ML-2525

What you see is what you print. Samsung ML-2525 and ML-2525W mono laser printers feature Samsung's AnyWeb Print software. It lets you select, drag and drop content from different web pages into a new blank page on your screen without any other resizing or editing required, making it easy to print what's on your screen. The ML-2525 also gives you an ESP Easy Screen Print button that lets you print your desktop with a single button. Or hold it down for two seconds and only print the active window. You also get print speeds of 24 ppm, a 12,000 page monthly duty cycle, and the ML-2525W gives you Ethernet and wireless connectivity.
