

Mentha diemenica (Native Mint)

Occurs in grassland and forest habitats. Grows vigorously and forms a dense ground cover 10-15 cm high. The dull green, opposite leaves are ovate to lanceolate and 4-12 cm long. Flowers are borne in the upper leaf axils from late spring to summer, usually mauve or lilac with four small petals.

Type: Herb
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Moist, well-drained
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
- Bush Tucker
- Frost Hardy

