THE HISTORY OF ASHFORD UNIVERSITY

FOUNDING

The history of Ashford University begins in 1891, when Father John Murray invited the Sisters of St. Francis to help him teach students in Clinton, Iowa. By 1893, the Sisters were able to purchase some land in Clinton, on which they established their mother house and the Mount St. Clare Academy, a prep school for girls. The Academy and mother house quickly outgrew their old building. In 1910, the mother house and the academy moved into the newly constructed Mount St. Clare building.

Seeing a need for teachers in Clinton County and the surrounding area, the Sisters founded Mount St. Clare College, the predecessor to Ashford University, in 1918. At that time, the Mount St. Clare Academy, College, and Convent were all housed in the same building.

STRONG
in CLINTON, IOWA

EXPANSION

In 1950, the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools first accredited Mount St. Clare College. Following the accreditation, the school quickly began to expand. The sisters moved into an adjoining convent building in 1956. A new library and gym were opened a few years later. During the '60s, the Science Hall was opened. And in 1967, the college became coeducational.

For the 1979-1980 school year, the college received approval for its first four-year degree, a Bachelor's program in business administration. The following year, the Mount St. Clare Academy merged with St. Mary's High School in Clinton, forming Mater Dei High School (now known as Prince of Peace Academy). With the space freed by the academy's merger, the school began to offer additional four year programs.

In 1997, the sisters moved off campus into their new mother house, The Canticle. In 1998, the Durgin Educational Center was opened, which included new athletic facilities, including Kehl Arena.

BECOMING A UNIVERSITY

In 2002, Mount St. Clare College began to offer a Master's program over the internet. In conjunction with the expanded course offerings, the school changed its name to The Franciscan University, and the name of the athletic teams were changed from "The Mounties" to "The Saints." In September 2004, the school modified its name to The Franciscan University of the Prairies, in order to avoid confusion with similarly named schools.

In March 2005, the University was purchased by Bridgepoint Education, Inc. After the completion of the sale, the institution's name was changed to Ashford University. The school also dropped its affiliation with the Roman Catholic Church and became a for-profit institution.

For more details, see the Ashford Timeline on page 59.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

OZ SANCHEZ

While growing up in the Los Angeles area, Oz's early life was crippled with abuse and family dysfunction. His late teens were riddled with drugs, misdirection and the all too common street life for a youth in the city. In 1996, he opted for a different life and joined the Marine Corps. After six years of service and following two deployments to the Middle East, Oz decided to make a career of military service. He also decided to transfer branches into the Navy, to serve as a Navy Seal. In 2001, during the period of his transfer, Oz's life took a tragic turn when he became the subject of a hit-and-run accident while riding his motorcycle. He suffered a spinal cord injury that left him with near complete paralysis of the lower extremities.

Following the accident, Oz fell into deep depression and had seemingly lost all hope for any version of a fulfilling life. He spent the better part of the next five years in a state of deep depression, simply going through the motions of day-to-day life, and he held little faith in being happy again...but the mind is a resilient entity.

Following some soul searching, Oz made a choice to redefine himself and began to move forward in life. He enrolled in school, devoted himself to his studies, and earned his bachelor's degree in Business Management with a minor in Communications from San Diego State University. He also actively pursued sports and is now a three-time Paralympian, winning a combined total of six medals in the past three games! A 7-time world champion, Kona Ironman finisher, and now motivational speaker, Oz takes great pride in his role as a mentor for the wounded warrior community and being a source of inspiration for anyone suffering from depression or struggling with life's many challenges. He is of the belief that with passion and purpose, there is no obstacle that can stop us.

His message: Know No Limits...
