THANK YOU TO OUR SUPPORTING ASSOCIATIONS

GOING GLOBAL

With COVID travel restrictions lifted, CEO Reid Raykovich, CLFP was at last able to attend international industry events in Canada and Australia to spread the word of the CLFP designation.

The first conference was in Charlottetown, PEI, in September and held by the Canadian Finance & Leasing Association (CFLA) where Raykovich announced the kickoff of the designation to conference attendees.

She is pictured (right) with industry association leaders: Ralph Petta, President and CEO of the Equipment Leasing and Finance Association (ELFA), Michael Rothe, President and CEO of CFLA, David Gill, CLFP, CEO of the Commercial Asset and Finance Broker Association (CAFBA) and David Gandolfo, Chair of Advocacy at CAFBA.

In November, she traveled to Melbourne, Australia to attend the CAFBA Annual Conference held at the Grand Hyatt. There, she sat on a panel with Terry Moody (L), and Gerard Hermens (R) who along with several other CAFBA members and staff, have been working hard to officially announce the completion of the Australian CLFP designation (bottom right).

2022 MEMBERSHIP

The Foundation had another record yet and membership grew from 1,093 to 1,240 (as of December 6, 2022). That's a 13.5% increase, compared to 12% in 2021. Below are those that joined the community in 2022:

CINDY SPURDLE AWARD OF EXCELLENCE & CLFP DAY

On August 25th, the CLFP membership gathered online for the annual virtual call to review the achievements for the year and also to award the annual Cindy Spurdle Award of Excellence.

The Cindy Spurdle Award was created in 2012 to acknowledge the CLFP who has contributed the most to the industry and best represents the CLFP ideals for the year. Nominees are submitted by the CLFP membership, and the final award candidate is voted upon by the entire CLFP Board of Directors. This year's winner was Candace Reinhart, CLFP – SVP Operations and Syndications at CoreTech Leasing. She stated, "I cannot express my gratitude enough to the Foundation, the board of directors, and in particular, Reid Raykovich and Deb Reuben – two women who have been an inspiration to me with their passion for positive impact on an industry we all love. To those considering the path to this esteemed designation, I encourage you to take the leap. The principles of the CLFP Foundation, coupled with this quickly growing member group, provide an encouraging look into what positive work we can do together. CLFP brings unparalleled knowledge, ongoing education, and a mission for exceptional standards and expertise."

The celebration also included a new award – the Lifetime Member Award. The award was created to honor those who contributed significantly to the Foundation over the years and remained involved throughout retirement. Nominees were submitted by Foundation Board members and then voted on by the entire Board. The three individuals were honored: Bob Fisher, John Rosenlund, and Bob Teichman. Other in-person celebrations were held throughout the United States including the following cities: Seattle, WA; Portland, OR; Walnut Creek, CA; Denver, CO; Minneapolis, MN; Philadelphia, PA; Albany, MN; Tustin, CA; Fort Smith, AR; Charleston, SC; Portage, MI; Rochester, NY.

ALFP 2022 RECAP

The CLFP Foundation continued to offer the Academy for Lease & Finance Professionals (ALFP) and held 20 throughout the year, compared to 14 in 2021. This year, the in-person ALFPs returned and special thanks to those who took time out of their busy schedules to travel and teach (marked with an asterisk). Without the volunteers below, this could not have been possible. Just look at how many sections some of them taught (number after their name)!
