

ALL TIMES LISTED - EASTERN TIME

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2021

11:00 - 12:15	Concurrent Sessions 1 Community and Cross-Sectoral Collaboration to Achieve a More Equitable School Mental Health System in Washington, DC Session Chair: Vinu Ilakkuvan, PoP Health Vinu Ilakkuvan, PoP Health “Elevating community voice and interdisciplinary practice via systems dynamics modeling and a community of practice” Marisa Parrella, Mary’s Center “The role of community healthcare providers in centering equity” Chioma Oruh, Chi Bornfree “The role of families in dismantling structural racism in schools”
	Exploring the Roles of Race and Racism in Shaping Psychosocial Well-Being Session Chair: Courtney Thomas Tobin, University of California, Los Angeles Christina Bijou “Proximity to Advantage: Examining the Mental Health Effects of Closeness to Whites” Dylan Jackson, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health “Unpacking Racial/Ethnic Disparities in Emotional Distress Among Adolescents During Witnessed Police Stops” Izraelle McKinnon, Emory University “Exposure to Personal and Vicarious Racism-Related Traumas and Poor Sleep in Black Women” Noah Triplett, University of Washington “The ACT Project: Integrating Theatre into Anti-Racist Clinical Training”
	Racial inequalities impacting health of women and newborns Session Chair: Amy Non, University of California, San Diego Milkie Vu, Emory University “Racial and Ethnic Disparities in Health-Related Socioeconomic Risk Factors during the Early Phase of the COVID-19 Pandemic: A National Survey of U.S. Women” Hawi Teizazu, Columbia University “Maternal mortality in news media: A content analysis” Tongtan Chantarat, University of Minnesota “Multidimensional Structural Racism and Birth Inequity in Minnesota”
	Social relationships: Cohesion, peers, and cardiometabolic risk Session Chair: Mark Pachucki, University of Massachusetts Amherst Harold Lee, Harvard T. H. Chan School of Public Health “Social Integration and Risk of Premature Mortality among African-Americans: The Jackson Heart Study” Jimi Adams, University of Colorado Denver “Predictors of romantic partner nomination reciprocity in adolescent social networks” Patrice Williams, Massachusetts Institute of Technology “Neighborhood Social Cohesion and Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus by Age, Sex/Gender, and Race/Ethnicity in the United States” Mark C. Pachucki, University of Massachusetts, Amherst “Examining the role of social cohesion in understanding links between early adversity and adult social status” Jessica Polos, Northwestern University “Intersecting Identities in Social Context: Paradoxical Implications for Life Course Obesity”

Structural Factors and Health Inequities

Session Chair: Whitney Pirtle, University of California, Merced

Cesar Vargas Nunez, Stanford University

“Navigating the COVID-19 Pandemic as an Immigrant Living in the US”

Victoria Sass, University of Washington

“Ambient Air Pollution, Neighborhood Contexts, and Racial Disparities in Youth Outcomes”

David Gonzalez, Stanford University

“Persistent disparities in exposure to upstream oil and gas production facilities in California”

Parvati Singh, University of California, Irvine

“Racial disparities in law enforcement/court-ordered psychiatric inpatient admissions after the 2008 recession: a test of the reduced tolerance hypothesis”

The Next Frontier of Health Equity in the COVID-19 era

Session Chair: Nia Heard-Garris, Northwestern University

Ellicott Matthay, University of California, San Francisco

“Occupational inequity as a contributor to racial and ethnic disparities in COVID-19 death rates in California”

Annaka Scheeres, Philadelphia Department of Public Health

“Non-COVID-19 Causes of Excess Mortality During the COVID-19 Pandemic: Evidence from Death Records in Philadelphia, PA”

Denae Bradley, Howard University

“COVID-19 vaccine ambivalence: A challenge to achieving population health equity in the U.S.”

12:30 - 1:30

Lunchtime SessionsLessons in Science Communication from “Those Nerdy Girls” at Dear Pandemic

Malia Jones, University of Wisconsin

Malia Jones, University of Wisconsin

Jennifer Dowd, University of Oxford

Lindsey Leininger, Dartmouth University

Amanda Simanek, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

Sick Individuals/Sick Populations – IAPHs Podcast LIVE!

Co-Hosts: Michael Esposito and Darrell Hudson

(<https://iaphs.org/sick-individuals-sick-populations/>)

1:30 - 2:45

Concurrent Sessions 2Armed conflict, violence and population health in low- and middle-income countries

Session Chair: Kammi K. Schmeer, Department of Sociology, The Ohio State University

Kim Korinek, Department of Sociology and the Asia Center, University of Utah

“Wartime Stressors and Military Service in Early Adulthood and Biomarkers of Aging and Sarcopenia among Older Adult Vietnamese War Survivors”

Stephanie Koning, Institute for Policy Research & Department of Anthropology, Northwestern University

“How do life-course patterns of violence get under the skin? Varied biological and health impacts of acute and chronic stressors experienced at the Thai-Burma border”

Kammi K. Schmeer, Department of Sociology, The Ohio State University

“Age at Exposure to Armed Conflict and HIV Risk among Reproductive-Aged Women: The Case of Rwanda”

Emily Treleaven, University of Michigan, Institute for Social Research

“Spatial and Temporal Effects of Exposure to Violent Conflict on Maternal and Child Health Service Utilization in Rural Mali”

COVID-19 Research from the Risk and Social Policy Working Group

Session Chair: Katherine L. Dickinson, Colorado School of Public Health

Jennifer D. Roberts, University of Maryland

“Essential Workers and COVID-19 Inequity”

Katherine L. Dickinson, Colorado School Of Public Health

“Structural Racism and COVID-19 Vaccination”

Elizabeth Shanahan, Montana State University

“Effects of Narrative Risk Communication on Motivation to Get the COVID-19 Vaccine”

Robert DeLeo, Bentley University

“Assessing the Drivers of State COVID-19 Policy Across Time and Space”

Data and Structural Racism

Session Chair: Rumi Chunara, New York University

Madina Agénor, Tufts University

“Measuring Structural Racism Using State Laws and Policies”

Greta Bauer, University of Western Ontario

“Intersectionality and the Measurement of Discrimination”

Stephanie Cook, New York University

“Multi-level Structural Racism”

Health Equity Advanced Through Structural Competency

Session Chair: Kristin Black, East Carolina University

Nimish Saxena, Boston University

“Structural Competency Approaches”

Courtney Caiola, East Carolina University

“Adapting the Structural Competency Curriculum”

Felix Pan, University of California Berkeley, University of Maryland

“Structural Competency Curriculum Overview”

Irma Corral, East Carolina University

“Educational Pilot Outcomes”

Politics, Policy, and Chronic Pain

Session Chair: Anna Zajacova, University of Western Ontario

Keith Wailoo, Princeton University

“The Politics of Pain and Disability: Historical Perspective.”

Jane Pryma, University of Connecticut

“Pain (Mis)management: How Health Care Systems Enable and Constrain Non-Pharmacological Approaches to Chronic Pain”

Hanna Grol-Prokopczyk, University at Buffalo and Mount Saint Vincent University

“Contextual factors explaining cross-national differences in chronic pain prevalence: A comparative study”

Using History to Understand Health Inequities

Session Chair: Amy Kate Bailey, University of Illinois at Chicago

Merlin Chowkwanyun, Columbia University

“The Place of History in Racial Health Disparities Research: Where Have We Come, and Where Might We Go?”

Bryan L. Sykes, University of California at Irvine

“Disability Policy Regimes: Democratic Ideals, Policy Construction, and Disability Rates in a Global Context”

LaTonya Trotter, University of Washington

“A Dream Deferred: Historicizing the gendered, racial order in the health care professions”

Amy Kate Bailey, University of Illinois at Chicago

“Historical Violence and Contemporary Pregnancy Outcomes: Is There a Connection?”

2:45 - 3:15

Break

3:15 - 4:30

Concurrent Sessions 3Life Course Perspectives on Place and Health

Session Chair: David Warner, University of Alabama, Birmingham

Emma Zang, Yale University

“Contextual Intergenerational Upward Mobility and Later-Life Health”

Haena Lee, University of Southern California

“Childhood Lead Exposure and Cognitive Functioning among Older Adults: Evidence from the Health and Retirement Study”

Shelley Clark, McGill University

“Support from Adult Children and Parental Health in Rural America”

Danielle Rhubart, Syracuse University

“Race, the Built Environment and Social and Emotional Support among Rural Older Adults: The Case for Social Infrastructure”

	Social and Economic Policy Levers to Improve Population Health Session Chair: Jennifer Karas Montez, Syracuse University MyDzung Chu, The George Washington University “Impact of Federal Housing Assistance on Housing and Environmental Quality among U.S. Households” Avanti Adhia, University of Washington “Assessing the Content and Effectiveness of State Laws Addressing Adolescent Intimate Partner Violence in Schools” Tarlise Townsend, NYU School of Medicine, NYU College of Nursing “Responding to the opioid crisis: did policies to curb opioid prescribing exacerbate racial disparities?” Megan Reynolds, University of Utah “Active Labor Market Policies and US Life Expectancy” Kimberly Narain, University of California, Los Angeles “An Analysis of the Relationship between State Earned Income Tax Credit Generosity, Risk and Health among Single Mothers with Low Education”
	Social Vulnerability and Mental Health Session Chair: Jason Schnittker, University of Pennsylvania Abhery Das “State lockdown policies, mental health symptoms, and using substances” Alein Haro, UC Berkeley “Immigration Policy Vulnerability Linked to Depression and Anxiety Among Latino Day Laborers” Lauren Gullett, National Institute of Health “Neighborhood Social Cohesion and Serious Psychological Distress among Asian, Black, Hispanic/Latinx, and White Men and Women in the United States” Rengin Firat, University of California, Riverside “Covid-19 Related Discrimination Contributes to Mental Health Disparities for Black and Asian American Populations”
	Structural factors and population health Session Chair: Caryn Bell, Tulane University Jessica Judson, Tulane University “Examining Deadly Police Encounters for Black Women and Girls” Samantha Gailey, University of California Irvine “Maternal race/ethnicity moderates the longitudinal association between residential greenness and birthweight” Marie-Fatima Hyacinthe, Yale School of Public Health “Mutual Aid Groups and their Public Health Impact in Communities Facing Structural Racism” Danielle Crookes, Emory University “Perceived statewide policy climate, local immigration enforcement, and the mental health of Latinx immigrants in Georgia” Denise Mitchell, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill “Criminal Legal System Contact and Physical Health Outcomes Among U.S. Adults”
	The Pain and Power of Place: Theory, Data, and Action Session Chair: Sharrelle Barber, Drexel University Session Chair: Caryn Bell, Tulane University Ryan Petteway, OHSU-PSU School of Public Health “Knowledge, Power, + (Mis)Representation in Health Equity Discourse: Towards Antiracist + Decolonizing Praxis for a People’s Social Epi” Katherine LeMasters, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill “Mass Incarceration and the Community-Wide Consequences of COVID-19” Graham Dove, NYU Tandon School of Engineering “Building community resilience through a participatory approach to address environmental health risks in Brooklyn’s Chinatown”
4:30 - 5:00	Break
5:00 - 5:45	Plenary 1: Presidential Welcome Session Chair: Roland Thorpe, IAPHS President-Elect Kathleen Mullan Harris, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill IAPHS Presidential Address
5:45 - 7:00	Invited Panel 1 - "A Culture of Racism" Session Chair/Moderator: Hedwig Lee, Washington University in St. Louis Evelynn Hammonds, Harvard University, Department of the History of Science
ALL DAY	POSTER VIEWING

11:00 - 12:15 Concurrent Sessions 4

Education and Racial Health Equity
Session Chair: Linnea Evans, Northern Arizona University

Erin Linnenbringer, Washington University School of Medicine
"Health costs and benefits experienced by Black families participating in the St. Louis, MO school desegregation program"

Linnea Evans, Northern Arizona University
"Changes to daily life experienced by race/ethnicity and school-delivery mode during the 2020-2021 school year"

Jia Wang, University of Wisconsin, Madison
"The links between college quality and health in later life: Evaluating the horizontal dimension of higher education"

L. Trenton S. Marsh, University of Central Florida
"Raising awareness: How policies and practices in one no-excuses charter school adversely impacted the education and health effects of Black boys"

Family Adversity and Population Health: Evidence of Non-Communicable Disease Risk Factors in Low-Income Settings
Session Chair: Stephanie Koning, Institute for Policy Research & Department of Anthropology, Northwestern University

Jacob E. Aronoff, Northwestern University, Department of Anthropology
"Early adversity and immune function in adulthood in Cebu, Philippines"

Patrick Heuveline, Department of Sociology, UCLA
"How Do Mental Health and Socio-Demographic Outcomes Vary Between Orphans in Cambodia?"

Kammi K. Schmeer, Department of Sociology, The Ohio State University
"Childhood Adversity and Women's Non-Communicable Disease Risks in Adulthood: Evidence from Nicaragua"

Katharine M. Donato, Georgetown University, Director, Institute for the Study of International Migration
"Environmental Stress, Household Migration and the Health of Children and Adults in Bangladesh"

How Racism, Discrimination, Stigma, and Institutional Mistrust Impact Infectious Disease Outcomes among Communities of Color
Session Chair: Jennifer Richmond, Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Nashville, TN

Jennifer Richmond, Vanderbilt University Medical Center
"How Health Systems Earn Public Mistrust and Why it Matters for Public Health"

Alane Celeste-Villalvir, The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston
"How fear and mistrust of the healthcare system and healthcare professionals affects hepatitis C virus (HCV) screening among individuals experiencing homelessness in Houston, Texas"

Mudia Uzzi, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health
"Investigating the effects of racism, institutional distrust, and community collaboration on COVID-19 related outcomes in Baltimore City"

Jennifer McGee-Avila, State University of New Jersey
"Examining the Role of Stigma in Cervical Cancer Screening Utilization among Women Living with HIV"

Inequities in COVID-19 in US cities: tools and metrics to track inequities and inform population health policy
Session Chair: Pricila Mullachery, Urban Health Collaborative, Dornsife School of Public Health, Drexel University

Usama Bilal, Dornsife School of Public Health, Drexel University
"The Drexel-BCHC COVID-19 Inequities Dashboard"

Benjamin Spoer, City Health Dashboard, NYU Grossman School of Medicine
"Calculating, Validating, and Updating the City Health Dashboard's COVID Local Risk Index"

Pricila Mullachery, Dornsife School of Public Health, Drexel University
"Using potential community demand to examine inequity in access to COVID-19 testing in 30 large US cities."

Jennifer Kolker, Dornsife School of Public Health, Drexel University
"A Qualitative Analysis on Strategies to Reduce Inequities in COVID-19 Testing and Vaccinations in 30 large US Cities"

Measuring climate toward immigrants: Policies, public opinion, and community perspectives
Session Chair: Danielle M. Crookes, Northeastern University

Maria-Elena de Trinidad Young, University of California, Merced
"Exclusionary immigrant policies in states receive more news coverage than inclusionary immigrant policies: Implications for immigrant health"

Thu T. Nguyen, University of California, San Francisco
"Temporal and geographic variation in expressed sentiment of immigrants using Twitter data"

Emily D. Lemon, Emory University
"Successes and challenges in qualitative inquiry of immigration-related policies with frontline workers during the pandemic"

Policy, Power, and a Place to Live: How Can Housing Interventions Advance Justice and Population Health Equity?

Session Chairs: Kathryn Leifheit, UCLA Fielding School of Public Health

Katherine L. Chen, UCLA David Geffen School of Medicine

Anne Kat Alexander, University of Maryland Carey School of Law

“The COVID-19 Housing Policy Scorecard and Eviction Tracking System: results from two real-time projects”

Kathryn Leifheit, UCLA Fielding School of Public Health

“Population health outcomes of COVID-19 eviction moratoriums”

Katherine L. Chen, UCLA David Geffen School of Medicine

“Right to counsel in New York City eviction courts: a quasi-experimental study of birth and death outcomes”

Sabriya Linton, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

“Viewing Black youth’s experiences with redevelopment and relocation in Baltimore through camera lenses”

12:30 - 1:30

Lunchtime Session

Funding Opportunities for Population Health Science

Kathleen Mullan Harris, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

Rebecca Clark, Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development

Nancy Jones, National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities

John Phillips, National Institute on Aging

Student Member Networking Event

Session Chairs: Adam Lilly, University of North Carolina

Julene Cooney, Syracuse University

1:30 - 2:45

Concurrent Sessions 5

Dimensions of Neighborhoods and Health: Gentrification, Housing Stability, and Social Cohesion

Session Chair: Jessica Owens-Young, American University

Marisa Westbrook, University of Colorado Denver

“The Process of Exclusionary Displacement and Implications for Health”

Danya Keene, Yale School of Public Health

“Informal Housing Provision and Health Inequality”

Shannon Whittaker, Yale School of Public Health

“Rethinking the effects of gentrification on health: A transdisciplinary conceptual model”

Stephanie Hernandez, University of North Carolina

“Perceived Neighborhood Social Cohesion among Intersectionally Minoritized Groups in the United States”

Erin Nolen, University of Texas at Austin

“Racial and Ethnic Differences in the Relationship Between Food Insecurity and Housing Insecurity Among a Population-Based Sample of Mothers of Young Children”

Employment, Work, and Health: Macro and Micro Forces

Session Chair: Annie Ro, University of California, Irvine

Christopher Lowenstein, University of California, Berkeley

“Diseases of Despair following the Great Recession: Trends, Economic Drivers, and the Role of Medicaid Expansion”

Megan Reynolds, University of Utah

“Cross-Level Effects of Union Membership and Density on Depression in Europe”

Emily Ahonen, Indiana University

“Comparing dimensions of employment quality and their conceptual underpinnings to available data in the United States”

Amel Omari, University of Chicago

“Education-labor mismatch and health outcomes among immigrants in the US”

Examining the enduring impact of SES on health from micro to macro

Session Chair: Kia Davis, Washington University

Nicholas Smith, Indiana University

“BLACK-WHITE DISPARITIES IN WOMEN’S PHYSICAL HEALTH: THE ROLE OF SOCIOECONOMIC STATUS AND RACISM-RELATED STRESSORS”

Caryn Bell, Tulane University

“Hustle culture, socioeconomic status, and hypertension among Black adults”

Jess M. Meyer, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

“The Physiological Effects of Foreclosure and Financial Strain among Young Adults: Evidence from the Great Recession”

Jenny Lynn Wagner, University of California, Davis

“Neighborhood Opportunity and Health: A Comparison of Opportunity Indices in California”

Michael McFarland, Florida State University

“Income Inequality and Population Health: Examining the Role of State Policy”

From Culture to Structure and Back Again: How Racism Shapes Racial/Ethnic Health Inequities

Session Chairs: Aresha Martinez, University of Chicago

Michael Esposito, Washington State University, St. Louis

Patricia Homan, Florida State University

“Structural Racism, Cultural Racism, and Population Health”

Ryan Masters, University of Colorado Boulder

“Differences in Determinants: U.S. Labor Induction Rates and Maternal Risk Factors across Race/Ethnicity”

Cesar Vargas Nunez, Stanford University

“Citizen Attitudes towards Immigrant Health(care) during COVID-19”

Elizabeth Clausing, University of California, San Diego

“Immigrant-related stressors associate with cardiometabolic and epigenetic biomarkers across generations of US Latinx immigrant families”

Carolyn Fan, University of Washington

“Stop the Hate: The Association between Residential Segregation and the Prevalence of Anti-Asian Hate Crimes”

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on the Structural Determinants of Sexual and Reproductive Health

Session Chair: Rita Hamad, University of California, San Francisco

Stacy Lindau, The University of Chicago

“Sexual Activity in the Early Phase of the COVID-19 Pandemic: Data from a National Survey of U.S. Women”

Bertha Ben Khallouq, University of Central Florida

“An examination of the reproductive health of transgender and non-binary adults: Findings from the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System, 2015 to 2019”

Maeve Wallace, Tulane University School of Public Health

“Association of state gestational age limit abortion laws with infant mortality”

2:45 - 3:15

Break

3:15 - 4:30

Concurrent Sessions 6

Environmental Racism and Health: Research By JPB Environmental Health Fellows

Session Chair: Colleen Reid, University of Colorado Boulder

Lara J. Cushing, University of California, Los Angeles

“Toxic Tides: Sea level rise, hazardous sites, and environmental justice in California”

Marccus D. Hendricks, University of Maryland College Park

“Still Waters Run Deep: The Social and Health Dimensions of Flood and Sanitation Infrastructure Vulnerabilities in Washington, DC and Baltimore, MD”

Jennifer D. Roberts, University of Maryland College Park

“Black and Brown Bodies: Transit-Induced Gentrification in Prince George’s County”

Colleen Reid, University of Colorado Boulder

“Effect modification of the association between wildfire smoke and respiratory health by area-level measures of socio-economic status and race/ethnicity”

Governance and Population Health: Fragmentation, Structural Racism, and Pathways to Equity

Session Chairs: Richard Carpiano, University of California, Riverside
Dorothy Daley, University of Kansas

Morgan D. Farnworth, University of Kansas

“Problems, Politics, and Science: Adoption of Evidence-Based Policy During the COVID-19 Pandemic”

Jordyn A. Gunville, University of Kansas Medical Center

“Maternal Health in American Indian Communities: Tribal Sovereignty, Racism, and the COVID-19 Pandemic”

Renae A. Badruzzaman, Build Healthy Places Network

“Building Healthy Places: The Role of Antiracist Neighborhood Investments”

Taynara Formagini, University of Kansas Medical Center

“Segmented assimilation patterns and engagement in health behaviors among Latinxs: Lessons for Future Diabetes Prevention Efforts”

Integrating Community Health Workers into Population Health Interventions

Session Chair: Liana Petruzzi, Steve Hicks School of Social Work at the University of Texas at Austin

Carmen Valdez, Dell Medical School

“Fast-Tracking a Community Health Worker Mental Health Promotion Model for Latinx Adults in Central Texas”

Timothy Mercer, Dell Medical School

“Integrating Community Health Workers into the COVID-19 Response for People Experiencing Homelessness”

Liana Petruzzi, Steve Hicks School of Social Work

“A Community Health Worker Pilot Program for Latinx Communities with COVID-19 in Austin, Texas”

Race and the Unequal Burden of Bereavement and Health

Session Chair: Debra Umberson, University of Texas at Austin

Toni Miles, University of Georgia

“Bereavement is an Emerging Threat to Population Health and Vitality”

Rachel Donnelly, Vanderbilt University

“Life Course Bereavement and Health Outcomes for Aging Adults”

Angela Dixon, Emory University

“Black-White Differences in Exposure to Household Mortality: Variation across the life course and by socioeconomic status”

Ashton Verdery, Pennsylvania State University

“COVID-19 Bereavement and the Mental Health of Older Adults in 28 Countries”

The Power of Surveillance: Who Decides, Who is Counted, and Who is Left Behind

Session Chairs: Grace Noppert, Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan

Kate Duchowny, Department of Epidemiology & Biostatistics, University of California, San Francisco (UCSF)

Velma Lopez

“Priorities and Power Dynamics within Survey-based Public Health Surveillance in Low- and Middle-Income Countries”

Devon Payne-Sturges, Maryland Institute for Applied Environmental Health, School of Public Health, University of Maryland

“Surveillance of Environmental Injustices: It is enough?”

Carmen Gutierrez, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

“Inequality and the US Criminal Legal System: A Paradox of Surveillance”

There’s no “I” in structural: Going beyond the individual in racism research

Session Chair: Naomi Harada Thyden, University of Minnesota

Odichinma Akosionu, University of Minnesota

“The economics of aging and health justice: Long-term services and supports”

Madison D. Anderson, University of Minnesota

“Asking the right questions: To what extent is the smoking rate among American Indians due to the exploitation and commercialization of traditional tobacco?”

J’Mag Karbeah, University of Minnesota

“Multi-level analysis of the criminal-legal system’s impact on health and well-being in urban adolescents”

Cydney McGuire, University of Minnesota

“Community conditions and political participation: Integration of theories across disciplines to investigate racial disparities”

Naomi Harada Thyden, University of Minnesota

“Historically white and Historically Black Colleges and Universities: Mental health effects among Black college students”

4:30 - 5:00

Break

5:00 - 5:45	Plenary 2: Award Winners Session Chair: Kathleen Mullan Harris, IAPHS President The Milbank Quarterly Early Career Award Winner Atheendar Venkataramani Student Award Winner Sandhya Kajeepeta Postdoctoral Award Winner Alicia Riley
5:45 - 7:00	Invited Panel 2 - "Structural Racism as a Resilient System" Session Chair/Moderator: Margaret Hicken, University of Michigan Noliwe Rooks, Brown University "First, Do No Harm: Racism, Public Schools and a Crisis of Health" Gilbert Gee, University of California, Los Angeles "Structural Racism as Resilient Bonds"
ALL DAY	POSTER VIEWING

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2021

11:00 - 12:15	Concurrent Sessions 7 Building Trust and Confidence in COVID-19 Vaccines Session Chairs: Andrea N. Polonijo, University of California, Merced Kaitlyn Jaffe, University of Michigan Katelin Albert, University of Victoria "Safety, risk behaviors, and vaccinations: A discussion of Southern British Columbians' opinions, attitudes, and responses to the COVID-19 pandemic" Kolina Koltai, University of Washington "The promotion of vaccine hesitancy on social networking platforms" Cary Wu, York University "Race, trust, and COVID-19 vaccine hesitancy in Canada" Devon Greyson, University of British Columbia "Tailoring communication for optimal COVID-19 vaccine uptake"
	Debts, Gratitude, and Relational Environmental Justice Session Chairs: Katherine L. Dickinson, Colorado School of Public Health Sara Wylie, Northeastern University Sophie Kelly, Northeastern University "Debts and Gratitude Project Overview" Kira Mok, Northeastern University "Background on Chelsea Creek Communities" Katherine L. Dickinson, Colorado School of Public Health "Environmental Justice Mapping in Denver"
	Dying too Soon: Findings from the National Academy of Sciences Consensus Study on High and Rising Mortality Rates among Working-Age Adults Session Chair: Shannon M. Monnat, Syracuse University Kathleen Mullan Harris, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill "Trends and Differentials in Working-Age Mortality in the U.S., 1990-2017" Shannon M. Monnat, Trends and Differentials in Working-Age Mortality in the U.S., 1990-2017 "The Roles of Drugs, Alcohol, and Suicide in Changing Patterns of Working-Age Mortality" Robert A. Hummer, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill "The Role of Cardiometabolic Diseases in Changing Patterns of Working-Age Mortality" Steven H. Woolf, Virginia Commonwealth University "The Role of Public and Private Sector Policies in Shaping Working-Age Mortality Trends"

	Standards of Evidence for the Practice of Population Health Science: Extracting Enough Insight to Make a Difference Session Chair: Frederick J. Zimmerman, UCLA Doug Jutte, Public Health Institute “What do the designers of community population health initiatives need and want?” Onyebuchi Arah, UCLA “Addressing the RCT gold standard in the context of population health practice” Elizabeth Skillen, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention “Assessing evidence for the CDC’s Health Impact in 5 Years initiative”
	The legacy of historic redlining on health: using the Mapping Inequality HOLC digital archive for population health research Session Chair: Helen C.S. Meier, University of Michigan Robert K. Nelson, University of Richmond “Mapping Inequality: An introduction to archiving inequality for the digital age” Helen C.S. Meier, University of Michigan “Historic Redlining Score: Overcoming the spatial mismatch between HOLC grades and health data” Sarah E. Laurent, University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee “Historic Structural Racism, Current Neighborhood Disadvantage, and the COVID-19 pandemic” Michael Esposito, University of Michigan “Racial disparities in life-expectancy in US cities: investigating the role of historic redlining” Nick Graetz, University of Pennsylvania “Racial disparities in life-expectancy in US cities: investigating the role of historic redlining”
12:15 - 12:45	Break
12:45 - 2:00	Invited Panel 3 - "Building an Anti-Racist Future" Session Chair/Moderator: Kathleen Mullan Harris, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill Megan Ming Francis, University of Washington “The Long Struggle to Protect Black Lives ” Jennifer Nez Denetdale, University of New Mexico “Indigenous Feminisms in a Time of COVID-19 & Indigenous Peoples—Lessons We Should Have Learned”
2:00 - 2:30	Plenary 3: Award Winners Session Chair: Frederick Zimmerman, IAPHS Past-President Mentoring Award Winner Silvia S. Martins J. Michael McGinnis Leadership Award Winner David Kindig
2:30	Meeting Adjourned - See you in Minneapolis, September 20-23, 2022!