DEGREES GIVEN THIRTY SEVEN COLLEGE GRADS

Graduation Exercises Saturday To Halt Collegiate Days For Seniors

Those good old "college days" will come to a close for 209 seniors of Central State Teachers college next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock when graduation exercises for the upper class will halt the commencement week program.

Procession On Campus

An academic procession on the college campus will precede the graduating program. William Rainey Bennett will deliver the address to the graduates. President Frank S. Hyer will present the diplomas.

B. E. Degrees To 37

Of the total number of graduates the Bachelor of Education degree, (B. E.), will be conferred upon 37 students. The remaining 172 students will receive diplomas for work ranging from the one year rural course to the three year junior high school group.

The following is a list of the graduates and the departments from which they graduate.

Senior Ball To Be Added Social Feat

A new social activity in the form of a "Senior Ball" will be found on the college social calendar next year. The date has been set for Saturday, December 10.

The formal dance will resemble the annual Junior Prom. However, the affair will be held during the winter season. As a result it will not tend to conflict or compete with the promenade of the Junior class.

According to present plans the ball will be sponsored entirely by the senior class. Decorations, which are expected to rival those of the Junior Prom, will lend color to the affair.

All students, alumni and friends will be invited to the new social function.

SAD DAYS FOR COLLEGE SENIORS

June, with its graduations at nearly every college in the nation, is parting time for thousands of students and to many seniors there is sadness in these final college days. This college couple, in traditional cap and gown, typifies the thousands who are bidding good-bye to their alma mater this month. Central State Teachers college will bid "farewell" to 209 seniors at the concluding graduation exercises to be held in the auditorium Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Thirty seven students of this number will receive the Bachelor of Education degree and will be distinguished with the cap and gown.

College Summer Term June 20th

The Twenty-fifth annual summer term at Central State Teachers college will begin Monday, June 20. Courses in the different departments will be given for a six weeks period. The summer session of the college will close July 29. It is expected that students and alumni taking advantage of the summer work will cause a large enrollment.

FAREWELL SENIORS AND MAY WE FOLLOW YOU?

Members of the Pointer Staff wish the graduating class success and happiness. Alumni are always anxious to get news from the "Old College," and the Pointer will follow you to your new location for the nominal sum of $2 per year. Mail your subscriptions to the Pointer Office. This is the final issue of the Pointer for the fiscal school year.

Annual Ball And Banquet Held Friday

Plans for the annual alumni banquet and ball to be held tomorrow have been completed, and it is expected that a large delegation of former college students will arrive in Stevens Point for the program.

Banquet At Nelson Hall

A faculty reception for the alumni will be held in the reception room at Nelson hall tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. The alumni banquet will be held in the dining room of Nelson hall at 6 p. m. Following the banquet, which is for alumni and seniors, a short program will be given.

Alex Peterson, president of the alumni association, will act as chairman. Mr. E. T. Smith, Mr. L. M. Burroughs, Mr. Norman Knutzen, Mr. F. N. Spindler, and President Frank S. Hyer will appear on the program. Sadie Storzbach, president of the senior

NEW ATHLETIC FIELD MAY BE USED IN FALL

Sprinkling System Installed; Ex- pect Bleachers To Be Con- structed This Summer

Citizens of Stevens Point and local students can gaze with pride upon the new college athletic field which undoubtedly is one of the biggest civic improvements of the year.

Bleachers This Summer

The new field and play ground has been seeded, and with favorable weather this summer the new gridiron should be in shape for the college football games this fall. The state has mailed blue-prints of the bleachers to the local college and it is expected that they will be installed early this summer.

Sprinkling System In

A seven foot steel fence surrounding the entire area cost $1400. A cinder straight-away track has been constructed on the west side. Later the cinder track will be continued to complete a 440 yard circle, which will surround the football field. A sprinkling system with six openings has been installed on the west side at a cost of $250.

Bids for the construction of the bleachers will be received soon. They will occupy the entire west side with a 1200 seating capacity. The gate will be located at the southwest corner of the field on North Reserve street.

Atwell Donates Soil

Mr. F. J. Schmeckle has supervised the construction of the new field and practically all the work was done by local labor. Practically all of the rich, black dirt was donated to the school by Mr. W. E. Atwell, local regent. Mr. Schmeckle said this donation has saved the college at least $300.

When the new field is complete Central State Teachers college will have one of the best play grounds in central Wisconsin. Besides the bleachers on the west side, set-up seats will be placed on the east wing. There will be plenty of parking space for cars on the east side. A crowd of 3,000 fans will be easily accommodated on the new field.

Published Weekly at Stevens Point by the students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $2.00 per year.

Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THAT TRADITIONAL DEPARTURE

WE wish the 1932 graduation class that old traditional "good-bye and good luck" and may their future be mingled with happiness and success. Their happy college days will come to a halt with the commencement exercises in the auditorium Saturday morning. Soon they will shift from a friendly, intimate class group to that large and spacious alumni division. Many of them, as alumni, will have the opportunity of visiting their alma-mater. Others will find themselves scattered in remote localities with little chance of dropping in on the old college.

Nevertheless their accomplishments as students will go on record in the history book of Central State Teachers college, there to remain permanently. They will leave behind them many friends and good times which we hope will always remain embedded in them. Many outstanding events have occurred during the past months and years to warrant fond memories of Stevens Point and the college.

Many of the seniors will undoubtedly continue their education later on. They will find the scholastic standards that have been set up under the present administration are recognized by practically all big colleges and universities. Our B. E. degree qualifies local college students to enter most of the big ten university law schools without any conditions or "strings" attached. Our first two years of work are transferable towards degrees in other big schools without serious deductions. We are deeply indebted to President Frank Hyer, Regent W. E. Atwell, Professor E. T. Smith and our faculty for this attainment.

Not only has progress been made in the scholastic field. Under the supervision of F. J. Schmeckle a new athletic field has been constructed which adds to our campus beauty. Our men's and women's athletic directors have worked hard with their respective jobs. Only recently our college track team set two new state records at Madison. Our social activities have been systematically arranged for next year by T. A. Rogers with the cooperation of organization heads. Celestine Nuesse won the tri-state oratorical contest. Our school annual, the "Iris," is one of the most attractive books on record. And so we could continue to narrate events which we hope will tend to bring back memories to our grads in years to come.

But to conclude without mentioning a word relative to the school paper, the Pointer, would be an injustice both to our present editor and the school. Opinion is unanimous that Burton Hotvedt has edited a most successful and newsy college paper. Burt has piloted a staff that has put tedious hours on the Pointer, week after week. True it is that the paper can be read in the neighborhood of an hour, but few realize the hours it involves to compose a single issue. Our present editor not only was active with the paper but participated in numerous other college activities. To add to his many duties Burt has held a clerical job at a local drug store during the past three years which necessitated his heeding a 6 A. M. alarm six mornings a week.

Burt has done a "good job" of it and we, the 1932-33 Pointer staff, will find plenty of pluck needed to uphold the standards which the present staff has carved.

George R. Maurer

POINTER'S FINAL ISSUE

THE responsibility of presenting thirty issues of The Pointer to the student body ceases with this editorial. To be frank, there is a feeling of relief and satisfaction with the completion of this contract. Yet, to be equally frank without becoming sentimental and trite, there are regrets and a host of appreciations mingled with this relief. There is regret at the loss of expression that the writer has enjoyed in these columns, and regret associated with the knowledge that the completed project might have been better done.

It is not good policy to editorialize in the first person, but since this article concerns the editor for the past year, may I be pardoned for the exception to the rule. The Pointer may be a relatively small part of the college life to the majority of the students, but to the members of The Pointer staff it is paramount. I am duly appreciative of the efforts and initiative that these assistants have contributed, especially this week since the editor's duties have been limited to what might be accomplished in bed with that Nemesis, — (the Mumps.) The work of The Pointer is not all in evidence in its newsprint production. A great amount of effort lies with the business and circulation duties, and it has been a great aid to have responsible persons in charge of these departments. For example, the lone assistant circulation manager has handled a two-man job without reluctance for the past months, spending over-time hours preparing the hundreds of Pointers for mailing each week. Such activity has been satisfying.

The library, the president's office, the athletic departments, and every other source of aid and material has been especially co-operative. To the Worzalla Publishing Company may go a great deal of credit for their painstaking specialization in printing our small sheet, — not to mention the merit due them for the patience they have held when our little system failed to mesh with their time-clock schedule.

But this thing must be concluded. I am confident in the new editor and his assistants and see no reason why the forthcoming 1932-33 Pointer should not be the best ever produced by the college.—Luck!

BURTON HOTVEDT.

APPRECIATES STUDENT SPIRIT

FRANK S. HYER

As I review it now, I appreciate that the past school year has been the happiest of all the many years that I have spent in school work. The cordial support of the citizens of Stevens Point and of the local regent have made our community surroundings delightful. The harmonious and happy relations that have existed among the faculty members and the fine spirit of cooperation on the part of the student body have made it possible to carry through a constructive program with limited resources. You who are graduating at this time have been real factors in the work of the college.

I want you to know that I appreciate the excellent spirit which you have shown in all your work here, and I hope that each of you may be as cheerful, happy, and cooperative in your life's work as you have been as college students.

Your sincere friend,

FRANK S. HYER

RIVER FALLS

"Leap in — limp out! I may be a gas buggy, but I don't give a darn." Many of the students of the college are not worrying about train or bus fare, when six or seven of the fellows can chip in and buy an old rattle trap for five dollars, which looks suspiciously like a 1915 or 1920.

MONTANA

The University of Montana has a newly organized fraternity for short men. Only those students who are under 5 feet 6 inches tall are considered eligible rushing material. Well, in that case some of the tall girls on the campus just wouldn't be seen at the party.

The University of Alabama ran a series of "Dawn Dances" from 6 to 8 a. m., ostensibly for the benefit of those who studied late at night and could not go to regular dances.

KOTALMEN STAR AT MADISON MEET

THOMPSON AND ATWOOD BREAK STATE RECORDS

High Jump of 6 Feet 2 Inches;
Low Hurdles Run In
25.8 Seconds

Art Thompson and Russ Atwood have a right to feel proud. The boys went to the State Meet at Madison with the Point track team and succeeded in smashing the state record in two events, Thompson in the high jump and Atwood in low hurdles.

Besters 6 Feet

"Tommy's" highest mark up till the state meet had been an even 6 feet, garnered at the Milwaukee-Point meet. They tell us that at Madison — Art just kept jumping and jumping till finally he went over at 6 ft. 2 1/3 inches for a new state record.

Russ Sets Record

Russel was handicapped in breaking the low-hurdle record in the very good time of 25.8. It seems that Russ beat the gun in the first start, and was called back and warned by the starter. This sobered him so much that he was the last man away in the second start. He overhauled the entire field, however, to win in the last stride.

Scribner Wins

Lyman Scribner kept up his consistent performance of the year in taking a first in the mile run with the time of 4:39.5. "Scrib" led the pack from the start and had enough stamina to last it out in front. He also came back to place second in the two mile run. Lyman was the high point man for the locals in this meet as he has been in all others.

The relay team, composed of Baker, Atwood, Reickert and Krueger took third in the relay with a time of 1:33.7. Other points were picked up by Thompson, who took fourth in the pole vault with 12 feet, and Atwood, who placed fourth in the high hurdles with a time of 16:1.

Fifth In Meet

The team took fifth place in the meet, only a few points behind Oshkosh. The showing was remarkably good considering the fact that only nine men made the trip. Milwaukee Teachers, represented by a twenty-one man team, won the meet easily, as was expected. The Pointer thinly-clads were further crippled by the failure of Ed. Baker to round into form for the dashes. Baker was injured early in the season, and was unable to regain the form that made him a point winner last year.

Five College Athletes Win Track Awards

Five men, Arthur Thompson, Russel Atwood, Lyman Scribner, Myron Fritch, and Harold Reickert, have been presented with major athletic awards for their work in track this spring.

Thompson specialized in the high jump and pole vault. Atwood's events were the low and high hurdles, while Fritch was the weight man of the team, throwing the shot and the discus.

Scribner A Winner

Scribner was the outstanding distance man in the teachers college conference, winning the mile and two mile runs consistently. Reickert ran the dashes and placed in the broad jump.

The award presented is similar to the regular award presented for football and basketball.

SAM'S SPORT SHORTS

This is no time to throw gloom around the premises, we admit, but we're going to miss some very familiar faces when next year comes around.

It's pretty hard to realize right now in the midst of graduation, but we won't see Ollie Neuberger out there next fall pulling down those long passes.

We're going to miss Ed Baker next winter in the gym. It won't seem like a Point team without "Bake".

Arthur Schroeder, one of the greatest little athletes produced by Central State, will be gone. So will Frank Trebatowski, a mainstay in the line for three straight years.

We won't see "Vic" Vroble's curly black head rounding the ends any more, or smearing an Oshkosh full-back. "Bud" Laabs won't be out there in his green shirt, refereeing "B" team games.

We're going to miss you, fellows. You've given us a lot of fun, you've played the game square, you've reflected nothing but credit upon the school.

So long — and good luck!

OUR COACH

E. L. KOTAL

Coach Eddie Kotal joined the local college faculty in 1930. During his reign as director of men's athletics Kotal has won a multitude of friends both in college and in the city. He has produced some plucky athletic teams and has drilled sportsmanship into every athlete. Under Eddie's supervision the college can expect some real teams next year.

Phi Sigs Win Brown Jug By 2 To 1 Count

Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity of the local Teachers college nipped the Chi Delta Rho indoor baseball team on the Garfield school diamond yesterday afternoon, 2 to 1, to win the saw-off tilt of a three-game series.

A little brown jug with the Phi Sigs insignia painted on it will be awarded the champs. Each year the jug will be awarded to the fraternity winning the three game series.

The Chi Deltas won the first game of the series, 4 to 1. The Phi Sigs snatched the second, 7 to 4. Yesterday's contest was one of the best displayed on the school diamond. The Chi Deltas scored their run in the first of the third. The Phi Sigs retaliated with two scores in their turn at the bat.

Score by innings:
Chi Deltas 001000 0-1
Phi Sigs002 000 x-2
Lineups: Phi Sigs — G. Maurer, p; P. Peterson, c; S. Keener, 1b; M. Bergerson, 2b; I. Mish, 3b; C. Collins, ss; A. Nygard, A. Shorey, ss; A. Thompson, lf; H. Rickman, cf; G. Krumm, rf.

Chi Deltas — J. Murat, p; N. Gregory, c; J. Turrish, 1b; W. Schwahn, 2b; R. Schwahn, 3b; F. Klement, ss; Schlyter, ss; M. Boyle, lf; D. Blood, cf; Slowey, E. Leuthold, rf.

Lawrence Berdoll was the umpire, and Tom Smith called the plays at the bases.

KOTAL ISSUES A FEW WORDS TO STUDENTS

Athletics Have Been Successful But Expect Bigger Things Next Year

To our student body —

Time out!!! During all this hubbub of exams, graduation, "Iris" writing, heat, and summer good byes, let us pause a moment to give a few thoughts to "them" touchdowns and to "them" baskets. We are going to need them a plenty next year. The athletic year just past was comparatively successful, but not quite as good as it should be when compared to our other achievements and to the high standard our college represents.

Larger And Better

There is no doubt that we will have a large enrollment next fall and with an increased student body comes increased success in all departments. Of course, we are going to miss the old regulars and grads, but if they take it upon themselves to send some friend to Stevens Point they can really live their college days over again by simply watching that person in their old haunts and hobbies.

Make The Team

The all-around spirit, pep, and good will are all assuming a plane that is going to be hard to beat. Our entire faculty has a cooperative complex that will do any college a great credit. Next year's football and basketball schedules are such that any athlete will be proud to make the varsity and go on the trips. The new athletic field to the rear of our school is about completed. Grass is growing, and the cinder track is being put in, and everything will be ready by next fall.

Pull Together Gang

Pull together, gang. Every girl should come back with an athlete. Every boy should come back with a roommate. Let me know — now or during the summer whether you have a likely prospect.

Best o'luck and a happy summer vacation to you all — from the athletic department.

E. L. KOTAL.

LET'S PLAY FAIR

GROUP HEADS HOLD MEETING WITH ROGERS

Next Year's Social Calendar Already Completed; Hand Books To Be Issued Students

Presidents and heads of the various school organizations met with Professor T. A. Rogers, chairman of the social committee, last week and drew up a social calendar for next year.

As a result of this joint meeting there will be no mix-up in dates of college social functions next year. The increasing number of school organizations, dances, parties and social activities necessitated organized action.

To Publish Hand-Book

A hand-book containing the dates of the school dances, fraternity and sorority formals and other school parties, and important school information will be published by the senior girls of the 1933 class. The name of the organization sponsoring the party will also be found in the manual.

Closing Time Of Dances

A copy of the hand-book will be given, free of charge, to each student registering at the college next fall. At the meeting it was also decided to discontinue all school dances on Friday nights at midnight. Saturday night dances will close at 11:45 P. M. Fraternities and sororities will be allowed to one o'clock for their formal dances.

Start Dances On Time

Heads of the organizations were also urged to start their dances on time and to encourage students to come early. There has been a tendency in past years for students to wander in late.

IT AIN'T SO

Dear Ed.: — Being self-elected Campus Critic at large I feel called upon for another 'blurb'. Might I suggest that we name the library "The Tower of Babel" — (habble). Why must some people choose the library for a general 'rendezvous' and meeting place, when we have large spacious halls extending the full length of the building, the great outdoors, and any and all of the innumerable places where the noble art of conversation is in order. Talking, rustling papers, and walking hither and yon on creaked-leather heels all go for creating a disturbance and wasting the time of those who are working. After all, the library is a place for study and research and most people are there for that purpose.

Mr. Watson was discussing inventions with his class the other day. Finally he asked Nolan Gregory who invented the cotton gin.

Gregory paused for a moment, then with a broad smile responded, "Eli Rice And His Dixie Cotton Pickers".

Miss Davis: — "I have a great deal of sympathy for anyone who has an impediment in his speech, but Mr. Wied, I wish you would put yours in the basket."

COLLEGE PLAY WELL ATTENDED

Students and townspeople packed the college auditorium Tuesday evening, May 31, when the three act comedy, "Mary the Third," was presented by the advanced speech class under the direction of Mr. L. M. Burroughs.

The comedy in prologue and three acts was written by the Rachel Brothers and was one of the ten best plays of 1924. The theme centers around the trials and troubles of parents in rearing modern youth.

Parts Well Taken

Evelyn Wimme took the part of mother. Cassie Raasoch made an ideal "granny." Earl Carl Koch took the part of the son, Bobby. Bernice Edick made a most attractive heroine in the person of Mary the third. Tom Smith was her fortunate lover, Lynn.

Byrne Neville played the part of Hal, another flaming youth. Sam Bluthe was the troubled and hen-pecked father. His stern, clear-toned voice correlated perfectly with the part. Olga Wolf-ram was Nora, the maid. Murilla Roberts played the part of Letty, another society girl with collegiate ideas. Donald Blood was her man, Max.

Prologue Characters

Bernice Edick, Earl Carl Koch, Tom Smith, and Victor Vrobel played parts in the prologue. Earl Koch was the coach of the play. Donald Blood handled the electrical job with Vic Vrobel in charge of the stage. Olga Wolfgram handled properties with Murilla Roberts as prompter.

Music was furnished by the college orchestra under the direction of Mr. Michelsen. No admission was charged.

Dates For College Formals Scheduled

Dates for the various fraternity and sorority spring formals for next year have already been set as a result of the joint social meeting held last week.

The formals will begin the first Friday after Easter and will carry well into May. The following dates have been secured by the various groups:

Spring Formal Dates
Chi Delta Rho — Friday,
April 21.
Tau Gamma Beta — Saturday, April 29.
Phi Sigma Epsilon — Friday, May 5.
Omega Mu Chi — Saturday, May 13.
Junior Prom — Saturday,
May 20.

The dates for other school dances and parties will be found in the hand-book which will be distributed free to the students next fall.

Chi Delts To Meet Tuesdays Next Year

Commencing next fall the Chi Delta Rho fraternity will meet Tuesday evening instead of on Monday nights as they have during the past year. They informed the social committee of this change last week.

The Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity and the Tau Gamma Beta and Omega Mu Chi sororities also hold their weekly meetings on Tuesdays. The newly organized "S" club will meet the second week of each month. Other organizations will continue to hold their meetings on the same nights as they have this year.

COLLEGE PACKED TO HEAR SERMON BY DR. A. SWAN

Every available seat in the college auditorium was occupied last Sunday afternoon when the baccalaureate services for the graduating class of 1932 were held.

Dr. Alfred W. Swan of Madison delivered the baccalaureate address, and his timely subject and perfect delivery held the audience's attention throughout the oration. His sermon was one of the finest delivered in the auditorium this year.

Rev. Wm. Schwemmer gave the invocation and benediction. The college orchestra furnished the music for the academic procession and acted as accompaniment for the singing of the hymns.
