BISHOP WILLIS RELINQUISHES HIS WORK AND BISHOP NICHOLS ASSUMES CONTROL

Ceremonies Which Mark the Transfer of the Jurisdiction of the Episcopal Church in Hawaii.

BEFORE a congregation which filled St. Andrew's Cathedral almost to the limit of its seating capacity, in the presence of men and women who have for a period beyond his pre-acy supported the church here, Bishop Alfred Willis laid down the weight of the see of Honolulu and Bishop William Ford Nichols, as representative of the senior Bishop of the Episcopal Church in America, assumed the duties of the missionary district. It was a ceremony full of interest and novelty, marked with a pathetic coloring as well as one of gladness, witnessed alike by those who have stood with the retiring Bishop and against him, and closing with a celebration of the most sacred rites of the church, by the new dignitary.

Long before the hour for service the main body of the Cathedral was filled almost to its limit of seating capacity. The audience was a testimonial of the interest felt in the church, for it was made up of men and women who had seldom met before in a service. While in a front pew sat British Commissioner Hoare and across from him Governor Cleghorn, not yards away were churchmen whose visit here is but a passing one, but who, drawn by the unique feature of the transfer, came to worship with a people united by the new order.

mouth, the Rev. Dr. Jenner of England, and the Rev. Kong Yin Tet. They were followed by Bishop Nichols and Bishop Willis, the latter being seated nearest to the altar, within the chancel rail.

The service was a full choral one, the prayers being chanted by the Rev. Canon Ault, while the Rev. Dr. Jenner read the lessons. The usual service being completed, Bishop Willis approached the front of the sanctuary and read the formal surrender of jurisdiction. He paused only when he called upon the diocesan registrar, Edmund Stiles, to read his letter to Bishop Clarke, setting forth the work of the synod and asking approval, the letter approving the acts of the synod, the resignation of the Bishop and the acceptance of that resignation by the Archbishop of Canterbury. The address was delivered with emphasis, in part to the congregation and the final clauses to the Bishop representing the authority, his voice showing no trace of the emotions which must have shaken him until, after the handing over the documents, he turned to the congregation and pronounced his final relinquishment of authority, there was a suspicious breaking in its tones. Bishop Willis said:

BISHOP WILLIS' ADDRESS.

Dearly Beloved:—The purpose for which we are assembled here in the presence of God is for the transference to the American branch of the Anglican communion of spiritual jurisdiction in the arch of the Hawaiian Islands, first committed by His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury to my predecessor, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Staley, in 1862, when Honolulu was made the seat of a Bishop of the Anglican communion.

The steps already taken toward the transfer of jurisdiction are as follows:

1. In November, 1899, the Hawaiian Islands having been incorporated as territory of the United States of America, the Diocesan Synod of the Anglican Church in Hawaii passed a resolution pledging itself to take whatever steps might be necessary for bringing the church in Hawaii into union with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America on conditions stated in its resolution.

2. In October, 1901, an arrangement was entered into between myself and the House of Bishops, assembled in General Convention in San Francisco, which devolved upon that House the Episcopal oversight of the church in these Islands on and after April 1, 1902, at which date it was resolved that the Hawaiian Islands should be constituted a Missionary District, for which a Bishop should be consecrated as soon as practicable, effect to be previously given by our Diocesan Synod to the resolution passed in November, 1899.

3. In order to give effect to that resolution of 1899, our Diocesan Synod in December of last year passed two resolutions, by the one adopting the changes in the formularies of the Church of England that were made by the American Church in 1789, and by the other expressing the desire of this church to be received as a Missionary District of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; and promising allegiance to the canons of the said church; and further instructing the incorporated board of trustees to apply for approval by the civil authority of the necessary amendments in the charter of incorporation.

4. Pursuant to the aforementioned resolution an amended charter was applied for by the trustees, and granted by the Treasurer of the Territory, with the approval of the Governor, on the 15th day of January, 1902. By virtue of this charter the corporation heretofore known as the trustees of the Anglican Church in Hawaii is now styled "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands," holding all its property, to be administered in accordance with the constitution, canons, rules and regulations of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

5. On February 24, 1902, in reply to a letter addressed to the Presiding Bishop of the Church in the United States, with which I forwarded a copy of the official journal of the proceedings of our Diocesan Synod in December, 1901, a letter was received from the Most Reverend Prelate expressing the full approval of the action taken by the Synod.

6. In pursuance of the arrangement already referred to, as entered into with the House of Bishops in October last, effect having been given to the resolution of November, 1899, and the Diocesan Synod having adjourned, I tendered my resignation of this See to the Archbishop of Canterbury, which has been accepted by His Grace, that acceptance, together with the letter of resignation, being duly deposited and registered in the office of His Grace's Vicar General, as will appear by the certificate of the Principal Registrar of the Province of Canterbury, which will now be read by our Diocesan Registrar, after he has first read the letter from the Presiding Bishop.

After the reading the Bishop continued: "The Presiding Bishop, being unable as you have heard to be present in person, is represented by the Rt. Rev. William F. Nichols, D. D., Bishop of California, who will now present his commission to be read by the Registrar."

Republicans Will Appeal to the Courts.

COOPER DECLARES HE CANNOT MOVE

Has No Right to Question the Eligibility of a Candidate When Once Nominated.

REPUBLICANS will not permit the printing of the name of August Dreier on the official ballots for the Fourth district without the arbitration of the highest court of the Territory. This was decided upon last evening, after full discussion of the position taken by the Acting Governor of the Territory and the investigations of the attorneys for the committee.

The newest phase of the Fourth District controversy was that interjected yesterday by Secretary and Acting Governor Cooper. After consideration of the matter, consultation with attorneys and the receipt of the formal petition for information, from the Home Rulers coming in between times, the chief executive arrived at the conclusion that he did not have any authority over a candidate provided that he was properly certified to the office. The position of the Secretary is broadly that he would have to receive the name of any person who may be nominated by a party, even if that nominee was an alien or a woman, if there were the necessary voters' signatures and dollars accompanying it.

As soon as this condition was made known to the chairmen of the two committees, the Territorial and District, they consulted again with their attorney, Mr. A. G. M. Robertson, and received some assurances that they might hope for success in any fight over the knocking off of the printing on the ballot of the name of the Home

Bishop Nichols' commission having been read, the Bishop said:

My Right Reverend Brother:—I hand to you certified copies of the Presiding Bishop's approval of the action taken by the Synod of the Diocese in bringing the church in the Hawaiian Islands into union with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and of the acceptance by the Archbishop of Canterbury of my resignation of this See.

I also hand you a list of the clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands ministering under my license in the Diocese now to become the Missionary District of Honolulu, to which is added a list of the lay readers holding my license.

I hand also a statement of the real estate owned by the corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands.

Advancing to the front of the sanctuary, he said in conclusion: "I now declare that the See of Honolulu is vacant, and all jurisdiction within the area of the Hawaiian Islands heretofore exercised by the authority of the Archbishop of Canterbury now absolutely ceases and determines by virtue of the instrument under His Grace's hand dated Jan. 31, 1902."

When he had finished Bishop Nichols, who had called upon the diocesan registrar to read the commission from Presiding Bishop Thomas March Clarke, under which he appeared to take the authority, and act until the making of arrangements, took over the jurisdiction, speaking as follows:

BISHOP NICHOLS' ADDRESS.

My Right Reverend and Dear Brother: In accordance with the resolutions of the House of Bishops and the terms of the commission with which I have been empowered by the presiding Bishop, already duly presented here, and acting in his behalf and his substitute quoad hoc, I do formally, under God, receive at your hands the transfer of the jurisdiction and the property from the Diocese of Honolulu to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and to a Missionary District of the same constituted this first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, by the act of the said House of Bishops and to be known as the Missionary District of Honolulu of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

And further, being instructed by the Presiding Bishop as aforesaid, I do this day hereby assume authority and jurisdiction as Bishop in charge assigned to the Missionary District of Honolulu now created, "until such time as a Bishop shall have been elected and consecrated for said Missionary District of Honolulu, or other arrangement shall have been made by the Senior Bishop of the church." And in accordance with my instructions as Bishop assigned I shall on this day of the erection of the Missionary District of Honolulu take steps looking to the due canonical organization of the convocation of the said District, and to all other requirements for the full organization of the Missionary District of Honolulu, as provided in Article VI, Sec. 3 of the Constitution, and Title 1, Canon 13, Sec. vi, of the Digest of the canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America.

In fulfilling the duty and accepting the charge this day laid upon me it is fitting that this unique ceremony to the unprecedented character of which in the Anglican Communion you have already on other occasions called attention, should have some of its features emphasized. Though in the providence of God the House of Bishops is to assemble in fifteen days from this time with the purpose of electing a Bishop for this See, the Presiding Bishop, unwilling that an event so much interested should pass without having his representative present to express his sense of the dignity of the event, and the warm welcome of the American Church people to their brethren of the clergy and laity in these Islands. And the privilege has had such an estimate of the responsibility committed to him, that he could not have undertaken it without firm reliance upon the guidance of God, the Holy Ghost, and upon the co-operation of all here, it has been with a realization also to the privilege is to meet the clergy and people of the new Missionary District and to convey to them as I do today the cheery Godspeed of our whole American Church, which, like the Nation, is in these days of bewildering extension, quickening at the question, Who is sufficient for these things?

But it would be singularly superficial not to note the tinge of tenderness which must inevitably mark this separate ceremony. Such a turning point could not occur without in that moment and sentiment modulated into a minor key. I am thinking, my dear brother, of what it means to you to sunder the ties of an episcopate of thirty years, covering a whole generation. I have no right to do more than barely refer to it, perhaps it is too sacred to you for public mention on your part. But others will wish me not to fail to take note of it. Though so many years your junior in the Episcopate, perhaps the fact that I am one of your own order in the ministry enables me to know as few can know who have not experienced its isolation and its burdens, its comforts and its upbearings, how real a part of the Dulce periculum seculi Deum are those ties of confirmation and ordination, and the like that grow up around any extended Episcopate.

It so happens that those of our American Church who have had to do with the Diocese of Honolulu have all had far beyond the average length of years in the Episcopate. The first Bishop of California, who acted jointly at the beginning with the Church of England in calling attention to the need of work here, rounded nearly two score years as a Bishop. The first Bishop of Minnesota, Bishop Whipple, who was once invited to this See, had an Episcopate of forty years and the present Presiding Bishop is now in the forty-eighth year of his Episcopate. And Bishop Kip, the American Bishop associated with the initiation of the work here, was a college classmate of Bishop Clarke, who now, as Presiding Bishop initiates the new chapter of the history of the See. Their Episcopates have been nearly contemporary with the forty years of the Anglican period of the See, three-fourths of which your own Episcopate has covered, and the address made to you by the last Synod of the Anglican Church in Hawaii has dealt more felicitously and intelligently than I could hope to do upon some of the noteworthy acts of your last three out of four full decades of the existence of the See.

It would be strange, too, if to some the substitution of the American for the English prayer book some weeks since made, had not its appreciable wrench of old and tried associations. The mutatis mutandis are slight and as you have pointed out in effecting the necessary adaptation of the church charter, in no way change "any essential point of doctrine, discipline or worship;" still from constant use even terms of expression become so habitual that any variation from them as the service goes on perhaps gives a sense of deprivation which it will take a little time to overcome. My attention here to express consideration for it under all the circumstances of the transfer, and to state the experience of many who have told me that while they first noted it on coming to California from England, the strangeness soon wore off and indeed in many cases they learned especially to like the American book. It is my hope while in Honolulu to have the opportunity in some lectures to point out the principal points of revision in the American prayer book and the reasons for them.

And this leads to another, I could almost call it touch of pathos, in our function of the day. As the other day I stood before that heroic statue of Kamehameha I, I could read into its pose a beckoning. Without at all knowing the intent of the artist, I could imagine a race beckoning to a race, an eighteenth century to a twentieth century, a statesman-warrior from the Islands of the sea, with a spear, beckoning to the captain of our salvation with a cross. Kamehameha I did beckon to Vancouver for the teacher of the true God, of which Vancouver had nobly told him. But the teacher did not come.

If that beckoning had been answered in 1794, we can tell what the Book of Common Prayer, what your own rendering of hymns into that native tongue, might have meant to the Hawaiian people in 1902? What it might have meant to the swarming generations of that people since 1794 swept from the earth!

I do not forget the high associations of our work in these Islands with that royal name and with the royalty of the Hawaiian race; the benefactions to this cathedral foundation; the translating the Book of Common Prayer into the native language by Kamehameha IV, revised by yourself; the successful beckoning of that same monarch which brought Bishop Staley and the mission here; the laying of the corner stone of this cathedral church by Kamehameha V, the memorial of the past and present. For all this we may thank God, but the much beckoning of the statue as we today pass this jurisdiction of this church from one to another branch of our great race stands out before me almost as an arraignment of our common Christianity, for the lost opportunities of the eighteenth century—an arraignment which, as we face the future, should make us tingle not so much with shame, which is profitless, as with a tremor throughout our whole communion and Christianity to be anxious to do, to lose no twentieth century opportunities for the spread of the Kingdom of Christ and the winning of souls He died to save.

And what opportunities there are abroad for the Church of God! What opportunities may there not be here by the help and mercy of God! Oceania for Christ as well as for commerce! Fellow citizenship with the saints as well as under the flag! Civilization by the cross even more than by the community interest. Life of this very Easter tide incorruptible, for all racial corruption and decay! These be our ringing watchwords!

The gift of this zeal and this spirit is nothing less than the gift of God. The united fronting for it is more than will than room without. We go to God's altar presently to find there as their true source the gift of zeal and the secret of Oneness. It is a happy incident that the very vessels we use in the Holy Communion are the provision of an American communicant, the memorial of a holy American priest, Dr. James De Koven. That communion of the altar was before, and is above, and will far outlast all annexations and all earthly changes. There is no transfer of jurisdiction in the Chief Bishopric of seats in Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever. These lines of dioceses and districts must be; these civil and ecclesiastical re-adjustments must come from time to time; but all the histories of nations between the upper room of the eucharist's institution and this altar, and all this map-making since, never change fealties or flags in the one fellowship of the one Blessed Sacrament. From it let us go away this morning lifted up to a higher plane of prayer and of action, and that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and all such good work as he has prepared for us to walk in."

When Bishop Nichols concluded his address, delivered in most part directly to Bishop Willis, he returned to the thrones placed side by side, to find that the retiring prelate had vacated that nearest to the altar, which was thus reserved for him, and the silent acknowledgment of the new order caused some little feeling, especially on the part of Dr. Kiteat, who was for a moment overcome with emotion, and could not continue the service until he had withdrawn.

After the usual service, Bishop Nichols celebrated the Holy Communion, almost the entire congregation communicating. Bishop Nichols was assisted by Bishop Willis, Canon Ault acting as epistoler. After the benediction the congregation quickly dispersed, there being little mood apparent to continue in exchange of comment upon the events of the morning.

After the clergy had returned to the robing room Bishop Nichols asked that all others retire. He then told the representatives of the clergy that he wanted them to recognize him as their Bishop and to come to him for advice and consultation. Later in the day Bishop Willis tendered to Bishop Nichols a receipt at his home on Bates street, where the new office of the church met all the officers of the congregation of the cathedral.

"A greater power than we can contradict hath thwarted our intents."

No, the weather hasn't been just to our liking. Would have had a different brand did we have its ordering. The fact is, old Jupiter Pluvius has been working overtime. He would be forgiven were he a little less strenuous. The result is trade has not been what it should, and lost time, if possible, must now be made up. Can it be done? We'll see. It certainly will be if intensified inducements can do it. For the coming week therefore, we've prepared a program that should draw a crowd no matter how much weather there may be To wit:

Nahiku Sugar Company Wants $5000 a Year From Hana Plantation.

The Nahiku Sugar Company will not accept the offer of the Hana Plantation Company of $4500 per year for the lease of its lands. At the meeting held Monday it was decided to let the whole matter go over for a week, J. F. Morgan holding out for $5000, which offer he said had been made formerly by the Hana Plantation. The amended proposition will now be submitted to the Hana Plantation. The proposition of the Hana Plantation is embodied in the following terms:

"For a satisfactory lease, for a term of twenty-six years, from the Nahiku Sugar Company for all of their right, title and interest in the water of what are known as the Makapipi, Hanawi and Kapaula streams in the district of Koolau, Maui, and of all the real estate, leaseholds and other interests in real estate of the Nahiku Sugar Company, we will pay all annual rental of four thousand five hundred dollars ($4500) United States gold coin, payable semi-annually in advance, and all the taxes on the property leased and the governmental rental under the Nahiku Sugar Company's water license, and all rents payable on property at present under lease to the Nahiku Sugar Company, provided—

"First, that we make contracts with the Nahiku homesteaders for a right of way for the conduct of the water of these streams over their lands.

"Second, that the government puts up for sale, within six (6) months from this day, a lease for a term of twenty-one (21) years, but subject to the National Water License, of the tract of government land in the district of Koolau, Maui, lying above and adjoining the 'Nahiku Tract,' as shown on Public Lands Map No. 20, and extending from the line of lease No. 492 to the Hana Plantation Company, to the Puakea stream between the lands of Kapaula and Puakea; and provided further that we become the purchasers of said lease.

"The lease from the Nahiku Sugar Company to us to be executed immediately upon the conclusion of contracts as aforesaid with the homesteaders, and then placed in escrow to be delivered upon our acquiring the above indicated government lease.

"The Nahiku Sugar Company must produce the consent of the government to the lease." Alexander & Baldwin agree to release the indebtedness amounting to $31,414, on condition that the terms offered above are accepted by the Nahiku Sugar Company. J. O. Cooke's statement of the financial status of the Nahiku Company was as follows: Assessments paid including the fourth, $143,742. Assessable stock in the treasury, 22,041 shares. Paid-up stock in the treasury, 3625 shares. The par value is $20 a share. Paid-up stock in circulation, 125 shares. Assessable stock in circulation, 11,709 shares, representing the original issue of 37,500 shares. Debtor to Alexander & Baldwin on March 31, 1902, $31,414.74. 11,709 shares at $7 paid, representing a total of $81,963.

MORTUARY STATISTICS
Honolulu's Health Is Improving Again.

TUBERCULOSIS ON THE DECREASE
Monthly Figures for Six Years Past Show an Interesting State of Affairs.

Mortuary statistics for the past six years show a gradual return of the good health of Honolulu as it was years ago. The increase in the number of deaths for the past five years is alarming when compared with the increase in population, but now the city is returning to its normal condition and a steady decrease in the death rate may be expected.

From 1895 to 1900 there was an increase of nearly eighty per cent in the death rate, but now the reaction has set in. In 1895 the deaths for the year, according to the statistics prepared for the Board of Health numbered 731, in 1896, 672; in 1897, 658; in 1898, 937; in 1899, 1154, and in 1900, 1290. This was the maximum in Honolulu, the death rate for the year approximating three per cent of the entire population. In 1901 there was a decrease in the number of deaths, the total reaching but 1125, while this year, the aggregate promises to fall far below that figure. During the six years for which the statistics have been compiled, April, October, November and December appear to have been the most unhealthy months, or at least the death rate was higher during those months than at any other time of the year.

Tuberculosis is still the most deadly disease in Hawaii, according to these reports, though there is shown considerable improvement within the past year. For March this year there was a total of 87 deaths from all causes, of which eighteen were due to consumption. During the same month last year there were twenty-six deaths due to consumption out of a total of 116 deaths. So fearful did the ravages of this disease become among the people of the city that the Board of Health issued a special circular some time ago in which the public was urged to take every precaution to prevent its spread. The circular was never distributed, however, though the rules of the Board of Health were given wide circulation in the public press, and the agitation at that time is in a measure probably responsible for the decrease in the disease.

The first three months of the present year show a remarkable decrease in the number of deaths due from tuberculosis, as well as to the total of each month.

Below is given a list, showing the number of deaths due to tuberculosis, and also the total number of deaths each month, so that the ratio may be readily seen:

Year	Month	Tuber-Total	culosis, Deaths.
1901	January	112	112
	February	17	91
	March	26	116
	April	11	91
	May	19	84
	June	14	108
	July	12	94
	August	13	100
	September	13	99
	October	9	66
	November	12	74
	December	10	90
1902	January	8	74
	February	10	74
	March	18	87

The following table shows the number of deaths from all causes each month from the first day of January, 1895, up to the present time:

DAMON RETURNS FROM KONA

S. M. Damon returned yesterday morning in the Mauna Loa from Kona, Hawaii, where he has been for the past week on a pleasure and semi-business visit. He went over the Kona plantation and visited many of the coffee lands in the vicinity, and he speaks very highly of the condition of the latter. As to the Kona affair, Mr. Damon said:

"I don't think I know much about the plantation. I did not go there on business, but merely for pleasure, and I am sure I can't say anything about its condition. Of course you know that M. F. Scott has been appointed receiver. I presume that was a satisfactory arrangement.

"I understand that Mr. Scott furnished a bond, ten of the residents of the district going upon it in the sum of $5000 each. Among the signatures were those of John D. Paris, Mr. Linder, Mrs. Greenwell and John Maguire. The district is a good one and the coffee growing up there is something worth seeing. The growers are finding ready markets for their output and there are 17,000 bags of coffee now exported yearly from Kona."

Mr. Damon was quite reticent on matters pertaining in any way to Kona plantation. It is believed that he may

WEDNESDAY APRIL 2

The health reports of this city are improving, a fact which speaks well for the sanitary vigilance of the Board of Health. If things can be kept clean our death rate is not likely to rise abnormally. It is dirt and filth that makes the record showings for the territories.

What earthly difference does it make who runs and who doesn't run in the special election? There is nothing to be gained in the fight, and much money and useful energy is to be lost. The whole thing may serve as an amusement comparable to chasing an anise seed bag, but serious people hardly ever take their amusements in that way.

JUSTICE THE NEXT STEP.

Nothing so became Bishop Willis' official life in Hawaii as his manner of leaving it. He said no more and no less than was warrantable, sped no Parthian arrows, and retired from the post he had so long held, with a dignity and gentleness which had in it a touch of the pathetic. And so the Anglican Bishopric in Hawaii closed forever.

The future is to be worked out under American auspices, though in no narrow American spirit. One of the first acts to be hoped for in the new Bishop, is a just decision as to the status of two English clergymen, Rev. Alexander Mackintosh and Rev. John Osborne, whom Bishop Willis forced to the wall for no fault of theirs. The one minister built up the Secoid Congregation into the largest Episcopal body here and had, perhaps, more part in making the cathedral possible, than any other one man in holy orders. His license to preach was taken from him as a means of forcing his congregation to join that of Bishop Willis, and finally the congregation itself, for its loyalty to Mr. Mackintosh, was debarred from public worship in the church home which its money and efforts had, in large degree, established. As a purely secular paper, not interested in the church affair further than to see the Episcopal body and all other religious organizations prosper, the Advertiser hopes that one of the earliest acts of the new Bishop will be to reinstate Mr. Mackintosh and his congregation in their place of worship if the move can be lawfully made. Nothing would do more to make the new organization of the church respected in this community.

Mr. Osborne's case is one which is also important for fair play. Because he and the others who acquired the St. Clement's chapel property felt doubt as to the wisdom of transferring it to the control of a Bishop who might, as his followers threatened, refuse to accept the rule of the American Church and use the property as a stronghold against the jurisdiction which St. Clement's desired and expected to come under, Mr. Osborne, whom Bishop Willis had previously appointed Rector of Honolulu, was formally read out of the diocese as a schismatic. To call him and his congregation back to lead them to the open door, and to fully recognize the Christian work they have been and are doing, is a service which the religious people of Honolulu, identified with any branch of the Protestant faith, hope that the new Bishop will find it a privilege to confer. And the sooner these things are done the better.

For justice, good my Lord, All places temples and all seasons, summer.

ELECTRIC STORMS.

Honolulu had, within the last few days, some experience with electric storms, and though the lightning was frequent and perturbing it added no fatalities to the six or seven hundred cases per year which make up the death record from such causes in the United States. Scientists say that during thunder storms there is much less danger in the city than in the country. The network of wires—telephone, telegraph and electric light—and the metal in roofs, structural work and the like, relieve the electric tension and so far dissipate the energy and divide the course of the electric fluid as to make damaging strokes in the city exceedingly rare. Honolulu had such an experience a few days ago. In the midst of the earlier equinoctial downpour a bolt descended on the town; but it was caught by the overhead wires and the only result was to temporarily disable their service. Nobody was hurt and no building was set on fire.

Professor Henry of the United States Weather Bureau, has lately tabulated useful statistics in regard to lightning and its ravages which will be of interest to Honolulu at this time. He divides the territorial mainland area of the United States, for statistical purposes, into four so-called lightning belts, within whose respective limits the proportionate extent of damage varies noticeably. The one in which the maximum death rate prevails, an average of a little more than five persons to 10,000 square miles, is bounded by Illinois, the Lakes, the New England coast and Kentucky and West Virginia. In the area in which are included most of the lake region, Northern and Western Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina, the rate is a trifle lower, ranging from three to five to each 10,000 square miles. The third belt, in which greater immunity is enjoyed, includes Maine and the territory north and west of St. Paul and that in a sweep southward embraced between Denver and Memphis and including Galveston and the State of Florida. The fourth is the entire region west of Denver, wherein lightning as a destructive agent is scarcely considered, the record showing that fatal strokes average less than one to each 10,000 square miles. The statistical showing upon which Professor Henry's figures and conclusions are based covers the period between 1890 and the present. From this it appears that the country's annual death loss through lightning averages between 700 and 800. Within the limits of a single State most of the deaths in the five-year period from 1896 to 1900 occurred in Pennsylvania, where lightning killed 185. Ohio's fatality record for the same time was 135, Indiana's 124, New York's 124, and that of Illinois the same. Taking 1900 as a sample year, July may be considered the most dangerous month. Its lightning deaths numbered 202. In March there were 2; in April, 24; in May, 102; in June, 168; in August, 166; in September, 31; in October, 17, and in November, 1. Of the persons who were killed, 291 suffered the fatal stroke in the open, 158 in houses, 57 under trees and 56 in barns.

In the country comparative safety used to be found in properly-adjusted lightning rods, but so many swindlers took to the business that the use of these agencies has fallen off. Barbed wire fences commonly put up on farms, have measurably taken their place. The cause of so much mortality in the open among farming people probably has to do with the habit of field workers, when caught in a thunder storm, of going to shelter carrying hoes, scythes, axes or other metallic implements which they had been using.

JUDICIAL EXTRAVAGANCE.

The attempt of the local Circuit Court to exhaust the judicial appropriation still goes on. Lately the judges made up their minds that the chambers they officially occupy ought to be refurbished in ducal style and they have had the nerve to say that they will draw upon the public funds at their disposal to buy carpets, rugs, easy chairs and couches—particularly couches. Of course these things, if bought, will be the most costly wares of the kind in the market; and when paid for out of money wrung in taxation from people who, for a year and more past, have felt the need of strict economy, will make a wide gap in the depleted appropriation for the support and maintenance of our courts of justice throughout the Territory.

Last December this paper showed, in figures copied from the official records, how far the judicial spending conspiracy had then gone. It appeared that for the five months of the current fiscal year the total expense of the judiciary department, aside from specific salaries, was over $15,000. The total appropriation for the twenty-four months of the biennial period was but $36,000. Two-thirds of the amount had been paid out on the order of either Humphreys or Gear. At that time the First Circuit Court, mainly engaged betimes in setting criminals free, had used up more of the appropriation than the four other circuits and the Supreme Court combined. During the most of this period, only one judge at a time was sitting on the local circuit bench; and business had not been pressing enough to preclude long judicial vacations.

To put the extravagance of the present regime into clearer relief, it is necessary to make comparisons with former years. The entire appropriation for the expenses of the judiciary department for the years 1898 and 1899 was $33,000 and but $26,813.67 was drawn, leaving a balance unused of $6,186.33. Not so much was then expended in one year of the biennial period as Humphreys and Gear caused to be spent in five months.

In 1900 for the six months ending June 15th the total expense account amounted to but $4,684.78. Judge Humphreys was appointed July 5, 1900. The six months following, the expense of the entire judiciary department rose to $8,985.42. In the next six months the drafts of the judiciary department, with Humphreys as the active agent of disbursement, aggregated $13,674.31. In the effort to make the people's money go the faster, juries have been kept on the pay roll for two weeks doing nothing; and now comes the scheme, redolent of judicial indecency, to turn the chambers of the court into costly drawing rooms. It should be added that, since the period of five months mentioned above, the scale of expenditure has been in a corresponding ratio.

The object of all this extravagance is to force the Governor to call an extra session of the Home Rule Legislature. The political judges want that calamity to visit the taxpayers so as to secure for themselves and their heeled such leverage of patronage as would follow the erection of city and county governments. If the treasury can be depleted they believe that the Governor will have to ask the Legislature to provide more money; and if that body comes together, it can be manipulated, as it was before, by the political court. Happily for the well-being of Hawaii, Governor Dole will not yield a single inch, though it is a misfortune that he cannot go further and compel the circuit judges to observe the spirit of their oaths.

Contractor Fred Harrison yesterday resumed work on the addition to the buildings of the Honolulu Brewery, as the arrival of the iron will enable the work to be pushed to completion. The building will be three stories high and will have concrete floors.

The Fort street circuit street are lights failed to materialize last night, practically leaving the business district in darkness. Suburban residents are complaining about cattle and bread wagons cutting up the sidewalks during the rainy season.

MRS. WILCOX'S SOCIETY NOTES

Prince Kalaniana'ole is 29 years old. Delegate Wilcox is still the Queen's guest.

Mr. Ella Long will return to Honolulu in June for a short visit.

We hope that Admiral Merry will not leave these shores yet.

Secretary David Kalaokalani, Jr., and Mrs. Kalaokalani are enjoying themselves at the Capitol, and they are both in good health.

The High Chiefess Elizabeth Kekaa-nauokalani and Princess Eva Kuwanilimamao will soon leave for Washington, D. C., by the China.

G. Kunst, the capitalist, returned to Honolulu once more by the Sierra. He will stay here about three months then he will proceed to Germany for a visit.

Mrs. Robert W. Wilcox received a letter by the Ventura from the President, Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States.

Hon. Robert W. Wilcox is out to Congress by this time, as he was only waiting for a very fine day to go out as the weather is beautiful there now, so he must be attending to his Congressional duties by this time.

Mrs. Russel, Senator Russel's wife, left by the Kinau for her beautiful home at Mountain View, Hilo. The French consul, and the Portuguese consul, and Mrs. Robert Wilcox and Miss Cramer, and Mr. and Miss Whitney were down to bid her farewell, and covered Mrs. Russel with leis of aloha, fair Hawaii's gift.

Hon. Paul R. Isenberg is a popular man and is a very kind man. We remember very well that it was on a Thursday, in July 15, 1890, the employees of the Hawaiian Hotel Stables presented him with a very handsome horse as a token of the esteem in which they held him. Now it is pleasant to note the existence of such pleasant feelings between employer and employe, and we rejoice to see that he is a member of the Board of Health.

Our prison seems to be in excellent sanitation. We were led to think so, on meeting one or two former native acquaintances who had fallen into the clutches of the law and lost their liberty. When we saw them, just before their retirement to engage in public service and last shook hands with them we remember distinctly a nervous flabby touch to their hands, as of men somewhat run down and a fit candidate for a hospital; but when we met them again a few days ago we were taken by surprise by reason of the firm, nervy, vice-like grip we received at the hands of these same men. They were built up with a new physique and had evidently been living under healthy conditions.

HE LOSES HIS COAT

Why a Sneak Thief Is Not to Be Prosecuted.

Last week a visitor had a dark blue serge coat stolen from his room.

The thief, a sailor called "Cockey," was seen leaving the visitor's room by a well known resident; and two other sailors saw the thief sell the coat to a native for $1.50.

The seaman know the ship the thief is on and his nick name.

The visitor accompanied by two witnesses stated his case to the police, an officer taking down particulars.

The visitor was told to swear out a warrant, necessitating over a month's stay in Honolulu until the case could be heard.

The visitor can, therefore, either remain in Honolulu and be the means of two seamen losing their berths, or lose his coat.

He elects to lose his coat.

Somebody lacked a nickel last night to buy salted peanuts of the prevalent slot-machine, but a Chinaman, who stood near by said that he could fix it. Taking a nickel he put it in the slot and began working the lever in a way to bring a continuous shower of peanuts. When everybody had a handful the machine was permitted to rest on its losses.

Rheumatism

Is a rack on which you need not suffer long.

It depends on an acid condition of the blood, which affects the muscles and joints, causes inflammation and pain, and results from defective digestion and a torpid action of the liver, kidneys and skin.

Sciatica, lumbago and stiff neck are forms of it.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of rheumatism. I was so I could not lift anything and my knees were so stiff I could hardly get up or down stairs. Since taking three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I have never felt a symptom of rheumatism, and I gladly recommend Hood's for this disease." Mrs. HATTIE TURNER, Bolivar, Mo.

BACK FROM SETTLEMENT

Return of the Committee Sent to Investigate Leper Charges.

Attorney-General Dole and the members of the special committee of the Board of Health, which went to Molokai Monday evening to investigate the death of the native on charges preferred by Ambrose Hutchinson, returned to Honolulu in the steamer Lehua shortly before midnight last night. The members are non-communicative as to the results of the investigation, refusing to divulge anything regarding the case until the transcript of the evidence is made up by the stenographer.

The party which was taken to Kalaupapa consisted of Attorney-General Dole, Superintendent of the Leper Settlement C. B. Reynolds, Dr. W. L. Moore, Dr. J. S. E. Pratt, Executive Officer of the Board of Health; Judge Luther W. Wilcox, District Magistrate for Honolulu and Hawaiian Interpreter; Dan H. Case, Stenographer; Brother Lawrence and Dr. A. M. Smith. The vessel arrived at Kalaupapa yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, and the party landed at the Settlement at daylight. After breakfasting, the committee repaired to the court-house, and by 3 o'clock the taking of the testimony began.

The case was that of one of the lepers whom the complainants allege was cast into the Settlement jail and left without proper care until his sores festered, the neglect ultimately causing his death. Ambrose Hutchinson and about twenty others were brought before the committee, and their testimony will fill up about 100 pages of typewritten transcript.

A short recess was taken at noon, and the committee took the opportunity to visit the hospital, the home, the taro patches, which are conducted by the superintendent, and other places of interest. No complaints were lodged with the committee by the lepers. After completing the taking of testimony, the committee embarked again on the Lehua shortly after 4 o'clock for Honolulu.

MYSTIC LODGE RECEIVES SWORD

Sir Knight J. A. Hassinger Presents Pythians With Souvenir.

Mystic Lodge No. 2, K. of P., last evening received a most valuable souvenir in the shape of a sword which has not only the intrinsic value of a dress arm of beauty and worth, but the extrinsic weight of peculiar associations of Hawaii, as well as of the Order. The sword reaches the lodge through Mr. Robert B. Booth, the gift coming from John A. Hassinger, Past Chancellor of the lodge, and one of the oldest Knights in the Islands.

The sword, which is practically of the shape of the Knight's side arms, with the straight handle, is a thing of remarkable beauty. The handle is inlaid with pearl and bound with gold, while the scabbard is made entirely of the latter material. Many years ago the weapon was loaned to the lodge by Mr. Hassinger, and has been used by its officers in the initiation of many Knights. It was taken by the lodge to Wailuku fourteen years ago, when Aloha Lodge was instituted, and will make the journey soon again when the new temple is dedicated. The history of the sword is set forth in the following letter from Mr. Hassinger, which was read in lodge last evening:

Honolulu, March 31st.
Robert B. Booth, Honolulu Knight:—The sword which I now confide to you was presented to me by the retiring staff of his majesty, Kamehameha IV, in 1864, shortly after that king's death. The staff consisted of Majors Dominis, Spalding and McIbbsen, and it was given me in token of pleasant associations with the old "Honolulu Rifles," of which Kamehameha IV was honorary colonel, and of which I had been for some years a lieutenant and latterly a captain.

I loaned the sword to Mystic Lodge No. 2, K. of P., during the earlier years of its work, and as the scabbard became somewhat dented during this use, the Knights had it put in the best possible repair before they returned it to me.

I have prized it, not so much for its intrinsic value as for its association with pleasant memories of the past. And I now ask that you will request Mystic Lodge to accept it as a slight token of my appreciation of the many acts of Knightly courtesy I have received from them during the years gone by.

It may again be of service to the brethren in the ceremonies of the lodge, and as a symbol of Knightly honor, I feel that I cannot leave it in better hands.

Who knows but that it may become the nucleus of a collection of relics in our lodge, which, if increasing as time rolls on by contributions from the brethren, may in after years be as highly valued by its membership as the trophies that adorned the Castle Halls of Knighthood in the olden time.

Fraternally, in F. C. and B.,
JOHN A. HASSINGER, P. C.

After the presentation of the sword and letter by Sir Knight Booth, Mystic Lodge accepted the gift and appointed a committee of three, composed of Messrs. Towse, Meyers and Moore, to draft a letter of appreciation and place it in the hands of Mr. Hassinger.

The expressions were that there will be a great attendance of the Knights at Wailuku when the celebration of the new temple dedication takes place, the middle of the month.

MAY KEEP DREIER OFF THE BALLOT

Ruler. Mr. Robertson suggested that action be taken first before the Secretary, and that failing to change his mind, there be something done in the courts at once. This course was decided upon.

When the Fourth district committee met last evening Chairman Gear and Kennedy reported to the committee and others present. The former thought there should be no delay in inaugurating the fight and the latter, while of opinion that there might be some effect upon the general political position, in that the Home Rulers might take it that there was persecution of one of their candidates, submitted to the majority. Lorrin Andrews said that if there was to be a fight it should be made at once, and the status of similar contests made plain. There was a vote taken and the two chairmen were authorized to get down to work immediately so that there might be an answer within a few days.

That it will take a hard fight is certain, for August Dreier has said that he will not permit the loss of the District through any fault of his, and the Republicans will make a hot campaign. In fact, the plans are already making which will engage the attention of every voter from this time to the eve of the election day. There will be two meetings a day. The first two this evening will be made a feature. They will be open air meetings. The first in point of interest is expected to be that at the corner of Queen and South streets, Kewalo. The chairman of that meeting, which will be held in the open air, will be Enoch Johnson. The speakers will be: William Olepau, Keohokii, Lorrin Andrews, Senator W. C. Achi, W. J. Coelho and Hon. Jonah Kumalae. The second meeting will be that at the lot opposite the Moana hotel, Waikiki. The meeting will be under the control of J. Maniis Kaneakua and the talkers are to be Daniel Kakaha, G. A. Davis, E. Towse, W. W. Harris and Hon. J. W. Kekii.

There will be noon meetings held at the docks each day, so that the longshoremen may be reached. There will be a general discussion of the interests of the Territory and stress will be laid upon the Home Rule mistakes. There will be one speaker who will devote his time to a denial of the charge that the Republican party wants to disfranchise the Hawaiians. W. C. King, of the Registration Committee, is trying to secure the names of voters who have moved recently.

The Home Rulers are preparing to make a fight for the honor of the seat, and Chairman Kaula proposes to make number of speeches this week covering the district from Kakaako to Waikiki and Mollili.

RENJES WITHOUT ANY ALLEGIANCE

He Had no Citizenship Either Here or at Home.

Unless he has taken steps which have not come to the hearing of his old friends here, Mr. H. Renjes, for many years in the firm of F. A. Schaefer & Company, who returned to Germany nearly three years ago, is a man without a country, with all the attendant difficulties of such political condition.

The fact was brought out recently by the development that August Dreier had gone before Judge Estee for the purpose of becoming an American citizen, and that he had explained this from the fact that Renjes had found some difficulties in Germany. The fact that Mr. Renjes was in plikiia was brought out in a letter to a friend here, some time ago. At that time Mr. Renjes said that he found that it would have been better for him if he had become an American citizen while here. He said further that he had applied to an American consul in Germany, but there existed no way in which he could secure an allegiance through such an official.

Mr. Renjes came to Hawaii nearly thirty years ago. He spent more than twenty-five years in this country, under Kingdom, Provisional Government and Republic, finally leaving while the annexation was in the transition period, without having ever fore sworn allegiance to Germany. Yet even this would not have robbed him of his flag had he made a declaration before the consul of his country. But even that formality he neglected and down to the time of his departure he gave no thought to his political condition. He supposed he had a country, but it was not so, for just as the Organic Act made citizens of the United States all who had been citizens of Hawaii under any form of government, a law of his native land had withdrawn from him citizenship in that country.

Ten years is the limit of absence from the soil of Germany, either the home footing or that which is taken in the office of the consul, during which German citizenship may be preserved. There must be in case of continued absence of a citizen, a registration in the office of the consul where the citizen resides, which is equivalent to residence in a German possession.

All formalities being neglected in the case of Mr. Renjes, he found himself at the end a man without a flag, and so lamented the fact that he was not an American citizen after his years of residence away from his native land. However, the regaining of citizenship in Germany is much easier than its loss, and Mr. Renjes may return to his early allegiance when he wishes.

HOLTS MUST GO TO THE COURTS

Wahiawa Company Not Ready to Give Up Its Leases.

Nothing but the law seems in sight for the Wahiawa Sugar Company, as the meeting of the corporation held yesterday at the office of the legal representatives of the Holt interests was fruitless of settlement. There was a fairly well attended meeting of the stockholders and the discussion of the affairs of the corporation was quite heated.

The representatives present in person or by attorney were John D. Holt, Sr.; John Emmeluth, Dr. Nichols and William M. Cunningham. The former, through Attorneys Andrews, Peters & Andrade, urged the surrender of the leases on the lands of the company, which had been secured from the former. The point was made that the rentals had not been paid and that there was a debt of taxes on the lands which must be met, while there seemed no chance that the prosecution of the corporation was to be carried on at this time.

To this course some of the stockholders objected. John Emmeluth was agreeable to such a course, as it seemed impossible to carry on the plans for the working of the plantation. The others urged that the stockholders should hold on to the lands for a time to see if something would turn up. The result was that the meeting adjourned without the accomplishment of anything in the peaceful settlement of the affairs of the corporation.

This leaves the estate, as the owners of the land under lease, with a chance for a law suit. The attorneys say there is no way in which they may hope to secure control of the land without such suit, and this course will be followed if there is no other course taken by the plantation company very soon. It was further stated that there were against the lands three years' taxes, which must be met by the owners of the land and this coupled with the failure of revenues from the holdings, would make the losses of the Holts quite considerable. The fact that there seems to be no development in sight makes it further necessary for the owners, according to the attorneys, to take steps for the recovery of their land that they may have opportunity to place it in shape to earn them a return.

Mothers and Teachers.

The Mothers' and Teachers' Club of Honolulu will meet at the Punahou Preparatory School on Friday at 3 p. m. The subject of a discussion to be led by Mr. French and Miss Flora Albright, is Children's Reading. The questions for solution are:

1. Is the meeting together of mothers and teachers for mutual helpfulness to be ideal or practical? Will you aid its practical fulfillment by your presence and help?
 2. How is the pernicious principle that something can be gotten for nothing, or for the stealing, encouraged in most of the homes of Honolulu?
- What can the Mothers' and Teachers' Club do to establish the right principle that all worthy attainments are gained by self-respecting effort? Please bring your answers to the meeting.

son, is now on its ninth annual tour of the Coast, and this fact in itself is as high recommendation for the merit of the performances as could be offered. There is no company today which is more popular with the masses of theater goers than the Elleford Company, no troupe is looked forward to with such eager anticipation. The company this season is almost identically the same as the last, and the productions are kept up to the highest standard by Manager Elleford. Fifteen tons of scenery and properties in excess of the amount of baggage allowed by the steamship company, is carried. The company numbers twenty people, besides the two clever children, Baby Lillian and Little Evelyn. "A Man of Mystery" will be the opening play. Its sole mission is to amuse. Every play presented during the stay of the Elleford Company will receive special attention in regard to scenery and detail. The sale of seats are now ready, 25, 50 and 75 cents are the prices.

 According to reports received by F. A. Schaefer from Hamakua, Hawaii, the rainfall from March 1 to March 29 was at Honokaa, 41.75 inches; at Kukuihaele, 46.92 inches.
 Mrs. S. B. Rose was seriously injured Saturday evening by being run over by a surrey in which were two ladies and two gentlemen. Mrs. Rose sustained a fracture of two ribs.
 Thirteen frames of steel and wood for bridges will be shipped to Hawaii today from the Department of Public Works. The bridges are to be used to replace those washed out by the recent storms on the big Island.
 Acting Governor Cooper intends to go to Hilo on the next trip of the Kinau to investigate land matters on Hawaii. There are quite a number of homestead applications which have been held up until a personal inspection can be made.
 Captain Berger is preparing an estimate of expenses for a trip of the band to Maui. If the trip is not too costly the band will leave here April 15th for Lahaina and give concerts en route to Wailuku, where it will play for the opening of the Knights of Pythias hall.
 Jared Smith, president of the Farmers' Institute, is arranging for another institute, to be held a week from Saturday at the Wahiawa colony. On April 15th he leaves for Hilo and will inaugurate a second institute among the farmers of that vicinity. Interesting programs are being arranged for the meetings.
 Prince and Princess Kawanakoa entertained yesterday evening at a dinner given at the Hawaiian Hotel. The dinner was served on the Ewa lanai, the decorations being quite elaborate. The guests were Col. and Mrs. Samuel Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, Miss Campbell, Miss Chrystal, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McClanahan and Mr. Cunha.
 The fact that the new cable of the telephone company which was stretched out King street has been working badly, has caused no end of trouble and the superintendent yesterday located the pillbox. It was found at a point in front of the Kawaihoo seminary, where the cable had cracked. The cable was stripped and will be thoroughly repaired.
 High Sheriff Brown was notified yesterday of what was supposed to have been a murder at Kau, Hawaii. A native named Kaimana is the alleged victim, and according to the letter, had been killed by administering a slow poison through the medium of opium, the use of which he was addicted. The deceased was a witness in the Wong Kul murder case, and to this the authorities at Kau attribute his sudden unexplainable death. The stomach of the man has been placed in the hands of Prof. Shorey for chemical analysis.

And we want you to come and see how good all of our Soda Water beverages are this season. Bring your friends along with you, too.

We hope that you will not forget that there is a difference in the materials used at different fountains. We always serve the best quality of syrups and cream that can be had anywhere. This is what gives to our soda water the delicious "something" which we often hear described by the expression, "well now, there's something to that drink." Experts call it the "body" of a drink. We wish that you would notice this particular feature when next you are drinking at our Fountain.

THE PROPOSED NEW LOCAL CLUB

Initial Steps Taken Last Evening at Kapiolani Estate Office.

The preliminary steps toward the organization of the proposed young men's club were taken last evening at a meeting held in the office of the Kapiolani estate, on Kaahumanu street, where a committee on organization, consisting of seven, was appointed. This committee also includes sub-committees on finance, constitution and by-laws, and site, and a report therefrom will be submitted at a meeting to be held on Friday, April 11.

Last night's meeting was attended by about twenty-five out of the hundred or so persons who have signified their desire to become members of the proposed club, and enthusiasm over the project was apparent in all the business transacted. Prince Cupid Kalaniana'ole presided.

One of the most important features of the meeting was the discussion on site. The sentiment seemed to be in favor of a site which was central, where the members could drop in without having to go to any distance from the downtown district. It was stated that the success of the club depended largely upon a central location, as a large daily average attendance would be the best barometer of the club's ultimate success. Three or four sites are under consideration. One is on King street, near the Atherton residences, another on Alakea street above the Pacific Club, and a third on Hotel street, near the library. The committee on organization, as appointed, is as follows: Prince Cupid Kalaniana'ole, chairman; J. H. Boyd, J. F. Colburn, C. A. Long, A. G. M. Robertson, M. Keohokaloie and Wm. Blaisdell.

KOHALA WILL ISSUE BONDS

This Plan Followed for the Payment for New Pumps.

At an adjourned meeting of the Kohala Plantation Company it was decided that the corporation should issue bonds to the amount of $150,000, for the purpose of paying for the pumping plant which was installed two years ago. The authorization was given for the making of an issue of $300,000, but only the amount named will be issued and the remainder kept in the treasury for future contingencies. The election of officers resulted as follows: S. C. Allen, president; M. P. Robinson, vice president; H. Waterhouse, secretary; J. B. Atherton, treasurer; C. M. Cooke, auditor. There was no further business owing to the consideration of the reports at the prior meeting of the corporation.

THE NEGRO AND INDIAN

What Education is Doing For Them.

MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S BOARD

Mrs. C. B. Dyke Reads an Interesting Paper—Reports of Local Missions.

The Woman's Board of Missions held its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, at 2:30 in the Sunday school room of Central Union Church, the attendance being quite large. There were a number of interesting reports on the missionary work being done in Honolulu, especially among the Hawaiians and Japanese.

Mrs. Dyke's address was entitled "Educational Work of the American Missionary Association," although she stated that this title restricted many points of educational development she desired to present. The main object of developing an uncivilized race was to substitute the ideals of the civilized race for those of the uncivilized, and thus raise the standard of the latter.

Throughout the South there were 154 industrial schools and 16,000 pupils. As to the Indians, Mrs. Dyke found that their education was a different matter. Their ideals were different, for the ideal of the Indian was to be a warrior. As an educated Indian he assumed different ideals, but he was hampered in their development by the hostile attitude of his people.

Sore Throat and Bronchial Troubles

A sore throat is the beginning of a dangerous ailment—it is the beginning of an ailment that will end in death unless it is checked in the beginning, and there is only one medicine that will check a sore throat, only one medicine that you can take to get immediate relief and prevent a serious illness, and that is Dr. Halpruner's Wonderful Medicine, a medicine that is prescribed and compounded to cure sore throat, and cure it at once; a medicine that will cure it, because it is made right, made to act on the afflicted parts. It will drive out the pain and allay the inflammation.

Inflammation is the cause of nearly all our troubles, and Halpruner's drives out inflammation like water puts out fire. If you have a sore throat send to your druggist and get a bottle of Halpruner's Wonderful Medicine and rub it into the throat and chest well—rub it until the throat burns, until you know the medicine has penetrated deeply, and then take a couple of teaspoonfuls in a glass of milk or water every two or three hours, and it will be only a short matter of time until your sore throat will disappear entirely.

In bronchial troubles more continuous treatments are required, but it will eventually give you the cure you seek. All druggists sell Halpruner's Wonderful Pain Remover—50c and $1 a bottle—the $1 size contains three times the quantity of the small size. But demand the genuine

VESSEL ARRIVES FROM NEWCASTLE

Barkentine Mary Winkleman Here. An Unknown Schooner Stayed Outside.

The American barkentine Mary Winkleman, Captain B. G. Guttorsen, arrived yesterday morning after a trip of 58 days from Newcastle. She brought a cargo of 856 tons of coal, consigned to Alexander & Baldwin. Captain Guttorsen's wife and three children are on board the barkentine, and thoroughly enjoyed the trip, despite its length. Fine weather prevailed all the way, and the voyage was unmarked by any unusual happening. The Winkleman anchored in the stream. Early in the afternoon a four-masted schooner was sighted, and there was considerable speculation as to what she was. Opinions seemed to be pretty equally divided between the Nokomis, Captain Hansen, 22 days out from Oyster Harbor, and the Alumna, Captain Larsen, 56 days out from Newcastle, both American schooners due here. The vessel did not come in last night, so the question of her identity remained unsolved. Last night "Diamond Head" Charley telephoned that he thought that the schooner was the Alumna, for the reason that her rails looked to him to be new, the Alumna being a new vessel. He also formed his conclusion on the score of size, the Alumna being of 644 tons burden and the Nokomis 462 tons.

GOT LEFT AND LOST HIS MONEY

The American ship Mary L. Cushing, Captain McNeill, sailed for Port Townsend in ballast yesterday morning. She had the honor of being the vessel longest in port, having arrived on February 22. Previous to her departure, the ship's cabin boy, a Japanese, was sent down town to fetch some laundry. The youth from the Orient lingered too long, having evidently fallen a victim to the seductions of a last long good time, and when he arrived at the waterfront his vessel was somewhere near the spar buoy. He nearly yelled his lungs out trying to attract the attention of some one on board and soon had a crowd of curious ones around him wondering what on earth he was making such an unseemly uproar about. Between intervals of bawling he explained that all his belongings, including $150 in gold, were on the ship, and that reach her he must if he had to swim. Presently one of his little brown countrymen with an eye to business approached and asked what it was worth to spanpan him out to the vessel. The unfortunate cabin boy named five dollars as an equitable consideration but the owner of the sampan raised him twenty dollars and as the other refused to come in on the raise, all bets were declared off and a very dejected looking Jap remained on the wharf and sadly watched the Mary L. Cushing recede into the dim distance and finally disappear from view.

CHINESE BRIDE BOARDS STEAMER

Just as the W. G. Hall was sailing for Kauai yesterday afternoon a hack drove up to the Inter-Island wharf, decorated with crimson cloth and having two huge Chinese lanterns attached to the regulation lamp sockets. In the hack were two Chinese ladies, a mother and her daughter. The latter had just got married and was going to join her husband, who was already on board the steamer, which was to bear them away on their honeymoon. The bride was evidently a member of the Oriental bon ton, for her feet were so small that she could only walk with extreme difficulty. The quality and coloring of her raiment also proclaimed her one of Chinatown's four hundred. After the custom of her race, her face was covered with a crimson cloth and she was led up the gangplank of the steamer practically blindfolded. The two lanterns were also carried aboard. The scene was witnessed with interest by a number of people on the wharf, who, perhaps for the first time, saw a Chinese bride going aboard.

The following took passage on the W. G. Hall, which sailed at 5 p. m. for Koloa, Nawiliwili, Eleele and Hanalei. Miss Chung Sen, Miss Ah Sow, Dung Wah Quan, C. W. Spitz, M. Rosenblatt, J. McArthur, C. H. W. Ahl, W. F. Dods, Anna Kaloala, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Dr. Hutchinson, C. Gay, Ah Chew, Miss H. Sorenson.

Will Be in On Time.

The Kinau sailed for Hilo and way ports at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Her departure was delayed four hours in order to enable her to take some Japanese laborers on board who only passed quarantine yesterday afternoon. Despite her lateness of sailing she is expected to arrive here about 1 p. m. on Saturday as usual. Among her passengers were: A. R. Loebenstein, L. T. Kenake, F. B. McStocker, J. S. McCandless and L. R. Crook. The latter came from Maui two weeks ago to compete in the sprints at the Boys' Brigade field day. He had to return yesterday on account of pressure of business. Secretary H. E. Cooper was booked as a passenger on the Kinau, but postponed the trip for a week.

MAUNA LOA AND NOEAU ARRIVE

The Inter-Island Steamers Bring Passengers and Sugar From Other Islands.

The Mauna Loa arrived from Hawaii and Maui at 6 a. m. yesterday. She brought the following passengers: G. C. Hewitt, D. J. Cashman, Miss C. Nelson, L. Hoyt, S. Lisser, From Kona—S. M. Damon, A. W. Bottomley, Rev. Timoteo and wife, J. Shibayama, J. Kaulukou, Sam Kanihao, Father John. From Maalaea—W. H. Cornwell, Mrs. W. Cornwell, Miss B. Borba, G. Schreider, Rev. W. Ault, A. C. Warner, A. Enos and wife, D. C. Heger, A. Meyer. From Lahaina—Miss R. Hayselden, J. Lando, J. N. Garves, Rev. A. B. Weymouth and 49 deck. Her cargo consisted of 5585 bags sugar, 80 bags coffee, 122 bags taro, 47 bags awa, 215 bunches bananas, 2 bales tobacco, 29 kegs butter, 19 bundles hides, 4 pigs, 30 head cattle, 172 packages sundries. Purser Simerson reported a fair trip, with lots of rain along the Kau coasts. No communication could be obtained with Honokaa. The schooner Eclipse was at Hailua when the Mauna Loa arrived. The H. A. Co. has 9000 bags of sugar ready and the H. S. Co 8000 bags. The steamer Noeau got in from Kukulhaele an hour before the Mauna Loa. Passengers on her were Miss Jordan and Mr. Louisson. She brought 3773 bags of sugar. The Walaleale was at Honokaa loading sugar, and probably left for Honolulu last night. The weather has not been good on the Hamakua coast and a heavy swell has been running in at the landings, making it hard for boats to load and unload. Rain fell off and on during the week at Hamakua.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The steamer Mikahala is due from Makaweli today. The Claudine sailed for Maui ports at 5 p. m. yesterday. The steamer J. A. Cummins arrived from Koolau ports about 8 o'clock last night. The adjourned annual meeting of the I. I. S. N. Co. will be held April 14, at 10 a. m. The Lehua, with the Board of Health investigation committee on board, is expected back from Molokai this morning. The Globe Navigation Company's steamer Tampico sailed for Eleele, Makaweli and Kahului at 4:30 yesterday afternoon.

OPINIONS ON HAWAII

Hartford Courant's View of Dole's Enemies.

The following is from the Hartford Courant, the paper edited by United States Senator Hawley:

The agitation for the removal of Governor Dole of Hawaii began, in a sense, before he was appointed; it has been going on ever since, without pause or stay. Why?

That's an easy question to answer. There isn't a worthless scamp in the islands, native or imported, white, black or brown, who doesn't hate Sanford B. Dole, first, for what he is; second, for what he has done, and third, for what he has prevented and is now preventing. The son of New England missionaries, educated at Oahu and Williams College, upright lawyer and just judge, conspicuous in the successful defense of American civilization in the islands against Kalakaua and Kalaakaua's successor; head of the provisional government and president of the republic, he has been a large part of recent Hawaiian history. But for him and his friends Hawaii would not have been today an American territory. They stand for what there is of decency and stability, of intelligence and political conservatism, in those islands. Arrayed against them are all the forces of vice, disorder and greed—the semi-heathen Kanakas who haven't taken the trouble to learn English, and who would restore the monarchy and the witch doctors tomorrow if they could; the native politician, who flatters and befools these grown-up children for his own profit; the white carpet-bagger who hurried to Honolulu, after the annexation, with dreams of power and pelf in his head, and who finds Sanford B. Dole in his way. Pressure was brought to bear upon William McKinley, unsuccessfully, to restrain him from appointing Mr. Dole to the Territorial governorship. Pressure is being applied to William McKinley's successor to bring about Mr. Dole's removal, and there are some indications that it will be successful. The carpet-bag malcontents have friends in Congress and in the Republican National Committee. Of course, Mr. Dole's resignation is perfectly at the President's service. He is fifty-eight, a sick and tired man; the burdens of office have been heavy for him; he has borne them from a sense of public duty, and not because of ambition. But Sam Parker's inauguration day—if it is to come to that—will be a very serious day for the reputable Americans of Hawaii.

The politicians of the "Home Rule" party, native and imported, have a well-developed hunger for place and salary. The setting up of county and municipal governments in the islands would mean, for one thing, places and salaries by the hundred. A bill for that purpose was passed by the Territorial legislature at its recent ridiculous session. Governor Dole quietly disposed of it with a pocket veto. Another bill on the same lines now hangs in Washington. Its passage would signify something much more serious than the multiplying of petty offices and emoluments. "It means," remarks the leading Honolulu newspaper, "the delivery of the public and to a large extent the private interests of 3000 white voters and of perhaps 1000 native and half-native voters of intelligence and capacity, constituting the owners of the property and of the business of the Hawaiian Islands, into the hands of the degraded and irresponsible section of our Polynesian race, who are so prematurely enfranchised." Unfortunately, the heedless politicians at Washington who committed that first stupid and wicked blunder are quite capable of committing another.

MUCH POLITICAL ADVICE.

The following is from the Washington Star:
President Roosevelt is receiving much information and advice relating to political and other conditions in Hawaii. It is coming in all kinds of shapes, the result of recent publications that the administration of perhaps 1000 might be overturned in favor of a new set of people. Nearly everybody in Hawaii is described as a politician. This, added to an intense political situation, causes the White House mails to be full of letters both from Hawaiians and from people in this country more or less familiar with affairs there. Members of Congress are becoming interested, and are going to the President with information and suggestions.

Pain-Killer, so justly celebrated, was introduced to the public about sixty years ago, and now enjoys a popularity unequalled by any other medicine. For the cure of dysentery, cholera morbus, rheumatism, coughs and colds, scalds, burns, etc., it is without an equal. Sold by all druggists. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25 cents and 50 cents.

COURTS ARE TAKING REST

Judges Want Fine Furnishings for Their Chambers and Register a Kick.

The Judiciary building is the quietest place in the city these days, and though all the judges are in attendance, little business is being transacted. Just at present the three Circuit Judges are busily engaged in superintending the arrangement of their chambers. Humphreys and Galbraith have been assigned to the old chambers of Justice Galbraith, and Robinson and Gear are to occupy the former chambers of Chief Justice Frear, while the remaining two justices will have their offices in the chambers of Justice Perry.

It is reported that there were some slight differences yesterday between the Department of Public Works and the Circuit Judges. The latter wanted finer furnishings, with carpets, rugs, couches and plush-bottomed, easy chairs, than the Department of Public Works was willing to supply, and it is said that the judges will order their own accoutrements in addition to the plain furnishings which formerly did good service. It appears to be another scheme to exhaust the judicial appropriation, so as to force, if possible, an extra session of the Legislature.

COURT NOTES.

C. J. Holt, guardian of Umilili and Kallea, minors, filed his first annual account yesterday, showing receipts of $173.25 and expenditures of $34.50, leaving a cash balance of $138.75.

A petition has been filed asking the appointment of C. Lai Young as administrator of the estate of Akoi.

AMENDED CHARTER.

An amended charter of incorporation was filed yesterday by the Koloa Sugar Co. The original charter was granted September 18, 1878, and amended April 22, 1898. The charter is issued to A. S. Hartwell, W. O. Smith and John N. Wright. The capital stock of the corporation is given as $500,000, with privilege of extension to $2,000,000.

IN THE MATTER OF MUDDY STREETS

Editor Advertiser: Speaking of mud, have you ever been introduced in and to the bog situation, lying and being on the Waikiki side of Fort street where Kukui street comes meandering in? If you are a denizen of upper Fort street you have done double penance during the Lenten season, and you have a speaking, if not almost a swearing acquaintance with it. It teaches patience, forbearance, long suffering, mud on earth and doubtful will toward the man who is responsible for sidewalks.

When the Japanese printing office was moved back we drew a freer breath, for deliverance seemed at hand, but it seems not, and we rise respectfully to ask, Why? After a careful and systematic study of the situation, taking it by its four corners and the middle, the experienced navigator submits the following valuable information in the name of suffering humanity who are compelled to cross the frog pond in order to gain their homes or place of business. There are three routes open, and you can take your choice. The natural course is as the crow flies, straight and narrow, a few inches between a healthy corpulent telegraph pole and the fence. This leads through a swamp of several yards in extent which you have to traverse in order to reach solid ground at the other side. Never having touched bottom there, nor taken soundings, I am not prepared to give data as to its depth, but the unwary is led to believe it extends through to the other side of the globe. The second choice before the pedestrian is on the Ewa side of the pole, directly at its feet and it has feet planted in the mud and is a bank at an incline of about 45 degrees, of a very slippery and elusive nature. By carrying the Waikiki-ward and hanging on by the eyelids, terra firma may be reached with a comparative degree of safety, but after passing the bank your troubles are only begun, for it is either take to the gutter, where a yellow little stream trickles merrily on its journey to the sea, through a broad expanse of mud, or else resume the boggy stretch by courtesy called a sidewalk. The third proposition is to take the middle of the street, where the Japanese Jehus will either spatter you with mud in their mad career or offer you up as a sacrifice on a slab at the morgue. A good way, if a business man has time, is to sit on the mauka or makai side, as the business man may be, take off his shoes and hose and pull for the shore. I would advise him, however, to scorn all these suggestions and routes, reef his trousers high and close, carry umbrellas and bundles in his teeth, consult chart and compass, and with a good stout alpenstock make a dive for the Ewa side of Fort street, which, if he is fortunate, and there are no hacks in sight, he can reach without danger to life or limb.

A ferry would do a land office business across the stretch of alleged sidewalk. This is not common, ordinary, every day, plebeian mud, but is a red, sticky, fly-papery hold-on kind that embraces your overboots with the desperation of a drowning man, and sticketh close as the brother of Holy Writ. It is trampled and marred by many foot prints, and when the smoke of the storm clears away, and the coroner can get near enough to investigate, the doleful bleaching and mouldering skeleton of many a rubber and patent leather will be found in its adhesive clutch.

A few loads of clinders, gravel, brick-bats, any old thing, would mitigate the evil and act as a soothing balm to the pedestrian, and the public would rise up and call the perpetrator blessed.

ANOTHER GERM DESTROYER.

Herpicide is Death to Dandruff Germs. The germ burrows into the scalp, throwing up the cuticle in thin scales, called dandruff, or scurf, and digging at the root of the hair where it saps the hair's vitality. First comes brittle hair, then lusterless and dead-like hair, then falling hair, and, finally baldness. Nineteenth of the hair troubles are caused by dandruff. Without dandruff, hair will grow luxuriantly, as nature intended. "Herpicide" kills the dandruff germ, leaving the hair to grow unhampered, as it does with the American red man.
