FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION

AUDITORIUM—MASONIC TEMPLE

333 St. Charles Street

New Orleans, La., February 11, 1956.

The One Hundred and Forty-sixth Annual Convocation of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana, in New Orleans, on Monday morning of the eleventh day of February, Nineteen Hundred Fifty-seven at 9:00 A. M., was opened in the Third or Master's Degree, in due and ancient form, by M:W: Brother D. Allen Long, Grand Master, after prayer by Brother (Rev.) Ivan O. Alexander, Grand Chaplain.

OPENING PRAYER

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, in whom we live and move and have our being, we stand before Thee with bowed heads and reverent hearts. Thou art infinite, we are finite. Thou art holy, we sinful and have need of cleansing and forgiveness. We acknowledge our transgressions and ask Thee to pardon our sins. From Thee comes every good and perfect gift. We rejoice that Thy mercies are new every morning and fresh every evening and we praise Thee for Thy wondrous goodness.

We invoke Thy blessings on Worshipful Grand Master D. Allen Long. We thank Thee for him, for the service he has rendered; for his zeal, untiring efforts, the faithfulness and dignity with which he has performed the duties of this high office. Give him wisdom, sound judgment, and the assurance of Thy Divine Presence as he presides over this assembly.

Let Thy blessings be upon this Session of the Grand Lodge. Govern it for Thy glory and for our good. Direct and control all deliberations and decisions. Subdue and overcome discordant passions. Grant that peace, harmony, and brotherly love may prevail.

May Thy benediction abide upon all who are present. Keep us from harm, both physical and spiritual, and lead us in the way everlasting. These blessings we humbly ask in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

FLAG PRESENTATION

The Flag of the United States was presented and saluted, after which the Grand Organist played the National Anthem, and the Pledge of Allegiance was given. It was then placed on the Dais at the right of the Most Worshipful Grand Master.

COMMUNICATIONS

Nathan L. Roberts, Grand Master, Grand Lodge of Tennessee; Clifford D. Jory, President, The George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association; Arthur S. Crites, K. G. C., M. I. Grand Sovereign, The Grand Imperial Council, of the Red Cross of Constantine and Appendant Orders; Herbert T. White, Past Grand Master, The Grand Lodge of Nebraska; Carl H. Claudy, Executive Secretary, The Masonic Service Association of the U. S.; George E. Bushnell, Sovereign Grand Commander, The Supreme Council 33° A. A. Scottish Rite, Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, U. S. A.; John D. Cunningham, Director of Welfare, The Masonic Service Association of the U. S.; E. Dubinsky, Grand Secretary, The Grand Lodge of the State of Israel; George J. Ginsberg, Representative Grand Lodge of the State of Israel; Estes W. McKinney, Grand Representative Grand Lodge of Yucatan (La-Oriental Peninsular).

ADDRESS OF GRAND MASTER

To the Officers and Members of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana, Free and Accepted Masons.

Greetings:

Once again, a yearly milestone of Masonic history has rolled around and once again, we are assembled in the warm fraternal friendship which characterizes our every communication. To each of you I extend my heartiest thanks and congratulations for your unselfish and untiring labors during the past twelve months toward the cause of our institution. And to you distinguished guests from other jurisdictions, who have honored us by your presence, we extend our warmest greetings and we sincerely hope that your stay with us will be as pleasant as that enjoyed by our representatives as your guests.

Just one brief year past, your kind action conferred on me the high and important office of Grand Master and it was with deep and everlasting gratitude and with a profound sense of both humility and sense of duty that I entered into the official discharge of my duties, the termination of which will be marked by this our 146th Annual Communication.

It is with tremendous pride and happiness that we can look upon the year that is about to come to a close. Masonic activity in every section of our great state has taken terrific strides ahead. Interest in the forward advance of our fraternity appears to be at peak stage. These gains are mentioned as fruits of your victory as the credit for success belongs to the individual members who have so loyally supported the officers of local lodges as well as those of the Grand Lodge.

One of our new fields of endeavor and which is very near and dear to me is the Acacia Foundation, Inc., which through your generous support has had a successful start, but needs and merits your continued support. We should not make the mistake of underestimating the importance of this project. Further information on this subject will be given in another portion of this report.

We are gathered here in this great metropolis of our beloved Southland as men and Masons and it should be needless for me to say that we should act accordingly. We must be ever mindful of the fact that each of us is a witness for Masonry. It is through the daily life and conduct of each of us that impressions of our Order are formed by outsiders and it is my prayer that the conduct of each of us shall always be above reproach. And let us not forget that if the business to come before this meeting is to be dispatched both properly and quickly, your attention and assistance must be given. It is my intention to make our sessions as short as possible without sacrifice of proper consideration to important matters and your co-operation to this end will be very much appreciated.

(APPROVED. See page 183.)

NECROLOGY

It is eminently fitting and proper that we should pause in the deliberation of this Annual Communication to pay tribute to those of our Brethren who have been summoned to that Supreme Grand Lodge where the Great Architect of the Universe presides. We mourn the loss of our Brethren, but know that a way has been prepared to guide them; that the illuminating light of the Supreme Grand Master shall shine upon them and give them Eternal Peace.

The Grim Reaper entered the home of our Grand Organist, Brother Henri Wehrmann, on October 21, 1956 in the city of New Orleans where he resided for many years. The remains were interred the following day in one of the local cemeteries with Masonic ceremonies. May his soul rest in peace.

The Committee on Necrology will pay suitable tribute to our departed brethren.

MASONIC EDUCATION

(APPROVED. See page 171.)

Our Educational Committee has functioned so well the past few years that I deemed it wise to continue it without change. M:W: Brother Paul B. Habans, P. G. M., the Chairman, and his Committee are doing a good job of enlightening the Masons of our state and they are to be commended. You will find a complete report of their activities in their report.

DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

(APPROVED. See page 183.)

These distinguished brethren are personal representatives of the Grand Master throughout the state of Louisiana, and are responsible in a measure for the success or failure of the Grand Master's program of the year. These brethren have been most helpful to me this year in helping out with my overcrowded schedule, more particularly their interest and help with the Acacia Foundation Drive. My sincere thanks. I shall be forever grateful.

MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN

(APPROVED. See page 183.)

Our Children's Home at Alexandria is in fine shape, and should be the pride and joy of every Mason in our Grand Jurisdiction for here we put into practice that of which we teach and preach. I have met with the Board on several occasions this year, and I know first hand of their interest and self-sacrifice in promoting this great charity. M:W: Brother Dee A. Strickland, P. G. M., Chairman of the Board, will give you a detailed report of the Home's operation in which you will note we have acquired a new Superintendent, one who is eminently qualified and experienced.

CENTENNIAL PLAQUES

(APPROVED. See page 183.)

This year, four of our Lodges celebrated their Centennials, a hundred years of Masonic influence for the good of mankind in four different communities in our state and it was a happy privilege to present each of the following with a Plaque attesting to the fact that each has lived a hundred years:

July 1, 1956—Downsville 143, Downsville.

August 12, 1956—Athens 136, Athens.

September 9, 1956—Union Fraternal 53, Farmerville.

January 19, 1957—Ocean 144, New Orleans.

(APPROVED. See page 183.)

We sincerely commend this fine organization for the great amount of good they are doing in rendering service and relief to distressed brethren in our midst. We wish them God-speed in their next hundred years of labor.

SHREVEPORT-BOSSIER CITY RELIEF LODGE, U. D.

(APPROVED. See page 187.)

The brethren of Shreveport and Bossier City, seeing the fine work of Louisiana Relief Lodge No. 1, realized that they, too, had the same opportunity in North Louisiana. This group asked for a dispensation to organize a Relief Lodge in the Shreveport area to be known as Shreveport-Bossier City Relief Lodge. I agreed with the group and commissioned Bro. Elmer I. Gibson, D. G. M., to present the dispensation to this group on the evening of Saturday, August 11, 1956. Their labors are proving fruitful, and I recommend that this Grand Lodge issue a charter to this group to be known as the Shreveport-Bossier City Relief Lodge No. 2.

MASONIC RELIEF ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA

(APPROVED. See page 183.)

This organization is continuing its fine work—active and practical Masonry, exemplifying our great lessons of brotherly love, relief, and charity. Our Grand Lodge participates in the support of this fine organization. I urge the Lodges and brethren of the state to give what they can in a material way to this fine organization.

MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION

(APPROVED. See page 183.)

While in Washington this past February, our Grand Lodge was singularly honored by having your Grand Master elected to serve as Chairman of the Masonic Service Association Meeting. It was indeed a thrill to act as Chairman with so many distinguished Masons present.

The Masonic Service Association is doing a wonderful job of bringing cheer and hope to our hospitalized brethren in Veterans' Hospitals. It is my hope and plea to the Lodges of this state that they continue to urge the brethren to give liberally to this worthy cause.

THE WASHINGTON CONFERENCES

(APPROVED. See page 186.)

It was my privilege, accompanied by Mrs. Long, D. G. M. Elmer I. Gibson, and Mrs. Gibson; G. S. W., J. Benjamin Higginbotham and Mrs. Higginbotham; Grand Secretary D. Peter Laguens, Jr. and Mrs. Laguens; P. G. M. Dr. Louis A. Legett and Mrs. Legett; and P. G. M. Clarence Beasley, to attend the meetings of the Grand Masters and the Grand Secretaries Conferences and the annual meetings of the George Washington National Masonic Memorial Association and the Masonic Service Association held in Washington, D. C. this past February. Your Grand Master was honored while at Washington this past year by being elected to serve as Chairman of the Masonic Service Association Meetings. While in Washington, we were delighted to have with us during part of the functions P. G. M. Otto E. Passman. Programs were presented during each of the conferences that were very interesting and instructive; and we appreciated the many opportunities that were given to us to meet and discuss with the several Grand Masters present the many problems that concern our respective Grand Jurisdictions. I feel that these Conferences are most beneficial in that they afford an opportunity for us to come to know the thinking and problems in our Sister Grand Jurisdictions. Our Grand Lodge has been singularly honored in that our incoming Grand Master, Brother Elmer I. Gibson, has been given a part on this year's program. The subject which he will discuss at this year's meeting will be "Masonic Funerals."

VISITS TO SISTER GRAND JURISDICTIONS

(APPROVED. See page 186.)

Because of the press of Masonic work in the state, it was not possible for me to visit our Sister Grand Jurisdictions as I had planned. I did have the pleasure of visiting the Grand Lodge of Mississippi, was cordially received, and royally entertained. I feel that annual visits of the Grand Master to the neighboring Grand Lodges are in the best interest of our Fraternity, but then, our own Grand Lodge work comes first.

GRAND LECTURERS

During the past year, it has been my pleasure to work closely with our Grand Lecturers and I am very happy to report to you that they have been doing their very best to bring to our Lodges perfection in our ritual. From their monthly reports furnished me of their visits to the various Lodges, in which they gave attendance by members and officers, and performance of our ritual, etc., it is amazing to find that so many of our Lodge officers absent themselves from the meeting when the Grand Lecturer is present to instruct them in the proper exemplification of our ritual. In order that we may justify the expenditure of some 20% of our Grand Lodge budget for this purpose, it is imperative that our Lodges use to the fullest extent the services of these two brethren.

LODGES U. D.

(APPROVED. See pages 161 and 187.)

We have three Lodges under dispensation, namely, Justice U. D., Lake Charles; M. E. Girard U. D., Lafayette; and Iowa U. D., Iowa. Justice Lodge was placed under dispensation by P. G. M. Louis A. Legett, and I placed under dispensation on April 24 and 26 respectively the other two Lodges.

The brethren of these three Lodges under dispensation are doing a fine job with Masonry in their respective communities, and it is my recommendation that this Grand Lodge issue them charters that our Masonic influence might continue and grow in these communities.

ROSEPINE

(APPROVED. See page 184.)

In keeping with the Recommendation of the Appeals and Grievance Committee as approved at our last Grand Lodge session, requesting that the Grand Master at an early date, go to Rosepine and do what he thought necessary to restore peace and harmony. Upon investigation, I found that this Lodge was in a terribly confused condition resulting from strife which had plagued the Lodge for several years culminating in a trial in which a brother had been expelled. As you will remember at our last Grand Lodge Session, this brother was reinstated upon recommendation of the Appeals and Grievance Committee with the recommendation that I restore peace and harmony. I am happy to report that peace and harmony now prevail in Rosepine Lodge, and they are again doing good Masonic work. This was accomplished through a conference with the officers of Rosepine Lodge, and an agreement from 21 of the membership that they would demit from Rosepine Lodge for the best interest of all concerned. The demitting of these brethren brought about that for which we have hoped and prayed for the last several years. I do appreciate all the fine help given me in this endeavor, and the fine co-operation of the entire membership of this Lodge, in correcting this evil which had existed for so many years.

RULINGS

(ALL RULINGS APPROVED, however see Comments of Committee and Instructions for slight change in Ruling 9, pages 190, 191.)

1. Jennings 249: Request for ruling of Lodge jurisdiction on a candidate who has lived and worked in Louisiana for 19 months but has not lived in one locality for more than 3 months at a time; has purchased home in Jennings, Louisiana in last 3 months and intends to make it his permanent home.

From the information submitted to me showing that the candidate on different occasions during the 19 months had lived in Jennings a total of 8 months, I ruled that Jennings Lodge had jurisdiction and could receive his petition.

2. Oliver 84: Request for ruling on when to collect the $5.00 assessment in Resolution No. 15 of 1955 which was adopted at the 1956 Session. I ruled that the $5.00 assessment in Resolution No. 15 was to be collected after the candidate had been elected to M.M. Degree, but before the degree was conferred.

3. T. B. Gilbert 423: Request for ruling on whether a candidate who is crippled and had to wear a built-up shoe and brace was eligible to take the Degrees in Masonry and whether it would be permissible for him to wear the built-up shoe and brace in the conferring of the Degree.

The test of eligibility for one who is crippled is—can he give the required steps and signs in a reasonable and acceptable manner by the use of natural or artificial members. Therefore, I ruled that the candidate was eligible and it was permissible for him to wear the built-up shoe and brace in the conferring of the Degrees and the Lodge was to be the sole judge as to his ability to give the signs and steps in a proper manner.

4. Queensborough 418: Requested ruling on whether Amaranth organization is eligible to meet in Masonic Hall. I feel that the Amaranth organization is as acceptable to meet in a Masonic hall as those organizations listed in our Handbook of Masonic Law on page 126, Edict No. 6. In this statement, I feel that the Amaranth was overlooked and should have been included.

I ruled that the Amaranth may meet in Masonic Lodge halls with the permission of the Lodge.

5. Cedar Grove 403: "Can we receive the petition of a candidate who has lived in Shreveport from May of 1953 to March of 1954; in New Orleans from March of 1954 to August of 1955; in Abilene, Texas from August of 1955 to February of 1956; and back in Shreveport from February, 1956 to July 19, his employment having been such that he has been unable to establish residence in any jurisdiction in the last 3 years. He now owns a home in Shreveport and plans on making it permanent."

I ruled that the candidate having lived in Shreveport for a period of 12 months on different occasions in the past 3 years and now making it his permanent home, is in the jurisdiction of Cedar Grove 403, and they may receive his petition.

6. Livingston 160: Requesting permission to repaint O.E.S. emblem which had been painted on the floor of the Lodge hall some 20 or 30 years ago. Our law prohibits the painting or inlaying of the O.E.S. emblem in Masonic Lodge hall floors. Therefore, I ruled that it be removed.

7. Millerton 245: "On March 27, in a ballot taken for reinstatement of a brother who had been suspended for more than 3 years the ballot being 28 for and 2 against. As Master, I declared the applicant reinstated under the two-thirds rule. Now being cognizant of the amendment to the General Regulations, Article 11, Section 3, page 41 in the Handbook of Masonic Law, I would like to be instructed in the proper procedure to correct this error."

In this case, I ruled that the applicant was rejected for reinstatement in spite of the fact that the W. Master ruled him reinstated and that current dues card issued him by the Secretary must be taken up and the money for the current year's dues returned to him and that he be allowed to petition again, the petition taking the usual course.

8. Lee E. Thomas 421: Requested ruling as to the legality of a Masonic Lodge investing their surplus funds in bonds issued by a church to finance a building program.

I rule that, in my judgment, the Grand Master could not determine the wisdom of the Lodge in investing their own funds so long as they complied strictly with the applicable Edicts. I feel that it is the responsibility of the membership of the Lodge to decide if they want to invest in the bonds issued by a church. I would be sure that the membership understands thoroughly what is being done, for investment in any particular church might well be questioned, for you would be joining in a sectarian enterprise that could well be offensive to some members who hold pronounced religious views contrary to those of the particular group.

9. Solomon 220: "If a member of the Armed Forces living in Pineville petitions a Lodge in Alexandria, Louisiana, will the Lodge in Alexandria have to get a waiver on the petition?"

After reading Article 6 of the General Regulations beginning with Line 6, I ruled as follows:

If the applicant in question was a resident of the state of Louisiana prior to his enlistment in the Armed Forces, he can apply to any Lodge in the state. If not, then Edict No. 17 on page 124 of the Handbook of Masonic Law applies.

(SEE SPECIAL COMMENTS OF COMMITTEE AND THEIR INSTRUCTIONS FOR A SLIGHT CHANGE IN WORDING, PAGES 190, 191.)

10. David R. Graham 413: Ruling requested on the following three questions regarding visitors to a Lodge:

1. "Must the objecting brother be present at the time of objection?"
2. "Can a member not present convey his objection through another brother?"
3. "Is an objection perpetual or is it limited to the meeting during which the objection occurred?"

I ruled that a member must be present at a meeting to object to a visitor. It naturally follows from the above thinking that the objector should, of necessity, have to be present and could not convey his objection through a third party. An objection to a visitor at a meeting covers that particular meeting only. If circumstances are such that the Brother objected to which would make him unworthy of Masonic association, then the objector should file charges and air the whole matter.

File covering these matters has been turned over to the Law and Jurisprudence Committee for review and report to Grand Lodge.

COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS

(APPROVED. See page 190.)

After Grand Lodge closed last year, I appointed the necessary Committee Chairmen and Committee members to carry on our Grand Lodge work. It has been necessary to make only 1 reappointment since that time. On October 23, 1956, the Grand Secretary informed me that our Grand Organist, Brother Henri Wehrmann, had passed away on Sunday, October 21. Brother Wehrmann has served our Grand Lodge long and well, and he will be missed at this Grand Session. I appointed in his place to serve for the remainder of the term, our Associate Grand Organist, Brother H. Barnes Turner.

STATE OF THE ORDER

(APPROVED. See page 183.)

I am happy to report that peace and harmony prevail throughout our Grand Jurisdiction. Our brethren have come to the realization of their great heritage as Masons and as a result most of our Lodges are taking their place in the community radiating that influence which is pleasing to the Great Architect of the Universe.

It has been my privilege and pleasure this year to present 4 centennial plaques, constitute 3 new Lodges, place under dispensation 2 Lodges, lay 7 cornerstones, approve plans and finance programs for 5 new Lodge Halls, approve the plans and finance programs for the complete renovating of 1 Lodge Hall, and dedicate 13 new Lodge Halls all to the glory of God.

Our membership continues to increase. We are now within easy reach of that undreamed of membership which a few years ago seemed impossible, that unattainable number of 50,000 Masons in the Grand Jurisdiction of Louisiana. Although it is quality and not numbers in which we interest ourselves, it is pleasing to know more and more good men are being attracted.

ACACIA FRATERNITY

(APPROVED. See page 183.)

In October of 1955, M:W: Brother Louis A. Legett, the then Grand Master, granted permission to a group of Masons in Baton Rouge, who were working with the Acacia Fraternity at L.S.U., to appear before the Grand Lodge and explain the problems confronting them in the formation of a Chapter at L.S.U., the purposes of Acacia, the requirements for membership, the Masonic history and background of Acacia, and the need for a Chapter House at L.S.U. brother John A. Hunter, Registrar at L.S.U., spoke to the Grand Lodge. Then with the Grand Lodge at recess, Brother Lenton Sartain and Mr. Tom Cox, President of the Acacia Colony at L.S.U., explained in detail what these young men were trying to do. An account of this presentation is found on page 201 of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of the State of La., F. & A. M. for 1956.

In February of 1956, the group of young men received their charter from the National Fraternity, and an official Chapter of the Acacia Fraternity at L.S.U. came into being.

A building corporation known as The Acacia Foundation of La. State University, Inc., a non-profit corporation composed entirely of Master Masons, was organized for the purpose of soliciting funds for holding title to the fraternity house.

On June 6, 1956, permission was requested to circularize the Masons of Louisiana for the purpose of soliciting funds for the construction of an Acacia House on the campus of L.S.U. I granted permission on the same date.

Under date of June 9, 1956, I wrote a letter to the Master, Officers and Brethren of each Lodge in the State, advising of the permission granted to circularize the Lodges, and asking that my letter be read in open Lodge, that each Lodge appoint a chairman, and that each member be asked to contribute to the best of his ability.

Under date of June 11, 1956, I wrote a letter to each Master Mason under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge, asking their aid and support.

This letter, together with a bank draft, and self-addressed envelope, was distributed through the respective Lodge secretaries.

Area chairmen were appointed and the drive commenced.

Contributions amounting to $16,000.00 were received through the initial letter. Then the individual Lodges were to conduct a person to person contact.

As of this date the sum of $70,000.00 has been raised, though this sum is short of the initial amount of $125,000.00 asked. The contributions are still coming in, and the Lodges are still conducting their person to person drive.

With the amount of funds on hand, the building corporation was able to get an extension from the University on the last remaining fraternity plot. Preliminary plans were presented to the Board of Supervisors of Louisiana State University and approved on January 19, 1957. The architect is now drafting final plans and specifications. Bids will be received and then final financing will be arranged. Construction will commence shortly and the house should be occupied in September, 1957, at the opening of the school year.

The additional funds necessary for the completion of the house and for its furnishings will be forthcoming through additional contributions and mortgage. The amount of the mortgage will depend upon the contributions yet to be received. The project, though not complete, is assured of success. I again urge the Brethren to send their contributions and to continue their efforts.

Credit for the completion and success of this undertaking must be given to the several hundred of our Brethren who took the initiative in their area and individual Lodges, who gave unselfishly of their time and finances to advance the cause of Masonry in Louisiana. Contributions ranged from $1.00 to $1,000.00, as each Mason gave to the best of his ability. Masons of our jurisdiction stationed in every corner of the world answered this challenge. It is my opinion that generations to come will rejoice in and benefit from the result of this step forward in the advancement of Masonry on the campus of our State University at Baton Rouge.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

(APPROVED. See page 184.)

As the year draws to a close, I find myself deeply and everlastingly indebted to those countless numbers of our Fraternity who have been more than willing at any and all times to extend to me help and co-operation in the performance of my duties. Space does not permit me to recount even a small number of such acknowledgments, and I avail myself of this opportunity to express to each and every one of you my deep appreciation for your kindness to me throughout the year.

A word of special thanks is merited by those who capably helped to bring the Acacia Foundation, Inc. to a successful conclusion and without whose efforts failure of this most important undertaking would have resulted.

I tender to all Grand Lodge Officers and Committee Members my sincerest thanks for their fine service throughout the year. I feel bound to acknowledge with the greatest gratitude the help and co-operation given me by one whom we all love dearly--our Grand Secretary, Right Worshipful Brother D. Peter Laguens, Jr. I know of no better way to express my feelings than to say that to me he was what a coach is to a team; a manager is to a fighter; and a parent is to a child.

It has often been said of various organizations that their chief strength lies in their past head officers. No one knows better than I just how true this is of our own Grand Lodge. The continued and ever present support and co-operation extended to me throughout the year by our Past Grand Masters was of inestimable value in my humble efforts to keep our organization on a safe course. Their loyalty and devotion was a constant inspiration to me, and I shall continue always to feel the love, admiration, and gratitude which I now bear for them.

RECOMMENDATION:

(APPROVED. See ADOPTED Resolution No. 6 to implement this recommendation. See pages 191, 192.)

1. It is a long and well established requirement in Grand Lodge Jurisprudence that a Dispensation for a new Lodge by the Grand Master must have the approval of the Lodge nearest the proposed new Lodge. This requirement should in my judgment be modified in the case of Lodges holding concurrent jurisdiction to require the approval of only one concurrent Lodge as a sponsor; and only that all other concurrent Lodges be notified of the application and be allowed to file any opposition to the Dispensation with their reasons with the Grand Master within 30 days; their silence to be construed as approval. In case of objection the Grand Master should investigate fully and his decision be conclusive. If the Grand Master overruled the objections to the Dispensation the matter would automatically come before the Grand Lodge before a Charter could be granted.

I have asked the committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence to submit appropriate legislation to implement this recommendation.

CONCLUSION

"Conclusion" has an Ominous sound, and even its definition expresses itself in the same manner—final decision, end. However, it is not my intention to be harnessed to such a word or definition as I lay aside the working tools of a Grand Master.

In elevating me to the highest office that you could bestow upon one of the Craft, you have given me the right and opportunity to observe "Masons at Work" in my visits to Lodges within this Grand Jurisdiction of Louisiana. This, in turn, has given me a deep feeling of belonging intimately to each Lodge; it has given me countless enduring friendships and an abundance of glorious memories that will last till time shall be no more.

Masonry is not a material thing; it is a science of the soul. It is not merely a creed or doctrine, but a universal expression of the Divine Wisdom. We are dedicated to Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth, and there is no doubt in our minds that the freedom of worship that we hold dear and enjoy is the keystone to all freedoms. With the destruction of this freedom, mankind has nothing upon which to cling; civilization would crumble and be destroyed. Masonry does not subscribe to any particular creed or cult. But, it does require that anyone accepted within its precepts must affirm a belief in a Supreme Being. We stand as soldiers in the great Masonic army of the world; we guard with vigilance that priceless heritage passed down to us through the years and which is now in our keeping. Our cause is just. Faith in the ideals and principles of our institution is unwavering.

The spirit of friendship and brotherhood, graciousness, respect and co-operation have been ever present. I regret my inability to ever properly repay you for your magnificent consideration throughout this past year. Again, let me express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the greatest honor and most distinct privilege which is in your power to confer—that of Most Worshipful Grand Master. I hope that I have fulfilled the confidence that you have placed in me, and at least, in a measure, lived up to your expectations.

Thank you, Brethren, and may the Grand Architect of the Universe bless and watch over you, now and forevermore.

Fraternally submitted,

D. ALLEN LONG,
Grand Master

REPORT OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

The Grand Secretary, R:W: Bro. D. Peter Laguens, Jr., made the following report, which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

This office is again privileged to render a report of the year's activities and the accomplishments of the Fraternity in our State.

Proceedings Published

Immediately after the close of the last Annual Communication, this office began the preparation of copy for the printing of our Annual Proceedings. After the completion of same a copy was mailed to all Grand Lodge officers, Past Grand Masters, Committee members, and to each of the constituent Lodges in the State, as also to the Grand Lodges in fraternal relations with us.

Rosters

We continue to print the full rosters each year. This practice is of benefit to both the Lodges and this office because the membership roster is kept current each year. Continued inaccuracies developed in the preparation of the rosters of the 1956 Proceedings and if the secretaries will carefully check their reports it will greatly assist us in keeping their roster of membership and the records in this office correct.

District Deputy Grand Masters

By authority of our Grand Master, the usual Commissions for the District Deputy Grand Masters throughout the State were issued by this office.

Certificates

Certificates were authorized issued to all elected and appointed officers, as well as committeemen and holders of porficiency certificates, indicating their election or appointment as such.

Twenty-five and Fifty-Year Certificates

By authority of the Grand Lodge, my office personnel continues to prepare gold and silver certificates for brothers entitled to same and requested by the lodges interested. This service is available to all the lodges without cost. All that is necessary is to send in the name, the date of raising, which will be checked in this office and the certificates furnished without cost through the courtesy of the Service Committee. Since it entails considerable time to verify the records of those eligible, the requests for same should be filed with my office far in advance of the date scheduled for the presentation of the Certificates.

Centennial Plaques

These plaques are available for all Lodges celebrating their Centennials. Several Lodges have failed to celebrate their Centennials. Plaques have been made and await the pleasure of those Lodges. The Resolution of authority requires them to be presented by the Grand Master or his representative.

Monthly Circular

The customary Monthly Circular to cover reports from the secretaries of the work done by the various lodges throughout the State has been discontinued by authority of the Grand Lodge. Special items or notes of interest to the Craft have been issued in Special Bulletins. During 1954, we inaugurated the system of monthly reports, wherein complete information was furnished by the Lodges, thereby assisting us to keep our card record system up to date. The annual report now contains only a recapitulation of the figures, but not the names, etc. We again call your attention to the necessity of furnishing age information which is of value when this office is requested to furnish such information to a brother to support his age information for Social Security or Old Age benefit purposes.

Commissions Issued and Received

Certificates of Good Standing

Certificates of good standing have been issued on request to members of defunct lodges.

Lodges Under Dispensation

By authority of Grand Master Legett dispensations were issued to two (2) new lodges. Dates and details in Grand Master's report.

Lodges Constituted

By authority of the 1956 Grand Lodge session three (3) Lodges were constituted. Dates and details in Grand Master's report.

Forfeiture of Charter

None.

Consolidation of Lodges

None.

Duplicate Charters

Two (2) Duplicate Charters were issued on approval of the Grand Master.

Corner Stones Laid

Upon invitation eight (8) corner stones were laid.

See Grand Master's report for dates and details.

Lodge Halls Dedicated

Thirteen (13) Lodge Halls were dedicated.

See Grand Master's report for dates and details.

Lodges Delinquent

Lodges Failing to File Returns

None.

Visitations

It was my pleasure to visit many of the Lodges in the City of New Orleans thruout the year, as also in several sections of the State.

It was my pleasure to journey with our Grand Master to Washington, D. C. to attend the several Conferences and meetings held in our Nation's Capitol February of last year. I consider these meetings of great value to our Grand Lodge.

Statistics for Louisiana for 1956

We are happy to again report an increase in our membership. The Lodges thruout the State have been constantly busy with Degree Work and from the reports received this condition will continue.

REPORT OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE GRAND LODGE HALL

The Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Grand Lodge Hall, R:W: Bro. D. Peter Laguens, Jr., made the following report which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings:

REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN

The Chairman of the Board of Trustees Masonic Home for Children, M:W: Bro. Dee A. Strickland, made the following report, which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

Brethren:

I submit herewith my annual report of the operations of the Masonic Home for Children for the year ending December 31st, 1956. We have held our four regular meetings of the Board for the year.

On January 1st, 1956 I received from Brother T. L. Cochran his resignation as Superintendent of the Home effective March 1st, 1956. I received several applications for the position of Superintendent. After careful screening of the applications by a committee appointed, Brother Frank Stevens, who has been assistant Superintendent of the Baptist Children's Home of Monroe for a number of years, was employed as Superintendent.

At our first meeting on March 3rd, the new Board was organized. I was elected Chairman; M:W: Brother Alex L. Stephens, Vice-Chairman; M:W: Brother George A. Treadwell, Secretary-Treasurer.

Since Brother Gayle resigned from the Board, we did not have an attorney as a member of the Board, and at times we need on the spot legal advice. I appointed Brother Morris Shapiro as local consulting attorney for the Board with the approval and concurrence of Grand Lodge Attorney, Oliver H. Dabezies. The Board approved the appointment.

The House and Grounds Committee composed of M:W: Brother W. S. Kingrey, M:W: Brother Alex L. Stephens and W: Brother Henry Palfrey, deserves a great deal of praise for the splendid work they have done in looking after the properties of the Home. There were several minor repairs done during the year. Major repairs were on the Superintendent's cottage, which was completely done over on the inside. New paper and woodwork painted. Central heating was installed, and several items of furniture were purchased. A new tennis and basketball court with lifetime backstops was put down by the city of Alexandria, at cost of materials. During the Christmas season the city decorated the main building with Christmas lights.

The health of the children has been very good this year. Dr. Aubry White looks after the general health of the children. Dr. Banks, a bone specialist, has taken care of bone fractures, which he has done free of charge. Dr. M. F. Jarrell takes care of the dental needs.

We have forty-two children in the Home at the present time, ranging in age from 3 to 18 years. We have thirteen in high school and twenty-four in grammar school. Three girls will graduate from high school in May, and are planning on going to college after graduation. We had four of our children to finish college and business school the past year, which was made possible by the Educational Fund of the Home.

We encourage all our children to participate in the extra curricular activities of their schools. This year two boys played football at Bolton High School, and four boys are playing at Cherokee Grammar School. One boy played little league baseball during the summer. Two girls are in the Bolton High School Choir, and one in the Chorus. Bettie McGee, one of our seniors, was chosen from Bolton to attend Leadership Conference this summer. Eliska Weber, also a senior, was elected to attend Pelican State at Louisiana State University.

We are grateful to the churches of Alexandria for the interest they have shown in our children, and we appreciate this fine cooperation. The children attend the church of their choice or that of their parents. They are encouraged to take an active part in the social life and all programs of their church. We have seven boys who belong to the R.A.'s of the Baptist Church.

We have a full recreational program for the children for after school hours, and during the summer. We have a tennis, and basketball court, softball diamond, badminton sets, and many other games for them to play. New slides and swings were placed on the grounds during the year.

Four boys are members of the Boy Scouts. A new troop has been organized in our neighborhood and holds its meetings at the Home. Seven boys are members of the Cub Scouts. We have three different Packs in our neighborhood. One of the girls is a member of the Girl Scouts.

The children have been provided with wonderful recreation and entertainment during the year. Nearly all of them had a three weeks vacation during the month of July with relatives and friends. It will be impossible to mention all, but would like to mention a few of the nice things done for the children this year. Golden Link Chapter No. 57, O.E.S. Boyce, gave the children an Easter Egg Hunt. Mrs. E. B. Rogers of Pineville gave eggs for an Easter Egg Hunt. Brother O. C. Geisinger, of Level Lodge No. 373, gave Easter Egg candy for all of the children.

The Lodge at St. Martinville, had the children down for a week-end in June. They entertained the children in their homes. The Lodge at Lafayette, had the children down for the Shrine Circus. The Exchange Club and Knights of Columbus each gave the children a picnic. The Cenla Shrine Club entertained the children at their annual barbecue. The Lions Club gave tickets for their annual Rodeo.

The clubs and citizens of Alexandria, see that the children attend a great many different forms of entertainment. Such as the Tommy Scott Show, the Passion Play, the Centenary Choir, and the Clyde Beatty Circus. The tickets for the Circus were provided by the Order of Moose.

The DAHRAF Ladies send each child a gift on their birthday. Oliver Lodge No. 84, in Alexandria gave each child $3.00 to do Christmas shopping. Mrs. H. M. Sammons sent $150.00 to be divided among the children for Christmas. M:W: Brother Thomas W. Sharp sent $40.00 to pay for help so the children would not have to work on Christmas Day.

The children all had a wonderful Christmas. They had their Christmas tree on Christmas Eve Night. Every one received gifts: The Cenla Shrine Club gave a Christmas Party on December 19th, giving each child a present. The American Legion gave a Christmas Party on December 17th, presenting each child with a gift.

We have had visits from several Masonic and Allied groups during the year. These visits are always a source of great pleasure to the children. The members of the Board and the staff of the Home welcome and would like to encourage as many of these visits as possible.

The Order of DeMolay held their state-wide meeting here during the summer. The Ninth District held a meeting and served a barbecue and presented a program. The Eighth District served a picnic lunch and presented a program. Mr. J. N. Howze from Port Sulphur, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter R. Fischziur from Empire, Louisiana, brought the children bushels of nice Louisiana oranges and tangerines. They also, brought gallons of oysters, which they prepared along with a nice salad. They have been doing this for the children for the past eleven years.

The Annual Homecoming of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star this year headed by Sister Inez Miller Worthy Grand Matron and Brother John W. Able Worthy Grand Patron, was another huge success. Over 600 members and their families were present. Church services were held at 10:00 a.m. and afterwards a very interesting program was held. At the conclusion of the program a wonderful basket picnic was served with plenty of food for all. The Grand Chapter presented the Home with complete kitchen equipment, including two electric ranges, a deep fat fryer, and broiler, two stainless steel sinks, and one stainless steel table, also, a large supply of can goods, dish towels, aprons, and other nice gifts.

At our October Board meeting we had a birthday party for all Octogenarians who are present or past members of the Board. All Past Grand Masters and their wives were invited for the occasion. We had a large representation in attendance from this group. We are always happy to have this fine group of Masons visit the Home, and especially to see that they still have a keen interest in the Home.

Two outstanding gifts received by the Home this year was a bequest of $3,000.00 made by Edwin O. Cook of Houston, Texas, and a $500.00 bequest from Mrs. Atela Ann Olson Brener, of New Orleans, Louisiana.

The memorial gifts from the Lodges and members over the state have been very good this year. We would like to encourage this way of giving to the Home as much as possible. This is a wonderful way to honor our friends and loved ones.

The response that we have received from the Children's Home Banks that various Lodges are using to make contributions to the Masonic Children's Home Educational Fund has been very gratifying this year, and it is the hope of the Superintendent and the entire membership of the Board that every Lodge in the state will use this bank. Any Lodge interested in obtaining a bank, can get one by writing to Brother Frank Stevens, Superintendent of the Home. As you know we have made this into an Endowment Fund and only the income from this Fund is used. At the present time we are able to send our children to college who graduate from high school while in the Home. Also, when there is more income than is needed for the children of the Home, we can assist worthy children of Master Masons who are not financially able to finance their education.

In 1955, the Grand Lodge approved a new set of rules to govern admission of children to the Home. These rules include permission to the Board to accept applications of children of non-Masonic parentage. I would like to again quote Rule No. 1 and 2 covering such applications.

1. A child whose father is (or was at the time of his death) a member in good standing of a Lodge of Master Masons, under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana, F. & A. M., will be given preference over a child with no Masonic connections. A child of other Masonic connections or a child of non-Masonic parentage may be considered for admission to the Home at any time when the population of the Home is not closer than 15 to the nominal capacity of the Home.
2. In every case application for the admission of a child shall be authorized and made by a constituent Lodge of the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana, F. & A. M. In a case of Masonic parentage the Lodge of which the father is (or was at the time of his death) a member shall make application for the admission of the child, but facts not known to said Lodge may be certified by the Lodge nearest the residence of the child. Application for the admission of a child of other Masonic connection, or of no Masonic connection shall be made by the Lodge nearest the child's place of residence. Upon securing an application for admission from the Superintendent of the Home, the Master and Secretary of the Lodge will execute the application, answering all questions as fully as possible, and supplementing any additional information which, in their opinion, would be of value to the Board of Trustees and the Superintendent in determining the eligibility of the child and in dealing with it, should it be admitted.

Lodges are advised to have applicants carefully examined by a competent physician, preferably a member of the Craft, to determine whether they are defective or otherwise ineligible. Children, on arrival at the Home, will be thoroughly examined by the Home physician, whose decision on their eligibility, from a physical and mental standpoint, will be final.

While we have some unpleasant experiences in looking after the Home and the children, we have some happy experiences also. I would like for you to read some of the letters that we have received from some of the children who have finished college. Their college education was financed from our Children's Home Educational Fund. These letters will certainly warm your hearts, and make you feel proud that you are a member of this great organization.

Dr. Dee A. Strickland, Chairman
Board of Trustees
Monroe, Louisiana

Dear Dr. Strickland:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and the other members of the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home for Children for everything that you have done for me in the past ten years.

As you know, I will graduate from Northwestern State College this month. I plan to work in Shreveport after my graduation.

It has been a pleasure knowing all through high school and college that I had such fine guardians as the Masons of Louisiana.

Thank you again for everything that you have made possible for me to do. I am sure that I shall never cease to be grateful to such a wonderful organization.

Sincerely,

JUDITH M. HOLLOWAY

Dr. Strickland

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you to express my appreciation for all you and the Home have done for me. I had to get out on my own before I ever realized what the Home meant to me. I hate to say this, but while I was in the Home I couldn't always see some of the things I had to do. I now realize what a great responsibility a Superintendent of the Home has. I only wish I could have seen the light while I was a child in the Home and could have been a little more help rather than get into mischief all the time.

I wish I had helped Brother McKnight more, but I didn't and now I regret it. Brother Mc sure gave me a helping hand more times than I deserved them. I shall always be in debt to the Home and Brother Mc.

I have finished by General Business Course at Draughon's and I am at the present working for the Department of Education. I still attend school at night trying to finish up my higher accounting.

I still have a lot to learn about life but I'm looking forward to it and I think I do alright based on the learning I received in the Home.

I look forward to the day when I too, shall become a Mason.

ALVIN LOUIS STELL

Baton Rouge, Louisiana

3. Dear Members of the Board:

There are so many things I could thank you for, that I hardly know how to put my appreciation into words.

However, I do want you to know I realize how much you have done for me. The Home played a big role in developing my life and the hours are few that I would not choose to live over again.

I would like to ask one more small favor, if there is ever any work I can do or any contributions I can make, please notify me at:

Mrs. L. H. Whitt

St. Petersburg, Florida

I do not have a permanent address as my husband is going into the service as a Lieutenant and we will be traveling a lot. But my mother-in-law will forward it to us.

Thank you again, I remain,

Respectfully yours,

MAGDALENE WEBER

4. I answered each letter with a letter of the kind that follows:

I received your letter of thanks this morning addressed to me and the members of the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home for Children for the things that the Masons of the state of Louisiana have done for you.

I want to say to you that we deeply appreciate the nice letter that you have written and the thanks you have expressed. We all want you to know that we consider it a privilege to be able to help people who need help and we hope that we have placed you in a position now to take your place in this country and we feel sure that you will measure up to all of the standards which we had hoped for in you and other children of the Home.

Since you go out on your own now, we want you to still feel that the Masonic Home is your home. We want you to come back and visit us real often.

With kindest, personal regards, I am,

Sincerely,

DR. DEE A. STRICKLAND

We have had a great number of Masons visit the Home during the year, and it is the sincere desire of the Superintendent and Mrs. Stevens, the staff and the members of the Board of Trustees of the Home, that every Mason in the state will avail himself of the opportunity of visiting the Home. Here you will find Masonry doing its noblest work dispelling the anxiety and loneliness of those left in our care.

Fraternally submitted,

DEE A. STRICKLAND, P.G.M.,
Chairman of the Board of Trustees

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR

The Grand Lodge Auditor, M:W: Bro. George A. Treadwell, P. G. M., presented his report which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

In pursuance of my appointment as auditor by the Most Worshipful Grand Master, I have examined the financial statements of the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana for the year ended December 31, 1956 and present the following report, including the exhibits and schedules listed in the attached index.

I have reviewed the accounting procedures and, without making a fully detailed audit of all transactions, have examined or tested the accounting records and other supporting evidence in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards applicable in the circumstances and including all procedures which I considered necessary.

In the preparation of the accompanying statements, the $5,000.00 designed to be set aside, annually, for the Cemetery Endowment Fund has not been set up, as owing to lessening of receipts, the entire receipts for the year were somewhat more than used otherwise. If the Grand Lodge desires, under the circumstances to continue the dedication, a book entry can be made charging it to the general fund and crediting it to the Cemetery Fund.

In my opinion the accompanying statements of assets and liabilities and the related statements of revenues and expenses, with explanatory notes and subject to the related qualifications and possible minor adjustments present fairly the financial position of the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

The main burden of business management has continued to be taken care of by the Grand Treasurer, under the supervision of the House Committee of the Board of Hall Directors, all without compensation.

Fraternally submitted,

GEORGE A. TREADWELL,

Certified Public Accountant

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE FOREIGN RELATIONS REPORT

Brethren:

The following items are reported to you because of (1) their importance in the field of fraternal relations between Grand Lodges, or (2) their general interest.

Grand Lodge of Turkey: From a draft of an interesting and informative letter written to the Masonic Service Association by Brother Realf Ottesen, Past Grand Master of Iowa, we learn that the Grand Lodge of Turkey was organized at Istanbul with 21 constituent Lodges on February 5, 1956. The organizing group of Lodges had originally been formed by the Supreme Council of Turkey. The Supreme Council is said to have made public announcement of its recognition of the fact that there should be no direct relationship between the Symbolic Lodges and the Supreme Council. We read further that, " * * * the Supreme Council published its declaration of June 20, 1955, by which full sovereignty was recognized for the Symbolic degrees of the country." We read this to mean that the Supreme Council of Turkey has renounced jurisdiction over and connection with the Symbolic Lodges. "All Turkish Masons belonging to the fourth or above degrees are requested and obliged to be the regular members of the Symbolic Lodges." M:W: Brother Ottesen expresses the opinion that the Grand Lodge of Turkey is the Masonic Authority in that land, and he earnestly urges that Grand Lodges in America accord it recognition.

We have had no request for recognition, and have made no study of the advisability of extending recognition at this time.

United Grand Lodge of Germany: We are in receipt of a letter from Dr. Theodor Vogel, M:W: Past Grand Master, United Grand Lodge of Germany, from which we observe that fourteen Lodges were chartered by that Grand Lodge during the year 1955/1956, all of which are working in the English language.

France: We regret to read in M:W: Ray V. Denslow's interim report as Chairman of the Masonic Service Association's Committee on Foreign Relations, that the idea of a consolidation of the Grand Lodge of France and the National Grand Lodge Francaise has been almost abandoned, because the former believes the terms of the proposed consolidation are too one-sided. We are in fraternal correspondence with the Grand Lodge of France.

China: From the same report we learn that the Grand Lodge of China "functions out of Taiwan, Formosa. Methodist Bishop, Ralph A. Ward is the new Grand Master; Dr. W. K. Au is Grand Secretary." Address P. O. Box 758, Taipei, Taiwan, Formosa.

Guatemala: A year ago we reported to you that the schism in the Grand Lodge of Guatemala had been healed, and that assurances had been had that the Masonic Temple would be open without any restriction on the part of the Government.

Since that time two rival Grand Lodges have developed. One refers to the other as "the Government-controlled Grand Lodge," and in return is designated, "the dissident Bianchi group." M:W: Brother Denslow reports, "The Cardona-Bianchi group is recognized by all the Latin-American groups; they bear the approval of the Inter-American Confederacion, without which no Grand Lodge can prosper in Latin America."

The return of relative prosperity and a more stable government to Guatemala may be expected to react favorably upon the Masonic situation in that country. We are not prepared to suggest a change in fraternal relations at this time.

Mexico: A dispute of many year's standing, between the York Grand Lodge of Mexico and Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico has been "brought to a head" by M:W: Eugenio Maldonado, Grand Master, Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico. M:W: Brother Maldonado has issued a lengthy edict which he entitles, LAW FOR THE DEFENSE OF MASONIC DIGNITY. The essence of this edict is a decree that all Grand Lodges in fraternal relations with both York Grand Lodge of Mexico and Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico (The Grand Lodge of Louisiana is in Fraternal relations with both Grand Lodges); those Grand Lodges that, " * * * accept for themselves the principle of sovereignty and exclusive jurisdiction within their territory, but do not accept it as legitimate and good when it is or might be so proclaimed by other Grand Lodges," be subject to withdrawal of fraternal relations "of any kind whatsoever" by Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico.

We have discussed this unfortunate situation with interested, well-informed brethren, and have carefully studied the scholarly letter presented by the Committee on Standards for Recognition set up by the Conference of Grand Masters. We recommend that no action be taken by this session of Grand Lodge.

Acknowledgments: We take this occasion to express our appreciation of the useful information and literature that comes to us from the Committee on Standards for Recognition, which reports to the Conference of Grand Masters, and the reports we receive from the Masonic Service Association's Committee on Foreign Relations.

Fraternally submitted,

REPORT OF GRAND LECTURERS

The Grand Lecturers, R:W: Brothers Junius B. Sharp and John S. Burgess made their reports which were received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

My Brethren:

Another year is history since we last assembled in our Annual Grand Communication, and we are thankful to the Supreme Architect of the Universe for the privilege of this social and fraternal intercourse with our Brethren.

In submitting this, my annual report, to the Grand Lodge, permit me to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation for the privilege of serving you again in the very important office of Grand Lecturer.

Visitations have been made to all the Lodges in my jurisdiction during the past year. I am happy to report that the attendance was better than in the previous year. This is very gratifying. However, again there is a pause for reflection. It would appear that the larger Lodges would have the best attendance. The figures indicate that the larger the Lodge, the smaller the attendance in proportion to the whole membership. The smaller Lodges, with some exceptions, are experiencing the same difficulty.

It is my firm conviction that one of our most serious weaknesses is our failure to require instruction for the NEW MASTER MASONS. Our law requires that they recite the catechism of the Third Degree or wait six months before petitioning for the so called higher degrees. About one out of fifty ever learn the catechism of that degree. After a candidate has received the Master Mason Degree, he must still travel alone and pray for himself if he is to make any further progress into our mysteries. Fortitude and Fidelity, indeed, must this seeker for Light and Knowledge have, if he is to find that Light unassisted and unencouraged by those who have gone before him. I am not so naive as to believe that because an opportunity is provided to obtain that information, that every new Master Mason would avail himself of it. But neither do I believe that this fact excuses us from using every means in our power to encourage the use of it.

Schools of Instruction were also held in the city of New Orleans in the Spring and Fall of the past year, with fair attendance. I am very grateful to the New Orleans Certificate Association for its assistance and fine cooperation in conducting those schools. All Certificate Associations, in my jurisdiction, have been visited one or more times during the year and all are to be commended for their accomplishments. Only by working together have men accomplished anything. Every Mason, who has ever taken part in Masonic activities, has contributed to the growth and progress of the Fraternity. Masonry is a grand, grand thing, but in practice it can be nothing more than we make it.

To serve you need not set the world afire with eloquence of tongue or pen
But you must fill a lasting, deep desire
To help each day your fellowmen.

Approximately 160 certificates of proficiency were issued over my signature at the time this report is written, quite a number of which were new cards. These proficient brothers can and will assist in perfecting others, if given the opportunity, and the ritualistic work will be much more impressive.

The Deputy Grand Lecturers, with one or two exceptions, have performed their duties well and they have my sincere thanks for a job well done.

I have endeavored, at all times, to cooperate with our Grand Master and in turn have had his complete cooperation. He has given freely of his time and talent in promoting proficiency in the Esoteric Work. All the other Grand Lodge officers and the Permanent Committee on Work have contributed to the efforts of the Grand Lecturers in the performance of their duties. For which we are truly grateful.

We conclude this report with an expression of heart-felt thanks and gratitude to the brethren throughout the state for their many acts of kindness and courtesies during the year. May the boundless love of the Grand Master of the Universe be with you always.

Sincerely and fraternally submitted,

JOHN S. BURGESS,

Grand Lecturer

My Brethren:

In submitting this, my eighth annual report, I want to express my sincerest thanks to all of you for the privilege of serving as one of your Grand Lecturers. The work is a real pleasure, and while there are times of disappointment when the brethren fail to exhibit the desired degree of enthusiasm, generally speaking the results are most gratifying.

I have visited all the Lodges in my section of the State at least once, and a number of them twice. The attendance at these sessions has been as good as in previous years; nevertheless there is much room for improvement. Many officers are derelict in their duty in this matter and are depriving themselves as well as their lodge of the instruction, assistance and encouragement the Grand Lecturers are prepared to give them. My sessions run from one to a hundred or more, and I think, generally speaking, reflect the interest and over-all condition of the lodge.

In addition to these visitations I have conducted many other sessions of instruction, either with lodge officers or for the purpose of examination.

During the past year I issued more than two hundred Certificates of Proficiency. In examining these brethren I have required that they know our esoteric work in its entirety, including the plural language that was adopted by the Grand Lodge in 1953. This high standard must be maintained as a safeguard against deterioration of our ritualistic work. Too, I have always endeavored to help the Certificate men in any way possible, always reminding them of my availability at all times.

Our Certificate Associations have been active as in previous years. They accomplish much in the way of instructing the brethren, and are also of invaluable assistance to the Grand Lecturers.

My report would not be complete without acknowledging the fine work of the Deputy Grand Lecturers. Some of them have been very active throughout the year, supplementing the work of the Grand Lecturers and assisting in various capacities. They have my sincerest thanks for a job well done.

The District Lodges have been assisted whenever the opportunity presented itself. It was my privilege to be present at and to assist in the organizing of the first District Lodge in the State, in the spring of 1937, and my interest and enthusiasm in these groups has never waned. It is my considered opinion that they should be given more assistance by the Grand Lodge officers in their program planning and general activities.

The entire year has been marked by harmony and understanding, for which I am most grateful. The brethren have been cooperative at all times reflecting the true Masonic spirit of charity and brotherly love.

The Grand Master and other Grand Lodge officers have, as usual, demonstrated harmony and unity of purpose during the year and have been a real inspiration to me. I have especially enjoyed my associations with Brother John S. Burgess, our other Grand Lecturer. Brother Burgess has endeared himself to the brethren over the entire State and is a most capable instructor and general advisor.

In concluding my report I want to say that my year's endeavors have been gratifying, and I again express my appreciation for the privilege of serving Louisiana Masonry in this very important office. The Grand Architect of the Universe has been gracious to us during the past year, and I am most humble when I express the belief that this blessing in the future will depend largely on the faith and courage we individually display. May we not be found wanting.

Sincerely and fraternally

JUNIUS B. SHARP,

Grand Lecturer.

REPORT OF LOUISIANA RELIEF LODGE No. 1

The Worshipful Master of Louisiana Relief Lodge No. 1, W: Louis T. Walsdorf, made his report, which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

Brethren:

During the year 1956 we conducted nineteen funerals for out-of-town lodges and assisted with an equal number of funerals for our local lodges.

Our demands for relief were about average compared to preceding year.

I have received splendid cooperation from our officers for which I feel deeply grateful.

The best part of Freemasonry is often overlooked by the individual Mason until he has had the opportunity to exemplify in some manner the lesson of charity of the Entered Apprentice degree. Almost daily our lodge has the duty of extending the hand of charity to our less fortunate brethren or their dependents. When a brother knocks at our door we feel happy to do what is expected, and sometimes it is necessary to go a little farther out the way, requiring time and patience to do so. A "worthy" brother or his dependent is never turned away from the portals of our lodge, unless he is an impostor, or unworthy.

The records of our lodge over the years are full of interesting cases, many requiring patience and time. The problem of differentiating the worthy from the unworthy cases is always present. Recently our secretary was asked to assist the daughter of one of our members in defraying her travel expenses to Los Angeles, California, in order that she could get on the Queen for a Day program. She stated that she needed an Ice Box and felt sure she could win one on this program. This would have involved a large sum of money had it been granted.

Quite often a brother will ask a loan on his watch or other valuable, in order to obtain travel expenses. Experience has shown that "loans" are not practicable, and are soon forgotten.

We feel that every city lodge should have at least one of its elective offices show an interest in our work by attending our quarterly communications. It gives us the feeling that they are part of the Relief Lodge, for after all, if Louisiana Relief Lodge did not exist, all relief cases, funerals, etc., would have to be taken care of by one of the city lodges in its turn. I regret to state, the attendance of these officers at our meetings is very poor.

A condensed report of our work for 1956 is published on another page of these proceedings.

I am deeply grateful to the Officers of our lodge who have been so faithful and to the lodges of New Orleans who have assisted us financially.

Fraternally submitted,

LOUIS T. WALSDORF,

Worshipful Master.

REPORT OF SHREVEPORT-BOSSIER CITY RELIEF LODGE, U. D.

Brethren:

At the District Lodge meeting of the First Masonic District held in Plain Dealing, Louisiana just one year ago, discussion was brought to the floor which indicated a need for a Relief Lodge in the Shreveport-Bossier City area. By its gracious action at the Grand Lodge meeting in February, 1956 the Grand Lodge of Louisiana cleared the way for the organization of Shreveport-Bossier City Relief Lodge. Many meetings were held in an organizational manner among the Lodges of Shreveport and Bossier City to determine the degree of cooperation that could be expected and to acquaint the Brethren of the various Lodges in this area with the work of a relief Lodge. Finally, on May 6th a meeting was held and a formal request for dispensation was made with 100% of the Lodges in the Shreveport-Bossier City area participating physically and financially. On August 11, 1956, R. W. Bro. J. Luther Jordan, P.G.M., acting for the M:W: D. Allen Long, Grand Master, formally opened the meeting of Shreveport-Bossier City Relief Lodge UD, which would never be closed.

Since that day in August, Shreveport-Bossier City Relief Lodge has conducted funerals for three of our Brethren who went to their Eternal Reward but were not members of a local Lodge and we have extended relief directly to three other cases; one of whom was the wife of a deceased Brother. In addition to this relief, there have been two cases where food was given in lieu of financial help and one other case where financial funds were loaned. A complete report of these activities is attached.

It must be pointed out that Shreveport-Bossier City Relief Lodge by an agreement with all of the Lodges in the Shreveport-Bossier City area, is operating on very limited funds. Each Lodge in this area contributes 5c per member per year, to the support of the Relief Lodge. Although we had hoped to be the recipient of financial gifts from various individual Masons so that we could widen the scope of our operations, this has not yet come to pass, largely due to the fact that the extent of our work has not been known or realized in the community.

I would be indeed derelict if I did not express in terms certain, my deepest thanks and appreciation for the cooperation given us in organizing our Lodge by Brothers Walsdorf and McHale, Master and Secretary respectively, of Louisiana Relief Lodge No. 1. In addition to their help R:W: Brother D. Peter Laguens, Jr. has given us invaluable information and assistance. Indeed, the other officers of Shreveport-Bossier City Relief Lodge UD who are representatives of many Lodges in our area have worked untiringly to support the organization of this second Relief Lodge in the state of Louisiana. It is our earnest desire and fervent prayer that 1957 will see Shreveport-Bossier City Relief Lodge well on its way to giving that Masonic charity which is indeed the "super structure" of Freemasonry.

BEN SOUR,

Worshipful Master (Acting).

REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WORK

We, your Permanent Committee on Work, beg to report as follows:

Once again we come to the close of another Lodge Year. Not with a feeling of regret, but, with a feeling that much accomplishment has been made in the last twelve months within this Grand Jurisdiction. Especially we feel such or part of this accomplishment can be traced to the fine leadership of such a worthy Grand Master as we have had during the past year, together with his worthy line officers who have shown much interest and consideration to your Committee on Work.

For the last few months your Committee on Work has been more than pleased with what we have seen as to the uniformity of the Esoteric work as it is now being taught by both our Grand Lecturers and the way it has been accepted by the different lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction. To see the uniformity of this Esoteric work being used in most every part of this State is most gratifying to your committee and certainly the beginning of the fulfillment of dreams for many years.

It is the opinion of your Committee, that this uniformity of work is due and responsible largely to the labors of both our Grand Lecturers and we feel that they should be commended very highly for this accomplishment.

Your Committee also feels that the new Monitor has brought about much help in keeping the work uniform. We believe we now have one of the most up-to-date monitors that can be found in any Grand Jurisdiction, and we feel that what ever labors were incurred in bringing this monitor up to date have certainly been reimbursed by the good work derived therefrom, and by the many thanks from brethren everywhere in this Jurisdiction.

May we also express our gratitude to those Deputy Grand Lecturers who have done an outstanding job in assisting the Grand Lecturers. Also may we thank the different Certificate Associations for their fine work and labor in promoting our ritualistic work.

In the last twelve months approximately some four hundred (400) certificates of proficiency will have passed through the hands of your Chairman on Work to which we are justly proud.

The Chairman of this Committee is very grateful to the other members of this Committee for their unselfish support and cooperation in promoting our ritualistic work, and, we, the Committee as a whole wish to thank you for this opportunity to serve you and Masonry.

REPORT OF THE SERVICE COMMITTEE

The Service Committee presents herewith its twenty-first annual report and wishes to again express their appreciation to the Grand Lodge and the Grand Master for their whole-hearted cooperation and support.

The Services rendered by this Committee fall under two heads: first, free services rendered to Lodges and Brethren and second, the work of the Department of Lodge Equipment and Supplies.

Under the heading of free services may be listed; supplying the individual Lodges with annual dues cards.

Supplying the individual Lodges with Twenty-five and Fifty-Year Certificates for their members as requested. The application for these Certificates are checked and the Certificates prepared by the personnel of the Grand Secretary.

Certificates furnished during 1956 and to-date are as follows:

	1956	To Date
Twenty-five year Certificates.....	440	12,060
Fifty-year Certificates.....	67	551

The Service Committee is still working with the Library Committee in rehabilitating the Grand Lodge Library and have quite a number of the books now rebound, one bookcase has been purchased and others are on order. We have in this Library magazines, proceedings of this and other jurisdictions, reference works both Masonic and general and all Masonic Books.

We have available our lending Library with quite a number of Masonic books available and more is being furnished as time goes on.

The Second part of the services rendered by this Committee is very important. We have available for the Lodges all kinds of supplies as well as Masonic Books, greeting cards, Lodge forms and Masonic Jewelry; we also have the agency for the Perma Plaquing of Lodge Charters. The majority of the aprons furnished to the lodges are made in our own department, however any special aprons can be furnished on order. Our gross sales for the year of 1956 amounted to $37,170.72.

The auditor's report concerning the Department of Lodge Equipment and Supplies is printed in full elsewhere in the proceedings.

MASONIC EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION, INC.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MASONIC EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION, Inc.

M:W: Brother Edwin F. Gayle, President, Board of Directors of the Masonic Educational Foundation, Inc., presented his report, which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

During the past year aid has been extended to thirteen students; six at L. S. U. Medical School, one at L. S. U., two at Tulane University, one at McNeese College, one at Emory University, one at Behout College and one at the University of Texas. The aid extended aggregates $3,700.00. Balance on hand available for student loans: $5,644.64. It is to be noted that while aid was extended to thirteen students, funds were available to aid at least thirty students.

Attention is directed to the Treasurer's Report which shows unpaid loans outstanding December 31, 1956 amount to $19,227.00. Of this amount $7,850.00 consists of current loans to students presently in college and none of this amount will be due until one year after the graduation of the student. The balance of loans outstanding amounting to $11,377.00 is now due or will soon be due for repayment in whole or in part. Since loans are made payable five years after date with 5% per annum interest after maturity the first loan note without interest matures one year after graduation, the second loan note matures two years after graduation and so on.

Funds for loans or gifts in aid of Education are derived from the income in interest from the bequest of Frank and May Tucker, donations from Mrs. Ida Looney in memory of her father, John T. Monroe, and Edwin F. Gayle.

The amount now in these several funds is as follows:

Frank and May Tucker Fund.....	$ 76,688.96
John T. Monroe Fund.....	51,000.00
Edwin F. Gayle Fund.....	15,566.33
TOTAL.....	$143,255.29

The Tucker Fund and the Gayle Fund extend aid in the shape of loans to college students to assist them in obtaining a college education and the Monroe Fund extends aid in the nature of a gift to students to assist them in obtaining a trade or vocation, such as book-keeping, stenographer, registered nurse, mechanic, etc.

You will note from a study of the report of the Secretary and Treasurer that the funds available for loans in aid for students is derived from the Tucker Fund, as the Monroe Fund is available for gifts only, and the Gayle Fund is being held intact until $25,000.00 is accumulated.

At this time all outstanding loans stand as a credit to the Tucker Fund as all past loans to students have been advanced from that Fund. The annual income from the investment of the Tucker Fund is only $1,539.25, an amount sufficient to aid about five students, whereas the Tucker Fund is currently aiding thirteen students and has about $5,000.00 available for loans if applications are received. This is due to the fact that the unpaid loans amounting to $19,227.00 due the Tucker Fund are available as repaid for new loans to new applicants. For instance during last year thirteen students were loaned in aid $3,700.00 available as follows:

Interest on Tucker Investments.....	$1,539.25
Repayment of Tucker Loans.....	1,309.00
Total available for Loans.....	$2,839.25
Balance drawn from Tucker Reserve.....	850.75
	$3,700.00

Through the years aid from the Tucker Fund has been extended to 79 students, who have taken their place in many of the active walks of life. The repayment of these student loans makes it possible to extend aid to a greater number each year. For instance, if the $19,227.00 were repaid tomorrow, aid could be extended to sixty students to the extent of $300.00 each and still have a balance on hand.

Loans are made from the Tucker Fund with the strict understanding that it is a loan and not a gift and the student and his sponsor are impressed with the fact that there is both a moral and a legal obligation to repay the loan. The high sense of honor of students who have availed themselves of these loans is evidenced by the fact that no suit has ever been filed for the collection of a loan, nor has any threat of suit been made to effect a collection. The record of repayment has been remarkable under the circumstances.

There are two schools of thought as to whether aid should be given as a loan or as an outright gift. Forceful argument can be advanced on both sides of the question.

Brother Tucker and his wife, Sister May Tucker, thought that the obligation to repay would develop a sense of responsibility and personal pride and independence of Character and an appreciation of the contractual obligation would develop a high sense of honor and a spirit for fair dealing. Then too, they thought that the revolving loan would make it possible to aid a much greater number of worthy applicants. At any rate that is the way they wanted it and that is the way your Board of Directors will administer the Tucker Fund.

We do not solicit donations or bequests but should any one feel disposed to make a gift or bequest in aid of education or for educational or scientific purposes, the Board of the Masonic Educational Foundation will be pleased to administer the bequest or gift in accordance with the wishes of the donor or Testator.

Students interested in applying for a loan may secure application forms by applying to D. Peter Laguens, Jr., Secty., 1300 Masonic Temple Bldg., New Orleans 12, La.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHARITIES AND BENEVOLENCE

During the past year, the Board of Charities and Benevolence has endeavored to faithfully discharge its duties on your behalf.

All applications to the Board were carefully considered, 23 of which were approved, and 3 disapproved as they did not conform to the policies established by the Board and approved by the Grand Lodge.

$18,000.00 was allotted to the Board from the net revenues of the Temple Building, and immediately a total of $14,456.25 was disbursed to the:

- Masonic Home for Children
- Masonic Service Association
- Masonic Relief Association

No allocation was made this year to Louisiana Relief Lodge No. 1, because, recently, the Lodge was the recipient of a rather handsome contribution. And in the opinion of the Board, no additional funds were now needed by the Lodge, especially since it would have necessitated using some of our reserves to make an appropriation to them.

The total disbursements for the year was $17,428.24, being almost equal to the receipts during the year. The fact that the balance of only approximately $600.00 was placed in the reserve fund is of concern to the Board. As we previously conveyed to the Grand Lodge, we had looked forward to accumulating a more substantial reserve fund during the period of high economy so that we would be in a position to meet the increased demands which would necessarily follow should the economy change.

Following is a statement of the receipts and disbursements in detail:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

Brethren:

The Committee on Masonic Education wishes to report that Public School Week was observed during the past year in the week of November 11th-17th.

About 50% of the Blue Lodges, as far as we have been able to ascertain, had conducted programs in accordance with suggestions of your Committee, and we regret to say that the others did not do so. The Committee during the past year did not send out materials to be used, but did refer to materials which had been supplied in the previous year and which were available in the Lodges.

The State Department of Education, under Superintendent Shelby M. Jackson, gave every assistance possible and made speakers available in some instances.

It will be necessary in the approaching year to have the officers of the various lodges step up the activities for this exercise, which is so closely connected with the thoughts and purposes of the Masonic order.

Respectfully submitted,

Committee on Masonic Education,

J. CHRIS NUNGESSER, P. G. M.

CLARK W. BOOTH, P. M.

BENJAMIN F. REEVES, JR., P. M.

WM. CURTIS BRADSHAW, P. M.

PAUL B. HABANS, P. G. M., Chairman.

The report of the Committee was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HISTORY

The History Committee has turned over to the Grand Secretary a small packet of Historical material to be placed in the hands of the Chairman of the History Committee for the succeeding year. It is hoped that a worth while history of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana can be printed for the 100th Anniversary or centennial of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana. I would like to suggest that each of you brethren here present make it a matter of personal concern to ask your Home Lodge to appoint a member to send any pertinent facts to the Grand Secretary's office with a notation for the History Committee.

This will assure the inclusion of information about your Lodge in the projected history. It is only by the cooperation of each individual Lodge that this project can be successfully completed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BURIAL PLACES OF PAST GRAND MASTERS

Brethren:

The Special Committee on Burial Places of Past Grand Masters has had no activities during the past year, save and except efforts of the Committee to move the bodies of other Grand Masters buried in St. Louis Cemetery No. 1, to the place provided by the Grand Lodge in our own Masonic Cemetery. Nothing has been accomplished, however, in that direction, but we believe that ultimately, the remaining three bodies of Past Grand Masters, including that of Moreau Lislet, will be transferred to the plot provided by the Grand Lodge. We believe that this Committee should be kept active to that end.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION FACILITY

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Brethren:

Herewith submitted is the annual report of the Masonic Service Association Visitor at the Veterans Administration Hospital, New Orleans, Louisiana for 1956. Experience has demonstrated that the patients get more from personalized service, things that a hospital visitor can do for a patient, than from the gifts which we are permitted to donate. Therefore, this is in general the type of service I have tried to furnish at New Orleans.

I have, however, furnished many articles to comfort both Masons and non-Masons.

Your Masonic Service Association Visitor secured for the Veterans Administration Hospital Blood Bank approximately 400 pints of blood. This blood was donated by friends and relatives of patients.

Articles distributed to Masons and non-Masons:

200 decks of playing cards, 1,800 razor blades, 4,000 pencils, 20,000 packs of matches, 1,200 packs of cigarettes donated by individuals, 144 packs of tooth paste and 200 razor blades donated by Navy Ship Auxiliary V.F.W. No. 3756.

Fraternal Chapter No. 194, O.E.S. donated $10.00 cash.

Theodosia Chapter No. 193, O.E.S. donated $10.00 cash.

Quitman Lodge No. 76, F.&A.M. donated $33.00 cash.

The cash donated by the above was used to purchase supplies.

Furnished stamps, stationery, telephone calls to Masons and non-Masons relatives and lodges. Approximately $60,000.00 in checks cashed, many letters were written, made many trips to the Airport, Railroad and Bus Stations for patients. Many shopping trips were made. Your Masonic Service Association Visitor arranged for patients to attend the "Shrine Circus", tickets donated by Jerusalem Temple.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Mogabgab, his Staff and Special Services and express my grateful and sincere appreciation for their kind and helpful cooperation.

Respectfully and Fraternaly submitted,

JOSEPH E. MUREPHEY,

Hospital Visitor.

ALEXANDRIA, LA.

Brethren:

I submit herewith my report of activities for the Masonic Service Association of the U. S. at the Veteran's Hospital, Alexandria, La., for the year 1956.

Visitations:

New Patients	Masons	Non-Masons
3,142	120	3,022

Of the new Masons contacted, there were 5 from Texas; 4 from Tennessee; 1 from Alaska; 3 from Alabama; 4 from Arkansas; 1 from Bermuda; 2 from Mississippi; and 2 from Georgia.

Repeat Visits:

Masons	Non-Masons	Total
2,544	25,728	31,415

Personalized service, in addition to just visits, included:

Trips to town for purchases, to bus station, and to oculist for glasses.

Getting checks cashed for patients.

Writing letters for patients (more than 100).

Making phone calls for patients.

Furnished lunches for relatives.

Assisted relatives of patients who died in the hospital. (There were three Brethren who died on the station last year, and several other patients.)

Wrote letters for patients (an average of three a week).

Also obtained petitions for three patients to join Masonic lodges. I attribute this fact to the opinion formed by these men of the Masonic Order because of the services they witnessed.

The usual supplies were dispensed—Pipes, tobacco, tooth brushes, tooth paste, safety razors, blades, shaving cream, combs, stamps, paper, envelopes and pencils, also many other articles.

Six thermos bottles were furnished to bed patients who were coffee hounds.

Nine pairs of eyeglasses were given to men who were not entitled to glasses at Government expense.

Fifteen new electric shavers were furnished to patients who were bed ridden.

Fifteen canteen books were donated to the V. A. V. S. Christmas party for the patients, and twenty chapters of the O. E. S. made and donated for this party home-made cakes, which were greatly enjoyed by the some four hundred odd sick men. This was the seventh year the Star has so generously contributed to the success of our annual Christmas party for the patients.

For the seventh year I am pleased to report a successful year of service to the men who gave so much for us. The service has been rendered without any discrimination as to race, color or creed. Masons received copies of W. Bro. Claudy's books on various phases of Masonry. This is the only deviation from the foregoing statement.

It has been most gratifying to serve in this worth-while work for another year.

Fraternally submitted,

CHESTER A. GROVER, P.M.,

Hospital Visitor.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION FACILITY
SHREVEPORT, LA.

Greetings:

I submit herewith the annual report of activities of your Masonic Service Association Visitor at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Shreveport, Louisiana for the year 1956.

Patient Load and Visits:

849 Masons were visited during the year, and 4944 non-Masons were visited. I also visited 70 Masons in hospitals other than the Veterans Administrations facility, or in their homes, making a grand total of 5,863 visits to patients during the year. In addition to visits to patients, I attended 60 Masonic funerals and 208 Lodge meetings during the year.

Service:

Personalized service was emphasized, such as visits for chats, writing letters, running errands, making purchases and telephone calls. I have co-operated with other agencies to the fullest extent during the year. I participated in a group volunteer project for the patients on July 4th, which was a watermelon party. The El-Karubah

Shrine band furnished music for this event. I served as chairman and Treasurer of the Christmas program, which was a group volunteer project. This program provided the patients with a gift, candy, fruit, etc.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Manager of the hospital, Mr. William K. Hinds, Mr. George Huff, Chief of Special Services and his staff, and express my grateful and sincere appreciation for the kind and helpful co-operation.

It has been a privilege and a pleasure to serve the Masonic Service Association and the Grand Lodge. I hope that I shall continue to do so for a long time.

Respectfully and Fraternaly submitted,

SAMUEL A. HOLT,

Hospital Visitor.

COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY

NECROLOGY REPORT

and

MEMORIAL SERVICE

BROTHER A. M. MARTIN, Chairman

Soft music throughout entire service

Brother H. Barnes Turner, Grand Organist

Song: "ABIDE WITH ME", by the Choir

"For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: (For we walk by faith, not by sight:) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. Wherefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of Him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

2 Corinthians 5:1-10

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

John 14:1-3

"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Prayer:

John 14:27

We thank thee, O God, for thy blessings, for creation, for the beauty of earth, and the sea and sky. For thy manifold gifts of thy love, by whose appointment the seasons come and go. Grant us we pray, that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from us the light of that divine love which is from above. May it please thee, of thy great mercy, and ministering grace to us, that we may know thee; guide us throughout our life on earth. Comfort and strengthen us in time of need; and bring us at last to thy home in heaven, where, with the ever-living God, nothing shall defile thy glorious creation, faith, hope and love prevail forever. We Pray, in thy holy Name. Amen.

Memoir of

HENRI W. WEHRMANN

Brother Henri W. Wehrmann, Grand Organist, Grand Lodge State of Louisiana, F.&A.M., died Sunday, October 21, 1956. He was 85 years of age. He was a great Musician, as Pianist, Violinist, and also Composer. To know him was to love him. His music thrilled our hearts throughout the years. It was like the door opening into the infinite, and the medium of communication between spiritual beings, with our God, the great Architect of the Universe, conferring unto us harmony, beauty, and love. Brother Wehrmann studied in Paris and developed an ambition at an early age to become a musician and composer. He wrote his first song "Smiling Beauty" when he was 13 years of age. The harmonious tones of music, clear in its interpretations, is a language in itself, just as perfect in its way of speech as words, —just as divine, just as blessed. The sound of music coming from the soul is therefore creative, inspiring, and essential in its interpretation. Brother Wehrmann was such a man, known, loved, and respected by all music lovers in the State of Louisiana, and beyond our borders. He will always be remembered for years to come.

He was a Master Mason, Royal Arch Mason, 32nd Degree Consistory, and Knights Templar.

He had musical affiliation with the Kiwanis Club, and warm connections with many other organizations and institutions. Last but not least, for 50 years and more, he served as organist of the First Presbyterian Church.

The passing away of this, our good brother, coming at the end of a useful life, has cast a shadow of sorrow over our entire fraternity. We pay tribute to his loyalty, fidelity, and efficiency, as a member of the Grand Lodge family. To the loved ones we extend sympathy and condolence. We held high regard for him in life, we honor him in death. This our esteem and respect to his memory:

“Straight to my home above
I travel calmly on.
And sing in life or death
‘My Lord’ Thy will be done.”

—Benjamin Schmolick.

Song: “Nearer My God to Thee” by Assemblage.

Taps: by Brother Michel (Mike) Caplan.

Benediction:

The Lord bless you and keep you: the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you: the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE ORDER

Your Committee on State of the Order report as follows on the matters specifically referred to us.

1. We approve of the Most Worshipful Grand Master's report relative to visitations, District Deputy Grand Masters, Masonic Home for Children, Centennial Plaques, and Louisiana Relief Lodge No. 1.
2. In line with the recommendation of the Grand Master we add our wholehearted concurrence.
3. We note with distinct pride that our Most Worshipful Grand Master, D. Allen Long, was elected Chairman of the Masonic Service Association meeting, thus bringing honor to our Grand Lodge.
4. In the laying of eight corner stones during the year, the Grand Master has brought further credit and recognition to the fraternity.

5. Very appropriately the Most Worshipful Grand Master has devoted more space in his annual report to the Acacia Fraternity than any other subject. We, as Masons, have here the opportunity to demonstrate our interest in the right thinking youth of our land. We urge that each Mason in Louisiana take a financial interest in this character-building effort.

6. The activity of the Most Worshipful Grand Master throughout the year demonstrates the strength, growth, and permanence of the Order, as evidenced by the thirteen (13) new Lodge Halls dedicated.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON APPEALS AND GRIEVANCES

We, your Committee on Appeals and Grievances, have received the transcripts of several trials which were held by Lodges in this Jurisdiction. We beg to make our report as follows:

Simcoe Walmsley Lodge 359, F. & A. M., Flora, La., vs. T. J. Brovillette, charged with unmasonic conduct. The accused was tried by his Lodge in a legal manner, was found guilty and expelled.

Your Committee concurs in their verdict and strongly recommends that their action be sustained.

Humble Cottage Lodge 19, F. & A. M., Opelousas, La. vs. Perry A. Moory. The defendant was charged with unmasonic conduct.

After a very long and technically conducted trial, the accused was found guilty and expelled.

Your Committee agrees with the verdict of the Lodge and recommends their action be approved by this Grand Lodge.

David R. Graham Lodge 413, F. & A. M., New Orleans, La. vs. Herbert Goodman, Charged with very unmasonic conduct.

He was tried, found guilty and expelled by a very well conducted trial commission.

Your Committee agrees with the verdict of the Lodge and recommends that their actions be sustained.

Andrew Jackson Lodge 428, F. & A. M., Arabi, La. vs. _____.

This man was indefinitely suspended by this Grand Lodge for unmasonic conduct. He petitioned his Lodge for reinstatement which was granted by a unanimous vote. He had been tried in the District Court and found guilty, but sentence, up to this time, has not been passed on the accused. For this reason your Committee feels that the verdict of his Lodge should be set aside and considered of no effect. Otherwise, it could cause embarrassment to Andrew Jackson Lodge 428.

Kentwood Lodge 248, F. & A. M., Kentwood, La. vs. William Milton Johnson.

This man was indefinitely suspended in 1955 for unmasonic conduct. He made application for reinstatement in Kentwood Lodge in May of 1956; was reinstated by a 10 to 1 vote of the Lodge.

Your Committee did not pass on the merits or demerits of the applicant, but owing to the fact that he had been tried by the Court and found guilty but not sentenced, your Committee feels that the verdict of the Lodge should be set aside and of no effect, for the reason that if and when he is sentenced by the Judge, Kentwood Lodge would have a convict among its members. We therefore move that the action of your Committee be sustained.

Pioneer Lodge 340, F. & A. M., Pioneer, La. vs. Everett Miller.

The accused was charged with unmasonic conduct, was tried by his Lodge, found guilty and suspended for three (3) years.

Your Committee concurs with this verdict of the Lodge as to his guilt, but recommends the penalty be changed from suspension to expulsion.

Your Committee on Appeals and Grievances has been informed that there were five men connected with the crimes for which WILLIAM MILTON JOHNSON and WALTER JAMES LEE was suspended from their respective Lodges, four of whom were Masons.

Your Committee recommends that the incoming Grand Master endeavor to obtain the names and particulars concerning the other two Masons with a view of bringing them to trial.

Rosepine Lodge: At the last convocation of this Grand Lodge, your Committee on Appeals and Grievances was called upon to try to restore peace to the troubled bosom of Rosepine Lodge. Realizing our inability to permanently quench the smouldering embers of animosity and discontent in that Masonic body, your Committee in its report to this Grand Lodge recommended that the incoming Grand Master look well to the peace and harmony of this discordant body. If you will read our Grand Master's report of this mission on page 22 of his report, you will see how wisely and faithfully he discharged his duty, both to Rosepine Lodge and to our beloved Fraternity. It is the desire of your Committee that this Grand Lodge congratulate and thank our Grand Master for so ably and successfully discharging such a delicate and difficult duty.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE

Your Committee on Foreign Correspondence reports as follows on those portions of the M:W: Grand Master's report that have been referred to us:

The Washington Conferences:

We are happy to note the honor that came to our Grand Master in his election to serve as Chairman of the Masonic Service Association meetings last February; we are confident that he handled this assignment with credit to himself and to us, and that the memory of the experience will remain with him throughout his life. We appreciate the further honor that has come to the Grand Lodge of Louisiana in the selection of our Brother Gibson, our prospective Grand Master, to address the Conference of Grand Masters later this month.

Visits to Sister Jurisdictions:

We appreciate the cordial reception our Grand Master received at the hands of our Sister Grand Lodge in Mississippi. We concur in the belief that visits to our neighboring Grand Lodges are of great benefit to Masonry in general.

REPORT OF SESQUICENTENNIAL COMMITTEE

Your Committee has conferred on plans for a Sesquicentennial observance and has concluded that until the amount of funds to be available for a sesquicentennial observance can be determined, it is unable to submit detailed plans for said observance to the Grand Lodge.

However, after deliberation, the Committee concluded that, as part of the observance, a History of Freemasonry in Louisiana is essential. Because of the time required for a scholarly effort in its completion, steps should be initiated at once to employ one individual with the proper educational background and experience to prepare such a history for publication and distribution to all those in attendance at said observance.

Your Committee requests that the Grand Lodge authorize it to proceed with the preparation of such a history.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE

We, your Committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence, beg leave to report on the matters from the Grand Master's address which were referred to our Committee.

The Emergent Communications were administrative actions carried into execution the directives of the Grand Lodge itself and involved the constituting of newly chartered Lodges; the dedication of new Lodge Halls; the laying of cornerstones and such activities as had been previously approved and authorized. The Grand Master's actions in connection with these matters are therefore approved by the committee.

The issuance of duplicate charters to the 2 Lodges whose old charters were no longer serviceable is likewise approved by the committee.

On page 77 of his Report that section under the heading Permissions Granted has been approved by the Committee in its entirety. All the items are routine with one exception. Silent Brotherhood Lodge 146 was authorized to make available its Lodge building and its facilities to Civil Defense Authorities in the event of a national emergency only and when emergency facilities are mobilized for the public safety and welfare. Suitable addition to the Handbook of Masonic Law covering this departure from old time precedence will be prepared.

On page 78 of his Report the section dealing with the building and finance plans of new Lodge Halls comes under the discretionary power of the Grand Master and are approved with the following comments in connection with Goldonna Lodge 293.

It is the opinion of the Committee that the agreement between this Lodge and Mr. Gordon McGee should have one amendment covering the matter of insurance in the event that the Vendor, Mr. McGee, failed to maintain adequate insurance protection as provided in the agreement. The committee feels that this supplement to the agreement should provide that the Lodge be authorized to enter into a joint insurance coverage as the interest of the two owners might appear. Such insurance coverage would protect the interest of both, and in the event the Vendor does not secure adequate insurance the Vendee shall have the right to secure such insurance and charge the premium to original Vendor his pro rata of the cost thereof.

The approval of the repair and finance plans of Hope Lodge 145 is within the authority of the Grand Master and is approved.

The refinancing of the debt of Homer Lodge 152 was handled in accordance with competent legal advice and the approval thereof by the Grand Master was routine and is approved.

All the dispensations granted by the Grand Master are approved. Only one of these departs in any sense from the long established practice. Dispensation was granted to Leesville Lodge 240 to open the Lodge and conduct the funeral of a deceased brother when the three ranking officers of the Lodge were not available. This was an emergency which the Grand Master met with promptness and your committee feels that an amendment to the Handbook of Masonic Law formally authorizing such emergency dispensations to any elective or appointive officer or a Past Master should be approved.

The action reported in the Grand Master's address beginning on page 80 of his Report under the heading Dispensations Denied is in accordance with sound Masonic Jurisprudence and is approved.

The By-Laws approved and the amendment to the By-Laws approved had the prior approval of your committee and the actions of the Grand Master are approved.

The By-Laws and amendment to By-Laws disapproved had the prior approval of your committee, and the actions of the Grand Master are approved.

He was within the law of the Grand Lodge in making his committee appointment to fill a vacancy occasioned by the death of the Grand Organist.

The section of the Grand Master's address reported under the heading of Rulings under page 23 covers 10 separate rulings. All of these your committee finds correct in their entirety with the exception of ruling No. 9. Your committee feels that the wording in this ruling can be improved by substituting the word "citizen" for the word "resident" in the first line of the ruling and eliminating the words "prior to his enlistment" in the second line thereof.

In answer to a number of inquiries the Grand Master simply directed the Lodge to the express provisions of the Handbook that required no ruling or interpretation. Your committee emphasizes the importance of Masters referring to the Handbook to find the answer to their problems instead of rushing an inquiry off to an overworked Grand Master. Many questions have been answered and are found in the Handbook to many Masters who will take the trouble to look.

The report of the Committee WAS ADOPTED.

The Grand Lodge was called at refreshment to permit the appearance of a representative of the Order of DeMolay before the delegates to explain what DeMolay is and what its represents.

The DeMolay member, Robert J. Fineran, represented the group and spoke at length. His message was received with a great deal of enthusiasm. These young men retired, and the Grand Lodge was then called back to labor.

W: Brother J. Y. Sanders, Jr., Deputy of the Supreme Council, A. A. S. R. M., 33°, Southern Jurisdiction, spoke about the forthcoming celebration of the Centennial of the Coronetting to the 33° of Illustrious Brother Albert Pike in April of this year. Also, a bust of Brother Pike would be placed at Canal and North Claiborne with the permission of the officials of the City of New Orleans. The celebration to be under the auspices of the Grand Consistory of Louisiana, A. A. S. R. M.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE

We your Committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence to whom was referred Resolution No. 3 fixing the date for the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge report:

We recommend the ADOPTION of this Resolution.

The report of the Committee WAS ADOPTED.

Reference is made to the recommendation of the Grand Master beginning on page 87 of his Report.

Section 5 of Article VII of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge, found on page 9 of the present Handbook of Masonic Law sets forth the basic Law governing the granting of Dispensations for the formation of New Lodges. From the basic law there can be no departure without amending the Constitution.

Your Committee agrees with the Grand Master that the procedure that has grown up in areas where Lodge holds concurrent jurisdiction creates an intolerable situation as pertains to establishing new Lodges under dispensation. We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions as interpretive of the Constitutional provision and as nullifying edicts that are contrary to the following provision:

RESOLUTION No. 6

BE IT RESOLVED, that an application for dispensation to form a new Lodge in areas where more than one Lodge is in the position of the "nearest Lodge" due to concurrent jurisdiction shall be accompanied by the approval of any one Lodge and only one sponsoring Lodge from among those holding concurrent jurisdiction. Any other concurrent Lodge shall have the right to protest the granting of the Dispensation citing its reasons. The Grand Master shall investigate fully and his findings shall be conclusive.

ORATION

By Brother JOHN A. HUNTER

A MASON AND THE AMERICAN IDEAL

The United States has based its growth and development on a republican or representative form of government. The essence of the American ideal is, among other things, respect for the rights of an individual. This freedom, contained within rules and regulations established by the majority, has permitted the growth and development of individual initiative. Individual success based on initiative has highlighted the worth of an individual with the result that a person has been able to achieve without regard to class distinctions. The American Ideal has also accepted the fact that there is a God; that He is good!

The American Ideal and Masonic beliefs are identical. This ideal is actually based on the Masonic ideal, for, as each of us knows, the pattern of respect for the individual was taught by Masons long before it was incorporated in our representative form of government. We, as Masons, believe in this ideal or we would not be Masons.

As Masons, we are, therefore, dedicated to the ideal of democracy. We enjoy the rights of freedom because thousands of other Masons have lived and died before us, dedicating their lives to their beliefs. Dedication in itself is not enough, for positive action is required. Responsibilities must be recognized and assumed if we are to continue the Masonic way of life.

Is it not fitting for this distinguished group to turn its attention to some of the duties and responsibilities facing the modern Mason and the American nation? This presentation will be delimited to some of the problems that we as individuals can do something about.

The family is a part of this ideal. Every belief that our great brotherhood has taught is based on the integrity of the family; the stability of marriage; the influence of God in our family's development. Each of us should squarely face the fact that some of us are failing to assume responsibilities that involve our families. I read an article about a year ago that had to do with the sorry state of modern fathers. Written in a humorous vein, the article, nevertheless, contained much truth. Some homes are run by the teenagers; some are unduly influenced by the material demands of its members; some, like "Topsy" just grow without direction. The core of the Masonic ideal is within the home for it is there that our youngsters are taught those things that will determine whether they will be upright citizens. Too many of us are too willing to shunt the responsibility for our families to some other agency. The church can do its part; the school can do its part; the community can do its part . . . but none of these agencies can do the whole job. You must assume the basic responsibility.

A case in point is the teen-ager. Many of us forget that this is a most difficult period of adjustment for our youngsters, and we, therefore, make no effort whatever to understand the problems of our teen-age sons and daughters. Many of us hide our lack of understanding by giving in completely to the whims of our children, and we retire into our shells expecting our wives or some other guardian angel to handle the matter. Many of us close our eyes to basic reality and refuse to accept the fact that our child's ability may be limited. Many of us refuse to believe that our child may be wrong. Many of us lose all communication with our children because we have been too busy to try to understand and so they no longer bring their problems to us.

A Mason believes in family unity. However, how long has it been since we have "done" things as a family? Have we gone shopping with our wives, our grandchildren, or our teen-age daughters lately? Sure, we put up the money, but have we realized that the daughter is much more pleased with our "liking" the dress than with it costing a certain amount? Masons must assume their responsibilities in reference to their families; for honesty, integrity, understanding, and respect for each other are results of environment, training, and experience. Unless we provide the proper atmosphere for family development, we have failed to contribute toward the continuation of the American and Masonic way of life.

As Masons we have definite responsibilities in reference to the community in which we live. Community life is almost synonymous with family life, for our family happiness so often depends on the type of community in which we live. As Masons, we are actually our brother's keeper . . . for the brotherhood of man is universal, and if our community is undesirable, it is so because the people therein want it to be undesirable. We cannot close our eyes to the realities of community living. Churches, good schools, community recreation centers, sanitation facilities, street beautification and the like must become our individual interest if desirable communities are to be developed. Many of us fail to see the relationship between Masonic living and community living and, therefore, do not carry our share of the burden. All of us cannot be leaders, but we can all be intelligent followers. Have we tended to let some other brother carry our share of the responsibility for the development of our community: Have we refused to assist community committees, community drives and the like? Have we accepted our just share of these responsibilities? Have we refused to accept leadership and have been content to let someone else, with inferior ability, do the leading?

Have we met our responsibilities in the area of education? Unfortunately, I must report that some of us have failed to do so. How many of us have actually checked with our sons, daughters, and grandchildren to determine what, how, and if they are being taught? Have we glibly accepted criticisms of our public school system merely because a national magazine or a local newspaper prints the criticism as fact? Have we talked with teachers, school board members, and other officials as a means of better understanding their problems? There are many forces at work today that would attempt to undermine our system of public education; said forces ranging from those who resent an increase in public expenditures to those whose basic beliefs are opposed to the ideal of public education. Our educational system can be improved; safeguards must be maintained in order to assure that value is being received when the education dollar is expended; but, our help and interest is required if the system is to be improved. My comments are not to be interpreted as a criticism of private education. At the college level, private colleges have carried a major part of the burden for many, many years. I am a graduate of a small Presbyterian college in North Carolina and L. S. U. The mere fact that I have enjoyed the unique opportunity of choice in no way lessens my responsibility to public education. Nevertheless, I am opposed to state subsidation of private or parochial education and am dedicated to the ideal of separation of church and state.

A Mason must assume the responsibility for the education of his child. The schools, churches, and community functions are agencies . . . but the basic responsibility is ours. Unless the Masonic home assumes its obligation in reference to education, the Ideal of which we speak will be lost. There is no substitute for home training. We cannot give this responsibility to another member of our family. It may be shared, but being a Mason makes the responsibility ours.

To the everlasting credit of Louisiana Legislators, they have traditionally been generous in their support of public education. Their support is going to have to be greater and greater in view of the thousands of youngsters that are coming into our schools. Enrollment at Louisiana State University will move from the present figure of 10,000 to approximately 24,000 in fifteen years. The same growth and development is true of other tax-supported colleges. Our support is needed there, too. Parish and City school systems are going to have to seek sources of local revenue, for the state's resources are not unlimited.

If the ideal of freedom; the ideal of free enterprise; the ideal of initiative; the ideal of separation of church and state are to be maintained, public schools must be maintained. They are a priceless part of the Mason's American Heritage.

A Mason's beliefs are based on integrity. An alarmingly large number of American citizens seem to have forgotten that integrity means honesty in little things as well as major matters. Has the sharp deal become a part of our American culture? A Mason's word is his bond, but do we feel that our neighbor's word is his bond? Admitting that each Mason cannot assume the direct responsibility for his neighbor's actions, by example the Mason can so live as to lead others. I am concerned with the lack of integrity in small matters: for example, it is not unusual for many parents to certify that their sons and daughters were ill when they missed classes in school . . . when the real reason was a dance or some other social function. The idea that a wrong becomes a right if not detected can be aided by such laxness as just indicated. Small sins of omission soon develop into big sins of commission. Every Mason must re-dedicate himself to the ideal of integrity. It is unthinkable that our fore-fathers tolerated subterfuge in small matters yet opposed same in major affairs. America's development is based on integrity.

The very nature of a Mason's obligation makes him a worker. Isn't it alarming to note a growing tendency on the part of many to assume that the state owes them a living? This tendency, if continued, will lead the American Nation into Socialism and with the growth of socialistic thinking, free thinking and individual freedom will be destroyed. Masons believe and must teach that every man, regardless of his station in life, is entitled to the right to earn a living. To work and earn and yet retain individual freedom is a basic characteristic of the American Ideal. There is dignity in labor! Let us not lose that dignity. There is honor in hard work! Let us not lose that honor. A man earns respect when he does a job well, regardless of how menial the task. If the Masonic order were reserved for industrialists, I would not be a Mason. If our great brotherhood was reserved for lawyers, doctors, teachers, and other professional people, I would not be a Mason. Instead, our brotherhood is a fraternity of men, dedicated to the development of a man, regardless of his job and his economic status. Therein lies one of the great strengths of being a Mason. If we are to continue our strength and the strength of our Nation, we must never forget that there is no substitute for honest toil.

Time is limited and this presentation must be brought to a close. Brethren, this presentation would not be complete if some mention was not made of a Mason's Moral obligation. When we assumed our Masonic obligation, we dedicated ourselves to God. We had done that years ago for at our Mother's knee we were taught the Biblical concepts of God-like living. Have we forgotten our obligation? If we assume our obligation and then do not become a positive force for good, we have really failed. If we are selfish enough to keep God to ourselves, why not move into a secluded order and remain in solitude. Our faith must be a live faith, not contained within our own souls, but a faith that is actively being felt by those with whom we associate. How positive is our faith? If it has not been positive enough to leave an impression on our our families, what effect has it had on our business associates? At this point, Brethren, I am preaching for I am sick and tired of public schools being called non-moral; I'm sick and tired of our juveniles being accused of everything; I am disgusted with the adult world shaking its head in shame over our young people and then not having intelligence enough to realize that delinquency is not juvenile it is parental and adult. Brethren, I realize that I am talking to the wrong group that you are a positive faith working for the betterment of mankind, but you must do more. No Mason can permit the moral degeneration of this Nation.

Brethren, you have honored me by inviting me to address this distinguished body. You represent the leadership of our state. I hope that each of you will return to your homes with the Masonic spirit re-kindled within your hearts. May the fires of integrity, faith, individual freedom, diligence, and love of Democracy burn even brighter in your hearts, for you and your beliefs are the great protectors of our priceless American Ideal.

At the conclusion of his address, the spontaneous and prolonged applause which followed gave proof of the appreciation the Assemblage felt for our distinguished Brother's thought-provoking and timely message.

Our thanks were extended to him by Past Grand Master Robert W. Cretney.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE

We, your Committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence to whom was referred Resolution No. 5 which refers to the matter of electing a candidate to all three degrees in a single ballot report as follows:

Your Committee feels that this is sound legislation even though it has previously been rejected by this Grand Lodge, all Grand Lodges in this country except 3 or 4 now elect for all 3 degrees at one ballot and preserve the right of objection as proposed in this resolution. We think Louisiana should join this vast majority and recommend that the resolution be ADOPTED.

The report of the committee WAS NOT ADOPTED, therefore Resolution No. 5 WAS NOT ADOPTED. It was a roll call vote. 327 for, 305 against. (A two-thirds vote necessary to carry).

Your Committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence to whom was referred Resolution No. 4 proposing a national Home for Boys, U. S. A., has considered the proposal. We are not unmindful of the problem of Juvenile delinquency nor opposed to combatting such delinquency with all the forces at our command. Your Committee however, cannot concur in the idea that this resolution presents a feasible or practical plan of combatting the evil. Each and every Grand Lodge is Sovereign and separate and your Committee feels should forever remain in this relationship. Each Grand Lodge can and should handle any delinquency problem in its own jurisdiction in its own way. To undertake any such program as this resolution proposes is in the judgment of your committee impracticable.

We recommend that the Resolution be NOT ADOPTED.

The report of the Committee WAS ADOPTED, therefore the Resolution WAS NOT ADOPTED.

REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WORK

We, your Committee on Work, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report concerning our Grand Lecturers, beg to report as follows:

We approve that portion of the Grand Master's report. This Committee is well aware of the fine cooperation the Grand Master has given our Grand Lecturers during the past year, to which this Committee is also justly proud. We concur with our Grand Master in urging the Lodges throughout this Grand Jurisdiction to avail themselves of the service of our Grand Lecturers.

This Committee feels that all the officers of each constituent Lodge should be present when visited by the Grand Lecturers for benefit of instruction, and we urge them to do so when possible.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE

Pursuant to Resolution No. 3 of the 1956 Session of the Grand Lodge your committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence, has reviewed the Standard Form of By-Laws and bring forward the following recommended changes therein.

We recommend that the Standard Form be referred to as the Model Form of By-Laws in the future.

We see no need for any change in the wording in Article I of the Model Form.

In Article II we recommend that Section 1 be made to read as follows:

The stated communications shall be held on the.....(Insert day or days).....of each month at.....(Insert time).....from.....through.....and at.....(Insert time).....from.....through.....
This will be the new Section 1.

And Article III substitute the following for Section 2. The Worshipful Master shall appoint the following officers: Senior Deacon, Junior Deacon, Master of Ceremonies, Chaplain, Stewards, and Marshal. They shall be installed with elective officers. This will be the new complete Section 2 of this Article.

Substitute the following as a new Section 4 of Article III. All officers must be members of the Lodge except the Tyler who need not be a member of the Lodge, and who may be elected or appointed. This is the new Section 4 of Article III.

Your Committee finds no need for change in Article IV or V.

In Article VI add the following paragraph at the end of Section 1.

"In addition to the above, each Lodge shall collect from each candidate, before he receives the M.M. Degree, the sum of $5.00 for the benefit of the Special Purposes Fund of the Grand Lodge, and pay the same time the annual returns are made." This is the Section made necessary by the amendment of the 1956 Session.

In Article VII at the end of Section 2 insert this additional paragraph: "If the Lodge elects to do so it may use a check signed by the Worshipful Master, the Secretary and the Treasurer in lieu of issuing a warrant and a check as above provided.

Your committee does not find any changes in Articles VIII, IX or X.

In Article XI of Section 1 at the end of Line 3 following the word "notified" insert the following: "at least 7 days prior to" and the remainder of Section being the same.

These amended and corrected Model By-Laws cover the essentials of a good set of By-Laws and your Committee sees little reason for wide variations from the Model. It should be noted that By-Laws can only be amended through proper procedure and Lodge secretaries should take particular note of this procedure as regards to notifying the membership and the vote and other details of adoption.

Grand Master Elected and Installed

ELMER IRVING GIBSON

Grand Master, 1957

By HENRY G. TALIAFERRO, P. M.

FOUR RIVERS LODGE No. 369, F. & A. M.

Once again the Brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction have manifested their wisdom in electing a Grand Master who possesses all those qualities necessary to serve in that capacity. Elmer Irving Gibson is devoted and dedicated to the ideals and precepts of the Masonic Order. Never too busy to attend to duties that further the cause of Masonry and never too fatigued to go upon the errand of a distressed Brother Mason.

Brother Gibson was born November 10, 1910 in the little town of Tyro, Arkansas. The eldest son of Patrick Claiborne and Rittie (Anderson) Gibson. The family moved to Newellton, Louisiana in 1920 and then to the historic town of Harrisonburg, Louisiana in 1922, where Brother Gibson finished his elementary and high school education. After high school he entered Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, completing with honors a general accounting course.

Brother Gibson was employed by the United States Department of Agriculture in 1937 and has over the past years contributed much to the aid of the farmers in Catahoula Parish.

On June 15, 1938 Miss Audrey Lee Trichel became the wife of Brother Gibson and to this union two sons have been born, Joseph Patrick and Stephen Trichel.

In every community there are certain people known as Spark Plugs. Those you can depend on to help carry the burden of civic, religious and other community activities. Brother Gibson is one of those Plugs and it is only because of unboundless energy and devotion to his community that enables him to carry on the many activities and demands that are made on him.

He is an active member of the Harrisonburg Baptist Church.

His community activities involves membership on the Public School building and planning committee for his ward; Veteran Memorial Park planning committee; Secretary-Treasurer of the Catahoula Parish Fair and Soy Bean Festival; Cub Master for the local Cub Scout Pack; District Committee member of the Ouachita Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America and a member of the local draft board.

Brother Gibson served in the United States Navy during World War II, and is an active member of Trichel-Lee Post No. 223 of the American Legion. He has served as Post commander and Post adjutant of his local Post and represents same on the Catahoula Parish American Legion executive council, being Secretary-Treasurer of that organization.

Brother Gibson has been a faithful and active Mason since 1942, receiving his Master Mason degree July 4, 1942 in Harrisonburg Lodge No. 110, Harrisonburg, Louisiana.

He received his Royal Arch Mason degree in 1945 in Ferriday Chapter No. 89, R. A. M.

In 1953 he became a member of Shreveport Consistory, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite.

He was Knighted in Monroe Commandery No. 7, Knights Templar in 1955 and also in that year was greeted in Monroe Council No. 8, Royal and Select Masters.

In 1954 Brother Gibson was initiated a member of El Karubah, A.A.O.N.M.S. Shrine of Shreveport, Louisiana.

Brother Gibson was made an Honorary Member of the Louisiana Acacia Fraternity of Baton Rouge, in 1956 and is a member of the Elizabeth Thompson Chapter No. 189, O. E. S.

He is a member of Ouachita Conclave U. D., Red Cross of Constantine.

In the Fourth Masonic District Lodge Brother Gibson has served in all the stations being appointed D. D. G. M. 4th District in 1953.

It is largely through the untiring efforts of Brother Gibson that the Annual Outdoor Fort Hill Masonic meeting held each year in Harrisonburg, Louisiana has grown in attendance from 600 in 1946 to a peak of 1,488 in 1953.

Brother Gibson has served in various lesser capacities in the Grand Lodge of Louisiana faithfully and diligently until 1954 when he was elected Grand Junior Warden. He was advanced to Grand Senior Warden in 1955, Deputy Grand Master in 1956, and honored with the highest Post that the Brethren of this Jurisdiction can grant in 1957, that of most worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana.

In this connection it is interesting to note a statement by Major General Sir Allan Adair, Assistant Grand Master of the Grand Lodge in England, at a luncheon given by the Grand Lodge of the State of New York, that Masonic membership in England is at an all time high and still growing: increase during the preceding year had been 20,000 to a total membership of approximately 520,000.

Again it is time to write the account of our travels in foreign countries, our visits in dozens of Grand Lodges during which we peer over the shoulders of Grand Secretaries, eavesdrop on Grand Orators, and give careful attention to reports of Grand Masters, Committee Chairmen, Masonic Home Trustees and others. These travels and their attendant visits, of course, are possible only in imagination as we put on our seven-league boots and travel from one jurisdiction to another without ever leaving the reviewer's easy (?) chair. With each passing year the proceedings of the several jurisdictions fall more readily into a type or pattern, and as each volume is picked up, it is examined in the light of proceedings of the same Grand Lodge in earlier years: it is astounding how closely the patterns are repeated; the action of many Grand Lodges on pending legislation can be fairly accurately predicted from a knowledge of the attitude of previous sessions of the same body on similar proposals, although of course there are occasions when proposals, after having been rejected for several years in succession, are finally adopted by Grand Lodge.

The problem of Liability Insurance for Grand and constituent Lodges receives increased attention. Many Grand Lodges have arranged for liability coverage for each constituent Lodge—upon payment by the Lodge of a reasonable fee. Some Grand Masters have found it advisable to encourage Lodge officers to review their fire insurance coverage—this after it had been learned that some Lodges with substantial investment in real and movable property carried little or no insurance against loss by fire or windstorm.

Sponsorship of Youth Orders—Order of the Rainbow for Girls, Job's Daughters, and De Molay received much attention. Action taken ranged all the way from the Grand Lodges that not only authorize, but urge Constituent Lodges to back such organizations financially as well as with leadership—to the Grand Lodge that rejected a Grand Master's recommendation for such support as being an innovation and an unauthorized use of Masonic funds for non-Masonic purposes. The encouraging aspect is that this important problem of guidance of youth activity is receiving serious consideration at the hands of the leaders of our craft. Regardless of the decisions reached in the various Grand Lodges, the cause of youth guidance will have gained stature and will attract the favorable attention of thoughtful men as a result of the presentation of its case before these courts of Masonic Public Opinion.

Last year's proposal for "controlled invitation to Masonic Membership" by the Grand Master of Vermont drew several comments, most of which we are pleased to report, were unfavorable to the proposal.

In Connecticut a suit against a Temple Building Association and 9 brethren, claiming $100,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained during the conferral of the second section of a Master Mason degree was settled by the payment of $6,000.00. The incident took place during the conferral of a degree by a degree team. The settlement was paid by Grand Lodge and an attempt will be made to have Grand Lodge reimbursed by the individuals directly responsible. As a result of this incident Grand Lodge amended its law to read,

"The Master of a Lodge may permit any brother to confer the degrees in his presence in the Lodge; but the Master, and any acting Master who confers the degrees or permits the same or any portion thereof to be conferred in any Lodge in an improper manner, or contrary to the traditional standards of Connecticut Masonry, shall be guilty of a Masonic offense and shall be subject to the severest Masonic penalties."

M:W: Leslie Murch, Grand Master of New Hampshire, issued the following edict:

"For several years past the Grand Lodge has been deeply concerned as to the proper exemplification of the SECOND section of the MASTER MASON DEGREE. This is the culmination of the Candidate's introduction to Freemasonry, and, if it is to impress its lessons on his mind, must be conducted in such a manner that he will be able to concentrate his attention on its important teachings.

"That there may be no misunderstanding as to the attitude of the Grand Lodge in this matter, it is my direction that, immediately preceding the beginning of the SECOND section of the THIRD DEGREE, whenever the THIRD DEGREE is conferred in a New Hampshire Lodge, the following statement shall be read by the Master or acting Master.

"The SECOND section of the MASTER MASON DEGREE should implant in the mind of the Candidate, a deep and lasting impression of the fundamental teachings of Freemasonry. Anything which distracts his attention from the reception of these ideas is foreign to the purpose of the work in hand. Undue roughness, acting in a manner to arouse the amusement of the brethren, or audible laughter, from the sidelines, cannot fail to produce such distraction. It is the direction of the Grand Lodge that the work be conducted with a dignity and decorum that the ritual envisages and that the Candidate has a right to expect.

'Omission of this reading on the part of the Worshipful Master, or failure to comply with its intent on the part of any officer or member, may become the basis of reprimand or other disciplinary action.'

A portion of a report of a Special Committee to the Grand Lodge of South Dakota is pertinent:

"The Hiramic Drama is so significant that every participant should strive to his utmost to assure that nothing will detract from its potential value to the candidate. Unfortunately, some of the actors apparently do not realize the purpose and meaning of this stirring affair. They seem to consider some 'horse-play' necessary to satisfy their low sense of humor, or, perhaps, to make good their veiled promise or threat to the candidate. Whatever the motive, if any, everyone in Masonry suffers when that attitude is assumed!

"We believe it is the duty of the Worshipful Master of a Masonic Lodge which assumes to confer any of the Degrees in Masonry to take all reasonable care to avoid injury to the candidate. A little quiet visiting by the Master with the Senior Deacon and the Third Ruffian should fully meet the situation but if there is a continuance of objectionable activity on the part of these or any other officers or assisting members, it would seem that the Master should instruct the entire Lodge on the matter. If such instructions are ignored then the Master should treat such activity as constituting un-Masonic conduct and proceed under the applicable By-Laws."

W: Brother Floyd Holland, Senior Grand Deacon of Wyoming, in challenging and instructing Worshipful Masters at Grand Lodge, told them:

"My Brothers, how quickly time flies. A few years ago when you were appointed to start through the chairs in your respective Lodges you hoped some day in the distant future to be elected and installed Master of your respective Lodges. No fairer body of men exists anywhere in the world today than in our average Masonic Lodge. Your brethren gave you honest, sincere and careful consideration in selecting you to preside over them for this year. Your brethren saw in you more than just being a good ritualist, than perhaps having perfect attendance. In you, my brethren, your brethren saw leadership and guidance. I think most of the members of our Lodge do not realize how much time it takes to be a Master of one's Lodge.

"Being a Master is a very time-consuming job; they do not realize that a Master must be a Master 24 hours of the day, day and night, seven days a week, that he inspires his officers, that he makes plans and suggestions and brings out ideas, he puts thought and study into his work, oftentimes doing more than his own share. The Master doesn't follow because he is the leader. Being Master is a very strenuous undertaking. It is time-consuming and exacting.

"Into your hands is committed, my brothers, to a large degree the success of your Lodges. I am sure your brethren wanted you to be dignified, impressive and desperately in earnest. Hold up the hands of the officers serving under you, give them a pat on the back now and then. I know when you were elected you wondered, deep down in your heart, if you would be able to live up to the high honor that was bestowed upon you. My brethren, the year is swiftly drawing to a close and I know that you are going to wonder what happened to all those big ideas you had at the beginning of the year. You are nearer to being a Past Master than you think. In about three short months you will look back and wonder why you accomplished only half of those high ideals that you had. Your accomplishments may not seem much to you but these accomplishments added to those of your predecessors may stand out as a goal to those who come after you."

The Grand Lodge of Delaware abolished jurisdictional lines within the state: a petitioner who is a resident of Delaware may now apply to any Lodge in the state.

South Carolina adopted a resolution requiring that every Master Mason have his blood typed and inform his Lodge Secretary of the result: that both type and RH factor be shown on each member's dues card.

In the Grand Lodge of Western Australia it appears that while a brother is in the process of becoming a Master Mason he is restricted from attending rehearsals, and he is not permitted to visit unless accompanied by his Worshipful Master or a Past Master. He cannot recommend a friend for the degrees of Masonry until he has been a Master Mason for 12 months and cannot be installed Master of a Lodge until he has been a Master Mason for at least three years.

The Grand Master of Minnesota recommended that all appointive Grand Lodge line officers and all who have held those appointments be entitled to be designated "Very Worshipful".

Upon receiving the Grand Representatives one Grand Master asked for a show of hands to indicate those who were corresponding with the Grand Lodges they represent. The purpose was to prepare to eliminate as "dead wood" those representatives that actually do not represent their principals; a commendable purpose.

The Grand Lodge of Arizona approved the Grand Master's recommendation that proof of conviction of a felony committed by a Mason be deemed to be evidence of non-Masonic conduct.

R:W: Charles H. Nitsch, Grand Master of Pennsylvania, ruled, "Masters, Wardens, Lodge Officers, Past Masters and Master Masons occupying the East for conferring degrees must be clothed in proper Masonic dress and wear a high silk hat. Any other type of clothing is prohibited. This holds for all meetings, stated or extra."

The Committee on Education of the Grand Lodge of Vermont recommended that a survey be made of the libraries throughout the state to see what volumes pertaining to Masonry are available to the general public. The survey task was delegated to the D. D. G. M's.

Texas requires that a Birth Certificate or certified copy of birth certificate be filed with each petition. The original certificate may then be withdrawn upon filing a photostatic copy with the Lodge Secretary—the certificate or copy to be preserved among the permanent records of the Lodge.

The Grand Lodge of South Dakota refused to concur in the Grand Master's recommendation that the offices of Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer be combined.

The Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia adopted legislation providing that all clubs where membership is based on Masonic affiliation shall submit any money-raising plans to the Grand Master in advance for his approval.

The Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets was refused permission to form a Grotto in New Mexico.

In West Virginia a resolution had been introduced a year ago amending the By-Laws to permit the White Shrine of Jerusalem to meet in Lodge Temples; the resolution was due to come before Grand Lodge for action. Two Past Masters had circularized all Lodges in the state, urging them to direct their representatives to support the amendment. The Grand Master ruled that for a "subordinate" Lodge to instruct its delegates how to vote is contrary to the constitution. He further declared that "action or any discussion of the proposed amendment is out of order at this communication."

The Grand Master of Washington reported on a group known as the "Order of True Kindred", a group composed of both men and women, displaying signs, symbols and insignia which are peculiar to Freemasonry, claiming to confer degrees that were Masonic, and setting themselves forth as the oldest of the so-called "Adoptive Degree Orders of Masonry." Under recommendation of the Grand Master the group was declared to be clandestine.

One of the most commendable and, in its potential for good, one of the most far-reaching actions that has come to our attention in recent years was the establishment by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania of the Pennsylvania Mason Juvenile Court Institute, designed to "benefit emotionally disturbed and troubled children, regardless of race, creed or color, thereby strengthening democracy at its roots and insuring the future of our country." Of more than 100 Juvenile Court judges who indicated their desire to attend, 20 were selected and participated, becoming the first Fellows of the Institute. These 20 judges, Protestant, Catholic, Jewish, from 14 states, from both large and small communities came together to make a clinical study of a Court that devotes all its time to children's work. They lived together, consulting with each other and with outstanding leaders in related fields. The total expense of the institute approximated $6,000.00; the good that was accomplished can never be measured but the institute met with such overwhelming approval that its continuity is assured.

Maine adopted a ritual for combining military honors with a Masonic funeral service.

Ohio appointed a Committee to prepare for their Sesquicentennial observance in 1958.

Although the Grand Lodge of Georgia has been operating a Children's Home successfully and without criticism for more than 50 years, they were required last year to apply to the Department of Public Welfare for a license as a child-caring institution. We have had to comply with a similar regulation in Louisiana. The trend toward government regulation appears irresistible.

In Maine they appointed a Committee to investigate (1) the need for a home for poor and distressed brethren and (2) ways and means of raising funds. An additional annual assessment was mentioned.

The Grand Lodge of Oklahoma completed a new 54 room addition to the Masonic Home for the Aged. In 1954 the Order of the Eastern Star turned over $54,521.21 to apply on construction costs; this year they gave $45,454.23 for furnishings.

During the past two years the brethren of New Jersey contributed $352,612.72 (including bequests) to pay the cost of building a wing on their infirmary.

In Missouri the brethren raised $800,000.00 for a new hospital and men's building on the Masonic Home grounds.

In the District of Columbia the Grand Master set apart Sunday for visiting the sick.

In New Hampshire Grand Master Leslie F. Murch resigned as Professor of Physics at Dartmouth College to be able to give full time and undivided attention to the duties of the office of Grand Master.

M:W: Carey Wilson, Grand Master of Arizona, reported that he visited every Lodge in Arizona despite his having been confined to a hospital and his bed at home with a severe heart attack from mid-May to early Fall.

Brazelton Lodge No. 190 at Dandridge, Tennessee had three blood brothers serving as W. M., S. W., and J. W. at the same time.

All 6 Australian state Governors last year were Freemasons, three of them serving their respective Grand Lodges as Grand Masters.

MASONS AT SIGHT

Governor Leader, in the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, Major General Jacob Edward Smart in the Grand Lodge of South Carolina.

Making a Mason "at sight" does not imply the creation of a Master Mason "by proclamation". All three degrees are conferred in full form, at the same communication; the Master Mason degree usually being conferred by Grand Lodge officers.

The Grand Master of Masons of New York commented appreciatively on the action of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana in marking Lt. Commander Hart's burial place at St. Francisville.

The Grand Chaplain, V:W: Bro. Rev. George M. Young, who conducted the Annual Service of Thanksgiving of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick was the same George M. Young who had been Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge 49 years earlier in 1907.

The Library Committee reported to the Grand Lodge of Arizona, "The Library still remains in its ancient and non-existent form."

We quote below two eloquent tributes to the flag of our Country; the first by our friend and neighbor, M:W: R. Bruce Brannon, D.D., Past Grand Master of Texas:

"Since the beginning of time man has used many aids in education and to remind him of great truths. Among these aids symbols have always played a very important part. A symbol is that which stands for or suggests something else. Symbols are usually very simple.

"The Cross,' once despised, as the gallows, as the instrument of execution of hardened criminals, has become the symbol of deep love and great sacrifice made by one for many.

"The Star of David,' used by the Nazis as the badge of infamy and the mark of death, is the symbol or reminder of the "Sweet Singer of the Psalms," the "man after God's own heart."

"The rings we wear upon our fingers and the pins so proudly displayed on our coat lapels are the beloved symbols of brotherhood and charity known and honored about earth.

"So this morning we gather to pay tribute to another precious symbol, The American Flag. Born in days of desperation and gloom; born of great struggle and agony, it has become the symbol of freedom, recognized as such by men everywhere. Throughout earth sinister powers and evil forces are at work in a great attempt to enslave men's minds and bodies. Yes, they wish to destroy all that true men love and revere. And shining brightly in the darkness of the gloom above them, shines this great symbol of freedom. This flag, alone, tells them to have courage. Human rights and the value of the individual man, though crushed to earth, shall rise again and out of the darkness of the present day shall come forth the dawn of a new day, where men everywhere shall be free in mind and body and soul.

"Spend many days far from 'the land of the free and the home of the brave' as many of us have done during the prosecution of two wars and you can more fully appreciate the message of 'Old Glory.' Away from the light and liberty of the great nation protected under the folds of that Flag and you will learn well the message it teaches.

"My Brethren, upon each one of us reposes the duty to be a constant witness to the message of our Flag. Thus, I call upon every Brother present this morning to rededicate every fibre of our being to the perpetuating of the American Way. I call upon you to be ever alert to the dangers confronting us. I urge you to be ever ready to fight these evil forces attacking us even now.

"May our prayer be that: no stain shall ever appear on that symbol and that she ever send forth her message of freedom for mankind.

"So join me in rededicating ourselves to God, and to that Flag—symbol of a free people under God who are determined to remain free whatever the cost."

The second, delivered in the Grand Lodge of Virginia, is by Brother Rear Admiral John W. W. Cumming:

"A Salute to thee, Old Glory, the Stars and Stripes—
Our Flag!

"Thou wast born, June 14, 1777:

"Thy field of blue with (forty-eight) stars of white doth represent the union of States while thy thirteen stripes of red and white, the original colonies, the first States to form the United States of America, our Country; but—thou are more;

"Thou are a silent symphony of Red, White and Blue, the harmony of Home and Country composed by GOD, HIMSELF, the Master of Life, Liberty, Equality and the Pursuit of Happiness—thy glorious theme;

"Thy canton of Blue, like the firmament, displays now a galaxy, a constellation of bright shining stars in one of which each of us has a Home, yet, every other star is likewise a Home for each of us—one for all and all for one—a Perfect Union:

“Thy stripes of White, six in number, emblazon on high, the purity of purpose of Creation by the Almighty GOD WHOSE Omniscience and Omnipotence, in six days, brought into being all there is, including Earth and over all therein gave HE dominion to Man—and—God was pleased because all was good; thus was thy birth first planned;

“Thy stripes of Red, seven in number, one for each day of the week in which to render passionate, living, virile worship and service to the Infinite, by man serving man in joy and sadness, in plenty and poverty, in health and sickness, regardless of cost, sacrifice, race, color or creed; thus do our part by Providence planned;

“I salute thee, my Flag, because thou dost symbolize all I hold most dear—GOD! Home! Country!—and I will defend thee against all enemies, domestic and foreign!

“I salute thee!”

M:W: Brother Angus Y. Bethune, Grand Orator of Idaho, outlined the Western concept of the State thus:

“To fully understand our responsibilities we ought briefly to review the fundamental concepts on which the American Nation—that particular State offering the greatest opportunity for individual development, the Masonic ideal if you will, rests. These fundamentals are all too often forgotten in the complexities of daily life, buried in the operations of party machinery, and obscured in the rough and tumble of partisan politics. And there are those who would deliberately obscure them for their own purposes.

“First and foremost they begin with the concept that man is the child of God and as such he has a status and a relationship with God, which cannot be given or withheld by human society. He has certain inalienable rights such as the right to life, to liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. As a human being man has tremendous significance. He has religious, cultural and vocational purposes here on earth which are personal goals, not purely social ones. The value of the individual is held supreme.

“Second, Western tradition holds, along with the Masonic fraternity, that the State is instituted by man, for man. The State is supposed to provide that liberty which will allow a man to shape his own life, to take hold of the Institution, to run it, rather than have the Institution run him. The desire to control one's own destiny has been expressed as a dominant theme in thought and Institutions throughout the course of Western European history, from whence originated our basic thoughts in matters pertaining to government. When the State fails to provide for either the liberty of the individual or for the safety of property necessary for his peaceful existence, then the State has failed of its basic purpose. The State is supposed to protect the man, his life and property and liberty; it's to protect him against the tyranny of kings, economic exploitation by the wealthy, or the tyranny of a political majority without care for the grace of living. This matter of the well-being of men and women looms large in our political tradition.

"Third, the state is a political community which moves within an orbit of prescribed rules, known as the Law—and is not run by caprice.

"When rule of law prevails the individual knows where he is today and where he will be tomorrow. He knows what to expect, his life is relatively secure. Because of political stability the individual can accept personal responsibility for his acts. The family unit becomes strengthened.

"Finally, our concept of an acceptable State is one in which the man governed makes the laws under which he will live. This is what we do individually every time we vote. Our constitution and our laws should be designed to protect us against the incursions of arbitrary rule, the confiscation of property and the usurpation of power by individuals, misdirected majorities or governmental bureaus.

"If we are to maintain the atmosphere in which equality of opportunity is to exist, where freedom of action is guaranteed, where the citizen is protected from his enemies, personal and impersonal, where his property is held secure, where religious, political and personal freedom is maintained, then we must spend some time keeping the atmosphere clear, defending it against invasion by the enemies of freedom. Toynbee says that the price of liberty is not only eternal vigilance; it is perpetual hard labor as well.

"We need patience to offset our natural tendency to be impetuous, to give us time to understand our brother's problem, whether it be the neighbor next door or the oppressed, freedom-seeking brother in foreign lands—to give us time to convince him by gentle persuasive means, that we seek him not as a satellite but as an ally in the common purpose of world peace and universal brotherhood. And we need a sense of dedication to the great cause of Americanism in its loftiest sense, that temporary setbacks shall not discourage us nor powerful deterrents thwart us in our noble and glorious purpose."

W: Brother Everett T. Copenhaver, Secretary of State of Wyoming, addressed the Grand Lodge of Wyoming as follows:

"I must confess that on more than one occasion I have been disappointed as well as astounded at the apathy of our citizens in general, but more especially our brother Masons in things connected with Government. You like your Lodge or you wouldn't be here today and probably wouldn't spend your money to keep yourself in good standing in this organization. History tells us that there are two ways by which nations lose their liberties—one by being conquered by an outside power which doesn't recognize individual rights, the other by a nation becoming weak within itself because its people do not appreciate their liberties. The last reason is by far the most common. Those who appreciate their freedom as did the early settlers of America guard it jealously. However, after a few generations, unless political leaders and educators keep clearly in mind those ideals and principles which gave birth and support to individual freedom, the younger generation soon begins to take their liberties as a matter of course and fails to accept these responsibilities of citizenship which would safeguard it.

"Many of you have heard me say this before and I believe it bears repeating. Do we think it was a mere coincidence that the Boston Tea Party was planned and carried out by Masons? Do you think it was a mere accident that the Declaration of Independence reads as if it had been taken from a Masonic Ritual? And that nearly all the signers of the Declaration of Independence were Masons? Have you considered the significance of the fact that if only four members of the Constitutional Convention had retired that the Convention could have been opened as a Lodge of Masonry? All but four of that Constitutional Convention belonged to the Lodge. No wonder it has been said that the Constitution of the United States is Masonry put into political practice. Was it by chance that Washington and nearly all of his Generals were Masons? Or that our first national President took the Oath of Office on a Bible taken from a Masonic Altar and that oath was administered by the then Grand Master of the State of New York. I think it is high time that we Masons throw off the cloak of apathy and indifference and come alive to our responsibilities to our country, our fraternity and to ourselves. I have no quarrel with the traditions that Freemasonry takes no part as an organization in partisan politics. I do take issue with those who insist that everything pertaining to public life and the affairs of Government should be placed in that category. Freemasons were alert, active, energetic and highly influential in creating this Republic. The perpetuation of Masonic ideals and the defense of individual liberties summon us to be articulate in Government so that the teachings of this Fraternity may be a beacon light to guide a troubled world in times like these. Whether you like it or not Government is here to stay. It is for us to determine what kind of Government. Whether we like it or not, if we wish to continue to enjoy our Masonic Fraternity and the other blessings that we enjoy as citizens of these United States, we must realize that they only exist under our form of Government. It is your Government, take pride in it and, above all, take part in it."

M:W: Edward W. Kuns, Grand Master, spoke in similar vein as he addressed the Grand Lodge of Ohio:

"Masonry strictly prohibits politics in the Lodge room and it is un-Masonic to bring political affairs into your Lodge meeting, but evidently too many Masons are interpreting that to mean that they have a right to sit on the side lines and not take part in any phase of government. We have a duty to our fellow man to spend time and effort in the furtherance of good government and as individuals to actively take a part in good government on every level. Good Masons should be willing to make the necessary sacrifice to be school board members, township and county officials, mayors, and in every appointive and elective office in our country, state and nation. We need men trained in the principles of our fraternity as governors, senators, and representatives. No good Mason is too busy, too disinterested, or too sanctified to engage in the political life of the country. The surest and best way to combat Communism is to carry the principles of our Masonic teachings into all positions and all levels of government and be as devoted and active to the wonderful tenets and ideals of and heritage of our Craft and our country as our Communistic opponents have been devoted to their unholy, unworthy, and anti-Masonic movements.

"There may be some newly made or misinformed Masons that have the impression that they can receive special favors and influence from their Brothers who are in a position of authority, or that they may expect a better job of their employer who is a Mason, or that they may demand of a Brother who is a judge or a police chief to fix the traffic ticket of a brother Mason.

"These poor, deluded members of our Craft who seek through Masonry to get special favors such as a better job, or to escape justice have utterly failed to grasp the real secret of Masonry, and will never reap the real benefits that our Brotherhood can bestow. Such benefits can never be realized by a selfish interpretation of our teachings. Masonry teaches adherence to the law of the land and no Mason who is a good and true man should ask or expect favors in the outside world to which nonmembers of our Craft would not be equally entitled.

"Let us constantly keep in mind that our fraternity is based upon the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God, and will prosper so long as we adhere to the fundamentals of our Order. That we are placed on this earth by the Supreme Architect of the Universe and must discern God's plan in the designs upon the Trestle-board of our life. Let us serve not only fellow Masons but all mankind, working together for everything that is good in the sight of God and ever remembering that Masonry today is what we are and that the profane world judges Masonry by our lives and actions. May our lives continually show to the world that the real secret of Masonry is service, service to our fellow man and service through them to God."

M:W: William L. Wright, Grand Master of Canada, spoke on "The Place of Freemasonry in Society:

"Freemasonry in many parts of the world today enjoys prosperity. Through the portals of our Lodge rooms a constant flow of candidates enter, with the customary financial benefits. In some countries where dictatorships had suppressed the Craft, there are Lodges again at work. In many countries, however, Masonry is being persecuted by a form of totalitarianism which is not necessarily materialistic in nature. This insidious attack is all the more surprising when one considers the moral objectives which have from time immemorial characterized Freemasonry. The political and social ramifications of the forms of Government in other countries which are contrary to our democratic way of life have placed formidable obstacles in the way of Freemasonry. Our brethren need our sympathy, understanding, and beneficent assistance in these lands. This is a primary and fundamental challenge to the spirit of true brotherhood.

"It is important for this Grand Lodge to keep before it the ideals for which Freemasonry has always stood, if we are to chart our course intelligently for the future. It inculcates the doctrine of brotherhood. It stimulates compassion for the unfortunate and cements the ties of true friendship. Within the lodge room rank and birth means little, and power of Masonic research and zeal mean much. Men, who associated themselves with our Fraternity in the early days of this Jurisdiction when the pioneer spirit was being unfolded, were insistent in promulgating those Masonic tenets and principles which have made this area a stable Masonic community.

"Entering upon a new century of Masonic endeavour fresh emphasis must be placed upon those qualities of heart and mind characteristic of true Masonry. Possibly our greatest danger of the present time is the possession of Masonic respectability. Commendable as it may appear to show an ever-increasing membership, more commodious temples, and substantial financial reserves, the main function of our being of making 'good men and true' must never be obliterated.

"The counter attraction and interest of present day society are tampering with the constant attendance of the Mason at his Lodge meetings. The increasing demands made upon Masons who hold varied responsible positions are prone to dilute his whole-hearted allegiance to the Craft. The insidious inroads of fascinating programmes on television tend to drain off the "search for truth" which should mark the true Mason in his pursuits. These internal, competitive forces are as great a challenge to Freemasons in our province as the external attacks of foreign philosophies upon our Order in other parts of the world. In the rapidly-changing social structure which surrounds us, complacency may become Masonry's deadliest foe. I do not desire to be an alarmist but I believe it is one of the functions of a Grand Master to submit a re-appraisal of those Ancient Landmarks which must never be undermined by our negligence, unworthiness and indifference. Every Mason in Lodge, intent upon the assimilation of the truths imparted therein and prepared to exemplify these virtues in his personal and corporate life, is the resounding challenge to the Freemason."

M:W: Camilo Osias, Grand Master, in his inaugural address to the Grand Lodge of the Philippines, said:

"Freemasonry enthrones democracy. Its mandate to manly men in the service of God and humanity is clear. It says: Support democratic governments. Bolster democratic institutions. Strengthen democratic processes. Do not compromise with totalitarianism or communism which is not only undemocratic but anti-democratic. Continue to make Freemasonry a real democracy in action."

M:W: James H. Cuddington, Grand Master, concluded his address to the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan:

"Let us live our Masonry and re-affirm our unshakeable faith in the Most High. Freemasonry is founded upon principles, the faithful practice of which is sorely needed in the world today. It has ever stood for Truth, Justice, Tolerance, Understanding and Brotherly Love and is ideally and completely equipped to meet the modern challenge to the happiness of the world. I am convinced that if the principles of Freemasonry were today made the basis of relationships between men and nations, there would be an early and lasting peace on earth. I am certain that by the exercise of patience and wisdom we can so live and promulgate these teachings throughout our private and public affairs so as to attain for the world that peace we so fervently desire. We must never lose sight of the fact that we teach a great system of morals. We must ever seek to inspire lofty ideals. I close with verses from the prophetic pen of Albert Pike—

'When the armies of earth are disbanded
And their trappings are coated with dust;
When the musket forever is silent,
And the cannon is cankered with rust;
When the sword and the helmet lie tarnished
'Mid the rubbish of pomp and display—
We shall wake to the glorious dawning
Of the promised Fraternal day.

'And that day shall bring joy to the nations,
And open the portals of light
To invade the morasses of darkness
And dispel the miasmas of night;
Then the Empire of Right shall be founded.
And the sway of its sceptre increase,
'Til mankind shall stand shoulder to shoulder
In the ranks—not of war, but of Peace.'

The Committee on Fraternal Dead of the Grand Lodge of Canada quoted the 9 rules for contented living, credited to Goethe, the German poet and philosopher:

"Health enough to make life a pleasure; wealth enough to support your needs; strength enough to battle with difficulties and overcome them; grace enough to confess your sins and forsake them; patience enough to toil until some good is accomplished; charity enough to see some good in your neighbor; love enough to move you to be useful and helpful to others; faith enough to make real the things of God; hope enough to remove all anxious fears concerning the future."

We quote the conclusion of the report of the Necrology Committee of Delaware:

"Out of the world's deepest sorrow came the world's most glorious hope. What appeared to be death, as the world saw the Son of God nailed to a cross, was in reality the birth of eternal life. What appeared to be victory for Satan was in reality the defeat of Satan's forces, the proof that light is eternally triumphant over darkness and life victorious over death.

"This is the faith we need for the sorrow of this hour. It is the faith which can be ours through our blessed Saviour who promised. 'If it were not so, I would have told you.'

'Let us not mourn their going;
Let us rejoice to know
That earthly labors finished
They were prepared to go.
Let us emulate their virtues,
That men of us may say:
The world is brighter, better,
Because they passed this way.'"

We give you this fragment from a beautiful tribute to Brother Isaac Cherry, beloved Grand Secretary of New Jersey:

"In the hush of the holy place we stood in solemn wonder at the close of an earthly life and the threshold of life eternal.

"And the sorrow that filled our hearts was like the deepening shadows of the night through which the Evening Star serenely shines; and our consolation was like the dawn of the morn through which the Morning Star serenely shines with the promise of a new day. For the Evening Star and the Morning Star of our faith is the conviction that Man, whom God created in his own image, cannot be holden by death.

"Vainly doth blind unbelief proclaim
That Death doth Life explain
Death is not the end-all;
Death only humbles and fills with gall.
The explanation of life is life:
Of this earthly life, Life Eternal.

"If life ended with that which is mortal, then indeed the outlook were very drear, but viewed in the perspective of eternity, it is glorious and radiant. Brother Cherry was no clod of dirt, but a light that did shine among us for a generation. He was light radiant when he sought admission into the fellowship of our Craft; he was light radiant when he made more clear to youth the deeper meaning of the Book of Life; he was light radiant in the bosom of his family and the circle of his friends; he was light radiant as he advanced from service to service and honor to honor under the banner of our Fraternity; he was light radiant when his earthly frame was racked with pain; and when he came face to face with Death, he welcomed its approach as 'a kind messenger to translate him from this imperfect to that all-perfect, glorious and celestial Lodge above . . .'

"For such a life and such light, glory be to God who said: 'Let there be light' and has given to willing minds the privilege of shedding it abroad."

From the Necrology Report, of the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire:

"High Twelve! Lo! Judah's lion stoops to save;
His strong right hand is reaching downward to the grave.
The dead shall stand.
A grip, a word, he springs upright.
Shadows fly;
He basks in Heaven's eternal light,
No more to die.
High Twelve!"

And from New Jersey:

"Around me and about me and beneath me
Closer than breathing, nearer than any friend,
God's Everlasting Arms enfold to shield me,
To guide me and use me to the end.

"Human arms may weary in their holding,
Human hands may fail the weight they bear,
But, O those Everlasting Arms—enfolding,
They never for a moment fail me there.

"I wake each morning in their silent keeping
To rise to work and do God's secret will,
Life passes, whether walking, whether sleeping,
But the Everlasting Arms enfold me still."

From Nebraska:

"How fast they fall, those we have known
As leaves from autumn branches blow so quickly seared
Yes, one by one they drop away
As leaves that fall, and stray and disappear.
Sleep on, dear friends. Such lives as thine
Have not been lived in vain,
But shed an influence rare, divine,
On those who here remain."

"We pause now not to sorrow for those whom God has called home, for the dead need neither grief nor sympathy. They have attained nobler things, for they have seen the King and with Him have entered into an endless eternity.

"On this occasion let us remember their contribution to us and to our fraternity. Let us use their lives as a compass to chart our lives along life's road to higher and nobler purposes and greater accomplishments. If we do this, our brothers shall not have lived in vain, and we in turn may set an example for those who in future years will pause in their deliberations to pay respect to our memory.

"These brethren have all left their mark. We are better men and the world is a better place in which to live because of their sojourn amongst us. In the spirit of brotherhood let us remember them in their past, in their deeds that made life glorious and worthy of emulation. Let us remember that the time comes on apace when the curtain will fall for each of us and we also shall pass from the vision of our friends and loved ones. And now, as we usher them into the hall of memory, we close the door with these words of hope:

'When the tide, receding, ebbs across the bar
And the weary seamen sight a land afar,
Heavenly Master, bring these mariners in peace
To the Shore Eternal where the breakers cease.'

From South Carolina:

"It is one of the common and ever-recurring events in human affairs that people die. Those whom we have known are known no more. Those we love are taken away from us. Every occasion of death teaches us that this is not our abiding-place, but rather that we are in the land of the dying, and are rapidly passing away. It is good for us in the midst of these circumstances, to pause and to think, and to seriously contemplate ourselves and our affairs, and to realize that our stay here is but for a little while.

"Since our last Annual Communication, God in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to call from this earthly Grand Lodge to that Celestial Grand Lodge above 580 of our friends and Brothers.

"For these: The silver cord is loosed; the golden bowl is broken; the pitcher is broken at the fountain and the wheel at the cistern; man has gone to his long home and the mourners have gone about the streets. It is not for us to measure the length of the cord, or to tell the capacity of the bowl, or to determine the drawing capacity of the wheel. He who holds the water in the hollow of his hand, and metes out heaven with a span, now has the souls of these in his own keeping. We cannot replace the pieces and say: This was the man. God alone can put the fragments together and estimate their worth.

"It is good to have known these in the every day walks of life, it is good to have known them as Brothers and as Masons. Yes, it is good to have known them and to feel their influence upon us still. And it is still better to look forward to meeting them again in the serene peace, and the open vision of the Heavenly life, in the fulness of a new and glorified life."

Finally, from Vermont:

"At this and every annual meeting,
 'We speak of many a vanished scene,
 Of what we once had thought and said,
 Of what had been, and might have been,
 And who was changed, and who was dead.'

* * * * *

"Who is there who does not ask again and again, 'If a man die, shall he live again?' Even though we do not speak it out, it echoes over and over in our minds. If we have been reading recent psychical investigation, we may phrase the question in this way, 'Does man ever die?'"

"Our fears tempt us to think that the idea of immortality is the great poetic achievement of the human mind; or that it is the fruit of profound philosophical thought. But our faith, expressed in the teachings of our Masonic Fraternity, affirms that the idea of immortality is on the contrary the reflection of Reality. It is more than the projection of our hopes. Our faith in immortality is an accessory after the fact.

"The Great Fact is God. The doctrine of immortality is a corollary of belief in God. This has long been the conviction of theologians and now many reputable scientists are giving serious consideration to that aspect of Reality within and beyond what was considered the material world.

"Is not our difficulty in knowing God due largely to straining to define God's nature and manifestations? And likewise is it not true that our chief difficulty in affirming our faith in immortality is due to straining to be too precise in the definition and description of life everlasting?"

"As the demand inherent in the human mind for causation indicates a First Cause, so the demand for more of life than our earthly span can possibly give bespeaks its continuance and fulfillment beyond time. Remember the lines of the poet . . .

It must be so: —Plato, thou reason'st well—
 Else whence this pleasing hope, this fond desire,
 This longing after immortality?
 Or whence this secret dread, and inward horror
 Of falling into nought? Why shrinks the Soul
 Back on herself, and startles at destruction?
 'Tis the Divinity that stirs within us;
 'Tis Heaven itself that points out a hereafter
 And intimates eternity to man—
 The steps shall fade away, the Sun himself
 Grow dim with age, and Nature sink in years;
 But thou shalt flourish in immortal youth,
 Unhurt amidst the war of elements,
 The wreck of matter and the crash of worlds.'

"But why do they 'flourish in immortal youth'—they who are no longer our visible companions and our brothers? Is it because of their inherent worth, "the divinity that stirs within us" as the poet put it? Is man immortal by virtue of his nature? Is it his intrinsic worth that makes him so? Does he have a right to immortality as a human soul? Nay! Man does not deserve to survive. And he has no inherited or vested right to immortality."

"Is man's immortality a reward for his virtue? Is it God's conditional gift, based upon man's behavior? We must say 'No!' emphatically; for the price is far beyond our power to pay in any way.

"It is by God's mercy that man is immortal. It is by God's grace that man does not die but lives forever. It is by God's love that man's life is redeemed. There is an old German motto which affirms that those who live in the Lord never see each other for the last time. This saying grew out of the experience of God's grace. The knowledge of God and the experience of His love is our assurance that we shall live forever. Underneath are the everlasting arms which shall continue to carry us over all the threatening, cavernous depths which seem from time to time to menace our extinction.

"And so each man who says, 'I believe in God' or 'My trust is in God' may also and consequently say (with Byron) 'I feel my immortality o'ersweep all pains, all tears, all time, all fears; and peal, like the eternal thunders of the deep, into my ears 'his truth—thou livest forever!'"

LODGE INTEREST AND ATTENDANCE

W: Brother Frank S. Land, the founder of the Order of De Molay, delivered a stirring address before the Grand Lodge of Maine; one that should cause some soul-searching on the part of Masonic leaders. Some excerpts from that address follow:

"Let's go back to July 4, 1776. There were less than two million males in the Colonies, and there were less than two thousand Freemasons. However, virtually every one of those men were leaders in their own communities; they were the men who surrounded George Washington—the men who did things—who financed and ran the war. One out of every thousand men in the Colonies was a Mason. Out of the fifty-six men who signed the Declaration of Independence, thirty-one were Masons. And you know also that in the Constitutional Convention, thirty-nine of the signers of that historic document were Masons. In 1800 they did not have, as far as we are able to find, even the two thousand Masons they had in 1776. In 1850 there probably weren't more than six or seven thousand acknowledged Masons in the Colonies. Then along came the Spanish-American War, and in 1900, there were more than eight hundred and forty-nine thousand Masons on the North American scene. Almost overnight in 1917, our membership climbed to 1 million 700 thousand. Just think how Masonry climbed in those seventeen years! After World War II, Masonic membership climbed to more than three million five hundred thousand. Year before last on the North American Continent Masonic membership climbed to four million one hundred and thirteen thousand. Just think of the growth that took place in that period of time.

"Our greatest gains have been made in the last fifty-six years. Now, let me digress for a moment.

"In 1900, the great moving organization in Freemasonry on this Continent were the Templars. They had four hundred and eighty thousand members. At the bottom, so to speak, were the Scottish Rite Bodies. Here in your Northern Jurisdiction there were more than twenty-eight thousand in the Lodges of Perfection, and in the Southern Jurisdiction, there were only eleven thousand Scottish Rite Masons.

"And then what began to happen? Up here, something began to put a pall on Templarism, and it began to decline. Scottish Rite Masonry began to grow so that in the 1920's they met. Templarism kept going down, and Scottish Rite kept rising, until tonight, there are close to one million Scottish Rite Masons on the North American Continent.

"We had a meeting sometime ago at Asheville, North Carolina, of the General Grand Chapter and General Grand Council. Every jurisdiction does not belong to that Body, but three years ago, in 1951, there were 172 thousand Cryptic Masons belonging to the General Grand Council. In three years, Cryptic Masonry had lost twenty thousand, and at the meeting in New York last year of the Grand Encampment, Templarism was reported at three hundred eighty thousand, or a loss of one hundred thousand in fifty-five years, and that is something to think about. I do not know how many of you Brethren have traveled throughout our country. I do not know where your visitations have been, but let me say this to you—it is pathetic to walk into any Blue Lodge that I have visited in these past thirty years and see the small attendance—the Master and Wardens conferring degrees, if they have candidates, and only a few of the loyal Past Masters on the job.

"This is the pathetic thing—ninety-two per cent of those who take these first three degrees come back once or twice, and never come back again! If you take all the officers—there are seventeen thousand Blue Lodges on the North American Continent—if you take all the officers of every one of our seventeen thousand Blue Lodges and just for quick multiplication, let us take ten for each Lodge—we would have one hundred seventy thousand officers—take all of the officers of the Royal Arch Masonry—all of the Chapters on the Continent—take all of the Councils and their officers—take all of the Commanderies and their officers, take all of the Scottish Rite Bodies—Northern, Southern, Canadian—take all the officers of the one hundred sixty-six Temples of the Shrine, Brethren, and put them all together and you would be hard pressed—and you would have to 'butter it' tremendously—to have three hundred thousand men working for and in behalf of Freemasonry on this Continent out of the four million one hundred thirteen thousand Masons that make up the Craft on this Continent!

"Ninety-two per cent don't come back, and we have to struggle with that problem, but think what a tremendous growth we have had in this period. But, Brethren, somewhere in this picture we have lost that 'gimmick' I call it—that thing that actuated the men of 1776 and those through the period of the eighteenth century—all of them were leaders, so to speak. I can remember forty-five years ago when I took my First Degree. I can remember I was worried and was excited, wondering if I had passed the test after my petition had been placed before my Lodge. Then the word came that I was to receive the First Degree, and I thought to myself, 'Frank Land, this is the greatest day of your life. You have been accepted by men to be among men!'

"And here is a peculiar thing—I was saying to Grand Master Powers, while we were eating, 'do you know forty-five years ago, the man who was the Master of the Lodge in most every crossroads community was either the banker, the judge, the big lawyer or the big businessman of the community, and he might have had the job for ten, twelve, fifteen years, and no one ever even moved up; and he might not have given the ritual any too well, either, but everybody in the community turned out to Lodge; everybody was there. Why? Because Mr. So-and-So or Judge So-an-So was the leader.'

"Somewhere in the picture we have lost the 'gimmick' of bringing these men—these leaders in our communities—and holding them in our Lodges.

"I wish that everywhere I could get the message over—that we could bring into these Lodges these men who stay away—the ninety-two per cent—and let them kneel again at the altar or sit at the side of their Master and Wardens and get a little of the stardust of Freemasonry on their mantles again. This is the thing that is going to make Freemasonry the thing you and I want so badly to have it be.

"Now Scottish Rite, as I have pictured it, has had a glorious success. York Rite, Royal Arch Masonry, is the big dog of the whole outfit as far as one group is concerned. They have six hundred twenty thousand, I think, in the Royal Arch Masonry on this Continent, but there the picture ends. Cryptic Masonry has lost twenty thousand in three years; Templarism has lost one hundred thousand in fifty-five years; and Brethren, let me say this to you Templars—if there is any one group of the Protestant faith that is sworn by vows of allegiance to a defense of the Cross, it is we Knights Templar—and if Knight Templarism passes out of the picture in the next fifty, seventy-five, one hundred years, it will be the worst 'body blow' to Protestantism that Protestantism has ever had. So as we begin to look at the picture, even in the midst of our growth, there are signs that there can be defeat as well.

"You and I, in our lifetime, have seen civilization crumble and pass out. We have seen tongues vanish—the Indian tongue is one of them that is almost extinct. The great machines, the great wonders of civilization of twenty-five and thirty years ago, are in the lots of the junk dealers, so to speak. A new thing is always coming up, and it isn't impossible to envision at least the thought that Masonry might crumble in places, and God forbid that. That is a challenge we must meet if we are going to be really true and honest Masons at heart. You and I, every one of us, must give back our lives to God and what kind of stewardship are we going to make of it? You are the men who keep Freemasonry alive, so to speak, in Maine, and all these Grand Lodge groups, when you add them all together, you will have to count furiously to find three hundred thousand men working for and in behalf of this Craft, growing as it is, and if ninety-two per cent of our members are failing in getting the vision of Freemasonry, that God is coming alive in their actions and their work, we certainly have failed."

W: Brother Raymond C. Cook, Grand Custodian, Grand Lodge of Nebraska, reported as follows on lack of interest on the part of Lodge officers:

"As already indicated in this report, there are at least three Lodges with so little interest in Masonry that there is insufficient attendance to conduct an assigned school. There are several additional Lodges whose elected and installed officers do no work, other than opening and closing their Lodge. Past Masters confer degrees, if any, and one, or sometimes two of the brethren who have given lectures in their own peculiar way for many years are permitted to continue, while numerous younger men sit on the side lines with nothing to do and no encouragement to participate. Then there is the ever-present evil of 'borrowing' brethren from neighboring Lodges to give lectures which were once given by brethren who have passed away or who have become too feeble or too ill to come to meetings. We have repeatedly warned these Lodges which operate on the "one lecturer" system of the inevitable result. The officers readily agree that "something ought to be done," but nothing ever is. Perhaps, the most discouraging aspect is the complacency and self-satisfaction that we meet in these situations. We are told, rather pointedly sometimes, "We've been doing it this way for twenty years and we are still going." No one ever tells us where they are going or how much of a Masonic asset they are, or how small is the contribution to the community in relation to the potential."

R:W: Charles H. Nitsch, in his inaugural address to the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, told the brethren:

"I have visited many Lodges in recent years. On numerous occasions I have felt the meetings were too long, resulting in members gradually leaving. To sit on the side lines is not the most pleasant way to spend an evening. It is important to have time for fraternization.

"The oldest manuscript known, reposing in the library at Alexandria, Egypt, begins: 'This is a changing world.' That is certainly true today. Never has there been greater need for understanding among men and never a time for Masons to put their teachings to use. Never a greater opportunity for service to humanity. It was Lord Halifax who said, 'Service is the rent we pay for our room on earth.' I repeat: 'Service IS the rent we pay for our room on earth.'

"I fear we recite in our rituals the beautiful lessons of Freemasonry rather easily and glibly. But do we practice these lessons in our daily lives? Are we as tolerant toward our fellow men as we are taught to be?

"I have always believed that the basic lesson of Freemasonry is the simple philosophy of teaching men how to get along with each other just a little better. Let us be mindful of the heritage of Freemasonry. It is a proud Order and its influence for good should be felt everywhere. Let Freemasonry be deeply rooted in our lives."

The following quotation from the Wisconsin Freemason is apropos:

"Many of our leaders today are stressing only the importance of learning the ritualistic work and to be thereby enabled to render a letter-perfect recital of same as the degrees are being conferred. That is all well and good, but our efforts must not stop there. We need to give the candidate something whereby he may get the true picture of what Masonry is, what relation the work has to it.

"With all respect to our lecturers and teachers, the idea is far too prevalent that the work is the main thing in Masonry. The Craft must be disabused of this idea. They must be taught that the work is not an object but only a means of teaching the true principles of Masonry. If the degrees are not conferred so that the candidate and those who are looking on will not give thought to the manner in which it is done, but rather look beyond to what that work teaches, the ceremony is an utter failure.

"In looking beyond the floor work and getting the true vision as to what Masonry is striving to teach, our beloved Craft can become a far greater power for good in the world than ever before.

"At the moment, the world is in need of what we strive to teach. When these lessons are learned, and the lives of all members of the Craft are charted by the desire that all men shall dwell together as brothers, the world will note the great change in those lives. It is then they may fully realize the futility of forcing their fellowmen to do their bidding in an ungodly thirst for power. Hatred may then be replaced by love, and men of all races and creeds may come to know the beauty of living together in a peaceful world."

W. Larkin Fitch, W: Grand Orator, speaking before the Grand Lodge of Arizona, said:

"From all reports there is no doubt we are gaining members, but are we making Masons? There are a number of reasons why men come to us. Since they are seeking light, it is up to the various Lodges to see that they receive it. Some come only as it is necessary to join one or more of the 'SO CALLED' higher degrees.

"We have not succeeded in making a Mason if we only have them memorize a part of the work without imparting a desire for knowledge. True, Masonry is a progressive moral science taught by degrees. It is taught by allegories and illustrated by symbols. In this atomic age it is necessary that we keep these allegories and symbols in mind by repetition, secrecy, and visible evidence, yet they are not to hide the great principles our ancient Brethren intended them to reveal.

"One of the early things learned in a Masonic career is that when the Lodge meets, it is at labor—the Charter of a Lodge empowers it to do Masonic work—he must be proficient in the work of each degree before he assumes the responsibility of the next. Certain duties are imposed upon him. He must earn his wages. In short, learning the symbols and their connections and relations to human endeavor, means work. This embraces the whole of Man's Life—social, private, political and economic. This is a large undertaking which is all too often given slight attention, and his life as a Mason is, to say the least, ineffective.

"Could we not say that Masonry is too big for the most of us Masons? It is so big and has such a grand heritage that we seldom do more than stand spellbound before it.

"Is it not time for our members to go to work in order that they might be Masons? Masonry is not a religion but it is religious. The Holy Bible is the great light of Masonry, upon which all Masons are obligated.

"Masonry believes and teaches the dignity of Man—self restraint, and reason. The most of our allegories and symbols in the final analysis tend to make us free men and better citizens.

"Within the framework of the Blue Lodge, we find principles that tend to elevate us, and if we keep ourselves so circumscribed, it necessarily follows that we are better men. If he is a true Man, imbued with the principles and spirit of Masonry, he will be found right whatever the circumstances and we may hope for freedom and peace."

W: Brother Nels G. Johnson, Grand Orator, speaking to the Grand Lodge of North Dakota on "The Importance of Little Things", quoted this admonition:

"Promise Yourself"

To close the door to an unhappy past and start life anew.
To try Loves way in everything, and let jealousy and hatred go out of your life.

To put beauty into every day—beautiful thoughts, beautiful deeds, beautiful work.

To be self-reliant and ready to assume responsibility.

To take time for study and self-improvement, no matter what your age.

To learn to enjoy things without owning them.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity, instead of disease, misery and failure.

To hold your manhood, your character, above wealth or position.
Try to appeal to the best in others; to encourage and help them, not criticize and dishearten.

To consider the importance of rest and recreation as well as concentration and application; in other words, to live a balanced life.

To hold in your mind the things which you wish to come true in your life; to think of yourself as you would like to be.

To make your life a masterpiece."

Each one of these is in itself a little thing, but oh, how important!

M:W: Herbert C. Denny, upon being installed as Grand Master, included the following sentiment in his address to the brethren of the Grand Lodge of New Mexico:

"Have you ever helped another, ever earned a gracious smile?

Ever asked a weary Brother in to ride with you a mile?

Have you ever given freely of your riches and your worth?

If you haven't, then you have really missed the greatest joy on earth.

“Has a thrill of pride possessed you?

Have you felt your pulses run?

As a weaker Brother was rescued, or

Some good that you had done?

‘Have you seen eyes start to glisten

That were sad before you came?

If you haven’t, stop and listen—

You have missed life’s finest game.

“Friendship is of the greatest value. In fact, it is peculiarly sensitive to any form of selfishness and cannot thrive under the affliction of unkindness. One’s lost friendship is the most difficult thing to regain. It is truly one of the great prizes of life; indeed it is. Write your name in kindness, love and mercy on the hearts of those you come in contact with. One of the most vitalizing forces in Masonry is that it teaches and inspires us to the use of kindness in our dealings and contacts with our fellowmen, and, in fine, ever striving to bring about the brotherhood of man. Without brotherly love, relief and truth, the world picture is dark and gloomy, for today, world war moves toward total war.”

M:W: Francis Jackson Carter, Grand Master of Tasmania, expressed himself as follows in his inaugural address:

“In the Volume of the Sacred Law, that rule and guide of our faith and actions, the Psalmist proclaims to us how blessed, how wonderful, it is to live together in unity.

“This is exemplified by the first of the grand principals on which our Order is founded—namely Brotherly Love. The Brotherhood of Man, which is dependent upon unity amongst men, is the natural and requisite corollary of a belief in the Fatherhood of God.

“In a divided world—a world beset by divisions of race, and creed, and theories of Government—any organization that can help to bring about such unity is worthwhile, and contributes to the desirable ends of peace, of understanding, and the will to live together harmoniously.

“In Freemasonry we have such an organization which has a binding influence among men taken from all nations, creeds, and groups. Freemasonry moulds men into a brotherhood having common moral and ethical principles. It welds them into closer ties and relationships with one another, and with the rest of the world.

“It is not too much to say that Freemasonry is one of the greatest unifying forces in the world today, and as such is making a notable contribution to the present and future happiness of mankind. As such, it is an organization to which we all can be justly proud to belong."

W: Brother Carlton M. Ray delivered an oration on "Masonic Principles" before the Grand Lodge of Colorado, saying, in part:

"Temperance, which may be interpreted (self-discipline), Fortitude, Prudence and Justice encompass the whole of man's life. We, as Masons, feel that if man, who is created in God's own image, is to live to do honor to his Creator, he must strive to be the recipient of not only one of these great virtues, but that he may attain in a measure all of these virtues. It is axiomatic that when one grows into the development of any one of these virtues, he at the same time is acquiring the other virtues. One of the greatest needs of our world today is putting discipline back into life. We have reacted so strongly against the imposed authority and the taboos of the Victorian age that we have swung into a license which we thought was liberty. We are now finding it is not. We have grasped for liberty and found disintegration. We as Masons and American citizens, do not need a discipline that is externally imposed, but the kind of discipline that comes from an inward desire—a discipline of ones own choosing. Temperance or moderation in our habits probably includes the whole idea of temperance in our lives, for our habits are literally what we are. Temperance in habits comes through self-discipline.

"Fortitude, though frequently used as a synonym for courage, comes to us from the ancient Stoic Philosophy. In studying the word Fortitude and its implied meaning, we find that Fortitude means courage in time of trouble—firmness of spirit. The world today stands in need of men with a firmness of spirit—men who are able to maintain their spiritual and moral equilibrium in the face of all odds. It has also been said that Fortitude is not an inborn trait, but is matured only by exercise. Fortitude will always be a highly prized virtue.

"Prudence is the ability to regulate and discipline oneself through the exercise of the reason as opposed to acting impulsively. If we judge from the diary of Longfellow, he was never subject to overmastering impulses, but always acted with foresight—not from selfish calculation, but from a sane and temperate judgment. Not only does a man have to guard against conscious impulses, but he must bear in mind that there are unconscious impulses which exist in masked form. These are often by the imprudent person, considered non-existent, but the evidence of their existence is overwhelming and until they are accepted in the facts of life, it will be impossible to deal realistically with the anguish they cause. The person who early learns Prudence and the mastery of his impulses will experience less frustration in his own life and will be able to help his fellow man toward a well adjusted life.

"Justice implies the strict and judicial rendering of what is due. We do not need to go beyond the inspired word of God for an interpretation nor application of Justice. The Masonic concept of Justice is equality of all men and is based upon the principle of one law for all—that all men shall stand before the same bar of justice and be judged. The Bible teaches us to do justice and love mercy. The good Mason knows that back of every act and every failure, the causes leading up to that act or failure must be considered. Justice is evident in all Masonic teachings, the understanding of which is reflected in our every day dealings with our fellow man. Justice is the opposite of bias, prejudice and injustice. The most revolutionary idea that has ever been presented to the world was declared over two thousand years ago. Matthew 7-12. 'Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so unto them: for this is the law and the prophets.'

"Since God created man in his own image, certainly man has the capacity to place a workable interpretation on the above virtues—none of which are beyond the grasp of any individual who desires to make his life a dynamic influence for good in the world. To those of us who have subscribed to the principles of Masonry and whose hearts and minds are guided by these principles, comes the greater challenge and heavier responsibility. These principles are a real challenge, but they do not ask the impossible. Let us stand shoulder to shoulder and by unity of thought and purpose, use these principles and virtues as guideposts for making us better Masons."

L. Harold Anderson, M:W: Grand Master of California, wrote thus on "The Three Pillars".

"The three great pillars in our American way of life are First, Faith in God, Second, Constitutional Government, and Third, Economic Freedom. When our founding fathers came to America, the desire for religious freedom was their great driving force. They beseeched God for guidance and placed devout faith in Him. Basic principles growing out of Faith were written into every document in the foundation of our nation. Faith in God is the keystone of our priceless American and Masonic heritage.

"The second great pillar of the American way of life is—Constitutional Government. Our founding fathers did not employ the word "democracy" in drafting the American charter. Their concept was far greater a constitutional Republic with equal guarantees for all the people . . . majorities . . . minorities . . . or individuals. In our 'Constitutional Republic'—one man standing alone can challenge his government—even sue it whereas, under a democracy, the majority decides each issue and minorities may find themselves neglected, ignored or abused. Our form of government protects fully the basic philosophy of Freedom and of Masonry, the sovereignty of Man, the dignity of the individual, the God-given constitution-guaranteed right to be a self-determining human being.

"The third pillar is our economic freedom. We have competition in a free market; we have practical dreamers who invent and enterprising builders who develop; we have producers who astonish the world with their accomplishments; we have the greatest outpouring of material wealth the world has ever seen, and most important—it is distributed throughout the whole population; we have built a standard of living within the reach of all our people, unparalleled in the history of man. This has been brought about through the incentive appeal—reward for merit and achievement; through opportunity—a chance to succeed in any chosen honest endeavor; through man's economic freedom—protection from unfair laws or competition and protection from business oppression. This magnificent economic strength and material wealth of our land and institutions are the products of our private enterprise system.

"Man cannot be free in any way unless he is free economically too, I repeat, Freedom is not divisible."

Hear this compilation of "Things Money Can't Buy," quoted from the Virginia Masonic Herald:

"Money can't buy real friendship—friendship must be earned.

Money can't buy happiness—happiness is a mental attitude and one may be as happy in a cottage as in a mansion.

Money can't buy sunsets, songs of wild birds and the music of the wind in the trees—these are as free as the air we breathe.

Money can't buy inward peace—peace is the result of a constructive philosophy of life.

Money can't buy character—character is what we are when we are alone with ourselves in the dark."

Grand Orator W. Larkin Fitch, addressing the Grand Lodge of Arizona in 1956 described Masonry in these words:

"What is this fraternity that engrosses our attention and brings us here from every part of this great state? Where does it come from, and why does it exist? What is this wholly voluntary association that can preserve its unity throughout so many centuries when even families are divided; when churches are torn by strife; and governments come and go. This organization, though bordering on 'autocratic' in its government, finds a common level upon which to meet. From the least to the greatest, all stand as equals. This institution embraces enough to hold and satisfy those of the highest mentality, yet adapts itself with equal facility to the common man.

"There must be a reason for this vitality, which has been preserved intact with very little change throughout so many centuries, enabling it to withstand the prejudices, persecution, and those seeking to use it for selfish ends.

"Masonry knows no sect, it knows no party, it enjoins its members to be good, loyal citizens. Masonry has something that has caused it to endure, to withstand the test of time. History is full of other institutions founded by men who had gained some fragment of truth and thereby vainly thought that they possessed the 'key to the universe', yet failed to pass the test of time.

"Some historians profess to trace Masonry back to Solomon, Moses, and even Noah. This we can reject as speculation, but we can say without fear of contradiction, that it is among the most ancient of human institutions. There have been some changes no doubt, but it is so nearly allied to the original that it leaves little doubt of their identity. Where does it get this vitality? Masonry is founded on great truths from which come the great moral lessons it inculcates. It gives man that something he yearns for—human sympathy which is in every man's heart.

"One of the great truths is the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. Naturally following this is the chief Masonic virtue: charity or brotherly love, the top-most round of that emblematic ladder which reaches from earth to heaven. This virtue Masons have been taught to practice at all times, and to inculcate in their very being. It is this virtue that should lead us to do our duties, to stretch forth a helping hand to assist a fallen Brother, to hold his reputation equally with our own; to keep his secrets as our own; to whisper good counsel in his ear, and in the most friendly manner, endeavor to bring about his reformation.

"Masonry is customarily spoken of as a 'secret society.' This is almost a misnomer so narrow is the thread of secrecy that runs through it, and yet so wide the margin of its definitely declared and published aims. Whosoever takes the time and the effort to read its laws and its literature may gain a correct and very full knowledge of its nature. Its charities are not paraded for the profane, but its principles are as plain as can be. The only part that can be called secret lies in the ritual and ceremony, that which enables one Brother Mason to recognize another in the dark as well as the light. This also transcends the language barrier. It is known that our common secret, held sacred and inviolable, can never be fully comprehended by those who have not felt its mystic power.

"Masonry is felt today as one of the most potent social forces. Millions are influenced by its humanizing influence: teaching them trust in their fellow men, reverence for God, and that very difficult problem of the subduing of their passions and prejudices, and government of self. Nobody who cares to inform himself as to what Masonry is, and what it teaches, can doubt the great influence it has on its own members or on the community where it flourishes."

We quote here the prologue from a dedicatory address delivered at Arlington, Vermont by R:W: Frank M. Brownell, Grand Senior Warden of Vermont. We feel the distinguished brother has let legend and allegory outweigh established historical facts, but in the main it is an admirable piece of work that is here called to your attention:

"The sentiment that calls us here is a worthy one borne of a Society which is, itself, a lasting monument of the triumph of Truth, Patience, and Love plus the desire and ambition for men to live together in peace and harmony. The earliest authentic or traditional account we have of Free Masons represents them as Builders—skilled workmen, masters of the operative art of hewing and squaring stone, with the effective and practical knowledge of the use of the mallet, the plumb, square, level, and other tools now represented in the beautiful symbolism of speculative Masonry. They were Builders, in more senses than one, and the careful student of this age can see that those ancient craftsmen often 'buildd better than they knew.'

"One thousand and eleven years before the Star of Bethlehem shone upon the Wise Men of the East, our institution was permanently established and then dedicated to the only true and living God. Its existence in every essential was commenced with the erection of the First Jewish temple, under Solomon, Israel's greatest king. We learn from history that this magnificent structure was situated on Mount Moriah, near the spot where Abraham's altar stood. In its construction were engaged three Grand Masters, the chief of whom was Solomon, King of Israel, assisted by Hiram, King of Tyre, and Hiram Abif. There were also employed three thousand three hundred M.Ms., eighty thousand f.cs., and seventy thousand e.as. You all know of the splendid materials of which it was made and we shall not repeat these here.

"It required seven years in its erection. During that time the sun smiled steadily and approvingly upon their labors. Only at night did the showers fall to refresh the world. Thus even the weather obliged for this magnificent undertaking. Thus early, at least, commenced speculative masonry to confer its blessings on mankind.

"Under this system it was found that men of every nation, tribe, and kindred of every sect, party, and denomination, could assemble and be united in bonds of fraternal love, and with commendable emulation, practice benevolence and brotherly love, which are so necessary to the happy existence of a moral and social being. We behold in it a system which has stood the test of centuries. From that remote period in antiquity, from the days of Hiram the widow's son, Freemasonry has ever been the same. She has witnessed the sad havoc of time—the mutability of all things earthly. She has beheld nations, kingdoms, and empires, once the pride and glory of the world, curbed in their onward career, finally disappear amid the wreck of ages. Through a long succession of ages—amid the changing and dissolving scenes of systems and nations, Masonry stood firm, steadfast, and invulnerable, ever ameliorating the woes and miseries of man—and ever abounding in acts of love and charity.

"The path down through the ages that Freemasonry has traveled has not always been smooth. With all her purity and beauty, she has not escaped the shafts of implacable, bitter, and malignant foes. The pen of falsehood, black and putrid, the tongue of slander at times foul and venomous and even the weapon of murder in fiendish hands have been used against her, in vain delusive hope of destroying her temple and of extinguishing the fire from her sanctuary. Yet time has shown that these abusive forces might as well have attempted to restrain the free breath of heaven. Years of darkness have at times thrown heavy clouds about her, but she has gloriously conquered every storm and the fire upon her sacred altar, though sometimes obscured, continues to shed its devotional glory.

"Freemasonry is the most remarkable social organization in the world. None on the globe, with half so many elements in its composition, is so old. We should take satisfaction, brethren, nay, a noble pride, in the consciousness of the age and vastness of our organization . . . Shall we not feel that there is dignity, that there is privilege in being living fibers of an organization which has passed from one era of the world to another, which is older than the oldest empire in Christendom, which has on its roll names that sparkle in history like the sovereign stars, and which exists, not for the purpose of private gain, or the selfish joy of its members, but rather to give deeper root to good principles in the world, and to diffuse the spirit of peace and order? If a Mason is not grateful and glad over his fellowship, it is because he does not appreciate the value in the world of the organization for good.

"Masonry is no ordinary science or insignificant art. It is a study and practice of right loving and fellowship among men. It is the art of not only intelligent but complete living, which has for its object the fashioning of the noblest there is in individual man, and the best there is in his relationship to his fellow men. It strikes the rock of cold intellect with the rod of friendship and the sweet waters that quench the thirst of the famished human soul pour forth and transform a merely wonderful world into a truly livable world.

"It interferes neither with religion nor politics. It follows no blind faith, belongs to no one creed, but reveres the truth in all religions. Above all, it teaches man to abjure all sentiments of hatred or revenge, to be humble without meanness, proud without arrogance, and magnanimous without ostentation; to be patient in adversity and modest in prosperity. It sees God in all His marvelous creations; in the beauties of nature, the harmony and magnitude of the universe, in the sacred monuments of antiquity, and in the heart of man.

"Its traditions and symbols are older than the monumental history of Egypt, and it unfolds its mysteries, its profound wisdom, and its sublime admonition to the Apprentice:

'Ask and ye shall receive, seek and ye shall find,
Knock and it shall be opened unto you.'

"The building of King Solomon's temple was one of the greatest eras in the history of Freemasonry, for it was then that some of the wisest and best principles which now govern our order, were established under the approving eye of the Supreme Architect. It was then that truth, temperance, fortitude, prudence, and justice became engraved upon operative Masonry, and have so continued until this day."

W: Brother Gene L. Spaulding, Grand Orator, told the Grand Lodge of Washington that each Mason must erect his own goals—his own ideals, in a splendid address, from which the following excerpts are taken:

"This nation, carved from the virgin resources of a new continent, was founded as a God-respecting land of justice and opportunity. Many of the founding fathers were Free Masons who worked fervently amid most signal dangers to create a land where hate and prejudice would not blight the lives of men and women who hoped, through the beneficent influences of love, tolerance and mutual respect to mold the new nation of American people into an unshakeable unit. These men, under the Divine Genius of the Supreme Architect of the Universe, did their work well.

"I pray that we, the progeny of these strong forefathers, can so emulate them in building that our children may inherit the worthwhile things of life which have been left to us. I hope we Masons will have the courage and the strength to pull the times together, and upon taking a reasonably deep look, I think we had better muster the strength. Times such as these—how often we hear that expression! Perhaps it is a bit unfair to be pessimistic, yet not completely so. Men still float loose from their moorings. Standards are deserted. People fail to follow a central discipline. Everyone does what is right in his own eyes, which is to say everyone wants to do pretty much as he pleases.

"In spite of our prosperity, these times are sufficiently hectic to compare them in many ways with certain tempestuous and tattered periods as recorded in the Holy Bible. One may ask if there is not someone wise enough to gather the ragged edges into a more meaningful and attractive design. One wishes for a giant needle and thread with which to pull the material of our day back together. Is there such a thread? There is, my brothers, there is such a thread and each of us have it. We each have our cable tow. The cable tow is a very wonderful instrument, and I do not mean the little black cord you have seen used. I mean the cable tow of symbolic strength—the one that can be used every waking hour. There are, as I see it, three strands to this cable tow. I appreciate that innumerable threads could be woven into our cable tow, but for our purposes at this moment, let me name three, only, which I believe to be most important ones. First, there is the strong strand of personal integrity. Second, the strong strand of community morality and third, there is the strong strand of leadership.

Who has not noticed how often the hardest critic of government or social conditions is many times a person not without fault himself. One of the honest and good things in the Masonic viewpoint could be that suggested by the attitude of Paul, who felt that he, not someone else, was the chief of sinners. This is a wholesome beginning for any kind of community or fraternal reformation. The easy thing is to lay corruption at the door of some official; the more constructive procedure would be to notice how much evil is at one's own house. As Masons, in a sense, we are all a rather poor and disgraceful lot. Too many times we do not try the first steps of creative righteousness which forms part of the foundation of Masonry. We are timid. We are afraid and we are lazy. Too often we prefer soft content rather than a hard won happiness. I suggest we take one of the strands of our cable tow and sew together our own lives. Our hearts will stand considerable repair and our daily acts could be in a better pattern than they are. Personal integrity must be developed and maintained.

“Second, the strong strand in our cable tow representing community morality. There seems to be in any group of people a native sense of order. Sociologists tell us that this has a way of manifesting itself. Lawlessness is not a comfortable or satisfactory condition and we dislike it. It has been said that even if there were no churches or Lodges, there would still be some sense of fitness of things and I hope that is true. Fortunately, however, we have both, and correctives can be found in some organized group such as our own, in which this tendency to morality can have fruitful manifestation.

“We Masons should make an ally of this tendency and league with those who desire a community and world which is safe and solid. At times, when leaders speak out on issues, they will get help not only from some of our own brothers, but from hundreds of people who, though they may not hasten to ... speak up, will admire the courage and support the decisions of those leaders. Which brings us to the third strand of our cable tow.

“Most of us, you know, have never learned how much the average man of his community wants to hear the crusading voice of a worthwhile leader. I am fortunate in being able to speak to men who are understanding of what is required of a leader in the world of today. I don't think a normal, random gathering would be appreciative of the things being said, for these remarks are intended to be directed to a group of acknowledged leaders who in turn can impart the same message to the groups they lead.

“After disruption and corruption, strong men always arise. They may be, they could be, crude and violent men, but they react against evils, and become the first pioneers of decency. Time, disaster, difficult times, have a way of throwing stronger men and women into the picture. Deborah, Gideon, Jephthah and Samson. These persons were not always as great or good persons as others in the Bible story, but they were at least chieftains against the storm and decay of their age.

“And leaders of today will come. We have some in our group with us here. We can count on one principle: An eager and dedicated Lodge of Masons can develop leaders equal to the world's need. It may not do it today or tomorrow, but eventually, from ourselves and the young men will rise up captains of power, and I want to speak a little more about our young people in a moment; but first, let me talk for a short time about something that is desperately needed for our cable tow—a catalyst—a binder so to speak—and the binder, if we may call it that, must be primarily a moral and personal discipline. Masonry, you know, is just that—a moral and personal discipline.

“Discipline of any kind is exacting. It calls for, among other things, patience, endurance and sacrifice—and all men are not equal to these demands. There are Masons for whom Masonry offers no great opportunity. There are those for whom its symbolism possesses a particular and singular charm. Then there is the one who seldom misses Lodge and who goes through the ceremonies without them creating a single stimulating thought within him.

“A Mason must erect his own goals and his own ideals and, in so doing, he is responsible only to God, his family and his country, and only by strict observance and adherence to disciplinary doctrines put to him by these three, can he possibly erect an edifice that will make a memory to him worthwhile. Such a path is beset by many trials and much suffering.

*"So there you are my brothers, the great cable tow of our everyday lives—integrity—morality—and leadership, bound and woven with the most important item of all, a personal and moral Masonic discipline, all of which constitutes a cable tow of strength which will stand off any threat that we have ever known.

"In order to adorn ourselves with an article such as this we need another article of clothing worthy of such beauty. I would suggest a robe and I would suggest it be white in color and called devotion to our youth—our young people. May I quote in part a paragraph from a recent resolution drawn by a group of important Masons in this State and submitted to the Grand Lodge only a few months ago: 'This Nation needs more than ever before to develop a generation of stable, balanced and intelligent young men . . . Youth with understanding and an unselfish and unbiased way of thinking . . . Youth without prejudices and malice—without hatred and greed . . . Youth steeped and animated by the 'faith of their fathers'.'

"The only way you and I can insure the proper development of today's youth is with a constant unswerving devotion to them, a never ending attention to their problems and the kind of counsel, guidance, and advice that only we, the Masons of today, can give them.

"Build our sons, O Lord, that they will be strong enough to know when they are weak and brave enough to face themselves when they are afraid. Ones who will be proud and unbending in defeat, humble and gentle in victory.

"Rear our sons, we pray, not in the paths of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let them learn to stand up in a storm; here let them learn compassion for those who are bound to fall.

"Build us sons whose hearts will be clean, whose goals will be high; sons who will master themselves before they seek to master other men.

"And after all these, add, we pray, enough of a sense of humor that they may always be serious, yet never take themselves too seriously; a touch of humanity so that they may always remember the simplicity of true greatness and the open mind of true wisdom. So mote it be, my brothers, So Mote It Be!"

M:W: Ronald Meier, Grand Master, recommended that every chartered Lodge in the Grand Lodge of Washington be empowered to sponsor and support Chapters of De Molay, Assemblies of Rainbow, and Bethels of Job's daughters, and further that Grand Lodge appropriate $2,000.00 for support of such named youth organizations. In presenting this recommendation he said:

"A youth is a person who is going to carry on what you have started. He is going to sit where you are sitting, and when you are gone, attend to those things which you think are important. You may adopt all the policies you please, but how they will be carried out depends upon him. He will assume control of your cities, states and nations. He is going to move in and take over your churches, schools, universities and corporations. All your books are going to be judged, praised or condemned by him. The fate of humanity is in his hands. So it might be well to pay him some attention."

"Theodore Roosevelt said:

"If you are ever going to do anything permanent for the average man, you have got to begin before he is a man. The chance of success lies in working with the boy and not with the man."

Despite the eloquent arguments contained in the presentation by W: Brother Spaulding and M:W: Brother Meier, as quoted above, Grand Lodge concurred in the recommendation of the Committee on Jurisprudence, which approved encouragement by individual Masons of such organizations (De Molay, Rainbow, and Job's Daughters) but expressly disapproved the use of the funds of Grand Lodge or the Constituent Lodges for such purposes.

M:W: Francis J. Scully, Grand Master of Arkansas, wrote of the "Pursuit of Happiness" in this vein:

"Our forefathers fought and won for us our liberty, and then drew up that remarkable document, the Constitution of the United States of America. As we read it we find that it does not guarantee happiness—only life, liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. It is up to each of us to seek his own happiness, by whatever method or plan he may find best.

"Happiness is the dream of every man. It means more than just the satisfaction of animal needs—such as food, water, shelter and safety. The happiness we seek is something higher, more complete, more satisfying—something that will fill our lives and last always.

"How shall we find this dream of happiness? How can we reach this goal we have set before us? What can we do to obtain this happiness? What things contribute to this pursuit of happiness?

"Some believe that if they have plenty of money to do what they wanted, to buy everything they could use, to travel where they wanted, to live a life in leisure they would be supremely happy and would ask for no more. Yet those who have accumulated great wealth are not always happy. Money has become the object of the search and happiness is lost on the way.

"Others think a life dedicated to some interesting field of work or research would be the answer. We all know that we must work, but too often we look on the other man's work and think what an interesting life he must lead, that if we could only change places we would find happiness. Work well done, however, is often its own reward. There is a satisfaction in accomplishment and a joy in achievement. Work gives us the opportunity to earn our leisure and in that leisure we can seek our happiness.

"Some would place fame or recognition for some special quality or ability, for some unusual accomplishment, or some daring deed as the basis for finding the happiness we seek. Yet such honor or notoriety is fleeting. Men soon forget the heroes and benefactors of yesterday.

"Others would be satisfied to possess great power, the right to rule and to govern as their idea of happiness. Ambitious men have grasped power, trampling on the rights of others to gain their selfish ends. But have these powerful leaders, dictators or tyrants achieved real happiness? We have only to look in the pages of history to find the answer. Alexander, who conquered the then known world, cried because there were no more worlds to conquer. Napoleon, who became Emperor of France and conquered most of Europe, finally lost everything and died a prisoner on a lonely island. More recently Hitler and Mussolini, whose brief abuse of power, brought the world to its present state of chaos. Not only did they not find happiness for themselves but they put far in the future the day of happiness and peace for men and the nations of this earth. Once power is grasped by such despots they must strive and fight to maintain their pinnacle of glory. There is no time to rest, no time to enjoy the power they have gained, they have found no true happiness.

"Many have found happiness in hobbies, or in interest in some special field such as hunting, fishing, golf, music, painting, a collection of stamps or of books, etc. These are the interests to occupy the leisure time which is so important to us. If these hobbies are properly used they can bring happiness. But such hobbies and interests should be developed while we are still young and still at work to bring the best results.

"Friends can mean much to us in our pursuit of happiness. We all prize our friends and could not live without them. We enjoy their company in good times and count on them in times of need. But our closest friends can not guarantee our happiness. They are human as we are, with all the frailties and ambitions that we have.

"Perhaps faith, faith in something greater, something higher than we are, faith in God, the Creator of all things, the Supreme Architect of the Universe, can be the answer to our pursuit. Our faith need not mean that we must retire from the world and wrap ourselves up in a veil of isolation to obtain our happiness. We must continue to live in the world of today, and, with faith, find joy in the present and hope in the future.

"The Philosophers of old sought for the philosopher's stone to find the answer to man's destiny. We, as Masons, have sought for the Word, the Truth, the Light which will bring us the answer to all our questions and provide us with peace and wisdom. Each one has come to the end of his quest to find that happiness comes from within and not without. It rests on faith, faith in God, who is the giver of all happiness that is real and lasting.

"Fame, fortune and all material things are the gift of God, but we must not permit them to take God's place in our lives and become gods before Him. They are not, in themselves, evil or mere vanities of life. They can be useful only when we can dispense with all of them, and still find happiness in our faith. God intended man to enjoy his brief day on earth. By faith we can have it so.

"Each day is a test of our faith. Any philosophy of life that does not prepare us for every day living, for old age, for death, and for life beyond the grave can bring only disillusionment. Any philosophy of life that does not prepare us for the inevitable stress, the difficulties and tragedies of life is in vain. We must build a philosophy that will enable us to meet life as we find it, with a firm belief that there is a guiding hand that will eventually bring us the real happiness we seek."

Brother John L. Schroder concluded the report of the Board of Governors of the West Virginia Masonic Home with:

“All the Mighty work is ours.
 Every craftsman in the quarry,
 Every builder on the shore,
 Every chopper in the palm grove,
 Every raftsmen at the oar,
 Hewing wood and drawing water,
 Splitting stones and clearing sod,
 All the dusty ranks of labor,
 In the regiment of God,
 March together toward His triumph,
 Do the things His hands prepare:
 Honest toil is holy service.
 Faithful work is praise and prayer.”

M:W: Carroll T. Hughes, Grand Master, in presenting Brother Everett M. Dirksen to the Grand Lodge of Illinois, as Grand Orator, did well in reminding the brethren of the high service being rendered to our fraternity by some of our distinguished brethren who do not find frequent opportunities to attend Lodge. M:W: Hughes made his introduction thus:

“I think it is fitting, I think it is good for Masonry, I think that it is good for us as we come to this time in our meeting that we hear from a man who has been an outstanding Mason for a good many years—too busy to go through the line but nevertheless a good Mason—a man who is representing our great state in our national capital. I say this in all sincerity because I believe it.

“I would also like to make another statement in connection with that. Many of you have heard me say in visiting your Lodges that there are many members of this fraternity who render a much higher service to the Craft and who seldom have an opportunity to darken the Tyler's door than we who live almost within the confines of the Masonic Lodge room and in connection with whom our wives are known as Masonic widows. However, we can render service in many different ways.

“Therefore, this morning it is my very happy privilege and I consider it an honor to present to you a man of that type—a man who has exemplified the principles of our Craft throughout the length and breadth of this great nation. At this time we are going to hear from our Grand Orator, Brother Everett M. Dirksen.”

Brother Dirksen's address was a masterpiece from which, unfortunately, we can abstract but a few fragments:

"463 years after a very brave explorer left the old world to come and discover this continent, we have cut out of the wilderness a great nation.

"If we think ethically 463 years after Columbus we behold in our country millions of people who have contributed, from two-score of countries, to the citizenry of this land and who have woven themselves into every beam, timber and fabric.

"If we think culturally, we think of music and art and architecture and all of those other cultural embellishments so varied in its range that it would do justice to our golden age.

"If we think politically, and I use the term in its broadest sense, it is the only country that I know of, the only republic that I know (and this is established on the basis of five trips over the world) where the people are sovereign. When we think of the food and sustenance of this country we find that the problem of people in other countries is how to find enough food. However, here our problem is rather one of what to do with the surplus that comes from the lush virgin acres.

"If we think religiously we think of America with a quarter of a million churches and ninety million people who profess to be communicants of one faith or another—who can walk into any church door and there, within the freedom of their own conscience, find God in their own way, then we think of the heart of America Charitably. Oh, how it swells and throbs and out of its generosity we make provision for people in every corner of the earth when the disaster of flood, disaster or tidal wave may beset them.

"So, this is America, rich, strong and powerful, 463 years after it was discovered by Columbus on the 12th of October of the year 1492.

"However, there is a blemish and it is this blemish that I wish to speak to you about for a few moments this morning.

"It is the blemish of fear. Strange, isn't it, that a country so confident of its strength, that a country so assured of its power and its position of leadership in the world should entertain a fear.

"It is a fear that springs in part from the ingenuity with which man contrived the greatest force on earth and developed a new age of power. I am thinking of the fracture of the Atom only fifteen years ago this summer. We have given power to the smallest thing in the universe and that power brought to an end the greatest conflict and the greatest war that ever beset mankind. It is a strange physical fact, isn't it, that the littlest thing in the universe could suddenly be torn apart and power that has been there since the world was created was made the moving force to the detriment of the war in which the world was engaged in ten years ago.

"The other thing is a moving ideology that has no respect for a man's soul—which has no respect for the integrity of his mind and his heart—the thinking that the individual is not an end to himself but a means to an end. I am speaking now of the ideology or the force which we refer to as Communism, which has been moving steadily like a creeping paralysis in the world and has levied itself upon countries by sheer brutality and force until today, as we meet here in fellowship, nearly one million human beings are living within the orbit of Red imperialism, which we refer to as Communism. It is a force that stays with us and lives with us in our waking moments.

"The fear that I speak of that seems like a blemish on a great country is not a fear that we alone can entertain.

"We are not alone in this fear for it is shared in all parts of the world, shared by all of the humble people who still live in the lovely cities in the countries of Europe.

"This is something that is constantly faced by the military leaders of this country, as they try to ever devise new means of destruction and weapons for the preservation of our way of life. It is a thing that crowds upon the sensibilities of the law-makers in the Congress as they wrestle with appropriations and legislative authority, always thinking down the road to the future destiny of this country and whether or not some misguided nation with misguided leadership should unloosen its force and once more throw the world into something from which it could scarcely come back.

"However, this is also something that gets back to the individual as well—for we too think of it—we see the books that emanate from the minds of men and which speak of one world. Therefore we are constantly beset not only with what happens today but with the spewing forth of some horrible doom in the new power that man has devised—that this power will some day be let loose to settle international differences.

"Therefore, in our hearts and minds there are those times for escape. There is the reaching out wondering what to do in order to perpetuate self and family and country and in that fear, Brethren, it seems to me that we have forgotten something. The first thing that we have forgotten is that the life of our generation has been permitted to obscure the lights of another generation. When I say the life of our time I mean that flash in the New Mexico sky on a July morning ten years ago when the atomic age was born. The scientists were there and they had carefully contrived the equation so that on a high tower they placed an instrument to be exploded by an electrical force and when that great explosion went across the horizon they knew that a new and fearful age had been born.

“However, there was another light in the history of mankind and it came more than nineteen centuries ago. It was the star that took the wise men to where the baby was born and, as scripture says, the star hovered over where He was. That was God’s light in the heavens more than 19 centuries ago and it heralded in a force and it brought understanding and joy. It brought that great force to dispel fear and despair and hate and for 19 centuries that force has been unrolling and moving into every corner of the earth. Therefore, we are so apt to forget that it is the light of 19 centuries ago in which we must find the answer to dissipation and the solution of the fears that beset our own generation, for out of that light there came a philosophy and what was it? It was the philosophy of the individual—it was the philosophy of the integrity of the individual mind—it was the philosophy of the indestructibility of the individual and it is the only indestructible thing in all the universe—the soul of one of God’s children.

“That early light addressed itself then to the individual. Therefore, the whole history of mankind has been only the unfoldment of a divine purpose. If I did not believe that history was nothing more than the unfoldment of a divine plan then I think I would forsake my labors in Washington and go to some far off retreat and see what happened to my own viewpoint.

“This then takes us where—to the very heart of Masonry. It takes us to the very core of the things that we pursue in the Lodge hall when we become brothers in the Craft. After all, when all is said and done, what is Masonry but a progressive moral science for the perfection of the human heart and the human mind. What is it except to make men better on the theory that good men and wise men will under every circumstance act wisely. What is it except to chasten the heart and the mind and the soul that its benign influence can be extended into the communities where we live, to the country in which we live and out of that reconstruction of the spirit let a generating force move into the world to solve the problems and dissipate the fears that beset nearly every generation.

"History, after all, is nothing more than the evolution of individuals whose light was permitted to shine.

"I think of Buddha, the enlightened one and what a comfort it brings the hundreds of millions of people in the Orient. I went to the pagoda with him to see just what it did.

"I thought of Confucius, the wise, who taught a philosophy of sweet reasonableness and how this philosophy fastened itself upon the minds of people for thousands of years and made them better.

"I thought of the man of Galilee, whose glory keeps shining down the corridor of time from whence it began more than nineteen centuries ago, after He came into the world.

"I think of a man such as Abraham Lincoln, who came from the bosom of Illinois, almost untutored except for self education but who must have been ordained by God almost with an earnest heart and a stout mind—who resolutely carried our country on in a dark and dismal hour and preserved the union giving to all mankind an influence so great that if you go to Mount David there is a monument to Lincoln; if you go to the classrooms of Berlin there, in bronze, is immortalized the Gettysburg Address; if you go to Oxford University in England, there it is engraved in marble; if you go to the palace of justice in India there you will see a line. Therefore, history, after all, is an unfoldment of the human soul so that it shines and makes history and brings men closer together. It is the great force that brings us together—the unfoldment and perfection of the individual.

"So Masonry must shine. I think of our efforts in seeking to achieve peace—and what is it? We think in terms of covenants and agreements—we think in terms of many people—we think in terms of treaties and the agglomeration and power of government—but then always we forget that the dominant hope and the only hope is not the great aggregation of people but the minds, souls and hearts of individuals made better, who rise above themselves to become an influence in their communities and in their country.

"That is Masonry—the progressive moral science to which we are wedded."

We quote here five beautiful stanzas by the Canadian poet and writer, Bliss Carmen:

"I took a day to search for God
And found Him not. But as I trod
By rocky ledge, through woods untamed,
Just where one scarlet lily flamed,
I saw His footprints in the sod.

Then suddenly, all unaware,
Far off in the deep shadows, where
A solitary hermit thrush
Sang through the holy twilight hush—
I heard His voice upon the air.

And even as I marvelled how God gives us Heaven here and now,
In a stir of wind that hardly shook
The poplar leaves beside the brook—
His hand was light upon my brow.

At last with evening as I turned Homeward, and thought what I had learned
And all that there was still to probe—
I caught the glory of His robe
Where the last fires of sunset burned.

Back to the world with quickening start
I looked and longed for any part
In making saving Beauty be . . .
And from that kindly ecstasy
I knew God dwelt within my heart."

The following stanzas by Lawrence Knowles were incorporated in the Necrology Report of the Grand Lodge of Canada:

"This body is my house—it is not I.
Herein I sojourn in some far sky,
I lease a fairer dwelling, built to last
Till all the carpentry of time is past,
When from my high place, viewing this lone star,
What shall I care where these poor timbers are?
What though the crumbling walls turn dust to loam,
I shall have left them for a larger home.
This body is my house—it is not I.
Triumphant in this FAITH, I live and die."

M:W: Brother W. W. Wright, P. Pro. Grand Master, Grand Lodge of New Zealand, in reviewing the report of the Annuity (Relief) Board, said:

"Ours is a great organization. When a person is proposed into Freemasonry he is told that he is expected to contribute to our charitable funds. On the night of his initiation we deliver to him a beautiful charge extolling the virtues of benevolence and his duty thereby as a Freemason. But after that we seem to do very little to instill into him what we term the distinguishing characteristic of a Freemason's heart. I sometimes wonder about that heart; I think it must sometimes be about the size of a peanut. There are many who give more than their fair share, but I must speak of our organization as a whole. We should each shoulder our individual responsibility, for Masonic benevolence is a personal matter."

M:W: Willard L. Hillyer, Grand Master of Minnesota, approached Masonic charity from another angle, thus:

"I have laid particular stress on the matter of Masonic charity, as it has seemed to me, for some years, that certain conditions were undermining the fine reputation for charitable acts which had grown to be an accepted fact by the public with regard to Masonry. We do not have, we used to, the need for sitting up with sick Brethren, contributing to their financial needs in sickness, bereavement or misfortune, and all too often it is too easy to give no attention to these unfortunate happenings. Social Security checks and Old Age Assistance checks and the activities of public visiting nurses cannot take the place of the personal attention that should mark the relationship of our members toward those to whom misfortune has come. I find that all too often our Lodges and our members do not respond by sending notes or cards of greeting when they are told of those who are shut in, and visits are all too infrequent. It has been my purpose to try and arouse our membership to this situation and urge upon them better attention to the matter of calling on the sick and sending greetings to those confined in hospitals. I have frequently repeated the admonition that 'unselfish service for others is the rent we pay for the space that we will occupy in the hearts of our fellowmen', and that this applies to us as individuals, as Lodges, and as a Fraternity, and that our beloved Fraternity may, in time, lose its reputation for Masonic charity if we are not more attentive to these matters."

We give you these verses quoted in M:W: Grand Master H. H. Conn's address to the Grand Lodge of Tennessee:

"Each day I hunt for him who builds his structure,
 This monument to Masonry so grand,
 I hunger for the comfort he affords me,
 I yearn to feel the grasp of his right hand.

"And when I find the Craftsman at his labor
 Though it may be in office, store, or shop,
 In busy city, town, or peaceful country
 One thing I find the same where'er I stop.

"The monument he builds is never finished
 The workman's final prize is never won:
 It matters not how faithfully he labors,
 The structure grows, but it is never done.

"Altho the Craftsman has the satisfaction
 Of striving to perfect a thing of worth
 With wisdom, strength, and beauty in its fabric,
 It cannot be completed on this earth.

"Thus he who builds to glorify Free Masonry
 Sees not his labor finished—never can.
 For if he builds the structure I've been seeking,
 It lives—within the heart of a good man."

After quoting the 23rd Psalm, the Committee on Memorials of the Grand Lodge of Colorado followed with this poem by an author unknown:

"HE LEADETH ME"

"In pastures green'? not always, sometimes He
 Who knowest best in kindness leadeth me
 In weary ways where shadows be.

"Out of the sunshine, warm, and soft and bright
 Out of the sunshine into darkest night;
 I oft would faint with sorrow and fright.

"Only for this—I know He holds my hand;
 So whether led in green or desert land,
 I trust, although I may not understand.

"And by 'still waters'? No not always so.
 Oft' times the heavy tempest 'round me blow
 And o'er my soul the waves and billows go.

"And when the storm besets loudest and I cry Aloud for help the Master standeth by,
 And whispers to my soul, 'Lo it is I'.

"Above the tempest wild I hear him say,
 Beyond the darkness lies the perfect day
 In every path of thine I lead the way.

"So whether on the hilltops high and fair,
 I dwell, or in the sunless valleys,
 Where the shadows lie, what matter? He is there.

"And more than this, where'er the pathway leads
 He gives me no helpless, broken reed,
 But his own hand sufficient for my need.

"So where He leads me I can safely go;
 And in the blest hereafter, I shall know
 Why in His wisdom He hath led me so."

R:W: Rev. Aubrey L. Burbank, Deputy Grand Master of Maine, delivered his last sermon as Pastor of the First Congregational Church at Brooks, Maine on St. John's Sunday, 1955 with Grand Lodges of Maine and New Hampshire as guests. Our distinguished brother took his text from I Corinthians 3:10-23 and preached a splendid sermon on "No Other Foundation", from which the following is excerpted:

"I shall say little that you do not already know, but may it serve to remind you of that which may be lying dormant in your heart. To those of you who may wonder about the mysteries of Masonry, may you discover that under the apparent veil of secrecy, there lies no mystery, no secret except that which one holds in his own heart, in the realization of the supremacy and Fatherhood of God and Brotherhood of man.

"The cornerstone of Masonry, at once its first and greatest landmark, the basis of its plan and purpose and prophecy, is the old and simple faith in God which finds its purest revelation and clearest interpretation in the Holy Bible. God, the Great Architect and Master Builder of the Universe; God, the Father of Humanity, its solidarity and salvation; God, the Maker of heaven and earth and all that is therein, before Whom silence is eloquent and wonder is worship. Other foundation there is none. Upon God, Masonry builds its Temple of Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth.

"In nothing is our craft wiser than in laying its foundation; it begins at the beginning and puts first things first. God is the first fact and the final Reality—the Truth that makes all other truths true; the cornerstone of faith. God is the meaning of the universe; its rhyme and reason, the secret of its integrity, the source of its goodness, its Alpha and Omega. Beyond Him, human faith cannot go; short of Him, it cannot rest.

“Everything in Masonry has reference to God, implies God, speaks of God, points and leads to God. Not a degree, not a symbol, not an obligation, not a lecture, not a charge but derives its meaning and beauty from God, the Great Architect in Whose Temple all Masons are workmen. Every Lodge is erected to God and endeavors to labor in His Name, seeking to make His will the design upon its trestle-board. No initiate enters a Lodge without first kneeling and confessing his faith and trust in God. The greatest symbol of Masonry other than the Great Light itself, is the Triangle, the oldest emblem of God in the history and faith of man, and by it we should be reminded that, turn where we will in Masonry, the Trinity is about us. It beams down on us from the lights; it gazes up at us from the altar; it guides us from the thrones; we rise at its sound, and by its light the truth is revealed. Upon the altar of every Lodge rests the Holy Bible, the Book of the will of God. Truly God is in Masonry—in its faith, its ideals, its labor—and without Him it has no meaning, no mission, no ministry among men. For when faith in God fades, then falls ‘that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.’

“And so, while Masonry is not a religion, it is a sublime parallel to religion and we, as children of God and as Masons, might well ask once more: ‘What shall we do to inherit eternal life?’ Throughout both the Old and New Testament we find the answer. Micah tells us thus: ‘He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good, and what doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.’ In Deuteronomy it is written: ‘And now, what doth the Lord require of thee, but to talk in all His ways and to love Him.’ Isaiah writes: ‘Wash you, make you clean, put away the evil of your doings; cease to do evil, learn to do well.’ In the twenty-fourth Psalm we read: ‘Who shall ascend unto the hill of the Lord, or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto Vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, the righteousness from the God of his salvation.’ From Ecclesiastes: ‘Fear God and keep His commandments. for that is the whole duty of man.’

"That is how, one after another, the great prophets and seers spoke, and the New Testament so completely endorses their idea that every page and verse of it breathes of righteousness. Christ, in answer to the young ruler, said: 'If thou wouldst enter life, keep the commandments.' The sum total of John the Baptist's preaching is REPENT and OBEY. James and John teach compassion, unworldliness, love. Ask Samuel, David, Isaiah, Amos, Micah, Jeremiah, Solomon, the four Evangelists, John the Baptist, the twelve apostles—ask your Lord and Master Himself: 'What must I do to inherit eternal life?', and the answer would be simply: 'If thou wouldst enter into life, keep the commandments.'

"The Great Light teaches us that righteousness and holiness are the inmost essence and the only outcome of true religion; that they are the very end and object of life; that if you have attained to them, you may stand free in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made you free. If you do not possess this purity of heart and righteousness of life, all the orthodox opinions and the most elaborate ritual in the world, Church, Masonic, or any other, are not one whit more pleasing to God than the sound of brass or a tinkling cymbal.

"Ask yourself, in the sight of God; Are you, in truth, a good man? If you are, then, though men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you, as they once did to our Lord and Saviour, yet shall you see the kingdom of heaven, and you shall be folded forever under the wings of eternal love. But, if, in spite of your externalism, your professed faith and religiosity, you have not truly loved God have not been true to your neighbor as to yourself, true by God's standard, then shall He say unto you: 'I never knew you.' Almighty God does not care for our opinions, if only they be honest. He doesn't care about our ritual, if only it lead to truth. But He does require goodness—righteousness. Without that goodness—that righteousness; without purity and honesty; without truthfulness and that rarest of all virtues, the love of truth, unselfish humility; without these, all our opinions, and all our rituals may only mean that our leprosy is white as snow.

"'But,' you say, 'how can mortal man live up to such a standard? We shall all fall by the wayside.' John the Baptist, our patron saint, tells us: "REPENT and OBEY." He faced temptations as we do, and as did our Lord and Master, but he had the courage and the steadfastness and the moral strength to realize that frail and humble as mortal man may be, yet there was still hope through repentance and virtue.

"Mankind has been eternally asking the mode by which the grave is to be conquered. The Bible, as it came down from heaven, one Book after another, first Genesis, then the Law and the Prophets, then the New Testament, gradually and at last revealed it to him. And Masonry, in the magnificent march of its symbolism, falls into harmony with the world, time and church in revealing the same sublime truth. And as Masonry thus teaches the great truth of the Temple of the soul, our redemption from sin, and resurrection by and with Him, so does it also teach, by inference if not more, that He, whom John describes as the True Light, in being raised by the Father, raises also those who are epitomized in Him, and whom, by the incarnation, He has taken unto Himself.

"Many a man has said in his heart; 'I cannot be a true Mason, and know and believe what it teaches, without going on and becoming a follower of that Light.'

"Such must be our insight and our understanding, and still more our practice, if our fraternal sentiment is not to evaporate into the mist of time. Its roots must run down into the profound fact that men are the sons of God, and therefore are made to be brothers; made to share in the unfailing love of God. If we are to have a philosophy of fraternity, we must learn that goodness is not simply a matter of putting up with one another; but is an attitude of each to the other; a tie uniting man to all men in spiritual kinship and unity—that life is fellowship, mutuality and service—in short, that it takes two men and God to make a brother.

Amen."

Here are two fine paragraphs from the prayer presented by R:R: Lawrence E. McEldowney, Grand Chaplain, at the opening of the Grand Lodge of Florida:

"We are living in the most remarkable age of the world's history. The intelligence of man has freed us from the change of ancient thought and superstition, and today man is winning some of the most extraordinary victories in the domain of science. One by one, he has dispelled the doubts of the ancient world. Nothing is too difficult for his hand to attempt, no region so remote that his daring eye will not penetrate. He has robbed the earth of its secrets and walked in safety on the bottom of the sea; he has raised his head above the clouds and made the impalpable air his resting place.

“Man’s intelligence has counted the stars and weighed the sun and the constellations, and we seem to have reached the point where distance has been annihilated, time is made not; the invisible seen, the unspeakable spoken, the intangible felt and the impossible accomplished. But in all this blaze of light which illuminates the present and casts its reflections into the distant recesses of the past, Lord, there are countless millions, and some of them Masons, who do not know how to live so that their lives may be pleasing to God.”

M:W: Fred B. Layman, in accepting the office of Grand Master of Kentucky, quoted this poem by Brother Frank E. Baer:

THE REAL MASON

Frank E. Baer, 32°

“My brother, Masonry means more Than just to wear a pin,
Or carrying a dues receipt
So the Lodge will let you in.

“You wear an emblem on your coat,
And on your hand a ring,
But, if you’re not sincere at heart,
This doesn’t mean a thing.

The world that you belong
To this Fraternal Brotherhood
That teaches right from wrong.”

“What really counts lies buried deep
Within the human breast;
Masonic teaching brings it out
And puts it to the test.

“If you can do outside the Lodge
The things you learn within,
Be just and upright to yourself
And to your fellow men;

“Console a brother when he’s sick,
Or help him when in need,
Without a thought of a reward
For any act or deed;

“Conduct yourself in such a way
The world without can see
None but the best can meet the test
Laid down by Masonry;

“Respect and live up to your trust
And do the best you can;
Then you can tell the world you are A Mason and a Man!”

We were deeply moved by M:W: Gregor Macpherson's concluding paragraphs in his report as Grand Master, District of Columbia. We report them here:

“I am still in a rude and imperfect state, but at least I can be thankful that I was considered promising enough to be taken from the quarry. And I have not, as yet, been thrown on the rubbish heap.

“I do not know very much about the job of being Grand Master, but I have learned a great deal about the obligation I owe to God, my neighbor, and myself.

“I cannot, at will, move thousands to tears or laughter, but I have learned something about the precious eloquence of silence, and the power of the unspoken word.

“I cannot give a creditable imitation of the celebrated artists and the great architects who have preceded me. I cannot conceive or execute the lofty spire, the fluted column, the vaulted ceiling, the Gothic arch, or the flying buttress, but I can tell whether the foundation rests upon sand or upon a rock.

“I know not how to fashion undying verse or prose, but I know something of the sacred tie that binds us together—that indissoluble chain of sincere affection that is forged the instant we are released from our cable-tow.

“I know not how to set free the indescribably beautiful sculptures imprisoned within a block of marble, but I can build a solid pedestal upon which to rest them.

“I have not learned too well how to shape a perfect ashlar, but I have learned a great deal about spreading the cement of brotherly love and affection, that cement which unites us into one sacred band or society of friends and brothers, among whom no contention should ever exist, save that noble contention, or rather, emulation, of who can best work and best agree.”

“Give us men
 Men from every rank
 Fresh and Free and frank,
 Men who when the tempest gathers
 Grasp the standard of their fathers.
 In the thickest of the fight
 God defend the right.
 Men who strike for home and Altar,
 Let the coward cringe and falter,
 God defend the right.
 True as truth, though torn and lonely,
 Tender as the brave are only,
 Men who tread where saints have trod,
 Men for country, men for God.”

M:W: Claude M. Gorden, Grand Master of Idaho, concluded his address with a rallying call to the four great faiths, Faith in God, Faith in Ourselves, Faith in our Fellowmen, and Faith in Freedom, and quoted this poem:

“Three things I know must always be
 To keep a nation strong and free:
 One is a hearthstone bright and dear,
 With busy, happy loved ones near;
 One is a strong and ready hand
 To love and serve and keep the land;
 One is a worn and beaten way
 To where the people go and pray.

“So long as these are kept alive,
 Nation and people are kept alive,
 Nation and people will survive.

“God keep them always everywhere,
 The home, the flag, and the place of prayer.”

The Committee on Masonic Education, the Grand Lodge of Utah reproduced Willard A. Day's specification for MY NEW MODEL:

“Self-Starter that does not require a push by the foot, “Generator, sufficiently strong that I may assist in charging the batteries of those who are weak.
 “Head-Lights bright enough to shine through the darkness of despondency and despair.

- "Steering-Gear, strong and responsive, that I may avoid the ruts into which others fall.
- "A Super-Charger Battery, that will start my motor even though it has been chilled with disappointment and doubt, and run down with age.
- "Windshield, large and clear, that I may see all the traffic signs and avoid the cross-roads that lead in the wrong direction.
- "Radiator, with circulation that will, under all conditions, keep the temperature from rising above normal.
- "Horn, with a salute of friendship, rather than a 'get out of my way' tone.
- "Strong automatic brakes, that I may avoid trespassing upon the rights of others.
- "Tow-Chains, strong and automatically attached, that I may be quick to assist others out of the mud-holes of life.
- "A Handy Mirror, that will reflect all my unpleasant moods.
- "Windows, bright and clean, that I may recognize my friends as I pass along life's way.
- "Large Fuel Tank, that I may be able to divide with needy and worthy.
- "Motor, powerful and strong, that will not kick back, or stall when I come to the hard pulls, nor falter when I reach the steep, rough places in life.
- "Extra Large Trunks, in which to store the sweet memories, the encouraging words and kind deeds of those who understand my motives, desires and struggles.
- "A Muffler, that reduces the harsh, boisterous tones of self-praise and revenge, to the more gentle voice of sacrifice, joy and peace.
- "A Cab, roomy and comfortable, that I may give a lift to those whom I find stranded along life's highway.
- "A Distributor, that will send a warm spark of light and encouragement to the dark chambers of melancholy and despair.
- "Side pockets, that have no bottom, that I may forever lose sight of the faults I see in others.
- "An Exhaust Pipe, that will carry away the hot, black smoke of hatred, treachery and deceit.
- "Bumpers, so strong, that I may withstand the hard knocks of the careless and thoughtless.

"A Window Cleaner, that will clear away the dust of self-pity, vanity and false pride, and let in the sunshine of cheerfulness, love and affection.

"Fenders, deep and broad, that I may not become smeared with the mud of gossip, selfishness and greed.

"An Up-to-date Heater, that I may be warmed with the gospel of kindness, sympathy, charity and good will toward men.

"Wheels, that still run true after a long life of usefulness.

"Axles, that will stand up under an overload when occasion demands.

"Springs, so tempered, that they will absorb the shocks of adversity and disappointment.

"Chains, rugged and strong, that I may hold to the bright-lighted, hard-surfaced highway of truth, and not slide off into the dark, murky gutter of ignorance, superstition and fear, and the foggy mysticism of ages gone by.

"The old-model Wood and Iron Spokes of indolence and self-indulgence, are to be replaced by the new Golden Spokes of faith, hope, courage and resolution.

"A well-built Garage, with which to protect my new model from the vicious storms of criticism and slander."

Here is the concluding paragraph from M:W: Grand Master Raymond C. Ellis' "Call to the Craft" of New York, as published in The Empire State Mason:

"It would be idle to celebrate one hundred and seventy-five years of noble history without a conscious rededication to the principles and landmarks which have served so well. It is not enough to say that the past is secure. Nor is it enough to venerate the past. The only way in which the Masonic Fraternity can in any sense pay its debt to those who have gone on before is to rededicate itself to the ideals in which they believed and for which they served. Even as we live, the present has become the past, and whether we like it or not, we must think of the future, for that is where we will spend the rest of our lives. Masonry today is a great force for good in the world at large. It has a great opportunity if it will but put in practice the ideals for which it stands. In so doing, it will pay its tribute to the past by rendering a service to the future which will insure to the benefit of all mankind."

M:W: Thomas Henry Gilbert Jones, Grand Master of Queensland, included the following in his address at his installation:

"A New Grand Master must inevitably turn his thoughts towards the future but if, for a moment I dwell in retrospect, it is to pay tribute to the inspiring example of my predecessors in office. They have handed to me a torch which brightly illuminates the path that I must tread if I am to prove a not unworthy successor of those who have occupied this chair with so much success and so much honour. But as the brilliance of light grows dim with receding distance, so a new Grand Master must light his own torch, not only to guide him on his way but also that he may, in his turn, hand it on to his successor with lustre undimmed.

"I have been entrusted by you, Brethren, with the government of an institution fair in renown, occupying an honoured place in the life of the community, and it will be my deepest concern to sustain and enhance its reputation and influence. It is an institution with no unworthy end to serve, its motives belong being pure and holy and its foundation honourably placed on the enduring principles of morality and virtue. As Freemasons we seek favours from none, but are ever ready to give service; we do not compete with established religious practices yet we espouse the ethical principles of all true religions; we have no mission of redemption yet the rough ashlar of the Initiate may be perfected at our hands; we are not a benevolent institution yet our hearts and minds ever heed the cry of sorrow and distress. We possess and cherish Masonic secrets by which we are known to each other but to all the world let it be known that Freemasonry is a way of life open to all men, acknowledging a Supreme Being and willing to bind themselves together as brothers in the practice and defense of every moral and social virtue. It is a way of life not to be limited to the cloistered seclusion and the narrow confines of our Lodges and Temples, but to be practiced in the home and in the street, in our daily human contacts and in those avenues of service open to us as citizens of the world.

"Let us therefore proclaim our philosophy in the highways and the byways of life with the assured conviction that it bears the seal not only of man's, but of Divine approval. Our institution does not flourish in the sterile soil of envy and distrust, but in the fertile fields of mutual tolerance and regard for our fellow men in a world of peace and amity. Freemasons have ever been builders but our greatest work is in the building of that Temple, not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens."

M:W: Arthur E. Coleman, Grand Master, concluded his address to the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick with:

"Masonry, we believe, has a very definite task to perform in these days fraught with many anxieties and fears. Our main task is to build a better world for tomorrow. The question is, have we Masons a general plan to build such a world? Communism has drawn up rigid plans of what its future shall be, and if allowed to build then hope shall be turned into despair, and faith shall wither, and darkness shall encompass the earth of man. Democracy too has a plan, but a democracy built solely upon materialism shall surely crumble and fall for "except the Lord build the house they labor in vain that build it."

"We Masons have a plan to build a better world of brotherhood, understanding and peace, and that plan has been given to us by God the Father. How shall we Masons build? Why, we shall build according to the plans laid down by God, the Great Architect of the Universe, as found in the Volume of the Sacred Law.

'Build me a world, said God, out of man's fairest dreams;
Heaven must be its dome, lighted by prophet gleams;
Justice shall be the stones on which my world shall rise;
Truth and love the arches, gripping my ageless skies;
Out of the dreams of the earthly sod,
Build me a world, said God.'"

M:W: Fred Layman, Grand Master of Kentucky, closed his oration before the Grand Lodge of Kansas with:

THE MEASURE OF A MAN

"When in the silence of the night,
When darkness hugs the world so tight,
When all is hushed and quiet with sleep
Then haunting memories round me creep;
When I can spend that hour alone
And find the man I've never known
When I can meet him face to face
And there commune with Me apace;

"When I take myself in hand
And measure up just where I stand;
When I can gaze into my heart
And see my worth upon life's chart;
And count the times I've shirked my load
And estimate the hours I've spent
On things that were not permanent;

"When I can realize the crime
 Of spending worthlessly my time;
 When I can call things by the name
 I ought to, and accept the blame;
 When I can place where it belongs
 The reason for my countless wrongs;
 When I can pile in one great heap
 My faults, the harvest I shall reap;

"Then knowing what I am, can say,
 'From this time onward, from today,
 I'll work and serve and will to win
 To mould a better man within.'
 So, when I turn the searchlight on
 The faults I had will all be gone,
 And there shall stand revealed to me
 The Man, God meant that I should be."

R:W: Allen Cabaniss, Grand Orator, spoke to the Grand Lodge of Mississippi on "The Importance of the Fellowcraft Degree," concluding his address:

"The second degree teaches us that the most important things in our world are not the great things that draw the headlines of newspapers—they pass away—but the quiet work of attentive ears listening to instructive tongues and treasuring the precepts in faithful breasts—these alone endure for ever. For 'the lapse of time, the ruthless hand of ignorance, and the devastations of war have laid waste and destroyed many valuable monuments of antiquity on which the utmost exertions of human genius have been employed. Even the Temple of Solomon, so spacious and magnificent, and constructed by so many celebrated artists, escaped not the unsparing ravages of barbarous force.' We can expect no better in our own day with even more barbarous forces available for destructive purposes. But Freemasonry, pursuing its quiet way of hearing, teaching, learning, studying, preserving, has still survived. So, too, have the Bible, Shakespeare, Plato—and learning itself—been kept alive by students here and there over the world. 'And thus through a succession of ages are transmitted, unimpaired,' not only 'the most excellent tenets of our institution,' but also of all the learning mentioned and emphasized by our beautiful Fellow Craft's degree."

R:W: Roy W. McNeal, Grand Orator, delivered a brilliant oration, "Pathways of Progress" before the Grand Lodge of Oregon. Here is part of his opening admonition:

"Most of today's thinkers not only agree that progressive change is the fundamental moral and natural law of the Universe but from the pages of history they must also draw the conclusion that if civilization lags or falters in her progress toward higher moral standards she is likely to be temporarily overthrown by barbarism, with the sometime possibility of permanent victory for the forces of degeneration. The paths of history are cluttered with slag from the dead furnaces of societies and peoples that became self-satisfied and, lolling luxuriously on the comfortable couches of past achievement, added no fuel to the flames of progress, and although they may at some time have been brilliant performers on the stage of cultural advancement, they were at least enveloped in the shrouds of degeneration, and they returned 'to the dust from which they sprung, unwept, unhonored, and unsung.'"

R:W: Charles Herbert Simpson, Deputy Grand Master of Western Australia, addressed the newly installed Grand Lodge Officers with:

"The value of Masonry lies in its power to inspire in men a new vision of life. The wealth of Masonry lies not in its numbers or material possessions but in the character and quality of its members. Masonic theory tells us that to build the character of the individual inevitably reacts to the benefit of society as a whole. It is therefore the mission of the Craft to mould the materials which come to hand in the person of the individual member, so upbuilding him that his contribution to society shall, in its total sum, result in an ever bettering condition of life for the whole of mankind.

That is our goal and that should be our constant aim."

From one of the messages of M:W: George P. Whitman, Sr., Grand Master of Georgia, we read:

"IS OUR MASONRY TOO SMALL? Are we content merely to recite rituals and confer degrees, and to do so, forsooth, for the amusement of some, within the framework of cheap frivolity and rude coarseness? Is our goal numbers and size at the expense of quality? Do we seek to wear the honors for the sake of position and the gratification of pride? Are we ambitious for rank and power? Have we been slow to learn that 'some dream themselves into mediocrity, while others forget themselves into immortality?'"

"Or, on the other hand, are we zealous to undertake to fulfill our mission, with dignity and decorum, in assisting men to become wiser and better and consequently happier, And do we have the ability to fulfill that mission because we ourselves have already worked for and received the wages due, and have thereby become wiser and better and consequently happier, and are thus enabled to communicate the True Word to others?

“At all accounts—

The North wall of Love, against the winds of fate;

The South of Tolerance, that we may outreach hate!

The East of Faith that rises clear with each new day!

The West of Hope that e'en can die a glorious way;

The threshold 'neath our feet, Humility;

The roof, the very sky itself, —Infinity.

“Yes, we will continue to build with wide walls the House of our Masonic Life to the glory of the Grand Architect of the Universe and for the promotion of brotherhood among all men everywhere. So mote it be! Amen.”

M:W: Hugh Reid, Past Grand Master of Virginia, speaking to a luncheon group at the Grand Lodge of Manitoba, said:

“I venture the assertion that Freemasonry will eventually be judged by its devotion to its immortal principles. We often hear it said in the United States that the ritual is the life-blood of Masonry. I appreciate the pride of good ritualists but one might as well say that the life-blood of the church is bound up in its liturgy or vestments. Our ritual, like the liturgy of a church, is merely a setting, the outward limbs and flourishes. The underlying truths are the fundamentals of Freemasonry and in the long run our ability to know and use these truths will determine our success and our survival. The world will judge us by this standard.

“Herein lies a great lesson. Those who forgot the fundamentals of our ancient Institution are dust and ashes. Those who have kept the faith survive and although temporary misfortune may overtake them it is still true that truth crushed to earth will rise again. We move in a world that has unveiled secrets of science that have been hidden from our eyes. In the last century we have made greater scientific progress than has been made in all previous recorded time. Yet we yearn for something that appears unattainable. Men long above everything else for peace but they despair because it escapes their grasp. There is no safety in wealth or riches. They surround us but in our hearts is fear.

"One of the great lessons of history is that Freemasonry has nothing to fear from external danger or threats. Persecution has been tried but the Craft has always arisen phoenix-like from its ashes. For a time it may be proscribed but it always arises purified and cleaner than before, as precious metals are freed in the furnace from the dross which obscures the rarer element. During our own day we have seen German Freemasonry crushed under the iron heel of a despot, who foolishly believed that his puny man-made world would last a thousand years. That strutting peacock does not even have a grave but the United Grand Lodge of Germany has proudly joined its peers. Elsewhere in Europe the temporary eclipse of our Lodges has given way to full freedom. In the Far East, neither political proscription by the invader nor ecclesiastical tyranny within has prevented our Philippine brethren from rebuilding their temples. Beyond the iron curtain our brethren still languish, they too will rise again.

"The quest for the Holy Grail has been the theme of many poets. It is but the archetype of quests in general. Their theme is the same. Man searches the world and travels afar but always finds the object of his search within himself. Today we feverishly peer into the crucible of the chemist, we delve into the bowels of the earth, we hopefully descend into the depths of the seas, we fly into the stratosphere and we dream of journeying to the planets, all in the hope that we shall encompass all knowledge and become as gods. I do not deprecate the thirst of man for knowledge but neither do I join in the vain hope that the new knowledge even though it unlocks the mysteries of the suns and makes man the ruler of the universe, will make man ruler of himself.

"Thus we are faced with this paradox. At no time has man been so richly blessed with knowledge of the world without. And at no time in history has he been so conscious of his need to find out how human beings can learn to live together in peace and harmony. He yearns for liberty and daily finds himself less free. He hopes that the new knowledge will give him liberty, forgetting that learning is the child of liberty and not its parent. The great surges of learning that have occurred in the world have always succeeded periods of widening liberty, and the central thought of each such widening has been a broader feeling of brotherhood. The blossoming of art and philosophy was a product of the free cities of Greece. The concept of brotherhood among pastoral tribes on the seven hills of Rome destroyed the kingship just as failure to preserve that concept destroyed the empire. The mad priest of Kent who preached that all men were of one blood was but a remote author of the Bill of Rights.

"What conclusion then do we as Freemasons draw? The essence of our teaching is but the principle that has been the wellspring of liberty and peace. Our own search for the Grail eventually brings us to ourselves. The belief in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man has been the rock upon which the peace of the world has been founded. The duties we call Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth are but deductions flowing from the central principle. Only in these have we found refuge in the past. For nearly two centuries and a half we have preached them. The time has come to believe in them so fiercely that our belief will become a burning torch to guide a disordered and unhappy world to peace on earth and good will towards men."

Although there is a limitless array of inspiring messages still to be shared with you, we conclude this review with these concluding remarks from a dedicatory address by M:W: A. Edward Prince, Grand Orator, Idaho.

"Man is not the only builder. The bird builds her wondrous nest in the leafy tree-top; the beaver builds his cunning dam across the flowing stream; the wasp builds its curious home of mud under the eaves of our dwelling; and from twig and leaf the spider spins its lacy web, so marvelous in construction that all the exertions of human genius cannot duplicate its filmy perfection.

"But the nest of the bird, the dam of the beaver, the home of the wasp and the web of the spider are today the same identical creations they were when your ancestors and mine lived like beasts of prey in dark and gloomy caverns in the rocks. Yes, if the theories of many a disciple of evolution are to be believed, they are patterned as they were still further ages back when your ancestors and mine swung with the birds in the treetops.

"But in man there was that divine spark that the bird, the beaver, the wasp and the spider never knew. Inspiration—not instinct—guided his budding soul and led him from the gloomy caverns in the rocks and started him to build in God's glorious sunshine.

"Feeble were his efforts, mean his creations, but he was growing. Crude shelters took the place of dark and dingy dens, a roof covered him, the embryonic pillars supported the cross-members, and, as the years waxed and waned, and he developed his God-given powers of reason he builded better and better until his aspirations expressed their highest form in the magnificent structures which are the masterpieces of his mind and soul.

"Of God's sublime gift to man which made possible this progress this Temple will be a constant reminder.

"The task has been completed, the working-tools have been laid aside, and we have paused, even as they did on Mount Moriah so long ago, to give thanks to the great author of our existence and invoke his blessing upon the Temple we have created. And as King Solomon's Temple was builded around the sanctum sanctorum or holy of holies, God's especial dwelling place in that stupendous edifice, so is this Temple builded around the altar upon which rests the Holy Bible, the word of God, the one to whom we kneel in humble adoration and to whom this Lodge may turn for inspiration, guidance and support throughout all future time."

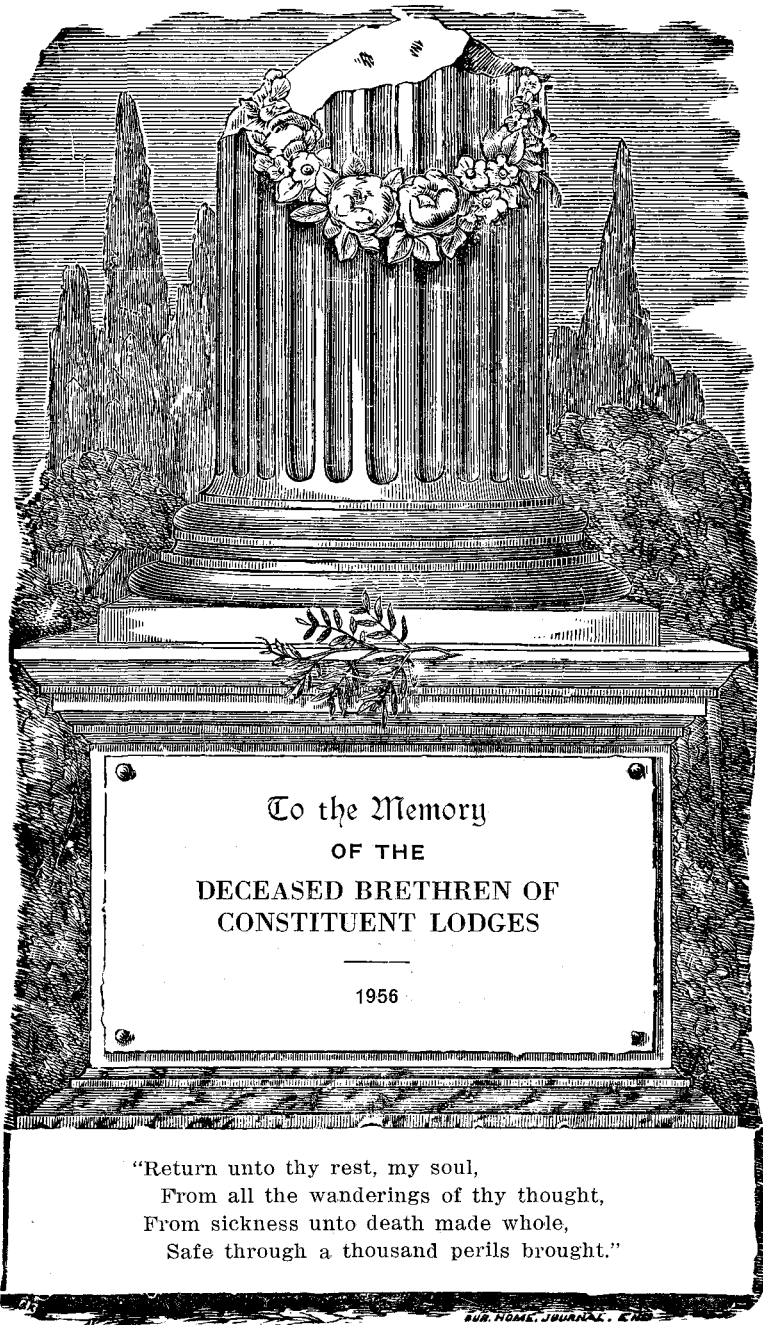

And with these, the concluding stanzas of the report by M:W: Robert A. Tate, Grand Secretary of Saskatchewan:

"Another year is gone. What we have done
Can never be undone; for good or ill
A chain of sequence from our acts will run
Far down the years, and have an influence still.

To err is human; though we've made mistakes, we fear,
We've tried our best to choose and do the right.
We hope the Master's verdict for the year
May be that we've made progress toward the light."
