

Sauropus albiflorus (Showy Sauropus)

Understorey, twiggly shrub normally growing along rainforest streambanks. Leaves alternate, glabrous to 20mm, paler below with white or pale pink pendulous flowers [6 petals] which look like squat paper lanterns . Green fruit throughout the year.

Type: Shrub to 1m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Moist
Habitat: Adaptable

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds