4 | EMPOWERING DREAMS

St. Joseph's University student-athletes Emily Burroughs and Alec Tabada are making the most of their scholarships.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear friends,

It gives me great pleasure to share with you St. Joseph's University, New York's annual President's Report — the first such publication that we have produced under our new University designation. It focuses on the inspiring support we received from our alumni and friends during the 2021-2022 fiscal year.

Two remarkable examples of students directly affected by your philanthropy are featured in this edition. Emily Burroughs, a senior biology major who plays on the softball team at our Brooklyn Campus, is pursuing her longtime dream of becoming a genetics counselor. And the Long Island Campus' Alec Tabada is an accounting major and star player on the men's basketball team who is following through on his dream to become a licensed certified public accountant.

Like Emily and Alec, hundreds of other SJNY students benefit from endowed scholarships established and maintained through your generosity. Through your life-changing assistance, they are reaching their goals and fulfilling their dreams.

Furthermore, your giving helps St. Joseph's make impactful physical improvements at our campuses in Patchogue, Long Island and Clinton Hill, Brooklyn. You have given more than $3 million to offset construction costs of the Long Island Campus' new $17 million Student Center, which is on track to open this year. And your generosity has resulted in beautiful renovations of our Brooklyn Campus' two chapels.

We are exceedingly grateful for your loyalty to St. Joseph's University and your commitment to our students, faculty and staff. You are clearly dedicated to keeping alive our institution's transformational character.

Thank you for your unwavering support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Donald R. Boomgaarden". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal flourish at the end.

Donald R. Boomgaarden, Ph.D.
President, St. Joseph's University, New York

FUNDING THE FUTURE

University initiatives provide crucial support for major projects

STUDENT CENTER CAMPAIGN REACHES GOAL

The campaign to help fund the Long Island Campus' new student center has raised more than its target of $3 million since being founded in 2021.

A combination of gifts and pledges — including numerous leadership commitments from members of St. Joseph's Board of Trustees, alumni, staff and friends — will help pay for construction costs, contingency funds and a new dedicated endowment to help offset the long-term maintenance of the new facility.

With more than 32,000 square feet of space, the two-story Student Center will serve as a home away from home for more than 3,000 undergraduate and graduate learners. Additionally, the new space will include areas for faculty, staff, friends and partners within the community to enjoy.

Construction is proceeding on schedule and the building will open for students in the fall of 2023. Donors will be invited to take a tour and celebrate the opening of the Student Center.

Donations to the Student Center Campaign are still being accepted. Naming opportunities are available for gifts at any level, including the chance to be part of the effort to raise funds to name the new chapel in honor of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

For more information, please visit sjny.edu/build.

RENOVATED CHAPELS REOPEN ON BROOKLYN CAMPUS

Chapels on the Brooklyn Campus have been undergoing renovations since the summer of 2022, after more than $275,000 was raised during the 2021-22 academic year. Renovations are expected to be completed soon.

Thanks to more than 200 generous donors, the University had the means to refurbish both the Lady Chapel in the McEntegart Library and the Kennedy Chapel in Burns Hall. Floors and walls were brightened, a new glass door and chairs were installed, and new items for services and devotion were purchased.

The University community gathered in October at the Kennedy Chapel for the first Mass of the school year, led by Fr. Juan Luxama.

The Chapel Fund project was established to recognize the ongoing transformational contributions of the Sisters of St. Joseph to the University.

MINI-CAMPAIGNS RAISE $4.5 MILLION

Two strategic mini-campaigns launched last year concluded successfully in June of 2022 and have provided support for scholarships and facilities projects.

A mini-campaign for endowed scholarships with an initial goal of $3 million raised more than $3.5 million and has provided much-needed financial support for St. Joseph's students on both campuses. New and established scholarship funds benefited from donations. The second mini-campaign successfully reached its goal of $1 million and will help fund facilities projects University-wide.

“Through receiving these scholarships, it was the action behind the words: That there are people at St. Joe’s who are willing to support students, believe in students and advocate for students’ aspirations and dreams.”

EMILY

Biology major plans to pursue a genetics counseling advanced degree

BURROUGHS '23

EMILY BURROUGHS, A SENIOR STUDENT-ATHLETE at St. Joseph's University's Brooklyn Campus, is a recipient of the Doris Oshinski Powers Endowed Scholarship and the Rose and Jack Calareso for Leadership in Service Scholarship.

Doris Oshinski Powers '53 was a chemistry major at St. Joseph's and enjoyed a successful career working at Pfizer in the bioassay lab. In 1989, Doris and Edward Powers established a scholarship to benefit Brooklyn Campus students.

Established by former St. Joseph's President Jack Calareso and his wife Rose, the scholarship in their name is awarded annually to deserving students at the Long Island and Brooklyn campuses who demonstrate exemplary leadership and compassion in community service.

Recruited from Southern California to play softball for St. Joseph's, Ms. Burroughs considers her biggest achievement to be moving across the country to attend college.

"Coming to a small school, everyone encouraged me that it felt like a family and people supported you," she said. "Through receiving these scholarships, it was the action behind the words: That there are people at St. Joe's who are willing to support students, believe in students and advocate for students' aspirations and dreams.

"They really do want to see us succeed," she added.

AGE: 21

HOMETOWN: San Diego, California

MOST INTERESTING CLASS: "I loved my Abnormal Psychology class because it answered a lot of the personal side of biology and why people act the way they do," Ms. Burroughs said. "The professors were engaging and super passionate. It was easy to get excited about those classes."

FUTURE GOALS: To be a prenatal genetics counselor. She has known from an early age that her career would be in science. She wants to spend her career looking at genetic risks for expectant families or people who are trying to conceive for the first time or after complications, examining the parents' genetic risks and what that could mean for their children.

BIGGEST INSPIRATION: "My siblings. I'm the oldest of four and as much as they look up to me, I love watching them grow up and see how kind and caring they are towards others and each other."

COMMITMENT TO SERVICE: "I volunteer for the Trevor Project, an LGBTQ youth crisis hotline. I do advocacy work with them around mental health awareness and a bit of crisis intervention and counseling. I'm the president of the Student Government Association on campus and when I'm home, I volunteer with my church and the high school ministry."

ALEC TABADA '25

Accounting major aims to become a certified public accountant

AGE: 19 • HOMETOWN: North Babylon, Long Island

ALEC TABADA, A SOPHOMORE STUDENT-ATHLETE at St. Joseph's University's Long Island Campus, receives Scholastic Achievement funds annually, along with a need-based grant. An accounting major, Mr. Tabada is looking toward entering St. Joseph's five-year dual-degree program, and becoming trained to be a licensed certified public accountant.

"I look at it as a reward for hard work and for doing good. It feels exciting to be rewarded, and it definitely helps with paying toward my tuition, especially since this is a private school," Mr. Tabada said of the aid he has earned. "This scholarship means that I get this experience of studying at a private institution. I don't think I'd be here without it."

As hard as he has worked on his classwork, he has been equally determined as an athlete, while starring for the Long Island Campus' men's basketball team.

In 2021-22, his freshman year, he earned D3 Region 3 Rookie of the Year honors and was also named Skyline Conference Rookie of the Year. Mr. Tabada has played basketball since fourth grade.

"That was a great honor, and it was so exciting to see my name on that website," he said.

"This scholarship means that I get this experience of studying at a private institution. I don't think I'd be here without it."

MOST INTERESTING CLASS:

Mr. Tabada is a student whose passion is in numbers, but his favorite classes so far have been in communications. “That’s not to say I don’t enjoy classes related to my major,” he said. “I also really like math and like algebra. They’ve always been easy for me, so I don’t mind showing up and putting in the work.”

FUTURE GOALS: “I would like to have a stable income, a home, a family and a car — and all that stuff that people need to provide for themselves. Those are my personal goals. I really just want to have a good job.”

BIGGEST INSPIRATION: “No doubt, my parents. They were not born here, they came from the Philippines. My dad worked hard his whole life and made it here by himself to provide for our whole family. He’s been there to make sure we have what we need, but also to keep us in check. Now, we work hard for him - we do it in return to always do good in life.”

COMMITMENT TO SERVICE: “During high school, in the summers, I would go to my mom’s hospital and I would do community service there. I would greet patients, transport patients, bring paperwork or bloodwork, whatever needed to be done. I was just like a messenger/floater. My favorite part was transporting patients and getting to know them.”

GROWING OPPORTUNITIES WITH

GRANTS

WHETHER IT'S INSIDE THE CLASSROOM OR OUT IN THE WORLD, students and the St. Joseph's University, New York community as a whole benefit from grants every single day.

"Our University, and our faculty especially, pride themselves on finding innovative ways to put our students first and to expand the teaching and learning experience," said Heather Barry, Ph.D., interim provost and vice president for academic affairs. "Major grants help us do just this. These grants are endorsements of our mission and vision, and these funds allow us to think bigger and stretch our capacity to grow and serve."

Grants allow students to experience the University's five pillars—INTEGRITY, INTELLECTUAL RIGOR, SPIRITUAL DEPTH, SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND SERVICE — on a deeper level, as demonstrated through some of the recent grants awarded to St. Joseph's:

NOAA RESEARCH GRANT: Intellectual Rigor and Social Responsibility

Professor Konstantine Rountos, Ph.D., has been awarded a three-year grant that will support research investigating the effects of ocean acidification on harmful algal blooms (HABs). The grant, awarded by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's (NOAA) National Centers for Coastal Ocean Science (NCCOS), will provide approximately $25,000 per year for three years to fund SJNY faculty and student research.

STUDENT VETERANS SUCCESS GRANT: Integrity

St. Joseph's University was awarded more than $559,000 by the U.S. Department of Education's Centers of Excellence for Veteran Student Success Grant Program. With the grant funding, SJNY aims to increase student veterans' recruitment and ensure their academic success by coordinating services to address their financial, health and wellness, academic, career and social needs.

MISSION TRIP GRANTS: Spiritual Depth, Social Responsibility and Service

St. Joseph's received $155,000 from the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph (CSSJ) to support the University's service learning trips, also known as mission trips, for students from both its Brooklyn and Long Island campuses. The Office of Campus Ministry hosts the annual mission trips as an opportunity for SJNY students to visit underserved areas of the country and provide assistance at local shelters, soup kitchens and other organizations that serve their communities.

CYBERSECURITY GRANT: Intellectual Rigor

St. Joseph's University, New York will receive $754,000 in community project funds from Congressman Hakeem Jeffries, Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer and Senator Kirsten Gillibrand for the construction of a cybersecurity lab specifically for instruction and training, and the enhancement of STEM equipment at the University's Brooklyn Campus.

TEAGLE FOUNDATION GRANT: Intellectual Rigor, Social Responsibility

St. Joseph's University was awarded a $230,000 grant from The Teagle Foundation to support a collaboration between St. Joseph's and Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York to provide summer humanities courses to high school students from Brooklyn. Starting this summer, local high school students will take one three-week course called The Citizen's Path, based on an overview of civic engagement, government and human rights from classical thinkers and writers. Over the three-year grant period, SJNY anticipates that a total of 70 students will be able to partake in The Citizen's Path. Each student will have the opportunity to earn college credits by partaking in the summer course.

GIVING WITH PURPOSE

St. Joseph's University's 2022 Giving Day donations supported student research, athletics and so much more

FUNDING IMPORTANT RESEARCH

Contributions from generous donors allowed St. Joseph's University to provide three students last summer with research grants of $4,000 each. Caitlin Anetrella '23, a Long Island Campus recipient of the Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowships (S.U.R.F.), immersed herself in biology research while analyzing the effects of microplastics on grass shrimp.

FUELING STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS

Your support allowed athletic teams across both of our campuses to purchase equipment and apparel and expand their training opportunities. The Brooklyn Campus women's soccer team in particular benefited greatly from your generosity, proudly sporting new home and away uniforms during the fall 2022 season. The team carried that pride into the classroom; nine members of the team were named to the Fall 2022 Skyline Athletic Conference Academic Honor Roll.
