3 Strategies for First Term Enrollment

1. Check for Registration Holds FIRST

- Before searching for classes
- Always check at least a week before upcoming enrollment appointments
- Time to address issues

3 Strategies for First Term Enrollment

2. Register for a FIG (Freshman Interest Group) for the Fall Semester

- Pre-packaged cluster of high-demand freshman courses linked by a theme or academic program.
- Enhance your FSU experience.
- Advantages:
 - Classes with the same 20-25 students – classes will seem small
 - Meet student with similar interests – establish a study group
 - Form your own smaller community within the larger FSU community
 - Register for multiple, non-conflicting classes at once – make enrollment very efficient
 - Register for a FIG & then complete your schedule by adding other classes around the FIG classes.

3 Strategies for First Term Enrollment

3. If registering for an ENC (English) Class, add the class LAST
 - Many sections
 - Allows for maximum flexibility
 - Easier to fit this class around the rest of your schedule
