Second Generation (Children)

3. John Whimpey [14] (William<sup>1</sup>) was born in 1817,<sup>1</sup> was christened on 7 Mar 1818 in Frome, Somerset, England,<sup>2</sup> died on 23 Oct 1895 in West Street, Brompton Park, South Australia, Australia<sup>1</sup> at age 78, and was buried on 25 Oct 1895 in West Terrace Cemetery, Adelaide, South Australia, Australia.<sup>3</sup>

General Notes: The 1841 England Census shows John was at Charles Street, Uchlawrcoed, Bedwellty, Monmouthshire. He was age 22, born out of county. Also in the household was Caroline age 22.

John and Caroline came to Australia on the "Ward Chipman" with his brother Joseph and his wife Margaret. They arrived in Melbourne 16 December 1841. John was aged 24 years. He could both read and write and was from Monmouth. John was listed as a labourer on the Immigration Board List, and farm servant on the Immigration List.

He was listed as a cordwainer on his daughter Elizabeth's baptism record in 1842, and as a shoe maker on his daughter Eliza's baptism record in 1846. Their abode was Melbourne. He was the informant at his son Joseph's birth in 1855. He was living at Currie St Adelaide and his profession was boot & shoe maker.

He was one of the witnesses at his son Joseph's marriage in 1881. He was a bootmaker living at North Adelaide.

At the time of his death he was a boot maker, and was living at West St, Brompton Park. He died from senile decay, and chronic cystitis. The informant was F. G. Downs, Undertaker, Jeffcott St, North Adelaide. Although his death certificate doesn't list parents, John and his wife Caroline were listed on the same census page as Joseph and Margaret on the 1841 Wales Census, John and Caroline came to Australia with Joseph and Margaret on the Ward Chipman in 1841, John and Caroline's daughter Eliza was baptised at the same time as Joseph and Margaret's three children in 1846 at the Parish of St James in Melbourne, and both families later moved to South Australia. Joseph and family returned to Victoria, while John and Caroline remained in South Australia.

Noted events in his life were:

- He immigrated in Dec 1841 to Victoria, Australia.<sup>4</sup>
- John has conflicting birth information in 1816.<sup>5</sup>

John married Caroline Jones [118] [MRIN: 31] on 10 Jun 1839 in Llanfoist, Monmouthshire, Wales.<sup>6</sup> Caroline was born in 1818 in Wales,<sup>7</sup> died on 16 Dec 1897 in North Adelaide, South Australia, Australia<sup>8</sup> at age 79, and was buried on 16 Dec 1897 in West Terrace Cemetery, Adelaide, South Australia, Australia.<sup>9</sup>

Marriage Notes: The marriage certificate shows they were married in the Parish of Lanfoist - this was probably Llanfoist, as Llanfoist is near Abergavenny, which is the district the marriage was registered in.

They were married by William Jones, curate (any relation I wonder?), and the witnesses were Philip Powell and Elizabeth Powell.

John signed his name, but Caroline used a mark.

Children from this marriage were:

- 11 F i. Elizabeth Whimpey [132] was born on 1 Dec 1842 in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia,<sup>10</sup> died on 30 Mar 1848 in Adelaide, South Australia, Australia<sup>11</sup> at age 5, and was buried on 1 Apr 1848 in West Terrace Cemetery, Adelaide, South Australia, Australia.<sup>9</sup>

4. Joseph Whimpey [8] (William<sup>1</sup>) was born on 13 Aug 1819 in Frome, Somerset, England,<sup>26</sup> was christened on 28 Aug 1819 in Frome, Somerset, England,<sup>27</sup> died on 6 May 1902 in Tarnagulla, Victoria, Australia<sup>28</sup> at age 82, and was buried on 8 May 1902 in Tarnagulla Cemetery, Tarnagulla, Victoria, Australia.<sup>28</sup>

General Notes: At the time of daughter Elizabeth's birth, Joseph was a collier at Tredegar.

The 1841 Census, which was held in June 1841, shows Joseph and Margaret were living in Charles St Uchlawroed, Monmouthshire Wales, with Elizabeth aged 6 months. Also in the household was William Price, age 30. William Price was also a witness at their marriage, so he was possibly Margaret's brother.

Joseph and Margaret came to Australia on the "Ward Chipman", which left Bristol on 21 August. As Elizabeth is not shown on the Immigration lists, she appears to have died between June 1841 (appears on the census) and August 1841 (when they sailed from Bristol). The "Ward Chipman" arrived in Melbourne 16 December 1841. Joe was a labourer aged 22 years. He could both read and write.

In 1846 when his children John, Elizabeth and William were baptized his profession was listed as shoemaker, and their abode was Melbourne.

The Port Phillip Colony Directory (mid to late 1840s) shows a James Whimpey was a shoemaker off Bourke Lane.

The family had moved to Adelaide by 1848 when their son Joseph was born, and returned to Victoria in 1851. Their daughter Eliza was born in 1851 at Narracoorte, and then baptized at Portland.

He was the informant at his daughter Sarah's birth in 1853. He was a storekeeper at Castlemaine. At this time Joseph and Margaret had 2 sons and 2 daughters living and 3 sons and 1 daughter deceased. He was the informant at his son Isaac's birth in 1855. His profession was shoemaker and he was living at Campbell's Creek. At the time Joseph and Margaret had five living and four deceased children.

The children of Joseph and Margaret that we can find records of are Elizabeth b Dec 1840 d Jun-Aug 1841, John b 1843 d 1926, Elizabeth b 1845 d 1942, William b 1846 d 1846, Joseph b 1848 d 1919, Eliza b 1851 d 1920, Sarah b 1853 d 1861 and Isaac b 1855 d 1886. There were therefore 2 sons that died young that we can find no records for. It is possible one was born shortly after their arrival at Port Phillip, and one while they were living in South Australia (between Joseph and Eliza).

The family had moved from Castlemaine to Sandy Creek (the original name for Tarnagulla) by 1861 when daughter Sarah died. Joseph was the informant at her death and was listed at the time as a miner.

His death certificate shows his profession was bootmaker, old age pensioner. He died from general senile degeneration. His father was William Whimpey. The informant was J Whimpey, grandson, Tarnagulla. The undertaker was William Roper. The minister was Charles Lancaster, Wesleyan Minister. He was born in Somersetshire, England and had been in Victoria for about 55 years.

Noted events in his life were:

- He immigrated on the ship "Ward Chipman" on 6 Dec 1841 to Port Phillip Bay, New South Wales, Australia.<sup>29</sup>

Joseph married Margaret Price [9] [MRIN: 4], daughter of John Price [11587] and Living, on 15 Jan 1840 in Bedwellty, Monmouthshire, Wales.<sup>30</sup> Margaret was born on 14 Feb 1815 in Merthyr Cynog, Breconshire, Wales,<sup>31</sup> died on 31 Jul 1901 in Tarnagulla, Victoria, Australia<sup>32</sup> at age 86, and was buried on 1 Aug 1901 in Tarnagulla Cemetery,

The minister was Rev J H Fredenick, Wesleyan. He was born in Adelaide and had lived for 30 years in South Australia and 6 years in Victoria.

From the Mansfield Courier Wednesday March 2nd 1892

On Friday morning last a man named Joseph Whimpey arrived at Mansfield from Bonnie Doon, for the purpose of consulting Dr. Reynolds with reference to an illness from which he (Whimpey) was suffering. He proceeded to the hospital, but not finding the doctor there, went as far as the establishment of Mr. Wheeler, chemist, where he was seen by the doctor, who, finding the man very bad indeed, injected morphia.

Whimpey then left for Gardener's Hotel, where he was allowed to lie down. Later on it was noticed by those about the hotel that Whimpey looked ill, and Mr Wheeler was sent for. Upon the arrival of this gentleman he expressed the opinion that the heavy breathing was the effect by the morphia, and that the man would be alright. At half past eight on Friday evening Whimpey became worse, and medical aid was sought, Dr. Hamilton being in attendance. The man never rallied and expired in a short time, and the body was removed to the morgue.

Dr. Hamilton performed a post mortem examination, and it was ascertained that death resulted from abscess in the head. It would appear that some years ago while at work Whimpey received a severe knock to the head, which has affected him ever since.

So intense has been the sufferings of the unfortunate man at times that he has sunk to his knees in the street, and, in sheer desperation clutched at his head until such time the pain passed off. Occasionally, he has only been able to proceed a few yards, when again compelled to come to a stand still.

He followed the occupation of a plasterer, and was engaged at work on the new police quarters at Bonnie Doon, at which place he arrived from North Fitzroy some five months ago. He was a member of the Independent Order of Racabites, and a man greatly respected.

He was not aware of the abscess which had formed in his head, and thought the violent pains arose from neuralgia. His wife received intelligence of the sad event, and just succeeded in reaching Mansfield in time to follow the remains of her husband to the grave in the Mansfield Cemetery on Saturday morning.

Mr. Martin, J.P. held an enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the verdict being that death was caused by abscess in the head.

Joseph married Martha Freeman [120] [MRIN: 32] on 12 Feb 1881 in St Luke's Church, Whitmore Square, Adelaide, South Australia, Australia. Martha was born on 6 Jan 1856 in Mt Barker, South Australia, Australia,<sup>25</sup> died on 15 Apr 1917 in Ailsa Street, Mansfield, Victoria, Australia<sup>26</sup> at age 61, and was buried on 17 Apr 1917 in Mansfield Cemetery, Mansfield, Victoria, Australia.<sup>26</sup>

Marriage Notes: Joseph was a bachelor aged 26 years. He was a mason, and was living in Adelaide. His father was John Whimpey.

Martha was a spinster, aged 26 years. She was living at Kensington. Her father was Thomas Freeman.

They were married by James Pollitt, Incumbent, Saint Lukes Church. The witnesses were John Whimpey, a bootmaker at North Adelaide, and Harriet Sells, living at Adelaide.

Death of Mr J Whimpey Senior

The news that Mr J Whimpey had passed away after a short illness on Sunday last cast quite a gloom over Tarnagulla and District. The grand old man was widely known and universally loved by all as one of those whose kindly influence in this world has done, and is doing, more than sermons to promote that feeling of brotherhood which we all hope some day to find the corner-stone of mundane affairs. The words of Moultrie, when writing of the beautiful life of McCaulay, that he was "pure and simple as a child unbreathed on by the world", comes into our mind when writing of the splendid old man, who has just crossed the Barrier, to be one of the elect of that God in heaven he so faithfully served on earth. For half a century in this district, deceased lived loved by all who knew him as a true Christian gentleman, whose clean, unsophisticated life made him a shining example to all. And now his turn has come to quit this mortal strife, but he had the great privilege of again meeting the three sons who have returned from the front ere the Great Ruler called him hence to meet that other brave son who made the supreme sacrifice on the fields of France. The body was interred in the Tarnagulla Cemetery, Messrs H Chambers, A Comrie, W Kilgour, C Falder, W Newton and D Atkins acting as pall-bearers and, with the poet we can say kind hands never lifted a better man into the grave The Rev. Trebilco read the burial service, and the mortuary arrangements were in the hands of Messrs Stafford + Sons, Dunolly.

JOSEPH FRANKLIN WORTHEN, M. D. - A native of Utah and a graduate of the Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Worthen, after having served as an interne in two Staten Island hospitals, established himself in the practice of medicine at St. George in the early part of 1927. His thorough medical training has made him a promising addition to the Island's medical profession.

Dr. Worthen was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, December 19, 1895, a son of Charles Herbert and Rachel (Whimpey) Worthen. His father, likewise a native of Salt Lake City, is a prominent building contractor of that western city. His mother, who was born in Wales, Great Britain, died in 1927. Dr. Worthen was first educated in the public and high schools of his native city. He subsequently entered the Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania, and was graduated at the June Commencement of 1925 with the degree of Doctor of Medicine. He then spent one year as an interne at the United States Marine Hospital, Stapleton, and another year in the same capacity at the Staten Island Hospital, New Brighton. Having thus complemented his theoretical studies with extensive and varied practical training, he established himself in the general practice of medicine on April 15, 1927, with offices at No. 107 Central Avenue, St. George. Besides ministering to his growing practice, he is also Attending Physician at the Seaside Hospital of St. John's Guild, New Dorp, and also Junior Attending Physician at the Staten Island Hospital. During the World War he was attached to the United States Medical Corps, with Field Hospital, No. 21, and served overseas in France from August 1, 1918, to May, 1919. He is a member of the Richmond County Medical Society, of which he is secretary, the New York State Medical Society, and the American Medical Association, as well as Pi Kappa Alpha, Phi Kappa Phi, Tau Kappa Alpha, and Phi Chi fraternities, the last-named being a medical fraternity. He is also a member of the Kiwanis Club of Staten Island.

Dr. Worthen was married at Salt Lake City, September 6, 1923, to Leah Burbidge, of that city, a daughter of George and Minnie (Brinton) Burbidge.

Salt Lake Tribune The (Salt Lake City, Utah), 17 October 1964.
Lake Victim Identified As Idahoan

Special to the Tribune

TOOELE - Sheriff Fay Gillette of Tooele County Friday night announced that the body found Wednesday on a beach of Carrington Island in Great Salt Lake is definitely that of Mrs. Elva Louise Whimpey Wirthlin, 40, Jerome, Idaho.

HE SAID members of the family had identified a wedding band and engagement ring as belonging to Mrs. Wirthlin and two dentists had confirmed that dental charts and teeth in the body "matched identically".

The sheriff said that no new widespread search is planned, but that periodic searches of the island will be kept up in hope of recovering the body of the victim's husband, Rex, 42.

Both have been missing since March 11, 1962 when they disappeared on a flight from Twin Falls to Las Vegas in a Cessnam 190 Mr. Wirthlin was flying.

THE WOMAN'S body was washed ashore some time this spring, officials surmised, then partially buried under beach sand and silt.

The late includes parts of Tooele, Box Elder, Weber, Davis and Salt Lake counties and if the plane went down in the lake officers from these counties might conduct searches.

HOWEVER, since the craft was reported missing two years, seven months ago and since a two-week search was conducted at the time, no official Friday indicated that a new and expensive search would be conducted.

By Joseph T. Liddell
