

ARS Species Rose Garden

On a hill across the street from main rose garden at Edisto Memorial Gardens,
Orangeburg, SC

Quarryhill Botanical Garden

Rose List

Malcolm Manners has many of these roses in his greenhouses in Lakeland to be planted in spring of 2020 at the ARS Species Rose Garden.

Species from Quarryhill
Rosa banksiae var. normalis
Rosa brunonii
Rosa chinensis var. spontanea (all 4 color variants)
Rosa clinophylla
Rosa davurica
Rosa fujisanensis
Rosa glomerata
Rosa graciliflora

Rosa henryi
Rosa longicuspis var. longicuspis
Rosa luciae var. luciae
Rosa moyesii
Rosa multibracteata
Rosa multiflora
Rosa multiflora var. adenochaeta
Rosa multiflora var. cathayensis
Rosa odorata var. gigantea (Indian form)
Rosa odorata var. gigantea (Yunnan form)
Rosa odorata var. gigantea (Shan form)

Rosa roxburghii f. normalis
Rosa rugosa
Rosa sericea
Rosa sericea subsp. omeiensis
Rosa sertata
Rosa sertata var. multijuga
Rosa setipoda
Rosa sikangensis
Rosa soulieana
Rosa sweginzowii
Rosa transmorrisonensis
Rosa tsinglingensis
Rosa webbiana
Rosa wichuraiana
Rosa willmottiae

Chinese Species Rose

Lijiang Road Climber

Donated by:
Gene Wearing

Chinese Species Rose

1988.237 1

Rosa chinensis spontanea

This species rose led to development of China Roses—source of everblooming in modern roses.

Mutabilis

Chinese Species Rose

Rosa
roxburghii
forma normalis

Rosa roxburghii normalis

The wild, species form; there is also a more white version.

Rosa roxburghii plena

Double form in the garden

Chestnut Rose

Chinese Species Rose

Rosa
banksiae var.
normalis

Rosa banksiae lutescens

Rosa banksiae lutea

Familiar to us as Yellow Lady Banks

Rosa banksiae alba plena

Familiar as White Lady Banks.

Tombstone Rose

The largest rose in the world, the Tombstone Rose (White Lady Banks) was planted in 1885 and covers 5,000 square feet.

Pat Shanley at 2018 Dedication Ceremony with Orangeburg's Director of Recreations

