Biography

Doug Roth is the Chief Executive Officer of Heart & Stroke, where he leads a highly dedicated team of individuals working together to beat heart disease and stroke.

Since 2010, Doug has been an integral part of Heart & Stroke, holding a variety of leadership roles that have included strategy, finance, and mission. Doug is a firm believer in the power of collaboration and teamwork, both within the organization and externally with partners, and is committed to finding new and innovative ways to drive mission impact.

Prior to joining Heart & Stroke, Doug spent 12 years with Bain & Company, a global management consulting firm, where he worked in Canada, the United States and Europe. He holds an honours bachelor degree in business administration from the Richard Ivey School of Business and earned a master of business administration from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University. Doug sits on the boards of the Health Care Coalition of Canada, Stratford Summer Music Festival and the STAR Family Health Team.
