

Karuka (Pandanus julianettii) grows at 1800 to 2500 m altitude in the Highlands

Wild karuka (Pandanus brosimos) grows in the high mountains between 2500 and 3100 m altitude

Some pandanus fruit and nuts in Papua New Guinea

(Pandanus antaresensis) grows in the highlands between 1800 and 2500 m altitude

Coastal pandanus (Pandanus tectorius) has nuts that are occasionally used as food

Marita (Pandanus conoideus) is used for its red or yellow fruit made into a sauce in mid altitude zones