Albert Peters, an employe of the Maui Agricultural Company, was fined $25 by Judge McKay this morning on conviction of having stolen a lot of tools and other supplies from the Pele warehouse where he had been employed. The fine was paid by relatives. Peters, who recently came to Maui from Honolulu, is a young part-Hawaiian of rather prepossessing appearance. In pleading for a light sentence for his client, Attorney Crockett told the court that the boy had been married less than a week before to a young Paia girl.

When Mary Dolores Ah-Ugha, an 18-year-old Spanish divorcee, who looks several years younger, applied on Tuesday evening to Marriage License Clerk Crockett for a license to wed again, her request was denied because she had neglected to bring with her her decree of divorce from her Korean husband. She and the Filipino who sought the new permit left, apparently much disappointed but promising to return with the divorce decree the following day. And Mary did return. She had changed her mind overnight, however, for this time she was accompanied by a different Filipino, and it was him she finally married. The girl was divorced about 10 days ago on grounds of non-support, the decree becoming effective on August 1. She has two children.

SUIT TO BREAK TRUST GOES TO SUPREME COURT

Questions of Importance Are Brought Out in Final Argument; Decision Awaited

Several questions of interest, each having a vital bearing on the suit brought by Delegate Kubio to break the trust in which the property of Queen Aliiokalani is held, which were argued last Thursday, doubtless will be answered in the decision of the supreme court. The justices have taken the questions under advisement and their decision is expected within a short time.

One of the questions brought up in argument is the correctness of the contention of the queen's counsel that the question of the queen's mental competency to conduct her own defense is a matter which must be decided preliminarily.

Another question is whether Circuit Judge Stuart was correct in shutting out the queen from taking any part in the control of her own defense in the suit. Argument also was had on the question of whether Delegate Kubio, as the sole party plaintiff, is entitled to maintain the suit, the contention of the respondents being that, according to the statements in his own petition, he has no interest in the matter other than that of a possible heir.

FILTERING PLANT IN USE, OTHERWISE ARTICLE CORRECT

WAILUKU, Mani, Aug. 4.—A story that would have been true had it been published about two years ago, got into print in Honolulu this week to the effect that the Paunene plantation was to start work at once upon a system of filter beds for supplying drinking water to the various camps at a cost of $150,000. The truth of the matter is that these great filters, covering several acres of ground, and of the most modern and scientific construction, were finished some six months ago, and since that time most of the plantation camps have been connected to the new supply. Within another month or two this work will have been completed.

That the improvement has already been of greatest value is evidenced by the fact that this year there has been almost no typhoid fever on the Paunene plantation, where in former years it was prevalent.

ALLEGED GERMAN DESERTED FROM INTERNED SHIP

On Complaint of Consul Rodiek Herman Eck is Arrested By U. S. Officials

Hermann Eck was arrested by federal authorities today on a charge of having deserted from the interned German steamer Holsatia, on which he was employed as a seaman. The arrest was made upon complaint made by Georg Rodiek, German consul for Hawaii. U. S. Commissioner G. S. Curry has fixed Eck's bail at $500, but up to a late hour today the defendant was still in custody.

Eck recently filed in federal court his declaration of intention to become an American citizen. According to a treaty now existing between the United States and Germany, citizens of either nation are remanded to their respective consuls for deportation upon proof of desertion.

Commissioner Curry will hear Eck's case within a few days and, if there is sufficient evidence against the defendant he will be ordered remanded.

PRICES MARKED UP WHEN STOCKS ARE IN DEMAND

Better Feeling is Manifested on Local Exchange and General Rise Follows

Following the general marking down of securities at the session on Friday the volume of transactions increased materially and offerings at lower prices were readily taken. All of such sales were at prices shaded considerably below those of Thursday but were inclined to rise above session quotations. This morning still better feeling prevailed following the advices which were published by the Star-Bulletin yesterday and further reports of a better sugar market in New York, and the result was a general marking up of quotations, both those resulting from sales and bid and asked quotations.

Sales between boards were 3440 shares and at the session 595 shares changed hands. Some idea of the gains can be formed from Oiaa which sold immediately after the Friday session at $17.50 and at $18.25 at today's session.

At the session Ewa sold at $35.50, McBryde $12.25, Onomea $54.50, Kona $225, Waiakua $37, Pioneer $52.75 and Brewer $21.25.

In the unlisted stocks Oil was again straggler, 700 shares selling at $3.32 1/2 and 1000 at $3.35. Engels Copper remained at yesterday's figure, $2.50, at which price 400 shares were sold. Other unlisted stocks were unchanged in quotations.

FATHER IS SUED FOR ACTS WHICH ARE LAID TO SON

Local Statute Holds Parent Responsible for Negligent Deeds of Minors

Because a Hawaiian statute holds that a father is liable for all of the negligent and wanton acts of his minor child until he or she becomes of age, John Pele Kaio is named defendant in a suit in circuit court to recover damages for acts alleged to have been committed by his son.

The plaintiff is one W. K. Rathburn who claims that Kaio's son was responsible for certain alleged damages to an automobile owned by Rathburn. Kaio today filed a demurrer to the suit, holding that the complaint does not contain sufficient facts to constitute an action for damages.

ARMY & NAVY

NEW REGIMENTS
WILL BE FORMED
MONDAY MORNING

Orders Mailed Today Direct Their Formation; Men of 32nd to Hike 20 Miles

Monday morning two new regiments of the regular army, the 32nd Infantry and 9th Heavy Field Artillery, will come into existence on Oahu, at Schofield Barracks.

Shortly after noon today, General Orders 14 and 15, from the Hawaiian Department, directing the formation of both regiments, were placed in the mail, addressed to regimental commanders at Fort Shafter and Schofield Barracks. They reached the department this morning, from the Star-Bulletin's job printing office.

This morning Lieut. Col. Benjamin W. Atkinson, commanding officer of the 2nd Infantry, left for Schofield Barracks to inspect the quarters for the 32nd Infantry, and get them in readiness for occupancy by the troops of the new regiment.

Officers at Fort Shafter said over the telephone today that the 400 enlisted men and nine officers who are going from Fort Shafter to Schofield to form the 32nd Infantry, will not march before Monday. The distance to the new location is 20 miles, and at the regular marching rate of 2 1/2 miles an hour will take eight hours.

The other new regiment, the 9th Field Artillery (Heavy), will not have to do any marching, as it is formed from the 1st Field Artillery, already stationed at Schofield.

The 32nd men will take along with them their field commissary equipment, to supply them with meals during the day's march Monday. Rations and supplies are being arranged today and the regimental equipment which will have to be moved to Schofield from Shafter is being packed into big army wagons and motor trucks.

WAGON SOLDIERS
WILL PLAY 25TH

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Aug. 5.—

Tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at half past two the Wagon Soldiers and the 25th Foot will lock horns on the post field for an interesting contest on the national pastime. This is to be the last game that the heavy-armed boys will play as a single regiment, for it is said that next week about half of the old team will be assigned to the 9th Caterpillar Artillery.

Southpaw Moore will do the twirling act for the lads from the upper cantonment and Waterhouse is likely to pitch for the two-bit outfit. As the artillery showed fine form in the Santa Clara game, it is expected that they will give the Roganites a good run for the money. The umpiring is to be looked out for by Sgt. Collins and Corp. Donohue.

NO TARGET PRACTISE
FOR NAVAL MILITIA

Although their schedule of work calls for them to hold target practise at the Punchbowl National Guard range tomorrow there will be no practise by members of the Naval Militia of Hawaii at the range as it is not yet ready for use, the telephone communication system not having been completed from the rifle pits to the targets.

PRIZES TO BE GIVEN
BEST COSTUMES WORN

Costumes of all kinds are expected to be seen tonight at the regular Saturday night dance in the National Guard Armory for the benefit of the enlisted men's clubrooms. The evening's affair is a masquerade ball. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes worn by couples and individuals. Music will be furnished by a Hawaiian glee club and dancing will continue from 8 o'clock to midnight.

The United States coast guard cutter Tampa arrived at New York from Halifax, having just finished patrolling the ice fields off Newfoundland. Lieut. Col. Charles P. MAUI BOY GOES TO BORDER FROM INDIANA SCHOOL

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
WAILUKU, Maui, Aug. 4.—"Somewhere in Texas" about three miles from the Mexican line, young Bertram Aiken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Worth Aiken of Makawao is encamped with a company of volunteer troops. This is the rather startling information which the young man's parents received by the mails this week, and was the first intimation they had had that he was not quietly pursuing his studies in Valparaiso, Ind., where he has been attending a military academy.

When the national guard troops of Indiana were called out, it seems that the cadet company to which Bertram belonged, was also included, and consequently he is now doing border duty as a soldier. More than that, he has won a marksmanship record next to the highest in his company, of which fact he is obviously proud. According to his letter he has been quite well pleased with his experiences thus far and is looking forward with eagerness to anything else that may be on the card.

Fort Shafter Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Aug. 5.—The following enlisted men have been detailed on special duty as assistant librarians and will report to the chaplain, 2nd Infantry, for instructions: Pvt. Corlie W. Hester, Company A, 2nd Infantry, and Pvt. Andy Sandell, Company G, 2nd Infantry.

There will be a ball game on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the Fort Shafter diamond between the team from the Cruiser St. Louis and a picked team from the cantonment. "Blondy" Williams will probably pitch for the Shafter team and a large crowd will undoubtedly turn out to see this interesting game. A memorandum from headquarters states that these two teams will have the exclusive use of the ball grounds on that afternoon.

Maj. William Wogel, 2nd Infantry, gave an interesting lecture yesterday afternoon in the general court martial room at post headquarters on "Inspection of Battalion Equipped for the Field." The lecture was given to all officers attending the post graduate school at the fort. About forty officers were in attendance.

Lieut. Adrian K. Polhemus conducted casualties to the transport Friday afternoon.

A telegram was received yesterday from department headquarters directing the post commander to ascertain the names of officers at the fort who desire to volunteer as student aviators provided such a school is established in this department. The names are to be reported of those who volunteer by noon, August 7. Lieut. Ralph C. Holliday, 2nd Infantry, who was formerly on duty in the aviation corps at San Diego, Cal., has been ordered to report to the department signal officer in connection with this work.

The post quartermaster, Capt. A. C. Knutson, 2nd Infantry, is making quite a few changes in the post administration building. The south porch is being inclosed and three new rooms will be made. These rooms will have separate entrances and will be used for a first sergeant's room, officer's room and for the post office. The printing shop, which is now on that side, will be moved to the opposite side. The building is very much congested at present and these changes will give much needed room.

When the Sherman sailed on Friday but two enlisted men from the fort were passengers. One of these is on furlough and the other was transferred to a regiment on the mainland. This was an unusually small number as practically every transport homeward bound takes many times this number. The other passengers from the fort were Lieut. and Mrs. Theodore H. Martin, Capt. and Mrs. A. P. Clarke and Capt. and Mrs. Wood.

The Machine Gun Company, 2nd Infantry, commanded by Lieut. Polhemus, commenced their preliminary target practise on Tuesday. Besides these there are several men firing from each organization of the 2nd Infantry, who were unable to fire with their companies.

Calvin Derrick, superintendent of the Preston School of Industry for Boys at Lone, Cal., has been appointed assistant warden of Sing Sing.

Nominations for the promotion of several hundred officers to carry out the army reorganization were sent to the senate by the White House.

BRISK TRADE BEGUN
IN RELICS OF WAR

PARIS, France.—The French sternly enforce the order prohibiting civilians from pillaging the battlefields of articles of German equipment. However, quite a trade in war relics has grown up here. A catalogue of a dealer shows that a helmet and breastplate of a major in the kaiser's body guard is quoted at $150; a Hessian staff officer's helmet with a white plume at $80, an infantry bugle pierced by a bullet at $70; a pennant of the Death's Head Hussars, $60, and shell fragments at $1 to $4 each.

The bodies of eight victims of the Carrizal fight were found buried in one grave.

Gaston C. C. Maspero, archaeologist and historian of France, died suddenly in Paris.

The importation of large quantities of arms and the toleration of drilling by large bodies of men, first in Ulster and then in other districts, the report says, created conditions which rendered possible the recent troubles in Dublin and elsewhere.

Miss Florence Ramsay and three small children, her nieces, were drowned when a sailboat in which they were sailing capsized in the Ne-nana River at Jacksonville, Fla.

SOCIETY

SOCIETY AT POLO

Last Monday a crowd of enthusiastic polo players and those who love the game, masculine and feminine, enjoyed an afternoon of the sport at Kapiolani Park. Society was very well represented, as a large contingent of the smart set was there to cheer and applaud the players. The women who are deeply interested in this sport are many and Honolulu already boasts a class that is being coached by Mr. Walter Dillingham and there is surely not a better coach in the islands. Some among those lined up to watch the game on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rogers, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mrs. Jay Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Brig.-Gen. and Mrs. Robert K. Evans, Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Galt, Jack and Carter Galt, Mr. and Mrs. George Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Miss Alice Hastings, Miss W. Tenney, Miss Lois Brundred, Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Miss Helen Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes. Some of those playing were Messrs. Walter Dillingham, Robert Shingle, Arthur Rice, Walter Macfarlane, Harold Castle and Jay Gould. The feminine riders who have taken the game up seriously and are being coached by Walter Dillingham are Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Lois Brundred, Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. Richard Ivers.

MISS MARTHA MCKEENEY HONORED

Miss Hazel Buckland entertained at the Country Club today with a luncheon, honoring Miss Martha McKesney, who has recently come home from a stay in New York, where she has been studying.

The center of the table today was adorned with a silver basket filled with pale pink and lavender sweet peas. Smaller silver baskets were arranged about the table in a very tasteful manner.

To the pleasant surprise of Miss Buckland's assembled friends she announced her engagement to Dr. Walter Lee Reesman of Fort Kamehameha.

Miss Buckland is an island girl, one who has the deep regard of all who know her and many thoughts and good wishes will follow the popular Hazel. She is a great favorite and always in demand, her cheery nature and adaptability have always made her an acquisition.

The name cards—a girls a la vogue—carried the following names:

Miss Martha McKesney, the honor guest; Miss Myrtle Schuman, Mr. Howard D. Bode, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Catherine Leshan, Mrs. Douglas T. Greene, Miss Dorothy Barker, Miss Vivian Buckland, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Ruth McKesney, Mr. Carl A. Harding, Mrs. Norman L. Kirk, Mrs. George M. Halloran, Mrs. Norma Adams, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Miss Marian Chapin.

THEIR WOODEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. George Beckley celebrated their wooden wedding anniversary. They invited a company of guests to enjoy a pot supper with them and help celebrate the date. Mr. and Mrs. Beckley's wedding, which took place five years ago in St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco, was one of the notable events of that season.

The long table on Tuesday night was beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses and quantities of dainty small flowers were gracefully arranged on the green fern-covered table. The handsome Beckley mansion resembled a florist's display, so many and so exquisite were the flowers of all kinds. Mr. and Mrs. Beckley's guests were Mrs. Mary Beckley, Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. August Dreier, Dr. and Mrs. George F. Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beckley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widemann, Madame Campbell, Miss Clara Campbell, Miss June Beckley, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeth, Mrs. Mary Monroe, Madame Hespy, Capt. Peter Johnson, Mr. Ernest Parker, Mr. O. G. Malkow of Chicago and others. After enjoying Hawaiian viands dancing was indulged in to a late hour. All sorts of good wishes were heaped on the bride and groom of five years ago.

MISS BERNICE HALSTEAD'S CARD AFTERNOON

On Wednesday Miss Bernice Halstead was hostess at a very charming, informal card afternoon. The house was abloom with fragrant blossoms and greenery. A gift was presented to the guest scoring highest at each table. Miss Halstead's guests: Mr. Howard Bode, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Miss Maud Ballentyne, Miss Lucy Campbell, Miss Letitia Morgan, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Alice Hoogs, Mrs. Stanley McKenzie, Mrs. Percy Notlage, Miss Helen McLean, Mrs. James F. Morgan, Miss Doris Noble, Miss Ramona Marks, Miss Mary Smith, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Ruth McKesney, Miss Martha McKesney, Miss Allene Dowsett, Miss Grace Morgan, Miss Mildred Merriman, Miss Eleanor Gartley, Miss Ruth Gartley, Miss Ruth Richards.

On left, above, is Miss Wilhelmina Tenney. The trio on the right, above (from left to right), are Miss Lois Brundred, now visiting here; Miss Alice Macfarlane and Mrs. Richard Ivers. On the left, below, Miss Brundred is wielding the mallet, while on the right, below, is Mrs. George C. Potter. The fascinating sport is fast gaining favor among Honolulu women and girls, many of whom had already become expert and daring riders. Polo bids fair to bring the horse back to his own in Honolulu, after several years when the more modern auto claimed first favor.

MRS. ERNEST WATERHOUSE A DINNER HOSTESS

Thursday evening Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse was hostess at a dinner party, honoring Maj. and Mrs. Gideon Van Poole. The table was made especially attractive with a central arrangement of pale pink roses and dainty blue forget-me-nots, calling forth much praise. After dinner the evening was devoted to cards.

Mrs. Waterhouse's guests were Maj. and Mrs. Van Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Case Deering, Maj. and Mrs. Charles R. Reynolds and Col. Frederick P. Reynolds.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN A. BALCH'S DINNER-DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Balch entertained on Tuesday evening at a dinner-dance, complimenting Mrs. Balch's sister, Mrs. G. C. Ritter, who has been here for a three months' trip. The table was extremely pretty with a charming arrangement of red African daisies in a bronze-gold basket, tied with brilliant green tulle. After dinner dancing was the program.

The Balches' guests were Justice and Mrs. Edward M. Watson, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. John Guild, Mrs. Hugh Halstrom, Mr. Guy Buttolph, Mr. Arthur Heyward, Mr. Cornell Franklin, Mr. Robert Scott and the guest of honor, Mrs. Ritter.

MAJ. AND MRS. CHARLES REYNOLDS' DINNER

Seated around a table that was blooming in pale pink hibiscus and asparagus fern Maj. and Mrs. Reynolds entertained at dinner this week, honoring Col. Frederick P. Reynolds and Maj. Gideon Van Poole, who left on Friday's transport for the border.

Maj. and Mrs. Reynolds' guests were Maj. and Mrs. Gideon Van Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Case Deering, Mrs. Ernest C. Waterhouse, Col. and Mrs. Frank R. Keefer.

MISS ELIZABETH LEWIS ENTER TAINS

Miss Elizabeth Lewis, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., celebrated her birthday on Tuesday afternoon by inviting about twenty of her friends for a party. A happy time was enjoyed by the kiddies at the Lewis' home, Upper Nuuanu.

MR. AND MRS. OLSON'S TUESDAY EVENING DINNER

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olson entertained with a charmingly informal dinner. A pretty low basket filled with sweet peas and forget-me-nots made the table most attractive. Mr. and Mrs. Olson's guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Guild, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malt, Miss Edith Malt, Miss Dorothy Guild, Mr. Sagger and Mr. Lewin.

MR. AND MRS. ALEXANDER G. HAWES' DINNER

Around a table altogether suggestive of the Mexican border and of the military life there, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gilchrist Hawes entertained on Tuesday evening, honoring Capt. J. F. Johnston, who was to leave on the Friday transport for Mexican service. In the center of the table was a sandal spot and thereon was pitched a khaki tent with a soldier sentinal on guard. Grouped round about were squads of Uncle Sam's men in miniature, patrolling the border. Military wagons were laden with red and white stripes, and the stars and stripes waved from a flag staff. The border was outlined in a blaze of incense. It was a table altogether fascinating. Flags of Mexico, Hawaii and the United States were used as name card ideas. The friends invited by Mr. and Mrs. Hawes to honor Capt. Johnston were Judge and Mrs. Alexander Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., Miss Helen Alexander, Miss Edith Williams, Judge William Whitney and Capt. Samuel S. Creighton.

AN OUTRIGGER SWIM, SUPPER AND DANCE

On Tuesday evening the Outrigger was the setting for a very pretty informal swim, supper and dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Heiser, honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Trenholm Warren, who leave for the mainland next week. After a swim supper

SOCIETY

GEN. AND MRS. JOHNSON'S DINNER

Complimenting Brig-Gen. Robert K. Evans, commanding the Hawaiian Department, and Mrs. Evans, and also Maj. Matthew De Laney, a dinner of unusual brilliancy was given last night at the Seaside hotel. Brig-Gen. Samuel I. Johnson, N. G. H., and Mrs. Johnson were host and hostess.

The large square table at which the guests were seated had an unusual centerpiece in a large market-basket filled with dahlias in many shades, hydrangeas, ferns and other greenery. Smaller baskets were similarly arranged. Tulle in browns, golds, greens, cerise, pinks and reds was used in a charming manner. The name cards were of deep-toned ivory with the Johnson monogram in raised gold letters. A stringed orchestra furnished music throughout the dinner and during the evening gave opportunity for those wishing to dance. After dinner the magician, Brooks, who has been a great attraction at the Bitou, entertained the guests for a couple of hours. Gen. Johnson, who himself is clever at card tricks, did a few "stunts."

The guests were Governor Lucius E. Pinkham, Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Robert K. Evans, Col. and Mrs. Daniel Howell, Col. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson, Col. and Mrs. James B. Fenston, Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. R. R. Raymond, Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Mrs. Frank E. Thompson, Mrs. Olaf Sorenson, Mrs. Clinton M. MR. AND MRS. BRUCE CARTWRIGHT ENTERTAIN
 Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., entertained at one of the most unique dinners given this summer. The table was made to represent a taha stick. A long table covered in satin damask and a round table covered in yellow carried out the idea in detail. A grass hut with a dainty Hawaiian hula maid seated near the door and strumming a miniature ukulele; a miniature grove of koa and bamboo; a canoe with an outrigger near the sandy beach and two very old and highly prized calabashes filled with malle added to a striking picture. A cable of malle was stretched across the table. One of the calabashes was a gift from Queen Emma to Mr. A. J. Cartwright, Sr., and the other was one of Queen Emma's, a gift from the queen of Tahiti. At the head of the table sat Mrs. Cartwright and on each side were the two guests of honor, who were cloaked in yellow feather chieftain cloaks trimmed with red feathers. A tabu stick was given the honor guests, Capt. Johnston and Capt. S. S. Creighton. Mrs. Cartwright used her black and white china on this table. Outside on the lanai and in view of the dining room, sitting before a red camp fire, sat an old Hawaiian who with an ancient gourd all through dinner chanted old-time songs. After dinner Madame Nihū, who is one of the prettiest and most graceful of Hawaiian dancers, gave the hula hula and hula kul in a grass skirt and finely-made bodice, which was covered with leis; with anklets and wristlets. A little later, to the music of a quintet, the party danced until midnight.
 Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright's guests were Capt. J. F. Johnston, Capt. Samuel Creighton, the guests of honor; Judge and Mrs. William B. Lymer, Judge William Whitney, Capt. and Mrs. Harry E. Knight, Lieut. J. Olo, Lieut. John Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes, Miss Edith Williams, Miss Abbie Buchanan, Miss Sara Lucas, Miss Marian Chapin, Mr. Bob Purvis and Mr. Harold Castle.

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY
 (Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
 PORT SHAFTER, Aug. 4.—Capt. and Mrs. Charles Martin, en route to the states on the transport Sherman, were the luncheon guests of Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell on Friday. Capt. and Mrs. Martin are on their way to West Point, where Capt. Martin has been ordered for duty.
 Many of the friends of the departing officers and their families were on the dock when the transport Sherman sailed yesterday afternoon. Among those noticed from Shafter on the transport were Col. and Mrs. Daniel L. Howell, Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell, Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Mrs. John C. Grady, Mrs. Witsell, Mrs. Pearson, Lieut. and Mrs. A. H. Hobley, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Capt. and Mrs. William B. Cochran, Maj. and Mrs. J. Edgar, Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Lieut. and Mrs. Mullenberg, Maj. William Weigel, Lieut. P. S. Reinecke, Carl Cohen, W. E. R. Covell, C. B. Lyman, Maj. and Mrs. M. J. Lenihan, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas L. Crystal, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Miss Bonnie Scott, Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Halloway, Lieut. and Mrs. F. A. Barber and many others.
 Mrs. Theodore Martin was the house-guest of Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell for a few days before the sailing of the transport Sherman for San Francisco.
 Capt. Albert Clark and Capt. N. W. Wood, both of the Medical Corps stationed at Fort Shafter, accompanied by their families were also passengers on the Sherman on Friday for the mainland. Capt. and Mrs. Clark have been at the fort the past year and their many friends regret that their tour of foreign service has come to an end. Capt. Clark and Capt. Wood have been ordered to the Mexican Barber.
 Mr. Barton, a passenger on the Buford en route to Newport News from Manila, was the house-guest of Capt. and Mrs. Hunt while in Honolulu. Mr. Barton is the son of Maj. Frank A. Barton, 15th Cavalry, and is on his way to enter a preparatory school for West Point.
 Lieut.-Col. Michael J. Lenihan has just received orders to attend the next class of the War College at Washington, D. C., and will leave, accompanied by his family, on the September transport for the mainland. Col. and Mrs. Lenihan will be accompanied by their daughter, Miss Catherine, and their many friends will regret to hear of their departure. Miss Catherine Lenihan, one of the most attractive members of the younger army set, has made many friends during the few years spent here and all of her friends will be loth to bid her aloha.
 The order sending those officers stationed here to the 32nd Infantry, with station at Schofield Barracks, have just arrived and in the very near future they will, accompanied by their families, move out to Schofield Barracks to their new post. It is with deep regret that they leave Fort Shafter as one and all have many friends here and the departure of nine families will make a void in the social life of the post. Next week promises to be a busy week for those who have been ordered to the 32nd as packing will take up most of their time. Those who are leaving Shafter are Col. B. W. Atkinson, Capt. John B. Richardson, Capt. Paul R. Manchester, Capt. Clyde R. Abraham, Capt. Lloyd R. Fredendall, 1st Lieut. Robert C. Calder, 1st Lieut. Douglass T. Greene, 1st Lieut. Carl Cohen and 1st Lieut. Woodfin G. Jones.

 Maj. B. J. Edgar, who has been on duty at Fort Shafter for the past year, has been ordered to the Department hospital for duty and Maj. Eugene H. Hornett has been ordered to Shafter for duty in his place. Maj. Hornett is now stationed at Schofield Barracks but will move to Shafter within the next few days.
 A pretty dinner in the cantonment last Wednesday evening was that at which Lieut. and Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg entertained last Wednesday evening. Around the pretty flower decked table covers were laid for eight. Lieut. and Mrs. Hardigg's guests were Col. and Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan, Lieut. and Mrs. Douglass T. Greene, Miss Catherine Lenihan and Lieut. Charles B. Lyman.
 Little Bobbie Bennett, son of Lieut. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett, who was recently operated on at the Department hospital for appendicitis, has almost completely recovered from his recent illness and was able to return to his home the early part of the week and it will not be long before Bobbie will again be able to be out playing with his little friends.
 As always ladies' night at the 2nd Infantry Club was popular and last Tuesday was no exception to the rule as about twenty bridge enthusiasts gathered at the club for bridge. Mrs. William R. Dashiell was hostess this week and after several interesting rubbers she held the highest score, and so won the prize, a beautiful piece of Chinese embroidery. Those playing cards were Mrs. Daniel L. Howell, Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Miss Anna Pearson, Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph Holliday, Madame Pearson, Madame Cochran, Mrs. Witsell, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. John B. Richardson, Mrs. John C. Grady, Capt. and Mrs. Hunt, Lieut. Adrian K. Polhemus and others.
 The many friends of Capt. and Mrs. Thomas R. Harker and Miss Dorothy Harker are delighted to hear that on the 15th of August they will move to Honolulu for station. Capt. Harker having been detailed as paymaster relieving Capt. Van Way, who has just finished a tour in that capacity. Capt. and Mrs. Harker were stationed at Fort Shafter for the past year and only within the last few weeks moved to Schofield Barracks. Miss Dorothy Harker is one of the most attractive members of the younger set and it is with great delight that her many friends hear of her return to Honolulu.

 Mr. Witsell has issued invitations to a bridge on Tuesday afternoon, August 8, at her quarters in the tachelet building.
 A most enjoyable bridge during the past week was that at which Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell entertained on Wednesday at her home in the main barrack. There were three tables of cards and a prize for the highest score at each table. Those who were fortunate enough to win these pretty little presents were Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. John S. Sullivan and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood. Mrs. Howell's guests included Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan, Madame Pearson, Miss Anna Pearson, Mrs. Howell-Clinton, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Mrs. Alfred Rockwood and Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg.
 Lieut. and Mrs. Theodore Martin were passengers on the transport Sherman when it sailed for the mainland on Friday afternoon. Lieut. Martin has been ordered to the Lettermen hospital for treatment and later Mrs. Martin will go East to visit relatives.
 Capt. and Mrs. Albert B. Clark were dinner guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas L. Crystal at their home in the cantonment on Tuesday evening.
 Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas J. Camp entertained informally at dinner on Sunday in honor of Lieut. and Mrs. Paul R. Manchester.
 Lieut. Adrian K. Polhemus was the dinner guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton on Sunday.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY
 (Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
 SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Eley P. Denson entertained most delightfully Saturday, July 20, at auction bridge. The rooms were decorated in a profusion of yellow flowers. Dainty hand made handkerchiefs in color were the prizes. Mrs. John Reardon was presented with yellow; Mrs. William A. Shedd, with lavender; Mrs. Herman Erlenkötter with pink; Mrs. Thomas F. Schley with green and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover with red. Mrs. Denson's guests were Mesdames Thomas F. Schley, Americas Mitchell, Robert Sears, William A. Shedd, Charles Daly, Jordan, G. Barrett Glover, LeVergne L. Gregg, Herman Erlenkötter, Donald D. Hay, Richard T. Taylor, John Reardon, Frederick Black, Henry E. Eames, Karl Truesdell, Robert P. Harbold, John Little and the Misses Campbell and Little.
 Coming in for tea were Mesdames Samuel P. Lyon, Hiram Devoil, Ermine Case, Ernest J. Carr, Guy G. Palmer, Charles L. Willard, Josephus Cecil, John B. Corby, James Chaney, Livingston Watrous, Raymond Bliss, John B. H. Waring, and the Misses Devoil, Palmer and Wilson.
 Capt. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames have as house-guests Mrs. John Little and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Little, of Crystal Mountain, Ohio.

 Lieut. and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover entertained Maj. and Mrs. Thomas F. Schley, Capt. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames, Mrs. John Little, Miss Little, Lieut. and Mrs. Black, Lieut. and Mrs. Clarence Tinker at bridge, Thursday night.
 On Tuesday Capt. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames entertained Lieut. and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover, Lieut. Ora M. Baldwin, Mr. John Macauley of Honolulu, and Mrs. and Miss Little at dinner, the occasion being Capt. Eames' birthday. The table was very dainty with yellow flowers and yellow-shaded candles. A big cake with forty-five tiny candles in little yellow holders formed the centerpiece.
 Another birthday in this cantonment was that of Donald Davie Hay, Jr., who celebrated his fourth anniversary on August 2. A large pink Jack Horner pie greeted the children as they entered the dining room, from which each child drew a present. After the excitement of the pie was over, a birthday cake, whereon burned four pink candles, appeared. Seated around the table were Robert and Elizabeth Harbold, Marion Denson, Mary Taylor, Hugh Wise, Jr., Fred Black, Jr., Babs Palmer, Betty and George Glover, Carolyn Hay, and Donald D. Hay, Jr., Babs Palmer and Robert P. Harbold, Jr., were the winners of the peanut hunt.
 Miss Quinan of Honolulu, cousin of Lieut. and Mrs. Clarence A. Tinker, was their weekend guest.
 The 25th Infantry band gave a concert in front of the officers' mess on Wednesday evening, from 8:30 to 8:30 o'clock. One room was cleared for dancing and a number of the younger set participated. This concert will be a weekly feature at the mess and the members of the other cantonments are cordially invited.
 Thursday night Miss Adeline Smith and Miss Edna McDuffy of Berkeley, Cal., who have been stopping several months at Halewa under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball, entertained at supper Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Sears, Lieut. and Mrs. John N. Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Lieut. Charles Haverkamp, Lieut. Ballard Lyerly and Mr. Robert McCorrison. Later the party enjoyed a delightful swim.
 Lieut. and Mrs. Donald D. Hay had for their dinner guests on Saturday night Lieut. and Mrs. Eley P. Denson, Lieut. and Mrs. Richard T. Taylor, Mrs. Hay arranged pink asters in a low crystal bowl for a centerpiece making her table most attractive with the soft glow from the pink candle shades. Lieut. and Mrs. Hay took their guests to the "movies," later, to see the "Iron Claw."

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Little were honor guests at a delightful dinner given by Capt. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames on Friday before the hop. A long table decked with pink and white asters was softly lighted by pink shaded candles. Around the table were seated Lieut. and Mrs. Donald D. Hay, Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick Black, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert P. Harbold, Capt. and Mrs. B. W. Corey, Lieut. and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover, Miss Dorothy Harker, Capt. Alexander J. Macnab, Lieut. William E. Dorman, Lieut. Ora M. Baldinger, the guests of honor and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Guy G. Palmer and Miss Palmer entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clayton De Motte, Jr., of Watertown, Conn., at a dinner Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. De Motte are in Hawaii on their honeymoon and will spend a few days at Halewa.

Lieut. Robert P. Harbold presented the guests at the hop Friday night to Mrs. Henry E. Eames and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover, who as hostesses for the week, made everyone welcome.

Mrs. Kerr T. Riggs' Sunday school class spent a most enjoyable day on the beach at Halewa last Wednesday. Mrs. James P. Barney and Mrs. Conrad S. Babcock assisted Mrs. Riggs in chaperoning the picnic. Attending were Stanton and Parmalee Babcock, Stone and Merrow Sorlev, Nancy and Hamilton Hawley, Scott and George Riggs, Park Bridges, Alice Palmer and Norris Harbold.

Lieut. and Mrs. John D. Burnett's informal dinner before the 25th hop Friday was most delightful. The table was lovely with tall American beauties as a center, the same flowers carried to the name cards and the lights from the rose shaded candles threw a pretty glow over the table, around which were seated Lieut. and Mrs. Charles H. Rice, Miss Merrill, Lieut. and Mrs. John R. Baxter, Miss Adele Mason, Miss McDuffy, Lieuts. Virgil V. Enyart, Raymond E. McQuillin, Eugene A. Lohman, and the host and hostess.

Mrs. George E. Kempe entertained at luncheon on Thursday, using a huge bowl of pink and lavender asters on her table. Mrs. Kempe's guests were Mesdames Douglas McCaskey, Eugene H. Harnett, George G. Bailey, Harry E. Knight, Walter E. Prigden, Paul M. McCook and Englebert G. Owen.

Another luncheon was that of Mrs. Walter E. Prigden on Saturday. Pink asters, gracefully arranged, formed the centerpiece. Those enjoying Mrs. Prigden's hospitality were Mesdames Francis E. Lacey, Crandall, George G. Bailey, Henry C. Hodges, Jr., Richard C. Croston, Harry E. Knight, Thomas H. Lowe, and Miss Raymond, for whom the luncheon was given.

A very enjoyable Sunday night supper was given by Capt. and Mrs. George E. Kempe, their guests being Lieut. and Mrs. Walter S. Green, Lieut. and Mrs. Elvid J. Hunt, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles H. Rice, Miss Merrill, Lieuts. John W. Simons, Jr., John W. Smith and Robert T. Shaw.

"LITTLE WASHINGTON" IS BEING CREATED AT NEWPORT

The last few years have seen the development of a "little Washington" at Newport which plays an important part in the life of this most famous of American summer resorts. The national capital has had a scattering representation within its sacred precincts in former days, but only of late has the colony of Washingtonians swelled to such proportions and been augmented by men and women of such social prestige as to wield a considerable social influence. It is possible that the logical successor to Mrs. Paron Stevens, Newport's autocrat in the old days, to Mrs. Astor who ruled Newport as graciously as she ruled New York, and to the late Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who for years exercised a brilliant sway, may come from Washington.

Mrs. Robert McCormick, who divides her allegiance between Chicago and Washington, where her new home on Massachusetts avenue is one of the handsomest residences in the capital, and whose social experience includes that of two European courts at which her husband represented the United States; Mrs. William F. Draper, widow of the former American ambassador to Italy, born of a distinguished Kentucky family and wielder of no inconsiderable power in Washington society; Mrs. Robert R. Pitt, whose late husband's position as chairman of the foreign relations committee of the house of representatives brought her for years into intimate association with the most cosmopolitan element in America; Mrs. Richard Townsend, who has been frequently called "the Mrs. Astor of Washington" and whose daughter married a son of one of Newport's oldest families, the Gerrys; Miss Martha Codman, whose acquaintance with Newport's innermost circle dates from the days when her parents were regular patrons of the old Atlantic Hotel; Mrs. Hope Slater, a leader in Newport's ultra-fashionable life before she took her place among Washington's influential hostesses—these are the women of Washington who will compete for social leadership in Newport with the most important hostesses of Newport.

In addition Newport is coming to its own with the diplomats, with whom for many years it was out of favor, being regarded as an essentially American community. Two embassies are now established there, those of Russia and Spain, and there the representative of a third, the military attache of Great Britain, makes his summer home.

This season's most interesting additions to the members of the Washington colony who have bought villas and who are regarded as permanent members of the summer colony are Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont. Their villa, Belcourt, purchased from Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, is regarded as one of the handsomest estates in Newport. Mrs. Hope Slater's Hopedene is one of several beautiful places belonging to the Gammell family of Providence—Mrs. Slater was born a Gammell—which cluster together, their white marble terraces, wonderful hedges and gorgeous blooms giving an impression of exotic loveliness. The Italian gardens are the most striking feature of Hopedene. Mrs. Slater's hospitalities at her Newport villa are as notable as the distinctive functions of her splendid Washington home. When the Russian ambassador and Madame Pakhmetoff took over Stone Villa several seasons ago they revived an old-time glory. James Gordon Bennett is the owner of this famous property, and in the summers he spent within its walls he crowded in more hospitalities than stand to the credit of any man or woman of Newport. The house stands nearer the street than is usual with Newport villas. There is a porch across its front, but it is on the broad veranda, gay with tiled awnings, in the rear overlooking the lovely garden where most of their time is spent and where they do most of their entertaining.

Mr. Harold Gear Brings to Hawaii Pretty Californian

Another "Honolulu boy" has brought a bride from the states, and a very attractive one. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Van Clef Gear arrived this week on their honeymoon. The marriage took place on the evening of June 14, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. ant office of ring bearer, carrying the precious emblem in the heart of a great rose.

Mr. Charles Franz of Honolulu, as groomsman, completed the bridal party. A bower of pink and white hydrangeas and greenery furnished the setting for the ceremony which united the couple, who belong to old and distinguished families.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white embroidered crepe de chine, effectively draped with silver lace and tassels, completed with veil and orange blossoms which had been worn by an aunt, 30 years ago. The matron of honor wore pale pink Eugene Charles Mallot of Alameda, Cal.

The Rev. Francis Van Horn, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Oakland, officiated.

The bride, Miss Gladys Evelyn Mallot, was given away by her father, and was attended by Mrs. Claude Fitzsimmons, as matron of honor.

A nephew, Reade Voeburg, filled the important crepe de chine, and carried a shower of roses to match. Mrs. Mallot, mother of the bride, was gowned in a smart costume of black chiffon over white satin.

After a wedding supper Mr. Gear and his bride left for a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, returning in time to sail for Honolulu, their future home.

Mrs. Gear is a talented violinist and a niece of Frederick Winant, a prominent New York vocalist, who was here for the wedding. Mr. Gear, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert V. Gear, was a great grandson of the late Judge Peter Van Clef, veteran jurist of California.

The romance has its beginning when Miss Mallot visited here. A pretty feature is the fact that the honeymoon couple are said each to trace ancestry back to John and Priscilla Alden.

Mrs. Harold Van Clef Gear, who arrived in Honolulu this week, the bride of a Honolulu.

elly, a man of letters and patron of science. The military attache of the British embassy, Col. the Hon. Murchison O'Brien and the Hon. Mrs. O'Brien are again spending the summer at Rockledge, the home of John Neilson of New York, which they occupied last season. The place is on Price's Neck and bears evidence of Mr. Neilson's penchant for astronomy in the tower detached from the house which contains all sorts of instruments for observation and an apparatus for photographing the sky.

The old home of Jerome Bonaparte, Jerome Bonaparte's brother, the country and married Betsy Patterson, is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, whose Washington home is in Sheridan Circle. They have a daughter who will be informally presented to Newport society this season before making her formal debut in Washington next year.

GLEE CLUB TENDERS BENEFIT TO CHURCH

For the benefit of Kahana church there will be held in the Opera House this evening at 7:30 an entertainment which should be interesting and pleasing. BROOKS LEAVES BIJOU, CHARLIE CHAPLIN COMES

With the performance of this evening, Herbert Brooks, card wizard and conjurer "burglar" leaves the Bijou theater for a tour of the army posts, where he expects to surprise the soldier boys with his magic deck of cards. Brooks will turn loose his best lot of tricks at the Bijou performance of tonight, and those who have failed to take in a session with this clever artist should not miss.

"The Presentation" a thrilling photo-play that has attracted the attention of thousands during its showing in Honolulu, will also be offered for the last time at the Bijou tonight.

Commencing tomorrow evening the piece de resistance will be Charlie Chaplin in his masterly work "Carmen," a burlesque opera that famous operas. In this acting Chaplin is said to do the best work of his screen career and to earn all his laughs through "straight" comedy, having foregone his usual rough and tumble antics for the time being.

There will also be shown tomorrow night, "The Carpet from Bagdad," based on Harold MacGrath's novel of the same name, with the popular Kathryn Williams in the leading role.

MARY PICKFORD
Charming star, always popular in Honolulu, comes to Liberty Theater as leading lady in "Poor Little Peppina."

RISKS LIFE TO SAVE CHILDREN

Thanks to the heroism displayed by Helen Holmes, who takes a principal part in the thrilling railroad drama, Bill Coleman's children were not overtaken by the fate he had planned for the president of the railroad. Discharged for drunkenness, a brakeman deliberately causes a boxcar and a flatcar to run wild down the main line of a western railroad, knowing that the president's special was approaching on the same track. Coleman did not know that his two children were at play on the flatcar. Helen Holmes figures in a sensational episode in the railroad drama to be shown at the Empire theater today. "Rescue of the Brakeman's Children" is a spectacular production. It is a photo-play filled with intense situations.

Love and war, romance and intrigue are splendidly combined in the plot in the three-act dramatization of Wilbert Melville's great story of the Mexican border. The picture features L. C. Shumway, a general favorite in moving pictures. The cowardice and unbecoming conduct of an officer is discovered in time to prevent an unhappy marriage. The commencement of the third act makes a strong appeal. It gives "Mamie" Montrose a wonderful opportunity to display her dramatic powers. Billy Reeves returns to the Empire in a roasting comedy, "The Three Bridges."

MARY PICKFORD AFTER BLANCHE

"The Blacklist," in which Blanche Sweet has scored a further decided success, leaves the Liberty theater tonight to make way for Mary Pickford in her latest screen success, "Poor Little Peppina." "The Blacklist" is a daring story of capital versus labor and is based largely on an unfortunate incident in Colorado of a year or so ago.

Blanche Sweet is cast as a little Russian school teacher, whose father is a leader of an anarchistic band that is waging a relentless war upon the mine owners. The blacklist is es-

MEET IN THE MOVIES

The long-looked-for Little Mary in "Poor Little Peppina" is here.

Seems like old times to have poor, exploited Pearl White with us again.

"Dusty" Farnum has started upon his 5000-mile cross-country auto tour. He will be "dusty" in reality when he reaches New England.

"The Blacklist," shown here this week, was a vivid picture of what really happened in Colorado. The system still exists in some parts of the mainland, and this great picture has done much toward abolishing the practice.

Pauline Frederick refuses to be a villainess again. As a result, she takes a second-to-last part in "The Woman in the Case," now in preparation at the Famous Players' studio. She craves general public sympathy which, she asserts, is difficult in her past productions. We all know, however, that she is without a rival in her art.

The movies have lost another leading man. Page Peters, who was with us last week in "He Fell in Love With His Wife," was drowned at Hermosa Beach, Cal. He has worked in two other productions which will be shown here soon—"David Garrick" and "Ben Blair." His death was not the result of work in motion pictures as was reported but he was indulging in a little surf recreation, when the strong undertow carried him away.

Victor Moore, the Happy Hooligan of the movies, is always in Dutch. Something always happens to him whenever he lends a hand. While not actually engaged in the picture itself, he always insists upon helping. In "Out of Darkness" he was overcome by smoke and badly burned, receiving some permanent scars. He was also burned and received more scars in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." While in "The Sowers" he was severely cut about the face with a Russian knout. Starring in his last production, "The Clown," while making scenes in the desert, Victor was overcome and lay in the hot sand for several hours and finally was carried to his camp where several days were required for recuperation.

In pictures, Mary Pickford has been Japanese, Russian, French, Mexican, Dutch and what not—but now comes Little Mary as an Italian—as "Poor Little Peppina." This was not so easy. To get realism, the producers engaged Italian dramatists and used many Italian "extras" to more vividly picture the customs of their native land. As Peppina, the boundless scene of Mary Pickford's art is illustrated in her delineation of the various roles of a child of wealthy Americans kidnapped by Italians and made to work in a Sicilian vineyard, a stow-away disguised as a boy, a newsie, a boot-black, a fruit vender, an em-

NATION'S PERIL THRILLING FILM

Erected around the popular topic of the hour, "preparedness," there comes to the Hawaii theater tomorrow a photo-drama of more than usual interest and one that vies with anything thus far shown in this city from a standpoint of the spectacular. "The Nation's Peril" is the title of the photo-drama and it was written and directed by George Terwilliger.

In one of the most thrilling scenes the entire Atlantic squadron is used by the cameraman, there appearing in the film 10,000 soldiers, marines and sailors, including Secretary Daniels, Admiral Fletcher, Admiral Winslow, Vice-Admiral Mayo, the war college at Newport and the staff of officers of the Newport training school. A sea battle and a night attack on land are vividly reproduced on the screen.

Robert Mantell in "The Blindness of Devotion" will close with the performance of this evening at the Hawaii. This is the first appearance on the screen of this capable and popular actor. The drama is a strong one with a climax that borders on the sensational.

KILL COCKROACHES

Easy Matter to Exterminate These Filthy Pests.

Even a feeble imagination can think of the germs the cockroach must bring as it crawls around the kitchen and pantry, contaminating and spoiling food. Now is the time to kill off the cockroaches and free your home from the repulsive insects. A dozen cockroaches killed now is better than killing hundreds later.

A two-ounce box of Stearns Electric Paste, which you can get for 25 cents from any druggist, will rid your home of cockroaches or water bugs. It is much better than powders, as it can not blow away and get into the food. Easy to use and an absolute exterminator. Directions in 15 languages in every package.—Adv.

KAHALUI CHURCH IS REJOICING IN HANDSOME ORGAN

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WAILUKU, Maui, Aug. 3.—On Sunday evening last a large audience was present at the Kahului Union church when the first service was held after the installation of the organ. The instrument was a gift of the Paia Union church to the Kahului church. The Bergstrom brothers took down the organ and rebuilt it in Kahului. The church building was enlarged to accommodate it. When the changes were being made the pretty edifice was painted inside and out. Besides the generous gift of the organ the Paia church also presented the Kahului parish with matting, pew cushions and the railings in the old structure at Makawao that is now demolished.

Miss Carrie E. Short, who is on a brief visit to Maui, played the organ. This was Miss Short's first appearance before a Maui audience since she left here in 1914. During her absence she has played some of the largest and finest organs on the coast and is an accomplished musician. Her playing on Sunday evening was greatly enjoyed. Her opening program consisted of:

1. "Reverie".....Saint-Saens
2. "Pikings' Chorus".....Wagner
3. Intermezzo.....Debussy
4. "March for a Church Festival".....Beethoven
5. "To a Wild Rose".....Macdowell

The vocal music of the evening was most attractive. The choir, consisting of Kahului people and Miss Helena J. Walter, rendered Roberts' "Seek Ye the Lord" and "Jesus and Shall it Ever Be" most acceptably, while Miss Walter's solo, "Christ at the Door," was excellently rendered. Kenneth Smith played with beautiful expression "The Angela's Serenade."

The pastor of the church, Rev. Ellis K. Pleasant, preached a strong sermon upon "The Call of the Carpenter," taking as his text Luke 2:49. He was listened to most appreciatively by the audience, which was made up of people from all portions of central Maui.

A letter from John Barrymore will look well in this column. It reads: "So much has been written concerning the breaking heart of the clown as he cavorted before the laughter-shaken audience—a la "Pagliaccio"—that it were best to explain that this is not going to be a tearful lamentation, but a groan. It is a protest against the iniquities of this world which gives a perverted sense of humor to the public whereby it professes to see something funny in the physical anguish of a fellow mortal. Why should you sit comfortably in a theater and laugh with glee when the player is seen to fall overboard in icy water? Why is the human mind so constituted that it glazes over the sight of a man being maltreated and bruised, the degree of mirth being in proportion to the amount of anguish experienced by the victim? Did you know that I received a sprained ankle and two broken ribs, in that stateroom scene in "Nearly a King," and that you laughed yourself sick over it? In making the picture, our satanic director danced up and down the deck in glee. "They'll die laughing at that," he shouted. "That was great stuff. I thought you were knocked out, Jack." From which it is only logical to infer that if I had been killed outright, my epitaph would have been a deafening shout of laughter, raising the roof of every picture theater in the country—a pretty thought, is it not?"

David Daggett, secretary of the New Haven water company and an alumnus of Yale, Class of '79, died of heart trouble at his desk. Mr. Daggett was one of the Yale men entrusted with the task of building the Yale bowl.

DARIO RESTA GETS 'IN BAD' WITH SOUTH BEND CITIZENS

Italian Driver Fails to Live Up to Reputation in Indiana City— Racing Against Katherine Stinson, Resta Uses Old Car— Hands Out Publicity Which Hurts Himself and Sport— Barney Oldfield Acts as Honorary Referee at Big Meet

By W. D. Edenburn
Barney Oldfield and Bob Burman became famous as automobile race drivers and public favorites by their exploits on the mile dirt tracks. Ralph DePalma also gained much of his fame in his 1910 and 1911 trip over the dirt track circuits. Dario Resta's activities on the dirt circles, however, if conducted like his performance at South Bend recently, are likely to destroy his present popularity.

In the exhibition that Resta put on in South Bend he drove against Katherine Stinson, the aviator. Miss Stinson did not have to extend herself to beat the famous driver, now leading in the competition for the year's auto race driving championship.

Resta is campaigning under a five week contract with William H. Pickens, with William Wellman, as advance man. Resta was billed to drive the Peugeot that has brought him almost $100,000 in two seasons on the roadways. On arrival in South Bend, according to report, Resta did not have his Peugeot, but picked up a South Bend car that was not capable of 100 miles an hour on any course. With Resta defeated in such a manner that jammed the park and away went the complaining it was another hippodrome, such as that city has been treated to in auto racing of recent years.

ENGLAND TAXES GASOLINE 12 CENTS PER GALLON

England has abandoned the threatened double and treble taxes on automobiles in favor of a special war tax on 12 cents per gallon on gasoline. The amount will be reduced to 6 cents per gallon in the case of doctors and veterinary surgeons. The main features of the new law are the use of gasoline permits, supplied monthly for a specified amount of fuel, and the payment of the tax at the rate of 12 cents per gallon at the time of taking out the permit.

The recent automobile census has paved the way for this scheme. Owners of cars will have to apply to a central authority for a permit to purchase gasoline, and obviously this authority will have power to refuse the permit or to restrict the amount to be purchased. The tax will be paid at the time of taking out the permit, and gasoline can only be obtained on presentation of this document to the dealer.

These permits will only be issued for periods of one month. It is officially stated that the gasoline tax will only be in force for the length of the war. The revenue obtained from this source is expected to be $4,810,000 per annum.

will improve the track and grounds before the next contest. He is also planning to run another meeting late in the fall. If it is possible Fitzsimmons is anxious to arrange a three cornered invitation race of 25 miles between Tom Alley, Otto Henning and Ralph DePalma. Alley was formerly DePalma's mechanic.

Barney Oldfield, who retired from the speedway sport with the Chicago race, acted as honorary referee at Minneapolis for the Twin City speedway race. Barney is on his way to the Pacific coast touring over the northwestern roads and plans to spend some time in Yellowstone Park. Barney will drive in the Vanderbilt and Grand Prize races this fall at Santa Monica, as he made his entry for these two events last April, but is positive that the two contests will be his last. He is accompanied by Mrs. Oldfield and Mr. and Mrs. George Brown. Brown is known to the speed fans as one of the backers of the Milwaukee Vanderbilt and Grand Prize in 1912.

Either Dario Resta or his present agent when the noted Italian exhibited in Cleveland recently gave out an interview to the press in which he said that there was never a time in the 300 mile race at Chicago in which he could not have easily left Ralph DePalma miles in the rear. This brand of publicity will not make him any more popular with the fans who watched the race, for when Resta and DePalma finished that event, it was DePalma who received the volume of applause and not the winner.

WAY TO MORE MILEAGE FOR OWNERS AND THOUGHTFUL DRIVERS OF CARS

IN 24 CHAPTERS—CHAPTER 9

The style of car construction, power, speed, road conditions, the expert or careless driver and especially the weight and its distribution play an important part with the strains to which the tires will be subjected—consequently, a fixed rule for inflation would, in view of these things, produce different results.

Ordinarily, the tires on front wheels should be inflated between 15 and 18 pounds per inch of tire section (34x4 equals 72 pounds), and the rear tires 15 to 20 pounds per inch of tire section (34x4—20x4 equals 80 pounds).

Resiliency of the tires is primarily governed by the construction and quality, but is largely influenced by the inflation and weight carried. Normally a 4-inch tire inflated to 70 pounds of air pressure and carrying 300 pounds weight will ride easier than the same size of tire with the same inflation, and carrying 700 pounds weight. The heavier weight causes more deflection of the tires on the ground and increases the action of the side walls, thereby adding to the comfort of the ride. Increasing the deflection or flattening of tires, either by extra weight or reducing the air pressure, causes more of the vibration to be absorbed by the tires rather than by the springs of the car.

When soft, the tire runs against a wave in the tread which, from excessive stretching and heating, will pull away and separate from carcass or body. The heat from increased action in the side walls of under-inflated tires softens the rubber cement or adhesiveness between the fabric layers—devulcanization takes place, to some degree. Too much deflection of tire also means an irregular tension of one layer of fabric in relation to another—they pull apart, chafe and later, when striking a stone, rough place or rut, a blow-out may occur.

There seems to be an impression of danger from blow-outs due to expansion, especially during the hot weather. There is some expansion but, as a matter of fact, it is not in

BICYCLE TROPHY FOR '16 SEASON

Irrespective of make of tire used, or whether the riders be amateurs or professionals, the B. F. Goodrich Company has announced that to the club team making the highest score in 1916 open air road bicycle races, held under National Cycling Association sanction and rules, it will present a trophy cup valued at around $400.

The purpose of the Goodrich Company is to increase interest in open road competition. Notwithstanding the fact that the Goodrich factories produce the Palmer cord bicycle racing tires, the Goodrich plant safety and other widely used tires, the contest is open to riders upon any make of tire, because the object is simply to encourage more amateurs to participate in the sport.

The National Cycling Association, under the direction of its president, R. F. Kelsey, has prepared the following rules to govern the award of the cup:

- 1—A club may enter as many of its bona fide members as it chooses, but only the first five members crossing the tape at the finish shall count in the score, and these five must be inside the first 50 men to finish, inclusive.
- 2—The finishers will be scored in the relative positions in which they finish, and the position of finish will be the number of points credited to each man of the team, the total to be the team score. For example: A rider finishing first is scored one point, another finishing, say, seventh, is scored seven points.
- 3—Clubs must enter and score in at least five open road races given five different promoters during the period of competition, to be eligible to win the trophy. This rule is to prevent spurious races being run solely for the purpose of obtaining a high score for any one club.
- 4—Reports of club team scores must be filed as follows: One copy with E. C. Tibbitts, director of advertising, the B. F. Goodrich Company, Akron, O., and one copy with R. F. Kelsey, chairman of the board of control, National Cycling Association, 110 West 40th street, New York City, as soon after the race is run as is possible. Each of these reports must be signed by the referee of the race and at least three judges of the finish.
- 5—All races must be sanctioned by the National Cycling Association and run under the road racing rules of said association. Sanctions for road races may be obtained without fee upon application to the chairman of the board of control.
- 6—In case of a tie between two or more teams at the conclusion of the period of competition, final award shall be determined by a special race.

SANTA MONICA WINS CLASSICS

The greatest winter motor season in the history of southern California will open November 16 with the foremost of all America's road classics, the Vanderbilt Cup. Two days later the International Grand Prize, will be fought out over the same course, the famous eight miles of boulevard beneath the palms and eucalypti of Santa Monica on the Palisades above the Pacific.

With $15,000 already raised by the businessmen, bankers and Santa Monica Bay Chamber of Commerce for the purses, entry blanks have been issued and forwarded to the Eastern racing centers. The Vanderbilt and Grand Prize blanks carry the information that they are the last races of the year in the A. A. A. championship awards of medals and $13,500 in cash.

Following the Grand Prize, Los Angeles will begin its speedway season at Ascot on Thanksgiving Day with a $5000 event at 200 miles. The next speedway contest will be Christmas Day, both of these dates having been set aside on the A. A. A. calendar. The St. Nicholas Sweepstakes, too, will carry $5000, it is planned.

Two more Ascot races are to be run in the spring, probably on February 2, and the last one in March. So if the $5000 per race is maintained at Ascot it will mean that the drivers who winter on the Pacific Coast this year will have $35,000 to shoot at by way of diversion.

Report has it that several drivers now in the East already are preparing to come to the Pacific Coast and rebuild their cars next winter, meanwhile going after the purses at Santa Monica and Ascot.

COLE 8

The Latest and Largest Eight

Size means more than measurements—it means greater merit—many more advantages.

The Cole Eight is the largest eight-cylinder automobile in the world.

The performance of the Cole seventy-horsepower motor is almost miraculous. Quick as a flash, it silently and swiftly slips from a standstill to sixty mile an hour!

Faster! It will go faster than you will ever dare travel. You'll probably never use half the power always at your command. But it's there for the pinch!

That's probably the reason we have never been able to catch up with orders.

Isn't that the car you want? It's all in the Cole Eight.

UNDER-INFLATED TIRES WILL NOT SAVE YOU MONEY

H. A. Parker of Goodyear Co. States Tests Prove Heat Does Not Burst Tire

"These are the days when a belief that tires which are run under-inflated in hot weather costs motor-ists a lot of money," says H. A. Parker, branch manager, the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company. "It is surprising to find that many men still believe that hot weather expands the air in a pneumatic tire to the bursting point. And there is nothing to the belief worth considering.

"In fact, so far as hot results are concerned, the reverse is true. A great many tires are injured and even ruined in hot weather by injuries to which they are made victims through under-inflation.

"The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company has conducted all manner of tests to determine how much the air in a tire expands because of heat. Tires have been inflated to all manner of pressures. The cars with them an equipment have been run over the hottest pavements, and sand and dirt roads, at high speeds and slowly. And pressures have been recorded and compared before and after each test. These tests have proved that no tire—no Goodyear tire at least—is in danger of a blowout because of hot weather expansion of the air when tires are inflated to the recommended pressures. Any motorist can conduct this test for himself, if provided with a pressure gauge such as is included in the Goodyear tire saver kit.

"Inflate your tires to the recommended pressure. Note the pressure on the gauge. Ride one mile or five miles, or any other distance. Stop and apply the pressure gauge and then compare your figures. You will quickly see that the difference is so small that there is no danger of a blowout.

"On the other hand there is danger of blowouts resulting from injuries sustained while running tires under-inflated. It will be well for every motorist interested in low cost per mile to consider the 'hot weather' theory seriously and to refuse to be misled by it."

PACKARD MAKES GOOD RECORD IN DESERT TRAVEL

Motor Stage Road From Globe to Phoenix Traveled By Big Passenger Car

The motor stage road from Phoenix, Ariz., to Globe, same state, via Tempe, Mesa, Fish Creek, Roosevelt Dam and Miami, rises from a few feet above sea level to an altitude of nearly 7,000 feet. The distance from Phoenix to Globe is 135 miles. The temperature at this time of the year averages well over 100 degrees Fahr. in the shade.

Every day, rain or shine—and it's mostly shade—the twin six Packard, owned by H. C. Griswold, ex-soldier of fortune and globe trotter, carrying eight and sometimes nine passengers and their luggage, makes this trip. And if it fails to do the trick in nine hours the passengers get a percentage of their money back—just as on the extra fare railroad trains.

William R. McCulla, Packard aircraft motor engineer, returned recently from a trip through New Mexico and Arizona. He stayed a week in Phoenix and Globe and on the road between these places.

"Griswold's stage car has actually created a sensation in Arizona," said he. "Passengers have changed our slogan to suit their own experiences and their way of talking to 'Ask the Man Who Rode Ose,' and the phrase used by a traveling salesman, 'The Desert Pullman,' also has stuck.

"The line is licensed by the state as a common carrier and is regulated under the state laws. Its record for six weeks is 4,000 miles and the car's tires are holding up exactly twice as long as tires on other cars used in stage service that have the same size wheels as the Packard. Griswold is planning to have a new twin six made with a special stage body, so that he can carry four more passengers than he now does. He is confident that the car will easily handle the additional load."

McCulla's trip through the Southwest was for the purpose of research and investigation from both engineering and sales standpoints. He also stopped at New Orleans. He said that Louisiana is doing some splendid road work and that work has been started on a wonderful highway along the coast of the Gulf of Mexico.

MOTOR TRUCK IS BOON TO FARMER

The fruit market, gardener and dairyman can market 50 miles away from home by using a motor truck as easily as eight miles with horses," says a well known truck maker.

"This fact is an excellent illustration of what a truck will do, not only for farmers, but other classes as well. With horses these farmers were confined to a limited territory in disposing of their products. Using trucks gives them a wider area of operation, more competitive buying and hence better prices.

"And with merchants it is equally plain that trucks enrich business by extending the delivery area. The retail businessman with a truck may choose his customers from many more people than formerly, because he can profitably reach a family at least four times further away than his most remote patrons of the horse haulage days.

"With good roads constantly extending, manufacturers, jobbers, supply men and others are substituting motor haulage for the railroad on short cross-country hauls.

"I have given but a few reasons why motor truck manufacture is so prosperous. People have learned that trucks make money by actually getting new trade, as well as save money through superior dependability."

SIMPLE TEST FOR GASO-TONIC

"We are constantly asked," says W. A. Anderson, manager of the Acetylene Light & Agency Co., "if gaso-tonic contains acid. Practically all the common carbon removers do contain acid as the active agent in the removal of carbon deposits from cylinders and valves. Fierce acid is the most commonly known in this connection. Its presence is readily detected by opening the carburetor and observing a green coating or crust on the inner surfaces. Naturally this is apt to cause injury to other parts of the engine.

"A simple and infallible method of detecting the presence of acid is the well known litmus paper test. It is quite commonly known that blue litmus paper turns red in the presence of acid, and red litmus paper turns blue in the presence of alkalies. Five cents worth of litmus paper can be purchased from any drug store and the test applied by anybody. If there is the slightest trace of acid the blue litmus will turn red. We have applied this test repeatedly to gaso-tonic and found it absolutely neutral, showing neither acid nor alkaline reaction.

"It removes carbon deposits merely by softening the deposits and giving complete combustion of the fuel. The complete combustion burns away the softened carbon and leaves the cylinders clean. Because it works in this natural way, its action is slower than that of the acid carbon removers, but being the natural way, is without injury to the engine or any of its parts. If the cylinders are very dirty it may require the use of 30 or 40 gallons of gaso-tonic treated with gaso-tonic to get them thoroughly clean, and until they are thoroughly cleaned the maximum mileage will not be obtained from the fuel. There is a constant improvement, however, from the start until the maximum is reached, which in some cases may take five or six weeks, according to the amount of use given the car.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB WILL HOLD LUNCHEON AT YOUNG HOTEL

Members of the Honolulu Automobile Club will hold a luncheon at the Alexander Young hotel on Friday, August 18, at 12 o'clock. All members have been asked to be present, and to bring their friends. It is expected that there will be a large number present, and a number of interesting points will be taken up at this meeting.

It is expected that the Honolulu Automobile Club will become more active in its organization, and the leaders in the movement are anxious to have as many present as possible at the luncheon. The local organization has been one that has always been to the fore in promoting the things for the best interests of the community, and the coming luncheon is expected to bring out a banner crowd. Mark it down in your little book now. The date is August 18.

SPRINGS WOULD LAST FOR MORE THAN 60 YEARS

Tests at Dodge Brothers Plant Bring Out This Interesting Fact to the Public

There is little left to chance in the making of motor cars these days. Every part and every bit of material that goes into the well made car is so thoroughly tested before use that their future can be written out in advance.

To accomplish these tests, however, many wonderful machines have been developed. One of the most interesting in the laboratory of Dodge Brothers is a device which for 24 hours each day tests springs. The principle is extremely simple, although in practice, to ascertain results, it is complicated in its workings.

The center of the spring is held stationary while rapidly moving arms vibrate the ends, exerting the same force that the spring would be called on to combat on an exceedingly rough road.

It tests not only for strength, elasticity and other qualities, but also makes certain that the measurements are absolutely correct. The overload pressure is applied at the extreme rate of 155 vibrations a minute, until the spring has absorbed more shocks than it would be called upon to survive in long years of actual service. With a conservative number of miles per year as a basis it has been shown that some of the springs subjected to this test would last the average automobile driver 60 years. Grease is placed between the spring

As citizens of the United States the entire Democratic party joins with all parties and factions in Hawaii to resent the unjust and unwarranted implication that the electorate of Hawaii is unable to supply capable public servants to discharge satisfactorily the duties devolving upon them as citizens and men of public affairs.

HONOLULU WOMAN GIVES PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS ON CARE OF BABY

Mrs. Janet B. MacCaughy Writes of Necessity for Close Attention

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS FOR THE CARE OF THE BABY UNTIL FIVE YEARS OF AGE

By Janet B. MacCaughy, Honolulu. (This article was prepared for the Honolulu Baby Week Prize Contest and was considered by the judges of unusual merit.)

Bread or bottle, or solid food must be given regularly. Pure drinking water should be given freely between feedings of meals. Food formulae and plans for young children should be carefully worked out with expert advice for each individual child.

Should you find it difficult to make the child drink from a cup after having used a bottle, try letting him drink the milk from a small Japanese tea-cup. Later let him pour the milk from the teacup into a tiny cup and drink it in this way.

When the baby is trained to sit up, the mother should have his bowel movements at a certain convenient time, and should be ready to attend to them at that time. Eight or ten times a day, I have found as a desirable time for all ages for these purposes.

Before the little baby's bath is given, the mother should be ready to attend to the child's needs, and before he begins his regular morning bath, the mother should be ready to attend to his needs.

If this matter is attended to early in the day the child is more comfortable, more contented, and it is off to his mother's mind for the day, which means a saving of nervous energy.

Give the baby his bath as demonstrated at Panama Baby Week. Instructions are given in a pamphlet written by the College Club Committee.

may be had from Paiana on request. If the little baby cries when he is being bathed, try giving him a little hot water—a little more than lukewarm—to drink before the bath. He is usually washed just before feeding time and is hungry—the water will stay his hunger while being bathed.

If an older child cries because he is afraid of the water try giving him toys to play with in the tub, such as: a.—Boat; a desirable type is a piece of board or shingle with a small hole in the center in which is put a skewer having a stiff paper sail attached to it. b.—Rubber ball or doll. c.—Porcelain cup and a small funnel.

He will forget to be afraid if his mind is properly diverted by any one of the above simple toys.

All children, we ones and big ones, should sleep in a bed alone, either in the open air or in a room with the windows wide open. A Japanese telescope basket fitted up as a bed, like the one shown at the exhibit Baby Week, is serviceable and practical for the first few weeks of baby's life.

The bed I have found almost ideal for my babies until they are eight months or over. I have made it follows: A large, strong clothes basket is inserted about 16 inches into a wooden stand or frame. This is forty inches high, and the basket rests on cross slats. The frame has castors, making it possible to move the bed with ease from room to room. It is high enough so that it is not necessary to bend over the baby when caring for him. A fitted cotton pad covering the sides is attached by means of tapes so that it just comes over the rim. This is covered with a similarly fitted white sheet, held in place with a draw-string just below the outside of the rim. A firm soft mattress is made to fit the bottom of the basket. When baby is not asleep this basket bed makes an ideal play place, even when he is old enough to stand up—it being impossible for him either to climb or fall over or to tip over the bed.

Play. Every child, rich or poor, little or big, must play, and the busy mother who wants her children where she can watch them may find helpful a few timely suggestions for play. Nearly all of the following have been proven worth while by my own children.

Let us begin with the tiny one, not yet sitting up. When he is awake lying in his bed or carriage, one of his first toys should be a large soft bright ball, suspended by a string just so he can hit it with his fist. The awing back and forth, the bright color will amuse him for a long time. In the same way hang up a piece of crumpled paper, a rattle, rubber ring, or any toy which is not hard or sharp-edged.

When he sits up he will enjoy— A talcum powder or other small, smooth box containing a few pebbles or buttons, with the lid on very securely;

A wooden spoon and a pan to drum on;

Small blocks or spoons. He will want to drag something as soon as he can walk. The first and simplest wagon may be any cardboard box to which a string has been tied. In this he may put any of his favorite toys. Other types of wagons may be quickly and easily made; candy or other small boxes; four milk bottle caps for wheels, fasten on with wooden laundry studs; a part of the cover inserted for a seat; attach a string and the "King is happy for a long time."

From one and a half to three years he not only enjoys the toys he has had already, but loves the following: 1. All kinds of wooden blocks are good; broom handles cut up into short lengths, for columns, chimneys, etc. 2. Sail small piece of wood for boat in a tub or bucket of water. 3. Dig in the sand; play with clothes-pins; tie a piece of string between two chairs and let him hang up old socks, doll clothes, etc. 4. Stick clothes-pins in empty match boxes, so they may stand in a row like soldiers; put them together in any desired form. 5. Spools—either string, or use for building. 6. Wash doll's clothes—a convenient

SENATOR PHELAN DECLARES THIRD OF U. S. FLEET NEEDED IN PACIFIC

During Congressional Debate He Declares for Amendment to New Naval Bill

James D. Phelan, United States senator from California, made a strong speech in the senate on behalf of an amendment to the naval appropriation act, requiring one-third of the U. S. fleet to be stationed in Pacific waters.

Referring to the strategic, economic and population aspects of Hawaii, he declared that this outpost should be well-guarded.

He said in part: "As I take it this amendment leaves it entirely discretionary in time of great emergency with the president of the United States to move a Pacific fleet if it is established in the Atlantic waters or the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific waters. I desire to submit that there is first a very great necessity for a fleet in the Pacific, and, secondly, that there is an equally great necessity for an expression on the part of Congress as to the desirability of establishing a fleet on the Pacific."

"The Panama Canal is supposed to have multiplied the usefulness of the fleet. We know from competent authority that the Panama Canal is subject to interruption either by accident or design. In times of profound peace it is a useful connection between the Pacific and the Atlantic so far as naval operations are concerned. In time of necessity it will fall us, because the vigilant enemy will strike at our most vulnerable part—that costly waterway. Hawaii Must Be Guarded."

"We have established possessions in the Pacific, I believe it is the sentiment of the country now, perhaps to maintain our flag on our island possessions, no matter how remote or whoever may dissent from that view. Hawaii is a strategic point which we cannot surrender and already there is a vast preponderance of foreign population. "If the president of the United States without any direction from Congress sends a part of this great fleet that we are constructing to the Pacific it will be regarded as a menace, it will be regarded as an unfriendly act, and in the light of the acts of the executives in the past, now and heretofore, we know that they would as diplomatic gentlemen, doubtless sewing according to their lights the best interests of the common country, hesitate to send a fleet out there except in a case of imperative necessity. But when the imperative necessity comes we will have no fleet there to meet the imperative necessity. The imperative necessity will be known in Washington when the guns are belching forth their fire upon the Pacific."

International History Cited. "I am speaking with the utmost calmness. No one can dispute this in the light of past history. There is the case of Port Arthur and all the other cases. I will not enumerate them. There are so many, in Europe where nations, sometimes called civilized, have entered into solemn agreements not to do certain things, not to invade a neutral territory and to respect the rights of neutrals have waltzingly without apology set aside their own solemn declaration! We can not expect anything better from Japan which is just emerging from the shell of barbarism. We can not expect any more from Japan than from the countries speaking proudly for an ancient civilization. I think in the matter of international morals the Japanese—because they are more frank—are superior than many of the nations of Europe. They tell us what they want and what they propose to do."

"If Congress adopts this amendment and says there shall be a fleet in the Pacific it relieves the executive of embarrassment. He need not be subservient any longer under diplomatic pressure to this great power in the Pacific. He can say it is a direction of Congress. Indeed it will be known throughout the world that it is an act of Congress, and therefore the movement of the fleet will not excite either resentment or suspicion."

"I know the senator from Massachusetts fully believes in the necessity of two fleets. He understands our problem. The only thing he fears is that there will be a divided authority. The authority rests only in the commander in chief of the army and navy of the United States under this amendment. There can be no question of that."

Should Make Declaration Now. "It is much better now to make our declaration on the eve of the construction of this proposed navy than at any other time. I think it will reconcile the people of this country to the policy which we are enunciating, and it will further enable them to realize that this country has its possessions in the Atlantic and in the Pacific and that there is no reason whatever why at least a third of the fleet should not be permanently located on the Pacific coast. If needed in the Atlantic, it can be so ordered by the executive, but during these long days of trial, when we do not know between one hour and another, growing out of the assertion of our rights when we shall be assailed, it is of the highest importance strategically to have a fleet where we are vulnerable and where our rights are being asserted."

The British steamer Kait was sunk by a mine. The crew was saved.

Fraternals And Lodge Notes

Aloha Temple's two genial and hustling representatives at the great Shriner convention in Baltimore attracted the usual large amount of attention to Hawaii. "Sunny" Jim McCandless who is a member of the imperial divan and moving up year by year toward the exalted position of imperial potentate, and Pctentate Thomas E. Wall of Aloha Temple, were noticeable by their leis. They opened headquarters in a Buffalo hotel and distributed thousands of the attractive samples of Hawaiian neckwear. News received from Buffalo tells of the big parade, with more than 10,000 in line. In the election, the much-coveted position of imperial outer guard went to James C. Burger of Denver. This is the entrance to the imperial divan and from this position the lucky man moves up each year until he is potentate. David W. Crosland of Montgomery, Alabama, was second, the vote being 197 to 149. There were many other candidates. The new officers are: Henry F. Niedringhaus, Jr. of St. Louis elected imperial potentate to succeed J. Putnam Stevens; Charles E. Ovenshire, Minneapolis, imperial deputy potentate; Elias J. Jacoby, Indianapolis, imperial chief rabban; W. Freeman Kendrick, Philadelphia, imperial assistant rabban; Ellis L. Garretson, Tacoma, imperial high priest and prophet; Elmer A. Cutts, Savannah, imperial Oriental guide; William S. Brown, Pittsburg, imperial treasurer; Benjamin W. Remell, Boston, imperial recorder; James S. McCandless, Honolulu, imperial first ceremonial master; John T. Jones, Oklahoma City, imperial second ceremonial master; Conrad V. Dykeman, Brooklyn, imperial marshal; James E. Chandler, Kansas City, imperial captain of guards; James C. Burger, Denver, imperial outer guard. It was voted to extend a charter for Alstair temple at San Antonio, Tex. It was voted also to grant dispensations to New Bern, N. C., for a temple to be known as Soudan and to Roonoke, Va., for a temple to be known as Kazirn. These dispensations give the cities opportunity to form temples and it is likely when this is done charters will be formally granted. It was decided to put over for a year the application of Council 111, for a charter and the council voted against granting a charter for a temple in the Panama Canal zone. In explanation of how President Wilson established the precedent of officially recognizing "Flag Day" 616 Bulletin, issued monthly by the local Elks prints the following: It was at the personal solicitation of Congressman Murray Hulbert, Past Exalted Ruler of, and acting for, New York Lodge, No. 1, that the president of the United States issued the proclamation respecting the observance of Flag Day, June 14, 1816. The following correspondence bearing on the matter is taken from a circular which New York lodge has mailed to all subordinate lodges: May 26, 1916. Hon. Joseph P. Tumulty, Secretary to the President, White House. My Dear Joe—Some time since I took up with you the matter of asking the president to request the people, by public proclamation, to observe our National Flag Day on June 14. This is not a political or partisan matter but it seems to me making acknowledgment to our patriotism on this date as we acknowledge our gratitude to Almighty God on Thanksgiving Day. My activity, as you know, has been stimulated by the fact that while exalted ruler of New York Lodge, No. 1, Benevolent Order of Elks, the motor lodge of Elksdom, I instituted a public ritualistic ceremony which since has been adopted by the grand lodge and is observed in every one of the 1400 lodges throughout the country and participated in by more than 500,000 American citizens, members of the order. I have received hundreds of communications from other patriotic organizations supplementing my endeavors, and I believe it would be in keeping with the policy of Americanizing the hundred million people who live under Old Glory if the president would take favorable action upon this request, and it certainly will not be setting a precedent that will be hard to follow, because no other similar appeal can be made to him founded upon any less worthy and patriotic cause. With kind personal regards, I remain, Sincerely yours, MURRAY HULBERT. White House, Washington, June 2, 1916. Hon. Murray Hulbert, House of Representatives. Mr. Dear Murray—Referring to your letter of March 18 and May 26, to your several talks with me, and your personal conference with the president on May 9, I have much pleasure in sending you herewith copy of the proclamation which the president issued on May 30 suggesting the special observance of June 14 as Flag Day. I am sure this will please you, because I know how deeply interested you have been in this matter and how urgently you have pressed for this action. Sincerely yours, J. P. TUMULTY, Secretary to the President. From the Grand Exalted Ruler. Mr. J. W. Carroll, Secretary, New York Lodge, No. 1, B. P. O. Elks, 108 W. 43d St., New York City. My Dear Brother Carroll—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your telegram of the 31, advising me that it was at the request of New York Lodge, presented through Congressman Murray Hulbert, that President Wilson issued his proclamation making June 14 Flag Day throughout the United States. I desire through you to congratulate the members of New York Lodge upon having conceived this idea and carried it to a successful conclusion. I know of no better contribution to the observance of Flag Day, in accordance with the custom of our order, that could be made, and in the name of the order I wish to commend New York Lodge for this act, demonstrating their loyalty to our order and the flag beneath which it has its being. Sincerely and fraternally yours, JAMES R. NICHOLSON. Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters from all sections of the United States have been in convalescence during the early part of the week at Portland, Ore., the occasion being the sessions of the Supreme Lodge of the former and the Supreme Chapter of the latter. The twenty-ninth biennial convention of the Knights went into convalescence Tuesday morning. First there was a joint assembly of the Lodge and the Temple at which addresses of welcome were delivered by Governor James Withycombe and Mayor H. R. Albee and responses made by Supreme Chancellor B. S. Young and Supreme Chief Cora M. Davis. The assembly was presided over by Gus C. Moore of Portland, as general chairman. Both Lodge and Temple then went into first session in separate halls. The principal parade of the convention was held Tuesday afternoon, the Uniform Rank and Order of Khorrassan leading the way and grand lodge and visiting members largely participating. In the evening Walter B. Rieche of Illinois, past supreme chancellor, delivered the golden jubilee address, his subject being "The Pythian Lesson of Friendship." Much of Wednesday was given over to sightseeing trips up the Columbia river and a salmon lunch was served at Bonneville. In the evening the Dramatic Order of Khorrassan held their parade and other ceremonials which proved to be the "big hit" of the entire gathering and was even termed its chief feature. Election of officers and selection of the next meeting place were the features of the Thursday sessions. A pleasant diversion took place at a meeting Thursday evening of the Modern Order of Phoenix. The lodge members, having ascertained that Leader Charles Hustace, Jr., was about to become a benedict, in appreciation of his services in the leading chair of the lodge for the past two years and also as a token of personal friendship, presented him with a silver tea set, at the same time coupling the gift with their best wishes for the future happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hustace, Jr. Although taken completely by surprise, Mr. Hustace thanked the members in a clever speech, stating that the one promise he had required of the future Mrs. Hustace was that she should have Thursday night free to attend Phoenix Lodge meetings. Phoenix Lodge enjoyed a most prosperous two years under the leadership of Mr. Hustace. The membership more than doubled and a debt of reported to have said about Democrats, who will blame him? He is a discerning man. He has not been a Democrat for nothing. He has seen the humor as well as the sham of political patronage, and if he is of "foreign birth" he does credit to the land of his adoption, and is a shining example for many Americans who have little to recommend them but their accidental birthright. While president, Mr. Cleveland once said: "If I were a Republican I would probably hate the sight of a Republican caller; as it is, my interviews with office-seeking Democrats has made their presence intolerable to me." Isn't it strange that those who have struck at the heart of an industry which is the life of Hawaii, are all Democrats? In the individual and the party there seems to be an animus inimical to industrial life and prosperity. Those Democrats who will not stand for reactionary and unprogressive policies, are called by their associates "Republicans"—sugar Republicans, corporation Republicans, monopoly Republicans. It will be a good thing when Judge Stuart has gone back to his place. Possibly he fills a niche there and, in his native habitat, serves some useful purpose: in Hawaii he certainly was nothing but a weed—noxious at that. My defense of "old Kailua" in the columns of other publications is not solely for the literary purpose of getting in my say-so. Kailua is one of the most beautiful spots in all Hawaii. It should have a good hotel as well as a wharf. It needs more suitable houses, and lots on the beach should be available at lower prices. When we get a price for our coffee which will make a Kona coffee-grower a self-respecting American agriculturist, and when our backlands are growing the pineapples for which they are adapted, Kailua will again be a town of life and bustle; modern and progressive, with Hualalai and history as a background.

A Tribute to Crisco A remarkable tribute to the quality of Crisco was received from the chef of one of the foremost hotels in the United States. For some time he had been buying Crisco in moderate quantities. When without warning his orders were more than doubled a Crisco representative called to see what had happened. It was found that while formerly the chef had been using Crisco only for pastry and other bakery foods and had done his frying with the fat obtained from his meats, he had decided after experimenting with Crisco to sell the meat fats and use Crisco exclusively. He is now using Crisco for frying as well as for shortening, because he knows that Crisco fried foods are better and that the guests of his hotel cannot complain of these foods being indigestible. He does this in spite of the fact that he pays for Crisco three times as much as he gets for his meat scraps. Scientific cooks the country over are using Crisco because they understand it. They judge a food product by what it will accomplish. And they have found that Crisco accomplishes wonderful results in cooking. Housewives can profit by their experience. If Crisco is the choice of chefs, Domestic Scientists and hospital dietitians, it is very likely to please everyone.
