

Melaleuca uncinata (Broom Honeymyrtle/Brushwood)

SA native

Multistemmed, hardy, evergreen shrub. Flowers are white, cream or yellow in spring. Timber used for fencing. Tree in the paperbark family. This plant is also the only known host of the rare and threatened Rhizanthella gardneri, the 'Underground Orchid'.

Type: Shrub to 2m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Bees
  - Birds
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Screen Tree
- Timber Tree

Melaleuca uncinata

Photos: B.A. Fuhr