve Butler and the community, which they do in many ways. This year, Donn Richardson served as president.

The members ushered for convocations and assisted the alumni in various projects. The Share-A-Ride board in Jordan Hall was instituted by A. P. O. They also work with other scouting groups in this area.

A. P. O. officers with their advisor, V. Amundson, are B. Edesses, D. Rife, L. Walker, L. Lunsford, D. Richardson.

Student Council Provides Leaders

Officers and sponsors are Dr. Baetzhold, K. Israel, N. Orewiler, D. Steinberger, President, S. Butterbaugh, J. Horst, Dr. Martin.

D. Hawery, T. Ax, L. Blocher, A. Glaze, L. Lunsford, D. Porter, G. Clark.

In 1960-61, the Butler Student Council again widened its range of services rendered to the Butler Student Body. The Gavel, a new campus publication, which is a combination assignment-datebook with all important events listed, was introduced by the Council in the fall. Another fall activity was the second Student Council Activities Fair of "SCAF." This was designed to acquaint students with various campus activities.

February found the Council serving both the community and the campus. On February ninth they cooperated with the Red Cross in the annual campus Blood Drive. The Council conducted a "Great Decisions" discussion group on world problems for eight weeks. Elections of Homecoming Queen and Class Officers were supervised by the student government, and also it conducted many student opinion polls. Spring found the Council in co-operation with the faculty organizing a "Butler College Bowl."

B. Haskett, M. Wright, J. Stuart, D. Keifer, A. Appel, V. Edington, J. Mendleson.

T. Rugh, J. Wilcox, L. Nicksch, S. Morrow, J. Korwowski, B. Dickerson.

A. W. S.

The governing body of the women students of Butler University is the Association of Women Students. Pat Fitzgerald was the president of the group this year. "Coed Codes," a pamphlet of campus rules and regulations, is prepared by A. W. S. every fall to aid new freshman women.

Mass A. W. S. Meetings are held throughout the year with various types of programs. The first meeting is always a get-acquainted affair where the new sorority pledges give skits.

Student Union Board

Student activities at Atherton Center are directed by the Student Union Board, composed of students who have shown an interest in campus activities. Members are selected on the basis of their work on various committees at the Student Union. Mike Hardin presided over their meetings this year.

The Homecoming Pep Dance was one of the projects of the Student Union. At this dance the winners of the float decorations were announced. The Valentine Dance was another Student Union function. During this dance the Valentine King and Queen were announced.

FIRST ROW: J. Wagoner, S. Lindley. SECOND ROW: T. Ax, F. Carson, B. Tretts, L. Hebert, M. Hardin, Miss Grimes, Sponsor.

W. R. A. Directs Sports

Advisory Board

The Advisory Board of the Women's Recreational Association directs the activities of this active campus organization. The president of the group this year was Nan Nichols.

In the fall W. R. A. sponsors the annual Pumpkin Prance which is in celebration of Halloween. The women's Varsity Sports Program is also directed by the group. The Crossroads College Contest another W. R. A. project, took place in March.

FIRST ROW: K. Allison, J. Lindahl, R. Moody, J. Horst, Miss Hamilton, Sponsor, N. Nichols, M. Miller, T. Ax, J. Trotter. SECOND ROW: J. Savino, K. Ax, S. Abbott, P. Pollak, J. Raybern, M. Sager, P. Burnstein, R. Poe, J. Aubrey, K. Genth.

Sports Council

The Sports Council of W. R. A. organizes all of the women's intramural sports. Each girl on the council is a representative for one sport. In May at the annual banquet, awards are presented to the groups and individuals who are winners in intramural sports. Judy Horst led the group which assisted the Advisory Board in directing the activities of the organization.

FIRST ROW: B. Rice, B. Borden, S. Elster, J. Horst, Mrs. Zimlich, Sponsor, J. Hertz, S. Lynam, J. Gunning. SECOND ROW: L. Ditzenberger, J. Brunst, J. Moran, R. Robishaw, P. Auxier, J. Wilcox, L. Woodward.

IFC Unites Fraternities

J. Blythe, president, E. McCauley, G. Clark, B. Worth, Dean Schwameyer, Advisor, J. Hornaday, S. Lewis, D. Bevis.

IFC members work during Greek Week.

The Interfraternity Council is composed of one officer from each fraternal group on Butler's campus. The Council's purpose is to unite the fraternities in working together for the good of fraternity life.

President Ross approved the sending of a delegate from Butler to national IFC convention beginning next year. IFC worked with Pan-Hel to promote the biggest Greek Week ever held on Butler's campus. A revision was made concerning the method of posting of index scores for fraternities, which the IFC felt to be a tremendous improvement over the past method.

Panhellenic Council

Panhellenic Council consists of delegates from each of the six Greek sororities on the campus. This year they had a very busy year with Dee Williams serving as president. Weekly meetings are held in Atherton Center.

This council determines the rules for rush in the fall, and sets up all plans for rush. The Pan-Hel Dance is the big winter project of Pan-Hel. A very successful Greek Week was also sponsored by Pan-Hel in conjunction with IFC. Good relations on campus are another goal of this group.

FIRST ROW: J. Hanson, C. Dixon, M. Woolridge, J. Bredensteiner, D. Williams, J. Wood, K. Allison, H. Webb. SECOND ROW: M. Miles, M. Handy, M. Sager, D. Wilson, N. Fairburn, M. Miller, J. Horst, J. Brunst, J. Riley.

Young Democrats

The Young Democrats feel this year was a success—naturally. Prior to the election, the club had several guest speakers at their meetings to discuss issues of the election. The Young Democrats assisted in the election campaigns, too. The president of the group was Byron Trefts.

FIRST ROW: J. Aubrey, J. Cartwright. SECOND ROW: J. Demos, M. Harper, B. Trefts, S. Abbott. THIRD ROW: J. Gray, E. Eichhorn, G. Janes, M. Seal, D. Gallagher, B. Volpert, J. Scheerer.

Young Republicans

Butler officers, Jim Blythe and Barb Shook talk to Young Republican state chairmen, Barbara Canatsey and Tom Kunkle.

The Young Republican Club, under the leadership of Jim Blythe and other officers, Sonia Harrer, Sue Lindley, and Gary Beplay, had one of the most successful years in the history of the club. With a membership of 433 members, the largest in 15 years, the club was involved in many rallies, meetings, campaigning, and in helping the Republican State Central Committee in the fall election. The unusual popularity of Donald Bruce, Edwin Steers, and Barry Goldwater seemed to display the conservative theories of the club.

The Young Republicans also sponsored a new and timely award, the political awareness award. The winners were Kappa Sigma and Delta Gamma.

FIRST ROW: G. Remlinger, J. Heinz, G. Beplay, J. Blythe, J. Karwawski, D. Kiefer, P. Trick, B. Beyers. SECOND ROW: G. Myers, B. Hoskett, B. Shook, L. Blickenstaff, C. Wheelchel, J. Lindley, M. Moulin, M. Miles, S. McGraw, E. Ferguson, T. Kunkle. THIRD ROW: J. Eaton, P. McCain, B. Borden,

YM-YWCA

The YM-YWCA is one of the most active campus organizations. Geneva Stunts and Spring Sing, two annual events are sponsored by this group. In the fall the Freshman Mixer is one of their main projects at which the typical freshman girl and boy are selected. An Honor's Day Award is given each year by YM-YWCA to the outstanding freshman man and woman student. The Blue Book, the student directory, is also published annually by the group.

Interesting programs on various subjects were presented at the Y-Council meetings this year. Meme Melick was president of the YWCA and Dick Steinberger served as president of the YMCA. Mr. Pihlak was Sponsor of the group.

Y-Cabinet members are: FIRST ROW: J. Riley, B. Harrison, T. Bates, D. Schumacher, S. Lynam, S. Lindley, L. Woodward, H. Webb, M. Pihlak, Spansor, Mr. Wilkins, Spansor, M. Harper, J. McConnell, S. Schumacher, S. Lynam, S. Lindley, L. Woodward, H. Webb, M. Wright, and T. Crawford.

BISA members at a meeting in the Garden House plan their membership program.

B. I. S. A.

The Butler Independent Students' Association is open to men and women not affiliated with Greek organizations on the campus. The purposes of the group are to promote social, cultural, and political activities among its members. It participated in many campus events such as Spring Sing this year.

Officers of the group were Bill Haskett, president, Larry Burton, vice-president, Nancy Clark, secretary, Nelson Scott, treasurer, and Helen Lindstadt, executive council secretary. Dr. Cupp and Mr. Nichols served as sponsors of the group.

FIRST ROW: S. Beaty, L. Saulgozis, P. Persinger, T. Fox, L. Moore. SECOND ROW: Mr. Nichols, Sponsor, N. Scott, N. Clark, B. Haskett, H. Lindstadt, L. Burton, Dr. Cupp, Sponsor. THIRD ROW: R. Graves, R. Rader, S. Schuchman, B. Berman, J. Waggaman, S. Henry, L. Coker, J. Hadfield.

Loyalty Legion

Loyalty Legion is composed of four voting members from each organization on campus. Officers for this year were Dick Moore, president, Ardis Nielsen, vice-president, Diane Jones, secretary, and Jo Carter, treasurer.

The purpose of the group is to promote and strengthen school spirit. They roped off student cheering sections at athletic events and sponsored pep sessions. During Homecoming Loyalty Legion was in charge of the torchlight parade.

Around the Butler bulldog are Loyalty Legion officers, Ardis Nielsen, Dick Moore, Diane Jones, and Jo Carter.

FIRST ROW: J. Brunst, A. Glaze, P. Thomas, D. Jones, A. Nielsen, D. Moore, J. Carter, J. Woddell. SECOND ROW: J. Gunning, M. Hall, T. Ax, F. Morrow, C. Boots, L. Hildreth, D. Wilson, T. Radcliffe, R. Gremel, S. Vallin, S. Hartigan, J. Hadfield.

THIRD ROW: E. McCauley, J. Blythe, J. Demos, J. Karwowski, F. Carson, J. Knouff, J. Wissel, G. Newlin, R. Sendre, T. Klecka, J. Higgins.

Collegian Relates Butler News

Marilyn Dicks served as Editor of the Collegian in the fall.

The "Butler Collegian" is a semiweekly publication produced by the Journalism Department of Butler. Features of the paper include Butler news and sports, news of other schools, and world news. The paper's purpose is to keep Butlerites informed and thinking. Editorials are another feature of the paper which this year often resulted in many letters to the editor. The "Collegian" is certainly an important part of student life.

Drift Staff Records

Linda Brandt, DRIFT Co-Editor, worked hard to have a successful yearbook.

DRIFT Co-Editors, Linda Brandt and Donn Richardson, started the year with the goal of completing the DRIFT early. With the rest of the staff, they had a very busy year. Work on the DRIFT could be full time work and it must be crowded into busy class schedules. The outstanding co-operation of the staff aided the editors in the production of the book.

In theory, The DRIFT is the work of the Junior Class, but members of every class work on it. Each spring several announced staff members receive scholarships for work in the coming year on the DRIFT. The DRIFT staff also presents the DRIFT Beauty Pageant at which the DRIFT Beauty Queen and the Most Eligible Bachelor are chosen. A great deal of credit should be given these people for the work they do in composing a book of the years activities for the Butler student body.

Dann Richardson, DRIFT Co-Editor, devoted many hours to the publication.

Dove Foreman was the DRIFT Photographer.

Ann Takayoshi was responsible for art work.

ADMINISTRATION

Ross And Diener

President Ross received his A.B. from Kentucky Wesleyan College and his M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. Honorary degrees have been conferred upon him by Indiana Central, Kentucky Wesleyan, and Wabash colleges.

Heading Butler's administrative staff is Dr. M. O. Ross who is completing his nineteenth year as President. Under his capable and qualified leadership, Butler has expanded since 1942, when he became President, with the addition of the John Whistler Atherton Center, the Pharmacy Building, the J. I. Holcomb Gardens, and the ground breaking for the new Clowes Auditorium.

Along with his duties as President, Dr. Ross also teaches in the College of Business Administration and finds time to take an active part in various student campus activities.

Ready to depart for the Founder's Day program, President Ross appears in his gown.

Mrs. Pond assists President Ross in many ways by taking dictation and minutes of conferences.

Supervise Butler

Serving as Vice President and Treasurer of Butler is George S. Diener who has been in that capacity since 1957. Before coming to Butler, Mr. Diener was Speaker of Indiana House of Representatives and an advertising executive. He is president of the Indianapolis Public Relations Society, a member of the Indiana Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America, and a member of the Indianapolis Press Club.

An alumnus of Butler University, George Diener is now serving as its Vice President and Treasurer.

Secretary to the President of Butler is Mrs. Fern Pond. She also serves as receptionist in the President's office.

The registration of Butler students is the responsibility of Corliss Maxam, Registrar. Mr. Maxam is also in charge of processing all class cards, sending out student grade reports, and keeping the scholastic records of those students who have graduated from Butler.

Keeping scholastic records of Butler students is just one aspect of Corliss Maxam's job as Registrar.

The Bursar Office, under the direction of Raymond Gladden, handles all the campus financial matters. Tuition, payrolls, and student organization accounts are examples of the type of finances Mr. Gladden comes in contact with as head of the Bursar Office.

Raymond Gladden, who serves as Bursar of Butler, is responsible for all finances on the campus.

Without students Butler could not exist. The important task of Gene Chenoweth as Director of Admissions is to interest high school students in the advantages and opportunities that Butler has to offer. Mr. Chenoweth was associated with Butler before assuming his position as Director of Admissions in 1958 as a faculty member and guidance counselor for Jordon College of Music.

Director of Admissions Gene Chenoweth screens applications of prospective Butler University students.

Anne Wells, Assistant Alumni Director, helps in keeping the records of the Alumni Office.

Assisting in informing new Butler students about the University are Sheila Lindsay and Richard Wood.

Serving as Alumni Director is Harold Wilkins, Jr., who is himself a Butler alumnus. The task of keeping track of Butler alumni and keeping the alumni posted about the present activities of the University is just a small part of Mr. Wilkins' job. He is also responsible for the quarterly publication, "Butler Alumnus," and the annual spring Alumni Day.

Checking the modern filing system in the Alumni office is Hal Wilkins, Butler's Alumni Director.

Dean Of Men And

Counseling and advising the women students of Butler University is Dean Elizabeth Durflinger, Dean of Women. Counseling is just a small part of Mrs. Durflinger's responsibilities as she serves on the Administrative Council, the Scholarships and Student Aid Committee, the Student Health Committee, the Men's Advisory Board, and the Admissions Committee. She also teaches in the zoology department.

Teaching and personal guidance are among the duties of Dean Elizabeth Durflinger, Dean of Women.

Assisting the Dean of Women is Marion Marshall, who keeps the personal records of women students and the social calendar of Butler.

Dean Elizabeth Durflinger and Marion Marshall make the final preparations for a faculty tea.

Women Guide Students

As Dean of Men, Mr. Herbert Schwomeyer, serves as a counselor for Butler's men students. He also helps Butler men in finding student employment and serves on the Student Health Committee, the Student Publications Board, the Women's Advisory Board, and the Admissions Committee. A graduate of Butler, Mr. Schwomeyer also takes an active interest in sports of the University and many student activities.

Butler men often seek the aid of the Dean of Men, Mr. Herb Schwomeyer, if they need help in finding student employment.

Dean Durlinger and Dean Schwomeyer occasionally meet informally to discuss problems.

Secretary to the Dean of Men is Madge Ingram, who helps in maintaining the records of Butler men students.

Seated from left to right are George Diener, Kurt F. Pantzer, Allen W. Clowes, Frank J. Hoke, Harry T. Ice, Irwin Miller, George A. Kuhn, Evan B. Walker, J. I. Holcomb, Miss Kathryne Bromley, Richard T. James, Henry Holt, Wilson Mothershead, John F. Mitchell, Mrs. Ralph M. Spoon, John R. Rees, and James A. Gloin.

The Board of Directors composes the governing body of Butler University. The board meets four times a year to discuss the policies of the University. Such matters as determining entrance requirements and approving building plans are a few of the decisions made by the board.

Constituting the most active segment of the board is the executive committee. The committee is composed of eleven members and consists of smaller committees of finance, building and grounds, real estate, and religious and moral training.

Members of the executive committee seated are George S. Diener, J. I. Holcomb, Evan B. Walker, Dr. M. O. Ross, and Kathryn Bromley. Standing left to right are Harry T. Ice, Emsley W. Johnson, Jr., Kurt Pantzer, and Richard T. James.

Arthur Lindberg, Superintendent of Buildings and Public Grounds, is responsible for all maintenance and construction on Butler's campus.

In charge of caring for the ills of Butler students is Mary Jane Daily, R.N. The health records of Butler students are also under her supervision.

Keeping the general public informed as to Butler's activities is Chris Theophanis, Director of Public Relations. He also assists President Ross and the Admissions Office.

FACULTY

In 1945, the University College was established to provide a general educational program which was basic to the specialized and professional senior college from which the individual planned to graduate. In this way, each student became acquainted with the fundamental fields of knowledge. The course of study builds for the freshmen and sophomores the basic foundation and required skills they will need as they advance into their junior and senior years. The University College's fundamental curriculum and integrative function serve a primary factor in the roles of Butler University.

Beside serving in the capacity of Director of University College, Dr. Roland G. Usher is a member of the History Department faculty. He earned his A.B. degree at Washington University and his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Michigan.

Division Directors Have Many Added

Courses for the benefit of college students and professional people of Indianapolis are included in the Summer and Evening Divisions of Butler University. The evening program is in effect during the regular school year and the summer session. Included in the summer program are two sessions; the regular nine week session and the three week post-summer session. Students may apply the credit earned in these programs toward a university degree. The regular Butler University faculty largely composes the faculty for both the Summer and Evening Divisions.

The growing Evening and Summer Divisions of Butler are headed by Dr. Christo Mocos who holds A.B. and M.A. degrees from Indiana University and a Ph.D. degree from Tulane.

The largest telescope in the state of Indiana is housed in the J. I. Holcomb Observatory. Every Saturday and Sunday that the weather is clear, the thirty-eight inch telescope is available for public observation. The planetarium shows, which include programs such as "The Milky Way," "The Sun and The Stars," "The Planets," and "The Moon," are also given for the public at these times. Other attractions of the observatory include the solar system pictures in the lobby and the clockroom, showing the different times all over the world.

Dr. Harry E. Crull, Director of Holcomb Observatory, is constantly busy with supervising planetarium functions and heading the Mathematics Department. Dr. Crull received his A.B., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Illinois.

Responsibilities To Supervise

Butler University's Division of Graduate Instruction maintains the high standards established by the top graduate schools in the country. This division offers an outstanding program with such objectives as the promotion of study in individual fields of interest, and creating intelligent, capable leaders. Students must be approved on the basis of past records for graduate study. Members of the graduate faculty are recommended by the Graduate Council and approved by President Ross. Each college offering graduate study has a committee which helps to correlate the work of that college with the program of the Division of Graduate Instruction.

Directing the Graduate Division and the Modern Foreign Language Department is Dr. Clide E. Aldrich. Dr. Aldrich obtained his A.B., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Iowa.

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences continued to maintain its customary standards and objectives under the direction of Dr. Alexander Jones. The college encourages precise thinking, the ability to think logically, and to interpret general works of art by offering a comprehensive and thorough curriculum. The opportunity to gain specialized study in major fields of interest is given to students by this program. The Liberal Arts College offers various curricula in which students may channel their studies. Students from many different parts of the country are attracted to Butler University by the outstanding Liberal Arts program which is offered.

Dr. Alexander E. Jones, Head of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, is also a professor in the English Department. Dean Jones earned his A.B. degree from DePauw University and his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Minnesota.

Faculty Of The Liberal Arts College

Faculty members of the HISTORY and POLITICAL SCIENCE Department are Dr. George Comfort, Dr. George Waller, Department Head, Dr. A. Dale Beeler, Dr. Emmo Tharnborough, Dr. Douglas McManis, Dr. David Silver, Dr. Roland Usher, and Dr. James Wolfenden.

Members of the SPEECH faculty discuss their department plans. Faculty members include Dr. George Rice, Dr. Nicholas Cripe, head of the department, Miss Ruth Ann Clark, and Dr. Richard Maher.

Dr. Charles Josey, Department Head, Dr. William Hepler, Dr. Henry Shanklin, and Mr. Edgar Yeager compose the PSYCHOLOGY faculty.

PHILOSOPHY professors, Dr. Robert C. Gilpin, Department Head, and Dr. Bernard Baurin, enjoy a break between classes.

Stimulates Student Learning

RELIGION Department Head, Dr. Robert E. Andry, meets with Dr. Francis Reisinger and Mrs. Nellie Young to make departmental plans.

SOCIOLOGY professors, Dr. William Cupp, Dr. James Peeling, Department Head, and Mr. William Martin, use a break for research.

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCE department members seated are: Dr. Walter Gillespie, Mrs. May Iske, Dr. Rex Webster, and Dr. Elizabeth Durlinger. Standing are Dr. Nathan Pearson, Zoology Head, and Dr. Marian Hall, Botany Head.

An Extensive Curriculum Is

Standing are Dr. Donald Orr, Dr. Victor Amend, Dr. Werner Beyer, Dr. Howard Baetzhold, Dr. Richard Cassell, and Dr. Paul Stewart.

FOREIGN and CLASSICAL LANGUAGE Department members are, seated: Mrs. Virginia Brunson, Miss Ester Renfrew, Miss Lorraine Gustafson; standing: Dr. Virgil Hiatt, Classical Language Head,

Mr. John Siegwart, Dr. Clide Aldrich, Foreign Language Head, Dr. Christo Macas, and Dr. Henryk Ziomek.

Offered In Liberal Arts Program

Members of the faculty of the MATH Department include Mr. Frederic A. Graf, Mrs. Joy Martin, Mr. Richard Dawds; standing: Mr. Robert E. Lamberson, Dr. Harry E. Crull, head of the department, and Mr. Lloyd W. Stark.

Making plans for semester studies are Mrs. Sara Porter, and Miss Wilma Wahler, head of the HOME ECONOMICS Department.

The completion of high standards during a four-year program is required by the College of Business Administration in an endeavor to give the students a practical, fundamental knowledge of business. The required courses in the fields of general education and business administration produce well-educated persons. Students may obtain specialized professional training by electing one of eight areas of concentration. Four tools of knowledge are incorporated into the business education. These tools are the understanding of quantitative data, the principles of administration, the knowledge of the interrelationships of major functional areas of business, and the concepts of the interrelationships between business and the outside world.

Business World

Dr. David R. Roberts, Dean of the College of Business Administration, is also a professor of Economics. Dr. Roberts earned his B.S. degree from Boston University and his A.M. and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard University.

Professors in the various departments within the College of Business Administration are Dr. Clarence Efraymson, Mr. G. Fred Weber, and in the second row are Dr. Felix Kollaritch, Mr. John Bowers, and Mr. William Shors.

Readily Employs Butler Grads

Standing behind Miss Harriet Paddock, Secretarial Science instructor, are BUSINESS professors Dr. David Roberts and Dr. Sanford Cohen.

Enjoying an informal Business Staff meeting are Dr. Stanley Chipper and Mr. Alan Marshall, seated; and Mr. Archie Nichols and Dr. John Moore, standing.

In addition to serving as Dean of the College of Education, Dr. J. Hartt Walsh is a professor of education. Dean Walsh received his Ed.B. degree from Eau Claire State College and his Ph.D. degrees from Ripon College and the University of Wisconsin.

An enriched course of study is offered by the College of Education in order to give students the best possible preparation for teaching careers. In addition to general education requirements, intensive preparations in the subject areas to be taught, and study in selected professional courses acquainting the students with the nature of teaching highlight the educational program. The student gains a practical insight into a career of teaching through the student teaching program offered in cooperation with the local public schools. As a supplement to the program offered on campus, students may elect special professional courses at John Herron Art Institute and Jordan College of Music.

College Of Education

Dr. William Howard, Consultant for Teacher Placement and Certification, and Dr. Joseph Nygaard, Coordinator of Graduate Education, pause outside the Education office.

The College of Pharmacy offers a program designed to educate students in the scientific and practical aspects of Pharmacy as well as to give them a broad liberal arts background. Extensive training is given to students concerning preparation, handling, and analysis of drugs and chemicals. That the College of Pharmacy maintains high standards is evidenced by its high accreditation from the American Council on Pharmaceutical Education.

Dr. Karl L. Kaufman, Dean of the College of Pharmacy, is well known not only on the Butler campus, but also throughout the pharmaceutical circles. Active in the field of pharmacy, he has written numerous articles and has served in various organizations. Dr. Kaufman acquired his B.S. degree at Ohio State and his Ph.D. degree at Purdue University.

Two Air Force ROTC programs offered by the Department of Air Science: the basic two-year course designed to educate the student in air age citizenship, and the two-year advance course which is selective and offers the student many benefits. Cadets who have completed the advanced course and received a Baccalaureate Degree are normally offered a commission as Second Lieutenant, United States Air Force Reserve. Since the AFROTC program is a major source of officers for the Air Force, the department strives to meet the high standard of instruction which is required of civilian institutions.

Serving his first year as head of the Department of Air Science, Maj. Thomas F. Ryan Jr. has been active in the Air Force since 1942, and has been a member of the Butler faculty since 1959. He received his B.A. degree from Birmingham Southern College.

The John Herron Art Institute provides a comprehensive education for those students who are preparing for careers as artists or as art teachers. Emphasis is placed both on technical skill demanded by professional standards, and on the stimulation of the creative minds. Throughout every course, individual instruction is given. The students are encouraged to follow their particular interests and develop their individual capacities. Students are granted a special degree by Butler University through a cooperative program between Butler University and John Herron Art Institute.

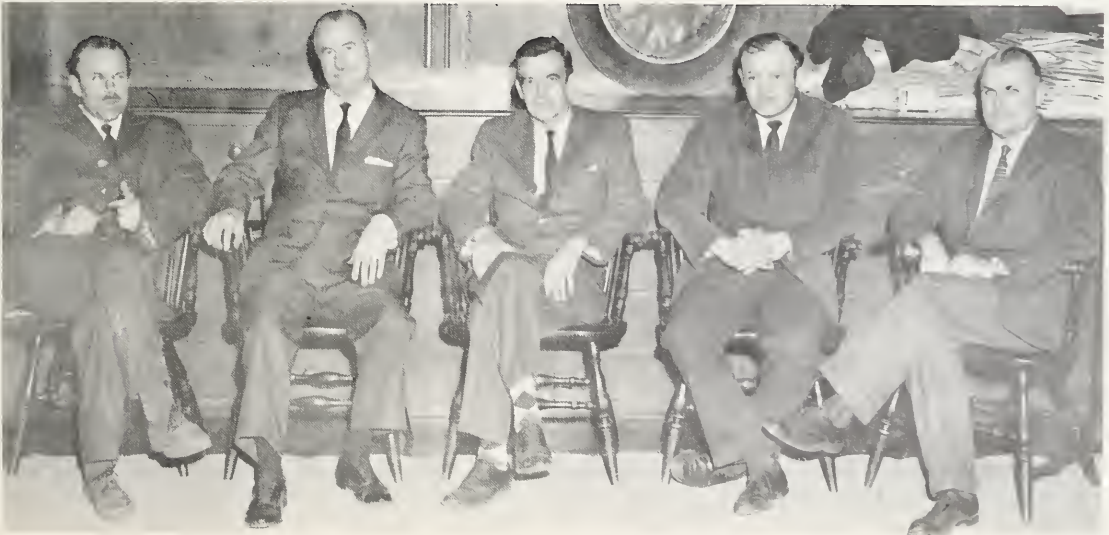

Donald M. Mattison has contributed to the development of one of the outstanding art schools in the country during the years he has served as Director of John Herron Art Institute. He received his degrees at Yale School of Fine Arts and the American Academy in Rome.

Creativity Stressed By Herron

Instructors at John Herron Art Institute who give valuable training to students are Mr. Harry Davis, Mr. Gordon Fiscus, Mr. David Rubins,

Mr. Bruce Gregory, and Mr. Edmund Brucker.

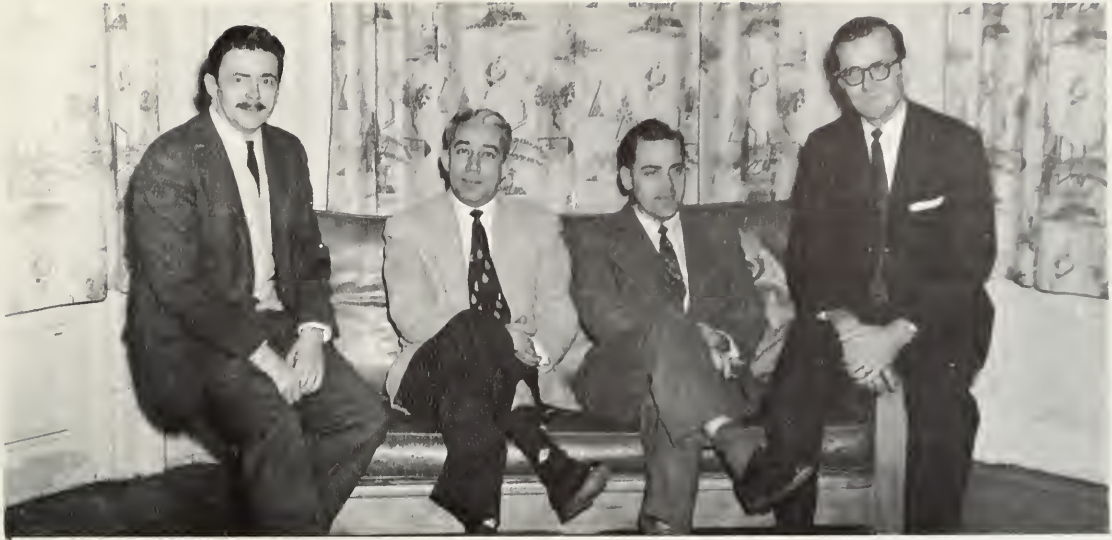

The Jordan College of Music offers an extensive four-year program in addition to the general university academic regulations which are required for graduation, and is a member of the National Association of School of Music. Various degrees are granted in the fields of dance, music, radio, and drama. The opportunity to gain professional training outside of class by performing in the productions of numerous organizations is offered to the students. Because of its outstanding program which has been offered for over half a century, Jordan College of Music has become widely acclaimed.

As the Head of Jordan College of Music, Dr. Jackson K. Ehlert directs the departments of dance, drama, music, and radio. Dean Ehlert received his B.S. and M.A. degrees from the University of Minnesota and his Ph.D. degree from the University of Colorado.

Indiana Collegiate Conference Title

Everyone had expected this year to be a "rebuilding" year for Tony Hinkle's Butler Bulldogs, but to the unexpected delight of every Bulldog fan, this season became almost a repeat of the 1959 undefeated season with only one loss to St. Joseph's Pumas by a 24-6 margin. This eight win and one loss record was good enough to gain for Butler undisputed possession of its third straight I.C.C. football crown.

The Bulldogs fortunes were greatly helped by John Skirchak, who was the state's third leading scorer, and his halfback twin Elmer O'Banion who was the Bulldog's leading ground gainer. Fullback Gary Green was Butler's mainstay up the middle, while passes from Phil Long to ends Freeman and Magnuson accounted for the Bulldogs long gainers.

But all this speed and deception in the backfield would have been of no value if the Bulldogs had not had a powerful line. The power of this line was evidenced by the fact that four of its members, Helms, McCauley, Benbow, and Freeman were chosen to represent the best of I.C.C. football as members of the all-conference team.

The Butler team was young this year and they can be expected to be tougher next year.

Senior halfback John Skirchak drives through the Wobash defenders for a Bulldog yardage gain before being halted by the opposition.

Butler 18, Bradley 12

The Butler Bulldogs opened their 1960 football season with a decisive victory over the Bradley Braves.

Tony Hinkle's crew traveled to Peoria, Illinois, for their initial victory.

The 1959 Indiana Collegiate Conference champions were led by gridders Gary Green, Phil Long and John Skirchak.

Green skirted left end from the nine yard line to start the Bulldog's scoring attack in the first quarter.

Elmer O'Banion got loose for 32 yards to set up Long's score. Long drove through the Brave line from the two yard line to place the Bulldogs in front by 12-6.

In the fourth quarter, Skirchak climaxed a Bulldog drive with a 13 yard run for the third touchdown of the day.

Gary Green comes to a halt as DePauw linebackers stop his drive.

DePauw gridders converge upon reserve fullback Dan Carr as he attempts to pick up needed yardage for the Butler Bulldogs.

Butler 40, Wabash 7

The "Big Blue" won their fourteenth straight game from a determined but outclassed Little Giant squad. Quarterbacks Long and Adams passed for a total of 190 yards, completing 12 of 17 attempts. Passes to Skirchak, Freeman, and Butler accounted for 20 of the Bulldogs' total 40 points. The hard running of Green, Seal, and Middlekauff accounted for the remaining 20 points.

This offensive onslaught was matched by an equally great defensive game turned in by linemen Helms, Benbow, McCauley, and Freeman. Their hard hitting defensive play held the Little Giants to a slim seven points.

This game, while it later proved to be the last of a three season winning streak, did serve to be a model of the games to come, with Butler playing excellent control ball and yet still having the power to strike for the long touchdown through the air.

Substitute halfback Jim Shepherd skids the end to sustain another Butler drive.

Fullback Gary Green drives hard against rushing St. Joseph players while junior tackle Don Benbow watches the play.

St. Joseph 24, Butler 6

John Skirchak (left) and Ken Freeman block for a Bulldog ball carrier against DePauw's Tigers.

A fourteen game winning streak that reached back to 1958 was broken when the Bulldogs entertained the St. Joseph Pumas.

The opening Indiana Collegiate Conference game for the Bulldogs saw the Blue score in the opening minutes.

The Bulldogs stopped the Pumas after the opening kickoff. Elmer O'Banion ended a field-length drive with the team's only touchdown.

Following O'Banion's score, the Butler squad gained but 15 yards rushing for the remainder of the game.

Puma quarterback Dave Beran kicked a 25 yard field goal before the first half ended.

Butler errors provided the St. Joseph squad with scoring opportunities in the second half.

Both an intercepted pass and a free punt gave the Pumas the ball within the Butler 20 and set up easy scores.

DePauw defensemen down Butler quarterback Phil Long as he drives for yardage in an attempt to score for the Bulldogs.

The Bulldog linemen drive hard to force an opening in the DePauw defense for Butler's rushing fullback Gary Green to charge through.

Butler 20, I.S.T.C. 13

The Blue ran its string of consecutive wins over the Sycamores of Indiana State to eighteen by beating them with a 20-13 margin.

Halfbacks O'Banion, Skirchak, and Shook scored the three Butler touchdowns plus providing key defensive play that assured the Blue of another victory.

State proved to be a worthy opponent when, trailing by a 20-6 margin with less than a minute to go, they connected with a pass to make the score 20-13.

Mickey Seal foiled the offside kick attempt by pouncing on the football to allow Butler to run out the clock.

In this game, Skirchak and O'Banion rolled up 23 more total yards than the entire set of Sycamore ball carriers.

Butler 27, Valparaiso 20

The amazing Bulldogs again set the pace in the 1960 edition of Homecoming. The Big Blue's gridders took a terrific challenge from Valpo ground gains in stride and emerged the victors by a 27 to 20 margin.

A quick drive to the Butler six yardline was halted when Phil Long pounced on a loose Valpo football. Five plays later, Long arched a pass to Ken Freeman who took the pass at the midstripe and then rambled the rest of the way to the goal line.

Larry Shook fell upon another loose ball to set up the second Butler touchdown. Long then hit John Skirchak for the third T.D. Elmer O'Banion got the fourth tally when he ran to paydirt from a Long handoff.

Butler 27, Ball State 0

Butler's alert play turned Cardinal errors into touchdowns to romp over the hapless Cardinals by a decisive score of 27-0.

Fullback Gary Green scored early in the second quarter on a plunge from the two yard line.

In the third quarter, John Skirchak set up the second Butler score by returning the kickoff 67 yards to the Cardinal 20. A sixteen yard pass play then put the ball on the four yard line. Phil Long then handed the ball to Skirchak who slanted over the right side of the line for the four yards and a Bulldog T.D.

The Bulldogs recovered their own kickoff after it was deflected by a Ball State player. This drive was then climaxed by Larry Shook as he plunged across the Cardinal goal line for the third Butler touchdown.

In the fourth quarter, a deflected Butler punt was recovered deep in Ball State territory from where reserve quarterback Lance Middlekauff dusted off the "Statue of Liberty" play and used it to put Larry Shook into the Ball State end zone.

Halfback Elmer O'Banion, leading Bulldog yard gainer, finds a hole in the defense's line, sparking another Bulldog drive.

Sophomore quarterback Ron Adams moves back of the line as he desperately searches for an open Butler player to receive his pass.

Butler 33, Evansville 6

Gary Green throws an important block to allow a Butler ball carrier to advance the pigskin.

The Bulldogs treated the 9,000 persons who were in the Butler Bowl to a parade of Butler passes and touchdowns.

The first tally came after a 56 yard march which was climaxed by John Skirchak, who took a pass from Phil Long to run 46 yards for the T.D. Other Bulldog touchdowns were added by O'Banion, Shook, and Carr.

The Bulldogs displayed their complete domination over the Evansville Purple Aces in the air by completing six passes for a total of 137 yards, and on the ground by outgaining the Aces by a 217 to 176 yard bulge.

The key plays were made by quarterbacks Long and Adams who managed to throw three touchdown passes between them. A fumble recovery by Larry Shook was another important play that helped set up a touchdown by Skirchak.

This was a great day for the Bulldogs and a very good day for the 9,000 fans that were in the Dads' Day crowd.

Junior halfback Mickey Seal skids end with the ball as he attempts to avoid the onrush of two Wabash gridders.

Butler 13, DePauw 6

The Bulldogs ended the I.C.C. season with a last minute victory over the DePauw Tigers at Greencastle.

Butler held a slim 7-6 margin in the last three minutes of the game when a Bulldog fumble gave the ball to the Tigers deep in Butler territory.

A very timely Tiger fumble, which was pounced upon by Butler tackle Don Benbow, gave the Blue the ball on their own 17. But the four downs did not net the Bulldogs the needed ten yards which forced them to punt.

The excellent line play of the Bulldogs forced DePauw to try a field goal which fell far short. Then Butler took the ball on the DePauw 20. From there it was a battle of ball control, with time the enemy of both teams.

Finally, Gary Green slanted over the left side of the Bulldog line for the marker.

The Tigers were unable to retaliate in the remaining two minutes and so the Bulldogs left DePauw as victors by a 13 to 6 margin.

Gary Green attempts another field goal as quarterback Phil Long holds the ball.

Tackle Don Benbow throws a key block as halfback Elmer O'Banion darts around the oncoming St. Joseph defensemen.

Butler 33, Washington 6

Tony Hinkle's gridders climaxed another successful football season with a victory over St. Louis Washington.

The Bulldogs traveled to St. Louis to finish their schedule in chilly November weather.

Butler's dynamite twins, John Skirchak and Elmer O'Banion each scored two touchdowns to assure the team's eighth victory of the year.

Skirchak was the only Butler scorer in the first half, taking a pass from Phil Long to run 58 yards to paydirt. Skirchak opened the second half with a 55 yard drive and his second touchdown.

O'Banion scored once on a 14 yard pass play and another time on the opening play of the fourth quarter through the Washington line.

Other Bulldog scores came for Ken Freeman and Jim Shepherd.

Fullback Gary Green carries the ball for another Butler gain.

Senior Elmer O'Banion changes course to slip through the arms of the defenders.

Butler Places Fourth In Conference

team members in the second row are Mr. Walker, Coach, Ken Musil, Bob Snoddy, Don Hutchinson, Arnold Graves, and Jared Fogg.

Harriers from Butler and Indiana Central begin the long course as Coach Galvin Walker starts the stop watch.

Rounding a turn in the course are Arnold Graves, Bob Snoddy, and Don Hutchinson.

Meet Despite Handicaps

Despite the many handicaps that beset Galvin Walker's harriers, the 1960 Cross Country team managed to take fourth place in the conference meet. In dual meets, the Bulldog runners defeated rivals Valparaiso and Indiana Central. Illness and an insufficient number of team members caused Butler to suffer defeats in the Wabash, DePauw, and Ball State meets. Several members of the basketball team ran in some of the meets to help the Bulldog cause.

The team's number one runner, Bob Snoddy, along with other leading harriers, Don Hutchison and Arnold Graves, received letters at the annual fall sports awards banquet. Jared Fogg and Ken Musil earned service awards for their efforts. Freshman runners Kurt Morgan and Sam Green were awarded freshman numerals.

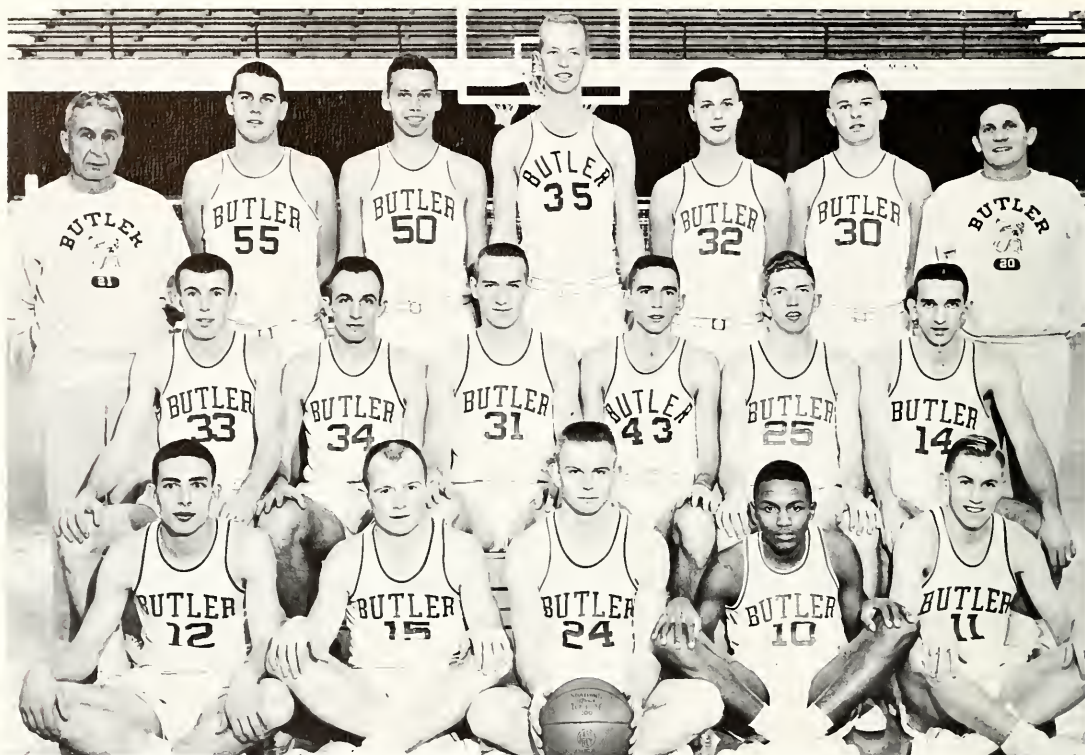

As the Butler-Indiana Central meet progresses, Butler's number one runner, Bob Snoddy, increases his lead over Arnold Graves.

Bob Snoddy, ahead by a wide margin, approaches the tape to be declared the winner.

Grabbing Conference Basketball Crown

Thursday, December 1, marked the debut of the 1960 Butler Bulldog basketball squad. The Bulldogs, under the excellent coaching of Paul D. (Tony) Hinkle, took to the floor as a duck to water. The fact that the lineup was to be packed with underclassmen failed to shake the Bulldogs as they swept on to the ICC basketball crown.

The Bulldog's first foe was the "Big Ten's" Badgers of Wisconsin. The Bulldogs made no mistake of their intentions by downing the Badgers by an impressive 73-58 margin. This win was to be an indication of the winning ways of the Butler B-Ballers.

Senior Jesse Blackwell aims for the Bulldog basket.

Ken Freeman hits a layup on a fast break, as Williams watches.

Butler is bound to win this game! Actually it's a pre-season game.

Bulldogs pause for rebounding as spectators and team watch.

The Bulldogs, with their first win under their belts, then journeyed to East Lansing to battle with the tough Michigan State Spartans. The Spartans proved to be no push-over, as Fordy Anderson's boys handed the Bulldogs a 77-71 defeat.

The Bulldogs' next stop was the U of Illinois. This stop was to drop the Bulldogs below the 500 mark for the yet young season, as the "Fighting Illini" took the measure of the Bulldogs by an 84-57 margin.

Thursday, December 8, took the Bulldogs down the victory trail once again, as the Hinkle-men defeated the Wolverines of Michigan 68-56. This game, played in Ann Arbor, put the Bulldogs at the .500 mark for the infant season.

December 10 saw the Butler Fieldhouse invaded by the Bradley Braves. The Braves, complete with All-American candidates, Chet Walker and Al Saunders, defeated the Bulldogs by a 71-65 score. The Bulldogs fought valiantly, but could not overcome the number two ranked Bradley's height.

Guard Gerry Williams pumps for a field goal against Wabash.

Don Wilson jumps to gain control of the tip for Butler.

The Butler Bulldogs then journeyed to the West Coast as they played highly ranked U.C.L.A. The Bruins handed the Butler Bulldogs a 66-56 loss. This loss gave the Bulldogs a four-loss and two-win record.

The Bulldogs then clashed with the mighty Trojans of the University of Southern California. This second contest on the coast put the blue-clad further down the win-loss ladder for they suffered a 71-63 setback.

December 21 marked the beginning of the Christmas Holidays, but this was not a vacation for the Butler basketballers. The Bulldogs were faced with the Wabash and Yale games in addition to the Hoosier Classic during the vacation.

December 22 saw the Wabash Little Giants invade the fieldhouse. The Cavemen from Crawfordsville showed the Bulldogs that they were not to be denied. Led by All-American Charlie Bowerman, they handed the Bulldogs a 68-61 loss.

Don Wilson gets two for Butler against the Purdue Boilermakers.

Butler Grabs Mythical

Center Don Wilson jumps for two points against Illinois.

Ken Freeman makes the tip-up for the Butler Blue.

The Bulldogs were victorious in the first non-Hoosier, Hoosier Classic. Illinois' "Fighting Illini" were the out-of-state entry, and they proved to be formidable opponents.

The Classic opened on December 27, with Butler avenging an earlier defeat by downing the visiting basketballers by a slim 70-68 margin. Sophomore guard Gerry Williams was the hero of the game, as he put the game on ice in the waning seconds.

Purdue, with the sparkling play of All-American Terry Dischinger, downed the Irish of Notre Dame and thus earned a shot at the mythical Classic crown.

Junior John Weber takes a pass for the Butler Bulldogs.

Hoosier Classic Crown

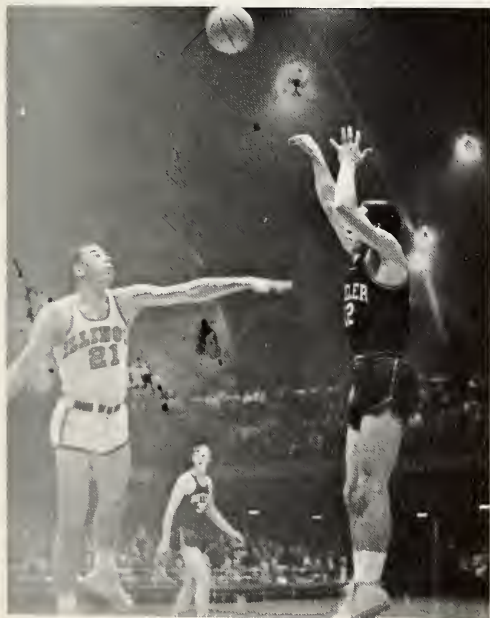

The basketball fans at the fieldhouse on Wednesday night saw an evening of exceptionally fine basketball. The consolation game between the Irish of Notre Dame and Illinois proved the Irish to be as strong as ever, as they downed the Illini by a 70-68 score.

But the big game was yet to come. Purdue's Boilermakers were to come to grips with the improving Bulldogs. The contest was a storybook game from start to finish. Dischinger displayed the reason for his Olympic selection by setting a new Fieldhouse record for scoring. But all his superb playing was for naught, as Gerry Williams sunk a long jump shot with a mere 16 seconds left to send the Boilermakers down to defeat by a 65-63 margin.

Big Dan Kaufman makes another score against Illinois.

The Butler Bulldogs make a score against the Illini.

And the scoreboard clock tells the final story!!

The Butler Bulldogs spent the next to the last day of the year playing well-regarded Yale. The Ivy-Leaguers showed that the East Coast also had a great amount of basketball talent. The Yale Bulldogs bowed to the Butler Bulldogs in a thrilling 71-64 contest. It was a game filled with good basketball and good sportsmanship.

The Bulldogs opened the new year with a game against Notre Dame at South Bend. The Irish showed the skill and hard playing that has typified all the athletic teams from Notre Dame. The Bulldogs were handed their first defeat in the new year by a 72-56 score.

Last year's I.C.C. Champs, the Evansville Purple Aces, were the first I.C.C. foes of the Bulldogs. This year's Aces were without the services of All-American Ed Smallwood, who had been much of the reason for the Aces number one rating among small college teams in the nation. The Blue opened the I.C.C. season with a 93-83 victory.

The Bulldogs are able to score in spite of an opposing foul.

Ken Freeman steals a wayward Illini pass to help Butler's cause.

Junior Ken Freeman pulls down a rebound for the Butler Blue.

January 10 saw the Bulldogs journey to Green-castle to tackle the DePauw Tigers. The Tigers were a pre-season favorite to gain the I.C.C. crown. But the Bulldogs were determined to get their second conference victory as they defeated the Tigers on their home court by a 77-72 margin.

The Bulldogs continued their road trip with a stop-off at Terre Haute to play the Sycamores of Indiana State. The Sycamores had no luck in trying to stop the title-bound Bulldogs from Butler. The Blue triumphed easily by a 93-66 score.

Butler's next victims were the Pumas of Saint Joseph. St. Joe was having a hard time finding the win column of the scoring books, and the Bulldogs were going to make it no easier. The fact that the Pumas were on their home floor did not save them from a 83-73 beating.

Don Wilson fights three Aces to get control of the rebound.

Don Wilson dodges a Wabash player to shoot from the keyhole.

John Weber tips the ball into the basket against Evansville.

Butler's Weber hits against the Saint Joseph Pumas.

Finals are over!! The Bulldog basketballers celebrated the event by entertaining the Saint Joseph Pumas on a return visit to the fieldhouse. The game was anything but a celebration to the luckless Pumas, who were to be roughly treated by the hosting Bulldogs. The Blue broke into the century column for the first time as they rolled over the Pumas by a 107-64 margin.

Notre Dame was the next opponent to visit the Bulldogs in the fieldhouse. The Irish came down to show us that they meant business when they took the floor. When the final gun went off, the scoreboard read Notre Dame 74—Butler 69.

Valparaiso was to be the next obstacle to be overcome if the Bulldogs were to become the conference basketball champs. The Crusaders of Valpo were not to make it too easy for the Bulldogs, as they put up a gallant effort on their own floor. The Bulldogs finally won over the determined Crusaders by a 90-81 score.

Another shot from Forward Weber for the Butler victory.

Tom Bowman fights for control of the ball in a Classic game.

Gerry Williams watches his shot go in the hoop for two points.

Saturday, February 4th, saw the Butler Bulldogs at Muncie ready to do battle with the always rough Ball State Cardinals. The Cardinals were much improved over the past season, and they were expected to give the Bulldogs a very hard-fought game. The game followed true to the predicted form, but Butler emerged the victor by an 82-73 score.

Butler then invaded the territory of the Cavemen as they traveled to Crawfordsville to avenge an earlier defeat. But revenge just was not to be found as the Cavemen dished out a 74-61 beating to the Butler Bulldogs.

Gerry Williams drives to put the basketball up towards the basket.

The season headed into its closing games, and the race was beginning to look like a one team walk-away as the Bulldogs had played a seven game conference schedule and was unbeaten. The Aces of Evansville were one of the teams that could possibly catch Butler, but they needed a win over the Bulldogs to remain in the running. They got this win on February 8th when they tightened up the I.C.C. basketball race by defeating the Bulldogs at Evansville by a 92-74 margin.

The following game against the Valparaiso Crusaders was a must for Butler if they were to win the I.C.C. basketball crown. The Crusaders were just as determined to stop the Bulldogs trophy-bound drive. These two basketball powers met in the Butler Fieldhouse on February 11th. It was the game that proved to be the straw that broke the camel's back as the visiting Crusaders bowed to Butler's might by the score of 95-74. This game made the Bulldogs just that much harder to catch, if it could be done.

Center Dan Wilson fights hard to control the tip-up.

Sophomore forward Tom Bowman easily sinks a beautiful reverse lay-up shot.

The Sycamores of Indiana State were to prove to be a stumbling block for the Bulldogs in their drive for the I.C.C. crown. The Bulldogs were hosted by the Sycamores and were treated to a rough night of basketball. The Sycamores pulled a surprise upset as they downed the Bulldogs by a 74-71 score.

The Tigers of DePauw were the next Butler foe to appear in the fieldhouse. The Bulldogs needed wins over both the Tigers and the Ball State Cardinals to win the coveted I.C.C. basketball crown. DePauw, who had come very near to beating the Bulldogs in their re-encounter at Greencastle, were very hard to beat. The fieldhouse crowd, who had seen much excellent basketball, was treated to fine playing on the part of both teams. When the final buzzer went off, the scoreboard told the story—Butler 83, DePauw 67.

Junior Don Wilson hits again for two more Bulldog points.

The final game of the 1960-61 season was a must game for the Bulldogs. They had to beat the Ball State Cardinals to be assured of the conference championship. If they were beaten, Indiana State, whose season was already completed, would tie the Bulldogs for the conference title.

The pressure was definitely on both teams as game time approached. Ball State, while having the potential of being a good team, showed little improvement over their previous game. This fact allowed the fired-up Bulldogs to roll over the Cardinals by a safe 73-59 margin. The win gave Butler the conference basketball title, but gave the Bulldogs only enough points to put them in fourth place over all in the race for the All-Sports Trophy.

Needless to say, the fans, both students and alumni, were elated with the performance of the 1960-61 Bulldog basketball team. Once again Coach Tony Hinkle had taken a team of little experience and molded them into conference champs.

The Bulldog height proves to be an advantage in this tip-in against Illinois.

March 8th saw the Utes honor Coach Tony Hinkle and his championship Butler Bulldog basketball team for the exceptional season that they had just completed.

One could recount the triumphs of this team—they had defeated powerful Purdue for the Hoosier Classic Crown, they had made a good showing on the West Coast, they had scored number two ranked Bradley, and they had emerged as the winners of the Indiana Collegiate Conference. And the amazing thing was that they were a team that started no seniors and only three juniors.

It was really a team to be heartily congratulated, and it was going to be tough to pick one member to be its most valuable player. But when the votes were all counted, Sophomore guard Gerry Williams was given the honor. The Hilton U. Brown Award for team spirit went to Senior guard Larry Ramey.

Don Wilson got a shot off before being stopped by Purdue's Bob Orrill.

Aiming for a shot amidst four Illinois players is Don Wilson.

The 1960-61 freshman basketball team will be a big shot in the arm for the future chances of Butler University's basketball gaining national ranking. The frosh boast height and offensive ability within their ranks.

Six-foot-six Jeff Blue from Bainbridge averaged over twenty points and twenty rebounds per game. This agility and strength under the boards will be a big help for next year's Bulldogs.

Six-foot-eight Marc Denny from Bedford can double either at center or forward. His defensive ability plus his offensive talents will also be welcomed by Tony Hinkle for next season.

Six-foot-six Dick Green, who has one of the best eyes of the freshman team, will also be an asset for the 1961-62 Bulldogs.

The frosh are also strong at guard. They have excellent shooters and ball handlers. All in all, things look great!

And then the referee's whistle blew—"Jump ball!"

Little Gerry Williams scores on a fast breaking drive.

Carrying Gerry Williams on their shoulders, the team leaves the floor elated over the season's record.

The 1960 edition of the Butler Bluesox posted a six win and nine loss record against tough competition. The Bluesox finished down in ICC play with a three win and six loss record. Several of the games were decided by only one run so the baseballers actually faired better than the record indicates. Junior John Skirchak was the team's leading hitter. He had a .309 average. Several other players were also underclassmen so Coach Hinkle can look forward to fielding an experienced team for the 1961 team campaign.

Coach Galvin Walker's 1960 team of thinly clad finished a successful season by taking second place in the Indiana Collegiate Conference Meet at DePauw and second place in the Little State Meet at Hanover. Seniors Steve Abbott and Dick Roberts led the squad to a 2-2 dual meet record. The trackmen bested Indiana State and Ball State while dropping meets to DePauw and Wabash. Abbott was recognized as one of the better broadjumpers in Indiana and was honored by many groups for his achievements. Roberts, a dash man, was awarded the Scott Ham Track Award. Sophomore Jack Krebs showed great promise as he excelled in every event which he entered.

The tennis team for 1960 had an even six win-six loss record for the year. Wins over St. Joseph, Evansville, Marian, Wabash, Indiana State, and Valparaiso were balanced by losses to tennis powers such as Purdue, Ball State, and DePauw. Outstanding Butler players included John Roberts, Jack Carpenter, Chuck Thompson, Don Orr, and John Raymond. The tennis team finished the season by taking fourth place in the Indiana Collegiate Conference.

Cheerleaders Direct

The cheerleaders had a successful season backing the teams during the football and basketball seasons. Trips to away games found the cheerleaders leading sizable crowds of Butler rooters. At the Washington University football game, played in St. Louis, Butler had more fans present than the home team.

Almost the same squad of yell leaders, working together for the last two years, was judged to be one of the better squads in the ICC this year. Donn Richardson, varsity cheerleader for three years, and Carolyn Boots, varsity cheerleader for two years, served as co-captains. Other leaders working to perfect yells and introduce new routines to the student body were Lana Crossland and Dee Dee Hertz, both serving their second year. Also serving as cheerleaders were Nancy Wachter, Ellen Tichenor, Ruth Ann Marshall, and Trudy Slaby.

Carolyn Boots served as Cheerleader Co-Captain this year.

Serving as a first year varsity cheerleader was Ellen Tichenor.

Freshman Ruth Ann Marshall joined the squad this year.

Student Support

Alternate most of the year was freshman Trudy Slaby.

Co-captain Dann Richardson served for his third year.

Nancy Wachter sparked this years cheering squad with spirit.

Lana Crossland finished her second year as cheerleader.

Intramurals Stimulate Athletic

The 1961 Girl's Varsity Basketball Team completed another successful season by losing only two while winning six. The team defeated the IU Nurses, Marian College, DePauw, the General Hospital Nurses, the Methodist Nurses, and the St. Vincent's Nurses. Losses included Ball State and a close game to Indiana Central College. Jane Trotter took both high point honors with an average of 18.6 points a game for a 149 point total. Nan Nichols was second with 126 points and a 15.7 point average per game.

Band And Color Guard

Leading the band from the sidelines is Dr. Charles Henzie.

Butler's marching band is widely recognized as one of the finest marching units in the country. The band puts on half-time shows during the football season and plays at games during the basketball season. The band also participated in the Indianapolis Christmas Parade and the "500" Festival Parade this year. The annual band trip to Washington University of St. Louis was made, and the St. Louis newspapers acclaimed the show that the band put on as being worth the price of game admission alone. Dr. Charles Henzie again served as Band Director and Michael Leckrone was Assistant to the Director.

During the half-time of a football game the marching band demonstrates the form which has won it national acclaim.

Boost School Spirit

The Color Guard or Half-time Honeys as they are popularly known, assist the band in putting on the football half-time shows. During the basketball season they have the show to themselves with the accompaniment of the band. Many outstanding and unusual shows were presented during the year. Choreography for this years shows was done by Karen Hayes. Band Director Charles Henzie also acts as a sponsor of the Color Guard.

Indiana Gamma of Pi Beta Phi experienced a triumphant Homecoming with Queen Georgia Herring and both the float and house decoration trophies.

Pi Phis were active in Who's Who, Spurs, Chimes, and Mortar Board.

Lydia Hildreth was selected as a member of the Drift Court, and Barbara Madden was elected as an Air Angel Court representative.

The new Pi Phi addition made its initial appearance in the fall, making it possible to house many more girls.

The Pi Phi social calendar included a Halloween Dance, the pledge dance, and the annual Monmouth Duo.

President was Judy Hansen, and Mrs. Arthur Fontaine served as Pi Phi housemother.

Students Compose Senior Class

The senior has had experiences that have given his life purpose. At times, assignments, term papers, projects, and a multitude of other tasks threatened to break the spirit of even the most conscientious student. Surely each senior thinks his feelings are peculiarly original as he takes his last walk toward the stage.

WIGWAMS ON THE CAMPUS

(Photograph from E. G. McCreery)

Long years ago . . . before World War I . . . Indians came to Fairview Park . . . which now is Butler . . . wigwams stood . . . and campfires blazed . . . where the College of Religion stands . . . crowds gathered . . . in a great natural amphitheatre . . . on that high bank east of the Canal . . . just south of the old iron bridge . . . to watch a yearly pageant . . . portraying the storied Hiawatha . . . they saw great birch canoes . . . paddled by bronze-skinned braves . . . glide silently along the waters of the Canal . . . as historic in its aura . . . as the play in which they took part . . . and on the towpath . . . and yet beyond . . . there was the stage . . . a proper setting . . . for the pageant . . . of our early Americans.

thank you...
for our 25th birthday!

It takes a lot of satisfied customers—and a lot of eating pleasure—to create a Silver Anniversary! You've made Stark & Wetzel what it is today—Indiana's leading sausage manufacturer and producer of a full line of fine meat foods.

Fine meat products that wear the Stark & Wetzel label give you an exclusive four-way assurance of quality!

1. The Good Housekeeping Seal — Look for the seal on the package.
2. Scientific Quality Control — Every step in processing.
3. U.S. Government Inspection — Added assurance of purity and wholesomeness.
4. Money-Back Guarantee — In writing on every package.

You Always Get the Best of It . . . When you Get

Thus we end. This year is completed. And although the ever-changing scene will soon shift again, 1960-61 will remain forever the same in your "Gallery of Memories." We have frozen the ever-changing scene of Butler into this book so that you, the reader, will have a pleasant reminder of your school days at Butler—your friends, your classes, and your activities.

This book is a chapter of your life. For some it is the final chapter at Butler; for others, more chapters wait to be added; for all, we have worked to make the 1961 DRIFT as complete and meaningful as possible.

The production of this book was largely due to the efforts of many people. To our art editor, business manager, photographer, section editors, and staff, we extend our thanks for a job well done. We would also like to give our appreciation to Mr. Alan Marshall, our advisor who assisted us greatly, Mr. Chris Theophanis, the Director of Public Relations, Mr. Ralph Dicks, who took the section divider and royalty pictures, Mr. Bob Doeppers, an Indianapolis News photographer, and all of the many other people who have helped us during the year.
