

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Stephen Gutwillig
Los Angeles, California
Executive Board Member

Stephen Gutwillig has 30 years of experience in nonprofit community-based, cultural, and social change organizations in Los Angeles, New York, and Boston. He is currently a nonprofit organizational development consultant and a life and leadership coach based in Los Angeles.

Most recently, Gutwillig served as Deputy Executive Director of the Drug Policy Alliance, one of the nation's leading organizations advocating alternatives to the War on Drugs. In that capacity, he oversaw DPA's policy advocacy, a full-time staff of 45 colleagues across seven offices, a $1 million grants program, and the programming of DPA's international biennial conference for 1,500 attendees. Gutwillig managed state and federal legislation and voter initiative campaigns to reform criminal justice responses to drug use. This included movements to eliminate mandatory minimum sentences; end the criminalization of drug use and possession; legalize marijuana; and promote public health alternatives by increasing access to treatment and sterile syringes; and prevent fatal overdoses and HIV/hep C transmission.

Gutwillig's media appearances include NBC Nightly News, Fox's The O'Reilly Factor, CNN, Telemundo, MSNBC, as well as The New York Times, Newsweek, Rolling Stone, and the Los Angeles Times.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
