HAVE FOUND A WAY OUT

Money in Sight for the Circuit Courts.

CLAIM BAILIFFS DREW WRONG FUND

Conference With Governor Brings Result—Will Submit Case to Supreme Court.

As a result of a conference between the three circuit judges and Governor Dole a way has finally been discovered by which probably money will be obtained to carry on the courts at least until legislature meets. This is by paying back to the general expense fund, the amounts already paid to the bailiffs appointed under the Humphreys act and amounting to about $4,500, leaving that sum to be used for the general expenses of the Supreme and Circuit Courts.

It is now claimed that the bailiff act as passed by the legislature intended that the bailiffs should be paid out of a special appropriation. Instead of that the salaries of bailiffs have all along been charged to the expense account and was one of the factors in the early depletion of that fund. There is now in the hands of the treasurer $5,000 or $5,000 collected by the district magistrates which might possibly be used for the payment of the bailiffs, there being no special appropriation for the purpose by the legislature.

A demand was made upon Auditor Austin yesterday for funds from the general expense account the fact of the alleged wrongful charge of bailiff salaries against that account being set out by the judges. The Auditor stated his willingness to comply with the request upon a court order, and it was agreed that the matter should be submitted to the Supreme Court for adjudication. This will probably be done today upon an agreed statement of facts between the Auditor, and possibly some citizen to whom money is owing from the court fund. One of the jurors will very likely be pressed into service for this matter, and an opinion requested at an early date. Justice Perry is the only member of the Supreme Court now in the Territory and he will have to call in two members of the bar to sit with him in the case.

This does not include an extra bailiff which Judge Humphreys appointed for one term to assist the two regular bailiffs in preserving the dignity of his court.

The act which the judges claim makes an appropriation for the pay of bailiffs other than from the general expense fund is known as "Act 10." There is no reference in the act to an appropriation, Section 5 providing "That the bailiffs appointed under the provisions of this Act shall be paid for their services at and after the following rates, and it shall be the duty of the Auditor of the Territory to draw a warrant for the same upon the Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii upon an order so to do under the seal of the court, of any Judge of the Court, by whom any such bailiff may have been appointed, that is to say:

Table with 2 columns: Bailiff type, Rate per day/month. Includes Supreme Court bailiff, Circuit Courts bailiff, and actual service rates.

The bailiffs of the Supreme Court is specially designated in the salary appropriation, though there is nothing relating to the bailiffs of circuit courts in any of the appropriation bills. The judges contend however that it was the intention of the legislature to make these salaries also payable out of the salary appropriation, and in the absence of a specific fund for the purposes the money should be taken from any other fund in the Treasury.

THE COURT PROCEEDINGS.

When court opened yesterday morning the jurors in the case of W. Kalehaha charged with assault had taken their seats. Judge Gear asked the attorneys if there was any reason why the jury should not be discharged and both consented. The defendant objected, however, and the court announced that it could not compel the jury to sit unless the fees were paid, and that the defendant having been once in jeopardy would be discharged. "I don't know where the funds are coming from," said Judge Gear. "According to the Chief Justice it will take $15,000 to $17,000 for the next six months, and we haven't got that many cents, much less dollars. The last legislature appropriated $36,000 which was just enough for thirteen months. The Chief Justice made the estimate of the amount needed without consulting the circuit judges and both the clerk and chief justice now estimate that there should have been $60,000. The long and short of it is, that the appropriation has been exhausted and there is no way to pay jurors or incidental expenses, so the courts will have to quit. This court can't run on credit, and we can't keep the jurors away from their work without paying them. The jury impaneled in this case may refuse to work, and neither the court nor the government can compel you to serve. If you desire you can serve, but this has been once placed in jeopardy and if not tried now must be discharged."

Col. Parker asked for a few minutes to allow the jurors to consult, and they returned very soon saying they would serve. A verdict of not guilty was returned in the case.

GRAND JURY WILLING TO SERVE.

The grand jury appeared in court later and expressed a willingness to finish its labors, even though there was no compensation. Judge Gear took great pains to explain that the jurors would have to wait for their pay until after March and need not serve. To this Foreman Kluegel replied "We have talked the matter over and the jurors are perfectly willing to complete their duties. It is our wish that we be allowed to serve for the remainder of the week, as we are so near done now." The grand jury was excused until today, however, because of the illness of Mr. Douthitt.

OTHER CRIMINAL MATTERS.

In the case of Pedro Rodriguez the Cuban who was convicted a few days ago his attorney filed a motion in arrest of judgment. This Judge Gear granted, going further and setting aside the verdict of the jury and granting a new trial on the ground that his instructions were enormous. By this action the prisoner could be given his liberty on habeas corpus, having been once placed in jeopardy.

Ah Sang, a Chinese boy, was sentenced to prison for three months for larceny and laughed when the Court imposed sentence. He is only about 15 years of age, and seemed to like the sentence of the court.

WANTS HIS CHILD.

The father of Edward Taylor Miller, a minor, was yesterday granted a writ of habeas corpus upon his allegation that the boy was being wrongfully restrained of his liberty by George Opanui. A return was made in the afternoon by Opanui in which he admits having the custody of the boy and that the petitioner and his wife are the legal custodians of him. He answers further that he and his wife have furnished clothing and food for the child for four years, and that neither the petitioner nor his wife have contributed to the boy's support. Further, it is alleged that the petitioner deserted his wife, KamaKa Daniels Miller, in June, 1898, and went to California, and the wife then placed the child in the care of the respondent. It is also set out that Miller is an unfit person to have the custody of the child, because of his immoral habits and because he has no permanent home.

INSURANCE COMPANY SUED.

The Honolulu Stock Yards, Limited, yesterday filed suit against the Union Assurance Society for the sum of $5000, alleged to be due as insurance on the building of the Stock Yards Company, corner of King and South streets, which

CHINATOWN'S CAT RANKS WITH MRS. O'LEARY'S COW

Fire Inquest Jury Hears Ah Sui's Story of the Feline Which Started the Big Fire and Summons Its Owner.

The version of the cause of Monday morning's disastrous fire in Chinatown which appeared in yesterday's Advertiser, was corroborated yesterday afternoon before a fire inquest jury empaneled by High Sheriff Brown.

Ah Sui, the Hotel street butcher, whose place of business was destroyed, appeared before the jury and told the story of how a cat in a store fronting on River street had overturned a lamp and soon enveloped the building in flames. Ah Sui's statement was said to be corroborated by the Chinaman who was sleeping in the room where the cat, like Mrs. O'Leary's cow in the great Chicago fire, overturned the lamp. Ah Sui stating that his countryman had thanked him over and over again for saving his life. As this Chinaman is a very material witness to the findings of the jury, an adjournment was taken until he can be found and brought before that body.

High Sheriff Brown yesterday swore in the following jury to investigate the cause or causes of the conflagration:

- E. O. White of E. O. Hall & Son, Frank McIntyre of F. A. Schaefer & Co., E. R. Adams of Alexander & Baldwin, J. S. McCandless and Charles Gilman.

Among those who appeared before the jury were Chief Charles M. Thurston of the fire department, the driver of the chemical engine, Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, Officer Hart of the police force, who turned in the alarm, and Ah Sui. Ah Sui stated he had opened his establishment and then had gone around on River street to obtain some vegetables. While passing a store he saw a lamp which had been overturned on a counter and flames were just beginning to fill a part of the room. Ah Sui made outcries and attempted to break in the door. The mosquito netting surrounding the bed of the Chinese inmate caught fire, and this, with Ah Sui's alarm, roused the man, and he at once fled from the burning room.

That the cat escaped seems to be verified both by High Sheriff Brown and Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, who noticed on the morning of the fire a badly singed cat on River street. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth had stated to the High Sheriff at the time that the animal ought to be put out of its misery, but by the time he had made up his mind to do so the feline had disappeared. According to Ah Sui it was a gray cat. It was a gray cat that the two officers saw in the street.

Chief Thurston was asked yesterday afternoon what has caused the fire whistle of late to get out of order and blow wrong numbers, or a jumble of numbers, which cannot be deciphered. In answer he said:

"The reason is just this: The whistle blows automatically when a person opens a box and pulls down the inside hook. The number of that box sounds the gongs in the various fire stations and automatically releases the whistle. In changing from one engine to another at the electric light station, the whistle becomes filled with water from the steam, and the result is that the numbers are jumbled; but you will take note that the third time it gives out the right box number. This defect in the whistle, however, will be remedied by using a trap so that the water will have a chance to run out, thus keeping it clear. The other morning when I wanted to call every piece of apparatus to the fire I went to box 47. There is a special telegraph in the box, and by pressing the button six times, the signal in the fire stations for a general alarm, all the departments were ready to respond when they got the box number. After a ten-second wait I pulled down the lever and the gongs sounded 47, and so did the whistle, this time all right."

"I intend shortly to have some cards printed giving full instructions regarding signals. These will let the public know what the whistle is blowing for when instructions of various kinds are being sent by myself or assistants to the different stations. Six blasts means a general alarm and five blasts is a signal for all the police off duty to turn out."

MORE ABOUT MARCUS ISLAND

Out of darkness cometh light. It now appears that the mysterious island yclept Marcus, Marquis, or Marquesas, which the other day so suddenly swooped on the international horizon, swept across the orbit of the Manila Times and swam into the public's ken, is after all, plain M-a-r-q-u-e-s, without any French or Japanese trimmings. It also appears that for once the omniscient geography played us false, and strange to say, the cable played us true, and that Marcus, instead of snuggling under the wing of Honolulu, is squatted down even on our front stoop, being situated almost due north of Luzon. By these facts, much that before was dark is illumined, and we can now see how one Captain Rosehill has been granted title of possession by the United States government, and how the U. S. transport Sheridan may have called there on her way to Nagasaki. But all this, and much more, is duly set forth in the following gracious and authentic narrative, by one who may, for us, with proper courtesy be called the Columbus of Marcus Island:

Manila, July 21st, 1902.

The Editor, Manila Times:

Dear Sir:—I was rather amused while reading the leading editorial in your issue of today regarding "Marcus Island." Your deductions are far astray when you give the location as the Marquesas group.

I have visited the Marquesas group, and have also attempted a landing on Marcus Island, which is located about 300 miles west by south of Japan and is uninhabited. There is only one point on the island where a landing can be made, and even there it can seldom be accomplished.

The only value that attaches to it is the deposit of guano it contains, which is apparently limitless.

Captain Rosehill, of the bark "Koko Head," discovered the island in 1879, and attempted to land and take possession, but failed after three days' trial, on account of the roughness of the weather. He later retired from the sea and secured the position of harbormaster of Honolulu, where he succeeded in interesting Mr. Peacock, a prominent liquor merchant, and others, in his tale of the value of the island, and they fitted him out with a small schooner in which he sailed to the island and planted the American flag, and then returned to the United States, and filed an application for a concession to the phosphate (guano) privileges, and finally secured the passage of a bill through Congress granting his prayer. This was some eight or nine months ago, and he was fitting out to go to the island with the intention of erecting machinery for loading the guano into ships when I left Honolulu some three months ago.

The guano is worth $40.00 gold per ton in Honolulu for use on the sugar plantations, and the quantity the island contains would make multi-millionaires of Captain Rosehill and his backers. It is probably this knowledge which has caused Japan to attempt to take possession of the island, which was unclaimed and unknown until Captain Rosehill planted the American flag on it. Respectfully,

W. M. GITT.

From the foregoing it looks as if the question resolves itself into a subject for international discussion and lots of red tape and sealing wax. Uncle Sam will doubtless call on the Mikado to explain what he did with that little piece of bunting studded with stars and crossed with stripes, planted by Captain Rosehill. Because the island has guano droppings on it is no sign that it will be dropped.—Manila Times.

NEW ZEALAND'S MAIL CONTRACT

Statement That Colony's Parliament is Opposed to the Spreckels' Line.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, Aug. 6.—The San Francisco mail service was the subject of an important discussion in the House of Representatives today. Sir Joseph Ward, Premier of the colony, stated the government's position in the matter.

He said that the service to San Francisco through the Oceanic line should be continued, and that the colony should also join in the service to Canada via Suva. He thought that Auckland should remain as the terminal port for both lines. He would like to see the colony have a Federal service and would be prepared to submit definite proposals regarding the mail service at the next session of Parliament. The present mail contract with the Oceanic Company was for only 18 months from the last meeting of Parliament, and at the expiration of that time temporary arrangements would be made until Parliament had time to thrash out the whole matter.

Mr. Hornsby, M. P., stated that he believed the majority of Parliament was against the continuance of the mail contract with the Spreckels line.

PORTUGUESE TO TRY POLITICS

A Mass Meeting Will Be Held Thursday With Many Orators.

Portuguese interested in politics will meet Thursday evening for the purpose of listening to oratory which will have for its object the explanation of the situation and the expounding of the doctrine upon which the Political Club of the colony is formed. The plans as at present outlined promise a large meeting and the outlook is for a gathering which will show the interest felt in the subject by the citizens.

The meeting is called for 8 o'clock and will be held in San Antonio Hall, in Vineyard street, where the club holds its regular gatherings. The speaking will be done in both the Portuguese and English languages and there will be some of the best orators in the entire colony put forward to speak for the young men of the race.

The Rev. J. F. Durao, the Portuguese orator, will be one of the principal speakers, using his native tongue. J. M. Vivas and M. A. Silva likewise will speak in Portuguese. Frank Andrade will make the principal address in English, he to be followed by M. C. Pacheco. The prospects are for a large meeting of the voters of the colony.

WILL POLL THE VOTERS

The Fourth District Republicans Active.

COMMITTEE IS TO MAKE CANVASS

Aided by Precinct Club Officers All Eligible Electors Will Be Listed.

If systematic work will accomplish results the Republicans of the Fourth District will deserve success, for the executive committee of the District committee has decided that active operations shall begin at once. The meeting of the committee last evening at headquarters was attended by every member but one, and that man is out of the city.

The only real work done by the committee was a decision that the polling of the voters of the district must be made at once. The first point to be met in the estimation of the committee is the registration period, and the list of voters which it is desired to secure at this time will be used in the checking of registry lists, when the books are opened for the making of a new record of eligible voters. The registration will be watched very closely this year and the committee's first step will be the securing of this poll by a canvass of the voting population.

For the purpose of making the work as complete as possible upon motion it was decided to ask the executive committees of the various precinct clubs to work with the District committee in this preliminary. It is the intention to secure immediate action by the clubs so that there may be no time lost in finding out just how the voters of the eastern end of the island stand. Missionary work among the electors who are not Republicans will follow the listing of all, but this will be the subject of future conferences, as it is the intention of the committee to devote its energies to one subject at a time.

The canvass will be made complete and the lists once in hand will be preserved for the personal work of the clubs later in the campaign. There was a deal of enthusiasm developed at the meeting and the members expressed the opinion that the work of the campaign would be pushed along rapidly as soon as the candidates were named. FIFTH DISTRICT REPUBLICANS.

After many caucuses the first regular meeting of Republicans for the consideration of matters which may be brought before the Territorial convention, in the way of recommendations as to platform, will be that of the Fifth District committee, which is to be held Monday evening next at headquarters.

It is probable that there will be several other matters than platform planks come before the meeting. For some days, and after frequent conferences, it has been the suggestion of some of the members of the committee that there be called such a meeting for the purpose of ascertaining the feeling of the members as to the proper course to follow in the matter of the senatorships.

There are now four men mentioned for the nominations. It is hoped that there will be two nominations given to the fifth, but if there is to be only one the members of the committee think they should come together and decide upon some course in common. It is the plan to decide as to the candidate and then stick by him through the meeting of the nominating convention. With Achil, Lane, McCandless and Huddy in the field the committeemen realize that they must be a unit if they expect to be able to get any share of the nominations.

It is understood that the friends of Lane and Huddy are making the move for a settlement of the question in this way, and that they have secured proxies from out of town members that give them hopes of being able to absolutely snow under Achil.

Of the several fights in the district that of Lane has met with the greatest change recently. It may be said to have received a black eye, owing principally to the fact that it has become the gossip of the members of the Fourth District committee that Lane is guided entirely by the advice of McCants Stewart, and having become rid of that element in the party, there is no liking for any chance that it may get back.

This expression was given recently during a caucus, and it is understood that it will require all the tact of Norman Gedde of the Fourth Precinct, to hold his fellow delegates in line for the ticket which is now most in favor

Free Trade and Some Other Things Needed.

Mr. C. O. Ziegenfuss, formerly of Honolulu, but now one of the owners of a Manila newspaper, arrived in Honolulu yesterday on his way to the Coast in the Gaelic. He has been ill for four months and was ordered to leave cholera infected Manila by his doctor. He expects to return to Manila shortly. Mr. Ziegenfuss has a lot to say of the Philippines.

"What we need in the Philippines today," he says, "is for America to say that she will hold the islands and make American territory of them, that she will give us land and mining laws, will build railways and canals, and give us all the American laws that would fit local conditions. If that were done the Philippines would soon become the most prosperous of America's possessions."

"We want free trade with America," continued Mr. Ziegenfuss. "The war has now completely subsided and there are only some fourteen or fifteen thousand American troops remaining in the islands. There is no reason why the country should not make enormous strides in a commercial way if America would adopt some settled policy regarding their future. We have great resources to develop. Hemp and tobacco will be our main interest and the coal and timber trade of the islands is likely to be extensive. There is a great deal of valuable wood there. I have seen specimens of over eighty kinds of fine hardwood. Our rubber interests are large and the copra trade will always be a large one."

"Manila is now lively in a trade way but her business interests have been reduced some twenty-five per cent by America's inaction and the cholera. The latter was raging when I left and the natives and Orientals seem indifferent to all sanitary measures to check its ravages. Because of the cholera a five days quarantine has now been placed on all vessels engaged in the inter-island trade and this has of course given business a severe set back."

"Manila now contains some three hundred thousand people. Of this number there are probably some ten thousand Americans, not including those in the army. Among the leading business firms of Manila there are twelve large American establishments, six big English firms, a number of German, three large Swiss concerns, and a large number of French, Russian, and Spanish business houses, with the Spaniards largely controlling the tobacco trade. There are several American banking concerns but more are needed. We need more American business men there and they would come along quickly if the United States Congress would define clearly the position that the country will be placed in."

"America cannot afford to lose the islands. I consider that their acquisition has already been of enormous advantage to America. Our prestige with foreign nations has been increased and their possession places us in a position to fairly control the larger part of the destinies of the Orient."

Mr. Ziegenfuss says that his paper is booming. He will make arrangements while in America for a new press and other needed improvements in his office. He expects to spend a couple of weeks in Honolulu on his return from the Coast.

Experiments of a German Specialist Arouse the Medical World.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Experiments in the treatment of leprosy are being conducted at the Medical Missionary society's hospital at Canton by Dr. Adolph Rezag, a noted specialist of Vienna. United States Consul McWade, at Canton, has forwarded a preliminary report to the Secretary of State which was furnished him by Dr. Swan of the hospital staff. The report says:

"After carefully considering the matter and obtaining the approval of our board of hospital managers to lend Dr. Rezag what aid we could we have admitted three marked cases of leprosy into an isolated room and have given the doctor what aid we could in providing suitable conditions for the treatment of these cases. Every precaution has been taken against infection from these cases which in twenty-four hours' time have begun to show signs of improvement."

"From Dr. Rezag's intelligent methods of treatment and the enthusiasm he shows in the management of these cases, I am led to believe that gratifying results will be obtained. I may add that one or two physicians will be associated with myself in the observations made in connection with these cases also that there are no secret or proprietary remedies used, or any methods of treatment followed that would be in the least detrimental to the welfare of the patient. Pictures have been taken of the three cases now under treatment and it is said that a full report will be made of these and other cases that are likely to come under treatment to a general medical congress which meets a few months hence, in Vienna. Later on I shall be pleased to report to you more fully what has actually been accomplished. The self denying efforts of Dr. Rezag freely made on behalf of a class of people subject to a living death are, I think, worthy of admiration and support and we shall be pleased to further his efforts in any way that we can."

PUBLIC CARETAKER IS LOSING SLEEP

Referring to the statement made in an evening paper regarding the alleged dangerous walls of the remains of the stockyards building, L. de L. Ward, treasurer of the company, says: "Some public caretaker seems to be losing sleep over the Honolulu Stock Yards Co.'s affairs, and particularly in connection with the remains of the partly burned building on King street. In this regard permit me to state that the building is under the supervision of Messrs. Lucas Brothers, who, it is presumed, know what attention is necessary in the premises, until such time as cases pending are decided by the courts. The Honolulu Stock Yards Company would gladly either renovate or remove the unsightly remains could either be done without prejudice to the interests of its stockholders."

FOR SALE

By order of REINNE RODANET Trustee, I offer for sale those certain parcels of land situate at Onouli, South Kona, Island of Hawaii, described in Royal Patent (Grant) No. 1162 to F. C. Schulze, and containing 174 acres. Royal Patent (Grant) No. 2862 to Awahus and containing 739 75-100 acres, situate at Keopuka and Onouli, Island of Hawaii.

This is a and of over 911 acres, situated in the most fertile and richest portion of the Island of Hawaii. It faces the new Government road extends to the sea, and is five minutes walk from Kealakuea Bay, by way of the old Government road which runs through the property. Portions of the land are already under cultivation.

This tract is so situated that it is about midway between Kailua and Hookona, and five miles from Napoo-poo, three most important ports of the Kona district. It has sufficient elevation, running up to fourteen hundred feet, to be particularly healthful, and its soil is well adapted to the growth of sugar cane, coffee, fruits, dairying or for the promotion of diversified farming.

Occupants of this land have easy access to several ports for export, and with the advent of the Kona Railroad will find themselves in close communication with the thriving City of Hilo. This, of course, affords a splendid opportunity for the exporting of farm products to the California markets.

With the revival of the Kona Sugar Co., considerable portions of this land can be successfully planted to sugarcane.

This is one of the most splendid opportunities for a good investment that has been put upon the market for a considerable period of time.

NO TAX ON MAN'S BRAIN

Contention Made
By Castle and Cooke.

LABORS OF TAX
COURT ENDED

Final Adjournment Will Be Taken
Today—Rapid Transit Case
Is Presented.

The Tax Appeal Court concluded its labors for the term yesterday after the consideration of the cases of Castle & Cooke and the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Co. Another session will be held this afternoon to consider any cases which may have been omitted and an adjournment will then be taken. The decisions of the Tax Court will be handed down at some subsequent day.

W. A. Bowen was the only witness in the case of Castle & Cooke, increased from a return of $82,951 to $516,000. This increase was also made upon "good will." The evidence showed that the assets of the company amount to $3,862,932. As an offset to this amount is the money invested in Hawaiian stocks and bonds amounting to $2,231,507.50. Bills receivable amount to $1,581,199 which are claimed as exempt and the corporation insists as did Brewer & Co. that it is being overtaxed. The profits of the firm for a year amount to $213,507. The evidence in this case was nearly the same as in that of Brewer & Co., Castle & Cooke claiming that they are exempt except for real estate, office fixtures, etc. Less foreign corporation stock is held by this corporation than by Brewer & Co. and the former also holds more real property in the islands.

Mr. Bowen testified that he knew of an exchange of 177 shares of the stock of the corporation between E. D. Tenney and C. H. Atherton. He said that though he knew of the price paid he preferred to let the parties speak for themselves, but finally to save time testified that the price paid per share was $300. He qualified the statement by saying that the value of the good will of a corporation had nothing to do with the price of the stock, especially in the instance where it was a close corporation and stock was not offered on the exchange. "There is no such thing as intangible property," concluded Mr. Bowen. "All the property is in this return. Castle & Cooke have no good will. Yes it is better than a new enterprise would be. It seems that this is a struggle on the part of the government to place a valuation upon something not defined by law. The law does not include a return upon brains, experience, clear good conscience or anything of that sort. A smile may have a commercial value but I don't see it specified in the law."

"Don't you think that if a smile increases the value of your property it is taxable?" asked Mr. Wilder.

"If the smile is shown in dollars and cents to have increased the value it should be taxed, but an intangible value cannot be taxed. Brains, experience and character are not taxable."

"Don't you think if the same property was managed by different persons it would effect the value. Isn't that good will?"

"Good will is put down in solid coin," was the answer.

Assessor Pratt was also on the stand and testified that he had assessed the stock at its market value of $275 a share and made the usual deductions. There was some argument at the conclusion of the testimony as to points involved. W. R. Castle appearing for the appellant contended that tax upon open accounts and notes was double taxation, and that the assessor had gone outside the law in making his assessment. He argued further that corporations could not be taxed upon the results of investments. Attorney Wilder for the government answered that intangible property was taxable, and that a tax should be paid upon value made by the showing of profits. Good will or more properly, a combination of brains, skill and management could be taxed if they increased the value of the property.

The Rapid Transit case was next taken up. Manager Ballentyne appearing as the only witness. The return was made at $266,720 and the assessor increased this to $509,500. Mr. Ballentyne explained the difference, as being the exemptions to which the corporation was entitled under the franchise granted by the legislature. He testified under this he could not be compelled to pay for rolling stock or other property on hand but not in actual use. He also said that there had been a depreciation in property values. Assessor Pratt took the stand and said he had made his estimate on the knowledge at hand, claiming also that the Rapid Transit Co. could not claim exemption on property which had not been listed for such purpose in the return.

THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser

WALTER G. SMITH - - EDITOR. WEDNESDAY : : AUGUST 20.

THE COURT DEFICITS.

An effort is now being made, in Chief Justice Frear's absence, to shift upon his shoulders the blame for the moneyless condition of the courts.

Justice Frear's estimate of the money required to carry the courts through the remaining six months of the year shows that his estimate made to the Legislature should have been $70,000 rather than $36,000.

The plain facts regarding the shortage of money for the courts are that the estimate placed before the Legislature did not take into account the added expense of the grand jury.

Now for the facts. In making his forecast Chief Justice Frear naturally thought that as $23,000 paid the expenses of the courts in 1898 and 1899 and left an unexpended balance of $6,153.33, and as $13,670 sufficed for 1900, the sum of $36,000 would foot the court bills for 1901 and 1902.

Expenses Supreme and Circuit Courts. This appropriation should be increased to $36,000. This is $1000 more than the amount appropriated in 1900 or $2000 more than that appropriated in 1898, which was, however, not all expended.

Taking all these things into consideration the Chief Justice thought that $36,000 would be enough. If he erred anywhere it was in assuming that Judges Humphreys and Gear, whose newspaper organs were clamoring against the so-called "enormous cost of government in Hawaii," would be decently economical in their drafts upon the court funds.

Now what did Gear and Humphreys do? In 1900 for the six months ending June 15th, the total expense account of the courts was but $4,684.78. Judge Humphreys was appointed July 5, 1900. The six months following, the expense of the judiciary amounted to $8,985.42, making the total of $13,670.20.

How was it done? By SHEER, DELIBERATE AND CULPABLE WASTE. The paying out of money for incidentals, not strictly required, increased nearly three hundred per cent. In the Hagey gold cure case Gear kept twenty-four jurors under pay for eleven days in addition to the panel of twelve that heard the case.

Having said most of this before, and convinced the public of its authoritative character, the Advertiser would not need to have referred to it again except to show that the attack upon the Chief Justice is baseless and that the responsibility for the fix the courts is in cannot be shifted.

It took the Bulletin two days to learn that it did not pay to libel Judge Estee by proxy, and the haste with which it then went to crouch on his door mat was almost pathetic.

It is rough on any court to be out of pocket and out of character both.

PRATT NO SCAPEGOAT.

When the President of the United States inquired why the Hawaiians sent such a man as Wilcox to Washington and when publicists like Senator Hoar urged the need of a competent man in his place, the position of the Delegate in the esteem of the people who can help or hinder Hawaiian measures was fixed.

Failure to get the Queen an appropriation. Failure to get Pain an electric franchise. Failure to get control of the Kohala watershed for a private corporation.

Failure to get a blanket railway franchise in Hawaii for an Oklahoma speculator. Failure to double the salary of the President and of other officials including himself.

SEEKING AN ALLY.

It is absurd to suppose that there can be any surrender of the Hawaiian branch of the national Democratic party to a purely local organization like the Home Rulers.

The desire of the Wilcox element to fuse shows that it fears the result of going alone. It also shows what would happen to the Home Rule party if the Republicans and Democrats should unite to oppose it.

Fortunately the Democracy is led by men of sense who have shown themselves staunchly true to the higher interests of the Territory.

The cholera in the Philippines has probably killed more people than the war. Big as the published death total is, only a part of the fatalities is known to the government.

Senator Burton may arrive today as the advance guard of the commission. He comes early but will need the extra time in which to count up the misstatements that Wilcox made to him at Washington.

SCIENCE SCORES AGAIN.

A Preparation That Will Destroy the Dandruff Germ Discovered. Finally the scientific student has discovered a certain remedy for dandruff.

When it first became known that dandruff is the result of a germ or parasite that digs into the scalp, and saps the vitality of hair at the root, causing falling hair and baldness, biologists set to work to discover some preparation that will kill the germ.

DEMOCRATS AND FUSION.

As a result of the recent enrollments of Democrats and the activity of the minority party, there is an increase in the discussion as to the possibility of fusion with the Republicans on members of the legislature.

There was much comment yesterday upon the fact that the Monday meeting of Democrats passed a resolution setting forth that the Spokesman is not and never has been the organ of the party.

SOIREE WAS A SUCCESS

An Excellent Musical Program at St. Clement's.

St. Clement's Parish house at Punahou was the scene last evening of a most delightful entertainment which took the form of a musical soiree, followed by a dance for the young people of the parish, which was as much enjoyed by the older persons present as those from whom it was really intended. The program was one which did not fail to please the auditors.

The stage portion of the parish house was filled with potted plants, consisting for the most part of spreading palms and masses of ferns, the overhead beams being twined about with the clinging parasite vine. The arch was decorated with American and British flags and strings of signal flags completed the stage picture. Breezes swept through the auditorium, keeping it cool and comfortable.

The opening number was a piano solo, "The Blue Bells of Scotland," played in an admirable manner by Mrs. J. Guild. Miss Stokes rendered a vocal selection which was heartily applauded. Miss Stokes is a comparative newcomer, and has rarely been heard in public. She has a charming voice, and is a valuable addition to the musical colony. Little Louise McCarthy, arrayed in the most fetching of Highland costumes, danced the Highland Fling on the piano by Mrs. Alice Brown. She in a captivating manner, accompanied went through the intricate evolutions so well that she was compelled to respond to an encore.

Paul Isenberg was most generously applauded for his rendition of "Her Majesty," a selection which called into play the full power of his melodious voice. He responded to an encore by singing a German song. Miss Kulumanu Ward sang sweetly "Good-Bye, Sweet Day." Her voice, rich and sweet of tone, was heard at its best, and she received a full measure of applause. Mr. Muller convulsed the audience with his comical selection, "Tom Tit," which he followed later with a quaint ballad, and kept the audience continually in laughter with his splendid acting. The program was concluded with a charming duet by Miss Stokes and Curzon Osborne.

The Rev. John Osborne, pastor of St. Clement's, announced that the young people desired to conclude the evening's enjoyment with dancing, and the chairs were then removed, the floor powdered and to the enlivening strains of a quintette club, a merry hour was spent upon the floor. During the intervals of dancing lemonade was served.

was destroyed by fire on August 20, 1921, and in which the plaintiff claims to have incurred a loss of $12,500.

In the declaration it is set forth that in July and August, 1921, the plaintiff was engaged in the construction of a two-story frame building at the corner mentioned and had expended upon it the sum of $12,500 when it was destroyed. On July 20, 1921, in consideration of the payment by the plaintiff to the defendant of the premium of $150, the defendant by its agents, Henry Waterhouse & Co., executed and delivered to plaintiff its contract or policy of insurance in writing, number 1,347,824, whereby it insured the plaintiff for the term of one year against loss or damage by fire while in the course of construction for $3000. On August 20, while it is alleged the policy was in full force and unforfeited and unsundered, and before the building was wholly finished and completed, the same was almost entirely destroyed by fire. The plaintiff alleges that it furnished proof of the loss, but that defendant refused to pay the sum. Other sums of insurance are mentioned as having been taken out with the same company, amounting in all to $5000.

COURT NOTES.

FAREWELL TO SAITO

Consul and Wife
Toasted by Colony.

DINNER PARTY AT THE CONSULATE

Popular Representative of the Mikado Receives Many Tokens of Esteem from Japanese.

One of the most elaborate entertainments in the Japanese colony was the farewell dinner last evening to Consul and Madame Saito at the consulate. The dinner was served in a marquee on the rear lawn, the walls consisting of the banners of his country, while about the tent poles, vines, malle and flowers were wreathed and festooned, and the residence and grounds were decorated with flags and lanterns. The occasion for the dinner was a parting tribute to the consul, who, with Madame Saito, leaves for Japan on the America Maru next Saturday to enjoy a five-months' vacation, after eight years of service abroad.

It had been the intention of the colony to entertain the consul and Madame Saito at the Moana hotel, but he refused such a testimonial, as he expects to return in such a short time. There were 250 guests, including all of the leading business men of the colony in Hawaii, with their wives. After the dinner, Consul Saito in a very few words expressed his gratification of the pleasant relations which had existed between himself and the business community. He asked for his acting consul, Mr. Okabe, the assistance of the men present, and expressed the pleasure he would experience upon his return to Hawaii.

Mr. Shioda, the manager of the Keshin bank, on behalf of the business community, presented to Consul and Madame Saito a silver service, and on behalf of the ladies, to Madame Saito, a number of handsome gifts. In the course of his remarks he wished them a pleasant journey. Mr. Iminishi of the Yokohama Specie Bank, proposed a toast to the healths of Consul and Madame Saito, which was drunk standing. Editor Soga of the Hawaii Shinpo, eulogized the work of the consul in behalf of the fire claimants. Prof. M. M. Scott made an address to Madame Saito, consisting principally of a poetical production, which elicited universal applause. Madame Saito responded gracefully, expressing her regret at leaving here and remarking what a pleasant life she had passed in Honolulu. Mr. Bigelow spoke of the friendly relations existing between the business men and the consul. It was very late before the guests dispersed.

BASEBALLISTS WANT MORE GAMES

Shortstop Teams Plan Midseason
Schedule of Games
This Fall.

Plans are on foot for the formation of a shortstop baseball league for the purpose of furnishing a short series of games between the end of the present league season and the commencement of the football play. The plan in general is for the getting together of four clubs which may play two games each Saturday afternoon, making up the month or six weeks during which there are no sporting events, in the fall.

The idea has its origin with Capt. Jackson of the Wela Ka Haos, and he hopes to get together teams which would play the game in good shape. It is thought there will be entered, if the plans go through, a team from the Honolulu Athletic Club and a Portuguese team of which A. Gomes is captain. There are several other teams of the second order in the city and it is believed that their captains or managers would enter into the plan for a series, with some interest.

There are several postponed games in the league series which will extend the season to the middle of October. According to the by-laws this cannot be changed but it is probable that there will be several weeks during which there will be no possible Saturday games of any description, and it is this gap that the shortstop teams wish to fill.

RING WORM AND DANDRUFF.

They Are Each Caused by a Pestiferous Germ.

Ring worm and dandruff are somewhat similar in their origin; each is caused by a parasite. The germ that causes dandruff digs to the root of the hair, and saps its vitality, causing falling hair, and, finally, baldness. Without dandruff there would never be baldness and to cure dandruff it is necessary to kill the germ. There has been no hair preparation that would do this until the discovery of Neubro's Herpicide, which positively kills the dandruff germ, allays itching instantly and makes hair glossy and soft as silk. At all drugists. Take no substitutes. There is nothing "just as good."

MURPHY CAUSED A LOT OF FUN

Had a Hard Job Deciding Whether or Not to Stop in Honolulu.

Murphy was a passenger on the Oceanic liner Sonoma from Australia. He is a comedian and has been playing with another Irishman, Mack by name, in the Australian theatres. Because his trade is to be funny it was therefore only natural that he should have been funny yesterday.

A few minutes before the Sonoma was ready to sail Murphy made arrangements to stop over for a few weeks in Honolulu. He got his dress suit case out, bade his friends a lavish good-bye and stood at the head of the gang way. Then he called a baggage-man and had his things carted ashore.

A few minutes before the Sonoma himself and waving a further farewell to his friends aboard ship. Suddenly he changed his mind. He seized his baggage and trotted up the gangplank again. A steward carried his things below and Murphy stood at the rail again. But he was bidding friends on shore good-bye this time.

The Territorial band started playing a Hawaiian air. Murphy's eyes opened wide. "Honolulu, loveliest village of the Pacific," said Murphy, "I must see you." Murphy called the Portuguese baggage-man aboard again and soon his baggage was chasing down the gangplank. Murphy again came ashore. The band stopped playing. He looked at the happy lei bedecked crowd aboard the steamer and made another break for her deck.

This performance was repeated half a dozen times. Finally Murphy stayed ashore, and unless he calls the steamer back by a wireless message today he will probably spend several weeks in Honolulu sightseeing. It was the old story of "off again, on again, gone again"—but revised by the addition of the words "and still here."

Portuguese Charity Union.

For the better protection of the poor of the colony, believing that in union would come facility in dealing with problems, the two Portuguese relief societies have united under the name of the Portuguese Charitable Society. The two societies which are thus joined are the Portuguese Ladies' Charitable Society and the Portuguese Charitable Society of Hawaii. After the amalgamation had been effected, at the meeting Monday night, the election of officers was taken up and resulted as follows:

Mrs. W. G. Irwin, honorary president; J. D. Marques, president; J. Madeira, vice president; C. Faria, secretary; A. H. R. Vieira, treasurer; J. A. R. Vieira and J. P. Mellin, visiting committee, and J. P. Dias and F. R. Tranquada, trustees.

Flynn and Wilcox.

Delegate Flynn has told several people here during his stay that Delegate Wilcox has been a faithful man to his country and people, and has done all he could at Congress, and even on his sick bed, and that he thinks that the Delegate has not been treated right by the people here.—Home Rule.

When asked by the Advertiser how he regarded Wilcox, Delegate Flynn promptly replied: "Wilcox? He's a lobster." The Oklahoma man made the same statement in Hilo.

J. A. Magoon, as guardian, has begun suit against the fire commission, before Judge Dickey, for $4, the fee paid by his spendthrift ward, Becky Panee, to secure her certificate of award. The charge is alleged to be illegal.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Dodge are just completing a building on the grounds at Kuakini and Nuuanu streets for the increased accommodation of their primary school, which will reopen September 15th. Miss Gertrude Kimball, who has had long and successful experience in teaching in Worcester, Mass., will be associated with Mr. and Mrs. Dodge.

A Chinese vegetable man, Ah Lee Oy, as he was starting to drive away from the store of Ah Chew on King street near Nuuanu, at 7:30 o'clock last evening, came in collision with back No. 6, driven by Kallianu. The hack had in it two passengers, and the collision was of such force that the driven was thrown over the dashboard to the ground. He was rendered unconscious and was taken to the hospital in the patrol wagon. The Chinaman was taken to the station house, but was afterwards released.

The New York Musical Courier says: "Belated accounts of a good concert at the Hawaiian opera house have reached the writer. The concert was given in the late spring by J. H. Amme, a clever violinist, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Yardley, pianist; Mrs. Annis Montague, soprano; Mrs. C. B. Cooper, violinist and Miss Carrie Castle, pianist. Mr. Amme played the Adagio from the familiar Rite Suite, a Tarantelle by Hollander and the violin parts of the Greig Sonata, op. 8, and Viola parts in a Trio by Sandberger, for violin, viola and piano."

Davis Again in the Game.

George Davis presented a motion yesterday for confirmation of the report of the commissioner in the sale of the Lanai property, before the report had been filed. W. O. Smith, who appeared for the purchaser, said he wanted the matter to proceed regularly, and Judge Silliman, appearing for Mrs. Neumann, also asked that he first be allowed to see the report. Judge Gear denied the motion, as the report had not been filed. Davis became angry then and stalking away from the clerk's desk turned on the other attorneys, saying: "All right then; I am not in a hurry. I won't file my motion until Friday. Counsel are so smart they can wait now."

Davis had been awarded a fee of $1500 in the case and can't get his money until the report is approved.

EXHIBIT THE OLD AND NEW

Prof. Scott's Plan For Display at St. Louis.

TEACHER WOULD SEND A CLASS

Territorial Teachers' Association Hears Suggestions for Educational Exhibit in 1904.

Historical Hawaii, intertwined with the development and evolution of education in the islands, is the basis of the plan upon which Prof. M. M. Scott, principal of the High School would prepare an educational exhibit to go forward from Hawaii to the St. Louis Exposition. At the annual meeting yesterday afternoon of the Territorial Teachers' Association of Hawaii which was held in the Normal School, Prof. Scott made some valuable suggestions regarding the exhibit, which, if followed would tend to increase the interest of the mainlanders who view it.

Prof. Scott believes that the greatest benefit to the Islands would result from an historical exhibit, and it would appeal to the serious-minded ones who attend the fair more than any other feature. The idea of sending photographs of school interiors and maps was good enough, but these did not show progress. His idea of education was the internal, moral and intellectual development of a people, and as the internal arrangement could not be photographed the next best thing is to exhibit those things which pupils fashion. In order to show the progress of the school system, he thought it wise to exhibit the archeology of Hawaii, and the primitive implements with which the Hawaiians worked and cultivated the soil. The remains of such implements would show the early agricultural tendencies; canoes, the Hawaiians' knowledge of navigation; meles would indicate their thought and show the manner in which the poetry, history and genealogy of the ancients was preserved.

The exhibit should be in the form of a passing show illustrating from the earliest times to the present how education has been carried on here. Another feature of the exhibit would be illustrations depicting the natural surroundings of Honolulu and other places in the islands. Pictures made by pupils of water buffaloes in the rice fields, taro patches, accompanied by descriptions written by the pupils would not fail to interest outsiders. The Bishop Museum might co-operate with the schools and send on many of the ancient implements which show Hawaii's primitive methods.

"Comparisons tell, said he; 'let the old be compared with the new.' Miss Felker, principal of Kaahumanu School agreed with Prof. Scott as to the historical exhibit, but suggested that if a class of children from Hawaii could be transported to St. Louis, no better object lesson of the development of education here could be made.

"Let such a class of school children sing at the Exposition and interest would center in Hawaii, for the music of Hawaii is the most beautiful I have ever heard in my life," said Miss Felker enthusiastically. Yesterday's meeting was opened with music led by S. R. Dowdle of Maui, following which T. H. Gibson, head of the Reformatory, spoke of "How a Vacation Might be Spent." He asked if vacations were necessary, and answered in the affirmative, both for the pupils and the teachers. The profession of teaching made a strain upon the pedagogues and they needed an interval of rest. Beyond obtaining rest and recreation, teachers could profitably pass their time in intellectual research. He suggested nature study as an example. Then there were journeyings about the islands which would widen their space of observation.

Rev. Alex. Mackintosh said the development of the powers of observation was important. One of the features of teaching in the Hawaiian Islands was to learn the language of the pupils who studied under him, so that he could get at their point of view. This was helpful to him. Another thing which he suggested as a wise course for the male teachers, was to know the pupils in their home life, and with this knowledge they would be able to correct many abuses in the boy's life. A teacher, however, must be careful of his health, and necessary recreation was necessary for Kauai, who has been attending the summer school, felt that this method of spending a vacation was quite profitable.

Prof. Wood opened the discussion upon the St. Louis exhibit. He wanted something to show the progress of education here. His idea was to have photographs of school interiors, equipment, surroundings and the pupils themselves. Some were presented on pensions were something for the retiring teachers there to look forward to. He hoped that the matter could be brought before the next legislature to provide some method for pensioning retired teachers here.

Miss Snow for Oahu, Miss Deyo for Hawaii, S. R. Dowdle for Maui and J. C. Davis for Kauai, each presented a report on the work of the local circles of the Teachers' Association in their respective districts, showing that each group had met at intervals during the past year and improved their knowledge of matters foreign and local.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President, Miss Pierce; secretary, Mrs. Walker; vice-presidents, Oahu, Mrs. Heapy; Hawaii, Mr. Baldwin; Maui, Mr. King; Kauai, J. C. Davis.

The Literary Committee presented a report on books to be read during the year in connection with school work; the books suggested being as follows: Idyle of the King, Hiawatha, Miles Standish, Lady of the Lake, As You Like It, Last Days of Pompeii, Ivanhoe. In the professional journals in Teachers' World, Special Methods in Geography, Sharp Eyes for Nature Study and Kellogg's Nature Study, were suggested as being valuable helps.

Mr. Taggart, the retiring president, spoke of a plan which has been suggested of teachers from all over the islands clubbing to go to the St. Louis Exposition in 1904. It was thought that better rates could be obtained by this means, and it was possible that the Board of Education might extend the vacation term for a few weeks to enable all to thoroughly enjoy the exposition.

COUNTRY LIFE IF THE RAIN KEEPS UP

WM. C. GREGG AND COLONEL M'CANDLESS ON PORTO RICO

An Interesting Description of One of Uncle Sam's New Possessions---Both an Educational and Property Test for Voters.

William C. Gregg, of the Gregg-Seager company, has just returned from a trip through Porto Rico with Colonel McCandless of Honolulu.

Mr. Gregg's notebook is full of interesting data and his camera caught interesting views for him. He met in the island Governor Hunt, formerly of Montana, and General Elliot of the interior department. From these men, other officials and natives he gained a comprehensive idea of Porto Rico reconstruction. Mr. Gregg had the privilege of being with Governor Hunt when the first Spanish officials to visit the island since the war were presented and began arrangements for a Spanish consular service. The effects of the great hurricane immediately following the American occupation are still noticeable. An unusual haze was in the atmosphere and red spots at sunset touched the zenith as a result of the eruption of Mont Pelee, 200 miles away.

It was to Mr. Gregg an interesting bit of information that Porto Rican cities, with the exception of fortified San Juan, were built several miles inland to guard against attacks by pirates.

Mr. Gregg has traveled in Cuba and Hawaii as well as Porto Rico and is familiar with present conditions in all of Uncle Sam's possessions. He says:

A CONTENTED PEOPLE.

The thing that stands out most conspicuously in Porto Rico is the contentment of the people and their uniform acquiescence in the government of the Americans. It is a long road from negro and Spanish tropical indolence and habits to the American standard of enterprise and integrity. The Porto Ricans are merely taking their first steps in these things to send their young men to college in the United States. Between 300 and 400 are now being educated here. They are selected on account of intellectual promise. Two hundred are partially supported by the island government, assisted through scholarships in the American colleges and by American philanthropists.

A second step was to accommodate themselves to American money. This caused riots at first, as the change could not be made without an advance in prices of both labor and merchandise.

A third step was the building of roads. Spain, in the four hundred years, built about 150 miles of road. The United States has built in three years 140 miles, expending for this purpose about $2,000,000. The necessity of roads will be understood when it is realized that the mountain districts and all the interior are very thickly populated.

SCHOOLS ESTABLISHED.

The fourth step was the establishment of schools. Spain couldn't build a school building in four hundred years, but we have built thirty-eight in three years and have twenty more under construction.

Before the war, Spain had 22,000 pupils in 538 schools, for whose tuition the parents had to pay. After three years the United States has 50,000 pupils in 233 schools without expense to the parents.

The fifth step for the Porto Ricans is the spending of all their money at home. No more tribute is sent abroad. Before the American occupation, $500,000 was sent annually to the King of Spain; $300,000 was sent to the Pope at Rome, and from $300,000 to $500,000 was spent for the support of 7,000 Spanish soldiers. This was under trade conditions that were less favorable than they have today. For the Spanish market before the Spanish war was a good deal of a myth, both as to Porto Rico and Cuba. Spanish consumption always was small and the leading products of Porto Rico and Cuba before the Spanish war were sold in the world's open market.

Statements with reference to moral conditions are conflicting. Through the laxity of government and the excessive laxity of the church the marriage ceremony was among the lower classes largely dispensed with. This did not necessarily mean licentiousness. Happily these matters have been corrected. A law is just going into effect compelling every man and woman who live together to procure a marriage certificate. If it is not enforced too vigorously on the start the good results will very soon show themselves.

NOT A TERRITORY.

Porto Rico is not a territory. The people are foolishly sensitive on this point, as they say they are not American citizens and they want to be. From what I know of the conditions in Hawaii I think Porto Rico very fortunate in being under the wise provision of the Foraker bill. They have an educational and small property qualification for voters. They elect the lower house of the legislature. The upper house consists of twelve men called the executive council. Seven of these are appointed by the president direct and five are appointed by the governor of Porto Rico, such appointments being confirmed in Washington. With clean cut and capable men such as Governor Hunt at the head of this executive council, and such men as General Elliot at the head of the interior department, which constructs all the roads, and with such a fine lot of Americans as I met in official positions, I am not surprised at the good results obtained.

The island is about as large as five counties the size of Hennepin and contains about 1,000,000 persons. They are being taught in the public schools the English language along with Spanish. It is easy to find almost anywhere someone who can speak at least a little of our language. I think it is safe to say that in ten years everyone under twenty-five years of age will speak English.

The public library established in San Juan has been splendidly patronized, the common people have been allowed a freedom in the plazas or parks unknown before. Real estate has doubled in value. Unfortunately this does not affect the poorer class favorably.

I am compelled to admit that the effect of the American occupation of Porto Rico has been a godsend to the people and more or less of the United States. I can see no cloud in the future. I do not expect great things from a tropical people. For their own good they should not be allowed to become a territory; for our good they should not be allowed statehood.

Lumbago 30 Years

A Remarkable Cure Performed by Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt.

Dr. McLAUGHLIN—Dear Sir: I suffered from lumbago pains and sciatica for 30 years before using your Electrical Treatment, and in two months your wonderful Belt entirely cured me. Appreciating the excellence of your method, I am, yours truly, HUGH FRASER, 213 1/2 Elm avenue, San Francisco.

And some people are content with pasting porous plasters on their backs to get the little relief they give. Lumbago is a condition which can be cured by Electricity as I apply it. I can tell you of hundreds of other cures. My Belt pours a gentle, glowing heat into the back and cures it to stay cured.

A man recently told me that he had had lumbago for twenty years, and it had never laid him up yet, though he felt badly at the time. He was carried from his work in a hack two days after, and was in bed when he sent for my belt. It cured him. Get it before you are laid up. It will cure you quickly, and your trouble will never come back. Call and see it; or sent for book of proof. Send this ad.

EVENTFUL TRIP FROM COLONIES

Sonoma Fireman Jumped Overboard and One Man Died on the Voyage.

The Oceanic liner Sonoma had an eventful passage from the Colonies to Honolulu.

When steaming out of Sydney harbor one of her firemen jumped overboard but was picked up by a tug-boat and taken back to Sydney. Mr. Tobin, one of the World's Entertainers, died on the trip from Sydney to Auckland. The Sonoma has three bodies on board, that of Tobin, and those of two other Americans who died in faraway Australia.

Purser Hodson reports that the plague has been practically stamped out of Sydney.

The Sonoma got in from the Colonies in the morning. She had a large passenger list to this port and on her departure at a late hour in the afternoon took a large number of passengers from Honolulu. The Territorial band played her off. A big crowd watched her departure and several amusing incidents occurred. A drunken man was helped up the gangplank and for an hour he stood on the forward deck shouting to friends on the wharf and displaying several bottles of whiskey which he humorously referred to as "ammunition." In banging these bottles around he broke one of them and tears dropped down his haggard face as he watched the liquor creating a miniature Niagara Falls as it trickled down the side of the steamer.

Mrs. Little and Miss Little, wife and daughter of the chief engineer of the Sonoma, were passengers to the Coast after a pleasant visit in Honolulu.

George Scott, well known along the waterfront in brokerage circles, went to the Coast for a vacation. When leaving he scattered coin over the wharf and told his friends to "go and have one."

J. Cohen, manager of the Orpheum, and Mrs. Cohen are bound for the Coast where Mr. Cohen has numerous business affairs to attend to.

No one was permitted to visit the vessel during her stay in port.

Albatross Sailed for the Coast

The United States Fish Commission steamer Albatross left Honolulu for San Francisco during Tuesday forenoon. Dr. Jordan, head of the expedition, arrived from Pago Pago in the Sonoma and immediately after arrival met Dr. Gilbert, who reported to him the work done by the Albatross in Hawaiian waters during his absence. Dr. Jordan considered that the work had been fully completed and Captain Thomas was told that he could sail as soon as he pleased. He left for the coast immediately. The Albatross has had a long stay in Hawaiian waters, and the officers and men aboard of her were very anxious to return to the mainland. Her work for the Fish Commission in these waters has yielded very good results and she carries back a great deal of useful information and many cases and jars of specimens of sea life about the islands.

City of Peking's Delay.

Among the passengers on board the steamer Gaelic, which arrived from the Orient yesterday, was Captain J. T. Smith, commander of the steamship City of Peking, and his daughter. Captain Smith says it will be some four months before the City of Peking can again be placed on her run. She broke her thrust shaft when entering the narrows to the Inland Sea on her last trip from Hongkong to Kobe. At the time of the accident there was considerable confusion as the broken shaft pounded the hull of the vessel badly and nearly tore a hole in it. After drifting for three days the vessel was picked up and towed into Kobe, where she will lay up until a new shaft can be shipped out from San Francisco to her. Most of her passengers were transferred to the Gaelic.

Gaelic in From Orient.

The Pacific Mail steamship Gaelic arrived from Yokohama yesterday afternoon after a ten days' passage from Yokohama. She had only 45 Jap and 25 Chinese passengers for the port and her purser reports that Jap emigration to Honolulu is falling off. She had a goodly number of cabin passengers. On August 19, in latitude 34.58 north and 144.48 east, she met the steamer Nippon Maru. On August 17, in latitude 25.18 north and longitude 165.58 east, she met the steamer Cortic. She had 447 tons of cargo for this port. She left for the coast at 10 o'clock last evening.

BROKE RECORD AROUND THE HORN

The Magnificent Ship Erskine M. Phelps Made Voyage in Ninety-Seven Days.

The finest sailing ship in the world is now at the Navy wharf discharging nearly five thousand tons of coal for the Government. This is the American steel, four masted ship Erskine M. Phelps, Captain Graham, from Norfolk, and her skipper is today telling the story of how his magnificent vessel has broken the record from Atlantic coast ports to Honolulu. The Phelps made the trip to Honolulu in ninety-seven days, two days quicker than it has ever been made before by any sailing craft.

The Phelps is conceded to be the finest built and prettiest merchantman on the sea today and looks more like an enormous pleasure boat than a ship carrying such a dirty kind of cargo as coal. But there is another reason why one should be proud of this ship and that is because she is American built from keel to truck, jib boom to spanker boom, and with her great mass of snow white canvas, her white painted hull, and out before a stiff breeze she is a sight for the gods.

The Phelps is of great dimensions for a sailing ship. Her length over all is 330 feet, and her length on the deep load line 312 feet. Her breadth is forty-five feet two inches and her depth twenty-five feet six inches. Her gross tonnage is 3900 tons and she has a dead weight carrying of nearly five thousand tons. The masts average about two hundred feet in height above the keelson. They are thirty-two inches in diameter at the partners and twenty-six inches at the heel. Her lower yards are ninety-four feet long; lower top-sail, eighty-five feet six inches; upper topsail, seventy-eight feet; topgallant sixty-five feet; royal fifty-five feet; and skysail yards forty-six feet. The bowsprit is also of steel and is sixty-eight feet in length. The deck fittings are built on the same sumptuous scale but it is in the cabin that one's eyes rest on what might be termed luxuries for a merchant ship.

When one first enters the commodious after portion of the ship he is sure to make some sort of exclamation. The idea! Such magnificent quarters on a coal carrying vessel. They are for a prince to reside in and many a prince sails a yacht that is not as nicely fitted as this sailing ship. Captain Graham has his wife and little daughter aboard his sea mansion. They lead them a very happy life. The cabin is divided into many rooms and each is painted with white enamel while the floors are of highly polished hardwood. The captain takes great pride in his dining saloon and parlor. These two rooms are connected by a folding door. The parlor is luxuriously furnished. There is a piano, fancy and unusual chairs, odd pieces of bric-a-brac, fine rugs over the polished floor, and pictures of life upon the sea hanging about the walls. The dining saloon is furnished with an oak table and oak chairs and is spotlessly clean. The lockers contain an expensive dinner service. Big skylights make the cabin as bright as one would wish for. All the bed rooms are furnished in the same magnificent manner and the sitting room, sewing room, and other apartments of Mrs. Graham are as cozy as one could wish for. The bedrooms for the officers of the vessel are also finished in the same manner and must be very pleasant.

Captain and Mrs. Graham are well known in Honolulu and have a host of friends here. During the stay of the ship in port they will live ashore and their handsome apartments aboard the ship will be carefully sealed up so that no coal dust may get into them while the ship is discharging.

Chinese Crew for the Korea.

The Pacific Mail steamship Gaelic, which arrived from the Orient yesterday, carried a party of 192 Chinese, who are to constitute the Asiatic section of the crew of the new ocean greyhound Korea, which is expected to arrive here on her maiden trip on September 2. In many quarters it is doubted whether the vessel can reach port on that date. She will not receive her crew until the Gaelic arrives at the coast on August 27, and it will take a few days to fit the vessel out after her arrival. The Korea had been scheduled to sail from San Francisco on August 26.

Y. Kimura Indicted For Criminal Libel.

CHARGES AGAINST F. WOODBRIDGE

Slayer of David Kanewanui is Indicted—Kimura's Story About Prominent Japanese.

Another case of criminal libel cropped out of the grand jury report yesterday. Yoshigoro Kimura, editor of the Honolulu News, a Japanese newspaper, is the man indicted, and Saiji Kimura, a prominent Japanese merchant, is the complaining witness.

The defendant is alleged to have published in the News issue of July 31, 1902, a false and malicious libel concerning Saiji Kimura. Translated into the English language, the indictment says the libel was as follows:
 "A Friendly Warning to Mr. Saiji Kimura by a Friend.

"It is not necessary to point out the name of a scoundrelous and unreasonable 'eminent merchant' who in such skillful manner betrays the person classed lower than he is; for we know that it is Mr. Saiji Kimura, a merchant of Honolulu, well known in Hawaii.

"We may know that, while to all outward appearances he pretends to be an amicable and upright person, yet inwardly he is a scoundrel, simply looking for his own private gains.

"We would call the attention of the public as well as himself to his disgraceful and brutal conduct, most shameful to our countrymen. It is as follows: The funeral of the late Toyomatsu Nakamura, a close friend of Saiji, was conducted under the supervision of the latter, who was master of ceremonies and gave orders which were obeyed by the other defendants. When the subject of the property of the dead was taken up, he was not in position able to make an explanation, but deceitfully turned the conversation away from the subject, and in order to avoid further conversation in regard to the property, he had at each occasion of the ceremonies, held respectively at the time when the dead body was bathed, when the dead body was taken into coffin, when the coffin was carried out, and when finally buried, an abundance of sake served with foods, and Japanese guitars played and drums beaten, and there he had also a woman, a relative of the dead, as a singer and player. He took all his clothes off and began to dance as if he were insane.

"A dog makes a single bark, then all others follow; all the attendants at the funeral—relatives of the dead, gentlemen, merchants, yardmen and servants—were moving about in crazy manner. This cannot be thought to have been a state of mourning, but more as if they had been celebrating something. What insanity is this? There was another occasion of a ceremony held seven days after the funeral at which time he went to the grave with a company, headed by himself. Before the tomb he offered sake and foods, and a Japanese guitar, accompanied by loud singing, just as a picnic seen in Japan, out to look for flower blossoms or climbing up mountains. What knavish conduct is this? Where is the dignity of the eminent merchant as called by himself and others? He occupies his high position of today because of aid of ——— Consul. He ought to have more respect for himself to maintain his present position, and it is his duty to be a good example to all.

"We would not further discuss his personal bad reputation, but such insanity as above stated, will greatly cause social corruption. We cannot pass the matter over in silence, but we are obliged to make it public to the world at large. If he knows that he was wrong, let him apologize to the community, but let him remember that if he does not repent in future, a punishment will be inflicted upon his person some of these days. We make this public, as well as warn him."

The defendant is also alleged to have put the above statement in circulation. Daniel Yowell was indicted for manslaughter in third degree on David Kanewanui. This is the case of alleged accidental shooting of David Kanewanui, editor of the Kuokoa, as a result of which he died.

Against Frank I. Woodbridge there were returned four indictments for embezzlement. The defendant is alleged to have embezzled from M. Phillips & Co. various sums, as follows: $756.89, $499.24, $601.69 and $25.

The other indictments are: Masuda, assault with weapon, two indictments; Ramon Basque, assault with weapon; Juan Veeles, burglary first degree; Fo Chong, sexual intercourse; Jose Reveira, Kaano, Enoka, David Pihwi and Alcide Ortiz, larceny second degree; Alcide Ortiz, larceny first degree; Pedro Molino and O. Carpa, receiving stolen goods; Antone Perry, seduction. No indictments were returned against Ah Nee, larceny, and Hatsumo, assault.

The McKinley Park

Work on the McKinley Park will soon commence, as a large amount of money has been subscribed for that purpose. Its location being on King Street, and the additional fact that the ELECTRIC ROAD runs straight out has established this thoroughfare as the main avenue of Honolulu. The beautiful PAWAA TRACT lies north of this line, just beyond Waikiki Road. Lots in this location are the most desirable in Honolulu. On account of the sheltered condition of this Tract, it is free from the severe winds and rains that come down from the Myrina valley; yet it is subject almost continually to a mild, healthy breeze, rendering it from 10 TO 15 DEGREES COOLER than Ewa of Punahoa Street. On account of the low prices asked and the very small amount down and easy terms, the opportunity to purchase a beautiful home site comes within the reach of all; but after September 15th, the prices of these lots will be ADVANCED 20 PER CENT. So now is your time to see

MARINES MUST ACT
Rosehill Won't Go Unless He is Forced.
THEN THERE WILL BE A HOT TIME
 Colonel Tom Fitch Marks Out a Lively Time for America and Japan.

"What have I to say concerning the despatch from Japan to the New York World that the Japanese war vessel had returned to Yokohama, after leaving a small force of marines to deal with Captain Rosehill when he arrived?" said Col. Fitch yesterday. "Well, what can I say? If Rosehill complies with his instructions, he will not yield except to a superior force, and if there is a superior force he will place the Japanese government distinctly in the position of expelling American citizens engaged in a peaceful occupation, from territory claimed by the United States and the right to occupy which was granted them by the President of the United States.

"The last despatches from Tokio stated that the proclamation of Japan formally claiming Marcus Island was dated in 1898 and that the Japanese found signs of previous American occupancy." That fixes the claim of Japan as being based solely upon the ground that the United States or Rosehill had abandoned the island. Rosehill made formal claim in 1889 and Secretary Blaine recognized his claim by filing it in the State Department and he visited the island in 1893 and again in 1897 and he was engaged in the meantime in constant efforts to enlist capital to develop the guano deposits.

"If there had been a failure for nine years—between 1889 and 1898, or for thirteen years—between 1889 and 1902 to utilize Marcus, still the island could not be considered a derelict. I do not know what period of time under the law of nations should elapse to work a forfeiture of title by abandonment, or if there is any doctrine of international law on the subject. But judged by the analogies of the civil law, the common law and the statute law nine years or thirteen years is too short a time. The right of the public to use a highway once established can, according to many authorities, never be forfeited by abandonment while others hold that it may be lost by non-user for the same period of time required by the statute of limitations to create a title by adverse possession. That period both at common law and civil law and by the statutes of many states is twenty-one years and is in few states less than ten years. Abandonment and non-user for 20 years was held to extinguish the right of a city to a public alley. It has been decided that non-user of a water right for a time equal to that fixed by the statute of limitations for the recovery of real property is necessary to constitute abandonment of it.

"If Rosehill acquired title to Marcus Island for the United States in 1889 by location and by the United States placing his claim on record in the Department of State, surely the United States could not lose its title in less time than a city could perfect its title to an alley, or a rancher could perfect his water right.

"Japan's position with respect to Marcus island is not tenable and if reports be true it has dealt with the subject matter in an unwarranted, if not an insolent manner. When informed that an American citizen was on his way to Marcus, claiming the right to occupy it under a license from his government Japan should have requested the U. S. to prevent his landing and not herself undertaken the task with a sloop of war and a force of marines. Even Great Britain would not have ventured upon the course pursued by Japan and I do not believe that our Government will tolerate it. If Japan has undertaken to be judge, jury and high sheriff and without any applicant to the United States for a verdict of her rights has driven Rosehill off by force, I predict that Japan will have a hell of a bill to pay before the matter shall be ended."
