From the editors...

At this time of year many of us observe the custom of visiting the graves of our loved ones and recite written prayers and the prayers that are in our hearts. We open our hearts and ask their forgiveness for some small incident that may be etched in our memories. Though it may be incidental, and the person may not have even been aware of it, it gnaws at us, and we plead for forgiveness, and we feel better admitting truths to ourselves and righting ourselves emotionally. We seek advice from our loved ones for difficult problems and though they physically cannot speak to us we know how they thought and what is right to do in any given situation.

Yom Kippur and the Yizkor prayer is the time when we pray to Gd and ask forgiveness for straying from the path of Torah. It is the time when we pledge to do better both personally and spiritually.

It seems that the pandemic that has kept many of us away from attending services is beginning to wane. Masks are not required but left to our own discretion. There is a positive sense that is in the first stages of being felt. Hopefully, our prayers are being heard and a sense of normalcy will prevail.

This year marks the 125th Anniversary of the First Zionist Congress. It was a meeting that set forth an agenda for our reconnection and more importantly our rebirth as a Jewish Nation. Thank Gd the State of Israel came to be in 1948. Many of those who survived the Shoah were able to rebuild their lives in our ancestral homeland. How many of us have had the blessing of being able to travel to Israel and take in the beauty of our heritage and inheritance. Each and every day we need to be thankful that if Gd Forbid another Shoah were to happen we would have a place to go.

In this Yizkor Book we remember those who have fallen in the task of defending our brothers and sisters in Israel and around the world. They are truly among the righteous of our people. We pray that no more will fall in their duty and service to Israel and the Jewish People. We also list those Jews, civilian and soldiers and some non-Jews who have been killed by terrorists in Israel and around the world. We also should not forget to remember those Jews who fought and fell for the United States of America, our home in the diaspora, in the fight against those dictators and regimes of tyranny who would deny freedom to all citizens of the world who did not worship or think as they demanded. Their task was no less holy or righteous.

The editors would like to thank the office staff for their help as well as Larry Solomon for printing the book. We wish you all a L'Shana Tova and G'mar Hatima Tov. May Gd answer all of our prayers and the prayers of our loved ones. May the names of those recalled here be for a blessing for us all and may Gd bring peace to the Land of Israel.

Memorial Service for the Departed

יִי מָה אָדָם וּתְדַעְהוּ, בְּרֹאֲנוֹשׁ וּתְחַשְׁבֵהוּ
אָדָם לְהַבִּיל דְמָה, יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
בְּבִקְרָה יִצִּיץ וְחָלָף, לְעֶרֶב יְמוּלֵל וַיִּבֶשׁ.
תֵּשֵׁב אָנוֹשׁ עַד־דַּכָּא, וּתְאֹמֶר שׁוּבוּ בְנֵי אָדָם.
שׁוּבָה יִי עַד מָתִי, וְהִנַּחֵם עַל עַבְדֶּיךָ.

There is a time for everything;
there is a time for all things under the sun:

a time to be born and a time to die

a time to laugh and a time to cry

a time to dance and time to mourn

a time to seek and a time to lose a time to forget and a time to remember.

This day in sacred convocation we remember those who gave us life.

This day we remember those who enriched our life with love and with beauty, with kindness and compassion, with thoughtfulness and understanding.

This day we renew the bonds that bind us to those who have gone the way of all the earth.

As we reflect upon those whose memory moves us this day, we seek consolation, and the strength and the insight born of faith.

Tender as a father with his children,
The Lord is merciful with His worshipers.

*He knows how we are fashioned;
He remembers that we are dust.*

The days of man are as grass;
he flourishes as a flower in the field.

*The wind passes over it and it is gone,
and no one can recognize where it grew.*

But the Lord's compassion for His worshipers,
His righteousness to children's children, remain, age after age, unchanging.

*Three score and ten our years may number,
Four score years if granted the vigor.*

Laden with trouble and travail,
life quickly passes, it flies away.

*Teach us to use all of our days, O Lord,
that we may attain a heart of wisdom.*

Grant us of Your love in the morning,
that we may joyously sing all our days.

שׁוֹיִתִּי יְיָ לְנֶגְדֵי תְמִידָה, כִּי מִיְמֵינִי בַל-אֶמְוֹט.
לְכֹן שְׂמַח לְבִי וְיִגָּל כְּבוֹדֵי, אֶה-בְּשָׂרֵי יִשְׁכֵן לְבַטָּח.

When I stray from You, O Lord, my life is as death;
but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.

*But only the dust returns to dust;
the soul, which is God's, is immortal.*

The Lord has compassion for His creatures.

He has planted eternity within our soul, granting us a share in His unending life.

He redeems our life from the grave.

During our brief life on earth He gives us choices.

We can cherish hopes, embrace values and perform deeds which death cannot destroy.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we this day lovingly remember those whose lives endure as a blessing.

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they left us, by precious memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

*Each congregant reads silently the appropriate passages among those which follow.
Personal meditations may also be added.*

We rise.

The rabbi reads aloud, in memory of congregants who died during the past year.

We lovingly recall the members of our congregation who have passed away since we gathered in this sanctuary on last Yom Kippur. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones in the year gone by be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values in the lives of those no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall:

(names are read)

May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

Psalm 23

יְיָ רֹעִי לֹא אֶחָסֵר.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

בְּנֵאוֹת דֶּשֶׁא יִרְבִּיצֵנִי,

He gives me repose in green meadows

עַל-מֵי מְנַחֹת יְנַהֲלֵנִי. נַפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבָב,

He leads me beside the still waters to revive my spirit.

יְנַחֲנִי בְּמַעְגַּל־צֶדֶק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.

He guides me on the right path, for that is His nature.

גַּם כִּי-אֶלֶךְ בְּגֵיא צַלְמוֹת
לֹא-אִירָא רָע כִּי-אֶתָּה עִמָּדִי.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no harm, for You are with me.

שִׁבְטֶךָ וּמִשְׁעֶנְתֶּךָ הֵמָּה יְנַחֲמֵנִי.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

תַּעֲרֹךְ לְפָנַי שְׁלֵחַן נֶגֶד צָרָרִי,

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes.

דִּשְׁנָתָּ בַשֶּׁמֶן רֵאשִׁי כּוֹסֵי רוּחָה.

You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

אֵךְ טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל־יְמֵי חַיִּי,

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life.

וְשִׁבְתִּי בְּבֵית־יְיָ לְאָרְךָ יָמִים.

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Psalm 121

A song of the ascents.

I raise my eyes to the mountains;

whence my help will come?

My help is from HASHEM,

Maker of heaven and earth.

He will not allow your foot to falter;

your Guardian will not slumber.

Behold, He neither slumbers nor sleeps – the Guardian of Israel.

HASHEM, is your Guardian;

HASHEM is your Shade at your right hand.

By day the sun will not harm you,

nor the moon by night.

HASHEM will protect you from every evil;

He will guard your soul.

HASHEM will guard your departure and your arrival, from this time and forever.

THE CROWN OF A GOOD NAME

There are three crowns, our sages taught:
The crown of Torah, the crown of priesthood,
And the crown of royalty;
But the crown of a good name excels them all.

*“Blessed is the person who lives with a good name
And departs this world with a good name.”*

Of such a person did the Bible say:
“A good name is to be treasured above precious oil.”

*Wealth, like health, may pass away,
But a good name can live on forever.*

It can adorn a person throughout life;
It can be bequeathed as a precious inheritance,

*Conferring honor on family and friends,
Inspiring and challenging those who carry on.*

Therefore our ancient Sages taught:
“The righteous need no monuments;
Their good deeds are their memorials.”

*The earth of the grave does not cover them;
The hand of time does not erase them.*

The kindness they have shown, the love they have given,
Remain in everlasting remembrance.

*Their achievements are more lasting than granite,
Their devotion is an enduring legacy.*

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR SERVICEMEN AND WOMEN

O God full of compassion, grant perfect rest beneath the cover of Your Presence to all who have bravely laid down their lives for our country.

Shelter them among the holy and pure,
who are as radiant as the luminous firmament.

O source of compassion, bring the ever near to You that their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life, as are the souls of the righteous.

And the work of righteousness shall be peace,
and the effect of righteousness,
quietness and confidence forever.

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation;
neither shall they learn war anymore.
Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed,
and all flesh shall see it together.

AMEN

30th anniversary of the terror attack on the Israeli Embassy in Buenos Aires

At 14:45 on March 17, 1992 a powerful bomb shattered the building of the Israel Embassy in Buenos Aires, taking the lives of 29 people, among them three Israeli embassy personnel, six local embassy employees, and scores of innocent Argentines, including elderly residents of a nearby nursing home, and schoolchildren on a passing bus.

In one moment, the embassy and the nearby church were literally wiped off the map. Hezbollah, calling itself a "party of God", claimed responsibility for the attack.

The Argentine Supreme Court ordered an expert investigation of the attack which was carried out by the head of the national police bomb disposal and explosives unit. The result was conclusive: "The explosion took place outside the building when a car bomb struck the embassy building." Nonetheless, in 1996 the Argentine Supreme Court issued a statement saying it was impossible to determine who was responsible for this act of terror.

In May 1999, following a formal investigation, the Argentinian Supreme Court accused Hezbollah of the attack and issued an arrest warrant for Imad Mughnieh, commander of Hezbollah military-terrorist wing. An investigation carried out by Israel, whose findings were made public in 2003, showed that the highest levels of the Iranian regime were aware of Hezbollah's intention to carry out the attack and had in fact authorized Hezbollah to carry it out.

The 2006 report of the findings of the special team which investigated the terrorist attack which destroyed the Jewish Community Center building (AMIA) in Buenos Aires (18 July 1994) states that according to expert testimony, "the modus operandi of the attack was identical to the method employed two years previously in the attack on the Israeli embassy in Buenos Aires (an attack that the Argentinean Supreme Court found was the work of Islamic Jihad in its capacity as the military wing of Hezbollah)."

To date, no one has been brought to justice for these attacks. Israel remains convinced of Iranian responsibility for the bombing of the embassy in 1992 and of the Jewish community center AMIA.

A marble monument, a replica of the column of the original embassy building, stands today in the Israeli Embassy in Buenos Aires, in memory of those who died who died on that fateful day in 1992, bearing the verse of the prophet Amos: "I will raise up its ruins and rebuild it as in the days of old."

A delegation from Israel, led by the Vice Prime Minister and Minister of Justice, Gideon Sa'ar and the Deputy Director of the Israeli Foreign Ministry for Latin America and the Caribbean, Jonathan Peled, will arrive in Argentina to participate in the commemoration events. A delegation of survivors and relatives of people who lost their lives in the attack will also participate in the commemoration.

The main ceremony will be held at 2:50 p.m. on Thursday in the Israeli Embassy Plaza on Arroyo Street, the site of the Israeli embassy prior to the attack. At the ceremony, tribute will be paid to the victims and survivors of the attack, and representatives of the governments of Argentina and Israel will deliver speeches.

The members of the Israeli government delegation will be received by the President, Alberto Fernández. The delegation will also meet with the head of the Chamber of Deputies, Sergio Massa, in the National Congress. The presidents of the parties conforming Lower House will also participate in this meeting. As part of their agenda, Israeli government representatives will also hold a meeting with opposition representatives. In addition, the Israeli delegation will meet with representatives of the main organizations of the Argentine Jewish community at the AMIA headquarters. Vice Prime Minister and Minister of Justice Gideon Sa'ar will address the meeting and pay tribute to the victims of the 1994 attack on that institution.

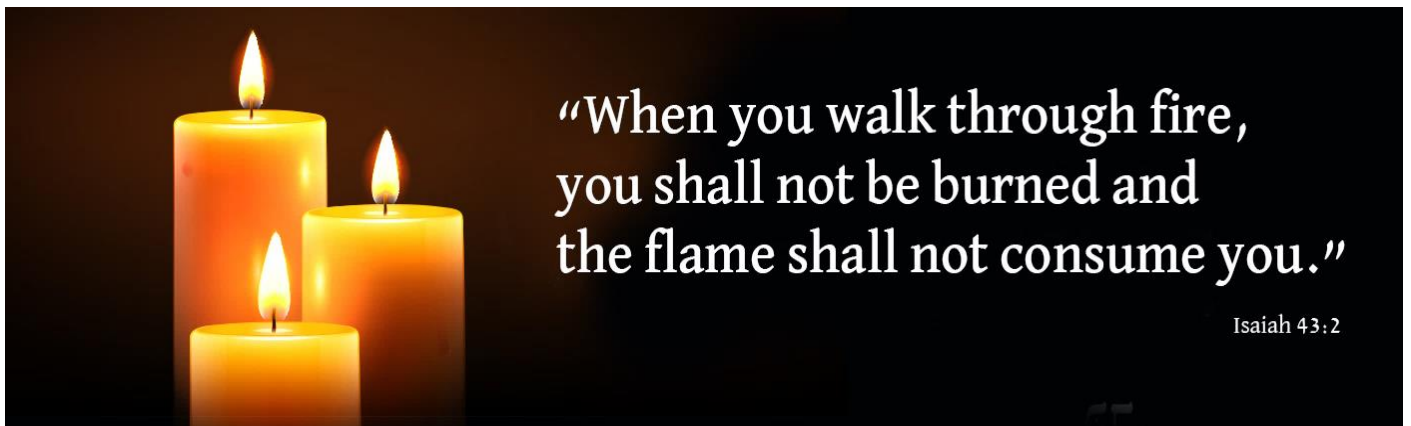

Yezen Falah, 19, a resident of the Druze village of Kisra-Sumei in the Galilee, served in the West Bank unit of the Border Police, which he joined a year ago. He was killed in the terror attack which took place at 8:30 pm on Sunday (27 March 2022), on Herbert Samuel Street, a main street in Hadera. The attack claimed the life of another member of the Border Police; 12 civilians were also injured in the attack.

The terrorists who perpetrated the attack were Arab Israeli citizens, residents of Umm el-Fahm, a predominantly Arab city close to Hadera. Prior to the attack they posted a video swearing allegiance to ISIS. They were neutralized by two members of a unit of undercover officers who were eating at a nearby restaurant.

Yezen Falah is survived by his parents, a brother and a sister.

"SHEMA YISRAEL" - THE LEGACY OF RABBI AKIVA & ROI KLEIN

By Yossi Katz

In the year 132 C.E. the great Jewish general Shimon Bar Kochba led a 3 year revolt for Jewish freedom against the mighty Roman Empire. While the immediate causes of the revolt were the Romans' outlawing of "brit-milah"(circumcision) and their decision to rebuild Jerusalem as a pagan city called Aelia-Capitolina, perhaps the greatest cause of the revolt was the undying Jewish desire to be a free people in their own land. General Bar Kochba was supported by the greatest Rabbi in Israel- Rabbi Akiva, whose students became his bravest soldiers. His guerilla tactics frustrated and outsmarted the Romans. Bar Kochba liberated Jerusalem and even minted silver coins with a picture of the Jewish Temple and the words in Hebrew: "YEAR ONE FOR THE FREEDOM OF ISRAEL". In the end, Rome feared slave nations around the world would be inspired by Bar Kochba to rise up and fight for their freedom. Emperor Hadrian sent 8 Roman Legions from around the world including their best general, Julius Severus, who was in Britain at the time. The Romans, after 3 1/2 years, eventually crushed the revolt killing 600,000 Jews including Bar Kochba, who died heroically in battle at the last fortress called Betar. Hadrian then outlawed Judaism and tried to annihilate the Jewish People. He renamed Israel: "Palestine", Latin for Philistines, a people that had disappeared a thousand years earlier. His goal was to make the world forget the Jews ever had a country of their own. Rabbi Akiva and the ten leading Rabbis in Israel were captured and executed in Caesarea. One Rabbi was wrapped in a Torah scroll and burnt at the stake and Rabbi Akiva was raked over with iron combs. As he was tortured he smiled and his students, who were forced to watch the execution, cried out in wonder, "Rabbi, how do you smile?" Akiva answered, "It is written, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul'...even when thy soul is taken from thee!" Then Akiva, feeling his life slip away, cried out the SHEMA YISRAEL prayer, "HEAR O ISRAEL, THE LORD OUR GOD, THE LORD IS ONE". Akiva died on the word "ONE" but along with Bar Kochba, left our people a legacy of courage, strength and Jewish commitment that would fuel our modern-day struggle for independence in Israel.

Two thousand years later the courage of Bar Kochba and the spirit of Rabbi Akiva continue to live on in the soldiers of TZAHAL. In this recent war in Lebanon against the murderous Hezbollah our soldiers have distinguished themselves with countless acts of bravery & heroism. The most moving story perhaps is of Major Roi Klein, from the settlement of Eli, who was the Deputy-Battalion Commander of the 51st Battalion of the Golani Infantry Brigade. Major Klein grew up in Raanana but moved to Eli after studying in the Bnei David Yeshiva. He was educated on the ideals & values of love & commitment to Torah, the Jewish people and the State of Israel. He saw his service in Golani as fulfillment of his Jewish obligations. He was loved and admired by all his soldiers and was designated for promotion in TZAHAL. On July 26, 2006, a day before his 31st birthday he took part with his unit in the fierce fighting in the Hezbollah stronghold of Bint Jabil. As they cleaned out terrorist gun nests in house to house fighting, a Hezbollah grenade was thrown at a group of the Golani soldiers. It seemed they all faced certain death, when their beloved commander, Roi Klein screamed, "SHEMA YISRAEL- Hear O'Israel the Lord our God, the Lord is One", and dived on the live grenade. Klein died in the explosion but saved the lives of the many soldiers with him in the house. He died on the word, "ONE", just like his teacher Rabbi Akiva. Roi Klein was a sensitive caring soul who was loved by all who knew him. He was a brilliant and outstanding student of engineering and also played the saxophone. He is survived by his young wife Sara and his two sons, Gilad (3) and Yoav (6 months old). Klein was buried in the National Military Cemetery on Mt Herzl in Jerusalem on July 27, 2006. It was his 31st birthday.

Like with the Bar Kochba Revolt, cynical Jews in Israel and abroad will debate the merits of this war and of our national & military leadership for years to come. Of course there are issues there that need to be investigated and lessons that must be learnt so we can continue in our struggle to preserve our freedom in Israel. I believe, however, that this recent war has shown us that our people are blessed with the finest generation of Jewish youth in 2000 years. It would be wise for us to honor the courage of our youth and the memories of our fallen heroes so that their legacy will never die. From Akiva to Roi Klein, it is that very legacy that has been the secret of our survival.

Golani Brigade

Captain Uri Lavie, a company commander in the Golani Brigade briefing his soldiers – nine months into their military service – a few minutes before joining the battle against Hizballah terrorists in Southern Lebanon (Ha'aretz, July 27, 2006)

"This is our time to rise to the challenge, put on the helmets and the bullet proof vests and make sure that the northern border is secure. We shall fulfill any mission in a most effective manner, in face of any challenge.

If we shall not fulfill our mission we shall forfeit the right to exist.

We shall not lose this war which we did not start.

Our duty is to serve as a defense force of the Jewish People, and to secure the peace of mind of the civilians in northern Israel.

If we shall not do it, no one will do it in our place.

For two thousand years we waited for the establishment of the Jewish State, and we are not going to roll back because a bunch of terrorists assume that they can scare us.

He who cannot defend Liberty does not deserve Liberty.

If we will not be able to fight until our last drop of blood, in order to secure the Liberty of our People on its own soil, our People will not enjoy Liberty.

There is time to talk and there is time to act. At this time, when missiles and Katyushas afflict the North all the way to Haifa, in addition to the two kidnapped soldiers, the ten soldiers killed and the dozens injured, it is time to fight and not talk. We are the force, which has been chosen to fight, and we shall perform in the most effective manner.

I will be the first one to enter the battle and the last one to come out, and will do everything in my power to get you out alive and well. On Friday, with G-d's help, we will rejoin with our families. However, I cannot do it alone. Once we cross the northern border, you should exercise full alert and full responsibility toward your fellow soldier."

History of Jews in Switzerland

The history of the Jewish community in Switzerland is long and multifaceted. It constantly fluctuates between marginalization and integration.

The history of Jewish life in Switzerland presumably dates back to the Roman era and has, over the centuries, displayed a great variety of facets. High points such as the gaining of equal rights and low points such as the persecution and expulsion experienced in the Middle Ages are all reflected in today's Jewish cultural heritage. Making Jewish history visible and preserving the associated cultural heritage are among the SIG's key objectives.

First Jewish communities in Switzerland

Already in Roman times, in the 4th century, Jewish craftsmen and merchants are presumed to have lived in the region that is now Switzerland. However, there is no archaeological or textual evidence of a Jewish community apart for a menorah ring discovered in Augusta Raurica. From the beginning of the 6th century, Jews were known to have lived in Burgundy, which at the time included large parts of today's cantons of Berne and Jura and belonged to the Frankish Empire. Subsequently, the legal and political status of the Jewish population steadily deteriorated under the growing influence of the Church in political matters. Jewish communities were placed under special laws and thus divided from the rest of the population.

Jews in the Middle Ages and the time of the Black Death

At the beginning of the 13th century, Jews were resident in numerous Swiss cities, primarily in Basel, Berne, Geneva and Zurich. The unique wall paintings preserved in the house at Brunngasse 8 in Zurich, which at that time was owned by a Jewish family, bear witness of this fact. However, the Jewish population remained subject to discriminatory special laws, had to pay "Jew tax", and were not allowed to work as craftsmen, merchants or farmers. The difficult circumstances for Jews became even worse after rumours took hold that they were responsible for the Black Death, the great pestilence that peaked in the years 1348/49. In many parts of the country, Jews were tortured, burnt to death or banished. Small communities of Jews subsequently returned, but charges of ritual killings resulted in renewed persecution. As of 1491, Jews were expelled from the entire Swiss territory, which signified a provisional end to Jewish life in Switzerland.

Early Modern Age and the Jewish villages of Endingen and Lengnau

From their expulsion in 1491 until the end of the 16th century, there were not enough Jews in Switzerland to form anything like a community. Between the early 17th and the late 18th century, Jews were permitted permanent residence in Endingen and Lengnau only. Each of these two Jewish villages in today's canton of Aargau had a representative synagogue. A lively cultural exchange with the non-Jewish population evolved, and certain Yiddish expressions found their way into the German spoken by the locals. But even there, they did not enjoy the same rights as their non-Jewish counterparts. Jews were not allowed to own property and were barred from skilled manual trades. The "Doppeltür" society is dedicated to the unique history of these Jewish villages in the Surbtal valley and aims to make this cultural heritage more visible.

The road to equal rights – 1798 to 1866

In 1798 the Jews from the Surbtal formally requested the Helvetic government to grant them equal rights. The request was rejected. Neither did the Federal Constitution of 1848 bring the Jews the desired equality. Only with the revision of the Constitution in 1866 were the Jews placed on an equal legal footing with the rest of the Swiss population. The total revision of the Constitution of 1874 finally granted the Jewish community the freedom of religious practice, too.

Growth and urbanization – 1866 to 1933

The basic structures of Switzerland's Jewish community developed in the decades after the granting of equal rights. Following their emancipation, numerous Jews moved from the countryside to a town. By the beginning of the 20th century, the majority of Jews in Switzerland were living in Basel, Geneva or Zurich. This period also saw a significant rise in the Jewish population. Communities were established, synagogues built and associations set up. Jewish communal life became increasingly vibrant. From 1904 onwards, the various Jewish communities were united under the SIG as their umbrella organisation. The aim of the newly founded federation was to represent and to protect the general interests of Jews in Switzerland.

Rise of Nazism and the Second World War – 1933 to 1945

The rise of Nazism and its associated ideology in Germany put twofold pressure on the Swiss Jewish community – from the antisemitism that was rife both at home and abroad, and from the closed-door asylum policy towards Jewish refugees trying to enter the country. Jews in Switzerland had to perform a balancing act between assimilation on the one hand and civil disobedience on behalf of persecuted Jews on the other. This challenge marked the debate within the Swiss Jewish community. A majority of Jewish refugees who entered Switzerland despite the prevailing anti-Jewish asylum policy were cared for by the Association of Swiss Jewish Refugee Aid and Welfare Organisations (VSJF, up to 1943 VSIA).

Since 1945

Coming to terms with the events of the 1930s and 1940s loomed large for many years after the end of the war. At the same time, the long-lasting economic boom of the post-war years enabled Switzerland's Jewish communities to consolidate and expand their infrastructure. In addition to the traditional offers such as religious services and instruction, the communities now organised day schools, libraries and a wide range of social and cultural events. General developments towards more pluralism and multiculturalism led to greater integration and assimilation of Jews within Swiss society. Currently there are around 18,000 people of Jewish faith living in Switzerland, the majority of them in Basel, Berne, Geneva, Lausanne and Zurich.

Israeli survivors remember Munich Olympic massacre, 50 years on

By Lee Marzel

JERUSALEM, Sept 4 (Reuters) - Ankie Spitzer was 26 years old when her husband Andre, a coach of the Israeli fencing team, was killed by Palestinian gunmen at the 1972 Munich Olympics, 50 years ago this week, and the memories of that day have dominated her life ever since.

The attack on the Israeli team by gunmen associated with the Palestinian militant group Black September shocked the world, playing out in large part on live television watched by millions of viewers.

At the end, 11 members of the Israeli team were dead as well as one German police officer and five of the Palestinian gunmen. German and Olympic authorities faced bitter criticism for their response to the attack.

"I was only married one year and three months to Andre, we were a young couple, very much in love with a small baby, you know, we were on top of the world," Spitzer told Reuters ahead of a ceremony in Germany this week commemorating the massacre.

"I was with him at the Olympics, and I was in the room after they were murdered, just a few hours afterwards, and I looked around, everything was with blood," she said.

"I said to myself...if they can do this I will never shut up, I will never stop talking about it, only for one reason, so that this will never ever happen again."

When the militants infiltrated the poorly defended Olympic Village in the early hours of Sept. 5, 1972, and broke their way into the Israeli apartments, it was the start of a bloody 24-hour standoff which began with a struggle between the gunmen and unarmed athletes who tried to defend themselves.

The attackers demanded the release of more than 200 Palestinians held in Israeli prisons as well as that of the German Red Army Faction radicals Andreas Baader and Ulrike Meinhof and a plane to the Middle East.

After one rescue attempt was called off when police realized it was being broadcast on live television, German authorities subsequently agreed to take the attackers and a number of hostages to the airport.

A further rescue attempt also failed with a firebreak breaking out at Furstenfeldbruck Air Base, which finally ended when the surviving gunmen were captured.

Along with other relatives and survivors, Spitzer had initially refused to attend Monday's ceremony in Munich, angered by what they considered derisory compensation offers from Germany, until a 28 million euro ($28 million) settlement was reached last week.

Israeli President Isaac Herzog will attend the ceremony in Munich on Monday with German leaders including President Frank-Walter Steinmeier but for those who lived through it, the scars will not fade.

"For me the 1972 trauma will remain," said Ilana Romano, whose husband Joseph, a weightlifter, was another of the athletes killed in the attack.

"I hope that the world better understands and is ready to do more, and the most important thing is not to support terror and understand that terrorism destroys every good thing."

In memory of all those who fell during the Yom Kippur War

The Destruction of the Second Temple

"Sorely have they afflicted me from my youth," let Israel now say - "Sorely have they afflicted me from my youth, yet they have not prevailed against me. The plowers plowed upon my back; they made long their furrows." The LORD is righteous; he has cut the cords of the wicked. May all who hate Zion be put to shame and turned backward! Let them be like the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up, with which the reaper does not fill his hand or the binder of sheaves his bosom, while those who pass by do not say, "The blessing of the LORD be upon you! We bless you in the name of the LORD!" (Psalm 129. A Psalm of Ascents)

On the 10th of August, in C.E. 70 -- the 9th of Av -- in Jewish reckoning, the very day when the King of Babylon burned the Temple in 586 B.C.E., the Temple was burned again. Titus took the city and put it to the torch, burning the Temple.

Jewish historian, Flavius Josephus was present in Jerusalem when the city was captured and the Temple was burnt. He described the event in this manner:

The Romans, though it was a terrible struggle to collect the timber, raised their platforms in twenty-one days, having as described before stripped the whole area in a circle round the town to a distance of ten miles. The countryside like the City was a pitiful sight; for where once there had been a lovely vista of woods and parks there was nothing but desert and stumps of trees. No one - not even a foreigner - who had seen the Old Judea and the glorious suburbs of the City, and now set eyes on her present desolation, could have helped sighing and groaning at so terrible a change; for every trace of beauty had been blotted out by war, and nobody who had known it in the past and came upon it suddenly would have recognized the place: when he was already there he would still have been looking for the City.
