Law Quadrangle Notes (USPS 893-460), issued quarterly by the University of Michigan Law School. Second class postage paid at Ann Arbor, Michigan. Office of publication, 109 East Madison, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109.

POSTMASTER: Send Form 3579 to: Law Quadrangle Notes, Law School, The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109.

This issue of the Law Quadrangle Notes is the twentieth annual report of the Law School Fund. The Fund is under the direction of Professor Roy F. Proffitt; Mrs. Lois A. Richards is supervisor of the Fund and is responsible for gathering the data used in this report. Editorial and design responsibilities handled by the University of Michigan Publications Office; typesetting and printing by the University of Michigan Printing Services.

Law School Fund Has Moved

We are now "at home" in a new suite of offices—largely reclaimed during construction from the old hallway and entrance area—at the east end of the basement corridor of the Law School Library. Of course our most important function is to provide logistical support for the annual campaigns, but we also:

1) Keep an up-to-date address list of Law School alumni. If we can help you locate a classmate or friend, ask us. (If you move, tell us!);

2) Provide address lists and labels to the Michigan Alumni Association and to class officers in connection with law class reunions;

3) Prepared and up-dated the data base for the new Law School Directory. We expect to publish alumni directories at frequent intervals (perhaps each three years) in the years ahead;

4) Furnish labels and mailing services to announce Michigan Law School functions in connection with state and local bar association meetings;

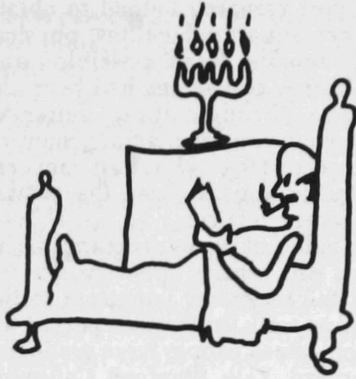

5) Provide (at cost) address labels to our alumni who wish to tell their classmates about becoming a partner in the firm, a corporate promotion, etc. (University regulations prohibit us from supplying address lists for commercial or political purposes.)

If we can help you, drop us a note or call (313-764-0518) or, best of all, come in and see us in our new offices.

On the Cover

This beautiful spring scene looking up from the small Hutchins Hall courtyard to the towers at the west end of Legal Research was taken by John W. Elam, J.D. '81. If you would like a copy of the picture for your wall, or perhaps as a gift, Chip can provide it to you. An 8" x 10" print, in silk finish if you prefer, will be $20. If you have a need for some other size, I am sure Chip can have it printed. Checks should be made payable to John W. Elam. You may write to him at Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease, Post Office Box 1008, Columbus, Ohio 43216. His telephone number is (614) 464-5648 if you wish to call.

Nutshell

It is very exciting to report to you the results of the 1980 Law School Fund campaign. Many more details are printed elsewhere in this report, but in a nutshell 1980 was the Fund's best year yet:

Total dollars—$833,719.33 (up 21.3%)

Total gifts—6,236 (up 5.9%)
Total alumni donors—5,360
(up 2.5%)
Per cent of alumni participation—
40.8% (down 0.6%)*

*Discussed a bit later.

To each of you who participated as a member of the "team" that conducted the drive—national committee, regional, state, and local chairpersons, solicitors—we extend our deep appreciation. And our sincere thanks to everyone who contributed to these record totals.

Building Blocks

With these new records to enjoy it is easy to forget the growing pains that the Fund experienced in its earlier years. In addition, more than half of our present alumni have graduated since the first Law School Fund campaign in 1961. Thus, it seems appropriate, at the end of the Fund's first two decades, to look back and to remind ourselves of some of the problems that had to be resolved and the people who helped to do it.

As the first order of business we salute the ten alumni who have served as Chairman of the National Committee during these first twenty years. Each served a two-year term as chairman, and most served in other capacities as well.

Herbert E. Wilson	1961, 1962
Thomas V. Koykka	1963, 1964
Emmett E. Eagan	1965, 1966
Benjamin M. Quigg, Jr.	1967, 1968
John S. Tennant	1969, 1970
Thomas E. Sunderland	1971, 1972
Malcolm L. Denise	1973, 1974
Samuel Krugliak	1975, 1976
David R. Macdonald	1977, 1978
William A. Groening, Jr.	1979, 1980

As important as their leadership has been there is more to the story. The Law School had, of course, received gifts from appreciative alumni and friends long before 1961. There is no better example than the beautiful Law Quadrangle, still the University's "crown jewel," the gift of William W. Cook, LL.B. 1882. And prior to 1961 a number of scholarship and loan funds and several prize awards for academic excellence had been established by gifts. Some of these, such as the Frederick L. Leckie Scholarship and Loan Fund, came through bequests. Several others were established by earlier graduating classes, usually on the occasion of their 25th anniversary reunions. The prize awards were usually funded by memorial gifts honoring a deceased member of the family or perhaps a former law partner. The gifts were welcome and important, but only the class gifts permitted participation by more than one or perhaps a handful of alumni, and more often than not the class gift was a "one-shot" affair with little continuing activity. There was no way that numerous small gifts easily could be accumulated.

Until the University Development Council and the Michigan Alumni Fund (MAF) were formed in the early 1950's solicitation of gifts by the University itself was nearly as hapazard. The Alumni Association of The University of Michigan enjoyed a large membership, but fund raising, except for a few specific projects such as Alumni Memorial Hall, the Michigan Union, and the Michigan League, was not a principal or continuing activity.

In the years immediately following World War II different things were happening at many of the leading private universities. In addition to building and strengthening central development offices programs were being established in individual schools, particularly the professional schools, with those universities.

Answers to our inquiries suggested several reasons for these separate and successful programs. Without exception each school felt that with some additional resources it had become a better school. The law schools told us that with increased financial aid they could attract more of the best students, salary supplements and money to support research helped to obtain and keep superior faculties, physical improvements were possible, and their library collections had been expanded. Through their separate programs they were reaching many of their graduates who had not responded to appeals from the central development offices.

The value of these programs to the schools was readily apparent, but we found the programs important to the alumni as well. Pride was a part of the answer—these people were graduates of Harvard, Yale, Stanford, Columbia etc. and they wanted "their" school to be one of the best. They were aware, of course, that the fact they were from one of the best frequently brought financial rewards as well as pride. There were other practical reasons. These schools often were the sources of new associates in their firms, or the new judicial clerks. Many alumni hoped their children would attend "their" law schools, and, in turn, receive a superior legal education. Finally there was a feeling of excitement and satisfaction for many alumni to know that with even modest participation in their law school programs they were helping today to make and keep "their" law schools one of the best. It was no longer necessary to die and leave a bequest or to first attain a fortune that would permit a major gift in order to have a positive effect.

All of these answers suggested the need and desirability of a fund raising program for the Michigan Law School, and several plans were suggested. But there were problems. The University itself was just feeling its way in fund raising. Many people thought that a school that received public support should not—or could not—overtly seek private gifts. Later the University was concerned that a successful Law School program would seriously reduce support for the Michigan Alumni Fund. The Alumni Association, although not directly concerned with fund raising, worried that Law School fund raising organizations in the major cities would lead to Law School Alumni Clubs, which would compete with and weaken the U-M Alumni Club structure, an important part of the Alumni Association's program.

Many discussions but little action followed. However, in the late 1950's two events occurred that clearly demonstrated that the Law School alumni would respond to a Law School program if its needs were known. Through the mid-'50's the G. I. Bill met a substantial part of the financial needs of the war veterans in school, and pressure on the financial aid funds was light. But as the proportion of veterans in the student body became smaller and tuition and other costs began to increase, it was clear that additional scholarship and loan money would be needed. With no organization to help, Dean E. Blythe Stason took things into his own hands. He wrote letters and explained the situation to two or three hundred alumni who responded magnificently, contributing nearly $40,000.

A year or two later, in 1959, the Law School was celebrating its centennial. Several alumni, under the leadership of Ralph Carson, J.D. 1923, and a few others, decided that a suitable gesture to mark this occasion would be an unrestricted gift of $100,000 from the alumni of the School. Although they fell a few thousand dollars short of their goal, this handful of men and women, by telephone and letters, did collect more than $65,000 from several hundred alumni.

Dean Allan F. Smith, who had succeeded Dean Stason, and Associate Dean Charles Joiner continued to press for permission to start a separate Law School program, and in 1960 the University hesitantly gave its blessing. As soon as possible a group of 25 or 30 alumni who previously had shown their interest in such a program were invited to Ann Arbor to plan for the initial campaign.

Unfortunately, a complete list of those attending that meeting is not available, but among those present were A. H. Aymond '39, Jackson; Charles A. Bowman '13, Detroit; James R. Breakey '29, Ann Arbor; John R. Brown '32, Houston, Texas; Malcolm Denise '37, Dearborn; Emmett E. Eagan '34, Detroit; Benton E. Gates, Sr. '29, Columbia City, Indiana; Arthur A. Greene, Jr. '39, Manchester, New Hampshire; Joseph C. Hooper '23, Ann Arbor; Thomas V. Koykka '30, Cleveland; Edward J. McCobb '25, Grand Rapids; Benjamin M. Quigg, Jr. '44, Philadelphia; Robert N. Sawyer '35, Monroe; James A. Sprowl '29, Chicago; John S. Tennant '31, New York City; Stephan Uzelac '60, Detroit; Philip F. Westbrook '47, Los Angeles; and Herbert E. Wilson '23, Indianapolis.

The meeting was extremely productive. The group had the advantage of comparing the fund raising organizations of several private law schools, and could use the best features of each. The result was, of course, the Law School Fund. That ad hoc committee did its work so well that the Charter of Organization is unchanged today, and the basic plan for soliciting other alumni is essentially intact. For general supervision the group created a National Committee with diverse membership designed to ensure wide geographic and class representation including student members and one representative each from the University Alumni Association, the University Development Council, and the Michigan Alumni Fund. Terms on the committee were staggered to assure continuity. The School was expected to furnish logistical support and to account for the funds that were received. The dean of the Law School and two other representatives of the faculty would serve as ex-officio members on the National Committee. Thus, although there was some School participation, the planning for the Law School Fund and the conduct of the first campaigns were clearly alumni activities. It remains so today, and each year a "team" of five to six hundred alumni is recruited to carry the message to the other alumni of the School.

Herbert E. Wilson, J.D. 1923, was elected the Fund's first National Chairman. He served for two years, and set a pattern that has been followed by succeeding chairmen. The enthusiasm for the concept of a Law School Fund is shown by the fact that in addition to Herb Wilson five other members of that initial group—Tom Koykka, Emmett Eagan, Ben Quigg, Jack Tennant, and Malcolm Denise—served two-year terms as National Chairman in subsequent years. Professor Richard V. Wellman directed the activities of the Fund in Ann Arbor for the first three years, and your scrivener has had the pleasure of serving as director of the Law School Fund in Ann Arbor since 1964.

The graphs that appear elsewhere in this report demonstrate more clearly than words the skill and thoroughness with which the initial and subsequent committees and their "teams" have done their work. We are confident that in the years ahead future

"teams" will continue to build on this substantial foundation.

Percent of Alumni Participation

At the beginning of this report you saw, in a "nutshell," the results of the 1980 campaign. Even during this record year there was a slight decline in the percent of alumni participation. A comment or two is in order.

Like one's blood pressure in a physical examination, this figure is one of the important "vital signs" used to measure the good health, particularly the continuing good health, of the Fund. How can it go down when everything else goes up? A part of the answer is in the definition of "alumni." Different schools follow different practices. By-and-large we include only the successful candidates for the LL.B. or J.D. degrees, and add them to the list when they graduate. A very few non-graduates who have maintained their interest in the School and its activities are also included.

Donald Black

Foreign students and scholars are a different matter. Many are, of course, candidates for and recipients of graduate degrees—LL.M., M.C.L., and occasionally the S.J.D. But others who spend a substantial period in residence in the Law School come to Ann Arbor to teach or to do independent research without expecting any degree. Nevertheless, many of these "non-candidates," as well as graduates, have strong feelings of affection for the School and maintain close ties with us. In their respective countries they are important contacts for our teachers and students, for American law firms and business organizations seeking legal advice abroad, and occasionally for our government officials. For a number of years we have listed their names and addresses, as well as those of foreign degree holders, in a separate directory of former foreign students and scholars, but this year, for the first time, we have added these nice people to our regular list of "alumni."

The numbers are significant when added to the base figure that we use to measure the percent of participation so that in spite of a healthy increase in the number of alumni participants the percent went down. These additional "alumni" are, of course, spread among many of the class lists so that there, too, the participation figure has been affected.

Special Donor Groups

Your reaction to our recent discussion of special donor groups suggested we should reprint some of the details about these various groups, and we have on the inside back cover.

Later on in this report you will find several lists containing the names of Law School alumni, friends of the Law School, and members of the "Law School Family" (usually spouses of alumni) whose gifts or commitments to the University now qualify them for inclusion within one of these special groups. A name will normally be found only in the one list with the highest requirements for which the person qualifies. For example, even though the person's gift for 1980 was at least $500, the lower limit for the University Deans Club, if that person is already a Benefactor or a member of the Presidents Club, his or her name would not be included in the Deans Club list.

If you wish more information about deferred gifts, trusts, insurance, unitrusts, pooled income funds, bequests, gifts other than cash or negotiable instruments, etc., etc., please feel free to telephone or write the Law School Fund. Or you may wish to write to the Associate Director of Development, The University of Michigan, 3540A Student Activities Building, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109.

Congratulations!

Each year we point out that it is risky business to single out specific areas or classes for comment because of the very wide differences in size, numbers, and previous levels of participation, but each year there are some things that simply must be said. This year they include:

1) The number of Thousand Dollar Cities (total gifts over $1,000) increased from 91 to 101.

2) Two regions (actually one is a half-region) should be noted. The southern portion of Region IX (California) under Fred Lambert increased alumni participation in every sub-area but one, increasing the gifts by 9.5% and dollars by a whopping 59.7%. Region XXX (Europe) with the impetus of the newly formed European Michigan Law School Alumni Association increased gifts 26% and dollars 18.5%.

3) Ira B. Rose led Westchester County, New York to a great year. Gifts increased 58%, dollars by 235%.

4) Speaking of counties, 91.5% of all alumni in Berrien County, Michigan, participated in the Fund in 1980, and the county continues to lead in that category for major centers of alumni population.

5) Two state leaders had their operations in high gear. Nebraska (David Pedersen) had 20% more gifts and 42.8% more dollars. Massachusetts (Francis E. Collins, Jr., and Robert M. Gault) showed increases of 16.3% and a whopping 121%.

6) Among the classes, 1968 (Allen D. Field is class agent) continues to lead in three important categories—most donors, most gifts, and percentage of contributors, and retained its third place position in most dollars contributed. But under Class Agent Chris Cohen, '67 Law closed the gap between it and '68 Law in every category for which we keep records. Can Allen Field meet this pressure?

Other results and leaders in a variety of categories are listed throughout this report. Our congratulations and thanks to everyone.

Commemorative Gifts

Each of us has at one time or another received the sad news of the death of a person who has meant a great deal to us. We must determine the most appropriate way to show our respect. A letter is often difficult to phrase.

You may feel that graduation of a friend or relative, or a birthday, or perhaps retirement of a friend or colleague, etc., should be marked by a commemorative gift, but how, and where?

On these occasions a gift to the University of Michigan Law School will allow the donor to honor the individual in a way that will bring lasting benefits to others. The person honored or the next of kin, as appropriate, will be told of the donor's thoughtfulness by the Law School.

We welcome inquiries.

Bequests and Life Insurance

During 1980 the Law School was the direct recipient of money as beneficiary in the wills of the following deceased alumni or in the wills of their widows or other members of their families:

Sherwood Ake

Richard Baker

Max Lidschin, na
Jessie M. Montgomery, na
Marion Lehr Simpson, na
Philip Van Zile, '38
Rosina M. Wolfson, na

Some of these gifts provided new student scholarship or student loan funds, and others permitted the money to be used with the discretion of the dean. These gifts are not reported with any other figures and statistics in the report because they were not necessarily the result of a donative intent in 1980, and because we thought the addition of the amount of the proceeds to the annual giving campaign would distort the direct results of that campaign.

The bequests serve as reminders of the truth and applicability of a statement published by one of our sister law schools to show the relationship of its annual giving program and bequests to the law school: "Annual giving to the Fund has improved steadily—but death terminates annual giving, and annual givers must become testators who remember the law school in their wills." Life insurance policies can serve a similar purpose.

Gifts-in-Kind

We frequently receive gifts of securities in lieu of cash, and they are certainly welcome. These gifts are usually sold promptly and the proceeds are reflected in the cash figures that we report. From time to time we receive gifts of real value, but a little less marketable than typical securities, that are not included elsewhere in the report. These gifts, too, are welcome. They have included such diverse things as a collection of antique pistols, a city lot in Escanaba, rare books for the Law School library, savings bonds, an automobile, life insurance policies, 100 ceramic coffee mugs, and an undivided interest in some real property in Barry County, Michigan. We suggest, if the gift-in-kind that you contemplate is an unusual one, and may entail special handling problems for the University, that you contact the Law School Fund office before you attempt to make the transfer.

Matching and Other Non-Alumni Gifts

As an encouragement to charitable giving many companies and some law firms make matching gifts to the Law School Fund (as well as to other donees). If you work for a company or perhaps sit on the board of directors you should check on its policy. In 1980 we received 234 gifts totaling $42,261.25 from 160 companies and firms.

Many other gifts from non-alumni are sent as memorial gifts (see more in other parts of this report). A few other very substantial gifts come through charitable foundations and trusts where our alumni have a role in advising the directors or trustees, and from time to time we receive a gift from an alumnus' individual client who wishes to make a charitable contribution, and on the advice of the alumnus, considers the Law School Fund a worthy recipient. Perhaps you, too, represent a foundation, a trust, or other client that would appreciate knowing more about the Law School Fund.

Andrea Beggs

Michigan Income Tax Credit

We remind those of you whose income is subject to the Michigan Income Tax that your gifts to the Law School or Law School Fund do qualify for the credit provision in Section 260 of the Michigan income tax statute.

Thus, without trying to get too technical here (obviously you will want to look at the statute), within the limitations of the Act the taxpayer can receive credit equal to 50% of his or her charitable contributions to institutions of higher learning located within Michigan. Since these charitable gifts also qualify as deductions on your Federal return (in contrast to the Michigan credit) it means that many of you can make a substantial gift to the Fund, up to $200, or up to $400 if you file a joint return, without a very large increase in your cash outlay.

Dear Terry:

The twentieth annual campaign of the Law School Fund has achieved a new high in dollars but fell short of our goal of alumni participation. Here are the results compared to 1979:

	1979	1980
Total Amount Contributed	$687,473.58	$833,719.33
Total Number of Gifts	5,887	6,236
Average Size of Gift	$ 116.78	$ 133.69
Total Number of Alumni Participating	5,227	5,360
Percentage of Alumni Participating	41.4	40.8

The dollars speak for themselves. The 1980 total was 22.27% over the 1979 total. The average size gift increased by 14.48%. These facts are indeed a cause for rejoicing.

Our joy at the dollar increase is, however, tempered somewhat by the fact that we fell short of our goal of 50% participation by our graduates. In fact, the percentage of alumni participating declined slightly in 1980, falling below both the 1978 and 1979 percentages.

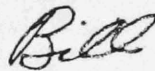

While we are disappointed that 59.2% of our graduates did not contribute, we are most grateful to the 40.8% who did contribute and who generally increased the size of their gifts. They have demonstrated again their gratitude for the superior education that they received at the Michigan Law School.

With the close of the 1980 campaign my two-year term as national chairman has come to an end. It has been an exciting and rewarding two years. The two vice-chairmen, the fifteen domestic and two overseas regional chairmen, and the innumerable state and local chairmen and solicitors, and the class agents have all worked hard to make the campaigns of both years great successes. As I cannot meet with each of them personally I want to take this opportunity to express in writing to each of them my personal thanks and the thanks of the Law School.

I also convey the thanks of all of us to Professor Roy Proffitt, who has served with distinction as director of the Law School Fund for all of its twenty years and who will continue to serve, I hope, for many years to come. Great credit is also due to his loyal assistant, Lois Richards, who keeps the office running and who keeps the entire organization of chairmen and solicitors on its toes.

Today Dick May has been elected to succeed me as national chairman. Dick, no doubt, will have the privilege of reporting to you for either 1981 or 1982 our first million dollar year. If he receives the support that I received he will achieve that goal. I wish him every success.

Most sincerely,

Dear Bill:

The faculty and students join me in expressing hearty congratulations to you and to the many others who contributed to the extraordinary success of the twentieth annual campaign of the Law School Fund. Our admiration for your achievement is exceeded only by our gratitude. The effort and generosity of so many alumni and friends are a heartening demonstration of affection for the School and of support for its commitment to excellence in legal education.

The increase in the amount annually contributed to the Fund during your term as chairman—an astonishing 45% over the two-year period—would have been welcome at any time, but it is especially so now. Double-digit inflation and the continuing economic problems of the state have combined to put the University's budget under severe pressure. More than ever before, consequently, we must look to the Fund for the support necessary to ensure that Michigan remains, as it has been for so many years, among the world's leading centers of legal education and scholarship.

In recent months, several alumni have asked whether contributions to the Fund add to the resources of the Law School or whether they merely permit a reduction in the funds that the School receives from the University. I want to take this opportunity to assure all our alumni and friends that University support for the School is in no way diminished by the generosity of our private supporters. To the contrary, I am persuaded that the confidence our alumni have expressed in the School by their contributions to the Fund has added to the Regents' and the administration's appreciation of the School's strength and, thus, to their commitment to maintaining it as one of "the jewels in the crown of the University."

Once again, warm thanks for your devoted service and your leadership during the past two years. We are all indebted to you for your willingness to accept so important a responsibility and for the exceptional effectiveness with which you have discharged it.

Sincerely,

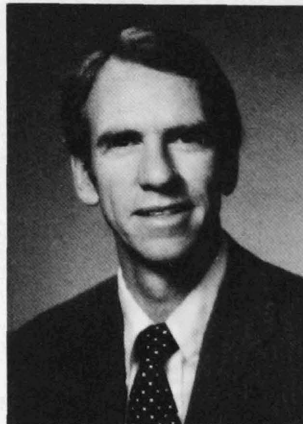

Terrance Sandalow

The Presidents Club

The University of Michigan Presidents Club is one of the most respected organizations of its type in the country. No other public university, and few, if any, private universities or colleges have the allegiance and backing of such a large number of people who support their institution in one of the most effective ways—with dollars.

The Presidents Club has been enthusiastically supported by many Law School alumni and a list of the Law members follows. Law membership increased in 1980 from 435 to 464.

The University Deans Club

This is a relatively new and quite different designation to recognize individuals who make an annual gift of $500 to the University.

In our list below, we have included Law School alumni and friends of the School who have made such gifts to the Law School (including gifts for the Capital Campaign as well as for the Law School Fund). In order to make this list correspond to our fiscal year for the Law School Fund and this report (February 1 to January 31), we include here only those who qualified between February 1, 1980 and January 31, 1981. Later qualifiers will be listed next year. One other limitation—if donors are listed in one of the preceding Special Donor Groups, they will not also be listed here, unless they have joined the above groups since making their qualifying gift.

Michigan Special Donor Groups*

THE JAMES B. ANGELL SOCIETY

Membership is open to individuals, corporations, foundations, associations and other groups. A combination of cash gifts and a deferred gift may be used to qualify; the deferred portion must be at least 150% of the difference between the total cash gifts and $1,000,000. For Angell Society only, all gifts over a person's lifetime are considered for qualifying, and all who in the past have made gifts of at least $1,000,000 have been recognized. Each individual member is eligible for membership in the Presidents Club.

MICHIGAN BENEFACTORS

Membership is open to individuals, corporations, foundations, associations and other groups. For individuals, a cash gift combined with a matching gift of not more than $50,000 totaling $100,000, each payable over 10 years may be used to qualify. And all gifts received by the University from the individual since January 1, 1961 may be credited in qualifying. A combination of cash gifts and a deferred gift may be used; the deferred portion must be at least 150% of the difference between the total cash gifts and $100,000. Each individual Benefactor is eligible for membership in the Presidents Club.

THE HENRY P. TAPPAN SOCIETY

Individuals only. In lieu of the basic cash gift of $50,000 the donor may make a cash gift of $37,500 plus a matching gift of $37,500, each payable over a period of 10 years to qualify. All Presidents Club qualifying gifts may also be credited in qualifying for Tappan. A combination of cash gifts and deferred gift may be used; the deferred portion must be at least 150% of the difference between the total cash gifts and $50,000. Each member is eligible for membership in the Presidents Club.

THE PRESIDENTS CLUB

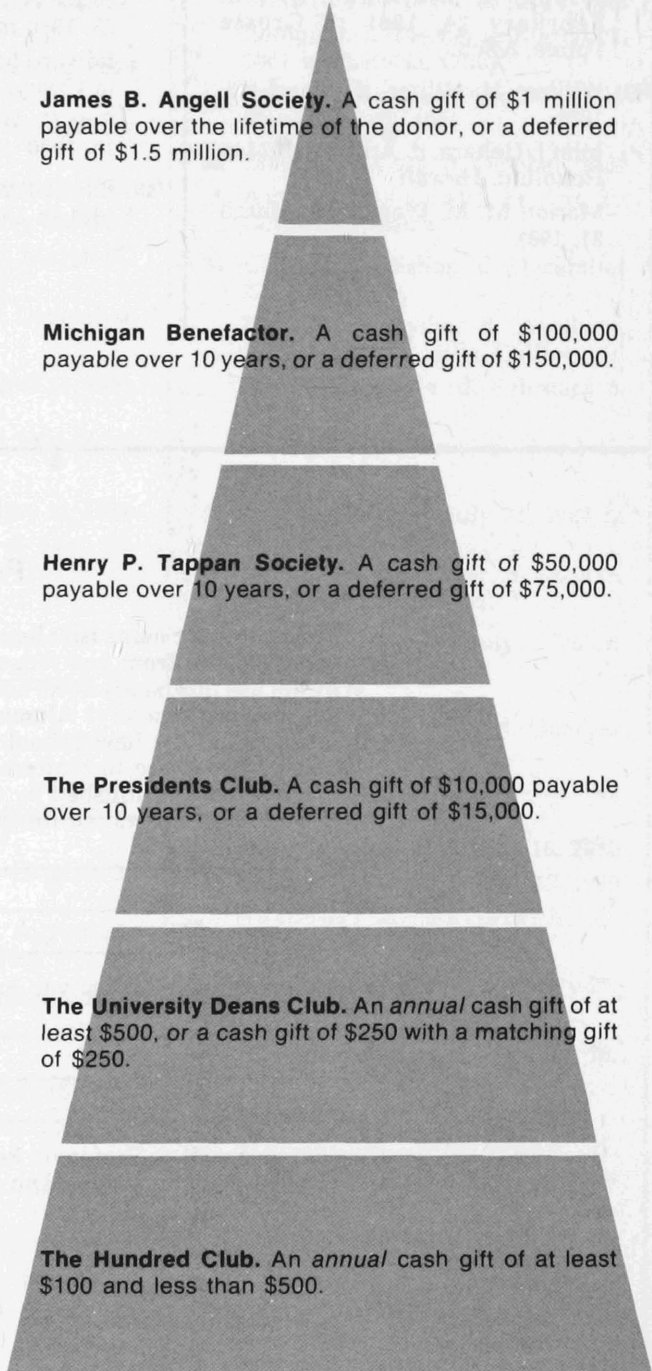

Individuals only. In lieu of the basic cash gift of $10,000 the donor may make a cash gift of $7,500 plus a matching gift of $7,500, each payable over a period of 10 years. Gifts received by the University in the 10 years prior to the commitment to qualify may be credited in qualifying. A combination of cash gifts and a deferred gift may be used; the deferred portion must be at least 150% of the difference between the total qualifying cash gifts and $10,000. If the donor's deferred gift is a life insurance policy the face value must be $25,000.

THE UNIVERSITY DEANS CLUB

Individuals only. Recognition is for an annual gift or gifts. The donor may use a cash gift of at least $250 and a matching gift sufficient to total $500. The University's year to measure the "annual" gift is July 1 to June 30. The Law School Fund's year for making the list of names in this report is February 1 through January 31 each year (our fiscal year for all purposes). Thus if you made a $500 gift to the Law School in March, 1981, your name will not be in this report, but will be listed next year when we report for 1981.

THE HUNDRED CLUB

Individuals only. For an annual gift or gifts. Matching gifts may not be used for this designation. Membership is acknowledged by both the University and the Law School, but we do not carry a separate list of names in this report. More than 2,000 alumni and friends qualified for membership in this group with gifts for the Law School (both Law School Fund and the Capital Campaign) in 1980.

James B. Angell Society. A cash gift of $1 million payable over the lifetime of the donor, or a deferred gift of $1.5 million.

Michigan Benefactor. A cash gift of $100,000 payable over 10 years, or a deferred gift of $150,000.

Henry P. Tappan Society. A cash gift of $50,000 payable over 10 years, or a deferred gift of $75,000.

The Presidents Club. A cash gift of $10,000 payable over 10 years, or a deferred gift of $15,000.

The University Deans Club. An annual cash gift of at least $500, or a cash gift of $250 with a matching gift of $250.

The Hundred Club. An annual cash gift of at least $100 and less than $500.

*Please see our comments about these groups in "Reading... Between the Sheets" on p. 5, and the list of Law members starting on p. 37.
