Díonbhrollach

Is frásleabhar tritheangach é seo: Manainnis, Gaeilge, agus Béarla. Is é Phil Kelly a rinne obair na gcapall chun na samplaí Béarla/Manainnis a bhailiú ó fhoclóirí éagsúla, an chuid is mó acu ó Fargher's English-Manx Dictionary a foilsíodh sa bhliain 1979. Tá na sonraí Béarla/Manainnis ar fáil in áiteanna éagsúla ar an Idirlíon cheana féin, mar shampla ar an suíomh iontach tagg100.im. Na rudaí a rinne mise anseo ná: (1) Gaeilge a chur ar na frásaí go léir, agus (2) iad a eagrú faoi cheannfhocail sa Manainnis.

Mar a tharlaíonn sé, bhain an tUas. Fargher an-úsáid as struchtúr an English-Irish Dictionary a chuir Tomás de Bhaldraithe in eagar sa bhliain 1959: an liosta ceannfhocal, struchtúr inmheánach na n-iontrálacha, agus na samplaí úsáide féin. Chomh maith leis sin, is minic gur chum Fargher téarmaí agus frásaí nua nach raibh sa Manainnis chlasaiceach, bunaithe go díreach ar na leaganacha Gaeilge i bhFoclóir de Bhaldraithe. Is d'aon turas a rinne sé seo, agus dúirt sé go soiléir sa bhrollach gur foclóir “prescriptive” seachas “descriptive” a bhí ann. Is ionann é seo agus an straitéis a chuir de Bhaldraithe i bhfeidhm ar go leor bealaí, ag baint úsáide as Harrap's French-English Dictionary mar bhunús. Tá go leor téarmaí nua i bhfoclóir de Bhaldraithe nach raibh sa teanga bheo roimhe sin, mar áis d'aistritheoirí, múinteoirí, agus daoine eile a bhí ag plé leis an nGaeilge sa saol nua-aimseartha ag an am.

Seo sampla amháin ó na trí fhoclóir a léiríonn cé chomh mór a bhí siad ag brath ar a chéile:

stare¹ [st̪eə], s. Regard fixe; regard appuyé Glassy s., regard terne, vitreux. Set s., regard fixe. Stony s., regard dur. Vacant s., regard vague; regard ahuri. To give s.o. a stare, dévisager qn. With a s. of astonishment, les yeux écarquillés, les yeux ébahis. With a s. of horror, les yeux grands ouverts d'horreur.

stare¹, s. Stánadh m, lán m na súl. Glassy stare, fiarshúil ghlinniúnach. Stony stare, amharc m fuar. Vacant stare, stánadh folamh. To give s.o. a stare, stánadh ar dhuine; lán na súl a bhaint as duine. With a stare of astonishment, agus seasamh ina shúile le hiontas. With a stare of horror, agus dhá shúil mhóra ina cheann le tréan uafáis.

stare, n. blakey m.pl. blakaghyn, lane (m) ny sooilley. Stony stare, Blakey m. feayr. Glassy stare, Blakey (m) glessagh Vacant stare, Blakey follym. To give s.o. a stare, Lane ny sooillyn y chur da peiagh ennagh. With a stare of astonishment, As shassoo ny sooillyn lesh ard-yindys.

Is léir ón sliocht seo gur tháinig roinnt de na leaganacha Manainnise go díreach ó de Bhaldraithe. Dá bharr seo, nuair a rinne mé “aistriúchán” ar na frásaí Manainnise, is minic nach raibh i gceist ach “athaontú” a dhéanamh leis an leagan i bhfoclóir de Bhaldraithe. I ngach cás eile, chuir mé an leagan Manainnise tríd an inneall aistriúcháin Intergaelic, ansin rinne mé glanadh éadrom ar an aschur. Dá bharr sin, cloíonn na haistriúcháin go dlúth le struchtúr na Manainnise, fiú nuair a bhíonn cor cainte níos nádúrtha Gaeilge ar fáil. Mar shampla, is é “Ó cheann go bonn” an t-aistriúchán a thugaim ar “Voish kione gys boyn”, cé go mbeadh “Ó bhonn go bailthis” níos dúchasaí i nGaeilge. I ndeireadh an lae, is áis é seo do chainteoirí Gaeilge atá foghlaim na Manainnise agus an sprioc a bhí agam ná leaganacha cainte agus gramadach na Manainnise a shoiléiriú. Nuair nach raibh an t-aistriúchán díreach go hiomlán soiléir, chuir mé leagan nádúrtha Gaeilge leis idir lúibíní. Mar shampla, an t-aistriúchán ar Ynsee ayns dty chree eh ná Foghlaim i do chroí é (“Foghlaim de ghlanmheabhair é”).

Tá roinnt botún i bhfoclóir Fargher mar gheall ar mhíthuiscint nó míléamh ar an leagan Gaeilge (is dócha). Mar shampla, Hie eh dy creoi ayn (“It cut him to the quick”); go litriúil Chuaigh sé go cruá ann, cé gurb é Chuaigh sé go croí ann an leagan i bhfoclóir de Bhaldraithe. Nó, Sooillyn lhieent lesh jeiryn (“Eyes swimming with tears”), go litriúil Súile líonta le deora, bunaithe ar Súile ina linnte deor. Tugaim an leagan “ceart” ó de Bhaldraithe idir lúibíní i gcásanna den sórt seo.

Tá mé tar éis cúpla teicneolaíocht teanga nua a fhorbairt don Mhanainnis a laghdaigh an obair mhaslach a bhí ag teastáil chun an frásleabhar seo a chruthú. Luaigh mé an t-inneall aistriúcháin Intergaelic cheana. Níos luaithe i mbliana, thóg mé corpas parsáilte mar chuid den tionscadal idirnáisiúnta Universal Dependencies. Bhí mé in ann an corpas sin a úsáid chun clibeálaí (ranna cainte) agus parsálaí (comhréire) a thraenáil agus a chur i bhfeidhm ar na frásaí. Is é seo an tslí a raibh mé in ann na samplaí a eagrú faoi na ceannfhocail chearta. Is rud beag é seo ar bhealach, ach is mór an cúnamh é do chainteoirí Gaeilge nach bhfuil mórán taithí acu ar chóras na n-athruithe tosaigh sa Manainnis. Chomh maith leis sin, beidh an clibeálaí agus an parsálaí an-áisiúil d'aon tionscadal foclóireachta don Mhanainnis a tharlóidh sa todhcháí.

Tá mé buíoch de mo mhac, Kevin Scannell, Jr., a thug an-chúnamh dom agus an corpas atá taobh thiar den leabhar seo á chur le chéile.

We were in view of the land.

It is written in his eyes.

They went to see a play.

To see which way the cat jumps.

He only came to see what was doing.

One can tell that she is Manx.

Visible to the naked eye.

It was good to see him.

They came from every side to see him.

He showed signs of drink.

His face showed delight.

His face proclaimed his guilt.

It runs through all his work.

Visible under the microscope.

To see if he would regain consciousness.

It's the most disgraceful thing that ever was seen.

Within sight.

It's not to be seen.

There was naught to be seen.

There wasn't a sinner to be seen.

There was no sign of him.

There was not a house to be seen.

It shows through.

To go out and see the illuminations.

There's a fellow here who wants to see you.

I am charmed to see you.

To see things other than they are.

The house stands out against the wood.

I'm very happy indeed to see you in good health.

It's a novelty to see you.

He shows his age.
