When Father Edward F. Sorin arrived in the northern Indiana wilderness, he had only $310, three log buildings badly in need of repair and a far-sighted vision of establishing a liberal arts school to meet the growing educational needs of the frontier. He dreamed of building a great university, and in 1842, he founded the University of Notre Dame du Lac.

Over the years, Notre Dame would evolve into a preeminent place for Catholic thought. While becoming one of the top undergraduate institutions in the country, Notre Dame also has been at the cutting edge of research, including such innovations as the transmission of wireless messages and the development of synthetic rubber. Today researchers are achieving breakthroughs in astrophysics, radiation chemistry, environmental sciences, tropical disease transmission, cancer, robotics, and nanoelectronics.

The University also has stressed residential life, with four-of-five students living on campus in 29 residence halls that serve as the focal point of social, spiritual and athletic activities. Notre Dame is one of a handful of universities with a truly international student body, coming from more than 100 nations and all 50 states. Students come to Notre Dame not only to learn how to think, but to learn how to live, keeping faith with the vision of Fr. Sorin.

Notre Dame is one of the few universities to regularly rank in the top 25 in the U.S. News & World Report survey of America's best colleges and the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings of the best overall athletics programs. The University is second only to KU

Leuven of Belgium among all Catholic universities worldwide, according to the 2012 Times Higher Education survey, and the Mendoza College of Business at Notre Dame boasts the No. 1 undergraduate business program in the nation according to Bloomberg BusinessWeek.

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C.

President

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., is in his second five-year term as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame. His vision is for Notre Dame to be the Catholic research university for our time – an institution that unifies, enlightens and heals by engaging in scholarship of the first rank while maintaining its distinctive Catholic character and long-time excellence in undergraduate education.

During his tenure, Notre Dame has made significant progress toward its research goal, including selection as the lead partner in the Midwest Institute for Nanoelectronics Discovery and the Center for Low Energy Systems Technology, the creation of the Innovation Park research facility, and the construction of Stinson Remick Hall of Engineering.

His commitment to undergraduate education has been marked by the Notre Dame Forums, yearlong initiatives that have examined important issues such as religion and world conflict, global health, immigration, education and energy.

The University's Catholic identity has been strengthened during Father Jenkins' tenure in multiple ways, including the appointment of a coordinator for University life initiatives and the construction of multimillion-dollar facilities for the Institute for Church Life, including the Center for Social Concerns, and the Institute for Educational Initiatives, which includes the Alliance for Catholic Education.

Father Jenkins earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively, and was ordained a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross in 1983. He holds advanced degrees from Oxford and the Jesuit School of Theology. He is a professor of philosophy and the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

Jack Swarbrick

Vice President • Director of Athletics

John B. "Jack" Swarbrick Jr., a University of Notre Dame graduate now in his sixth year in 2013-14 as vice president and director of athletics at his alma mater, has attached his signature to a variety of new initiatives during his tenure:

- * Launching of Fighting Irish Digital Media—a major enterprise that delivers better information about and access to Notre Dame and its athletic programs via expanded production and distribution of programming.

- * Developing a plan for expanding Notre Dame Stadium in order to make it a year-round asset for the University while also improving the game day experience for student-athletes and fans.

- * Creation of new community outreach and youth programming activities.

- * Building of student-athlete programs and services that expand recognition of high academic achievement—and mentor and facilitate career development.

- * Meeting the performance needs of Notre Dame student-athletes through establishment of a new sports performance division.

- * Reaching out to more former Irish student-athletes, via the Notre Dame Monogram Club and other programs.

In 2012-13 alone, Swarbrick played a major role in three significant announcements that positively impacted Notre Dame on the national collegiate scene:

- Creation by the Bowl Championship Series of the four-team College Football Playoff to begin with the 2014 season, with Notre Dame maintaining viable access into that system.

- Membership for Notre Dame's athletic teams (other than football and hockey) in the Atlantic Coast Conference beginning with the 2013-14 athletic seasons. In football, Notre Dame will play five games per year against ACC opponents beginning in 2014 and also have full access to the league's list of postseason bowl options. Notre Dame hockey now plays in Hockey East.

- An extension of the University's relationship with NBC Sports through the 2025 football season.

Swarbrick's first five years combined featured a variety of on-and-off-the-field Notre Dame athletics successes:

- * Number-one rankings for Notre Dame (among Football Bowl Subdivision schools) in the six most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) surveys—in 2012 at 99 for all-student-athletes (including football number one at 97, in the fourth consecutive year Notre Dame stood atop that chart).

- * Record involvement in community service hours by Irish student-athletes.

- * An appearance in the Bowl Championship Series football title game following the 2012 season—in an unprecedented year in which the Irish finished the regular season 12-0 to rank number one in the final BCS poll while also ranking number one in the BCS standings.

- * NCAA championships in 2011 in fencing (a men's and women's combined championship) and 2010 in women's soccer.

- * NCAA runner-up team finishes in 2013 in fencing, 2012 and 2011 in women's basketball, 2010 in men's lacrosse, 2009 in fencing and 2008 in women's soccer.

- * NCAA semifinal appearances in women's basketball in 2013, men's lacrosse in 2012, hockey in 2011, women's tennis in both 2009 and 2010 and women's soccer in 2009, plus 2010 and 2012 third-place fencing finishes.

- * Construction of the 5,022-seat Compton Family Ice Arena that opened for the 2011-12 season and features two sheets of ice (one Olympic sized). The 2009-10 school year also featured dedications of new facilities for soccer and lacrosse—as well as opening of the new Purcell Pavilion within the south dome of the Joyce Center.

Before coming back to Notre Dame, Swarbrick rose to national prominence as a lawyer, consultant and executive in the collegiate and Olympic sports industries

Born in Yonkers, N.Y., and raised in Yonkers and Bloomington, Ind., he is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame with a bachelor's degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford University Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law firm Baker & Daniels, one of the largest in the state. He was made partner in 1987 and spent 28 years with the firm.

As a member of the Indiana Sports Corporation, including the chairmanship from 1992 to 2001, Swarbrick led many of Indianapolis' successful proposals to a wide array of athletics organizations—from the National Football League (NFL) to the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) to the Big Ten Conference. His leadership efforts resulted in the city:

- * Earning the right to play host to the 2012 Super Bowl in Indianapolis at Lucas Oil Stadium.

- * Becoming the home of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) national headquarters in 1999.

- * Hosting the 1987 Pan American Games, where Swarbrick served as the director of competition.

- * Hosting the 1991 World Gymnastics Championships.

- * Hosting NCAA Men's Basketball Final Fours and other college championship competitions and a wide array of national and world championships in the Olympic sports.

- * Securing rights to host the Big Ten Conference men's and women's basketball tournaments at Conseco Fieldhouse for five consecutive years beginning in 2008.

At Baker & Daniels Swarbrick served as general counsel for numerous national governing bodies of Olympic sports, including USA Gymnastics, and as a consultant to various bid cities and host committees for Olympic Games and world championships.

In his work as an advisor to the NCAA, Swarbrick coordinated the men's College Basketball Partnership, an NCAA-led group that addresses the opportunities and challenges in the sport; developed the business plan for the new NBA/NCAA youth basketball enterprise, iHoops; served as a member of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group, and chaired the NCAA/USOC task force dedicated to developing proposals to expand sponsorship of Olympic sports among NCAA member institutions.

In 2000 Swarbrick received one of the NCAA's highest honors, The Flying Wedge Award, for his work in establishing Indianapolis as the new home of the NCAA. In 2001 he was honored by the State of Indiana with the Sagamore of the Wabash Award. In 2002 he received the Pathfinder Award from Youthlinks Indiana for his service to youth in the state of Indiana.

He received an honorary monogram from the Notre Dame Monogram Club in 2013.

Born March 19, 1954, Swarbrick was named Notre Dame's 12th athletics director on July 16, 2008.

He and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of four children: Kate, a 2010 graduate of St. Louis University; Connor, a 2011 graduate of Wake Forest University; Gal, a senior at TCU; and Christopher, a University of Notre Dame junior.

NOTRE DAME

Fighting Irish

Season Preview

At the 2013 NCAA Championships, Kim Holden, Emma Reaney, Kelly Ryan and Catherine Galletti (L-R) swam in the 400 free and medley relays and the 200 medley relay, earning honorable mention All-America honors in the 400 medley relay. This year, Reaney, Ryan and Galletti are all back looking to help the Irish improve on a program-best 16th place showing on the sport's brightest collegiate stage.

IRISH LOOK TO BUILD ON HISTORIC 2012-13 SEASON

Notre Dame returns four NCAA qualifiers from last year's team.

The 2012-13 season was an exciting and historic one for the University of Notre Dame women's swimming and diving team as they set records in the pool and had a senior shine in the classroom under head coach Brian Barnes.

After closing out their time in the BIG EAST with a second-place finish, the Irish stormed into the NCAA Championships with six competitors and emerged with a program-best 16th place finish by totaling 55 points, the second-best total in school history.

JUST SOME OF THE HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDED:

Junior Emma Reaney cemented her place in the Irish history books by claiming BIG EAST Most Outstanding Swimmer honors before earning two first team All-America trophies in the 100 and 200 breaststroke and two honorable mention All-America certificates in the 200 IM and the 400 medley relay during her sophomore campaign.

Graduate Kim Holden closed out her career with 11 BIG EAST championships, 22 all-BIG EAST citations and two honorable mention All-America scrolls in the 200 backstroke and 400 medley relay in the pool before earning a prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and a BIG EAST postgraduate scholarship for her outstanding efforts in the classroom.

Fellow graduate Jenny Chiang completed a career sweep in the 3-meter dive at the BIG EAST meet before earning honorable mention All-America honors in the event at the NCAA Championships.

In addition, senior Kelly Ryan, junior Bridget Casey and sophomore Catherine Galletti also appeared at the NCAA Championships, with Ryan earning honorable mention All-America honors in the 200 back and 400 medley relay and Galletti securing honorable mention All-America accolades with her relay teammates.

Despite the historic year for the program, Barnes, now in his sixth year with the Irish, has even higher goals for his squad.

"We definitely aren't satisfied with finishing 16th," Barnes said with a chuckle. "We are constantly trying to get better in all areas, and we aren't settling for anything we have done in past years... at the ACC meet I expect us to show up prepared and ready to compete against some great teams."

The new season started for the program over the summer as five current student-athletes competed at national meets. Reaney, Ryan and Casey qualified for the Phillips 66 Championships, which served as the World Championship

Trials, while Reaney, Ryan, Melissa Scott and incoming freshman Catherine Mulquin swam at the U.S. Open. Reaney turned in standout performances at both meets, swimming in a pair of B finals at the World Championship Trials before turning in three top-five performances at the U.S. Open to lock up a spot on the 2013-14 U.S. National Team. Mulquin also shined at the U.S. Open, finishing 13th in the 100 back.

"I expect Kelly and Emma to lead the team with their experience as they are both positioning themselves to be All-Americans again," said Barnes. "It's easy for Emma to stay motivated when she has goals that go beyond the NCAA meet. If she trains with these higher goals in mind, it will only help her when the time comes to race at the ACC and NCAA meets."

On the diving side, sophomores Emma Gaboury and Lindsey Streepey placed 10th at the USA Diving National Championships in the 3-meter synchronized springboard event.

After returning to school in August, the Irish have hit the pool hard as they train for the upcoming season and a new league. The ACC, like in many sports, is an upgrade from the BIG EAST as seven schools scored points at last year's NCAA Championships, led by North Carolina's 12th place showing.

"It's a strong conference for us particularly at the top end," said Barnes. "Virginia and North Carolina are perennially in the top 10 or top 15 at the national level. The conference is also coached very well. We are excited to join a larger conference with a deeper league meet and I think it can only help Notre Dame."

FREESTYLE

A strong freestyle group is led by Galletti, Ryan and Reaney, who all swam legs of the 400 free relay that placed 24th at the NCAA Championships. In addition to those three, junior Suzanne Bessire is looking to have a breakout junior year after winning BIG EAST titles as part of relay teams in each of her first two years in addition to a third place showing in the 200 free as a freshman.

Junior Hannah Bowen is back after missing her sophomore year with an injury and is ready to compete in the sprint freestyle events with senior Mikelle Masciantonio, while Erin Foley returns for her third campaign to swim the distance freestyle events with Casey.

Freshmen Mulquin, Molly Barry, Elizabeth House and Katie Miller enter their first season with plenty of veterans to help lead the way.

BREASTSTROKE

In addition to Reaney, who has turned in multiple world-class swims since the end of last season, veterans Christen McDonough and Laurin Stauder give the Irish some seasoned talent in the breaststroke. Reaney, who owns both school breaststroke records, is on the 2013-14 National Team in the two events. McDonough ended the 2012-13 season by placing third in the 100 breast at the BIG EAST Championships, while Stauder placed in the top nine in both the 100 and 200 distances. Sophomore Genevieve Bradford also has conference meet experience as she took 13th in both races last season.

Sophomore Sydney Golic and freshman Danielle Margheret will have plenty of opportunities to improve throughout the course of the season, with Golic already boasting conference meet experience.

Junior Allison Casareto won the 1-meter dive and finished third on the 3-meter boards at last year's BIG EAST Championships.

BACKSTROKE

Ryan, who has earned All-America accolades (one first team and one honorable mention citation) in two trips to the NCAAs in the 200 backstroke, leads the group as she looks to once again secure All-America honors in her final campaign with the Irish.

"Kelly will be dialed in this year in her final season," said Barnes. "She has a ton of experience at the NCAA and national level and we expect her to be a leader for us."

Behind Ryan is the freshman Mulquin, who had the already-mentioned 13th place finish in the 100 back at the U.S. Open, as well as Galletti, Golic, Miller and sophomore Anna Grainger.

BUTTERFLY

The fly is a deep position for the Irish as veterans Casey, Scott, Galletti, senior Sarah Dotzel, junior Courtney Whyte and sophomore Genevieve Heidkamp all boast BIG EAST meet experience.

Last year, Casey finished second in the 200 fly to earn all-BIG EAST honors before advancing to the NCAA Championships, while Whyte took sixth in both the 100 and 200, Scott placed seventh in the 200 and Dotzel claimed 11th in the 100 at the BIG EAST Championships.

INDIVIDUAL MEDLEY

Besides Reaney, who holds both school records in the 200 and 400 IM and is a two-time honorable mention All-American in the 200, Scott and Masciantonio have IM experience.

Also expected to provide a boost in the event is freshman Katie Miller, who Barnes tabbed as a strong IMer with good ability in the 200 fly, back and free among other events.

DIVING

Despite losing Chiang, diving should be a strong point for the Irish as they return three diving standouts. Leading the charge is junior Allison Casareto, who won the 1-meter discipline at last year's BIG EAST meet and has three all-BIG EAST scrolls in two years.

Also returning are the previously mentioned Streepey and Gaboury, who put in yeoman's work at last year's BIG EAST meet by finishing in the top eight in all three diving disciplines. Highlighting their meet was a third place finish off the platform for Streepey to earn all-BIG EAST honors. Joining the diving fold this year is freshman Christine Stitcher.

SCHEDULE

A challenging schedule welcomes the Irish to the ACC as the squad will compete against 12 teams that finished in the top 40 at the 2013 NCAA Championships, including dual meets with seven of those squads. Four of those teams will make at least one appearance at Rofs Aquatic Center this season.

"Our schedule this year appears to be very rigorous and offer great competition from several different conferences," said Barnes. "The coaching staff always tries to schedule a tough slate for the program because we feel like the team learns a lot about competing by going against challenging competition on a weekly basis."

After opening with the 49th version of the Dennis Stark Relays, where they will compete against national powers Auburn and Indiana in addition to Illinois State, Cleveland State, Oakland and Valparaiso (Oct. 11), the Irish will play host to the Tigers and Hoosiers in a tri-meet the following day (Oct. 12). Auburn (13th) and Indiana (11th) finished just ahead of Notre Dame (16th) last season at NCAAs.

"Our opening weekend is a great way to kick off the season," said Barnes. "The Dennis Stark Relays are always a fun event and are one of our program's best traditions. The next day we jump right into some very stiff competition with Auburn and Indiana. Both days will be a great way to get the 2013-14 season going."

The month of November will see the Irish compete in three dual meets and one tri-meet. Nov. 1 Notre Dame heads to West Lafayette, Ind., to battle Purdue. The Boilermakers finished 19th at the NCAA meet last year.

A week later the Irish travel to Pittsburgh for a tri-meet with ACC foes Pitt and Virginia Tech Nov. 9. The Hokies tied for 24th last year at NCAAs.

Notre Dame closes out November with a pair of dual meets at Rofs Aquatic Center against Michigan State (Nov. 15) and Wisconsin (Nov. 16). The Spartans took 36th last year at the NCAA meet, while the Badgers were one spot ahead of the Irish at 15th.

The Irish close out the fall portion of its schedule December 6-8, as the team will head to Iowa City, Iowa for the three-day Hawkeye Invitational. Last year the meet saw a ranked Michigan squad and a handful of other Big Ten squads compete in one of the final national meets before Christmas.

In a yearly tradition of getting away from the winter weather of South Bend, the Irish will make their way south as the swimming team heads to Nassau, Bahamas while the diving team ventures to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. The week will primarily be a training trip, but the swimming team will compete against Truman State, while the diving squad will participate in the College Swimming Coaches Association of America 2014 Forum.

Back in the Midwest, Notre Dame gets back to dual-meet action Jan. 11 when it heads to Evanston, Ill., to compete against Northwestern and Michigan. The Wolverines placed 36th at last season's NCAA Championships.

The following week, the Irish head to long-time rival Louisville (Jan. 18). Despite falling to the Cardinals at the BIG EAST Championships, the Irish (No. 16) bested Louisville (No. 22) at the NCAA meet by six spots.

Heading into February, the Irish close out the 2013-14 home season with the annual Shamrock Invitational (Jan. 31-Feb. 1) and a dual meet against Cleveland State (Feb. 8).

A first for the program takes place Feb. 19-22 as Notre Dame heads to Greensboro, N.C., for the Atlantic Coast Conference Swimming and Diving Championships. There the Irish will compete against six teams that finished in the top 40 of last year's NCAA Championships - North Carolina (No. 12), Virginia (No. 18), Miami (No. 20), Virginia Tech (T-No. 24), Florida State (No. 32) and N.C. State (T-No. 37).

"This year's ACC meet will be a learning experience for everyone as we get familiar with a new league," said Barnes. "The meet will offer a much deeper field than in previous years and we are excited to compete against so many teams that joined us at NCAAs last year."

Following the ACC meet, the Irish look nationally as the divers compete in the NCAA Zone C qualifying meet (March 13-15) before all swimming and diving qualifiers head to Minneapolis, Minn., for the NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships (March 20-22).

GIVE A GIFT and LEAVE A LEGACY

Over 700 student-athletes on 26 varsity teams excelling in academics, spirituality, community service and athletics - all made possible courtesy of the generous alumni, parents and friends who support Notre Dame's first athletics annual fund – the Rockne Heritage Fund.

The culmination of these gifts assists the University in underwriting athletics scholarships that are the lifeblood of every program that wants to recruit the best and the brightest and compete for national championships.

Our work has just begun. Scholarships are one of the largest line items in the athletic department's operating budget, accounting for roughly $18 million annually.

Levels of Giving

No minimum donation is required to join the Rockne Heritage Fund. Every gift matters and is impactful. All donors receive a quarterly e-newsletter and an invitation to the RHF Blue/Gold Tailgate. Donors contributing at the recognition society levels receive corresponding experience packages and special contributor status related to the football ticket lottery. The three levels available are: Director's Circle traditional ($1,500-$4,999, annually), Director's Circle Blue ($5,000 - $9,999, annually) and Director's Circle Gold ($10,000 or more, annually). More information on privileges of membership can be found at our website: und.com/rockneheritagefund.

Make a Gift Today

- Send a check payable to the Rockne Heritage Fund; P.O. Box 519; Notre Dame, IN 46556.
- Visit online: supporting.nd.edu and include "Rockne Heritage Fund" in the comments section.
- Gifts can also be specific to any of the 26 varsity sports - Rockne Softball, Rockne Hockey, Rockne Men's Tennis, etc.
- Specify if your employer will match your gift.
- Notre Dame employees may request a payroll deduction form.
- All contributions to the Rockne Heritage Fund are credited toward eligibility in the football ticket lottery.

Coaching Staff

Head Coach
6th Season
Indiana '95

Brian Barnes is entering his sixth season as the head coach of the University of Notre Dame women's swimming and diving program in 2013-14 after joining the University in August 2008.

"It's an absolute honor to be here at Notre Dame," Barnes said at his hiring. "My coaching career has now gone full circle, beginning as a club coach for 10-year-olds and practicing at (Notre Dame's) Rolfs Aquatic Center to being the head coach here." "This school is one of the finest academic institutions in the world, and I certainly believe that you also can have high levels of success here at Notre Dame in women's swimming and diving."

During his time with the Irish, Barnes has continued the program's winning ways as evidenced by a strong 2012-13 season that saw the Irish place a program-best 16th at the NCAA Championships by scoring 55 points, which is the second most in school history. Sophomore Emma Reaney continued stamping her mark in program annals, earning BIG EAST Most Outstanding Swimmer accolades, receiving two All-America and two honorable mention All-America certificates and turning in a world-class performance at the U.S. Open to lock up a spot on the 2013-14 U.S. Swimming National Team. In addition to Reaney, four other Irish performers combined to win six honorable mention All-America certificates and the Irish closed out their time in the BIG EAST with their third consecutive runner-up finish. For his efforts, Barnes earned BIG EAST Swimming Coach of the Year for the third time.

The 2011-12 season saw two student-athletes earn All-America honors, 10 receive all-BIG EAST accolades and eight secure a spot at the 2012 U.S. Olympic Trials.

Highlighting the season were sophomore Kelly Ryan and the freshman Reaney. Ryan received seven all-BIG EAST scrolls, won four events (two individual and two relay), was named an All-American in the 200 back and swam three events at the Olympic Trials, while Reaney earned all-BIG EAST honors in seven events, won four BIG EAST championships (two individual and two relay), was named an honorable mention All-American in three events (100 and 200 breast, 200 IM) and competed in four events at the Olympic Trials, including a semifinal appearance in the 200 IM. Reaney also earned a spot in Sports Illustrated's Faces In The Crowd for the Jan. 16th edition and earned BIG EAST Swimmer of the Week three times.

Diver Jenny Chiang also turned in an impressive year as she won the BIG EAST

3-meter crown for the third year in a row and advanced to the NCAA Championships in both the 1-meter and 3-meter diving events, finishing 17th in the 1-meter, just one spot away from earning All-America honors.

In his first two years with the Irish, Barnes helped secure the 14th and 15th consecutive BIG EAST titles in 2009 and 2010. The streak is the longest in BIG EAST history regardless of sport. For his efforts, he earned BIG EAST Coach of the Year both seasons.

During those campaigns, the program brought home 18 championships (five relay and 13 individual) 13 second-place finishes (two relay and 11 individual) and nine third-place finishes (two relay and seven individual). All totaled, Irish student-athletes claimed 67 All-BIG EAST awards in 2009 and 2010.

During that time span, junior diver Natalie Stitt earned BIG EAST Most Outstanding Diver accolades in 2009 after winning the one and three-meter dives, while junior Samantha Maxwell claimed BIG EAST Most Outstanding Swimmer honors in 2010 after having a hand in four titles (100 and 200 breast, 200 and 400 medley relay).

Barnes also coached a pair of All-Americans in Maxwell and Amywren Miller.

Maxwell earned All-America honors in the 100 breast and honorable mention in the 200 breast as a sophomore in 2009 and honorable mention in the 100 breast as a junior in 2010. Miller received All-America accolades as a junior in 2010 in the 50 free. Stitt advanced to nationals in 2009 in the one-meter dive.

Despite claiming second at the 2011 BIG EAST Championships, thus ending Notre Dame's dominant streak, the Irish racked up the accolades, winning seven titles, two relay and five individual, and earning 29 All-BIG EAST scrolls.

Maxwell returned to the NCAA Championships in 2011, and was joined by sophomore Kim Holden, who competed in three events.

During the summer of 2011, five Notre Dame swimmers, including incoming freshman Bridget Casey, competed at the ConocoPhillips National Championships. For her efforts in the 200 fly, Casey earned a spot on the USA Swimming National Junior Team.

A summary of accolades involving the Notre Dame women's swimming and diving during Barnes' tenure include five All-Americans, 13 honorable mention All-Americans, 16 NCAA qualifiers among nine student-athletes, two BIG EAST team titles, 42 BIG EAST combined relay and individual titles, 164 All-BIG EAST honors, three BIG EAST Swimming Coach of the Year awards, two BIG EAST Most Outstanding Swimmer awards and two BIG EAST Most Outstanding Diver awards.

Sixteen of the 21 school records have fallen during Barnes time with the program.

In 2011, Barnes created and ran the first annual Coaches vs. Cancer Fighting Irish Swim Clinic. The clinic saw almost 100 kids age 8-18 participate and raised more than $5,000 towards the local RiverBend Cancer Services and the American Cancer Society.

Barnes and the rest of the Irish swimming and diving team topped their performance in 2012, raising over $20,000 with the help of Olympic gold medalist Tyler McGill, who coached at the meet, and a $10,000 donation from Notre Dame football head coach Bryan Kelly's foundation Kelly Cares.

2013 saw Olympic gold medalist Tyler Clary appear at the third annual clinic, with the total raised topping $20,000 for the second straight year.

Before coming to Notre Dame, the Osceola, Ind., native helped guide both the Auburn men's and women's swimming teams to NCAA Championships in 2006 and 2007. The men won the Southeastern Conference meet three times from 2006-08, while the women picked up a pair of league titles during that span. In 2008, Auburn's men placed fifth at the NCAA meet, with the women posting a runner-up performance.

Overall, Barnes helped mentor 291 All-Americans in his three years as an assistant, including 11 individual and six relay titles between the two teams. In the SEC, the women produced 15 individual titles and eight relay titles during Barnes three seasons, while the men had 12 individual and relay titles.

Barnes spent three seasons (2002-05) as the assistant men's swimming coach at his alma mater, Indiana University. He helped coach the 2005 Hoosiers to their highest finish at the NCAA Championships since 1991 and their first 10-win dual meet season since 1985. In 2005, Indiana garnered 29 All-America honors, the most since 1976, and finished second at the Big Ten Conference Championships. In 2004, the Hoosiers had five All-Americans and finished 17th at the NCAA Men's Championships. Overall, Barnes helped tutor 93 All-Americans and seven Big Ten champions while with the Hoosiers.

Barnes was a highly accomplished swimmer during his career at Indiana from 1992-95. He was a two-time All-American and a five-time honorable mention All-American.

His school record in the 400 Individual Medley stood for more than 15 years from 1992 until 2007. A two-time team most valuable swimmer, he served as team captain during his senior campaign.

The two-time Indiana Swimming Male Swimmer of the Year (1989, 1995) was also a member of the USA Swimming National Team in 1989 and 1992. Barnes was a U.S. Olympic Trials qualifier in 1992 and 1996.

A 1995 graduate of Indiana, Barnes earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and is a level-4 certified member of the American Swimming Coaches Association.

Following graduation, Barnes got into coaching with the local Michiana Marlins, a USA Swimming club team that practices in the Rolfs Aquatic Center on the campus of Notre Dame. He was the assistant coach for two seasons at the University of Kansas and the head coach of the Lawrence (Kan.) Aquahawks swim club from 1998-2002 before heading to his alma mater for three seasons.

Barnes, the father of Jack and Caroline, lives in South Bend.

CAIMING XIE

Head Diving Coach
19th Season
Beijing Institute of Physical Education '85

Now in the 36th year of his career as a diving coach, Caiming Xie has helped his protégés win BIG EAST titles, All-America honors and gold medals. A proven winner, Caiming's experience reaches all over the world, with 2013-14 marks his 19th season as head women's and men's diving coach at Notre Dame.

During his tenure, he has molded four of the top divers ever to compete for the Irish - Jenny Chiang, Heather Mattingly, Meghan Perry-Eaton and Natalie Stitt - who combined for 12 BIG EAST titles, 10 appearances in the NCAA Championships, 10 All-America or honorable mention All-America citations and five BIG EAST Most Outstanding Diver awards. One of the foursome holds all of the Notre Dame and Rolfs Aquatics Center diving records and both of the BIG EAST diving marks.

For his efforts, Caiming, the first full-time diving coach in Notre Dame history, was named the BIG EAST's top women's diving coach on five occasions, claiming the top honor in 1999, 2004, 2005, 2009 and 2013. In addition, Caiming won men's diving coach of the year five times to give him 10 total during Notre Dame's run in the BIG EAST from 1996-2013.

Most recently, Caiming coached Jenny Chiang to a career sweep in the 3-meter dive at the BIG EAST 2010-13. Chiang topped off her career by earning BIG EAST Most Outstanding Diver honors at the league meet before claiming honorable mention All-America accolades in the 3-meter discipline at the NCAA championships one year after finishing 17th on the 1-meter boards, just one spot away from honorable mention All-America honors.

Before Chiang, Natalie Stitt won the 2009 BIG EAST Championships Most Outstanding Diver honor as Stitt swept the 1- and 3-meter events at the league meet. She went on to compete at the NCAA Championships in both events.

Caiming helped coach a United States squad that claimed six medals at the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia. Caiming again coached at the 2011 World University Games in Shenzhen, China.

In 2006, Caiming molded two women's divers into all-BIG EAST performers in the 3-meter event, as Lucy Hirt was the runner up while her teammate, Tara Hyer, placed third in the same event at the BIG EAST Championships. For his efforts, Caiming captured his fourth BIG EAST Coach of the Year Award. Just two seasons later, Hyer was third off the 3-meter board at the league meet while Natalie Stitt claimed the title in that event and placed third off the 1-meter board.

From 2003-05, Perry-Eaton turned in the most impressive two-year stretch ever by an Irish diver, as she was beaten just one time during the regular season before sweeping the springboard events at the 2004 and 2005 BIG EAST Championships en route to being tabbed the meet's top diver.

Perry-Eaton was the first Notre Dame diver ever to win a title at the NCAA Zone C Championships in 2004, taking first off the 1-meter board. At the NCAA Championships, she delivered the highest-ever finish for a Notre Dame swimmer or diver, taking third in that event, ending up just 3.30 points behind the national champion to become an All-American. She followed up with a fifth-place finish in 1-meter diving at the 2005 NCAA meet.

In 2002-03, Perry-Eaton became the first Notre Dame diver - and first non-University of Miami diver since 1996 - to win a BIG EAST championship, placing first in the 1-meter competition. She also was second on the 3-meter board and was named the BIG EAST'S top diver - her first of three consecutive diver-of-the-year awards. Perry-Eaton then qualified for the NCAA Championships, where she placed ninth in the 1-meter event and 20th on the 3-meter board to earn honorable mention All-America honors.

Mattingly was the first Irish diver to earn All-America honors, as she was a four-time honorable mention selection before being named an All-American in 3-meter action in 2002 with an eighth- place finish. Mattingly was the first Notre Dame diver to qualify for the NCAA Division I Championships, and she earned bids to the meet in each of her four collegiate campaigns. Mattingly also had a great deal of success in the NCAA zone meet, taking second in 1-meter action in 1999, in addition to third-place results in 3-meter competition in both 1999 and 2002.

Before coming to Notre Dame, Caiming was the head diving coach for three years at Toledo, earning Mid-American Conference Diving Coach of the Year laurels in each of his last two seasons. Prior to his stint with the Rockets, Caiming was an assistant coach for the 1991-92 season at Pittsburgh.

Boasting a wealth of international experience on his résumé, Caiming served as the 1980 Chinese Olympic diving coach. He also was a technical consultant for United States Diving since 1994 and has held clinics and presentations for the United States Diving national team.

The Chinese national team coach from 1977-90, Caiming coached Sun Shu-Wei, a gold medalist in the men's platform competition at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona, Spain, and Zhu Jin- Hong, who finished fourth in the women's platform in Barcelona. Caiming's divers also have earned medals at the Asian Games, World Cup, World University Games, and World Championships.

A competitive diver in his own right, Caiming won the springboard competition at the Asian Games in 1974 and earned first place in the platform and second in the springboard competition at the National Games of China in 1975.

A 1985 graduate of the Beijing Institute of Physical Education, he also won numerous Chinese diving championships on the national level.

Caiming and his wife, Ping Tong, have one son, Tong, who graduated from Notre Dame in 2003 after a successful career as an Irish diver.

KATE KOVENOCK

Assistant Coach

Fifth Season

Connecticut College '05

Kate Kovenock was named assistant coach for the Notre Dame women's swimming and diving team in the spring of 2009 after serving as an assistant coach for the men's and women's teams at Division III powerhouse Kenyon College. The 2013-14 season will mark her fifth with the Irish program.

"Kate's hire was a true search and a true hire," said head coach Brian Barnes. "That's not common in the coaching community, but it was very clear to me that Kate was the right person for our program and for the University. She is very bright and has great instincts. When we met I knew immediately that she used her time at Kenyon well. She has an understanding of the level of effort it takes to compete at a championship level and the pace required to be competitive from year-to-year."

"When Coach Barnes offered me the position, I accepted without hesitation," said Kovenock. "My excitement at the prospect of joining Barnes' staff and to coach at Notre Dame was - and continues to be - impossible to hide. Barnes and I believe in the potential that exists at Notre Dame. It is an honor to share the responsibility to continue to raise the national profile of the Notre Dame women's swimming and diving program."

During her time with the Irish Kovenock has been a key asset to a program that has continued its successful history under Barnes.

The 2012-13 season was an historic one for the Irish as the squad finished a school-best 16th at the NCAA Championship meet with 55 points, which is the second most in program history. In addition, sophomore Emma Reaney earned All-America honors in both breaststroke events, while Reaney and four of her teammates collected eight honorable mention All-America scrolls. Reaney later went on to star at the U.S. Open on her way to being selected to the 2013-14 US Swimming National Team.

2011-12 was no different as two student-athletes earned All-America honors and eight earned a spot at the U.S. Olympic Trials. Highlighting the season were sophomore Kelly Ryan and the first-year star Reaney. Ryan was named an All-American in the 200 back and swam three events at the Olympic Trials, while Reaney earned honorable mention All-America accolades in three events (100 and 200 breast, 200 IM) and competed in four events at the Olympic Trials, including a semifinal appearance in the 200 IM. Reaney also earned a spot in Sports Illustrated's Faces In The Crowd for the Jan. 16th edition.

During her first two years with Notre Dame, Kovenock also helped tutor Irish standouts Samantha Maxwell, Amy Wren Miller and Kim Holden. Maxwell, the 2010 BIG EAST Most Outstanding Swimmer after having a hand in four titles (100 and 200 breast, 200 and 400 medley relay), earned All-America honors in the 100 breast and honorable mention All-America accolades in the 200 breast as a sophomore in 2009 and honorable mention All-America honors in the 100 breast as a junior in 2010. She also competed at the NCAA's in 2011. Miller received All-America accolades as a junior in 2010 in the 50 free, while Holden competed in three events at the 2011 NCAA Championships.

During Kovenock's first season in 2010, the Irish won their 15th and final BIG EAST title in a row to extend the longest streak in league history regardless of sport. After 2010, the Irish claimed second three consecutive years before moving to the Atlantic Coast Conference for the 2013-14 season.

Away from competitive action, Kovenock has helped plan and organize with Barnes three Coaches vs. Cancer Fighting Irish Swim Clinics that have raised over $25,000 (not sure about this year yet) for RiverBend Cancer Services and the American Cancer Society.

During Kovenock's four years at Kenyon, the women's program won three NCAA Championships (2007, 2008, 2009), the men's program won four NCAA Champions (2006, 2007, 2008, 2009), and Kenyon swimmers earned over 240 All-American awards in NCAA competition.

"(While at Kenyon) I learned a tremendous amount about life and work behind the scenes of an established championship team," said Kovenock. "Regardless of what a team or an athlete or a coach has accomplished in past years, you have to be willing to redefine the standard. We're trying to maximize potential in all that we do. It comes down to consistently recognizing and capitalizing on the opportunities that are in front of us everyday. My passion and belief in Notre Dame is tied directly to that philosophy. The opportunities that exist at the University of Notre Dame are unparalleled. If we recruit student-athletes with the right talent, belief, and desire, the Notre Dame swimming and diving program can do something special."

On deck at Kenyon, Kovenock worked under legendary head coach Jim Steen and was given specific training responsibilities with the men's and women's sprint groups. Over the course of four years, a Kenyon swimmer won the 50 freestyle NCAA title twice (2007, 2009) and the NCAA record, which still stands today, was broken once (2009).

In addition to her coaching duties, Kovenock coordinated recruiting for the women's program. After back-to-back NCAA runner-up finishes in 2005 and 2006, the swimmers recruited during Kovenock's tenure sparked a resurgence for the women's program, playing key roles in Kenyon's three titles from 2007-09. As a sprinter at Connecticut College (Div. III), Kovenock captured an individual NCAA Championship in the 50 free (2004) and earned 11 individual NCAA All-American awards (2002 - 2005). At the conference level, she went undefeated in the 50 and 100 freestyle events over her four years.

Kovenock's collegiate career was marked by academic accolades as well. Graduating with a B.A. in honors philosophy, Kovenock was an Academic All-American during each of her four years and was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American Team during both her junior and senior years.

JOSH SKUBE

Volunteer Assistant Swimming Coach
14th Season
Indiana '98

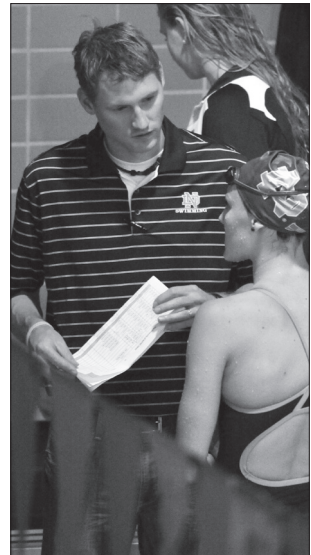

Skube swam collegiately for Ball State University from 1994-96 before earning a bachelor's degree in kinesiology ('98) and a master's degree in exercise physiology ('00) from Indiana University.

Skube also has served as an assistant coach for Bloomington North High School (1999-2000) and the Duneland Swim Club (1995-97). Known for his deep technical knowledge of the sport, he also has been published in SwimTechnique magazine.

A distance freestyle specialist, Skube hails from Chesterton, Ind., and swam for Chesterton High School, earning team MVP honors in leading the Trojans to Duneland Conference titles in his final two seasons.

Skube comes from a family with strong Notre Dame roots, as his father Thomas ('70), uncle Charles ('60) and cousins Mara ('86) and Steve ('90) are all graduates of the University. Born in Crown Point, Ind., Skube and his wife, Susan, live in South Bend with their daughters, Ivie, Addison and Waverly.

Josh Skube is in his 14th season as a volunteer assistant coach for Notre Dame swimming and diving in 2013-14, returning to the women's program in 2011-12 after six years with the Fighting Irish men. Also in his 14th year as a faculty member in the physical education department, Skube assists in all aspects of home practices and meets, while traveling with the team to away meets.

ANNIE EATON

Volunteer Assistant Diving Coach
First Season
Indiana '82

Annie Eaton joined the University of Notre Dame women's swimming and diving staff in the fall of 2013 as the volunteer diving coach.

Eaton, who has an impressive resume as the Assistant Director of the Alcohol and Drug Education program at Notre Dame, has been a diving coach for over a decade. A certified USA diving coach, Eaton has shared her diving expertise with young divers at Marian, Washington and Plymouth high schools since 2001.

In her new role with the Irish, Eaton will assist long-time Notre Dame diving coach Gaiming Xie as the program transitions to the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Eaton, who lives in Plymouth, Ind., has a bachelor of arts in forensic studies from Indiana University ('82), a Master of Science in Education, Counseling and Human Development from Indiana University-South Bend ('93) and has also completed additional hours above her masters in theology and gender studies from Notre Dame.

Operations Specialist Intern

First Season

Ball State '04

Ryan Von Gunten joined the University of Notre Dame women's swimming and diving program as its operations specialist intern in the summer of 2013. With the Irish, Von Gunten assists in administration, travel, practice setup and a variety of other tasks.

Prior to coming to Notre Dame, Von Gunten worked in a variety of roles in and around the Bloomington, Ind., area for the last eight years.

After graduating from Ball State in 2004 with a degree in exercise science, he moved on to Indiana University to work toward a masters in kinesiology with a specialty in sports administration and marketing.

After completing that degree in 2006, Von Gunten began a five-year run in the Hoosiers' athletic department. After finishing a year as a compliance intern, Von Gunten spent three and a half years as compliance coordinator.

Von Gunten's experience with swimming is extensive as he was on the Tri-State University swimming team from 1999-01.

Over the last two years he has spent time as an assistant coach for the Indiana University Club Paradise swim team, the Bloomington High School South swim team, the Jackson Creek Junior High swim team and lastly with the IU swimming team as a volunteer assistant coach. While with the Hoosiers for the 2012-13 season Von Gunten helped coach both teams to a pair of second place finishes at the Big Ten meet and tutored seven all-Big Ten first team selections and seven all-Big Ten second team honorees.

NOTRE DAME

Fighting Irish

Season In Review

During her sophomore campaign, Emma Reaney continued to re-write the Irish record books as she earned two All-America scrolls, two honorable mention All-America certificates and won six BIG EAST Championships.

The University of Notre Dame women's swimming diving team had another outstanding year under fifth year head coach Brian Barnes as the Irish closed out their BIG EAST tenure with their 18th top-three finish in 18 years at the conference meet before sending six student-athletes to the NCAA Championships.

Once there, the squad turned in a historic meet as Notre Dame finished 16th at the NCAA Championships after scoring 55 points, while five student-athletes combined to earn 10 All-America or Honorable Mention All-America scrolls. The 16th place finish was the highest in team history, while the 55 points was the second most in the history of the program. Notre Dame also finished second at the BIG EAST Championship for the third year in a row. In their 18 years in the BIG EAST, the Irish won 14 titles, finished as runner-up three times and claimed third once.

Earning All-America honors was sophomore Emma Reaney (100 and 200 Breaststroke), who also claimed two honorable mention All-America citations (200 IM, 400 Medley Relay). Joining her in earning honorable mention All-America accolades were teammates Kelly

Ryan (200 Backstroke, 400 Medley Relay), Kim Holden (200 Backstroke, 400 Medley Relay), Catherine Galletti (400 Medley Relay) and Jenny Chiang (3-Meter Dive).

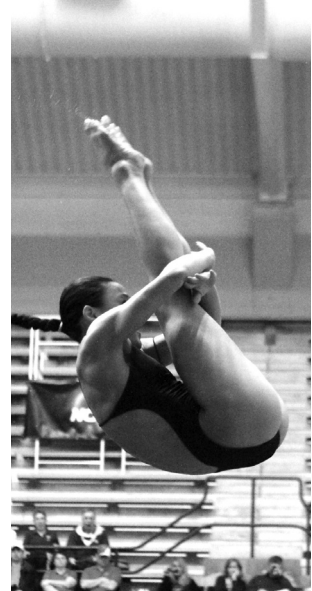

The All-America honors at the NCAA Championships capped off another outstanding year for Reaney, as she won six BIG EAST crowns and seven all-BIG EAST medals to earn conference most outstanding swimmer honors. During the year, she earned three BIG EAST Women's Swimming and Diving Athlete of the Week awards and was named the Counselman Hunsaker CollegeSwimming.com National Division I Women's Swimmer of the Week after breaking a pair of Rofls Aquatic Center pool records. In her first two years, the Lawrence, Kan., native earned two All-America and five Honorable Mention All-America certificates, 10 BIG EAST titles and 14 all-BIG EAST scrolls.

Holden turned in quite a senior season as a true student-athlete, finding national success in the pool and in the classroom. The 2013 Notre Dame graduate earned two Honorable Mention All-America citations, three BIG EAST titles and seven all-BIG EAST medals in the pool. In the classroom, the Mount Kisco, N.Y., native won a prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and was Notre Dame's female winner of the American Eagle Outfitters BIG EAST Institutional Scholar-Athlete Scholarship, with the two awards totaling $9,500. Holden will use those scholarships as she pursues a doctorate in audiology from the University of North Carolina.

Chiang closed out an impressive four-year career with the Irish by winning her fourth BIG EAST title on the 3-meter board to claim conference most outstanding diver accolades. Along the way Chiang became the first BIG EAST diver to win four championships in a row in one event and only the second Irish competitor to complete the career sweep, joining Kelly Hecking, who won the 100 backstroke from 1999-2002.

At the BIG EAST Championships, the Irish had a fine showing in their final BIG EAST meet as they set four conference records, broke six school marks, won 10 events, had three NCAA A cuts and 14 NCAA B cuts in finals events. Notre Dame's efforts were rewarded with a 178.50-point improvement from 2011-12, putting a nice capstone on the program's BIG EAST run.

Standouts at the conference meet were aplenty with Reaney finishing first in six of her seven events and second in the seventh one, Holden placing in the top two in all seven events and Ryan finishing in the gold or silver position in six.

Divers Allison Casareto and Chiang swept the boards and seniors Lauren Scott and Jaime Malandra closed out their Irish careers with gold medals in separate relay events. Other strong all-BIG EAST showings included a silver for sophomore Bridget Casey in the 200 fly and a bronze for junior Christen McDonough in the 100 breast.

Elsewhere, freshman divers Lindsey Streep-ey and Emma Gaboury placed in the top eight in all three diving disciplines, senior Gracie Fredlake did the same in the 400 IM, 1,650 free and 500 free events and sophomore Courtney Whyte placed sixth in both fly events.

Mentoring the swimming and diving squads were Barnes, who earned BIG EAST Women's Swimming Coach of the Year honors for the third time, and veteran diving coach Caiming Xie, who claimed BIG EAST Women's Diving Coach of the Year accolades for the seventh time.

All the prep work that led to an impressive end of the year began way back in August when the Irish reported to camp to begin training. Notre Dame finally opened the 2012-13 campaign in early October with a first place finish at the 48th annual Dennis Stark Relays as it topped Cleveland State, Illinois State, Oakland and IU-PUI by winning 11 of the 12 events.

The Irish picked up their first dual meet win of the season with a 188-112 victory over Pittsburgh at Rolfs Aquatic Center. Notre Dame won 12 of the 14 events to cruise past its BIG EAST rivals.

In mid-November, Notre Dame turned heads by winning the Kansas Invitational, besting Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa State, Rice and Nebraska Omaha by racking up 976.5 points. The Irish won 11 of the 18 events, with Reaney earning four individual victories. Notre Dame broke 11 meet records, including record swims by the 200 and 400 medley relay teams and the 400 free relay squad.

Notre Dame closed out the fall season by placing fifth at the Ohio State Invitational with just its swimmers competing and eighth at the Hawkeye Invitational with just its divers performing. In Ohio, the Irish broke six school records with Reaney setting new marks in the 100 and 200 breast and 200 and 400 IM, Holden lowering the 100 fly record and Reaney, Holden, Ryan and Galletti breaking the 400 medley relay mark. Notre Dame bested ranked foes Wisconsin, Indiana, Purdue and Texas during the meet.

The Irish opened the spring portion of their schedule with impressive wins over Michigan and Northwestern in dual meet action. Reaney rewrote the Rolfs Aquatic Center record books in the two breaststroke events, taking down marks held by Olympian Rebecca Soni from when she swam at USC.

The annual Shamrock Invitational turned into a route in 2013 as Notre Dame blitzed Towson 309-60 over the course of the two days. The Irish won every event during the two days and broke two pool records, including an impressive swim by Holden to lower the mark in the 100 back.

Notre Dame closed out the regular season with a dual victory at Toledo in which it won 12 of the 16 events on the meet program.

During the summer, Reaney had big meets at the Phillips 66 National Championships and World Championship Qualifying meet, where she swam in the finals in both the 100m breaststroke and 200m IM, and at the U.S. Open, where she locked up her spot on the 2013-14 U.S. National Team by placing second in the 200m breast, third in the 100m breast, fourth in the 200m IM, eighth in the 200m fly and 12th in the 100m fly.

Junior Kelly Ryan picked up two honorable mention All-America scrolls and won three BIG EAST Championships during the 2013 season.

2013 graduated Jenny Chiang closed out her Irish career with an honorable mention All-America performance on the 3-meter discipline at the 2013 NCAA Championships.

2013 graduate Kim Holden earned a pair of honorable mention All-America scrolls in the 200 back and 400 medley relay in her final year with the Irish.

Former Notre Dame head coach Carrie Nixon earned a program-best 12 All-America accolades during her career, which was highlighted by setting the NCAA Championships record in the 50m Free (24.99) in 2000.

The first two Notre Dame women's swimming and diving All-Americans were middle-distance freestyler Jeanine Blatt (middle) and diver Betsy Shadley (right) – shown here with former head coach Dennis Stark. The two were AIAW Division III All-Americans in 1979, two seasons before the women's varsity program was established.

At Notre Dame's eighth annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase) in 2009, the Notre Dame women's swimming and diving team was recognized with The Trophy Award for its work with the Irish Aquatics swim program, providing swim lessons to area youth. Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development and first presented in 2006, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend.

The most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete, the Byron V. Kanaley Award has been presented each year since 1927 to the senior monogram athletes who have been most exemplary as both students and leaders. The awards, presented by the Faculty Board on Athletics, are named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960.

In addition to their many accomplishments in collegiate action, Notre Dame women's swimmers and divers have a history of also competing in various prestigious national and international meets, including three of the last four Olympics.

In 1996, Jilen Siroky ('04), then just 15 years of age, represented the United States in the Atlanta games, finishing 15th in the 200m breast. Siroky also was the 1996 U.S. champion in the 100 breast.

In 2000, Christel Bouvron represented her native Singapore in the Sydney games, finishing 32nd in the 200m fly and 36th in the 400 free. Four years later, she became just the second current Notre Dame student-athlete ever – and first in 84 years – to take part in the Olympics, matching her 32nd-place finish in the 200 fly.

In addition to that pair of Olympians, 47 Irish student-athletes have competed in U.S. Olympic Trials, including eight that qualified in 2012, and four more have swum in their native country's trials. Backstroker Erin Brooks, a 1997 graduate, represented the U.S. in the '97 World University Games and came home with a bronze medal in the 200 back. Notre Dame also has a long history of swimmers and divers who have qualified or competed in the USA Swimming Senior National Championships, as nearly 60 future, current or former Irish competitors have done so.

Christel Bouvron was a two-time (2000, 2004) member of the Singapore Olympic team.

The Irish swimming and diving teams compete in the state-of-the-art Rolfs Aquatic Center. After four years of varsity intercollegiate swimming competition in the Rockne Memorial Pool, the Notre Dame women's swimming and diving program entered a new era in 1985, as they moved to the $4.5-million natatorium located in the Joyce Center.

Donated by brothers Thomas and Robert Rolf of West Bend, Wis., the Rolfs Aquatic Center provides Notre Dame with a modern, innovative facility on par with any other in the country. Ellerbe Architects and Engineers of Bloomington, Minn., the architects used in the planning of the Joyce Center, also were commissioned to design the 45,000-square-foot facility which houses a 50-meter Olympic pool (25 yards in width), spectator seating for 400 and support facilities.

The facility features two movable bulkheads to allow sections of the pool to be blocked off, allowing swimming competition and warm-up swimming to occur simultaneously. The design also allows recreational swimming, water polo, instructional swimming and other aquatic activities. Diving is accommodated with two one-meter boards and two three-meter boards.

Support functions housed in the center of the facility just below the spectator seating include men's and women's locker rooms, men's and women's varsity locker rooms, and men's and women's staff locker rooms. Offices for the Notre Dame swimming staff, aquatics directors, and lifeguards are deckside and glass-fronted with a view of the pool.

Equipment necessary for the latest diving training techniques, including a trampoline, is located in the diving area. The Rolfs Aquatic Center diving well contains two one-meter boards and two three-meter boards.

Several deckside instructional areas are located around the pool and feature infrared heat lamps, designed to keep wet swimmers warm between events. The pool features a stainless steel racing gutter which is designed to absorb the bow waves of a swimmer, allowing faster swimming times.

Another instructional feature is the presence of two underwater windows which allow critiquing of a diver's or swimmer's underwater technique. The unique structural system consists of three trusses which span 120 feet, with the roof suspended below the trusses. In addition, the white exterior trusses provide an interesting and athletic character to the building. The lighting system is designed to be adjusted from maximum brightness for television to nearly dark for dramatic synchronized swimming presentations.

The center was officially dedicated on November 13, 1985.

The Tradition

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now, in its 61st year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 131 NCAA championships, including 69 in women's competition and 62 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 150 times in men's competition and 106 times in women's action. Given the ACC's strong history and the strengthening of its ranks with the additions of Notre Dame, Pitt and Syracuse in 2013, followed by Louisville in 2014, those numbers – and the league's longstanding tradition of excellence – appear destined to only grow greater in the years ahead.

2012-13 in Review

The 2012-13 academic year saw ACC teams capture four more national team titles and seven individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 62 national team titles over the last 16 years and has won two or more NCAA titles in 30 of the past 32 years. A total of 119 ACC teams placed in NCAA post-season competition in 2012-13. League teams compiled a 120-74-2 (.617) mark against non-league opponents in NCAA championship dual competition.

The ACC's new membership further bolsters the league's already-strong academic standing among NCAA Division I conferences. The ACC's member institutions, effective July 1, 2013, rank first among BCS automatic qualifying conferences in the latest US News & World Report's "Best Colleges" list. ACC schools averaged a ranking of 55.73 and were the only conference with eight schools ranked among the top 50 (five public, three private). The ACC is also the only conference with 11 schools ranked among the top 70.

2012-13 National Championships

Women's Soccer	North Carolina
Men's Tennis	Virginia
Men's Lacrosse	Duke
Women's Lacrosse	North Carolina

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2013-14 academic year--12 for men and 13 for women. The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981. Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet held in tennis at Wake Forest University.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing with volleyball deciding its champion by regular season play.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially join the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013, after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five football games with ACC schools each year. On July 1, 2014, Louisville will enter the ACC from the Big East Conference. The ACC will remain a 15-member conference, as Maryland plans to join the Big Ten.

Whether it be Federal Graduation rates, Academic Progress Rate (APR) statistics or Graduation Success Rate (GSR) figures, Notre Dame ranks among the national leaders in performance of its student-athletes in the classroom. Notre Dame also stands near the top in the number of Academic All-American accolades its student-athletes receive each year.

During the 2012-13 school year, eight Irish student-athletes were honored as Capital One Academic All-Americans by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). That's the most student-athletes to receive Academic All-America® citations since the 2008-09 school year.

The eight honorees this past year were: Greg Andrews (men's tennis), Ashley Armstrong (women's golf), Mike Golic, Jr. (football), Logan Renwick (men's track and field), Harrison Shipp (men's soccer), Manti Te'o (football), Rebecca Tracy (women's cross country/track and field) and Elizabeth Tucker (women's soccer).

CoSIDA conducts the selection process for Academic All-Americans annually. Teams are named in baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, football, men's soccer, women's soccer, softball, men's track/cross country, women's track/cross country and women's volleyball, with men's and women's at-large teams being named for other sports. Capital One serves as the program's title sponsor.

Currently, Notre Dame ranks second all-time with 231 Academic All-Americans, trailing only Nebraska's 307. Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) is third with 204, followed by Penn State (182) and Stanford (176) rounding out the top five.

In addition, Notre Dame ranks in the top 10 in several different sports. The Irish have had more Academic All-Americans than any other school in baseball and women's soccer while also holding down the top 10 in football (third), men's at-large (third), softball (tied for sixth), men's basketball (tied for ninth) and men's cross country/track and field (tied for ninth).

Since 2000, Notre Dame ranks third in the number of student-athletes who have earned Academic All-American® honors with 105.

To be eligible for Academic All-America status, a student-athlete must be a varsity starter or key reserve, maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.30 on a scale of 4.00, have received sophomore athletic and academic standing at his/her current institution and be nominated by his/her communications office. Since 1952, CoSIDA has bestowed Academic All-America honors on more than 14,000 student-athletes in Divisions I, II, III and a College Division team comprised of NAIA, Canadian and two-year institutions.

Kelli Barton is the lone Irish women's swimming and diving performer to earn academic All-America honors, as she was tabbed to the second team in 2005.

The University of Notre Dame ranks number one once again among all Football Bowl Subdivision institutions with 15 of its athletics programs receiving 2013 Academic Progress Rate public recognition awards, as announced today by the NCAA, honoring Division I sports teams for their latest multi-year APR scores.

Duke University also had 15 programs honored, tying Notre Dame for the top spot in the FBS subset.

These 15 Irish teams posted multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. In their seventh year, the public recognition honors are part of the broad Division I academic reform effort. These awards are based on APR numbers that represent the combination of scores from the 2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12 academic years.

Here are the 15 Notre Dame programs honored this year for multi-year achievement:

- Men's Sports (11): baseball, basketball, cross country, fencing, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track & field.

- Women's Sports (4): cross country, golf, softball and swimming and diving. Notre Dame's 15 recognized sports this year follow two consecutive years (2012 and 2011) that a program-best 17 Irish teams were honored with the award. The NCAA recognized 15 Notre Dame programs in 2010 after 14 programs were honored in 2009. Eleven Irish teams earned recognition each of the previous two years, in both 2007 and 2008.

Here are the FBS institutions that ranked in the top 10 this year, in terms of programs honored: 1. (tie) Notre Dame, Duke 15; 3. Northwestern 14; 4. (tie) Boston College, Stanford 13; 6. (tie) Penn State, Vanderbilt 8; 8. Rice 7; 9. (tie) Texas, Illinois, Ohio State 6.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success each semester by tracking the academic progress of each student-athlete. The APR includes both retention at an institution and academic eligibility in its calculation and provides a clear picture of the academic culture in each sport.

The effort is part of a public-recognition program the NCAA Division I Board of Directors approved in January 2006. Notre Dame has received public recognition awards each of the eight years of the program.
