

Peter Anthony Kincaid

Kincaids of Raphoe & Raymoghly parishes, county Donegal

This is my personal free contribution and this paper is for research purposes only. Over time, I will try to proof read things thoroughly and upload a better edition of this paper. If you descend from this line of Kincaids and wish to reward me for my efforts, then my suggestion is get or support Y-dna testing of related male Kincaid descendants. That would greatly help my quest to break down genealogical brick walls.

I used the following conventions in this document: bolded name, bolded & underlined spouse, underlined important places. If a connection is not clear then "it is not certain" is added in red and underlined. Personal comments are also enclosed within {}. To save space the characters // were used to indicate a new paragraph. Male names with a red § following their names indicates that evidence suggests that their line failed due to an early death or due to there being no legitimate children. Sources follow the record in [].

Thanks also to others specifically noted within the text as having made information available. Cite them if you wish to use their contributed information. If it is my original contribution that is to be used in anyone's research, then I should be cited. A suggested citation is:

Finally, bear in mind that with this many pages of entered information, there are bound to be typos in this paper. This is basically a draft document. If something is of interest to your research, consult the original record to confirm the correct information. If anyone finds a typo or error then please let me know. The same goes if new significant information is found that can shed light on connections between individuals. My contact information is at the end of this paper. Enjoy and good luck with your research.

Ballyholey, Raphoe parish and Drumboiy, All Saints parish

Ballyholey Far townland, Raphoe Parish is on the northeastern tip of the parish and borders on Raymoghgy parish. Ballyholey Near townland is a townlands south of it and it borders on the west side of Dromore Big townland, Taughboyne parish. Magheestown and Slievebuck townlands are on the north side of Ballyholey Near and south side of Ballyholey Far. Immediately south of Dromore Big is Dromore Little and Drumbeg townland.

A line of Kincaids was at Ballyholey since at least 1743 when one William Kincaid was there. This is the only reference to him located. On 14 March 1757 one David Kincaid got a lease of lands there from Henry Hamilton of Castle Cunningham/Gortaquigley for his life and the lives of his sons William and Henry. David had married Jane, a daughter of said Henry Hamilton, and it is quite likely that the two sons named were his eldest and named after David's father (William) and his wife's father (Henry Hamilton). The Hamiltons of Gortaquigley are on record of having very close relations and friendships with the Cunninghams of Castleton, the Porters of Legnathraw, the Alexanders of Drumenan, the Rankins of Altaskin (on the south side of Clashygowan), the Longs of Monreagh, and the Scotts of Ballyhasky.

- "A person of that name with a body of followers came to Ireland from the neighbourhood of Paisley in Scotland about the year 1680 to assist the Hamilton family (now the Marquis of Abercorn) in support of the cause of William III against that of James II. This man had three sons, two of whom settled near Barons Court in Tyrone, and one in Colerane in the Coy of Londonderry... one of the brothers who settled at or near Barons Court (the seat of the Abercorn family) had a son named Charles, who settled in the Town of Strabane, a Town in Tyrone belonging to Lord Abercorn, and from him are descended the Kincaids of Newtown-Cunningham and Raphoe, Co. Donegal. Another brother named James lived at Island McHugh, near Barons Court and had three sons and 3 daughters the sons were John (1688) known as long John Kincaid of Island M'Hugh and James (1720) a Presbyterian Clergyman both of whom died without issue, also Joseph (1730) a Presbyterian clergyman who married about the year 1760, Fanny Cochrane sister of James Cochrane of Edenmore Co. Donegal and left sons and daughters" [Sketch of the Pedigree of the Kincaid family made in 1829 by Joseph Kincaid. p. 1. Copy of document emailed by Mark T. - The first of the family we have been able to trace is Henry Hamilton of Gortaquigly, Raphoe, Co. Donegal, born about 1700. He was married twice. There were three sons and two daughters by his first wife. It is not clear, perhaps not possible, that Catherine Foster could have been his wife, more likely she was the wife of Henry of Belaghan, his son.// The sons resided - Henry at Belaghan near Newtowncunningham, William at Gortaquigly and Alexander at Trensallagh near Trentagh.// The daughters became - Alice, Mrs Hamilton of Castlederg, and Jane, Mrs Kinkaid of Ballyholey.// By his second wife, Catherine Stewart, there were two sons and three daughters: Andrew of Tullyowen, Matthew of Trentagh, Margaret (Mrs Foster of Drumevis), Eliza (Mrs Mills of Balloughery) and Catherine (Mrs Mills of Ballinacross); the last-named became the owner of Ballinacross and bequeathed it to her daughter, Mary Mills, who became Mrs William Foster, mother of Samuel Foster of Ballinacross and William J. of Derry, who purchased the Bishop's Demesne after Disestablishment.// ... Before leaving Trentagh, I must refer to two interesting annual elements in our social life.// First, there were several neighbouring families with whom we were very intimate: the Cunninghams of Castleton, the Porters of Legnathraw, the Alexanders of Drumenon, the Rankins of Altaskin, the Longs of Monreagh [Lady Anderson's family], and the Scotts of Ballyhasky. With their families there was constant most friendly intercourse and in winter especially, many parties, with dancing, playing cards - never for money - and other games, and always music.// Then second, among our more immediate relations, there were most enjoyable annual entertainments - we would go to spend a day at Carrickmore with the Wilson and they would come to us for a day; the same would happen with the Hamiltons of Coolaghy, the Motherwells of Monglass, the Fosters of Ballinacross and the Kincaids of Ballyholey. These visits were always in the summer months. There would usually be a carful - six or seven, young and old - of each family. We would go early for dinner and stay till late in the evening. After dinner we would go out to the fields to see the cattle and horses and sheep - perhaps the younger people would sample the fruit in the garden. For old and young, these were most enjoyable occasions. [Hamilton, James Victor. Chapter 1: Ancestry and Early Years. - Division of a Donegal legacy.// On Wednesday in the Land Judges' Court, before Mr. Justice Ross, in the matter of the estate of Catherine Kincaid, deceased, late of Ballyholey, near Raphoe, and in the matter of the estate of William Kincaid, owner, D'Oyley Battley, petitioner, an application was made on behalf of the petitioner for an order that out of funds standing to the credit of this matter and the separate charge of Catherine Kincaid, deceased, the sum of £88 4s be paid to Mr. R. A. Wilson, solicitor, being one-sixth distributive share of the charge of £400 credit of the will of Robert Kincaid, deceased, in favour of Catherine Kincaid, and interest thereon, payable to Mary Kincaid, since deceased, on the death intestate of Catherine Kincaid, the said payment to be on account of principal and interest due to Mr. R. A. Wilson, on foot of a mortgage of February, 1898 ; also for an order that out of the funds a further payment should be made of a like amount in respect of the responsibility of Margaret Kincaid, who was a party to the mortgage of 1898. Payment was also sought of a further distributive share of £88 4s by Eliza Kincaid to Mr. Wilson on foot of a mortgage of 1900.// Mr. A. Todd, K.C. (instructed by Messrs. Todd & Mark) said he appeared for Messrs. A. J. Irwin and J.A. Irwin, of Glenfern, county Derry, incumbancers, and did not propose to argue that the distributive shares of Mary, Margaret, and Eliza Kincaid were not properly payable to Mr. Wilson under his mortgage. His Lordship had referred the matter to the examiner to report as to whom the sum in Court, assets of the late Catherine Kincaid, should go. The Examiner reported that Catherine inherited a legacy of £400 from her father, Robert Kincaid, which was now represented by £584 7s New Consols. Catherine died intestate, leaving six next-of-kin, viz. W. F. Kincaid (brother), Mary Kincaid, since deceased (sister), Margaret Kincaid, since deceased (sister), Eliza Kincaid (sister of deceased), the children of Jane Ewing, deceased (a sister of deceased), and the children of Fanny Lucas, deceased (also a sister of deceased). He found each of these next-of-kin entitled to one-sixth share. The shares of Mary, Margaret, and Eliza Kincaid were payable to Mr. Wilson under his mortgage, but counsel asked that the share of Wm. F. Kincaid should go to Messrs. Irwin on foot of their mortgage. Mr. Osborne, he said, had looked in the matter, and had satisfied himself that he could not contest that. The other two-sixths should go to the representatives of Jane Ewing and Fanny Lucas when raised.// Mr. Justice Ross said he would confirm the report, and direct the one-sixth of W. F. Kincaid to be paid to the Messrs. Irwin, three-sixths to be paid to Mr. R. A. Wilson, and the two remaining sixths would be placed on deposit receipt to the credit of the representatives of Fanny Lucas and Jane Ewing.// Mr. R. E. Osborne (instructed by Mr. David Wilson) appeared for Mr. R. A. Wilson and Mr. W. F. Kincaid, and Mr. Morgan Byrne (instructed by Mr. Burton) appeared for the solicitor having carriage. - i. Jane Kincaid (c1808 -).

 - Abduction -- Londonderry, Nov. 12.--On Wednesday night, as Miss Jane Kincaid, only daughter of Mr. D. Kincaid of Drumbooy, near Nn-Cunningham, who had been in this city consulting a physician relative to her mother's health, was returning home, accompanied by a man, and two maid-servants, she was overtaken on the road by a young man named Francis M'Gowan, of the neighbourhood of Crookstown, county of Tyrone, who leaped into the cart in which the young lady was, and began to take liberties with her which she indignantly repelled. At Portlough he was joined by Mr. Wm. M'Gowan, his brother, and Mr. John Marshall, to whose niece William is married, and the three insisted that Miss Kincaid should accompany them to Tubber, the residence of Marshall, but this she decidedly refused. Mr. William M'Gowan then rode up, and seizing the reins of her horse, turned him into the Tubber road, and by the powerful application of his whip, hastened the animal's pace to a gallop.--Miss Kincaid screamed violently, and attempted to leap out, but Francis M'Gowan held her in the cart. At this furious rate they proceeded, till Miss Kincaid's horse was completely knocked up, when they unyoked him, put to one of their own horses, and galloped on to Tubber. Arrived there, Mr. Marshall offered a large sum to one of the maid-servants to induce her to use her influence with her your mistress to go on with M'Gowan, and when this failed to shaker her fidelity, they abused her and turned her out of doors. It was now midnight. Next morning, at four o'clock, M'Gowan said he would take Miss Kincaid home, and, believing him sincere, she and the other maid went out to get into the cart as they imagined, but the maid was dragged back into the hall and locked in, and the young lady was conveyed away, but whither has not yet been discovered, These facts were sworn to on Saturday last in Raphoe, before a bench of Magistrates, and warrants were issued for the apprehension of the agents in this aggravated outrage. The police have since been in active quest of them, but up to yesterday had been unsuccessful.--The young lady is only nineteen, and will be entitled to a handsome fortune (upwards of three thousand pounds), if she married with her father's consent. It is but fair to M'Gowan to mention, that we have heard he had for some time been paying his addresses to her; but whether clandestinely or with the sanction of her parents, we are unable to state.--Dublin Evening Post [The Edinburgh Advertiser, Edinburgh, UK. 23 November 1827, page 747, column 1-2].

- Abduction in Derry.--We have heard that Mr. F. M'Gowan and Miss Kincaid have been married in the county of Tyrone, and that previous to the ceremony, the young lady made oath before a Magistrate, that she was not forcibly carried off, but voluntarily accompanied her lover. This imparts a new complexion to the case.--Londonderry Journal [The Edinburgh Advertiser, Edinburgh, UK. 27 November 1827, page 736, column 4].

William Kincaid of Money more, Raymoghly Parish, County Donegal (bef 1747 -).

 - Discussion: This is Money more townland in Raymoghly Parish. It is on the west side of Dooish townland. To its northeast, one townland over, is Monfad, All Saints Parish; the latter being on the south west side of Newtown Cunningham townland. Andrew Knox of Money more and Rathmullen married the heiress of Andrew Tomkins of Prehen, County Londonderry.

- Discussion: Lattas were in Gentledoish with connections to Ardagh:
 - 18 August 1786. James Hamilton, Strabane, to the Earl of Abercorn, Dudingston, Edinburgh. Samuel Latta of Gentledoish offers £3 a year for a slate quarry in Ardagh; James Gamble of Baliboesdoish pays as much for one in Baliboesdoish [PRONI. D623/A/47/15].
 - 27 August 1786. James, Earl of Abercorn, Dudingston, to James Hamilton Esq., Strabane. You may let a slate quarry in Ardagh to Samuel Latta, securing an indemnification to the tenant [PRONI. D623/A/26/104].
 - 19 September 1786, James Hamilton, Strabane, to the Earl of Abercorn. I will, as your Lordship orders, let a slate quarry in Ardagh to Samuel Latta; I think it would be best, that whoever takes a quarry should be confined nearly to the place opened, for they make holes in several places, and it is productive of disputes as well as a loss I think; James Gamble is in the rental for a slate quarry in Baliboesdoish; the people of Gentledoish complain of his quarrying there; I wished to have confined him to Baliboes, but Moses Armor says your Lordship let him (Gamble) all the slate quarries in Donegall except Trintagh [PRONI. D623/A/47/17].

Eleanor Kincaid of Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal (bef 1863 -).

- i. James Kincaid of Dooish townland, Raymoghly Parish, County Donegal (11 Nov 1879 -).
 - James Kincaid, son of Eleanor Kincaid (no father given) was born on 11 November 1879 at Lettergull. The informant was Jane McBrerty of Lettergull who was present at the birth. [Ireland. Civil Registrations of Births. Strabane District, 1879. no. 175, volume 2-1, page 335; registered on 15 November 1879 James H. Smith, Deputy Registrar].

- On 30 June 1904, James Kincaid, a full age bachelor labourer of Ballyholey, son of James Kincaid, labourer, was married to Catherine Gibson, a 19 year old spinster of Ballyholey, daughter of John Gibson, labourer, at the Monreagh Presbyterian Church, Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal according to the Form and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church by licence by W.G. Robinson. The witnesses were Mary Gibson and Francis Gibson [Ireland. Civil Registrations of Marriages. Londonderry District, 1904, vol. 1, p. 191, no. 29].

- Discussion: It is not certain that the James Kincaid who married Catherine Gibson was the son of the above Eleanor Kincaid. However, he is of the right age and in the right area. Woodlands on the west side of Lettergull townland and three townlands northeast of Ballyholey Near.

- The 1901 census of Londonderry has James Kinkaid in the family of Robert Vance in no. 5, Woodlands (Feddyglass), Taughboyne Parish, Donegal:

Andrew Kincaid in Tullyrap, Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal (bef 1836 -).

- Sir Richard Griffith's Valuation of Ireland* for Taughboyne Parish, County Donegal in 1857 records Andrew Kincaid as a tenant of Andrew Finlay for a house valued at £0/5/0 at map reference 2 c in Tullyrap townland.
- Discussion: Tullyrap is on the south west end of the parish on the border with Raphoe Parish. On its northwest side is Drumfad which is on the south side of Drumbeg. On the north-northeast side of Tullyrap is the townland of Feddyglass which is on the south side of Drummucklagh. Andrew Finlay (2a) held 86 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with cottars Alexander Lowry (2b) and Andrew Kincaid (2c). Also in Tullyrap townland were Alexander Finlay (1a) holding 82/2/13 acres of the Marquis of Abercorn with cottars John Kirlin (1b), William Hurley (1c), William Gallagher (1d), John Hannigan (1e), and Catherine Ferry (1f).

Drumbeg, Taughboyne parish & Monfad, All Saints parish

Robert & Mary Kinkead (bef 1723 - 1771) of Largeymore, Tyrone; Corhobber, Sligo & Drumbeg, Donegal.

----- Baronscourt Kinkeads line -----

- Discussion: The townland of Drumbeg is 93 acres and lies in the southwest corner of the Parish of Taughboyne near its border with Raphoe Parish.
- Discussion: Records are clear in that Robert Kinkead of Largeymore left the Island McHugh are of County Tyrone for County Sligo where he held the lands of Corhobber. His wife was Mary and he had sons Charles and James initially follow him there where they got lands from the Earl of Shelburne. There was a possible relation to him as the Shelburne name carried in their family. Charles and James became watchmakers and Charles went to Strabane. When Robert died his son Charles managed his mother's affairs and she removed to Drumbeg, County Donegal where subsequent family members continued to reside. This correlates well with the following statement made by Joseph Kincaid in 1829 in his family history of the Baronscourt/Island McHugh Kinkeads of which belonged his grandfather, Rev. Joseph Kinkead of Stranorlar County Donegal and Killinchy, County Down.
 - "A person of that name with a body of followers came to Ireland from the neighbourhood of Paisley in Scotland about the year 1680 to assist the Hamilton family (now the Marquis of Abercorn) in support of the cause of William III against that of James II. This man had three sons, two of whom settled near Barons Court in Tyrone, and one in Colerane in the Coy of Londonderry... one of the brothers who settled at or near Barons Court (the seat of the Abercorn family) had a son named Charles, who settled in the Town of Strabane, a Town in Tyrone belonging to Lord Abercorn, and from him are descended the Kincaids of Newtown-Cunningham and Raphoe, Co. Donegal. Another brother named James lived at Island McHugh, near Barons Court and had three sons and 3 daughters the sons were John (1688) known as long John Kincaid of Island M'Hugh and James (1720) a Presbyterian Clergyman both of whom died without issue, also Joseph (1730) a Presbyterian clergyman who married about the year 1760, Fanny Cochrane sister of James Cochrane of Edenmore Co. Donegal and left sons and daughters" [Sketch of the Pedigree of the Kincaid family made in 1829 by Joseph Kincaid. p. 1. Copy of document emailed by Mark T. Davies of Bothell, Washington, USA (mark.t.davies@boeing.com) to Peter A. Kincaid, of Fredericton, NB, Canada on 3 June 2003. Paper was written by Joseph Kincaid, land agent in Dublin, grandson of Rev. Joseph Kinkead of Killinchy, County Down, in 1829 and added to by him in 1872].

- 'When I was last in Ireland, I heard so bad a character of Andrew Lowry of Drumbeg, that I refused to give him a new lease. And I promised the land to widow Kinkead, appointing, at the same time, referees to fix a sum of money to be paid him for his buildings, on his giving up peaceable possession. I have ever since been using all the endeavours I could, to have him removed, but without effect. I now recommend it to you very particularly. Her son was with me about it, a few days ago. But that really is not the motive of my writing, as I had determind before, that it should be the first thing I would mention to you. Whether she will be able to live quietly in that lawless part of the country, is no part of the present question. For I would have him out, though the land should lie waste. And I think the forceable possession he has held, more than cancels any claim he had to a consideration for his improvements.... Charles Kinkead tells me you had thoughts of sending some of the lead by him, and I wish you had. I shall be glad of two or three pounds of it. But I would have it as it rises, mixed with stone or other matter, without being separated [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. D623/A/18/76. Letter from James, Earl of Abercorn, at London to James Hamilton, Esq. at Strabane dated 23 November 1766].
- 'By Saturdays post I had the honor of your Lordships letter of the 23d of last month, since which I saw Andrew Lowry of Drumbeg, who has given me every assurance, that he will give up the quiet possession of the farm, uppon my going to receive it, which postponed till Charles Kinkead who cheifly manages his mothers affairs, returns. He tells me that when he understood from your Lordship in London, that he must quit it, he offered to do it, provided £34 the money the referees valued his buildings at, was paid him, or lodged in any persons hands to be paid him when the widow was in the quiet possession, that Mr Nesbitt agreed to do it, provided he gave security, that the widow was in no ways damaged for three years; Lowry answered he would engage for himself, and that he hoped she would have no reason to fear from any friend of his, that he could not secure himself, and his cattle might die, might be stolen, or other accidents happen that he could not foresee; this he says he declared often in the strongest terms, and particularly in presence of the Sheriff when he came to take possession, but Mr Nesbitt was probably induced to hold the money, as the best security for his future behaviour. Lowry says farther that he would have given up that day, but his wife, insisted on the money being lodged, or the Sheriffs promising to pay it; the woman is dead; Lowry has as I am informed, built considerably, since his term expired, one year his farm (except about three acres lay unploughed); these are advantages to the tenant coming into his place, which may in some sort compensate, for her not getting it in proper time, and Lowry by his losing the farm by his journey and other expense, will be punished for his obstinacy. Had I your Lordships permission, I would hope to prevail on Charles Kinkead (who is as I think a very good young man) to give him something, perhaps as much as was allowed him by the referees, though by no means now, for any other consideration, but his being much reduced, and having six small children [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. D623/A/37/50 & T2541/IA/1/7/50. Letter from James Hamilton at Strabane to the Earl of Abercorn dated 12 December 1766].

- I leave it to you to put widow Kinkead into possession of Drumbeg, upon any terms that you think reasonable, and will be secure to her [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. D623/A/18/77. Letter from James, Earl of Abercorn, at London to James Hamilton, Esq. at Strabane dated 24 December 1766].
- Charles Kinkead brought me a little cut stone from your Lordship; I am sorry I was mistaken in my first opinion of it. Andrew Lowry has removed from Drumbeg, and a person placed there by widow Kinkead to work the farm; her son tells me, she will go to live there this summer [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. D623/A/37/63 & T2541/IA/1/7/63. Letter from James Hamilton at Strabane to the Earl of Abercorn dated 19 March 1767].
- Widow Kinkeads work at Drumbeg went on without any the least interruption, till Saturday the 4th; that day Andrew Lowry on his return from Raphoe drunk, called at the house; the men were out at work; he knocked at the door violently, and thrust in a boarded window shutter, that had been nailed on; a cottiers wife who had lived with him and was continued by widow Kinkead, came out of the house to enquire what was the matter; upon seeing her he raged much and struck her and another woman that was there, but whose husbands were at work in the farm, and swore revenge against all who lived in that farm, and so went away; that night the tongue was cutt out of a mare of widow Kinkeads; of this I got no account till next night; I then got summons's from Mr George Nesbitt for the people he had abused, and had their examinations taken; the bills were found and I have got a bench warrant for him; I got also a presentment on the County for £9 2s. the value of the mare; what has hapned at the assize, no doubt Andrew Lowry has heard. Samuel Doak of Dromore, had shewen some civility to the widow Kinkeads family; that day Lowry abused the people at Drumbeg; Doak had saved some oats for the widow there, the Monday following Lowry and he mett; he asked Doak whether he had or not been assisting in the sowing Drumbeg; he told him he had, upon which Lowry swore had he seen him there, he would have cutt of his leg or arm; Doak made little of his threats; however I had his examinations taken, the more effectually to secure every one. Since Monday I have heard nothing of Lowry; I laid schemes for taking him, and did resolve going myself, if it could be fixed where he could be found, that I might prevent mischief; I do believe he will not stirr again; if he cut the mares tongue out and I can not imagine any other person to do it, he will find his cruel intended revenge, had not his proposed design, for the loss did not fall as he intended it; my reason for seeming to have any doubt that he did it, is that his two brothers James and Alexander came to me on Tuesday, in very much trouble, and sayed they suspected, that some person did it, intending the ruin of them all, but I trust there is no person, that could lay so deep, so devilish a scheme; I am much deceived if those two men did not all along do every thing in their power, to persuade their brother to give up quietly; the day that I was last at Drumbeg, which day Andrew cleared out, I sent for his brother Alexander; he made use of every rational argument to persuade him to give up everything, for Andrew who seemed almost devoid of reason, was insisting on having ground for his foil (?) there or that he would carry it away; I wanted he should have no pretence for being more there; I wanted beside to serve him with Charles Kinkead who gave up in the first place £20, a years rent, and would I am persuaded have paid him more than £13, the award at first made for Lowrys buildings; I really hoped that this business had been quite over, and that I should never have had occasion to trouble your Lordship about it; I have made a pretty strong interest for Kinkead about Drumbeg; Doak I consider as a principal friend, so that if Lowry stirrs, I make no doubt of his being taken, though I have desired they may not seek for him till my return.'

- i. Charles Kinkead (bef 1741 -), merchant of Strabane.
 - Discussion: As noted above, Charles had 6 small children in 1769. Assuming about 2 years between children it would have taken about 10 years after the first to achieve this. Assuming he was no younger than 18 when he started having children, then Charles would have been born before 1736 (i.e. 1769-10-18).
 - Charles Kinkead, of Strabane, being now fully determined to Leave off Business in said Town and remove to Dublin, purposes to set up to Auction, on the first Day of August next, his intire Stock, in Trade, consisting of many Hopheads of choice Bordeaux Claret, French Brandy, Jamaica and Antiqua Rum, some Tierces of Vinegar, several Sorts of Whitewines, Sugars both brown and white, a large Parcel of Drinking glasses both plain and flowered, sundry Things in the Hardware and Ironmongery Business; a large Parcel of fine Guns; with many other Goods, which will be more fully particularized on the Day of Sale: Ready Money only, or Bills on Dublin, will be accepted in Payment. On this Occasion he must intreat as are indebted to him will without Delay pay off their Accounts, otherwise he will be unavoidably obliged to sue for the same [The Belfast Newsletter, Belfast, Ireland. 4 July 1769, page 1].
 - Charles Kinkead son to Robert who lived in Largeymore dealt for some time very extensively in this town, he has lately failed, for a very considerable sum I am told, and all that he has is sold by the Sherriff; it is reported he has left the Kingdom; possibly he may go to London, and as it is well known, that your Lordship assists people, who are endeavouring to push themselves, possibly he might apply, as if he was still in trade and purchasing goods there; there is one Knox, and one Potters who both lived here, failed within this month [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. ii. David Kinkead of Drumbeg (bef 1750 – bet 1 Aug 1771 & 28 Jun 1771)

- It is not certain but David was likely a son of Robert Kinkead of Largeymore. It is clear that Robert's widow and son Charles acquired possession of land in Drumbeg. As Charles was a merchant in Strabane, it seems likely that a younger brother got possession of the lands. Furthermore, a Robert and Shelburn Kinkead are mentioned in a lease assigned by Charles Kinkead on 22 August 1768 (see below under Shelburne Kinkead). David's will of 28 June 1771 notes his brother Shilburn. It is reasonable that Shelburn was in the lease as a brother of Charles, thus making David his other brother.

- David Kinkead of Drumbeag, Parish of Toughboyn, County Donegal had his Will, dated 28 June 1771, proved on 1 August 1771. The Will mentions his wife Margaret, son Robert Kinkead, sister Elizabeth Kinkead, and brother Shilburn Kinkead. David Kinkead of Drumboy, John Mills of Lismochrey and Wm. Cochran of Casteldow were executors. The Will was abstract as part of a report on research conducted for Anna Maggie (Rodgers) Furness [Ritchie, Miss H. A. Rogers-Cook-Kinkead of Ireland. Unpublished paper, 1904. Microfiched by the Church of Jesus Christ and Latter Days Saints, Salt Lake City, UT, under film # 6024394].
- He details the assets of the late David Kinkead of Drumbeag; he left £50 to his brother and sister and the remainder to be equally divided between his wife and child; his executor 'thinks his debts and legacies could not be paid, but by disposing of the land, nor could the child's part be otherwise known; if your Lordship approves of it's being sold the purpose selling it and the crop before it is cutt down [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. D623/A/39/131 & T2541/IA/1/9/129. Letter from James Hamilton at Strabane to the Earl of Abercorn dated 7 July 1771].
- David Kinkead seems to me to have made a very honest will, and I see no way, it can so well be carried into execution in, as by selling his lease. Have it understood, that no fine is required, and let me know what it sells for [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. D623/A/20/72. Letter from James, Earl of Abercorn at Dudingston to James Hamilton, Esq. at Strabane to the Earl of Abercorn dated 19 July 1771].
- 'I let John Mills, who is executor to David Kinkead know that your Lordship consented to the seal of Drumbeag lease, and had given up the fine' [Public Record Office of Northern Ireland. iii. Shelburne Kinkead.

- Kinkead to McElheny. Registered the 5th day of September 1770. To the Register appointed by Act of parliament for registering Deeds and so forth. A memorial of an assignment of Lease dated the twenty second day of August one thousand and seven hundred and sixty eight made between Charles Kinkead of Strabane in the County of Tyrone watchmaker of the one part and James McElheny of Lisdiven in the parish of Donnatrity and County of Tyrone of the other part. Deputy Reg[iste]r the 5th day of Sep[tembe]r 1770 at or near half after eleven of the Clock in the forenoon of said day. John Brown. Sworn before me this 5th day of Sep[tembe]r 1770 Cha[rle]s Meares Dep. Reg[iste]r [Ireland. Registry of Deeds, no. 182837, Book 282, page 216].

iv. Elizabeth Kinkead.

William Kincaid of Monfad, All Saints Parish, County Donegal (bef 1814 -).

i. Shelburn Kinkaid (bef 1830 - aft 1869).

- Discussion: It is not certain but he was likely the son of William Kincaid of Monfad townland,

All Saints Parish since 1) he was the son of a William Kincaid and 2) Dooish townland, Raymoghly Parish is the 2nd townland directly south of Monfad.

- On 22 February 1851, Shilburn Kincade, a full age bachelor labourer of Ballyboedoish, Parish of Ryemochy (ie. Raymoghly), son of William Kincade, labourer, was married to Jane Moore, a full age spinster of Ballyboedoish, Parish of Ryemochy, daughter of William Moore, farmer, at the Registrar's Office in the Town of Strabane, District of Strabane according to the provisions of 7 & 8 Victoria, Chap. 81 by certificate before And[re]w Jenkins, Registrar. Jane gave her mark. The witnesses were William Moore and Matty Leater? [Ireland. Civil Registrations of Marriages. Strabane District, 1851, vol. 10, p. 309, no. 19; LDS film no. 101331].
- The Griffith Valuations of 1857 records a Shelburn Kinkaid as a tenant of John Gillespie for a house valued at five shillings at map reference 12 a in Dooish townland, Raymoghly Parish.
 - Discussion: The place Ballyboedoish is confusing as there is presently no townland of that name in Raymoghly Parish. There is a Ballyboe adjacent to Drumcarn and a Dooish adjacent to Ardagh, Taughboyne Parish. As there are Kincaids in both of these areas it is difficult to place him. As the Griffiths states he was in Dooish it is safest to place him in that townland versus Ballyboe.
- i. William Kinkaid (c1853 - 8 July 1943).
 - The Statutory Death Registers records the death of William Kinkaid on 8 July 1943 at 253 Duke Street (lives 112 Howwood Street), Glasgow, Scotland being a 90 year old cleaning department labourer, son of the deceased Shelborne Kincaid, mason, and the deceased Jane Moore and spouse of 1) Rose Ann Bone and 2) Jane Cowan or Henderson. His widow Jane Kincaid was present at his death [GROS, Camlachie District, Glasgow, 644/03 0434. p. 145, no.434].

The witnesses were Peter A. McConnell and Shelburne Kincaid [Ireland. Civil Registrations of Marriages. Letterkenny District, 1876, vol. _, p. 163, no. 93; registered 15 January 1877].
 - Discussion: About the time of her marriage Shelburn was living in the adjacent townland of Maylin. Assuming she was about the age of 21, she fits well as being born in the gap between Shelburn's sons William and Samuel.
- iii. Samuel Kinkaid (c1857 - 1 November 1903).
 - Samuel, son of Shelbourne Kincaide & Jane Moore of Ballyboedoish townland, was baptized on 1 June 1856 at Ray Presbyterian Church in Manorcunningham [Registers of Ray Presbyterian Church, Manorcunningham, County Donegal.  - On 11 July 1882, Joseph Ray, a full age bachelor army pensioner of Sharon, Manor - Cunningham, son of Charles Ray, labourer, was married to Rebecca Kincaid, a full age spinster servant of Sharon, Manor-Cunningham, daughter of Shelburne Kincaid, mason, at the Raymochy Parish Church, Raymochy Parish, County Donegal according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of Ireland by license by William George Kennedy. The witnesses were John William Bull and Peter McConnell [Ireland. Civil Registrations of Marriages. Letterkenny District, 1882, vol. __, p. 151, no. 96; registered 3 August 1882].

 - Discussion: Money More townland, Raymoghly parish lies on the northwest side of Dooish townland, Raymoghly parish. It is in the northeast side of the parish and borders on Monfad townland, All Saints parish, County Donegal.
 - Robert Kincade of Highland Creek, Ontario, 27 years old bachelor born in Ireland to Shelbourne Kincaide and Jane Moore, married Annie McCaffrey of Markham township, Ontario, 16 years old spinster born in Scarboro township to James McCaffery and Maggie Stoner?, on 2 December 1894 in Pickering township, Ontario. The witnesses were Anthony McCaffery and Kate Carrole and both were noted as Roman Catholic [Province of Ontario, Vital records, marriages].

Drumbuoy 2

John Kincaid (c1730 - aft 1768) of Londonderry, Ireland.

----- Baronscourt Kinkeads line -----

- This line is represented by Manfred F. Kincaid of Orwell, VT, USA who is sample no. 147340 of the Kincaid Y chromosome DNA project at FamilyTree DNA. He is just two mutations off on the 1st 37 markers (a 22 versus 24 at DYS447 and an 11 versus 10 at GATA H4) from sample no. 2617 of the same project; who is a documented descendant of Rev. Joseph Kinkead of Killinchy, County Down - and thus these Kinkeads are most likely of the Barons Court, County Tyrone Kinkeads.
- I have a one-page, mimeographed copy of a typewritten family tree written by my grandfather in the 1940s entitled "The Kincaid Clan" that goes back to David Kincaid, b.c. 1695, Londonderry. Other family records indicate that a son of his, John Kincaid b. 1730, Londonderry is my next in line Kincaid ancestor. The generation below that for my line is James Kincaid, b. 1765, Londonderry, d. 1848, Hartford, Washington County, NY m. Margaret McCoy, b. 1768, Aberdeen, Scotland, d. 1846, Hartford, Washington County, NY. I have some family deeds, wills, and bills of sale associated with their properties in Hartford and nearby Fort Ann... "The Kincaid Clan" typewritten record indicates that the David Kincaid b.c. 1695 had six sons named David, Robert, Alec, John, Andrew, and James. I believe this is an error as John Kincaid had six sons named David, Robert, Alexander, John, Andrew, and James. James Kincaid was the youngest and was b. 1765 [Email to Peter A. Kincaid from Edward Loomis of Baltimore, MD, USA (eloomis@cavtel.net); dated 21 December 2008].
 - It is not certain, but the alleged father David fits as the David Kincaid of Drumbuoy, All Saints Parish, County Donegal. Drumbuoy is only a few miles west of Londonderry.

• McCoy Material, Etc. by Mary Ann VanZandt Bell and Ancestors of Our Grandchildren and Their Cousins, 742-1977 by Harriet R. Frische have information on this family. Edward Loomis says he and his aunt contributed their family information to the later.

i. David Kincaid (c1755? -).

ii. Robert Kincaid (c1757? -).

iii. Alexander Kincaid (c1759 - 26 March 1804).

• Will of Alexander Kincaid of the Town of Hartford, Washington County, New York, dated 23 March 1804 and proved 19 Dec 1806. He left Sally Blanchard one bag of dollars, his brother James Kincaid, $1500, and his brother John Kincaid, Esq., the remainder of his real and personal property.

iv. John Kincaid (25 September 1767 {or 1761} - 6 July 1806).

• Family papers found in my grandfather's attic (which I'll quote) refer to John b. 29 Oct 1767 m. 26 Aug 1795 to Susana Eddy b. 6 Jun 1772. John Hamilton Kincaid, their first child was b. 25 Sep 1796, d. 26 Oct 1796. John Hamilton Kincaid, their second child b. 7 Jan 1798 at 3PM "fell into a kettle of scalding water on the evening of the 4th of April and died at half past 5 on the morning of 1799 at age 14 months & 29 days. Fanny Kincaid their third born 26 May 1799, 15 minutes past 3 in the morning carried off by Mrs. Kincaid's elopment 26 July 1799. John Kincaid deceased on 6 Jul 1806 at 5:25 in the afternoon." The three male siblings - John, Alexander, and James are the only three of the supposed six that are mentioned in the various papers I have that were recovered from my grandfather's attic. Amongst my collection of papers from my grandfather's attic include the wills of both Alexander and John Kincaid. They're heavily tattered and extremely fragile [Email to Peter A. Kincaid from Edward Loomis of Baltimore, MD, USA (eloomis@cavtel.net); dated 21 December 2008].

• My info on Susana comes from a handwritten piece of paper found in what appears to be the remains of a family ledger. What I quoted is straight from the information written on John Kincaid's family most likely by a family member, possibly Alexander or James. I may try to match handwriting samples against their wills since I have the actual handwritten wills of both John and Alexander Kincaid complete with their signatures and wax seals [Email to Peter A. Kincaid from Edward Loomis of Baltimore, MD, USA (eloomis@cavtel.net); dated 22 December 2008].

• The Will of John Kincaid of the Town of Hartford, Washington County, New York, dated 18 May 1806 and proved before the surrogate court on 10 July 1806. He leaves personal estate to John Hamilton Kincaid, Charlotte Kincaid, Jane Kincaid, and Nancy Kincaid, children of his brother James Kincaid. He leaves all his real estate in the Town of Hartford to John Hamilton Kincaid. He gives $1 to his "disloyal consort" Susan Kincaid. Names Fanny Kincaid, his daughter. Sole executor and Trustee John Scott, Esquire, attorney at law, of the Village of Fort

Ann, Town of Westfield, Washington County, New York. To be buried next to his brother Alexander Kincaid near Village of Fort Ann. Note that James Kincaid informed John Scott that his eldest child was not year past the age of 12 year as of 4 June 1806.

- i. John Hamilton Kincaid (25 September 1796 - 26 October 1796).
 - ii. John Hamilton Kincaid (7 January 1798 - 4 April 1799).
 - iii. Fanny Kincaid (26 May 1799 -).
- v. Andrew Kincaid (c1763? -).
- vi. James Kincaid (c1765-1848).
- Discussion: The family papers noted above indicated that he was the youngest and born in 1765. He was over 45 in the 1810 census which could fit a birth year of 1765 or earlier. Family papers indicated that his brother Alexander was born in 1767 which would place him younger than James. One would think that a person would not mix up that a person was the youngest so it seems more likely that the 1767 was a misread of 1761.

Tullydonnell & Convo

Robert Kincaid, miller of Raphoe Parish, County Donegal (bef 1808 -).

----- Baronscourt Kincaids line -----

-  This line is represented by sample no. 155916 of the Kincaid Y chromosome DNA project at Family Tree DNA. He is an exact match over the 1st 37 markers with Richard (Dick) Neil Kincaid's sample no. 2562 of the Kincaid Y chromosome DNA project at Family Tree DNA. Dick is descended from Joseph Kincaid and Eleanor Willis who were married in Belmont County, Ohio on 9 May 1816.
- Discussion: In 1847 his full age son, Robert Kincaid, miller of Tullydonnell, married secondly Margaret Taylor. Thus, this son was born before 1826 and his father, therein stated as Robert Kincaid, miller, would have presumably been at least 18 when he fathered Robert sometime before 1826. Thus, Robert the elder would have been born before 1808.
- "A person of that name with a body of followers came to Ireland from the neighbourhood of Paisley in Scotland about the year 1680 to assist the Hamilton family (now the Marquis of Abercorn) in support of the cause of William III against that of James II. This man had three sons, two of whom settled near Barons Court in Tyrone, and one in Colerane in the Coy of Londonderry... one of the brothers who settled at or near Barons Court (the seat of the Abercorn family) had a son named Charles, who settled in the Town of Strabane, a Town in Tyrone belonging to Lord Abercorn, and from him are descended the Kincaids of Newtown-Cunningham and Raphoe, Co. Donegal. Another brother named James lived at Island McHugh, near Barons Court and had three sons and 3 daughters the sons were John (1688) known as long John Kincaid of Island M'Hugh and James (1720) a Presbyterian Clergyman both of whom died without issue, also Joseph (1730) a Presbyterian clergyman who married about the year 1760, Fanny Cochrane sister of James Cochrane of Edenmore Co. Donegal and left sons and daughters" [Sketch of the Pedigree of the Kincaid family made in 1829 by Joseph Kincaid. p. 1. Copy of document emailed by Mark T. Davies of Bothell, Washington, USA (mark.t.davies@boeing.com) to Peter A. Kincaid, of Fredericton, NB, Canada on 3 June 2003. Paper was written by Joseph Kincaid, land agent in Dublin, grandson of Rev. Joseph Kincaid of Killinchy, County Down, in 1829 and added to by him in 1872].
 - i. William Kincaid of Convo Parish, County Donegal (to follow).
 - ii. Robert Kincaid of Tullydonnell, Raphoe Parish, County Donegal (bef 1826 -).
 - On 15 January 1847, Robert Kincaid, widower, a full age miller of Tullydonnell, son of Robert Kincaid, miller, was married to Margaret Taylor, a full age spinster of Meenabben, daughter of J. Taylor, farmer at Convo Church in Convo Parish, County Donegal according to Rites and Ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland by license by J. Beatty. The witnesses were John McClure and Thomas Thomson [Ireland. Civil Registrations of Marriages. Stranolar District, 1847, vol. 10, p. 335, no. 6.

https://civilrecords.irishgenealogy.ie/churchrecords/images/marriage_returns/marriages_1847/09339/5381391.pdf].

- The Griffith Valuations of 1857 record one Robert Kincaid as a tenant of David McConnaghy for a house valued at 10 shillings at map reference 2 b Tullydonnell Lower townland (which is the next townland to the north of Kiltole), Raphoe.
- The Griffith Valuations of 1857 records a Robert Kincaid as a tenant of Rev. Hamilton Verschoyle for land 2 acres 1 roods 30 perches valued at £1 10 shillings at map reference 4 in Kiltole townland, Raphoe Parish.
 - Discussion: Kiltole is on the west side of the Parish on the border with Convoy Parish as is bounded on the northwest by Tullydonnell Lower and on the east by Figart.
 - Discussion: This is almost certainly the Robert Kincaid of Tully Donnell, Raphoe Parish who died in December 1873.

(by 1st wife unknown)

i. Isabella Kincaid (c1840 -).

- On 11 May 1858, Isabella Kincaid, an 18 year old spinster of Tullydonnell, daughter of Rob[er]t Kincaid, miller, was married to John Thompson, a 22 year old bachelor farmer of Liskin Ray, son of W [illia]m Thompson, farmer at Convoy Church, Convoy Parish, County Donegal according to Rites and Ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland by license by J. Beatty. The witnesses were Samuel Thompson and W[illia]m Wilson [Ireland. Civil Registrations of Marriages. Stranolar District, 1858, vol. 10, p. 379, no. 31. https://civilrecords.irishgenealogy.ie/churchrecords/images/marriage_returns/marriages_1858/09560/5465930.pdf]].
- Married... At Convoy, on the 11th inst., by the Rev. J. Beatey, Mr. John Thompson, Sheskin, to Isabella, eldest daughter of Mr. Robert Kincaid, Tullydonnell [The Londonderry Standard, Londonderry, Ireland. Thursday, 20 May 1858, page 3, column 1].
- Discussion: Since she was the eldest daughter and born about 1840 she was certainly by Robert Kincaid's first wife.

(by 2nd wife Margaret Taylor)

ii. James Kincaid of Tullyvinney, Raphoe Parish, County Donegal (c1853 – 28 Mar 1912).

- Discussion: Tullyvinny townland is a little southwest of the middle of the Parish. Immediately southwest of it is the townland of Figart. On the west side of Figart is Kiltole townland. On the northwest side of Kiltole is Tullydonnell Upper townland.
- It is not certain, but given his birth as c1853, given his age in the 1901 census, and the proximity of to Tullydonnell, James Kincaid was likely a son of Robert Kincaid, miller of Tullydonnell, by his second wife Margaret Taylor. The informant to his death was his younger brother David Kincaid of Convoy, also a son of Robert Kincaid, miller, who likewise would have been by Margaret Taylor. The niece, Ellen Kincaid, living with James Kincaid in 1901 was presumably David's daughter by his first wife – Catherine Kee. Now it is quite interesting that the witnesses to this David's marriage to Catherine Kee on 6 July 1880 were William Kincaid and Mary Ann McKnight. Later that year, on 11 November 1880, one William Kincaid and Mary McKnight married in Convoy parish. They were almost certainly the same person. This William was recorded in his marriage record as the son of a William Kincaid, miller versus Robert Kincaid, miller, for David's father. The likely scenario is that William and David were 1st cousins with Robert Kincaid the younger, miller, and William Kincaid the elder, miller, were brothers and sons of Robert Kincaid the elder miller.
- James Kincaid and Ann Jane Maxwell were married on 2 December 1884 at Raphoe 1st Presbyterian Church.

- Greenock, being a 24 year old single Foundry Labourer, son of the deceased James Kincaid, millwright, and the deceased Jane Maxwell. His brother, James Kincaid, 51 Lyndock Street, Greenock, was the informant [GROS, West District of Greenock, Renfrew County, 564/02 0102. p. 34, no. 102. There is a note to see Register of Corrected Entries, vol. 14, page 162, 27 March 1913].
- Thomas Kincaid, labourer, 1 William Street, died at Greenock Infirmary on the 15th February 1913 after an accident at Caird's Foundry age 24 - son of the late James Kincaid, Raphoe, County Donegal [Greenock Telegraph. 15 February 1913].
- iv. David Kincaid (29 Mar 1891 - 15 Mar 1962).
- The IGI index has David Kinkaid (29 March 1891 Tullyvinney, Raphoe, Donegal - 15 March 1962 Belfast, Antrim) as marrying Georgina Kathleen Watton (5 March 1892 Kilmoyle, Antrim - 4 September 1977 Carrickfergus, Antrim) on 27 November 1917 in Ballywillan Parish, Londonderry.
 - i. Thomas Kincaid.
 - The IGI index records that Thomas Kincaid, son of David Kincaid and Georgina Kathleen Watton, was born on 26 December 1924 in Aghadowy, Coleraine, Londonderry and died 11 July 1990.
- v. Mathew Kincaid (c1892 -).
- vi. John Kincaid (c1894 -).
- The Statutory Marriage Registers records that John Kincaid, iron driller, married Sarah Findlay Madden, tailorress, at 1 Wallace Place, Greenock on 27 January 1922 by declaration in presence of James Robert Kincaid, engineer, and Elizabeth Douch or Kincaid, both residing at 9 Ratho Street, Greeock. John was a 28 year old bachelor from 36 East Hamilton Street, Greenock; being the son of the deceased James Kincaid, millwright, and the deceased Jane Maxwell. Sarah was a 32 year old spinster from 36 East Hamilton Street, Greenock; being the daughter of Samuel Daniel Madden, time keeper, and Sarah Findlay. The witnesses were Lily Brown Arnot and Robert Brown Adams [GROS, East District of Greenock, Renfrew County, 564/01 0013. p. 7, no. 13].
