A look back at the Hambletonian, and a look ahead

Atlanta's win proved to be one of the best Hambletonians in recent memory. Meanwhile, this weekend we have the North American pari-mutuel debut of Lazarus at Hoosier and Later Up competing in the Carl Milstein at Northfield.

by Brett Sturman

From top to bottom, this year's Hambletonian should go down as one of the more dramatic days of racing that's been seen in recent memory.

Led by Atlanta, the circumstances in which she won the Hambletonian were nothing short of spectacular. I don't know if her returning for the final heat after tiring in her elimination ranks up there with Willis Reed hobbling out to court at the Garden for the Knicks in the '70 Finals, but what an inspiring performance just the same.

After setting unsustainable fractions in her elimination, she was on fumes when caught late by Crystal Fashion. There were some in the ownership group who immediately after the race were right to question if the filly would be able to recover in time for the final heat. Not only did she recover, but she had enough left to cut out a 1:50.4 mile after going 1:50.1 just a few races prior. The cheering of the Meadowlands crowd when she opened up her lead into the stretch was something you just don't see much of anymore, and it all made for one of the more unique Hambletonians.

In addition to Atlanta, the card was filled with all sorts of drama. Beginning with the other Hambletonian elimination, it was a race won by the upstart Tactical Landing, but will most likely be remembered for the way in which Six Pack missed the finals. It was not one of Ake Svanstedt's finest moments which I'm sure he'd be the first to admit. The heavy 2-5 favorite caused havoc for others throughout the race before eventually flying up the inside through the stretch only to hook wheels with Classichap (Smedshammer) and miss the final.

Six Pack was in the highest profile situation of favorites that faltered on the day, but by no means was he by himself. It was such a wild day as far as betting went that of the 16 races, only three favorites came out on top. And with two of those occurring in the final two races of the day after much else had already been settled, only a single favorite won from the first 14 races on the day – and that didn't even occur until race 10.

Included in the odds-on casualties were both trotting darlings Hannelore Hanover (John Cashman Memorial) and Ariana G in the John Steele Memorial, who tired late at odds of 1-5 to finish fifth. At both offerings odds of 50 cents on the dollar were Courtly Choice and Kissin In The Sand. Courtly Choice couldn't replicate his performance in the Cane from when last seen in the Meadowlands Pace, while Youaremycandygirl finally got the best of rival Kissin In The Sand by the narrowest of margins in her fourth attempt this year. The unpredictability of it all is what continues to make this day the highest handle day of the year.

Will Phaetosive ever beat Manchego? Maybe not. After playing second fiddle to Manchego all last year, the bettors thought the Hambletonian Oaks would be the time as they made Phaetosive the surprising ever-so-slight favorite off an impressive elimination win. But it was to no avail, and the reigning divisional champion wouldn't be denied.

Lastly, credit should be given to trainer Chris Choate for his work with Western Joe who beat McWicked in the Sam McKee Memorial. The Western Ideal 4-year-old began his campaign racing in the dead of winter at the Meadowlands and it's not too often you see those types still standing – let alone winning – a FFA stake on Hambletonian day.

With Hambletonian Day in the books, it closes an unofficial chapter to the first half of the year's stakes season. From here, it's always interesting to see which horses move forward and emerge as late season contenders heading into the Breeders Crown. And it starts with this weekend.

Tonight - Hoosier Park Race 11: $325,000 Dan Patch Stakes

Even though Hoosier Park played host to last year's Breeders Crown, tonight's Dan Patch Stakes is likely to have a greater worldwide audience than any race in the tracks history. It's due to the presence and first pari-mutuel start in North America from the New Zealand import Lazarus, hailed by many as the greatest pacer on the planet.

To make things interesting, Lazarus lands the outside post 9 but has still been installed as the 6-5 program favorite. As a matter of coincidence, trainer Jimmy Takter noted online earlier this week that his first start with Always B Miki came too at Hoosier Park, and from the same post 9 (a race he ran 2nd to Wiggle It Jiggleit).

For all of the hype that's come with Lazarus, every bit of it seemed justified based on his qualifier at the Meadowlands two weeks ago when he won in 1:48:3 over Lather Up. And in a fascinating interview earlier this week with New Zealand media, driver Yannick Gingras gave a preview of what to expect from Lazarus.

There could be some downplaying of expectations knowing that it'll be the first start here for Lazarus while his other rivals have already have a number of starts under their belt this season, but there's no question that Lazarus will be out to win. If weather conditions are favorable the race will almost certainly be won in a 1:47-1:48 type of time which for Lazarus shouldn't be an issue. In that recent qualifier, Gingras has said that he only kept Lazarus up to his task through the stretch but never fully asked him.

His chief rival will be McWicked (2-1), who is just six days removed from a runner-up finish in the Sam McKee Memorial. He maybe have went a bit too quick of a third quarter (:25.4) in that race with the added distance, but overall there was nothing wrong with the performance. Sears travels to Indiana to retain the drive for trainer Casie Coleman and everyone knows by now what a tough horse this one is. For the 7-year-old, a win or a second place would push him over the rare $3 million mark in career earnings.

Bit of a Legend N (12-1) makes a rare attempt on a larger sized track and the small track specialist shouldn't be discounted. Already a 1:49:4 on the Northfield half mile in June, he should be able to keep pace with these. All Bets Off (10-1) is always iron tough and was a 1:49 winner at this track last year for Burke. Local driver Wrenn picks up the catch drive on the Silva-trained Dealt A Winner (8-1) from the rail.

Saturday - Northfield Park Race 11: $400,000 Carl Milstein Memorial

This year's edition of the Carl Milstein draws a deeply talented field, as North America Cup champ Lather Up makes his second start back since a break in Hempt final from June.

In his return last week to the races at Scioto, the past performance line for Lather Up (2-1) sums up how difficult of a trip he went. Amazingly, after finally clearing for the first time right past three quarters, he was immediately pressed again to the outside by a horse that had been parking him the entire way up to that point. He was game to fend that equally game rival off, and he showed similar tenacity while inching back in against Lazarus in his Meadowlands qualifier prior to that. Despite having the post position on all but one of his rivals, he'll be tested yet again.

Jimmy Freight (3-1) has been unbeaten in his last two starts including a 1:48:3 career best in his most recent and now has the fortune of landing the coveted pole position. With an aggressive Louis Roy in tow, he'll be blasting early to protect early position.

Dorsoduro Hanover (4-1) makes his first start since a wire to wire score in the Adios two weeks ago, and will be an obvious contender once again. His starting spot is outside of all the main contenders, but he's shown an ability to get into a good early position regardless. Game horse should be heard from before it's all said and done. Thinkbig Dreambig (12-1) finally lands a half decent starting position and will likely work out a cover trip; bound to go off at a shorter price than his programmed odds. Springsteen (6-1) has been a tough horse to figure this year but is fast when right.

A field of nine will be sent postward in the $325,000 Dan Patch Stakes at Hoosier Park Racing & Casino tonight. In what will rank as one of the most highly anticipated editions of the Dan Patch Stakes, the 25th instalment of Hoosier Park's premier event will highlight the 14-race program that is set to begin at 6:30 p.m. Boasting an increased purse for the third consecutive year of $325,000, The Dan Patch Stakes will serve as Indiana's richest harness race and is reputed as one of North America's premier races for older male pacers.

With combined career purse earnings over $15 million, the talented field of nine includes three Breeders Crown champions, two world champions, and one international icon. North America's leading money-winning trainer, Ron Burke, will look to score his third Dan Patch victory and be the first trainer to score back to back victories in the Dan Patch Stakes since Nat Varty scored with Ready To Rumble and Pacific Rocket in 1994 and 1995.

Hambletonian recap, thoughts on foreign horses in the big race and how those that won it have fared as sires

by Ron Gurfein

Tidbits: Congratulations to Team Zeron, not only was their filly sensational but their presence on camera was fabulous. I love the honesty of Scotty, telling us he erred in the drive in the first heat. That's the transparency that we need. With Ricky in tears after the final I found it as heartfelt a moment as I have seen in years.

Gary Siebel and Dave Brower were very professional on CBS and did a great job. Gary's only mistake was a mathematical error. The in-house production was very good also, Dave Little and Gabe Prewitt were very informative and quite colorful. I found Gabe's interview with Jeff Gural as good as a Mike Wallace interview as it was quite intrusive. A great example of investigative journalism.

The bad news is that like last year we once again shot ourselves in the foot on National TV. What on God's earth happens to these drivers when they see the $1 million at the end of the rainbow? Why did the producers of the CBS show, in their infinite wisdom, show a replay of last year's fiasco forcing Gary and Dave to explain the situation.

Another beautiful moment was when Greg Blanchard asked Jimmy Takter how Wolfgang came out of the race. It's a good thing Jimmy isn't like Bill O'Donnell on camera because Billy would have given a WTF. Takter classily and simply answered, "I don't know."

I realize there are time constraints so may I suggest instead of showing other races, the CBS production should stick to the Hambletonian and the Oaks and show some vignettes of the favorites in their home environment with a short interview with the trainer and owner if it can be arranged. I really feel it is of great benefit to prospective owners to show up close and personal how much fun and excitement avails itself in our sport.

On the more positive side congratulations to Tony Alagna for winning the Cane Pace with Stay Hungry, it was long overdue but with the Captains Court waiting in the wings he is on the verge of a career year.

Wolfgang and Six Pack should rebound from an unfortunate Saturday and set up one of the most competitive Kentucky Futurities in recent time. Will Atlanta enter the Open division at the Red Mile. Rick's on a roll and it is definitely a good possibility. Yannick threw down the gauntlet so we may have Manchego enter the Red Mile mix. It's times like this that I really miss the World Trotting Derby. It certainly would have attracted all four and would have been a major attraction.

If Melander can solve the puzzle of Greenshoe we will see the fastest 2-year-old mile in history at the Red Mile this year as I know of a few that I think can push him to the utmost, including the Brittany Farm-bred, Takter-trained winner of the Peter Haughton, Don't Let 'em.

I thought Jeff Gural's outlook for the Meadowlands five years from now, saying we will have gaming and be back to being the major force in the industry as we used to be, was the most encouraging statement I have ever heard regarding our future.

On a lesser note, it's sad to me that there were six major trotting stakes, none of which was won by an American-born trainer or driver. In all there were nine major races Tim Tetrick was the only winning driver born in the U.S. This is really nothing new because the great generation of the Meadowlands had Campbell, Lachance, and O'Donnell – all Canadian born – running the show.

My adept handicapping came to an abrupt halt with the Hambletonian eliminations. Not only did I not pick the winners, but neither of my choices made the final. In all fairness, my opinion is that circumstance rather than poor choices doomed me. Wolfgang, I am convinced choked. Yannick had him ready to blast off the gate and when Atlanta looped him leaving on her suicide mission, he tried to put him in a hole and appeared very strong in the face and probably had his air shut off enough to cause the poor performance. Six Pack was just a victim of what may have been the worst drive in Hambletonian history. To drive into a blind switch going for $1 million is almost comical. At 2-5 it killed some pocketbooks.

Looks like there will be no shortage of entries for the Yonkers Trot and the Canadian Trotting Classic.

Thomas Doran asks: Unless I am mistaken, I don't believe that I have ever seen a foreign-bred trotter in the Hambletonian. Is the race only open to horses bred and raised in North America?

You are pretty much on target. Mostly all of the Hambletonian participants were American-bred although some that came from Europe were sired by U.S. stallions that were exported like Sugarcane Hanover and Mack Lobell. Any horse born anywhere can be made eligible to the race as long as he is nominated and a registered standardbred.

The first horse to return to the U.S. was Shatter Way from Sweden in 1966, he finished 4-3 for Olaf Widell, the next was Top Hanover from Italy in 1971. The 1992 foal of royalty (Mack Lobell–Delmonica Hanover) Easy Lover S came in 1995. Kramer Boy kS followed in 1996. Scarlet Knight, a product of Perretti Farm, was purchased by Stefan Melander trained in Sweden and returned to America to win the Hambletonian with Melander in the bike. Until that time, Stefan was regarded as a world famous equine photographer. There were a few others like this, but there were two horses that were of European blood, Victor Gio foaled in Italy sired by the French stallion Ready Cash and International Moni by French sire Love You foaled in Connecticut at Lindy Farm. Out of the great Moni Maker he was a product of transport semen. My personal thanks to Moira Fanning for helping me with all the Hambletonian questions. You have eased the pain of severe research.

Seth Poppel (contest question): I am going to shorten his voluminous question because of word constraints. He basically asks with a colt like Tactical Landing would you baby him or go all out in the big dance?

To be honest, before the race my answer would have be slightly different, but after the fact it's easy to discuss. For certain, Takter knows the horse far better than I do.

He was very careful with him in the first heat and because of a clever drive and ridiculous circumstances was able to prevail.

However, although cautious at the start in the final, he was hell bent in the lane to win and showed that the horse has really come along way. From mid stretch to the wire he was driving him like a hopped pacer. I can't answer if it was out of desire of the moment or total loss of memory.

To me, the only thing in his way of winning the whole enchilada was lack of racing. That was his only lifetime stake appearance. If he stays together mentally and phsically he will be a force to reckon with down the road.

Joel Kravet asks: How come so few Hambletonian winners are great sires?

This question was soooooo bizarre I had to print it. Where have you been the last 30 years? Joel has asked some wonderful questions in the past so this was a shocker.

With the exception of Valley Victory, who was sick and unable to perform in the race, I would say most of our greatest sires were Hambletonian winners.

Going back almost 50 years I will start with Speedy Crown and Super Bowl, truly the modern era foundation sires. At the end of that decade we had a few decent sires in Bonefish, Green Speed and Speedy Somolli. The '80s produced some bad ones in Speed Bowl, Prakas, Mack Lobell, and Harmonious. But from the '90s to today we have seen by far the best of the best. My two colt winners, Victory Dream and Self Possessed, were both fine sires and both quite unfertile, Muscles Yankee is still going well today, and the ill-fated Windsongs Legacy was fabulous with a short lived career. More recently Donato Hanover and Muscle Massive have been productive.

Maybe the best of them all and certainly the best on the racetrack Muscle Hill has proven to be a game changer on both sides of the Atlantic. No sire to date has accomplished what he has in a relatively short period of time. He has sired the winners of almost every major race imaginable and has created a new parameters for speed in the equine athlete.

Please don't get me wrong the are other great sires, recently Chapter Seven would enter the ranks of top sires that didn't win the Hambletonian, as well as Cantab Hall who finished second after being very sick for almost a month previous to the race. I was merely answering a odd question.

To all my readers thanks for the kind words. Please keep the questions coming in.

The Yonkers trot could prove to be more interesting than usual this year and the Canadian Trotting Classic could be a fascinating affair in early September.

Have a wonderful week.

Muscle Hill started the day fifth in North America in stallion earnings and ended it second (to Cantab Hall), thanks to seven winners!

1. Muscle Diamond in the Vincennes $6.00 (2nd choice).
2. Don't Let Em in the $422,350 Peter Haughton over another son of Muscle Hill (Green Manalishi S) $8.00 to win.
3. Marion Marauder $10.40 for the richest Triple Crown winner in harness history ($2.8 million plus) capturing the $286,650 Cashman.
4. The Ice Dutchess in the $357,450 Jim Doherty $12.80 to win, with another daughter of Muscle Hill second Beautiful Sin.
5. Tactical Landing in his $100,000 Hambletonian

7. Dream Together $105.60 the highest priced winner of the day in the $154,800 Steele Memorial.

Takter's tally

Jimmy Takter's slate was 23 5-4-2. His horses earned 15 checks. He was on the board in both Triple Crown events – second with 60-1 Grand Teton in the Cane and third with Tactical Landing in the Hambletonian final.

Jimmy and Johnny Takter, 57 and 59, respectively, were the only drivers on the entire card over 40 who won a race on Hambletonian Day 2018 – and both have talked retirement after this year.

Top trainers

Fourteen of the top 22 trainers in harness racing history, by earnings, were in action on Hambletonian Day, with Ron Burke becoming the first ever to surpass $200 million.

Foreign influence

Eleven of the last 16 winning trainers in the Hambletonian were born outside the United States.

Twenty-three of the 48 editions of the Hambletonian Oaks have gone to a driver born outside the United States.

The only drive born in the United States to win a race on Hambletonian Day was Tim Tetrick, who had four wins, three with favorites.

Andy Miller is getting there

Andy Miller, is getting closer to a Hambletonian victory. Note, he has never driven for anyone not named Miller – six

100-1 shots

There were eight 100-1 shots on the day – and three of those eight came in the Hambletonian Oaks.

Seconds anyone?

Andy Miller for Julie Miller and Yannick Gingras for Ron Burke have been runnerups the last four Hambletonians back to back. These are the only two times that a driver/trainer combo has gone back-to-back bridesmaid in the Hambletonian at the Meadowlands.

Ten times on Hambletonian Day 2018 the second choice won the race, including both the Hambletonian and the Oaks. Atlanta was second choice, as was Manchego, who was 10 cents to the dollar higher than Phaetosive.

This was the second Hambletonian victory for Scott Zeron and the third time a female has won the Hambletonian in East Rutherford – all were second choices in the final.

Campbell favored in the Hambletonian again

Only this time it was Jim Campbell, whose Crystal Fashion won his elim in 1:50.1 and was fourth in the final. John was last favored in the Hambletonian with 2010 runnerup Lucky Chucky.

27-28-29-39... Oh, Canada

Bob McClure, 27, drove the highest priced winner

Doug McNair, 28, had a Triple Crown breakthrough

Scott Zeron, 29, had a huge day, including his second Hambletonian

Yannick Gingras had yet another banner day on the first Saturday in August, this time with it falling on his 39th birthday.

All four were born in Canada.

Oaks speed

For the sixth time in the last 17 editions the Hambletonian Oaks final went faster than the Hambletonian final.

Wicked McWicked

McWicked (2nd in the McKee Memorial), surpassed last year's earnings in just his ninth try of 2018:

9 6-2-0 $625,050

27 7-7-2 $560,025

Speed burns

Three sub-1:50 trotters entered the Hambletonian Day festivities, but all went down:

J L Cruze 1:49.4 was sixth, Hannelore Hanover 1:49.2 was third and Plunge Blue Chip 1:49.4 was third.

Tritton ready for Hoosier return with 'Legend'

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Long before New Zealand-bred Lazarus arrived in the U.S. and was pointed toward Hoosier Park Racing & Casino for his North American debut, another Down Under import found his way to the central Indiana harness racing oval to start his stateside career – Peter Tritton.

Tritton, a native of Australia, began his U.S. training career at Hoosier Park in May 2002. He remained there through the summer before heading to Delaware, where he became a regular on the Mid-Atlantic circuit.

Tonight, Tritton, who now resides in upstate New York, will return to Hoosier Park for the first time since those early days in the States. He will bring with him New Zealand-bred Bit Of A Legend for the $325,000 Dan Patch Stakes and in the process get a firsthand look at Lazarus in his anticipated debut for trainer Jimmy Takter.

Lazarus, known as the Wonder from Down Under, has won 35 of 45 career races, missed the board only once, and earned the equivalent of $2.66 million.

“I’m sort of looking forward to seeing him,” Tritton said, adding with a laugh, “I just didn’t want to be racing him.”

The Dan Patch Stakes features a nine-horse field of older male pacers. The race, the 11th on the 14-race card, is scheduled for approximately 9:30 p.m. (EDT). First post is 6:30 p.m.

In addition to Lazarus and Bit Of A Legend, the field includes former Dan Patch Award winner and division leader McWicked, two Breeders Crown champions in Beckhams Z Tam and Split The House, a $3-million-earner in All Bets Off, two multiple-stakes-winners in Rockin Ron and Dealt A Winner, and Hoosier Park-based New Talent from the stable of the track’s leading trainer, Jeff Cullipher.

Bit Of A Legend has enjoyed a successful career in the U.S., with 25 wins in 69 races and $1.67 million since arriving in 2016. Overall, the 9-year-old stallion has 45 victories in 132 starts and $2.33 million.

This season, Bit Of A Legend’s wins include the Battle of Lake Erie, in a career-best 1:49.4 around Northfield Park’s half-mile oval, and two preliminary divisions of the George Morton Levy Memorial Pacing Series at Yonkers. He finished second in the Levy final and also was second in the Joe Gerrity Jr. Memorial at Saratoga.

Bit Of A Legend enters the Dan Patch with regular driver Jordan Stratton off a 1:51.4 win in the open handicap at Yonkers on July 28.

“He’s as good as he’s ever been,” said Tritton, who trains Bit Of A Legend for the Vonknoblauch Stable. “As long as you keep him happy he’ll just go out and try for you. You’ve got to let him be the boss a little bit. He’s likes to think he’s getting away with stuff. We treat him like that and it makes him feel good.

“I’ve had horses with more ability than him, but he just keeps turning it up. He’s got a good heart to win. He’s just the complete little horse. He wears an open bridle, no steering gear; he goes straight wherever you put him. He doesn’t wear any boots. He’s just easy on himself. He enjoys being out there and he always shows up. Jordan really suits him because he knows him like a book and looks after him. He’s just a lovely horse.”

Claus Andersen

Bit Of A Legend N and trainer Peter Tritton.

Bit Of A Legend has raced only once on a track larger than five-eighths of a mile, finishing second in an open at the Meadowlands in 2016. He lost by a head in 1:48.3 after setting fractions of :27.1, :54.4 and 1:21.4.

“He did all the work in that race and he just got beat,” Tritton said. “The big tracks don’t bother him. He’s definitely strong enough and he’s brave. I’m not worried.”

Tritton is looking forward to returning to Hoosier Park.

“The main reason I dropped in, because I don’t like to go far from home, but the last few years (Bit Of A Legend) seemed to have success against the horses that were going in,” Tritton said. “I’ve always been looking to go back to Hoosier Park because that’s the first place I went when I came to America in 2002. It will be good to go back.”

McWicked, who won this year’s William R. Haughton Memorial and Ben Franklin Pace, finished second in last week’s Sam McKee Memorial, raced at 1-1/8 miles, at the Meadowlands. All Bets Off, Dealt A Winner, and Rockin Ron also were in the McKee.

“That’s why I gave my horse last week off; I’m sure my horse will be fresher,” Tritton said. “I don’t know if they’ll beat them, but he’ll be fresher.”

Bit Of A Legend will start the Dan Patch Stakes from post five. Lazarus will leave from post nine with driver Yannick Gingras in his U.S. debut. Lazarus arrived at Takter’s farm in late May following his purchase by Taylor Made Stallions. During his career Down Under, Lazarus won two editions of the prestigious New Zealand Cup and 15 Group One events overall. He earned NZ$3.8 million.

“He’s probably the best horse to come out of New Zealand,” said Tritton, who has trained a number of Down Under horses in the U.S. during his career. “He’s very strong, very gutsy, so that big track will suit him. It’s his first run and he’s probably not completely acclimated, so he’s got a few things against him. It will be interesting to see the transition, but I know he’s a great horse.”

Ed Mullinax dead at 85

Charles "Ed" Mullinax, 85, of Amherst, OH, died Aug. 4, 2018, in Port Orange, FL, and enjoyed his final days surrounded by the family he loved.

Mr. Mullinax is survived by his wife of 58 years, Janet (Kline); sons, Larry (Lisa) and Jerry (Denise); daughter, Terri (Andre) Jones; and eight grandchildren, Brad (Sarah), Claire, Anastasia, Grant, Clayton, Cole, Lindsay and Kellie.

He was born of humble beginnings in Ellijay, GA on April 4, 1933 to William and Clarissa (McAlpine) Mullinax. He always bragged about his Georgia roots, although he spent most of his life in Ohio. He graduated from Stow (Ohio) High School in 1952, earning eight varsity letters in football, baseball and basketball. He briefly attended Wilmington College, where he played football, before joining the Army and becoming a paratrooper and M. P. with the 82nd Airborne Special Forces Division at Fort Bragg, N.C.

After the military, he worked at the Mohawk Rubber Company, the Ford Engine plant and spent a short time at Kent State University before finding a job in 1957 that would turn out to be a career: selling cars. He sold cars at several dealerships, then advanced to used car manager at Graham Ford in Akron in 1963 and then part owner of George DiFeo Ford in North Canton in 1967. In 1970, he opened his first dealership, Ed Mullinax Ford, in Amherst, OH. He was a great leader and tremendous marketer who transformed this previously closed business into the fifth largest Ford dealership in America. He owned 17 Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealerships throughout his career and in the mid-1990s became the largest Ford retailer in the USA.

Mr. Mullinax was an innovator and in 1975, he invented "one-price" selling by putting his best, non-negotiable price on every windshield to make car buying easier for the customer. He built the world's largest indoor showroom, which could display 120 cars. He created a jingle, "Ed Mullinax is a Friend of Mine," that would become known by all in Northeast Ohio. He was selected by Automotive News in their "50 Visionary Dealers" of all time.

He touched many lives during his lifetime, whether it was donating to charities or teaching people how to succeed in the car business. He was especially proud that many Mullinax employees, including his own sons, went on to become managers, general managers and even dealers with their own stores.

Mr. Mullinax entered the harness racing business in 1993 and owned many horses, including P-Forty-Seven, the 2005 winner of the Little Brown Jug in Delaware, OH. He also owned Dragon Ranch Golf Course, named after his best horse, Dragon Again.

Congratulations to all the connections of ATLANTA

14th filly winner of the Hambletonian

The Hambletonian Society thanks

- ★ All owners, breeders, trainers, drivers and staff for a tremendous day of racing
- ★ The bettors responsible for the largest handle day in harness racing every year
- ★ The Meadowlands Racetrack and their sponsors
- ★ Special thanks to Hanover Shoe Farms

...and most importantly the trotters and pacers who put on the greatest day in harness racing!

He loved playing golf, horse racing, Cleveland sports, talking politics, challenges, competition, anything "American" and the great friendships he had being a member of the Amherst Noonday Club. He was also a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church.

He said, "I'd hate to leave this world having lived a boring life." God blessed him with a wonderful life that was anything but boring.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Alden and Wayne; sister, Arlene Albright; and his father-in-law and mother-in-law, John and Rose Kline.

Mass of Christian Burial will be at 11 a.m. today (Aug. 10) at Our Lady of Hope Catholic Church, 4675 S. Clyde Morris Boulevard, Port Orange, FL 32129. Private burial will be in Cape Canaveral National Cemetery, Mims, Fla.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Halifax Health Hospice, 3800 Woodbriar Trail, Port Orange, FL 32129 or to a charity of your choice.

15% takeout across the board for Breeders Crown elims and finals

The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono will offer a 15 per cent across-the-board takeout rate on all available wagers — not only on the entire Breeders Crown Finals card, but also on two nights of elimination cards.

"It's a significant benefit to offer bettors one of the absolute lowest multi-race takeout rates in all of North America," said John Campbell, president and CEO of the Hambletonian Society, which owns and administers the Breeders Crown championship series of races. "Adding this incentive to one of racing's most highly anticipated events will make it all the more exciting."

The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono and Pennsylvania Harness Horsemen's Association have also partnered with TVG to broadcast key Breeders Crown races, and with Daily Racing Form for live streaming on their website with analysis, past performance pages and commentary, giving fans access free of charge.

Set for Saturday, Oct. 27, this will be the third time The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono has played host to the $6 million event, harness racing's richest and most prestigious year-end divisional series. Breeders Crown eliminations for 2-year-olds will be raced Friday, Oct. 19 and 3-year-old and open horses will have eliminations, if necessary, on Saturday, Oct. 20.

Tickets, dining options and hotel recommendations for The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono will be available shortly. Please go to Hambletonian.com or mohegansunpocono.com for more information.

Okeanos gives Mayotte a golden birthday gift

Roger Mayotte has been expecting big things from Okeanos since the gelding arrived in his barn last October and on Thursday night the two-year-old trotter put all the pieces together and gave Mayotte a trip to the Gold Series winner's circle for his birthday.

"I was hoping," said Mayotte with a chuckle. "I was hoping.

"He's very, very nervous, a high strung horse. He's been an ongoing project that way through the winter," the 62-year-old continued. "We had to get him over that stuff, but he's always showed us some speed and the gait."

Okeanos showed off both his gait and speed in Thursday's victory at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Starting from Post 7 in the second $67,200 Gold division, Mayotte settled the gelding in seventh as Lifetime Royalty stormed out to a :27.4 opening quarter. The pair joined the parade up the outer lane heading for the :57.2 half and by the 1:26.3 three-quarters they were three-wide and Mayotte was reaching for another gear. Okeanos responded with a burst that saw him reel in the leaders and claim a one-half length victory in 1:56.4. Southwind Avenger also closed hard to claim second and fan favourite Dream Nation was third.

The win was Okeanos' first, coming on the heels of a break in the July 16 Gold Series season opener and a hard-closing second in the July 31 Grassroots leg, both at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"He's been showing a lot of promise all along and when he broke in that first Gold there, in my mind he was going to be first or second, the way he was starting to change gears. Unfortunately I think it was my fault, I might have just startled him a bit," reflected trainer-driver Mayotte, who also shares ownership of the gelding with his partners in the Just In Time Stable of Mississauga and R A W Equine of Burlington, Ontario. "We decided to go to the Grassroots instead of going to Georgian to keep him on the big track; he's a fairly big colt."

Mayotte noted that the long-legged son of E L Titan will also miss the Sept. 24 Gold Leg over Grand River Raceway's half-mile, but is eligible to the Aug. 31 Champlain Stakes and the Sept. 8 William Wellwood Memorial eliminations at Woodbine Mohawk Park. So long as he remains happy and healthy Okeanos will return to the Gold Series for the Oct. 4 event at Woodbine Mohawk Park, hoping to score another top finish and tally enough points to land one of 10 berths in the season-ending Super Final. Through his first two Gold starts, the gelding, a $62,000 purchase from the London Selected Yearling Sale, has accumulated 51 points.

Forbidden Trade padded his point total with a 1:57.4 victory in the first Gold division, besting Cool Clifford by one and three-quarter lengths. Isnt He An Angel was seven lengths back in third.

Bob McClure piloted the heavy favourite to his second Gold Series win for trainer Luc Blais and owner Determination of Montreal, Quebec. The Kadabra colt also triumphed in the July 16 season opener.

“He’s been a complete professional right from the start, he acts like an aged horse,” said McClure, who felt the colt may have been at his most impressive in the July 29 Gold Leg at Georgian Downs, where he finished fourth.

“Last week was probably his most impressive mile, he was just beat a head for second. Three of the previous week’s winners were in together and he had the nine-hole and got away last,” McClure told Woodbine Mohawk Park’s Chad Rozema in the winner’s circle. “I think he showed he’s one of the best, if not the best colt in the division right now.”

A $110,000 purchase out of the Harrisburg Yearling Sale, Forbidden Trade has accumulated 108 points and $65,076 in his first three starts.

The final division saw Royal Rob make a successful transition from the Grassroots to the Gold, scoring a second straight victory in 1:56.3. Knight Angel was two and one-quarter lengths behind the fan favourite in second and pacesetter CT Conabra was third.

“He’s a nice colt. He’s smart and has a great gait,” said driver Trevor Henry, who also piloted Royal Rob to a Grassroots victory at Woodbine Mohawk Park on July 31. “He has all the tools to be a good one.”

Hall of Fame horseman Bob McIntosh of Windsor bred Royal Rob and shares ownership of the Royalty For Life son with Dave Boyle of Bowmanville, ON, Gordon Wright of Charlotte and Randy Liepa of Livonia, MI. Thursday’s victory gives the trotter 50 points toward a Super Final berth with two regular season events remaining.

Tonight, Woodbine Mohawk Park will showcase the 2-year-old trotting fillies in a pair of Gold Series divisions, scheduled as Races 5 and 9 on the 7:30 p.m program.

Bronx Seelster takes Battle Of Waterloo on Industry Day

Grand River Raceway marked its 28th annual Industry Day Horse Racing Celebration on Aug. 6. The event featured 11 races totaling $565,855 in purses, including the track’s biggest races, the Battle Of Waterloo and Battle Of The Belles.

Trevor Henry captures his first Battle Of Waterloo title aboard Bronx Seelster in the $262,000 final Monday at Grand River Raceway.

21st annual Battle Of Waterloo

Nine of the best freshman 2-year-old colts headed to battle at Grand River Raceway. Amidst rain showers and overcast weather, Bronx Seelster parted the skies to win the $262,000 Battle Of Waterloo.

Having drawn the trailing position of post nine, Bronx Seelster and Trevor Henry followed Prestige Seelster (Bob McClure) off the wings and landed fourth behind Wager On Me (Jody Jamieson) and Twin B Watching (Doug McNair).

Wager On Me put up quarter fractions in a quick :27.1 as Twin B Watching pocket-pulled to lead the field to the half in :55.1 as Bronx Seelster came with the first-up attack to clear and lead his foes to the three-quarters in 1:24.1 with Bettors Wish (Paul MacDonnell) in pursuit.

Stride for stride to the head of the stretch, Bronx Seelster and Bettors Wish dueled to the finish line with Bronx Seelster putting a neck in front of Bettors Wish to win in 1:53.1, narrowly missing Tarpon Hanover’s 1:53 track record set in 2012.

Wayne McGean trains the 2-year-old son of Big Jim and celebrates his first Battle Of Waterloo victory with a colt who has now surpassed $225,000 in six starts. The $22,000 yearling has now returned his yearling price 10 times over for owners Capers 3 Stables of Sydney, NS. The victory was also the third win of the card and the first Battle Of Waterloo score for driver Trevor Henry.

10th annual Battle Of The Belles

Trainer Dave Menary scored his third Battle Of The Belles title in a favored victory with Quebec Blue Chip and driver Jody Jamieson.

The Sportswriter daughter fronted the field through fractions of :28, :57.2, and 1:26.2 for a mile time of 1:55.1 in the $163,840 race. Menary also trains the runner-up in the race, Ideation Hanover (James MacDonald). Powerful Chris (Bob McClure) was an elimination division winner last week and put forth a persistent first-up battle against front-facing Quebec Blue Chip, but faded to fifth in the later going.

Track records

The 28th Industry Day undercard also featured two track record performances. Neon Moon set a new best for 3-year-old pacing fillies during the second of four Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots divisions, coasting to a five-length victory in 1:52.4 for driver Jody Jamieson and trainer Jack Darling. The score bumps aside the 1:53.1 record set in 2013.

At 8-1, Cousin Mary and Trevor Henry also lowered the aged pacing mares' track record to 1:53 after holding off Butter Milk Hanover and Bob McClure in race six. The clocking replaces five ties of the former 1:53.2 mark which was first established in 2013.

OHHA Best Of Show

The Best Of Show competition sponsored, by the Ontario Harness Horse Association (OHHA), awarded $1,500 to the caretakers of horses racing on the Industry Day card. Fifteen prizes of $100 were presented to the top five in each of the following categories: Best Of Show Head-To-Toe; Horse & Groom; Above & Beyond (braids, sparkles, etc.).

The winners were: Al Shelton, Emelia Svensson, Jennifer Harding, Steven Samis, Karen Laarman, Kathryn Gilfoy, Katie Graham, Kendal Middleton, Kim O' Reilly, Korina McLean, Lisa Mutter, Marie Brooking, Mary Lou Gingras, Robert Alliett, Steve Quinn and Susie McNair.

Young Guns Race

Six harness racing proteges took to the racetrack with their ponies (and accompanying drivers) in the Young Guns Race. Quinton was the race winner in the five-horse race, driven by Eric Lachance with help from his mother Marielle Enberg.

Bouncy Pony Stakes

Grand River Raceway's current leading driver, Colin Kelly, posted the biggest upset of the afternoon, defeating multiple Bouncy Pony Stakes champion James MacDonald in the 14th edition of the Industry Day fan favourite. MacDonald and fellow competitors J. Harris and Bob McClure cooled off the victor with a surprise tub of ice water during his trophy presentation.

Garage Sale

The Industry Day Garage Sale raised a total of $774.00 for the Ontario Standardbred Adoption Society, the Canadian Horse Racing Hall Of Fame, Standardbred Showcase and Racing Under Saddle Ontario.

Four $30,000 Quebec-bred finals held at Hippodrome 3R

The very first race on the harness racing program set the tone of action at the Hippodrome 3R Tuesday evening as it took the photo finish camera to declare the winner of the first of four $30,000 finals for the Quebec-Bred Series.

The first race featured the final for 4- and 5-year-old pacing mares and it turned out to be exciting battle between two-time former champion, HP Sissy and Art De Gagnee.

Race favorite Skyfall Sena (Guy Gagnon) was first on the lead but Stephane Brosseau wanted control of the race with HP Sissy and took over after a :27.3 opening quarter mile.

Then before the half mile in :57, driver Pierre Luc Roy came first-over with Art De Gagnee and pushed HP Sissy for control, but could not pass her by as they raced head and head past the three-quarters in 1:25.4.

Art De Gagnee then stuck a head out in front at the top of the stretch, but HP Sissy dug in some more for Brosseau, but it was not good enough as Roy kept after Art De Gagnee, who won the photo finish by a head in 1:56. Skyfall Sena was third.

It was a lifetime mark for Art De Gagnee, a five-year-old mare by Shadow Play, owned and trained by Cassandra Lecourt of Ste-Victoire De Sorel. She was bred by Guy Corbeil of Mirabel and paid $15.80 to win.

The sixth race $30,000 final for the trotting mares saw EAU Naturelle and trainer/driver Simon Delisle go right to the front as expected, but a costly break by Lucky Promisses allowed race favorite Y S Suzanne and driver Guy Gagnon to get the two-hole trip.

They raced Indian-style past the half and then in the backstretch, Gagnon made his move with Y S Suzanne and came first-over but could not pass by a determined EAU Naturelle as they raced head and head until mid-stretch when Y S Suzanne took over and won by one and one-quarter lengths in 1:59.3.

EAU Naturelle was second with Vanilla Star (Yves St Jacques) third.

It was the second Championship Final for Y S Suzanne, who also won at age 2. She is a five-year-old mare Angus Hall, co-owned and trained by Blake Curran with by Jason Jamieson of Perth, ON. She paid $2.40 to win.

Wildriverbumble made it three straight championships as he ended up being an easy winner in the 7th race final for the pacing horses.

It was Major Lou Beka a driver Jonathan Lachance that put on a speed show as they left from the rail and opened up on the field immediately, going to the opening quarter mile in :26.4 and then to the half mile in :55.1.

Dance With Joe and driver Daniel Dulude and troubles leaving and was in second place but quit after the half mile and that was when Guy Gagnon got Wildriverbumblebee on the move on the outside.

They caught up with Major Lou Beka at the three-quarters in 1:24.1 and on the final turn Wildriverbumblebee took command for Gagnon and went on to win by two and one-quarter lengths in 1:55.

HP Patriote (Pascal Berube) was second with C L Sportaction (Brosseau) third.

It was the second straight win for Wildriverbumblebee. The four-year-old stallion by Sportswriter is trained by Francis Richard and was bred and is owned by Dr. John Bradbury of Cookshire-Eaton. He paid $3.30 to win.

The last $30,000 final was the 8th race for the trotting horses and it was quite a battle from the start.

Both Holiday Party (Pascal Berube) and Kinnder Dangerous (Justin Filion) wanted the lead and by the opening quarter mile in :27.4, Filion took back into the two-hole with Kinnder Dangerous.

Then on the second turn, Pierre Luc Roy started Capteur De Reve up on the outside and they started working their way to the front at the half mile in :58.2. Then by the three-quarters in 1:28, Capteur De Reve was able to collar Holiday Party as Filion and Kinnder Dangerous tried coming three-wide on the final turn.

As they came down the stretch, Capteur De Reve proved to be the strong horse and went on to win by one and one-quarter lengths in 1:59.4. Sometimes When (Guy Gagnon) closed well to be second with Holiday Party third.

It was the second straight Championship for Capteur De Reve, who won last year at age three. The four-year-old son of Muscle Mass is trained by Maxime Velaye and was bred and is owned by Ecuire Provoquante of Mirabel. He paid $4.80 to win.

There were three divisions of the third round of the Breeders Cup Series for three-year-old trotters Tuesday evening.

The first colt division was the second race and saw Yankee Photo and driver Pascal Berube take early control from Sir Chopin (Simon Delisle) after the opening quarter mile in :29.4.

From that point on Yankee Photo wired the field, winning by two and one-quarter lengths in 2:02.1. Sir Chopin was second with Johnny's Revenge (David Pilon) third.

It was the second win this season for Yankee Photo. The colt by Muscle Yankee is trained by Gerald Woodberry and was bred and is owned by Mario Gouragee of Stanbridge East and paid $3.90 to win.

The second division, fifth race, belonged to SG Goliath King and driver Sylvain Grenier, who led from start to finish by two and one-quarter lengths in 2:03.

SOS Irresistable (Daniel Laflamme) tried coming first-over at the opening quarter mile and was parked out the entire mile but still held on for second place. Nobodinojustice (Guy Gagnon) looped the field three-wide at the three-quarters and around the final turn but could not keep the momentum going and finished third.

It was the second straight win and third victory on the year for SG Goliath King. The son of Lucky Feel was bred and is owned and trained by Grenier of Saint-Rene and paid $3.40 to win.

The lone filly division in the third race saw race favorite Kinnder Prediction (Justin Filion) go off-stride at the start and that left Montanaalaska and driver Guy Gagnon all alone to lead the field with ease and win by five and three-quarter lengths in 2:02.4. Precieuse CC (Claude Beausoleil) was second with Stand For Justice (Brosseau) third.

It was a lifetime mark and first career victory for the daughter of Angus Hall. She is trained by Alain Martin for owner Michel Grenier of Gatineau, paying $4.00 to win.

In the Horse Power Challenge Race, featuring Grand Prix auto drivers Andrew Ranger vs LP (Louis-Philippe) Dumoulin in double-seater jogging carts, it was Quebec native Andrew Ranger with harness racing coach Simon Allard, beating LP

Dumoulin and coach Stephane Brosseau by one length in 2:31.2.

Auction items and table sponsors needed for PreJug Party fundraiser

New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program is seeking auction items and table sponsors for its annual Pre-Jug Party & Charity Auction to be held Wednesday, Sept. 19, at the Delaware County Fair. Proceeds go toward the retraining and placement of retired standardbreds and the Delaware County Fair.

“We’re asking owners, breeders, trainers, drivers, racetracks and those that benefit from racing, to please support this important fundraiser,” said New Vocations executive director Dot Morgan. Vacations, tickets to sporting events, equine services, memorabilia and tack, as well as, home and barn accessories are all being sought. Items that can be easily mailed are a plus since bidding can be done off site from any mobile device. Higher end items like vacations and experiences are especially helpful.

Table Sponsors are also needed and a good option in lieu of merchandise or services. Show your support by sponsoring a table in your name or the name of a favorite horse. Attendance is not required as Seating is Open. Signs on the table recognize each sponsor for their support. It’s $400 to sponsor a table or $200 to co-sponsor. Visit www.wedoauctions.net/prejugparty to sponsor a table, view items as they arrive and register to bid. All bidding is via mobile device whether at the party or off site.

“New Vocations is totally dependent on donations to rehabilitate, retrain, and rehome hundreds of retired racehorses each year,” said Morgan. “Participating in this event is a fun & easy way to give back to the horses we all love. I can’t emphasize enough, how much we need everyone’s help.” For the first time, people will be able to view the items in advance and bid remotely from their mobile devices.
