2020 Community Report

Who we are

The Frist Art Museum (FAM) opened in April 2001 and is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. Originally conceived through a community visioning process to shape the city's future, FAM is a leading institution in Nashville's cultural fabric and has gained national and international recognition for its exhibitions and programs. Located downtown in a beautifully restored 1934 art deco building, FAM serves a metropolitan area with more than 1.83 million people. Museum operations and programming are managed by a staff of approximately 80, led by executive director and CEO Susan H. Edwards, PhD, and guided by a 24-member board.

Mission

The mission of the Frist Art Museum is to present and originate high-quality exhibitions with related educational programs and community outreach activities.

Vision

The vision of the Frist Art Museum is to inspire people through art to look at their world in new ways.

The board, committee, and council lists reflect service during 2020.

The year 2020 presented unexpected challenges for the Frist Art Museum and the world at large. FAM closed to the public on March 16, 2020, and remained closed for 117 days before reopening on July 1 with limited capacity and heightened health and safety measures. FAM's expert staff successfully converted programs to online platforms, providing at-home education and art-making activities. Access to the arts is especially important in times such as these as we seek out inspiration and outlets for creative expression—it helps us process the world around us and find solace and strength in the face of uncertainty.

We Count: First-Time Voters honored the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th Amendment and the importance of civic engagement by highlighting the history of voting in the United States and the first voting experiences of a diverse group of Nashvillians. Five local artists created visual representations of these voting experiences in a variety of mediums.

2020 Young Tennessee Artists: Selections from Advanced Studio Art Programs

Online October 9, 2020–February 7, 2021

Total page views: 2,171

The Frist Art Museum's eighth biennial Young Tennessee Artists exhibition showcased some of the finest artwork by high school students across the state. Students in Advanced Placement (AP) and International Baccalaureate (IB) studio art programs during the 2019–20 academic year were invited to submit their work to this exhibition. After reviewing more than three hundred entries from students in private and public schools, the jurors selected works by thirty-six students. This exhibition illuminates their skillful synthesis of form, technique, and content. The array and quality of work demonstrate the growing sophistication and diversity of experiences within the AP and IB studio art programs across Tennessee.

Gala

It was with the utmost regret that the Frist Art Museum and the 2020 Gala co-chairs canceled the annual fundraiser in light of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The event would have taken place on April 25. The co-chairs, Jody Hull (left) and Lise Morrow (right), along with the creative duo behind H Three Events, Hugh Howser (center) and Kate Steele, had planned an unforgettable evening. Drawing inspiration from J.M.W. Turner: Quest for the Sublime, this dynamic team had been hard at work on the seafaring adventure they'd envisioned bringing to the museum, complete with a life-size boat hoisted to the top of the Gala tent.

Every year, the Frist Gala raises approximately 25 percent of the museum's annual contributed income. We thank not only Jody and Lise for their tireless efforts but also the Gala committee, sponsors, patrons, and individual donors whose generosity has provided necessary support to the museum during this unprecedented time.
