POLICE IN THE DETROIT and Jackson areas are searching for the kidnapper-attacker of Debbie Jo Roland, age three, who was abducted Tuesday night. The child was found Wednesday walking on the sidewalk in Jackson wearing no clothes. The child had been criminally attacked, according to doctors. The man, or men, kidnapped the child in her mother's car, while the child was sleeping on the backseat.

Friday, September 11

A 16-YEAR-OLD BOY was said to have been beaten and kicked by four or more policemen, Thursday night, after the boy was arrested for hitting another officer with a chair. Five youths were arrested last night after a street fight which involved a teenage gang and the police. Four policemen were taken to the hospital as a result of the fight.

Saturday, September 12

A 50-FOOT LONG TUNNEL was discovered under the Jackson prison, Friday, squelching an escape plan of over 30 convicts. Prison guards made the discovery after officials noticed pairs of convicts loitering in the vicinity of the dye plant, next to the athletic field. Several lifers were thought to be among the group planning the escape.

The man believed to be the ring leader, a long termer, has been put in a top security cell alone, pending investigation, said Warden William A. Bannan. The tunnel had been under construction for months, apparently. It was empty when discovered.

THE RUSSIANS sent a rocket through space, Saturday, with its destination the moon. The rocket is scheduled to reach the moon at 4:05 p.m. today, Detroit time. Moscow seemed confident that the attempt would be successful. With the rocket on its present course "it must hit the moon," said one consultant in the Moscow Planetarium. The space capsule is ball-shaped and weighs 850 pounds. It is traveling through space at the speed of 6.8 miles per second.

If successful, the Russians will have put the first man-made object in history, on the earth satellite. The event would be significant, also, in view of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's arrival in the USA, Tuesday.

Monday, September 14

THE RUSSIAN SPACE ROCKET, fired Saturday, is thought to have successfully reached the moon. At 4:02:24 p.m., Sunday, Detroit time, the transmitters aboard the rocket stopped sending signals. It is presumed that the signals were stopped by the 854.4 pound instrument container's collision with the moon. Vice President Richard Nixon said that there is still no proof that the Russians actually hit the earth satellite.

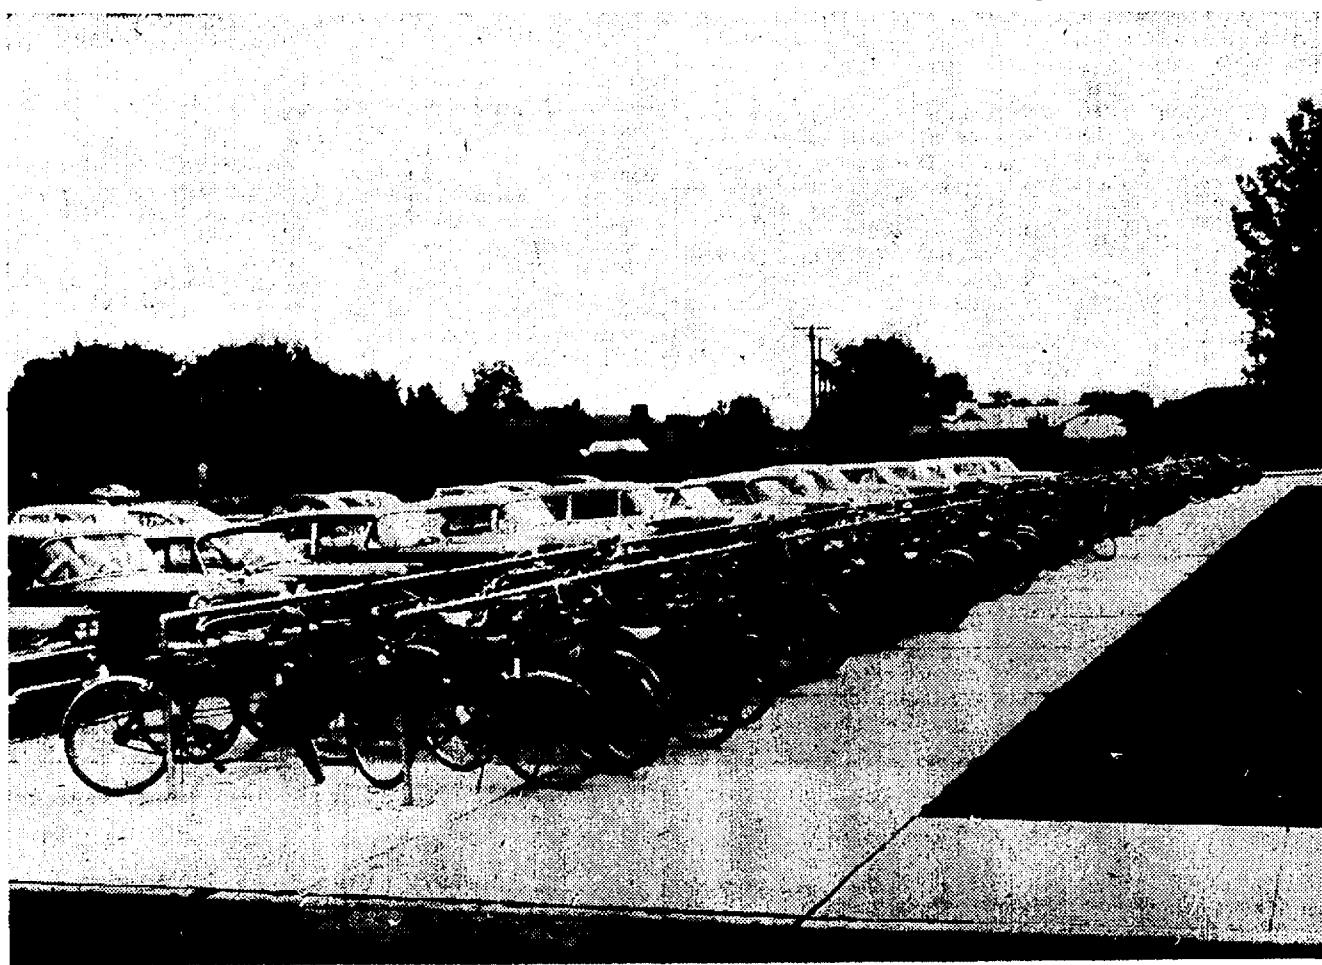

Tuesday, September 15

A MISSILE fired accidentally from an F-102 Delta Dagger jet plane, downed a similar plane near Munnith, 15 miles northeast of Jackson, Lt. Col. Montie Davis of Selfridge Air Force Base was flying a loaded plane, a substitute for the aircraft he had already checked out. He did not know that the second plane was loaded.

Wednesday, September 16

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV, the number one man from Russia, arrived in the United States yesterday morning for a 13 day visit. He was greeted at Andrews Air Force Base by President Eisenhower. Since the President doesn't speak Russian and Khrushchev can't speak English, interpreter Alexander Akolovsky accompanied the two leaders on their automobile journey back to Washington. Khrushchev, who brought his family along, arrived in a blaze of glory after the Russian's successful Moon missile. While in Washington, the Soviet Premier and his family will stay in the Blair House, across from the White House. His mission is for the purpose of "securing peaceful conditions for all people on earth," said Khrushchev.

Wheels Rest While Owners' Minds Spin

It would seem that the majority of both pupils and teachers ride to school these days. This picture taken outside of Monteith School in Cook road shows the transportation facilities employed by many of each category. While brains whirl inside the building, the mechanical wheels take a well-earned rest.

Deny Algae Is Harmful To Air Units

Farms City Engineer, Mack Businessmen Claim Everything in Order

A telephone call to the NEWS office, which claimed that algae in the local water system had caused thousands of dollars in damage to air conditioning units along the Mack avenue business district, was denounced by a Farms official and the businessmen.

A check of two of the several business establishments said to have suffered damages, brought denials from the proprietors.

Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith, said that neither he, nor City Manager Sidney DeBoer, received any complaints from the Mack Avenue business, or any other places in the city, regarding the destructive qualities to air conditioners attributed to the algae.

Has No Trouble Bernard W. Meldrum, owner of the Gift and Lamp Shop, 18650 Mack, said he has never had any trouble with his air conditioner, resulting from accumulation of the minute organisms.

He said that the water tank, which holds the water to be recirculated through the system, is kept clean and chlorinated to control algae growth.

Theodore Briggs, whose pharmacy is located at 18544 Mack, said he did not have any trouble with his conditioner, except perhaps a small leak in a pipe. He, too, stated he kept the water clean and chlorinated for recirculation.

Mr. Smith stated that if any

Proposed Drastic Change In Parking Lot Ordinance Fought By Cottage Hospital

Farms Council Chambers Crowded As Arguments Are Heard; Matter Tabled for Further Study Until Meeting on October 19

Cottage Hospital officials and interested citizens jammed the Farms council chambers during a public hearing Monday evening, September 14, to protest an "unreasonable" zoning ordinance change.

The change, a proposed amendment that would affect off-street parking facilities, would, in the words of Henry I. Armstrong, attorney and spokesman for the hospital, curtail future growth of the hospital, and possibly might spell out the life or death of the institution.

Drastic Change A present clause in the existing ordinance requires hospitals, of which Cottage Hospital is the only one in the Farms, to provide one off-street parking space for each five beds. The amendment calls for two parking spaces for each bed.

As the situation stands now, under the present law, the hospital has 103 spaces including proposed new spaces, which, its officials feel, is adequate to take care of parking needs, even under the hospital's current expansion program.

Armstrong stressed that the hospital's plans for a 200-bed building, sometime in the future, would be out of the question, since the institution cannot expand that much and still provide 400 parking spaces, at the two-for-one ratio.

Possible Rule Change The attorney said that graduate medical students must intern in hospitals, for post-graduate work, before they can become full-fledged doctors.

He said that the American Medical Association is thinking of changing its present rule, which provides that interns must work in an accredited hospital, to making it mandatory that interns must intern in hospitals having 200 or more beds. Hospitals of this category have better facilities to care for their patients.

Cottage Hospital is growing with the community, Armstrong said, expanding and adding in-

Two More Polio Cases Reported

The fourth and fifth cases of infantile paralysis this season in the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Health District, have been reported by Dr. Thomas S. Davies, health commissioner.

The latest victims are two brothers, aged 10 and 7, who live in Harper Woods. The second and third cases were also those of two brothers who had just returned from a vacation in Canada.

Three of this year's cases are in Harper Woods and two in Grosse Pointe Woods. There have been no cases reported in the Park, City, Farms or Shores.

One of the latest cases reported is accompanied by paralysis, the first such case this year. All five of the patients have had Salk shots, three having had four shots and the other two, three each.

Last year at this same time, six cases had been reported in the district.

City Plans Two Parking Lot Projects

Will Resurface and Remark Big Area Behind A & P, Improve Site Owned by Club

The contract for the resurfacing of City parking lot number four, (behind the A&P in the Village), has been approved by City Mayor Frederick Parker.

At the same time, the Mayor also signed an agreement with the Neighborhood Club for use of its parking lot on Waterloo. The agreement states that until 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday, the City will have use of 120 parking spaces in the Neighborhood Club lot. The Club will have the use of 44 spaces. After 6 p.m. the chain that will divide the lot will be removed and the Neighborhood Club will have use of the entire lot, plus part of the City parking lot number three, a total of about 200 spaces.

Will Drain Club Lot The City plans to put proper drainage facilities in the Club lot and then temporarily surface it with a rough grade, this year. Next year, a complete hard top base will be laid.

The resurfacing of lot four will also include the widening of the parking spaces from eight to ten feet. This is being done because of the complaints of women shoppers as to the difficulty of maneuvering today's large automobiles into the smaller spaces.

To Use New Bumpers A different type of bumper is also being installed. Instead of the metal poles that, when hit, scar the bumpers of the cars, concrete blocks 6 inches high will mark the front end of the parking aisle. Only the tires will come in contact with these.

To improve the appearance of the lot, new shrubbery will be planted at the front to take the place of the plants killed by frost last winter.

The cost of these two parking area improvements will be approximately $15,000, according to Nell B'ondell, City treasurer.

NAB SHOPLIFTER

The manager of the A&P store in the Village reported to City police that he was holding a 14-year-old boy for shoplifting, Tuesday, September 8. The boy had taken one 45 record, valued at 98 cents.

AVID DRINKER

Stephen Van Hogenbrauck, age 5, of 15914 Eastlawn, Detroit, was taken to Bon Secours for treatment September 8, after he cut his chin on the drinking fountain in the City Park.

Woods Municipal Hall Dedication To Be Held Dec. 6

Scheduled Completion and Occupancy Date October 15; Council Hears Report at Monday Night Meeting

The dedication of the new Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Building, 20025 Mack avenue, has been set by the Woods Council for Sunday, December 6, at 2 p.m.

The ceremony is planned to center around the public acclaim for services rendered by certain residents over the past few years. "We have invited everybody who has had a hand in making our city the great little city it is," said Woods Mayor Kenneth Koplin.

Invitations Sent Out Letters of invitation have been sent out to these people. Each one will be presented with a certificate of commendation, in appreciation of his efforts.

The scheduled completion and occupancy date for the building is Thursday, October 15. The nearly two month delay from then until the dedication ceremony is to allow all of the minor adjustments to be completed before the public inspects it closely.

A building report was presented to the Council meeting Monday night, September 14. It was said that plasterers had about three weeks work ahead of them, that the finished floors were yet to be installed, plus other partitions, millwork and miscellaneous items.

Driveway Bid Accepted During the September 14 meeting, the Council also accepted the low bid for the construction of the concrete service drive and gravel parking area. The cost was estimated at $16,509.35. The current budget had only allowed $12,758 for this particular job, so the additional amount, approximately $4,000, will be provided by the Municipal Improvements Fund.

A proposed change in the location of the sidewalk was brought before the Council in the form of a letter from the architect, A. J. Bagley. The recommendation was for a curved sidewalk following the perimeter of the drive rather than the presently planned walk. The plans now call for a straight walk, perpendicular to the entrance, leading from Mack avenue.

After some discussion, the Council decided to have Mr. Bagley present his revised plan.

Firemen Also Do Police Job

A 16-year-old Woods youth called Woods firemen on Tuesday, September 8, to put out a motor bike fire, and ended up with a violation ticket.

Donald C. Clement of 1737 Anita, was driving into the driveway of his home, when the bike chain broke, and the two-wheeler rolled out into the street. The dragging chain created sparks which ignited the gasoline from a leaking gas tank, causing the fire.

The firemen who answered the call, put out the blaze and then issued the youth a ticket for never acquiring an operator's license. Woods policemen double as firemen.

Thieves Acquire Collection Of Rare Stamps and Coins

The rare coin and stamp store, Coins and Stamps Inc. at 17358 Mack avenue, was robbed Thursday night, September 10, of between 40,000 and 50,000 dollars worth of scarce items.

Three men, all carrying guns and wearing gloves, entered the store at 8:15. The proprietor, Roman F. Lester, 43, of 1125 Lakepointe avenue, was alone in the shop. The thieves bound him to the plumbing in the washroom with an electric cord and then proceeded to collect their loot. They were in the store for a half an hour.

City Chief of Police Thomas V. Trombly said that they don't yet know if one or all three men were experts on rare coins. They dumped drawer after drawer of loose coins, rolls of coins and some stamps into their bags.

Lester said that all three men looked in their 30's. One of them was masked. One of them told him, "Don't worry about being in there too long. We'll call the police as soon as we get far enough away." He also heard another say, "If I get caught at this, I'm going to get 100 years."

Lester was able to free himself after he heard the thieves drive away.

A complete inventory of what is missing has not yet been completed. However, Lester does know of some rare coins that are missing. The police wish to emphasize that $40,000 in cash was not taken. Rather,

Enrollments Lower Than Anticipated

Figures Obtained After Start of Sessions Enable Educators to Cut Planned Program

Although announcements of elections to increase property taxes is never considered good news, the Grosse Pointe Board of Education feels there is a bright side to its decision to hold such an election. "We find that due to enrollments being less than anticipated," President Robert F. Weber announced, "we are able to lower the amount of the tax increase voters will be asked to approve Monday, October 26."

"We have decided to ask the voters of the school district to authorize the Board of Education to levy additional taxes to make essential improvements," Mr. Weber stated. "There are to be three separate propositions, all of them for a four year period." If approved the taxes will become effective a year from now, December, 1960.

"One proposition will ask 1 3/4 mills or $1.75 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation for the purpose of improving staff salary schedules," Weber said. "Another will ask 3/4 mill or 50c per thousand to meet increased operating costs. The third proposal asks 3/4 of one mill or 75c per $1,000 for a building and site sinking fund so that we may provide necessary additions to our buildings as well as to rehabilitate and modernize many of our physical facilities."

Has Bright Side

"There is a bright side to this announcement," President Weber pointed out. "Originally it seemed to indicate that our shortage of classrooms and other space would be more severe and that a larger building and site levy would be necessary. However, we reserved a final decision until classes began, because even the best and most reliable projections have too many variables in them. We now find that fewer students actually enrolled than predicted by our census figures."

"Therefore," Weber said, "the number of rooms needed immediately appear to be reduced and we are asking only 3/4 of a mill for construction purposes instead of the 1 1/4 mills originally proposed."

Memorial Organ To Be Dedicated

Dedication of the Allan Sheldon Memorial organ at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will take place Sunday, September 20, at both morning services of Divine Worship—9:30 and 11 o'clock.

The organ, a gift of Elizabeth Buhl Warren Sheldon and her sons, Allan Sheldon III and William Warren Sheldon, has been designed and installed by M. P. Moller, Inc., organ builders, Dr. Frank Pitt, Pastor Emeritus of Memorial Church, will preach the dedicatory sermon.

The new instrument is one of the outstanding church organs in the country. It represents a culmination of the best tradition in the development of the pipe organ from the continent of Europe, Great Britain, and North America. Several of the divisions stand freely in the open where the pipes are artistically displayed. The console, controlling the entire instrument of nearly 4000 pipes, may be moved into the chancel for recital purposes.

Following the second service on September 20, a brief service of dedication will also be held for the chancel mosaic in memory of Helen Newberry Joy. As a complement to the new organ and to improve its acoustical results in the church, the Willet Stained Glass Company of Philadelphia has created the mosaic to provide a hard tone reflecting surface and an inspiring arrangement of traditional Christian symbols.

Sunday evening, September 27, at 8:15 o'clock, Ernest White, tonal director of the Moller Organ Company, will play the first recital.

ed, the adjustments will be made in the contract to allow which ever of the sidewalks the Council decides is more appropriate.

ANOTHER BIKE STOLEN

Lydia Liscock of 440 University place told City police officers that her bicycle had been taken from the back yard of her home, September 8.

REPORTS PROWLER

Mrs. George M. Aldridge, of 790 Lakeland avenue, reported to City police that she thought someone had tried to break into the house, September 7. There were pry marks on the screen.

Cut School Tax Proposals

(Continued from Page 1) nally thought necessary. Insofar as we can be sure we believe this will be sufficient for the present.

Need Fewer Teachers

"In addition," he stated, "the same factor, the lower than anticipated enrollment, has indicated that probably fewer additional staff members will be needed in the four year period. Thus, instead of 3 1/2 of a mill that we had planned to meet this upcoming expense as well as to maintain our present salary schedules we believe that 1/2 mill will now suffice."

"In effect then, the requests we are making upon the resources of the community have been reduced by 3/4 of a mill," the Board President said. "All of our propositions added together now total just 3 mills or $3.00 per $1,000 instead of the 3 3/4 mills it appeared last summer would be necessary. Naturally, we are pleased by this unexpected development."

Enrollments in the public schools as of Monday, September 14, totalled 10,257. This number will continue to grow as late comers arrive, school officials said.

2,231 in High School

Of the total, 2,231 are enrolled in Grosse Pointe High School. Attending the three junior high schools are 2,314 others while a total of 5,712 are in the ten elementary schools serving the district. A total of 677 teachers, administrators, secretaries, and custodians are employed to make the program function.

Seventy-five of the teachers on the staff this year are new to the system. Most of these are replacements for staff members who resigned at the end of the last school year. This statistic underlines one of the major problems confronting the school system and constitutes the main reason why the Board of Education feels it must improve local salary schedules.

Twenty-four of the teachers who didn't return for the 1959-60 school year took other positions, a much higher than usual loss of this nature. In addition nine other teachers, hired last spring as replacements, subsequently resigned to take other positions before they even began teaching in Grosse Pointe. Losses like this can only be interpreted as evidence that opportunities and rewards are greater elsewhere and that successful competition for the best teaching talent is very difficult.

Weaknesses Shown
Studies of salary schedules of neighboring communities as well as of other systems across the nation have revealed that the Grosse Pointe pay scales have some weaknesses. Although minimum and maximum amounts paid here compare favorably with others, the smaller annual increment and the greater number of years needed to work one's way to the top cause the accumulative earnings of a local teacher to lag considerably behind those of an opposite number in other systems.

The Board of Education proposes to strengthen the local schedules if the 1 3/4 mill levy for this purpose is approved. The improvements will be spread over a three year period and will result in the following: The present minimum or beginning salary of $4700 for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no teaching experience will be increased $100 per year to $5000 by 1962-63. The present maximum of $7625 attainable after 14 years of successful teaching experience and annual demonstrations of professional growth will become $8375.

A classroom teacher with maximum training, the doctorate degree, and 17 years experience can aspire to a maximum earning power of $10,700 on the new schedule. There are presently only three teachers on the staff with this degree to whom this would apply.

The construction program envisioned by the Board and for which the proposed 3/4 mill levy would be used is considerably reduced from what was contemplated during the summer. However, that which remains is critical to the overall program, school officials stressed. Present shortages of space may not be added to as rapidly as feared earlier but they will still continue to grow, they said.

At present the Board knows that the High School needs a rather general rehabilitation of facilities. Two areas are particularly urgent. The present library is only about half the size it should be for an enrollment of 2200 students. Improvement of this condition is a must.

High school science facilities are inadequate both as to up-to-dateness and quantity. With its complete conversion to a senior high school there are many more students to be accommodated in biology, chemistry, and physics. Proper laboratory space is unavailable. It should be provided. The rapid advances being made in these fields also dictate that modernization of equipment and techniques must occur.

Many of the elementary and junior high schools need small

Fight Parking Lot Ordinance

If the hospital is required to adhere to the proposed amendment, if it is adopted by the council, then future expansion is out of the question.

Calls Change Unfair

"Cottage Hospital does not wish to 'just' grow," Armstrong said, "but it wishes to keep on growing. The hospital has been in this area for 40 years, serving the community during that time. It is unfair to ask the hospital to do the impossible." He said that if the hospital is not permitted, or able to expand to 200 beds, then it is likely that the building will be closed up.

Councilman Henry Bodman III, disclosed to the attorney and audience, that the Farms additions of space or other adjustments. In most cases this involves the addition of a classroom or two to allow a room that was originally planned for use as a school library or as an instrumental music room to be restored to use as such. Some such inequities may be removed or modified by a shift of district boundaries to bring about a better balance of rooms and students.

School officials listed some of the shortages now confronting the district. Ferry School has no library room or instrumental music room. Barnes School has no room for its instrumental music program. The library rooms in Poupard, Kerby, Richard, Maire, and Montclair are all being used for regular classroom purposes.

The Board of Education feels that it can correct all of these deficiencies as well as others not listed in the four year period the 3/4 mill building and site levy covers. A continuing study of needs will be carried on to insure that as improvements are made they are tailored to fit the most recent developments. It is planned that lay people will be asked to work with school personnel on these study committees. Details will be announced later.

Thieves

The City police are at present investigating the robbery, but no definite results have come from the investigation as of yet.

VANDALS AT WORK

Vandals smeared dough on the outdoor sign at the Grosse Pointe Poultry Store, 17648 Mack avenue, the night of September 8. The owner reported the incident to the City police the next morning when he discovered it.

 Bushong. "We are familiar with the reputations of most of the high schools on the list and consider it a great honor to be recognized with them."

Good Teamwork

The Superintendent pointed out that Grosse Pointe's reputation had been in the making for over 30 years and was the result of good teamwork. "We have outstanding student material supplied us by parents who are themselves the ultimate as advocates and supporters of a quality educational program," he said. "These two ingredients are most essential to a good educational program but a third is equally necessary. This, of course, is the classroom teacher. Grosse Pointe is particularly fortunate in this respect having developed over the years a very competent and highly dedicated teaching corps."

The Geneva study brought out that things such as smaller classes, ability grouping, a fully developed guidance and counseling program were most important in having a top notch program. Grosse Pointe rates well in all of these as well as having an educational philosophy which stresses the basics and strives to stretch all students academically as frequently as possible.

Every Grosse Pointe student's program is carefully planned beginning in junior high school. By the end of the ninth grade students, parents, teachers and counselors have all joined forces to construct a schedule of courses which will most nearly be met while keeping in mind his abilities and potential. The result, called the 3-year plan, is the road map the student follows throughout the rest of his high school career. An important point is that the plan is flexible and can be modified as needed to meet new demands or new goals. In any event the best possible planning, thinking and guidance has gone into each student's plans. The realization of these plans then becomes a matter of follow-through on the part of all concerned. Dr. Bushong emphasized.

Not Generally Grouped

Students in the Grosse Pointe Public School System cannot be said to be generally grouped according to ability as recommended by the Geneva study. "Some small number of elementary classes are so organized," Dr. Bushong stated, "but in the main those students with outstanding academic ability are challenged in their regular elementary school classes through an enriched and broadened program. They also have opportunities for such as after-school foreign language study or in extra curricular activities in areas of especial interest to them."

In the secondary schools it is possible to bring students who are said to be gifted in certain subject areas together for study in those particular fields only. In other areas where their abilities are more average they are grouped with pupils with like abilities. This pattern is perhaps best illustrated by the Honors sections which have been operating in Grosse Pointe High School since 1953. While some students may qualify for a greater number it is most typical to find the better students enrolled in one or possibly two of these more demanding classes.

Fine English Courses

The study stressed one aspect in which Grosse Pointe High School has long excelled. This is the scope and content of the English courses made available to students. The Geneva Citizens Council learned that the colleges and universities put great store in the kind of preparation a student has in this field. Creative writing was emphasized as most important.

"Our annual follow-up study of our graduates as college freshmen always finds English VIII being singled out as one course they are most grateful for having had," the superintendent said. "They say it caused them to really learn how to study and to communicate adequately in high school. Thus, they feel they were well prepared for the demands college was to make upon them in this respect."

Deny Algae Is Harmful

air conditioning unit breaks down as a result of the accumulation of algae, it would be because the owner does not take care of it.

Must Be Chlorinated
"Even swimming pools accumulate algae, if the water is not constantly filtered and chlorinated," he said. "We put one-tenth of one part of chlorine per million gallons in our water to control algae, but after three days, the chlorine tends to disappear, especially when used over and over again in the air-conditioning units."

He said that the water tower tanks are required to hold water for cooling systems, and the water is used and cooled many times during the hot days of summer.

He denied an allegation made by the tipster, in which the tipster claimed that the algae was the result of the new rotor screens installed by Highland Park in the recently renovated filtering station.

Are Airborne
Mr. Smith said that algae that sometimes forms in the tower tanks, if the tanks are not kept properly, are the result of the minute organisms being airborne. The high temperature of summer adds to the condition, he said. The use of a little "make up water" is of little use, he added.

Algae accumulating in water, is green and slimy, and can clog pipes and other systems that require the use of water.

Builder Given Franchise For Esther Williams Pools

Charles Kuhlman, who, together with other members of his family, has been a builder here for the past 30 years, has taken the Esther Williams

CHARLES KUHLMAN
Swimming pool franchise for Grosse Pointe, it was announced during the past week. Kuhlman, who is also interested in building custom pools and poolhouses, says the newest feature in swimming pools is the Esther Williams "Living Pool," an all-season luxury type pool with water heater and solar roof, which the company plans to introduce here in Grosse Pointe in the near future.

"It will mean that Grosse Pointers will be swimming in comfort on Christmas day as well as in August," Kuhlman said. "Another point is that Esther Williams pools are far more economical to acquire and maintain than is generally believed." The recent full-page Esther Williams Pools advertisement in the Wall Street Journal quoted pool prices from $2,995 to $9,000.

Hall to Speak To Federalists

Gordon D. Hall, nationally known speaker, will give the after-dinner talk at the United World Federalists' first fall meeting on Monday, September 21.

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will be the setting for the dinner-meeting at 6:45 p.m. Mr. Hall's subject will be "Beware the Loaded Appeal!"

Ralph Kimsey, new Regional Director for this area of UWF, will be introduced at this meeting.

The public is welcome to attend this dinner, or the talk following the dinner at 8 p.m. Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling TU 5-9169.

Men's Chorus Seeks Singers

The Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus resumes rehearsals at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Monday evening, September 21, at 8:30 o'clock. Rehearsals have been moved from Tuesday evenings so as not to conflict with the Community Mixed Chorus.

The Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus is under the direction of John Finch who for 20 years has been Head of Vocal Music at Grosse Pointe High School.

The Men's Chorus is sponsored by the Memorial Association and welcomes into its membership any Grosse Pointe male regardless of age who has an interest in group singing. No audition is needed; Mr. Finch will place you in the section where you belong if you will come to the Center's Recreation Room on Monday evening, September 21.

In addition to good fellowship and song fests at rehearsals, the chorus has quite a schedule of concerts in churches, before fraternal orders and clubs, and around the community at different events. One annual concert is always presented at the Center itself.

Probe Fire

Fire officials believe that if the paper had burned through, the resulting explosion could have caused considerable damage. The fact that the paper was stuffed too tightly, prevented it from burning completely, it was said.

Woods Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey said that agents of the State Arson Squad and the National Underwriters are assisting his department in a full scale investigation, "and have been since the date of the fire."

The Director said that to date, there is no evidence to pin-point the author of the fire, but he is of the opinion that it could have been started by some child.

Dr. Lack said he could not think of anyone who would deliberately set the blaze.

Woods Fireman Douse Bed Fire

Fire damaged a bed in the upstairs bedroom of the home of Thomas W. Walsh, 1832 Hampton, on Sunday, September 13.

The blaze was put out by Woods firemen, who used a booster line.

Fire officials said the blaze was started either by a cigarette, or a heating pad cord. All that was damaged was the mattress and the wood of the bed, they said.

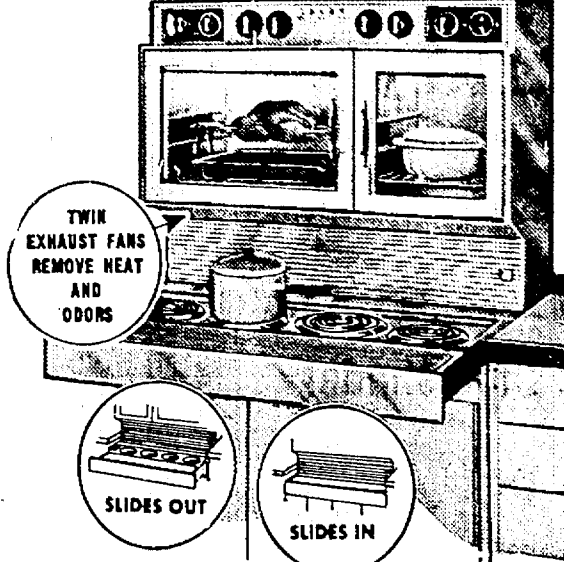

It's next to impossible to find a man who is willing to hold the ladder while you climb to success.

Youth Leaders Saluted at Fair

Bill, a senior at Grosse Pointe high school, represented the YMCA. He is president of the Hi-Y Club, Michigan delegate to the Tri-H-Y National Council, helped promote a world citizenship workshop this spring, attended the 10th National Hi-Y Council in Colorado, and was a delegate to the state Hi-Y Older Boys conference this summer.

Lafata, a junior at Austin Catholic high school, represented the CYO Teen Federation. He was treasurer of the freshman class and president of the sophomores, served as manager of the football team, and has been secretary of the Teen Club at Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish. He currently is chairman of the CYO Teen Federation and served on the program and conference committees.

Susan, a senior at Grosse Pointe High School, represented the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit. She is vice-president of the Sigma Y-Teens, secretary of the Debate Club, patrol leader at the 1959 Girl Scout World Roundup, attended the region VII Girl Scout conference and served as chairman of the Citywide junior high rally.

Center Offers Art for Adults

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association has been privileged over the past several years to be able to obtain the services of some of the finest nationally and internationally known art instructors. Guy Palazzola, Edgar Yaeger, Hughie Lee-Smith, and Emil Weddige have all taught at 32 Lake Shore.

Now beginning Monday and Tuesday, September 21 and 22, the Memorial Association is proud to announce that Dr. Marco Nobili will be teaching oil painting and water color in the Center's Terrace Room overlooking the lake. The Monday morning class from 9:30-11:30 o'clock will be reserved for advance students and experienced painters. The Tuesday afternoon class, 1:30-3:30 o'clock will be for intermediate students.

For the first time the Center will offer a class for beginning artists in the evening starting Tuesday, September 22, 7:30-9:30.

All classes are to be limited to 15 students each, so immediate enrollment is advised by calling the Center, TU, 1-7511. Tuition is $36 for twelve weeks of two hour classes.

Marco Nobili holds a Doctors Degree from the Royal Polytechnic of Milan, Italy. Locally he has served as professor in Wayne State University's Art Department and is currently Head of Color, Perspective, and Industrial Design at the Society of Arts and Crafts. He is married to the famous water colorist the former Louise Jansson.

Their new East Jefferson home which he designed himself on the Frank Donovan property is almost ready for occupancy. Dr. Nobili hopes to welcome his Center students in his new home occasionally for seminars and critiques.

Offer Course On Religion

Three religion courses will be offered this fall by the Division of Adult Education of Wayne State University - University of Michigan.

In order to aid in the understanding of individual contributions of Hinduism, Judaism, Islam, Buddhism or Christianity itself, the course, "Great Religions of the World" will be offered each Wednesday from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. by Dr. Frank L. Huntley and other members of the University of Michigan faculty. The course will be offered at Dondero High School in Royal Oak. The fee for the 12 week course will be $10.

Offered on Tuesday nights from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Grosse Pointe High School is "The World's Great Religions." Dr. O. L. Chevarria-Aguilar of the University of Michigan will teach this course which deals with man's religious nature and the variety of its expressions. This course will extend for 12 weeks and the fee will be $20.

Both of the off-campus courses will begin the week of September 21 and additional information can be obtained by calling the local adult education department in either Royal Oak or Grosse Pointe.

"Christianity in the Fuller Light of History," an eight week course for $13, will be held at the Rackham Memorial each Friday beginning Sept. 25. Dr. LeRoy Waterman, professor emeritus of Semitics of the University of Michigan, will teach the course which deals with a study of two indispensable forerunners of Jesus and the new light they throw on his life and message.

Registration for the courses started Monday, September 14, at the Division of Adult Education at 60 Farnsworth.

Kill Them Now

Many of you have been looking at your lawns with disgust this summer and wondering where all those weeds came from and what you can do to get rid of them. You have probably tried pulling them but they always seem to come back. Then you may have tried some of that "kill-em-dead" stuff. It kills the weeds, sure, but manages to kill the grass too. Now you realize that hand-pulling weeds just doesn't work because the smallest piece of root left in the soil can produce a new weed which the right chemicals used, at the right time, can kill to the root tips and not kill the grass. Early fall and spring is considered the best time, by many experts, to kill weeds in lawns — so kill 'em now.

Duties Assumed By Vicar Gotts

Larry Gotts of Northville, Mich., recently began his duties as vicar in First English Ev. Lutheran Church, 800 Vernier road.

The one year period of service, known as internship, will help to acquaint Mr. Gotts with the work of a pastor in a Lutheran parish. He will assist The Rev. Paul Keppler, pastor of the church, in different phases of church work.

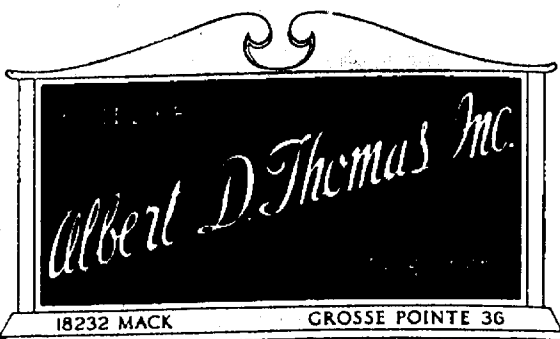

Having graduated from Michigan State University, Mr. Gotts has completed two years of study at the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Columbus, Ohio. Following this year of internship, he will return to the seminary for a final year of study.

A coffee hour was held to welcome him last Sunday after the morning service. Mr. Gotts will reside at 20739 Young lane.

Kidney patients say...

"It tastes too good to be true!"

A delightful, natural way to help relieve KIDNEY-BLADDER DISCOMFORT!

You see, Mountain Valley Water has been "enjoyed" by thousands of kidney-bladder sufferers for over 76 years . . . enjoyed for its light, refreshing taste, for the relief from pain and irritation it helps bring. It is truly nature's perfect water "produced" by the famous spring at Hot Springs, Ark. Non-filling and non-laxative, Mountain Valley never causes after-effects or stomach upset. And users say it tastes so good it's a pleasure drinking the 6 to 8 glasses-a-day recommended! Many, many physicians testify to the value of MOUNTAIN VALLEY WATER as adjunctive therapy for the improved kidney action that so often results in relief from kidney-bladder discomforts. They say, in effect, "Mountain Valley tends to regulate kidney action" . . . and equally important, patients ENJOY drinking it!

As one doctor put it, "Mountain Valley Water would not do anybody any harm. It would do an awful lot of good." Still other doctors attest to its beneficial diuretic effect, the way it flushes kidneys and regulates their action in both sluggish and over-active conditions. Why not ask your own doctor! Also, why not ask your neighbor right here in Grosse Pointe? Someone very near to you, you may be sure, drinks only Mountain Valley Water . . . delicious Mountain Valley Water!

Lay Plans for Church Drive for Funds

Members of the Finance Committee of St. Paul Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop, discussing plans for the forthcoming Stewardship Fund-Raising Program which starts next week. From left to right:—ARTHUR BERNS, LAWSON POTTER, RAYMOND MIOTTEL, chairman; ERWIN GRAHAM and ELMER HERSCHELMAN.

About 600 members of St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop road, are expected to attend a loyalty dinner on Sunday, September 20, at Brownell Junior High School auditorium starting at 5:30 o'clock.

The dinner will be a forerunner to a five-week stewardship fund-raising program which will be conducted throughout the congregation. The program's purpose is to gather funds for the general budget, benevolent needs and a building program.

Continued growth at St. Paul necessitates the construction of an educational building, plans of which are now being completed. The structure will be just east of the present church site.

Attending the dinner will be various teams and their captains who will canvass during the five-week program. A social program has been arranged for the evening. Children between the ages of two and confirmation age will be served a light lunch at the church during the time of the Loyalty Dinner.

The slogan adopted and to be used throughout the entire program will be, "We Build to Serve."

Village Garden Club to Meet

The Village Garden Club will hold its September 25 meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Wenger in Renfrew road.

The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Phillip Baker, Mrs. Dan Eddins and Mrs. Harvey C. Fruehauf.

The program will be slides and a talk on Russia by Mrs. Charles Jacobson, who has just returned from Russia, and "European Gardens," by Mrs. Kendrick Brown.

DRIVER ACCUSED

Theodore Saj of 16702 Eastlawn, Detroit, was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol by Shores police, who arrested the motorist on Lake Shore road on Thursday, August 27. Saj put up a bond of $150 before he was released until trial date.

It's next to impossible for a man to believe anyone can be on the square after he has lost faith in himself.

With Our Blessings

Within the next few days and weeks we shall be saying goodbye to you young men and women who are leaving for college. Some of you who attend institutions close by will be back with us often; others will not return until the Thanksgiving or Christmas vacation periods.

If your powers of perception were abnormally keen, you could find, tucked away in that outrageous assortment of luggage and duffle which is always affected by the college crowd, things other than the equally absurd collection of personal items which go ever with you. You would see a million tiny, unuttered thoughts, bits of advice which we never quite got around to passing on to you.

So much of us goes with you, it is just as well you do not know. Accepted with the seriousness with which it is sent, it would constitute a burden that young people should not be called upon to carry.

It is an unchanging law of life that the younger generations grow constantly further away from their parents. And it is, for us, a sad truism that just the reverse holds with the oldesters. Our interests turn inward and focus sharper with every passing year on the events which make up the lives of our children and grandchildren. But it is equally true that we would have it no other way.

Advice is easy, and there are so many things we think we could and should have told you, to make things easier. Looking back, we are so prone to think of these years through which you are now passing as a painless period of enchantment and frivolity. Time is a great eraser and most of us have forgotten that all things are relative; that the troubles of youth, though they may seem negligible to us, may be just as bitter to swallow as our own most devastating trials. If we are lacking in understanding, we ask your forgiveness.

The shyness of youth, if such a thing still exists, is surely equalled by the shyness of a parent who is afraid to bare his soul to his own children lest he appear weak, or in fear that he may embarrass the youngster with a display of maudlin sentiment. In removed repose, it appears to us that a great deal more of this interchange of inner feeling would be a healthy and highly satisfying experience.

We wish we had not hesitated to tell you how proud of you we are, and what tremendous boons you have granted us through your accomplishments. We are sorry about the beratings we felt at the time were merited, and we wonder fearfully whether they were harmful or helpful.

We are so mindful of our own first days in college, and of little incidents and soul-shaking experiences, which followed in quick succession through all those wonderful years. We are going through them again with you now, and hoping that something we have imparted is helping you, either to get the utmost enjoyment or the least sorrow out of them as they come along.

College is such an immense hodge-podge of opportunities and pitfalls, with so many doors that should be opened and entered, and so many others that should remain closed; so many roads that should be explored, and endless turns that should never be taken. Now, infinitely more than ever before, you are going to have to rely on your own judgment. But we want you to know that if you err, and if help is needed, we want to be given the first chance to provide it.

There is so much said about our "future citizens," the "leaders of tomorrow," the "hope of the world," that we trust you will pardon us for mentioning these old cliches. We like to remember the college president who told the entering freshman class: "If by the time you have been graduated from here you have learned how to educate yourselves and can use a library intelligently, we shall consider that we have done a good job."

These years are but preparatory ones for the many, many which lie ahead, each pregnant with possibilities for broadening your education. The truly wise man is the one who continues to learn every day of his life, who is always honest enough to admit he does not know the answer, but then makes a point of finding it.

Your education has to do not only with classrooms and textbooks and lecture halls, but with mixing with your fellow students and faculty members, both socially and intellectually. Tolerance is an attribute to be devoutly cultivated.

Let religion be a large part of your lives and be thankful that there is a noticeable surge today in the movement back to the Greatest Teacher. There will be many times when you will find yourselves in need of His instruction and you will find it helpful to be on close terms with Him.

These are the golden years and yours is the privilege to make of them what you will. If we have helped you walk across the threshold with confidence, we are grateful. If we have failed you, forgive us.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR... 468 Cloverly Road, Labor Day, 1959

To The Editor: At a recent public meeting on financing current needs of our Grosse Pointe public schools, a good presentation was made of the need for increased local taxes: 1. To enlarge two school buildings, plus an expanded high school laboratory and enlarged libraries; 2. For more teachers; and 3. For a moderate over all in-

Grosse-Exaggerations A. PRYOR

Guest Columnist: Peg Cannon

Nearly everyone is aware of the international crisis developing in Laos and Cambodia (formerly Siam) but how many of us have suspected that a comparable situation has been boiling up right here in Grosse Pointe under our very noses!!

It involves a Siamese cat (or should we now say a "Cambodian Cat?") an English Pug and a couple of ardent Scots.

But to begin at the beginning — as a very special present to her husband, the Scottsman's wife created a beautiful design representing the Scotch thistle. It pleased him so mightily that she transferred it to canvas and worked it painstakingly in needlework. Every hour was a labor of love.

The only thing was that so MANY hours were involved that Mrs. McTavish began to feel she had taken on one of those Century projects like the oriental carvings that are handed down from generation to generation for completion. But finally after twelve long months of needlepointing, the canvas was finished. In beauty and craftsmanship it was unsurpassed, so the McTavishes had it made into a large and luxurious down filled sofa pillow.

Throughout this period, faithful Anthony Eden (the English Pug, naturally) had crouched at the feet of his mistress under the folds of the needlepoint. It can well be imagined that he too had developed a certain affection for the piece. At any rate, he wouldn't dream of putting his feet on it and always treated the pillow with utmost respect.

BUT into this idyllic state, stole an interloper—a tiny Siamese kitten about eight inches long. She was fat and sassy and had no respect for the English, the Scotch, the thistle OR the pillow! Its lovely softness reminded her perhaps of home and Mother so at each and every opportunity she sat on it, fought with it or simply sharpened her fingernails on it.

Loyal Anthony Eden stood all this as long as he could but alas! We all have our breaking point and finally poor Tony had his. With one mighty leap he was upon the pillow and then he—well, really, we are too delicate to say what he DID do exactly. Suffice to say that the pillow is now in the hands of an expert French dry cleaner. Anthony Eden is in the dog house. The cat is in the cellar. And the McTavishes? They still hold the balance of power and are studying up on internicne warfare.

It seems that a large shaggy dog of ill assorted lineage has recently moved to Grosse Pointe. Shortly after his arrival two beautifully coiffed French poodles emerged from the house next door.

"How do you do" sniffed the first poodle huaghtily. "My name is Pierre, P-i-e-r-r-e."

"How do you do" smirked the second poodle. "My name is Alphonse, A-l-p-h-o-n-s-e."

"Hiya!" said the new dog. "I'm Fido. P-h-i-d-e-a-u-x."

A very animated and enthusiastic girl we know goes through life rushing joyously from hobby to hobby. She has recently "discovered" cats — Siamese, Sealpoints, Bluepoints and Persians. With typical thoroughness she learned that a female cat is known to fanciers as a queen. When the time came to breed her new cat, our gal telephoned a local veterinary with this Poser! "I have a Bluepoint Siamese queen here looking for a mate." There was a long silence at the other end of the 'phone before the vet, plainly in state of shock, was able to reply "Ye GAWDS," he said, "What Is THAT?"

The new cat fancier was forced to drop her fancy terminology and explain the problem in basic English. Finally, a suitable mate was found and our friend arranged to take her cat there. However, when the day came, our friend's car was laid up so that both she and her Bluepoint Siamese queen wear minus transportation. Nothing daunted, our heroine telephoned a cab, but instead of giving the exact address of her destination, she said "how much will you charge to drive me from here over to the lake near the City Park?"

The taxi man said "That'll be three or four dollars but you are on the bus line. Why don't you take a bus for twenty five cents?"

Our friend explained that this wouldn't do as she wanted to take a CAT down to the lake. The cabbie seemed not to understand at all because what he said was "Look, lady, why don'tcha drown the cat in a laundry tub?!"

And just one more word on dogs 'n cats—Overheard at a petshop "Well, mine is only an alley cat, but he did come from a Grosse Pointe alley."

crease in teachers' salaries. Three proposals on separate ballots would be voted upon at a special election, with corresponding millage increase for four years.

With large outstanding bond issues which financed the building program, it seems inadvisable to add to our school debt. Those bonds were issued at comparatively low interest rates. Because of inflation, interest rates on new loans would be much higher.

Another reason for pay-as-you-go financing is that, in the economist's view, is overdue. If this view is correct, debt burdens should be reduced, not increased.

This situation is something of an emergency. I think the request of the school board should be supported by taxpayers. In return, some suggestions for economies and improved efficiency might be considered.

Why not extend the school year to 11 months (for four quarters) with enabling legislation, if necessary?

How about more evening classes at high schools for students who may be employed part time?

Might not some night school classes be held in junior high school buildings, to reduce crowding at the main high school?

Why not more emphasis on mathematics and inflected languages in the lower grades; and a better selection of textbooks and library books? Why not permit students to buy and own all textbooks; and to pay a moderate tuition in high school?

Why not make a serious effort to eliminate frills in TAX-SUPPORTED schools? Concentration on essentials, with more time for study and learning might well reduce the age of graduation by one or even two years. (See "The Lost Tools of Learning," by the late Dorothy L. Sayers, in the National Review for August 1, 1959; and "What's Cooking in Our Schools?" by William O'Brien in the same magazine for August 15.)

ELECTIONS: Methods of handling school elections in Michigan leave much to be desired. Our State Representative, the Honorable Robert E. Waldron, as chairman of a legislative committee on school elections, has made constructive suggestions and recommendations which should have serious consideration by all citizens of the State of Michigan. Copies may be obtained from Mr. Waldron.

Respectfully, George M. Zimmerman present, and educational training for the future. On January 5, 1956, Senator William F. Knowland introduced Senate Joint Resolution 105: "Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the President of the United States is authorized and requested to designate the period beginning September 17 and ending September 23 of each year as Constitution Week, and to issue annually, a proclamation inviting the people of the United States to observe such week, in schools, churches and other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies and activities. This resolution was adopted July 23, 1956 and signed into law August 2, 1956.

In 1958, the Daughters of the American Revolution adopted a resolution at the 67th Continental Congress, calling upon us to participate actively in the observance of Constitution Week, September 17-23. It asks us to call upon all loyal citizens of our country to protect and defend the Constitution. Our State Regent Mrs. Roy V. Barnes, has asked and has been assured that Governor G. Mennen Williams will proclaim September 17, 1959, and the period from September 17 through September 23, 1959, as

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Last Week Patricia Talbot and I boarded the same thought wave which carried us all the way across the Atlantic to Peggy True in the Canary Islands. Pat disembarked first, however, and her interesting account of the True family in last week's News tells you about Mrs. True's book "You Can Live Cheaply in the Canaries." We remember its charming author with warmth, and are happy to say that a copy of her book is available at all three Grosse Pointe libraries.

Elizabeth Howard Mizner, another Grosse Pointe author, has a new book recently included in our juvenile collection, "The Courage of Bethea." This is her eleventh book for girls of junior high school age, among whom she has an enthusiastic following. Again as in her earlier books she depicts young romance in 19th Century America.

The story centers about a young girl who attends the Western Female Seminary, a progressive school for its time, and still flourishing as Western College. Bethea's goal is to teach and earn enough money to reunite her family, scattered since her father's death. Her mother's remarriage changes the picture, and the story closes with romance just around the corner.

A convincing picture of mid-western life of a century ago, the book reveals some of the problems the more progressive young women of that day had to face.

Miss Mizner, who is a frequent library user, tells us she has always wanted to write a tale centering about an old-time school, preferably in this part of the country, and preferably a real school and not an imaginary one. Lake Erie College and Western were two she considered, both well known today, and of the two she chose Western.

All of Miss Mizner's work shows painstaking research. Before writing her last book she went to Oxford, Ohio, to spend some time on the campus and read the old records of the school. The description of the school fire in which Bethea proves her courage is particularly convincing. According to Miss Mizner, this was based on a true incident when one of the buildings was burned and a student went back to the fifth floor for her books, was trapped by the fire, and came down on a rope of sheets.

Grosse Pointe's talented author, Mrs. Haldeman Finnie (Isabella Holt, pseud.) has a recent book "Golden Moment" which we look forward to reading. On order for some time, it should arrive at the library soon.

Mrs. Donald Seifert, Librarian of the Park Branch, is the envy of all the small boys in that area. A baseball enthusiast for many years, she calmly caught with a deft twist of the wrist, an official American League ball hit by Harvey Kuenn during one of the Detroit-Cleveland games last month.

All of which proves our point that good librarians do not spend all of their time glued to the printed page.

"Citizenship Day and Constitution Week in Michigan."

Have you ever wondered why Old Glory has 13 stripes and no more? If the original intent had been carried out, a 50th stripe would have been added along with the new star, for Hawaii, but the flag never got beyond 15 stripes; the two extra stripes attached for Vermont and Kentucky in 1795. In 1818, after twenty-three years, Congress realized that the flag eventually would become too unwieldy, so decided to limit the flag to 13 stripes, symbolizing the original colonies, with each state to be represented by a star in the blue field, with new additions to appear on the Fourth of July following statehood. Whether or not Betsy Ross actually designed our flag, still remains an historical mystery, although in 1952, the Post Office gave credence, by issuing a Betsy Ross commemorative stamp.

We of the Daughters of the American Revolution, respect our flag at all times, and render it the courtesies to which it is entitled, some of which are as follows: displaying it properly, making corrections when it comes to our notice that a flag is improperly displayed, giving the Pledge of Allegiance at appropriate times, flying our flags on days of Patriotic observances when weather permits and never allowing our flag to touch the ground.

A flag should never be displayed if tattered or soiled. The only way by which it can be disposed of is through burning, and never at a public gathering. Before burning the flag, the Union first should be cut out of it and burned separately. This method is official procedure, and with only the stripes left, we are not destroying Old Glory.

Methodist Men To Hear Judge

First fall meeting of Grosse Pointe Methodist Men's Club on Monday, September 21, will feature Judge Nathan B. Kaufman speaking on "The Challenge of Youth." It's Ladies' night and dinner starts at 6:30 p.m.

According to club president Fred Gerow this will be the second appearance of Judge Kaufman before Grosse Pointe Methodist men. He spoke before in 1957. This year, as previously, the question and answer period is expected to be the highlight of the evening.

Four Pointers Taken Off Road

The licenses of 308 habitually careless and violation-prone Michigan drivers were suspended during the week of August 23, according to a report issued by James M. Hare, Secretary of State.

The licenses of 25 additional accident-prone or negligent drivers were revoked, the report revealed.

Among the motorists from the Pointe who were grounded, were:

John D. Bayne, Jr., of 390 University place, for unsatisfactory driving record, from August 14 to September 14; Frederick Loos of 2110 Roslyn road, unsatisfactory driving record from September 1 through October 30; Roy Midgley of 19677 Lancaster, for unsatisfactory judgment, (financial responsibility suspension), effective as of August 13; and Frank J. Salle, Jr., of 185 Vendome, unsatisfactory driving record, license revoked as of July 20.

Driving rights were restored to Gordon St. John Gilman of 528 Shoreham.

Lions and Willows Are Diehards

How is your imagination working these days? Many friends of Mrs. Eugene Lewis, of 17040 E. Jefferson avenue, think this tree stump by her seawall looks like a sleeping lion. The lust for life, which is inherent in willows, has caused it to send out fresh tendrils which certainly resemble a lion's mane; and it is even sprouting a bit of a tail.

Farms to Share Cost of Project

The Farms council on Monday, September 14, agreed to put up half the expenditure for the beautification of the Kercheval-on-the-Hill business district.

The total cost of the program, according to Anthony Colett, spokesman for the businessmen, has been estimated at $8,500.

The council approved expending $4,250 from the Public Improvement Reserve Fund, provided the businessmen deposit a like sum into the beautification program fund.

The program calls for the purchase and planting of 10 eight-inch Sugar Maple trees, to be bought, by the Farms, since the trees will be on public property.

The share to be paid by the businessmen, will pay for the work that must be done before the trees can be planted, such as cutting sidewalk concrete, digging, etc.

SPORTS POINTES

by FRED RUNNELLS SPORTS EDITOR

Pointe's Football Teams To See Action This Week

King football will move to center stage in the local sports picture this weekend as St. Paul, Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe University School, swing into action.

The St. Paul Lakers, under head coach Eddie Lauer, will swing right into league competition when they meet St. Catherine under the lights at Mack Park on Friday, September 18, at 8 o'clock.

Coach Ed Wernet's Blue Devil squad will tackle a tough non-league opponent when it entertains Ann Arbor on Saturday, September 19, at 2 p.m.

Dick Trim's Black Knights of GPUS will delay their opener until Friday, September 25, which, incidentally, is the same day Balboa discovered the Pacific Ocean in 1513. GPUS will again play an independent schedule of seven games and will meet two new opponents in Ann Arbor University High School and Lakeview during the seven week season.

Lakers Best Prepared

Of the three Pointe teams the Lakers appear to be the best prepared for their first encounter, with 13 lettermen returning to form the nucleus around which line coach Mel Perone, backfield coach Frank Brayton and head coach Lauer have been building the Lakers' hopes. This will be the second season the Lakers will compete in the East Side First Division.

Heading the list of returning lettermen are co-captains tackle Ray Martin and fullback Butch Cobb. The others are all linemen and include Fred Kitcher, Bud Cornille, Larry Rotolo, Ken Wujek, Glenn Cross, John Alter, John Urso, Tim Labadie, Joe La Grasso, Jeff Gentile and Steve Handlos, who is the only other backfield man besides Cobb from last year's squad.

Halfbacks Joe Becker and John Kolby are veterans who failed to win letters last year but are expected to earn starting berths and see much action during the 1959 season. Gary Schick, a sophomore, is being asked to step in and fill a mighty big pair of shoes left vacant by the graduated quarterback Pat Wright. It's a big assignment for a sophomore, but his coaches feel he can get the job done and acquire poise through experience.

Starred with 78ers

Other reserve players who are expected to round out the backfield are Lloyd Marx, Charles Heimer, Jack Wachter and Jim Mansfield. Heimer and Wachter were standout stars on the Lakers' grade school team, the 78ers.

Line coach Perone feels that "This year's team will be as good as the 1958 squad, which compiled a record of 4 wins, 2 losses and a tie, providing the candidates come through as expected."

The Grosse Pointe Blue Devils will have to depend mainly on seven returning lettermen and a host of non-letter winners from the 1958 squad.

Line coach Jim Curlett said "We will be strong from tackle to tackle and I can field two strong units. After that it gets a bit thin and some of the boys may be called on to play both ways if we run into a string of injuries." Lining up from tackle to tackle it appears the offensive line will include right tackle Dave Leone, right guard Tony Lott, center Steve

Wheeler Has Problem

End coach Paul Wheeler is a man with a problem. Only Jon Rice appears to have locked up a starting berth at right end. Currently Al Lang has the inside track for the other flanker position among the non-lettering and reserve team candidates.

Backfield coach Ernie Bauer has fashioned two backfield units but has not settled on the starting quartet except for quarterback Ron Linclau and halfback Ron Harper. Ronnie Schram has been showing up well in practice and quite possibly will see plenty of action as Lanclau's understudy at quarterback.

Missing from the fold is Terry Donovan, the little speedster who electrified the crowds with his bull-like rushes last season. He was "Mr. Inside" who concentrated the opponent's defense and set the stage for Ron "Mr. Outside" Harper's long end sweeps. Donovan is expected to return to the team after the opening game. He is recuperating from an operation performed late this summer.

Will Wear Glasses

Terry said "I'm going to play with my glasses on this year and that will be a big help. Last year I caught a couple of passes but it was a miracle because I couldn't see the ball until I had it in my hands." A specially designed helmet will protect the specs.

At GPUS coach Dick Trim is suffering from a small squad and small boys but has six letter winners returning in guard Paul Weiss, end Bruce Gentils, fullback Sandy Coe, center Noel Savignac, end Dick Barron who will switch to quarterback this year and tackle Pete Fortune who has been shifted to a halfback position. Non-letter winners end Bruce Birgbauer, halfback Terry Seyler and guard Jim Leisner round out the seasoned performers. Coach Trim expects to find replacements for the boys who graduated, from the candidates up from the Junior Varsity squad of last season.

Ambrose Has Vets

St. Ambrose, St. Paul's neighborhood rival, will swing into action, Sunday, September 20, against St. Ladislau at Keyworth Stadium in Hamtramck at 1:00 p.m.

Mike Currie, Catholic All League offensive end, leads a host of returning lettermen who Coach Tom Boisture has built around. Manuel Lamprides, named to the All Parochial second team last season, will run the wing-T offense which proved to be the winning formula that brought the First Division East Side championship to the Cavaliers with a perfect 6-0 league record.

The Cavaliers will boast an all veteran line to open the season which will include

Coach Boisture has several veteran linemen to choose his starting line from, they include Jerry Palazzolo, Skip Paolotti, co-captain Jim Conahan, Henry Babicz, Ray Federspiel, Ken Kosmal, Dave Kulinski, Bill Lenhard, Jack Cairo, and Gil

Starting Line Picked for Devils' Opener

Boat Banter

Three Edison Boat Club skippers competed in the first Flying Scot Class National Championships held on Clear Fork Reservoir near Mansfield, Ohio, August 29-30, which was won by Sandy Douglass, of Oakland, Maryland. Douglass was the designer and builder of the popular Thistle class sloop and was five times that national champion.

Bob Greening was the top local skipper in the Nationals when he finished third with 81 points, which was four behind second place Dick Tappan, who was ten points behind the champion. Eaton Kelly, also of Edison, placed sixth with 70 points. J. G. Lowry finished last with 11 points to round out the Detroit contingent.

Earl Blohm won the annual Grosse Pointe Sail Club Predicted Log race for power boats, Sunday, September 13. Blohm piloted his cruiser "Isabel II" over the course in 16 minutes and 42 seconds and was declared the winner when he missed his ETA (Estimated Time of Arrival) by a mere 48 seconds. Jack Chase was a close second with "Chaser". He missed his ETA by 52 seconds.

Bayview race chairman Bruce Conlan has everything in readiness for the 41st annual Long Distant Night Race, Saturday, September 19. The race is open to four divisions of cruising type sail yachts and one small boat division, which includes Luders, Privateers, L Class, Crescent, Dragon, Folkboat and all other boats under 30 feet overall approved by the race committee. This division will start at 3 p.m. and will be followed by the Universal rule boats over 30 feet overall at 3:30 p.m.

Cruising D class will start at 4 p.m. and will be followed at half hour intervals by Cruising C, B and A in that order.

The course will take the fleet to a patrol boat anchored near the Thames River lighted buoy, the Lake St. Clair Light, a patrol boat anchored in the vicinity of Huron point and return to the finish line in front of the host club down river. It will be sailed that way, stakes to port, unless the wind direction makes it necessary for the race committee to reverse the direction in order to provide a weather leg.

John Candler and Nan Millies are the King and Queen of the Detroit River Yachting Association Junior sailors. They earned titles in the second annual DRYA Boys' and Girls' championship series held off the Grosse Pointe Club, Sunday, September 13. Candler represented the Grosse Pointe Club and scored 11 1/2 points in the three race series. Detroit Yacht Club was second with 9 1/4 points and Crescent Sail Yacht Club was third with 5.

Nan Millies represented Crescent Sail Yacht Club and scored 9 1/4 points in the abbreviated four races series which was shortened to three races when inclement weather prevailed before the start of the final race. Grosse Pointe Club was second with 8 1/4 points with Detroit Boat Club taking third with 5 1/4 points and Detroit Yacht Club was last with 5 points.

Woods Boat Club To Study Plans

At the request of the Grosse Pointe Woods Boat Club, the Woods Council decided to table the motion to improve the temporary launching ramp and install wharves in the Woods lake-front park.

Walter R. Dushane, of 1692 Littlestone road, the Commodore of the Woods Boat Club, was present at the Council meeting Monday night, September 14. He asked the Council to table the motion until the club could consider the improvements, and also take in new members. The club, formed during the summer, has 50 members and hopes eventually to include all of the Woods boat owners with boats located in the city's lakefront park docks.

Another request on the part of the Boat Club was for three non-resident park passes per boat, to be used only to enter the park. The guest would go directly to the boat to which he was invited. The pass would not allow the holder to use the other park facilities.

It was thought, in general discussion by the Council, that this privilege could not be granted to just a few of the Woods residents, the few being the boat owners. Mr. Dushane, however, stated that the boat owners were paying more than the other residents in order to get dock space.

It was finally decided to refer the request of the Woods Boat Club to the Parks and Recreation Committee of the Council, for discussion and recommendations at a later date.

Leagues to Hold Awards Banquet

The 1959 Awards Banquet of the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League will be held next Tuesday evening, September 22, at Roma Hall, Gratiot near 10 Mile road, it has been announced by J. F. Chown, league secretary.

Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock sharp, and guests may come any time after 6. There will be no cost for the dinner for the 225 boys of 13, 14 and 15 who participated in the summer-long baseball program.

An interesting program has been planned with movies, prizes and all the trimmings. Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of trophies to the St. Louis Cardinals, managed by George Foster, who won the Woods-Shores championship for the second straight year.

There will be smaller trophies for the Detroit Tigers, managed by Carl Wheeler, who won the American League title before bowing to the Cardinals in the playoffs.

In addition to these team trophies, there will be special awards for the leading pitcher and leading batter in each of the leagues.

Ice Flair Announces New Fall Schedule

The Ice Flair Skating Club has announced its new fall schedule. There will be three hours of evening skating, 7 to 10 p.m., each Friday and Saturday, Wednesday night skating will be from 7:30 to 10:30.

Weekend matinees will be conducted from 2 to 5 p.m. each Friday and Saturday. Monday night is reserved for a neighboring hockey league.

Two Dog Bites Reported in City

Two dog bite incidents were reported to the City police department on Sunday, September 13.

Keith Neff, 11, of 451 St. Clair avenue, was bitten on the right forearm by a Great Dane belonging to Mary Ann Arns, of 16908 Cranford lane. The dog has been impounded at home for a period of ten days.

Frank Prigel, of 553 Neff road, was bitten on the right cheek while putting his neighbor's dog over the back fence. The dog belongs to Mrs. Walter Foot, of 555 Neff road. He was taken to the veterinarian for observation.

Sid Marsh Named Champion Skipper of Year in DRYA

Quiet, unassuming and likeable Sid Marsh, skipper of the Privateer Sloop "Indian Drum", was named champion skipper of the year in DRYA competition following his victory in the 62nd annual Detroit Yacht Club Sweepstakes regatta held on Lake St. Clair, Saturday, September 12.

Following the regatta at the evening festivities at the host club, Commodore Freddie Jensen awarded Marsh the coveted Milton Cross Memorial trophy which was being awarded for the fourth time since being placed into competition. It marked the first time a DYC skipper had won the honor.

The first three years it was won by Bayview skippers, first by Nubby Sarns' "Revelry" and the following two years by Henry Burkard's "Meteor III". Actually Bayview members felt they could share Marsh's honor as he also is a member of Bayview and until this year had flown the Bayview burgee in local races.

Marsh's victory was by no means a runaway in the final point tabulation for the five pre-designated races. It took the judges nearly an hour before the decision could be made at it was necessary to divide the point totals to six decimal places before Marsh was declared the winner over Don Hanna's Folkboat sloop "Donna Jean" out of Crescent Sail Yacht Club. The difference was a fraction of a point.

Helping Marsh win the coveted title was his crew of Johnny Marsh and Jack Ellis and the new champion wouldn't let anyone forget that the crew does all of the work on a winning yacht.

The Sweepstakes regatta ended the 1959 regatta season for the majority of the local fleet and was one of those tantalizing wind sniffling affairs which started with the wind very light and variable out of the north and which shifted to the east before the fleet reached the finish line.

Norbert Taylor Wins

Norbert Taylor's NY 32 sloop "Vitesse II", of DYC, captured the Brewers Cup, the oldest sailing trophy in competition today, when she paced the Cruising A class.

John Detwiler's Bounty Sloop "Vashti", of GPC, was sailed to Cruising B class honors and overall corrected time laurels by Bob Bryant, reverently known as the "little white father".

Tommy Hanson topped the Cruising C class with his red hot Pilot sloop "Dauntless II", of BYC, and moved a step closer to repeating as DRYA champion of that class.

Bill McCurdy's "Challenge", of BYC, pressed closer to the top of the season standings in the Cruising D (Performance Handicap) class with a five minute, twenty second corrected time win over Jim Stuart's "Tempress" I of DYC.

Down through the rest of the one design classes season championships were decided in this final race but the official naming of the 1959 DRYA class champions will not be made until DRYA Fleet Captain Fred Krippenberg can make a final check of all races sailed this year.

Italian Artist to Teach at Memorial Center

Marco Nobili, noted Italian artist, will begin teaching oil painting and water color at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, September 21st.

Mr. Nobili recently exhibited his work at the National Water Color Show in Washington, D.C. In the Detroit area he has just won the Harlan Award in the Ecclesiastical Painting Exhibit at the Art Institute.

Mr. Nobili is a product of the Art School in Florence, later receiving his Doctorate in Art in Milan. His paintings hang in many collections both abroad and in the United States.

Since coming to the United States, Mr. Nobili has served as Professor of Art at Wayne State University and is now a department head at the Society of Arts and Crafts. He frequently serves as a juror for exhibits and scholarship awards.

Mr. Nobili feels that first a student should learn a full understanding of the media with which he chooses to work. He must learn the principle of organization and study form and balance. Then comes the choice of a suitable color scheme. It is necessary, says Mr. Nobili, to reorganize what you see in a better pattern in the space you are preparing to use. Above all he thinks each individual should find joy in expressing what is his particular feeling.

An advanced class will be held by Mr. Nobili, Monday mornings, 9:30-11:30 a.m.; intermediate classes will be held Tuesday afternoons, 1:30-3:30 p.m.; and for the first time the Memorial is scheduling an evening class for Tuesday nights, 7:30-9:30 p.m., which will be for beginners. Either media—oil or water color may be used. Twelve weeks of two hour classes are offered for $36. Advance enrollment (TU 1-7511) is requested.

Memorial Evening Group Begins Fall Activities

The Evenings Group of the Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church is starting its fall activities with a sewing meeting, Wednesday, September 16, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Curt Patterson, of Lexington road.

Thursday, September 22, the group is sponsoring a dinner meeting in the Church House, at 6:30 o'clock.

Membership in the Evening Group is open to all interested women of the congregation. For further information, call the Church Office, TUxedo 5-3773.

Marine Guild Holding Party

The Marine Guild of the U.S. Public Health Hospital, (Marine Hospital), is sponsoring a benefit snack luncheon-bridge, Wednesday, September 30, at the War Memorial Center at 12:30 o'clock.

All tickets are being sold ahead of time. They will not be available at the door. For reservations, call Mrs. Frank McNamara at TU 4-1558. The cost is $1.25 per person.

The proceeds will be used to finance the hospital program for the coming year. The Guild plans to rehabilitate old television and radio sets, purchase toilet articles for the patients and perform any other volunteer activities needed at the hospital.

Final plans for the benefit were completed at the meeting held Monday, September 14, in the nurses' residence next door to the hospital, at the foot of Alter road.

Committee chairman is Mrs. Anna Mae Earle, and she is being assisted by Mrs. Elmer A. Schade, Mrs. P. R. Jones, Mrs. McNamara and Mrs. Frank P. Buck

Gala Staged At Village Club

To satisfy the varied tastes of members of the Indian Village Club, there was a "Four-In-One" party last Saturday evening.

For the very modern there was a beatnik gathering, featuring a jazz session. For those who yearn for the wide open spaces, a western party, with a draw contest was on the docket. A hula contest for men accented the Hawaiian theme and there was a "come as you are" costume feature too.

Among those from the Pointe who had made reservations are the N. S. Angeses, the J. D. Benfields, the William P. Blacks, the Edward D. Devines, the George A. Dickeys, the Edward J. Donovans, the John N. Fallings and the Stephen A. Forishes.

Others are the Arnold C. Grahams, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. H. Ross Hume, the Joseph R. Kristufeks, the Harold O. Loves, the James N. Mutschalls, the George A. Nicholsons, the Charles Rodgers, the Porter Strothers, the Edward J. Tutags, the John Veeches and the Robert C. Winters.

William Tyus, Jr. Wed. In Fort Worth, Texas

The Chapel of Matthews Methodist Church, Fort Worth, Texas, was the scene of the September 5, wedding of Jerynn Atkinson and William Tyus Jr.

Mrs. Tyus Jr. is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Atkinson of Fort Worth. Mr. Tyus' parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tyus Sr., of East Jefferson avenue.

Miss Kneppenberg Weds Mr. McKee

A Home in Hancock, Mich., Awaits Pair Married August 29 in Peace Lutheran Church; Takes Wedding Trip Through Northern Michigan

In an August 29 ceremony in Peace Lutheran Church Shirley Carol Kneppenberg, daughter of the Fred Kneppenbergs, of Newcastle road, was married to Hugh Michael McKee.

For the rites the bride wore a white silk organza gown with a lace bodice appliqued with seed pearls and sequins. An orange blossom crown caught her fingertip veil and she carried white fugi mums and stephanotis.

Audrey Kneppenberg was her sister's maid of honor and Rae

GPYC Begins Fall Season

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's distaff side is looking forward eagerly to September 24 and the first of this fall's pair of glamorous bridge-luncheon-and-fashion shows to be staged by the club.

In another direction but also very much in the festive vein is the pre-bowling party this Thursday, September 17—it's to be a gathering of both men and women keggers in the Fo-Castle for 6 o'clock cocktails and buffet dinner followed by open bowling.

And on the yachting side, GPYC's 21st annual Blue Nose long distance sailing race is scheduled for Saturday, September 26, beginning at 10 a.m.

Back to September 24th's bridge-luncheon-parade which promises to be a big and exciting function—Mrs. Paul L. Barker and Mrs. Hamilton F. Kotcher are co-chairmen and they're deep in plans for a pink decor sparked by burgundy hue. The grand ballroom will be the locale.

Over the "T" end of the fashion runway in the ballroom is to be a spectacular canopy of pink and burgundy satin ribbons forming a striped effect, the whole held in place by tremendous gilded spears. Pink linen cloths will cover tables, bridge prizes will be wrapped in the two colors, chrysanthemum bouquets will repeat the tones.

Among those planning to entertain groups are Mrs. Edward D. Barrett (her reservation is for 16), Mrs. Hans Gehrke Jr. (she's also to have 16), and a number who will be hostesses to eight each, including Mrs. Leon Alvarez, Mrs. Albert B. Blixt, Mrs. Glenn H. Friedt, Mrs. Peter Kaspari, Mrs. James Herrington, Mrs. Clement A. Pennell.

Mesdames Karl Weber, Ernest Nicolay, Eugene Gargaro and Henry C. Weidler are among those who will have foursomes.

When this Thursday's pre-bowling party has accomplished the informal inauguration of the 1959-1960 season, GPYC's league bowling will start this coming Monday, September 21. Bill O. Brink is general chairman of the kegging committee.

LOST BIKES RECOVERED
Two bikes, later found to belong Margaret Mayer of 592 University place and Anne Fisher of 409 Washington road, were picked up by City police behind a Grosse Pointe drug store, September 12. The bikes were returned to their owners.

Star to Appear At Town Hall

Detroit Town Hall will open its fall season Wednesday, October 7, with theater star Julie Haydon in a one-woman show, "The Realm of a Critic."

Miss Haydon, widow of the famed critic George Jean Nathan, replaces Basil Rathbone who is touring in the prize-winning play, "J. B."

The program, and the remaining 11 of the season, will be held at 11 a.m. in Ford Auditorium.

Detroit Free Press correspondent Betty Beale will discuss the diplomatic set in "Capital Capers" on October 21.

She will be followed on November 4 by Clifton Daniel with his report on the news; Duke of Bedford, November 18, on "The Future of British Aristocracy;" blinded labor columnist Victor Riesel, December 2, with a report on labor.

A special Christmas program featuring Grinnell Foundation Scholarship winners will be held the following Wednesday, December 9.

Owners of Dogs Invited To Attend Training Class

The Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System announces that fall classes in Owner-Dog Obedience Training will start at the Grosse Pointe High School on Tuesday evening, September 29, at 7:30 o'clock. All applications for this class must be made in advance at the Community Services office, TUxedo 5-3808. Prospective students are not to bring their dogs on this first night of the course. They will receive preliminary instructions, see a demonstration and be given an opportunity to make final application for the class. The number of students which can be accommodated in these classes is limited. They will be taken in the order in which they apply by telephone at the Community Services office.

Only those people who are seriously interested in following through with the ten weeks of required daily practice, in addition to the class work, should apply. The course is based on exercises approved by the American Kennel Club, and the successful training of a dog depends entirely on the handler's interest and willingness to follow instructions and practice faithfully.

This instruction will teach people how to train their dogs to walk quietly beside them in the "heel" position under any condition. They will also learn to teach their dogs to stay in one place on command and to come when called.

Hundreds of owners, and their dogs, too, can testify that an obedience-trained dog is not only a happier and more satisfactory pet, but also a better citizen of the community.

Owners may enroll for training if their dogs are six months or older, regardless of the pedigree or ancestry of the dog. While this course is primarily intended for adults, children not less than 12 years of age may enroll if their parents will assist in their guidance.

Instruction is provided by the Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club, composed of people who make a hobby of instructing others to train their dogs. All serve without pay, and have had the experience of training their own dogs. Donald M. Carson will be in charge.

Pointe Movers Open Offices on Mack

Announcement is being made this week of the opening of offices for the new Pointe Van and Storage Co., of 17012 Mack avenue, at Cadioux.

L. J. "Lew" Spanick, of Westchester road, is the owner of the new company. He also heads American Van Service and was associated with several of Detroit's largest moving firms for many years.

The new Pointe company is affiliated with V. S. Van Service for its long distance moving service.

Center Offers Art Lectures

A special series of Illustrated Art Appreciation Lectures is being offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial in conjunction with the Extension Services of the Detroit Institute of Art. The series is designed to bring Grosse Pointers not specialized in the fields of sculpture and painting an understanding of the evolution of modern art forms. There will be six lectures in the series beginning Tuesday evening, September 29 and continuing each Tuesday night for six weeks through November 3.

The first lecture of the series will be given by Franklin Page, Curator of Contemporary Art at the Detroit Art Institute. Mr. Page teaches nineteenth and twentieth century art at Cranbrook and also Sculpture and Art History at Wayne State University. He was recently the recipient of two fellowships from the Belgian-American Foundation to study abroad in 1951 and 1955.

Mr. Page's lecture will be the "Evolution of Modern Sculpture" and will be illustrated by slides of the Joseph Hirschhorn collection recently on display at the Detroit Art Institute as well as pictures of the Museum's permanent collection.

Franklin Page is himself a sculptor whose work has been shown at the Detroit Artist's Market and in private galleries.

Mr. Page will give his audience and viewers an insight and feeling for sculpture. He will show that modern sculpture is an evolution not a departure from the basic principles always laid down for good sculpture. He will show how each sculptor approaches his work and infuses it with a vital part of his nature. The twentieth century sculptors who will be commented upon will be Henry Moore, Manzu, Lyschitz, Flanagan and Giacometti.

Following Mr. Page on the lecture series will be Grosse Pointe's own Ann Haggarty, Wellesley graduate who is now a lecturer for the Museum and its Extension Service. Miss Haggarty in her group of lectures will trace the development of modern painting from the French Revolution to the World War. Her first lecture will be on the classic, romantic, and realistic painters of the French school. Her illustrations will show the works of David and Ingres, Delacroix and Garicault, the painters of the Barbizon school, and the realistic Daumier and Courbet.

The entire group of six illustrated lectures is open to the Grosse Pointe public for $13.50. Advance enrollment is requested by calling the Center — TU 1-7511.

Thief Robs Safe In Woods Home

A half hour's work on a safe in a Woods home on Monday, September 7, netted a thief about $4,000 worth of diamond watches and bracelets, according to Woods police.

The victims of the night visitor were the Jack Ventimiglios of 1806 Prestwick. Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian said the burglar entered the house through the basement window, and ransacked all the bedrooms, before going to work on the safe.

The detective team said that the manner in which the safe was opened, indicated that the invader was a "professional safe cracker."

The officers said the burglar punched holes around the safe combination, before knocking it out, and then released the door catch. This took about half an hour, they surmised.

Missing, Ventimiglios told O'Dell and Tobian, were several diamond watches and bracelets, belonging to himself, wife and children.

The detectives are working on a number of clues.

DANGEROUS TARGET
Twelve Grosse Pointe High School boys were taken to the City police station, Thursday, September 10, after they threw an apple core at a scout car. The boys were released, but their names were kept on file.

Stanley Fildew Resigns in Park

The Park council, on Monday, September 14, regretfully accepted the resignation of Councilman Stanley Fildew, who last April was elected to office in his own right.

Fildew, who left his city post on advice of his doctor, was the second councilman to quit in less than four months. He has been very ill for the past several weeks.

The other resigned councilman is Thomas McCormick, who quit last May 25, when he and his family moved from the Park to take up residence in the Shores.

McCormick, like Fildew, was elected last April. Both had been initially appointed to their posts; McCormick in January 1957, to fill the unexpired term of Robert McKean, when the latter moved to the Farms; and Fildew, in May 1957, to fill the unexpired term of Mayor Kenneth Cunningham, who was appointed mayor on the death of Mayor Homer Fritsch.

Cunningham was elected mayor last April. The Park council approved a resolution to be presented to Fildew, thanking him for his service to the city.

Following the acceptance of Fildew's resignation, the council, on the recommendation of Mayor Cunningham, approved the appointment of Victor H. Wehmeier, 57, of 1118 Harper road, an attorney, and a 1926 graduate of Detroit Law School.

The new councilman, a long time resident of the Park, is a charter member of the Grosse Pointe Park Citizens Association, and was instrumental in bringing about reforms in the community government.

He was also instrumental in bringing city status to the Park in 1950, and was on the City Charter Commission which advocated the present city manager form of government after the Park incorporated as a city.

He was the Citizens' Association's first president, serving in that capacity for a good many years, and was a member of the old Civil Service Commission, before the Park, partly through his efforts, adopted its present Merit System for policemen and firemen and civil employees, taking them away from State control.

He campaigned for and aided into office, the late Mayor

The couple have two children, Victoria, 25, a 1959 graduate of the University of Michigan, where she majored in Architecture and Design, and is now doing post-graduate work at the University of New York; and Paul, 21, a history and pre-law student at Michigan State University.

LIFT
your spirits, not heavy wash baskets—a gas dryer dries at 1/5 the cost

A lift from washday labors, a lift for your household budget—a modern gas dryer. You put an end to weather worries, to wrestling with heavy baskets, to the utility room jungle of hanging clothes—once you own a gas dryer. You just set the dial and the wash is fluff-dried fresh and fragrant under the ultraviolet sanitizing lamp. Yet with all this wonderful convenience, gas dryers operate at just 1/5 the cost of others. So see them at your Gas Company or dealer showrooms.

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

Now that the "little deb season" is over, the debutantes are scattering to schools all over the country. Charlotte Ford is off to Florence, Italy where she will enter Le Fleuron, on the Torre Di Gattalia.

Mrs. Henry Ford II, is flying to Europe with her daughter to enter her in this finishing school. She will be en route over the Atlantic on her birthday, so celebrations of this important occasion will have to wait until her return.

Charlotte will be home for Christmas to be honored on December 21 at the ball her parents are giving at the Country Club.

Celebrity Series

"The Music Man" himself, Meredith Wilson, and his delightful wife, Rini, will headline the Celebrity Series of lectures beginning October 8 at the Esquire theater, sponsored by the Assistance League of Bon Secours Hospital.

Mrs. William E. Imhoff is chairman of this outstanding Thursday morning series and Mrs. Blount Slade has lined up the talent. Tickets, (for the season), are available from Mrs. Thomas E. Morris and Mrs. Raymond Duffy, Jr.

Anita Colby, one of the most famous cover girls of them all, and a fashion and beauty expert, will be the November 12 speaker. On December 10 Norman Nadel, drama and music critic of the Columbus Citizen, will report.

Ruth Montgomery, one of Washington's noted correspondents, will be the January 14 lecturer. "The Atlantic Partnership" will be analyzed by the Right Honorable Anthony Nutting, former British Minister of State for Foreign Affairs, on February 11. The final speaker of the series will be popular and controversial television critic John Crosby on March 10. He will give a glimpse into TV's future and what you can do about it.

Among the patrons of the Celebrity Series this season are Mrs. Douglas Adair, Mrs. C. Hascall Bliss, Mrs. Carl Breer, Mrs. Walker Ciesler, Mrs. Raphael E. Danaher, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Diebel, Mrs. Neal Fitzgerald, Mrs. Hans Gehrke, Jr., Mrs. Robert Goffredson, Mrs. George Haggarty, Mrs. W. Bruce Howard, Mrs. William B. Hurley, Mrs. Harther L. Keim, Mrs. John M. Motzschall, Mr. and Mrs. Remington J. Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Roney, Mrs. Stephen T. Stackpole, Mrs. Wilfred S. Teetzel, Mrs. James Turner and Mrs. Richard S. Weber.

Year of the Dragon

Because it is the year of the dragon, The Detroit Boat Club is commemorating this important date on the Chinese calendar with a "Chinese Moon Festival" on Saturday.

Over 500 Oriental lanterns, good luck wands, bamboo accents and enormous paper carp will transform the ballroom into the appropriate mood. A Chinese moon screen will dominate the river alcove and parasols will bob everywhere. Clare Yager has designed a fabulous dragon head for the entrance and each guest will receive a Far Eastern favor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Warmbold are chairman with the Kenneth R. Yagers assisting them. Also work-

Older Women Urged to Join

Every woman in Grosse Pointe who has reached the age of 60 is eligible to enjoy the semi-monthly parties sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

On the second and fourth Wednesday of each month "The Senior Group" assembles at 11 o'clock to enjoy a very delicious variety of sandwiches and a dainty dessert served from a beautifully appointed table presided over by two of the gracious ladies. This is followed by bridge, canasta or any game the guests desire.

Mrs. Fred E. Hibbard is the presiding head. There are no officers, no dues.

During the month of her birthday each member deposits into a fund, a penny for every year she has lived, and pays 50c at each meeting for refreshments.

This group is not small, but there is room for many more, and it is the wish of the War Memorial leaders that more of the older generation join this friendly entertaining group and enjoy pleasant afternoons in the unusually attractive environment of the spacious house.

Show to Help GP Symphony

Mrs. V. Everett Kinsey opened her Bedford road home Monday to a ticket committee report on the Fashion Show planned for October 7 at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club to benefit the Grosse Pointe Symphony.

Mrs. J. Leslie Berry presented a report on show arrangements, Valerie DeGalen, Inc., will present the fashions.

Among those planning to attend are Mrs. Henry C. Weilder and Mrs. Harold B. Ellington, both of whom are planning a party of four.

Patronesses for the fashion show are Mrs. John T. Allard, Mrs. William H. Fries, Mrs. Frank W. Donovan, Mrs. Charles L. Jacobson, Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., Mrs. Kinsey and Mrs. James B. Webber, Jr. Reservations for the pre-Fashion Show luncheon at the club are being taken by Mrs. Reginald T. Murphy, of Balfour road.

Until a man scores one failure he cannot appreciate success.

Sheila Bourke Weds John M. Hamilton

Bride Wears Ivory Silk Mist and French Guipure Heirloom Lace for Rites Saturday in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore; Pair Will Live in Florida

Ivory silk mist and heirloom French Guipure lace were Sheila Ann Bourke's choice for a wedding gown when she spoke her vows Saturday in St. Paul's on the lakeshore to John Millis Hamilton.

The princess gown was designed with a berth of the lace framing the scooped neckline and a bell shaped skirt which fell into a chapel train.

A cap of lace caught her illusion veil which extended beyond the train and she carried phaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and star ivy.

Mrs. David Mitchell Hamilton was matron of honor and the bride's sister, Mary Sharon Bourke was maid of honor. They are the daughters of the Francis Bourkes, of Rivard boulevard.

Mrs. Hamilton and the bridesmaids wore gowns of peau de satin American Beauty with shirred necklines and cap sleeves of chiffon and bell shaped skirts. Their headresses were matching wreaths of leaves and their flowers were Carol Anling roses and rubrum lilies.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. William R. Hamilton III, of Columbus, O.; Sally Snowday, Julia Diggs, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Jacqueline Jenks, and the bride's cousin, Bridget Bourke.

Sharon Bourke, the honor maid, wore a frock of ashes of roses peau de satin and carried red Garnet roses and stephanotis.

Mr. Hamilton, son of the William Robertson Hamiltons II, of Lakeshore road, asked David Mitchell Hamilton to be his best man. Seating the guests were William R. Hamilton III, of Columbus, O.; Peter Fink, Michael Bourke, Jeremiah Bourke, Edmund Richie Sutherland, John Standish, Hazen Pingree and Henry Hubbard III.

All members and friends are cordially invited.

Some people are as easily rattled as others are hard to shake.

Think ahead now to that exquisite perfect gift, the real rare jewel she will wear and cherish always. Show here from our own hand-chosen collection, a graceful spray pin of shaped gold wire with delicate ribbons of diamonds and two rare rubies. Federal tax included $362

Reception Follows Ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church at the Irvine Lane Home of the Bride's Parents; Pair to Live in Nottingham Road

Pointe de Venice, worn by generations of brides in the family of Anne Louise Hinchman formed the veil and accented her gown when she spoke her marriage vows Saturday in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church to Sterling Price Berry.

The bride's parents, the David Hinchmans, were hosts at the reception which followed the ceremony in their Irvine lane home.

The bride's parents, the David Hinchmans, were hosts at the reception which followed the ceremony in their Irvine lane home.

The bride's traditional white taffeta gown was fashioned on princess lines with a scalloped neckline and long tapered sleeves. Pointe de Venice lace accented the bodice and more of the lace formed her long veil worn mantilla fashion. She carried white orchids and ivy.

D.A.R. Chapter Plans Benefit

Blooming flowers in the garden and in some of the lovely oil paintings of Mrs. E. Quimby Smith of Berkshire road will serve as a backdrop when the Good Citizens Committee of Louisa St. Clair Chapter DAR hold their benefit "Green Tea" at her home on Thursday, September 17, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Hostesses wearing miniature money corsages will be Mrs. A. H. Engstrom, chairman of the committee; Mrs. Robert Henkel, Mrs. Jack A. Doerr, Jr., Mrs. Wayne Osborne, Mrs. Robert Brandon, Mrs. Harry O. Hill and Mrs. Eric Rucker.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. R. O. Artner, Mrs. Melburne Rice, Mrs. Harold Hastings and Mrs. Millard H. Toncray.

Proceeds from the tea will go toward furnishing a boys dormitory which the chapter is building at Tomasi, one of the DAR supported schools and toward the Good Citizens program carried on in the Detroit schools.

Helpers Needed By Red Cross

Mrs. John F. Hering, chairman of Detroit Red Cross volunteers, has issued an invitation to all women in Wayne County to choose a Red Cross Service in which they are interested and become active volunteers.

"September is the time to plan winter schedules. Red Cross offers women who have 'time to spare and to share' an opportunity to choose from a wide variety of services which they can help provide in our community. Since Red Cross services are available around the clock and every day of the week, nearly every woman can find a time and an activity which fit her interests and free hours. Many of our services and volunteers are needed between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, but staffing bloodmobiles and giving Gray Lady services; conducting first aid, water safety and home nursing classes, give volunteers an opportunity to serve in their own neighborhoods and at various hours. The Red Cross regional offices in Dearborn, Livonia and Wyandotte need many volunteers daily.

"Red Cross Gray Lady Service has been invited to install units in Dearborn's Medical Center, Trenton's Riverside Osteopathic and Detroit's Memorial Hospitals. A successful recruitment of additional Gray Ladies will mean service to patients in 28 Wayne County hospitals.

"All of our Services need new volunteers. Motor Service volunteers make other services possible by driving Red Cross vehicles to transport bloodmobile personnel and blood donors; take supplies to classroom locations; assist with Junior Red Cross projects; Staff Aides are clerical assistants in chapter and volunteer offices, serve as donor registrars, prepare blood bottles and help keep records. Canteen volunteers serve at-cost daily lunches for other volunteers and staff; provide snack service for blood donors; are trained and on 'stand-by' duty in case of widespread disaster or community emergency.

"Our Service offices in chapter headquarters, 153 East Elizabeth, WO 1-3900, will be open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., from September 14 through 25, and a volunteer will be on hand to explain the various Services and assist prospective volunteers to select the one where they will be most happy.

"We are inviting new volunteers to chapter headquarters on Monday, September 28, at 10 a.m. for an orientation program. In the weeks immediately following this, individual Service Chairmen will arrange for helping their volunteers become acquainted with details of their specific assignments.

"The Detroit Red Cross chapter is a United Foundation Torch Drive agency. There is no better way to help UF dollars to provide necessary community services than to give one's time to the member-agencies," Mrs. Hering said.

Thrift Shop Show Is Bundle Affair

The board of the Neighborhood Thrift Shop is sponsoring its annual fashion show at the Neighborhood Club September 29 at 3 o'clock.

Irvine is presenting the fashions, as he had done for several years, and with professional models Mrs. Charles A. Du Charme II, Mrs. Alfred J. Fisher, Jr., Mrs. Cyril J. Edwards, Jr., Mrs. Henry T. Bodman II and Mrs. Alvin G. Sherman, Jr.

The admission fee is a bundle of cast-off clothing or household furnishings, which will enable the Thrift Shop to start off the season. Proceeds from all donated articles go directly toward maintaining the Neighborhood Club activities as a community house in Grosse Pointe. Co-chairmen of the fashion show are Mrs. Edward Wishropp and Mrs. Howard Smith, Jr.

Barry Phelps Weds Katherine Farwell

Barry Coon Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Newton Phelps, of Touraine road, formerly of Rochester, N. Y., claimed Katherine Isham Farwell as his bride Saturday in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest, Ill.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Isham Farwell, of Lake Forest, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Cameron B. Waterman, of Lincoln road.

For the wedding she wore a gown of ivory silk accented with white satin and a cathedral length lace veil. She carried orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. John Gray, of Boston, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Ann Rogers, of New York; Pamela Waterman, Diana Tilt, of Ridgewood, N.J.; Mrs. Whitney Evans, of Mentor, O.; Mrs. C. Penn Wetlaufer, of Buffalo, and Mrs. Maurice Dunne and Louise Woods, both of Lake Forest.

They wore loden green silk frocks and hats of velvet autumn colored leaves.

Dennis Rice, of San Francisco, was best man. In the usher corps were Stanford N. Phelps, Jr., Whitney Evans, of Mentor, O.; Lawrence Cleary and Gibson Lunt, of Rochester, N.Y.; Jack R. Harvey, of Erie, Pa.; Dr. Benjamin Potter, of New York; Clement Hastie, of Baltimore; Robert M. Baxter, of Haverford, P., and Gordon Lang, of Lake Forest.

After a trip to Jamaica the newlyweds will live in Cadieux road.

DEANERY SESSION

The second quarterly meeting of the East Central D.A.C.C.W. Deanery will be held September 24 at 8 o'clock in the St. Matthew's Parish Hall, Harper at Whittier, Mrs. Cyril Kruger will preside and Mrs. John Thursty, Deanery Parish representative, will act as hostess with the St. Matthew's Women's Club.

Square Dancing Class Offered

Square Dancing for Beginners is being offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, beginning September 23 at Montelth School, Cook road at Chalfonte. The class will meet at 8 p.m. and the first evening's instruction is free.

Experienced Square Dancers may bring along their non-square dancing friends to acquaint them with the fun derived from this recreation. Wes and Julie Rea will instruct.

An advanced class in Square Dancing will meet at Barnes School, Morningside at Fairford, beginning Wednesday, September 23, at 8 p.m. This class is open to dancers who have completed instruction in beginning and intermediate classes. Mrs. Mildred Brennan is the instructor. Dancers who complete these courses may make application to join one of the local Square Dance Clubs.

Interested persons may register at the above schools on opening nights, and further information may be obtained by calling the Department Community Services, TU. 5-3808 or TU. 5-0271.

Center Ballet Classes Form

Mary Ellen Cooper will return next week from teaching in Olga Fricker's San Francisco and Los Angeles studios to resume her Ballet classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Enrollment days will be Friday, September 25, 3:30-6 p.m., and Saturday, September 26, 9:30 a.m.-3 p.m.

Ballet is open to girls from age five through the teens. Miss Cooper interviews each prospective student and places her in the appropriate group according to age and advancement.

Classes are scheduled after school Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays and all day on Saturdays. The fee is $21.60 for 12 lessons ages 5-10 and $24 for 12 lessons for students 10 years of age and over. Also a special class is planned for adults on Wednesday nights.

Miss Cooper teaches the Italian or traditional ballet. Classes are kept small—usually ten or under—so that each student gets a great amount of individual attention.

The Cooper family has long been connected with the musical fine arts of Detroit. Miss Cooper's father and uncle have been with the Detroit Symphony for twenty-five years and her mother is a fine pianist. Mrs. Cooper plays the accompaniments for all her daughter's classes as well as playing for the ballet performances which Miss Cooper's students stage each year.

Miss Cooper herself is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Toronto and besides instructing ballet for many years in Michigan cities and on the West Coast is known for her fine choreography and virtuosity on the piano.

All Miss Cooper's students not only develop poise and an enviable carriage but they are firmly grounded in the basic principles of movement and good music. There is no finer way to discipline the body.

Seiter-Barbret Rites Read at St. Paul's

Mary Eileen Barbret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred J. Barbret, of Waterloo avenue, was married Saturday in St. Paul's on the lakeshore to Paul Edward Seiter, son of Mrs. Louise Pretto, of Detroit.

The bride wore a gown of white lace over tulle and a small crown of pearls caught her illusion veil which was appiqued with scattered orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white orchids and white rosebuds.

Rose De Korte was her maid of honor in a ballerina gown of shrimp taffeta under white lace. Marilyn English, bridesmaid, wore pink taffeta and white lace, and Donna Janson, bridesmaid, wore cream lace over yellow taffeta.

Frederick Seiter was his brother's best man. The ushers were Ralph Seiter and Conrad Allegritti.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Barbret wore a black lace over cerise satin gown. Mrs. Pretto was in beige lace over beige taffeta.

Following a reception in the home of the bride's parents the newlyweds left for Northern Michigan.

During the Korean War a helicopter from the heavy cruiser USS Helena made so many successful rescues of downed pilots that it earned the name, "Last Chance Taxi."

Seven Debs Bow In Little Season

Six Parties in Four Days Mark Fall Debutante Whirl; Donna Woodruff Presented at "Headdress" Gala At Country Club to Begin Festivity

Seven debutantes were presented to society last week to mark the first fall "Little Season" in many years. Donna Woodruff was the first to be presented at a dinner dance at the Country Club last Wednesday evening by her mother, Mrs. Donald Woodruff.

Guests were invited to wear "out of this world" headdresses to the party. Mrs. Woodruff chose a crown of her grandchildren's pictures to wear with her gown of blue satin. The debutante chose floor length green satin and a crown of sweetheart roses matching the bouquet she carried. The flowers were the gift of her brothers-in-law, William H. Race, Dr. John A. Ingold and Horace C. Ford. Rockets and candles were the centerpiece for the tables placed in the Great Hall. Cocktails were served on the terrace where the guests danced after dinner.

Harriet Cotton To Be Married

Mrs. Harold M. Cotton, of Fisher road, announces the engagement of her daughter, Harriet Ann, to Wilbur I. Kamm, son of the Wilbur F. Kamms, of Lincoln road.

The bride-elect is an alumna of Miami University, Oxford, O., and her fiancé was graduated from Western Michigan University.

A February wedding is planned.

On Thursday Mrs. John R. Decker, of Seminole avenue, presented her twin granddaughters, Jane and Mary Kohring, daughters of the Henry C. Kohrings, of Touraine road, at a tea in her home.

Jane chose an emerald green faille dress and Mary's choice was sapphire blue. They both carried white carnations and ivy.

That evening Barrett Van Dyke made her debut at a dinner party at the Country Club given by her parents, the Charles Van Dykes, formerly of Detroit and now living near Concord, N. H.

The dinner was preceded by a cocktail party given by the Jerome H. Remicks, Jr. The debutante wore a floor length white slipper satin gown with crystal rose panels. Mrs. Van Dyke was in periwinkle blue slipper satin.

Barrett bowed in Boston at the Assembly last November. The Van Dykes made their home there for many years and still maintain an apartment there.

After the dinner the guests went on to the dance, given by the Sterling Docksons in their Sunningdale drive home for their daughter, Patricia.

The gardens were converted into a large dance floor covered with a blue and green striped canopy.

Patti wore a white peau de soie gown with self roses and her mother received in a strapless rose satin gown encrusted with teardrop pearls.

On Friday at the Birmingham Country Club Andrea Galaudet was presented by her parents, the Francis T. Galaudets at a dance.

Saturday's debutante was Mary Moffat (Muffy) Muirhead, who bowed at a dance at the Little Club given by her mother Mrs. Stanley N. Muirhead.

She wore a white pointe d'esprit over tulle gown accented with a blue satin ribbon. Mrs. Muirhead was in a full skirted floor length blue organza gown.

A dinner party preceded the dance, in the Ridge road home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hodges, Jr.

Mrs. Joseph S. Hayosh, Jr.

Robin Fritz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Fritz, of Lochmoor boulevard, spoke her marriage vows Saturday in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church to Mr. Hayosh, son of the senior Hayoshes, of Shoreham road.

Woods Church Group to Meet

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church will hold its regular meeting and luncheon on Tuesday, September 22, at 12:30 at the Church.

The dedication of the day will be given by Mrs. Lathrop Morse.

Reverend Andrew Rauth will give a short talk on "Our Women's Work."

The Summer Offering for Medical Missions and Faith Goal will be dedicated.

The program "Valuable Cargo" is under the direction of Mrs. Charles Bryant, Chairman of the World Service Department.

The hostesses will be the Abigail Group, leader Mrs. C. J. Carlson. The Nursery will be open.

JULIE DUCHARME, daughter of MR. and MRS. CHARLES A. DUCHARME, II, of University place, and PAMELA MACPHERSON, daughter of the JAMES G. MACPHERSONS, of Woodland place, have left for Mary A. Burnham School, Northampton, Mass.

JUDITH DIEKOFF, daughter of the ARTHUR E. DIEKOFFS, of Hawthorne road, has entered her junior year at Wellesley College.

Hayosh-Fritz Rites Solemnized Here

Bride Wears Ballerina Gown of Chantilly Lace and Satin for Ceremony Saturday in Our Lady Star of the Sea; Newlyweds Travel North

Robin Fritz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Fritz, of Lochmoor boulevard, was married Saturday in Our Lady Star of the Sea to Joseph S. Hayosh, Jr., son of the senior Hayoshes, of Shoreham road.

Her ballerina gown of Chantilly lace over white satin was accented with a white satin cummerbund. An elbow length veil of rolled tulle was caught by a pearl crown and she carried white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Her ballerina gown of Chantilly lace over white satin was accented with a white satin cummerbund. An elbow length veil of rolled tulle was caught by a pearl crown and she carried white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Barbara Farrell was maid of honor and Diane Long, bridesmaid, in royal blue chiffon over satin with matching hats. The honor maid carried light blue carnations, stephanotis and ivy and the bridesmaid's bouquet was of carnations and ivy.

James Hayosh was best man and the ushers were Richard Dumas, Henry Edlin, Thomas Fredal and William Anderman.

Mrs. Fritz wore a royal blue brocaded sheath for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Hayosh was in a beige silk sheath.

Following a trip to Northern Michigan the newlyweds will make their home Chapolan Manor.

SUE ANNE SHEPHERD, who will make her debut in December, leaves Friday for Marjorie Junior College, Washington, D. C.

MR. and MRS. JOHN COUSINS CALVIN, of Bay City, announce the birth of a son, JOHN COUSINS, JR., on September 2. Mrs. Calvin is the former ELAINE KIHEN, daughter of MRS. EDWARD KIHEN, of Kensington road.

Bazaar to Aid Lapeer Home

Retarded children at Lapeer State Home and Training School will benefit from proceeds of the Annual Bazaar sponsored by the Lapeer Parents Association of metropolitan Detroit, Saturday, October 10. The Bazaar will be an all-day event held at Carpenters Hall, 22521 Grand River, Redford, with luncheon served from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m., and dinner from 4 to 8 p.m.

Highlights of the Bazaar are a variation of booths and interesting items for sale and special entertainment for young and old. There will be a continuous program throughout the day and evening.

Donations will be gratefully accepted for the various booths, such as ceramics, clothing, aprons, gift items of all kinds, parcel post packages (should be priced at cost on exterior of package), dolls, canned fruits and home-baked goods, etc.

All proceeds will be used to furnish recreational, educational and occupational therapy facilities, which the State does not provide, for the 4,200 children at Lapeer Home, as well as to provide funds for existing programs and other services for the mentally retarded and handicapped.

Last year the Bazaar netted approximately $7,000. However, more funds are needed this year and the Fund Raising Committee, of which Henry P. Widrich is Chairman, have set a goal of $10,000.

Any one willing to give a hand to this worthy cause may contact or phone: Mrs. Wm P. Herbert of 415 St. Clair, TU 1-8789.

To Pay Honor To Mrs. Roney

Mrs. Edward C. Roney of Kenwood road will be guest of honor Sunday, September 20, of the parish (St. David's, Detroit) that was named to commemorate her father, the late David Trombly.

A remarkable story of church aid and spiritual affiliation began in 1919, when Mrs. Roney and her mother, the late Mrs. David Trombly deeded part of the original Trombly Grant to be used as a parish site, and endowed that parish so extensively that only after 40 years have the members of the parish had to contribute to a building fund.

Even more striking is the spiritual bond that exists between the Trombly-Roney family and St. David's Parish. Each of the children and grandchildren have been returned to the 'family parish' for Baptism. The eighteenth such ceremony took place this month when the infant daughter of the James B. Byrnes of Boston was flown to Detroit to be Christened Mary Margaret at St. David's font.

The dinner at which Mrs. Roney will preside, with her family, is the first activity of a week-end of festivities celebrating the opening of the parish's new High School. The $850,000 building was dedicated September 13 by the Most Reverend John F. Dearden, S.T.D., Archbishop of Detroit, marking the completion of the parish plant.

The gala week-end opens with a two-day Bazaar, on Friday, September 18, and a Friday Nite Fish Fry. There will be a Homecoming Nite Football Game vs. St. Martin's at De La Salle Field, followed by a Homecoming Dance in the parish Gymnasium.

Friends of the parish and especially former parishioners are most cordially invited to return to St. David's for this celebration.

Alpha Xi Deltas Plan Meeting at Mrs. Groves

The Grosse Pointe Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta will hold its first meeting of the new season at the home of Mrs. Eugene Groves, 131 Moran road, on Monday evening, September 21, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Hile, president of the chapter, will give her report on the National Convention held last June at Glenwood Springs, Colo.

Following the report, dessert will be served by Mrs. Craig George, Chairman, assisted by Mrs. M. J. Grieshaber, Mrs. William C. Potter and Mrs. Richard Swinbank.

All Alpha Xi Deltas living in this area are cordially invited. For information, please call Mrs. James McNeff, VA 4-6525.

Elizabeth Cass Chapter Meets on September 21

On September 21, at the Women's City Club, the Elizabeth Cass Chapter, DAR, will meet in observance of Constitution week. The speaker for this occasion will be Robert E. Waldron of 532 University place, City of Grosse Pointe.

Mr. Waldron has served as the Representative for the Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods in the Michigan Legislature.

On September 17, 1787, the United States Constitution was approved unanimously by the colonial delegates, and in the week following the proposed Constitution was made known to the people throughout the country.

Each year the National Society, DAR, participates in the observance of Constitution Week, calling upon loyal citizens of the country to protect and defend the Constitution and to display the flag of the United States of America all week.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Plan Supper Sept. 21

The first meeting of the Grosse Pointe Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club will be held September 21, at the home of Ruth Ann Teetzel, 515 Rivard. The members will meet at 7 o'clock, each bring her own "Box Supper".

No formal program has been planned, as the girls will be busy discussing summer activities and organizing the program for the coming year.

New members are requested to call Mrs. Carl Meier, TU 4-0761, for further information.

Children's Art Classes Offered

Margherita "Mickey" Loud will again this fall conduct the very successful after-school and Saturday Children's Art Classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Classes will begin Tuesday, September 22, from 3:30-5 p.m., for ages 7-10; Thursday, September 24, 3:45-5:15 p.m., for those 10-13; and Saturday morning, September 26, 10:30-12 noon, for 12 to 15 year olds. Groups are limited to 12 members each. Fifteen one and one-half hour lessons are given for $22.50 plus a $2.50 materials fee. To enroll call the Center, TU 1-7511.

For those interested in seeing the many art forms originated and produced by the Center's Children's Art Classes, all are urged to come to the Grosse Pointe Art Festival this Saturday, September 12, between 1 and 5 p.m. A special section of the grounds has been set aside for Mrs. Loud to display the works of her last year and summer students.

Mrs. Loud is a Sarah Lawrence Art Major and a graduate of the Corcoran Gallery School in Washington, D.C. She taught art at the National Cathedral School before coming to Detroit. Mrs. Loud believes in "Art for Fun." A wide variety of materials is made available to her young students — everything from bits of paper to wire coat hangers. They are encouraged to give shape to their imagination in any medium they choose and then Mrs. Loud moves in with refinements, instilling the principles of line and color.

Center Dancing Classes Begin

Right now is the time to enroll in Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson's popular ballroom dancing classes sponsored throughout the school term by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association at 32 Lake Shore Road.

Classes always enjoy a full enrollment and are filling rapidly. Lessons begin Friday, September 18. Fifteen one hour classes of instruction are given for $15, including a gala dress-up party with orchestra, plentiful refreshments and favors at the end of each season.

There are groups divided according to age and advancement covering all Grosse Pointe students grades 5 through 9. There are afternoon classes after school Fridays and on Saturday for boys and girls in the 5th and 6th grades. There are evening classes Friday and Monday for Junior High School pupils grades 7-9.

Another Move

The John Masseys, of Washington road, will be missing the appearance of the Talbot Brothers, that fabled Calypso combination from Bermuda, which will delight Country Club members this Friday evening.

They will be in Chicago looking over the real estate situation, for Mr. Massey has been transferred to the Windy City. The Masseys won't be moving for some time yet, until they find just the right house.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Pearce, Jr., of Chalfonte road, are having a cocktail party before the Talbot Brothers dance at the Club, where it is requested guests dress Bermuda fashion to set the proper mood.

League Drive Begins

The Detroit League for Planned Parenthood, which gets no funds from the United Foundation, is beginning its annual drive this week to continue until October 1. The goal is $40,000 to aid its free clinics and educational program.

Mrs. Robert J. Duff, (who entertained at a coffee hour Monday for workers), and Mrs. Virginia W. Stinson are co-chairmen of the drive. Among those working are Mrs. John W. Coe, Mrs. Maurice Klein, Mrs. Arman Simone, Mrs. Sherod B. Scott, Mrs. Yates G. Smith and Mrs. Julius Gilbert.

After the drive, League members will plunge into preparations for a Christmas Fair to be given November 4 and 5 in the Veterans Memorial Bldg. Luncheon will be served at this holiday mart and a gala dinner will climax the shopping spree, (chic stores from all over the country will have booths), on the final day.

Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman is honorary chairman of the fair and Mrs. John L. Kenower, chairman. Mrs. Joseph L. Hudson is co-chairman for this area. Mrs. Thatcher W. Rea is president of the League.

Other fair committee heads include Mrs. Harry W. Kerr, Mrs. William P. Harris, III, Mrs. Wyman D. Barrett, Jr., Mrs. Emory Ford, Mrs. Ethan C. Prewitt, Mrs. Ross Wilkins, Mrs. Theodore R. Buttrick, Jr., Mrs. William C. Tost, Mrs. Edwin J. Mercer, Mrs. Robert J. Schneck and Mrs. Robert H. Kanzler.

DAC Renews Party For Young Marrieds

Dancing and Supper Party Scheduled for September 30 Under the Direction of David C. Gillis; First of These Galas Since Before World War II

Launching Detroit Athletic Club's fall entertainment season is to be a Young Marrieds Party on September 30, and it's to be a dancing and supper party sparked by entertainment, according to plans of the entertainment committee headed by Martin C. Callahan.

The festivity will follow by a few days the stag reception and open house the club's directors will hold for new members September 25.

Delegated to take charge of arrangements for the Young Marrieds fete are Grosse Pointer David C. Gillis, Birminghamites Phil deBeaubien and Thomas J. Bolton, and Clyde P. Craine Jr. of Bloomfield Hills.

Locale will be the main dining room where dancing will start at 9 o'clock (for the benefit of couples who first want to get young offspring bedded down for the night). A special supper will be served in the later evening. Plans are afoot for entertainment by amateur talent among the guests as well as professional entertainers. The type of party is a sort of revival even while it offers novelty now to DAC's younger set—similar festivities at the club had great success before World War II interrupted.

Incidentally, the committee points out there are no defined age limits on who qualifies as "young marrieds," and of course young bachelor members and their dates are welcome.

On the bandstand will be Emery Deutsch and his "singing strings" orchestra—very popular Violinist Deutsch and his group opened Sept. 11 at the DAC for an extended stay.

The September 25 stag reception for new members will start at 4:30 p.m. with cocktails in the Georgian Room. Tours of the clubhouse will acquaint the new DAC'ers with the diversity of activities.

Directors include Grosse Pointers Walker L. Cister, president; Arnold Freydl, treasurer; Frederick A. Kaiser, Arnold Malow, Franklin P. Williams, Benson Ford, Harry J. Loynd, W. Harold Lightbody.

Betrothed

At a reception in their Lochmoor boulevard home on Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Maguire announced the engagement of their daughter, LORNA CLAIRE, to Kenneth R. Venderbush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Venderbush, of Pemberton road.

The bride-elect is a senior at the University of Michigan where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi.

Mr. Venderbush is assistant professor of speech and Dean of Men at St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y.

Barbara Tobian, of 2068 Hollywood, was taken home by Woods police on Friday, September 11, when she fell from the monkey bars in the Mason School grounds. The only injury she suffered was the loss of a front tooth.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Voight, of East Emory court, announce the engagement of their daughter, CAROLYN, to Harold D. Pawlowski, son of Mrs. Casse Pawlowski, of Parkgrove avenue. The engaged couple, both students at Michigan State University, plan a spring wedding.

Don't spend your time criticizing conditions—try to improve them.

Youth Council Dance Saturday

The first Youth Council function of the season at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will occur this Saturday evening, Sept. 19, from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Ron Schram, Youth Council president, has appointed Linda Libbey chairman of the affair.

Assisting Linda on this opening dance of the season which will be known as "The Kick-Off" will be: Bev. Shannon who is inviting the chaperones, Sue Shaw who is in charge of decorations, and Art Post and Dick Law who are welcoming people at the door.

Furnishing music for dancing both indoors and on the lake side Terrace will be Earle Perkins' popular orchestra.

Dress for the dance will be casual—sweaters and skirts for the girls and slacks for the boys. This is a couples only dance with all students in grades 9 through 12 of the Pointes' public, private and parochial schools invited.

There will be refreshments served in the Center's auxiliary dining room and entertainment is planned for intermission time. The gardens and grounds will be lighted for strolling in the early evening.

BATTERY STOLEN

Joseph Impastheo of 19162 Collinson, St. Clair Shores, complained to Woods police on Wednesday, September 9, that while he was attending a movie at the Woods Theater, he parked his car in the theater lot. Later, he discovered that someone had stolen the battery.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jackson, of Lochmoor boulevard, announce the marriage of their daughter, JOANNE KAY, to Gene Clark in Orlando, Fla. The bride is an alumna of Grosse Pointe High School and her husband was graduated from Florida State University. They will make their home in Miami.

Pointe Garden Club to Meet

The Pointe Garden Club will meet for luncheon in the home of Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson, of Oxford road, on Monday, September 21.

Guest speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. J. Reed Alexander, who will discuss horticultural therapy.

Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Raymond C. Walk and Mrs. Robert C. Winter.

JA to Conduct School Meetings

Plans for a schedule of high school assemblies to give teenagers the opportunity to participate in Junior Achievement were announced by the president of Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan, James M. Roche. Roche said school assembly programs to be conducted by JA staff personnel will be held for high school juniors and seniors. The story of the 'Learn by doing' organization will be presented to high school students and those eligible to participate (minimum age requirement is fifteen) may apply for JA membership at the conclusion of the planned presentation. Awards, travelships and special incentive prizes for outstanding work are available to both members and companies in the Junior Achievement program. Teenagers in Junior Achievement actually manage the entire business affairs of small JA manufacturing and service companies which in southeastern Michigan alone this past school year sold over $153,000 worth of products and services to the general public. They operate under guidance from adult advisers from counseling firms. JA's eleventh program year in southeastern Michigan starts during the first two weeks of October. In all over 100 southeastern Michigan high schools will hold special Junior Achievement assemblies during the organization's annual recruitment drive. For eastside Detroit special JA presentations will be made at the following high schools during September: Lakeview (St. Clair Shores), South Lake (St. Clair Shores), Osborn, Denby, St. David, St. Philip Neri, Austin, Servite, De La Salle, Notre Dame (Harper Woods), Dominican, St. Paul (Grosse Pointe), Harper Woods, Lutheran High East (Harper Woods). Teenage business people will conduct their business affairs at the area center at 16401 Harper.

The first recorded charity case in Detroit annals ended up with quite an estate in Grosse Pointe and numerous progeny who did very well.

In 1747 Michael Yax was living somewhere in Pennsylvania. He decided to migrate to a German settlement in Louisiana and started down the Ohio River to the Mississippi, where he was captured by a band of Ottawa Indians from Detroit.

The captives, (he was traveling with his wife and child), were deprived of their meager possessions and conducted to Detroit where the commandant, de Longueuil, paid ransom for them. By the charity of the inhabitants Michael Yax was supported for three years. Some of the supplies given him from the King's store included 1 plow, 1 axe, 1 hoe, 1 sickle, 1 scythe, 2 augers, 7 chickens, 1 sow, 8 lbs. lead, 4 lbs. powder, 2 lbs. rice, 6 lbs. flour, 1 pot of wine and 80 nails.

In 1751 when the authorities in Quebec were making desperate efforts to colonize Detroit, Michael Yax, of German descent, was rated as a Frenchman and given a farm on the Detroit River, known as Private Claim 344. This was in Grosse Pointe on land now known as Rivard, Washington and Lincoln road.

Mrs. Yax, born Catherine Herbinne, had been brought up a Lutheran, although her husband was a Catholic. Some years after her arrival in Detroit she was converted to Catholicism, the first convert in Michigan, and so entered with much ceremony in the records of St. Anne's Church.

The Yaxes did very well on the Grosse Pointe farm and produced eleven children. In 1796 John Grant testified to the court that Simon Yax, a son of the couple, owned private claim 458, which included 20 arpents enclosed with a house and stable. This was confirmed by the United States government in 1808, the deed signed by President James Madison and Secretary of State James Monroe. Next door to the Simon Yax farm was John Yax's property. The Yax family were important landowners before the War of 1812.

Then the family seems to have fallen on evil days, after the death of Simon Yax. Young Simon petitioned to sell the property to Charles Rivard on October 13, 1817 for payment of debts and because of heirs' liens on the estate.

Charles Rivard bought the property which he was to own in some part for almost 100 hundred years. Rivards married Trombleys and allied with other old French families so that the Yax name has been forgotten, but they were among the first to till the soil and fight the Indians in Grosse Pointe as long ago as 1751.

(We are grateful to Father George Pare, author of "The Catholic Church in Detroit", for much of the information on the Yax family.)

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Six year old Kit Simmons received a wee taffy and white kitten for her birthday last week. A friend asking her mother about the kitten's lineage learned that the breed was uncertain, but the feline was a cross breed of cats owned by Mrs. Frank Donovan (Siamese) and Mrs. David Wormer (Persian). It seems these cat fanciers are trying to begin a new cat dynasty.

Fair time is almost here, (that season of the year when churches and charities give the annual bazaar). Mrs. Julian Bowen heads the collector's booth for the Grosse Pointe Memorial November Fair and she already has an unusual eight foot mirrored screen and four rare rosewood chairs for fair customers.

The old fashioned art of fine needle work is making a strong comeback . . . Mrs. Neal Fitzgerald is working on a comforter and piecing all those small squares together takes infinite patience . . . Mrs. William H. Race stitches away constantly at needlepoint . . . Mrs. Gilbert Pingree knits argyle socks by the dozens.

And speaking of needlepoint Mrs. Henry C. Haberkorn III carries the most unusual bag . . . pale sapphire in hue with her name embroidered in nautical flags.

Mrs. John Dykema is famed for her gourmet touch over the brazier . . . most impressive picnic in the grand manner was the one she planned for the Stratford Shakespearian festival some time back . . . Lamb shish kebabs turning on the imported grill, cleverly entwined so they revolved together . . . the proper wines, and the whole served in a verdant meadow.

Did you know that talented Mrs. George Rieveschl designs her own Christmas cards? And it's not too early to think about that project.

There is a whole corps of habitual antique hunters . . . Mrs. Edwin Fisher is among those who have discovered that grandmother's pine dry sink makes a very suitable container for a modern hi-fi set.

PILFERINGS

A prominent Hollywood star was having a heated discussion with her teen age daughter, who claimed that mother didn't know what she was talking about. "I know exactly what I'm talking about," insisted the mother. "I happen to know a lot about children!" "Why," asked the daughter. "Were you ever a maid?"

A woman working in a greeting card shop asked a teen ager who had been looking through the selection of cards if she needed any help.

The girl answered, "Yes, do you have a sympathy card for a girl whose telephone is out of order?"

Pointer of Interest

MRS. JOSEPH L. WHELAN, OF NORTH OXFORD ROAD

—Picture by Fred Runnells

By Patricia Talbot

The homely old fashioned kitchen chore of baking bread is the unusual talent of Mrs. Joseph L. Whelan, who combines culinary skill with a deep art appreciation. As chairman of the board of the Artist Market she can evaluate a Whistler or Picasso painting, and as an inspired cook can delight by producing Swedish coffee cake and light as a feather rolls.

Attractive, trim Mrs. Whelan is a blend of the old fashioned and modern herself. She is strongly in favor of such virtues as a united family life, good books, healthy outdoor activity and antique furniture. But she is equally fond of modern art, music and updated interiors.

As chairman of the board of the Artists Market she is continually on the job superintending details for each new show, presiding at gallery shows, serving tea and searching for new artists.

Mrs. Whelan studied art in school but majored in philosophy at the University of Michigan. Since her career as chief volunteer at the Artists Market she has learned that her own talent is limited but her appreciation of others' gifted work is not.

Wasn't A Patient She met her neurologist husband in the psychopathic ward at Receiving Hospital. "This always excites people when I mention it," says this winsome matron. Actually she was there as a social worker helping mentally disturbed patients and Dr. Whelan was lecturing on neurology.

After their marriage the couple moved briefly to the Mayo Clinic headquarters in Rochester, Minn. "There was little to occupy me in this edge-of-the-prairie town so I began studying at the Community Art Center there."

When the Whelans returned to the Pointe (Mrs. W. is that rare citizen, a third generation resident) she volunteered at the Artists Market, answering the phone, helping to hang exhibits, serving on the art juries and generally making herself useful and learning a great deal about Michigan art and artists.

Won't Spread Self Thin "I don't believe in doing a lot of things. You so often do nothing well," says Mrs. Whelan, who has a decided and forthright philosophy of living. She spends a great deal of time with her children, Joe, 10, who is a student at Our Lady Star of the Sea, and Jennifer, 8, who is at the Convent of the Sacred Heart.

Recently the Whelans added to their family enjoyment by converting their garage into a huge, booklined activities room. Here are some of her engravings and etchings, notably one by Whistler and she is very fond of Emil Weddige's paintings. (He has been teaching at the War Memorial). This family room is quite modern with light furnishings and casual tables. The more formal living room has antiques accented with a Williams burg wallpaper and polished floors.

Not Exactly Roughing It The Whelans spend a great deal of time at their cabin on the AuSable. "This is hardly roughing it because I have a dishwasher and all the conveniences," says Mrs. W. They are avid trout fishermen, bird watchers and nature lovers. The children track deer in the forest and generally are interested in the outdoors (a healthy antidote to television the Whelans believe). At the cabin, too, the Whelans play a great deal of chess. Even the children have learned this exacting game.

Mrs. Whelan believes the 100 or so volunteers at the Artists Market are learning a great deal along with contributing to Michigan art. "Tastes change, and what I admired ten years ago may not be as pleasing today," says this charming expert.

The Whelans are constantly changing their pictures, adding and subtracting to their collection. For the beginner Mrs. Whelan suggests it is wise to buy old prints and lithographs before branching into oils.

Show Opens September 30

The Artists Market has been closed during August but on September 30 a new show will open and Mrs. Whelan will greet guests at a tea in the gallery at 110 Madison avenue. All winter she will be active in the artist world, finding new talent, arranging for exhibits, scheduling volunteer work.

But several mornings a week are set aside for the bread baking and other gourmet cooking which illustrates this unusual lady's rare blending of the household and fine arts.

IT'S A FACT

Soviet spokesmen have pooh-poohed an American home which is part of our Moscow exhibition, saying it could be possessed only by the well-to-do. The fact is that the home, with land, is for sale in a Long Island community for $14,480. This means that more than half the families in America can afford to purchase it—for government figures show that the average American workman today purchases a $14,207 home and pays for it at the rate of $96 a month.

Whip cream. Blend in sugar and mayonnaise. Drain fruit cocktail and blend into cream mixture with bananas and marshmallows. Freeze in ice cube trays. One half hour before serving remove and cut in squares.

Movie Council Meets Sept. 21

The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council will hold its first meeting of the fall at the Central Library in Grosse Pointe on Monday, September 21, at 1 p.m.

A film program will be presented by Miss Melitta Roemer, Chief of the Central Library. The film to be shown is one purchased from funds donated by the Motion Picture and Television Council in June 1958.

It is a 16-minute, sound and color motion picture, "People of Venice," portraying present day life in sunny Italy with the monuments of Venice's glorious past as a back-drop.
