IN THE RANKINGS
• Long Beach State moved into No. 1 in the NVA/AVCA Coaches Poll on January 29 and has held the top spot ever since. This week, Beach garnered 17 first-place votes for a total of 453 points. This season, the LBSU has earned wins over three separate nationally ranked teams in No. 17 George Mason (3-1), No. 10 Pepperdine (3-0), and No. 4 UCLA (3-1).
• Central State is not ranked in the NVA/AVCA Coaches Poll, nor are the Marauders receiving votes.
• Edward Waters is not ranked in the NVA/AVCA Coaches Poll, nor are the Tigers receiving votes.
• This season, Long Beach State will face 10 nationally ranked opponents in the regular season. In the non-conference season, the Beach face No. 4 UCLA, No. 9 Penn State, No. 11 Pepperdine, No. 13 Lewis, and No. 17 George Mason. Once Big West action gets underway, LBSU will face nationally-ranked opponents No. 3 Hawaii, No. 7 UC Irvine, No. 16 CSUN, No. 18 UC Santa Barbara, and No. 20 UC San Diego.
• The Big West is one of the most competitive Division I Men's Volleyball conferences as all six Big West schools are nationally ranked, with three of them sitting in the Top 10.

ABOUT THE BEACH
• No. 1 Long Beach State opened the 2024 season on a 10-match winning streak and is looking to bounce back after a four-set road loss to No. 4 UCLA last Saturday. Overall, LBSU is 10-1 on the year thus far.
• Last week, the Beach split the series with UCLA. Long Beach State defeated the Bruins, 3-1, on Friday at the Walter Pyramid, before dropping a four-set decision on the road to UCLA on Saturday night.

• In the Big West Preseason Coaches Poll, Long Beach State was chosen to win the conference. The Beach garnered 23 points and three first-place votes to finish two points ahead of second-place Hawaii and four points ahead of third-place UC Irvine.

• In addition to being the preseason favorite, the Beach also led the way with three players on the Preseason Coaches' Team in senior libero Mason Briggs, redshirt senior setter Aidan Knipe, and junior outside hitter Sotiris Siapanis.

• Briggs and Siapanis were also joined by senior middle blocker Simon Torwie and senior opposite Clarke Godbold as Off the Block Preseason All-Americans.

• The Beach return a veteran squad from a year ago with 15 returning letterwinners and four returning starters, plus Briggs at libero.

• The five returning starters in Briggs, Knipe, Siapanis, Godbold, and Torwie were all named AVCA All-Americans last season as they look to continue to hone their craft on the court in 2024.

• Godbold has been incredible to start his senior campaign this season. The 6-foot-5 outside hitter ranks 10th in the nation in attack percentage (.395), while coming in ninth, nationally, in kills per set (3.90). He is sixth in the country in points per set (4.82) and fourth in blocks per set (1.37).

• Knipe has been masterful this season leading the Long Beach State offense to a .357 attack percentage which is good for fourth in the nation. Knipe has recorded 9.74 assists per set this season, a mark that ranks him 11th in the country. He has guided the Beach to a .300 or higher attack percentage in 8-of-11 matches thus far.

• Briggs anchors the defense with 2.37 digs per set which leads The Big West and ranks him eighth in the country. With Briggs' stout defense, the Beach has held their opponents to a .159 attack percentage, a mark that leads The Big West and ranks the squad fourth in the nation.

• Siapanis has been solid for the Beach this season as he ranks 21st nationally with a .355 attack percentage. Meanwhile, he is second on the team with 3.06 kills per set which is good for ninth in The Big West.

• In addition to returning a solid core group, the Beach also stacked their roster with nine newcomers highlighted by freshmen Lazar Bouchkov, Sebastiano Sani, and Daniil Hershtynovich, along with sophomore transfer Ben Braun.

• The 6-foot-6 Bouchkov is a six-time Junior National Champion, and a five-time Balkan Champion with the Bulgarian National Team. He is currently leading the nation in blocks per set with 1.69 as he has been unstoppable at the net for the Beach this season.

• Sani is a 6-foot-8 outside hitter who was selected to the U19 USA National Team and helped his squad to an eighth place finish at Nationals. Sani has seen action in six matches for the Beach this season and made his first collegiate start against King on February 3. Against King, he recorded a season-high eight kills to go along with five digs, and three blocks

• Hershtynovich is a 6-foot-9 opposite from Toronto, Canada who played for the U19 and U21 National Team. He led his team to third place at Canadian Club Nationals and helped his squad to a third place showing at the U21 PanAm Cup.

Hershtynovich has played in five matches this season and made two starts at opposite. He is averaging 2.13 kills per set on a .500 (17-4-26) clip on the year. He also adds 0.50 blocks per set and 0.50 aces per set.

• Braun is a 6-foot-11 middle blocker to came to Long Beach State from Ohio State. Prior to his time with the Buckeyes, Braun was named to the Fab 50 by Volleyball Magazine in 2021. He was also named to the High Performance Team in 2020 for Men's Junior A1NTTP. Braun has come off the bench in three matches for LBSU this season and has put up six blocks to average 1.50 blocks per set on the year.

SCOUTING CENTRAL STATE

• Central State comes into the match against Long Beach State with an 0-13 overall record.

• The Marauders are looking to earn their first victory of the 2024 after starting the year on a 13-match losing skid.

• So far this season, Central State has seen action against two other Big West teams. The Marauders dropped a 3-0 contest at CSUN on January 27 and fell in straight sets to UC San Diego on February 15.

• Tyrone Sands leads the team with 2.18 kills per set, while adding 0.85 digs per set, and 0.44 blocks per set. His eight aces for an average of 0.21 are tops on the team.

• At setter, Ian Ford paces the offense with 4.13 assists per set to go along with 0.65 digs per set, 0.35 kills per set, and 0.18 blocks per set.

• Defensively, Toulmin Williams IV anchors the backrow with 0.89 digs per set, while adding 0.86 kills per set, and 0.17 blocks per set.

• At the net, Alain Tamo-Noche has put up a team-best 25 blocks on the year to average 0.69 blocks per set. He contributes on the offensive end as well tallying 1.08 kills per set on a .213 clip.

THE SERIES: THE BEACH VS. THE MARAUDERS

Long Beach State and Central State will meet for the first time in program history.

SCOUTING EDWARD WATERS

• Edward Waters come into the tournament with a 2-2 overall record.

• The Tigers have earned victories over Erskine (3-2) and Talladega (3-0).

• Their two losses, have been at the hands of Charleston (3-0) and Emmanuel (3-1).

• Richard Hendricks is the team's leading scorer with 3.20 kills per set on a .289 attack percentage. He also leads the team with 1.60 digs per set.

• Kenyon Haynes runs the Tigers' offense as he averages 9.00 assists per set and has piloted Edward Waters to a .214 attack percentage on the year. His 1.40 digs per set are good for second on the team, while his five blocks for a 0.33 blocks per set average are tied for the team lead.

• Also leading the Tigers with five blocks to average 0.33 blocks per set is Dillon Taylor. Taylor also chips in 1.27 kils per set on a .333 hitting percentage.

THE SERIES: THE BEACH VS. THE TIGERS

Long Beach State and Edward Waters will meet for the first time in program history.

LAST TIME OUT: LBSU AT UCLA

It was another epic battle between the Beach and the Bruins as the two Top 5 opponents fought each other through four sets that eventually saw No. 1 Long Beach State fall to No. 4 UCLA by set scores of 27-29, 29-27, 19-25, 20-25.

The Beach (10-1) dropped their first contest of the year as they hit .238 and out-blocked the Bruins (9-3) 11.5-10.0. UCLA, meanwhile, held the advantage in kills (64-51), assists (61-48), aces (6-1), and digs (47-36).

Long Beach State was led by outside hitters Clarke Godbold and Sotiris Siapanis who finished the match with 15 and 13 kills, respectively. Redshirt senior setter Aidan Knipe dished out 43 assists, while adding a kill of his own, to go along with four blocks, and four digs.

In the backrow, senior libero Mason Briggs recorded a season-high 16 digs. He has now registered double-figure digs four times this season and 38 times in his career.

Leading the LBSU blocking defense with four blocks each were Knipe, Godbold, redshirt sophomore opposite Skyler Varga, and freshman middle blocker Lazar Bouchkov. Varga also added nine kills, while Bouchkov contributed six.

Senior middle blocker Simon Torwie was solid on all sides of the ball as he hit .636 (7-0-11) knocking down seven kills, while posting three blocks, and earning the team's lone ace.

Overall, the two foes fought each other through 38 ties and 10 lead changes. Sixteen of those ties came in the first set alone. The evenly balanced game saw UCLA take a 15-11 lead at the media timeout. But the Beach were quick to come back as they scored four-straight points to even the score at 16-all. Three-consecutive points from UCLA sent the Bruins to set point, 24-22. However, the two teams fought through six set points before the Bruins earned a 29-27 win.

The second set was much like the first The Beach and the Bruins exchanged leads twice and broke a dozen ties in the frame. Long Beach State opened the game with a quick 5-1 lead, but UCLA chipped away and evened things up at 13-all forcing an LBSU timeout. The tight game saw the Bruins hit set point (24-23) first. Just like the first set, the Beach and the Bruins battled each other through five set points before Long Beach closed the set on a 3-0 run sparked by a kill from Torwie to give LBSU a 29-27 win.

UCLA jumped out to a 5-2 lead over LBSU to start the third set. However, the Beach were quick to even things up after an ace from Torwie knotted the game at 6-all. Long Beach took an 11-8 lead over UCLA after back-to-back kills from Godbold and Siapanis as the Bruins took a timeout. The break served UCLA well as the hosts came out and went on a 7-1 run to take a 15-12 advantage. From there, the Bruins went on to win, 25-19.

In the fourth set, the Beach went on an early 4-0 run to go up 6-3 over the Bruins. UCLA was quick to counter as the Bruins used a 6-1 run to gain a 9-7 lead. By the media timeout, the Beach were down by four (15-11), and despite staying within striking distance, were unable to regain the lead as they dropped a 25-20 contest to UCLA.

The Bruins boasted four double-figure scorers led by Grant Sloane's 16 kill. Alex Knight added 14 kills, while Cooper Robinson and Merrick McHenry each tallied 10. Setter Andrew Rowan led UCLA to a .301 clip as he registered 59 assists. Libero Ethan Champlin anchored the backrow with 17 digs, while McHenry led the blocking defensive with five blocks.

NATIONAL ACCOLADES
For the first time in his career, Long Beach State freshman middle blocker Lazar Bouchkov was named AVCA Men's National Collegiate Player of the Week on Tuesday, Janaury 30.

Bouchkov was unstoppable at the net as he led Long Beach to a pair of sweeps over No. 10 Pepperdine and Concordia the week prior. With the straight-set wins, the Beach moved from No. 3 to No. 1 in the nation in this week's AVCA/NVA Poll. Bouchkov paced the blocking defense with an impressive 3.00 blocks per set, while also recording 2.75 points per set, to go along with 1.17 kills per set on a .636 attack percentage (7-0-11).

The product out of Sofia, Bulgaria kicked off the week with 10 blocks against the Waves on Friday night. The double-figure block performance is the second in his young career and just one off his career-best. Bouchkov also added four kills on six errorless swings for a .667 attack percentage, while dishing out one assist.

The next night, Bouchkov put up eight blocks against the Golden Eagles, while tallying three kills on five swings without committing an error en route to hitting .600. He also added a dig in the Beach's convincing sweep on Saturday night of Concordia.

BIG WEST HONORS
The Beach continue to rack up the Big West Weekly honors as Mason Briggs won his second Defensive Player of the Week award of the year on Monday, Feb. 12.

Long Beach State has now claimed four of the conference's last five Defensive Player of the Week awards. In addition to Briggs winning, freshman middle blocker Lazar Bouchkov also took home the honors twice - first on January 22 then on Jan. 29

If that weren't enough, senior outside hitter Clarke Godbold was recognized for his offensive prowess on January 22 as he was named Big West Offensive Player of the Week.

NUMBERS TO WATCH
Mason Briggs and Aidan Knipe are both closing in on some career marks. Briggs has accumulated 779 career digs as he jumped into seventh place all time at Long Beach State. Briggs is now ahead of Long Beach Legend TJ DeFalco who finished his illustrious collegiate career with 773 career digs. Briggs is just 19 digs away from tying another LB Legend Jason Stimpfig with 798.

Aidan Knipe, meanwhile, has racked up 2,549 career assists as he sits ninth all-time at the Beach. He is now in the elite company of fellow Long Beach Legends Tyler Hildebrand (6,651 career assists), Josh Tuaniga (4, 607 career assists), and Conor Eaton (2,620 career assists) who rank first, fourth, and eighth, respectively.

MILESTONE MOMENT
In his 21st year at the helm of the Long Beach State Men's Volleyball program, Head Coach Alan Knipe recorded his 400th career victory on February 2 with a 3-0 sweep of King. Last season, Knipe became the program's all-time winningest coach, and this year he surpassed the 400-career win milestone, and owns a .708 winning percentage. In his time leading the Beach, Knipe has coached six National Players of the Year, and led the program to 11 NCAA Championship appearances, including two National Titles. Knipe has coached 70 All-America selections and 90 All-Conference selections, while mentoring numerous players who have gone on to play professionally overseas and on the AVP circuit.

BLOCK PARTY
The Beach started the 2024 season with a strong blocking defense presence at the net. Long Beach State is averaging a nation-leading 3.57 blocks per set. Individually, LBSU has four players in the Top 25 in the country in blocks per set. Freshman middle blocker Lazar Bouchkov leads the way with 1.69 blocks per set which leads the nation. Coming in behind Bouchkov are Clarke Godbold (1.37 bps), Simon Torwie (1.10 bps), and Skyler Varga (0.97 bps) who rank fourth, 11th, and 21st, respectively, in the nation.

CAN YOU DIG IT?
Senior Mason Briggs has established himself as one of the nation's top liberos over the last four years. Briggs currently leads The Big West in digs per set with 2.37, a mark that is good for eighth in the nation. Briggs is coming off of a season-high 16-dig performance at No. 4 UCLA last Saturday He has now recorded double figure digs 38 times in his career and has led LBSU in digs on 59 occasions. With his solid defense, Briggs has helped limit opponents to a .159 attack percentage, which leads The Big West and is fourth in the country.

HELPING HANDS
Senior setter Aidan Knipe has done an excellent job this season piloting the Beach to a .357 attack percentage, which is good for second in the conference and fourth in the country. Knipe has dished out 9.74 assists per set to come in fourth in the league and 11th the nation. With 341 helpers on the year, Knipe has brought his career total to 2,549 which ranks him in the Top 10 in the Long Beach State Men's Volleyball Record Book.

THE BEST IN THE (BIG) WEST
Long Beach State has established itself as one of the top teams, statistically speaking in The Big West. The Beach lead the conference in opponent hitting percentage (.159) and blocks per set (3.57). Additionally, LBSU comes in second in the league in hitting percentage (.357) and third in service aces per set (1.79).

Individually, LBSU has two players who lead the conference as Lazar Bouchkov sets the standard in blocks per set (1.69), and Mason Briggs owns a league-leading 2.37 digs per set average.

GROWING THE GAME
As the sport of boy's and men's volleyball continues to grow nation wide, the National Collegiate level has expanded adding the Northeast Conference (NEC) and the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC). In order to continue to grow the game, Long Beach State is playing four matches against NEC and SIAC members this season. The Beach open the year against NEC members Long Island and Saint Francis (Pa.), and also host a mid-season tournament which will feature SIAC members Central State and Edward Waters.

EXPANDING THE TOURNAMENT
As the game grows, so does the NCAA Men's Volleyball Tournament. This season, the tournament will feature eight teams in the field instead of seven. The expanded NCAA Tournament field is due to the SIAC being awarded an automatic bid. The SIAC will now join The Big West, Conference Carolinas, EIVA, MIVA, and MPSF as automatic bid conferences. With the expansion, there will now be NCAA Quarterfinal matches on Tuesday, April 30, before the NCAA Semifinals on Thursday, May 2. The NCAA Championship match will take place on Saturday, May 4. All NCAA Tournament match will be played at the Walter Pyramid in Long Beach, Calif.

KNIPE AN ALL-TIME GREAT COACH
USA Volleyball announced that Long Beach State's Alan Knipe will be recognized as an All-Time Great Coach at the 2024 Hall of Fame annual banquet and ceremony on May 22 at the Hilton Polaris in Columbus, Ohio where Knipe will receive the Donald S. Shondell All-Time Great Coach Award.

"It's an absolute honor to receive this award," said Knipe. "It caught me completely by surprise. It was also really meaningful, for me, to get the call from Doug Beal. He was a three-time Olympic Coach himself and the president of USA Volleyball when I was the head coach. He's had a huge impact on volleyball world-wide, and he's had a huge impact on my coaching career, probably significantly bigger than he even knows. It's a tremendous honor and I'm very humbled by the whole thing."

Knipe is in his 21st season at the helm of his alma mater and is the winningest coach in Long Beach State Men's Volleyball program history as he has accumulated 402 career victories and owns a .708 winning percentage. He has created a culture of greatness at the Beach leading Long Beach State to 11 NCAA Final Four Appearances, and has guided his program to two NCAA National Championships in 2018 and 2019.

A three-time AVCA National Coach of the Year, Knipe has coached 70 All-American selections and half a dozen National Players of the Year in Tyler Hildebrand (2006), Paul Lotman (2008), Taylor Crabb (2008), TJ DeFalco (2007, 2019), Josh Tuaniga (2018), and Alex Nikolov (2022).

Knipe took a brief hiatus from the Beach when he coached the U.S. Men's National Team from 2009-12 where he led the team to a 2012 World League Silver Medal. His squad also won the 2012 NORCECA Olympic Qualification Tournament. At the London Olympic Games, Knipe's team won its pool and advanced to the quarterfinals.

"Any time you get an award like this there is a large breadth of work that went into it and a lot of sacrifice. And when I say sacrifice, I don't just mean me. I mean the coaches that are coaching with you, the players who have played for you, the administrators who have supported you, and most importantly, for me, my family," said Knipe. "A huge thank you to my wife, Jennifer, for being amazing as a coach's wife – which is a whole unique club to be part of – and to my sons, Aidan and Evan."

The Hall of Fame ceremony will take place one day before the 2024 USA Volleyball Open National Championship starts at the Greater Columbus Convention Center. The proceeds from the event will go to the USA Volleyball Foundation to provide funding to support the Olympic and Paralympic dreams of the athletes in USA Volleyball's national team programs.

The All-Time Great Coach Award recognizes coaches with a minimum of 10 years of coaching experience; the ability to develop consistently successful teams, as demonstrated by performances at the state, regional, national and/or international levels; a demonstrated ability to train athletes to their highest potential, and the ability to respond in a professional manner to the successes, pressures, and disappointments of competition.

The coach must also have shared their abilities and knowledge to education peers.

HOTSHOTS
VolleyballMag announced a list of the nation's top up-and-coming volleyball coaches across NCAA Division I women's, NCAA Division I-II men, and NCAA Collegiate beach programs. Long Beach State boasted three on the list in women's head volleyball coach Tyler Hildebrand, along with men's volleyball's associate head coach Nick MacRae and assistant coach McKay Smith.

VolleyballMag compiled the list of veterans who are taking their game to the next level to newcomers getting their feet wet from nominations by sports information directors.

Hildebrand earned the nod to the impressive group after taking the reins of the Long Beach State Women's Volleyball program and leading the team to The Big West Championship match in 2023. In just two years at the helm of the Beach, Hildebrand has totaled 40 wins and owns a winning percentage of .678. He was also instrumental in leading LBSU to its first 20-plus win season since 2016.

MacRae is the associate head coach of the Long Beach State Men's Volleyball team and has been a part of the program for the last 10 years. In that time, MacRae has helped guide the Beach to 224 victories and a .780 winning percentage. If that weren't enough, he has been a key component to Long Beach State's six NCAA Semifinalist appearances in the last seven seasons, while also helping the Beach capture back-to-back National Championships in 2018 and 2019.

Smith has been an assistant coach for the Beach Men's Volleyball team for the last five years. In that span has helped Long Beach State win two National Championships in 2018 and 2019. Additionally, he has been an integral part of helping the Beach advance to four NCAA Semifinals. During Smith's time as an assistant coach at LBSU, he has coached 28 All-Americans, including National Players of the Year Josh Tuaniga (2018), TJ DeFalco (2019), and Alex Nikolov (2022).

PRESEASON TUNE-UP
The Long Beach State Men's Volleyball team closed the year 2023 win a pair of exhibition victories over Alberta on Sunday at the Walter Pyramid. The Beach welcomed the Golden Bears from the Great White North and won the morning match, 4-0, before taking the afternoon contest, 3-0.

The two matches served as a tune up for the 2024 season for the Beach, which begins on Friday, Jan. 12 at 7 p.m. at the Walter Pyramid against Long Island. Meanwhile, the Golden Bears took a break from their regular season action to face the Beach in a southern California trip in which they will take on Pepperdine on Tuesday, Jan. 2. On the year, Alberta is 17-6, while owning a 9-3 record in Canada West action.

Long Beach State played almost its entire 31-man roster over the two contests, and did a solid job cruising to a pair of straight-set wins over one of the top Canadian teams in the country. The Beach played mostly reserves in the opening match, defeating the Golden Bears by set scores of 26-24, 25-21, 28-26, 25-18. In the second contest of the day, LBSU went with their starting core and came away with dominating first (25-12) and second set (25-15) wins, before taking the third set, 25-22, to complete the sweep.

HONORING LONG BEACH LEGENDS
The Long Beach State Men's Volleyball program will be inducting four new members into the Wall of Honor in Dan Alexander, John Crutchfield, Robert Tarr, and Jeff Wootton. In addition, the Beach will be honoring Tom Hoff as his No. 9 jersey will be hung in the Walter Pyramid rafters, alongside current retired jerseys No. 7 and No. 15 in honor of Brent Hilliard and Brett Winslow, respectively.

"These four men, with their time as members and alumni of the program, have played a significant role in creating and perpetuating the culture of grit and success that defines our 49er volleyball program," said former LBSU men's volleyball player and Wall of Honor Co-Chair Harold Noriega. "The Long Beach State Men's Volleyball program, and all our alumni, are proud to honor these four exceptional men by inducting them into the Wall of Honor."

The major criteria for the Wall of Honor, as outlined by the committee, are as follows: the player must have represented Long Beach State Men's Volleyball with unparalleled success or achievement and truly embodied the passion, commitment, and loyalty that defines the true meaning of a 49er.

The four Wall of Honor inductees have demonstrated a commitment to the LBSU Men's Volleyball program that has far exceeded expectations and has helped the Beach establish itself as one of the perennial powerhouses in the country over the last several decades.

"What an exciting time for our program to celebrate some amazing former players and coaches," said Long Beach State Head Coach Alan Knipe. "All of these guys have a true passion and love for this program that shows with their commitment to their craft. Besides their many accolades, personal and team achievements, it is their undeniable commitment and dedication to our program on a daily basis that will always be what I respect and remember most."

A middle blocker who played for Long Beach State from 2007-10, Alexander garnered AVCA First Team All-American honors, and was a three-time All-MPSF selection while at the Beach. He was part of the 2008 NCAA Semifinalist team that finished the season with a 23-7 overall record. The Beach won the MPSF with an 18-4 conference record and finished the season ranked third nationally.

Alexander is the Rally Scoring Era record holder in career attack percentage (.468), block assists (452), total blocks (474), and blocks per set (1.30). Those marks are currently third, fourth, and sixth all-time at Long Beach State, respectively. He also ranks seventh with 119 career service aces in the LBSU all-time record book. Alexander finished his career with seven double-digit blocking performances to rank fifth all-time at LBSU. In 2009, he put up a career-high 14 block assists against UCLA on January 21 to tie for the single-match record. Following his illustrious collegiate career, Alexander went on to play professionally overseas in Switzerland and Sweden.

Tarr is a two-time AVCA First Team All-American who played at Long Beach State from 2003-06. He ranks in the Top 10 all-time at the Beach in kills with 1,556. In his senior year, Tarr recorded double-figure kills in 32 matches to set a program single-season record that still stands today. He led the Beach in kills in 2005 and 2006 with 545 and 597 kills, respectively, while also leading the squad with 40 services aces in his final collegiate season. Tarr competed in the World University Games in 2005 and won a Bronze Medal with the team in 2007.

A member of the U.S. Men's National Team from 2009-12, Tarr went on to play professionally overseas in Kuwait, France, Portugal, Puerto Rico, and the United Arab Emirates. Wootton is a Volleyball Magazine All-America Honorable Mention and an All-MPSF Third Team selection who played outside hitter at Long Beach State from 2001-04. He helped lead the Beach to the 2004 NCAA Finals after a season in which he was second on the team with 3.62 kills per set on a .315 attack percentage.

He led Long Beach State in kills (375), kills per set (3.26), and digs (183) for the 2002 season. A recipient of the Dodge Parker "Ironman" Award in 2002, Wootton finished his collegiate career ranked 15th all-time at Long Beach State with 1,202 kills. Wootton went on to play professionally on the AVP Circuit.

"All the members of the Wall of Honor induction committee are extremely excited about this year's class of inductees," said former LBSU men's volleyball player, assistant coach, and Wall of Honor Co-Chair Mike D'Alessandro. "The three players being inducted – Dan, Jeff, and Robert – were All-American level players for the Beach who led their teams to the highest levels of success and were major parts of establishing the winning tradition and culture that has characterized the Long Beach State Men's Volleyball program for decades. These legends embodied what the program is all about and are exactly the type of student-athletes that the program wants to acknowledge for their outstanding efforts and contributions while playing for and representing the university and the team."

Crutchfield will be inducted into the Wall of Honor after serving as a volunteer assistant coach for the Beach from 2001-15, Crutchfield helped Long Beach State qualify for the MPSF Tournament in 13 of 15 seasons. With Crutchfield on the sidelines, LBSU advanced to the NCAA Tournament twice, making an appearance in the NCAA Finals in 2004 and the semifinals in 2008. A lifelong resident of Long Beach, Calif., Crutchfield has also been an avid supporter of Long Beach State Men's Volleyball.

"Coach John Crutchfield is also being inducted in the Wall of Honor this year, and that is also highly deserved," D'Alessandro stated. "He spent over 15 seasons working with some fantastic players and teams at the Beach. And he did it all as a volunteer coach! His contributions were immense and greatly appreciated by everyone involved with the program. My congratulations to all four Long Beach State Men's Volleyball legends. Well done, guys, and well deserved!"

Hoff, who was inducted into the inaugural class of the Wall of Honor, will be honored during the 2024 season as the Long Beach State Men's Volleyball program will raise his No. 9 jersey into the rafters. No. 9 will not be a retired number, but will be a fixture in the Walter Pyramid for years to come. A two-time AVCA First Team All-American, Hoff played at LBSU from 1995-96. In his two years at the Beach, he racked up 1,230 career kills to rank 14th all-time, while his kills per set (6.54) and blocks per set averages (1.65) are good for second. Hoff recorded 20-plus kills on 37 occasions, which is fourth most in program history, meanwhile his 15 30-plus kill contests and 11 10-plus block performances rank him second at Long Beach State. Hoff is the all-time program leader at the Beach with four triple-doubles in his career.

Hoff holds numerous records in the All-Era Single-Season Record Book as he comes in third with 751 kills, fourth with 7.22 kills per set, and fourth with 176 blocks during the 1995 season. That year, he recorded at least 20 kills a program-record 25 times, while also setting a single-season program record of 13 30-plus kill performances, and nine 10-plus block showings. He is one of just 10 players in Long Beach State Men's Volleyball history to record 40-plus kills in a single match as he knocked down 44 at UC Santa Barbara on March 9, 1995, which ranks him tied for seventh all-time.

Following his decorated collegiate career, Hoff went on to play on the U.S. Men's National Team from 1997-2009, and appeared in three consecutive Olympics (2000, 2004, 2008). As a team captain, Hoff led his team to Gold at the 2008 Beijing Olympics. Hoff also had a solid professional career overseas playing in Japan, Russia, Greece, and Puerto Rico. He is the father of current Long Beach State Women's Volleyball player Tatum Hoff.

IN MEMORY OF ROCKY CIARELLI

Long Beach State Head Coach Alan Knipe and the Men's Volleyball program announced the naming of the team's annual alumni game in memory of former LBSU legend Rocky Ciarelli. The inaugural Rocky Ciarelli Alumni Game was held on Saturday, Oct. 21 at the Walter Pyramid.

"Rocky impacted the Long Beach State Men's Volleyball program at every level – as a player, as a coach, as a founding chair of the Wall of Honor Committee, to being an avid supporter of our program," said Knipe. "He was truly a Long Beach Legend. Mainly by the way he played the game, coached the game, and his passion for the game. It is my great pleasure to honor his name now and into the future." Ciarelli played for the Beach in the early years of the program from 1977-79, before returning to the hardwood as an assistant coach. His grit and effort both on and off the court helped establish Long Beach State's culture and national prominence, which has led to the program winning three NCAA National Championships, while making 13 NCAA Tournament appearances, garnering multiple All-Americans, and producing numerous Olympians and professionals.

Following his graduation from Long Beach State, Ciarelli continued to make a name for himself throughout the volleyball community. He spent decades coaching high school volleyball. He was the coach at Edison High School from 1982-84, before taking the reins at his alma mater, Huntington Beach High School, from 1985-2008. He also coached the Oilers' Girl's Volleyball team for 14 years.

During his time at HBHS, Ciarelli led the boy's volleyball team to 11 league championships, a Division I CIF Runner Up, and two Division I CIF Championships, while boasting a .698 winning percentage. On the girl's side, Ciarelli compiled a .662 winning percentage and led his squads to three league championships, two state runner ups, two CIF Championships, and two State Championships.

Ciarelli concluded his high school coaching career at Newport Harbor High School where he was at the helm from 2015 until his retirement in 2019. In five short years, he comprised on overall record of 83-19 for a .814 winning percentage and led the Sailors to three league championship, one CIF Championship, and a SoCal Regional Championship.

As a high school head coach, he earned 630 career victories and mentored 65 All-CIF players. He led his teams to multiple division and state titles, and helped grow the sport, all while developing future collegiate athletes. For his many contributions to high school volleyball, Ciarelli was inducted into the CIF Hall of Fame earlier this week.

In addition to his high school and collegiate coaching career, Ciarelli served on the U.S. Men's National Team staff during Knipe's USA tenure from 2008-12.

Throughout the years, Ciarelli continued to support the Long Beach State Men's Volleyball program. For the last several years, he served as the chair of the Wall of Honor Committee.

WELCOME TO THE BEACH

Long Beach State Head Men's Volleyball Coach Alan Knipe announced the signing of seven of the nation's top recruits as part of his 2024 signing class. The talented class of Ford Harman, Alex Kandev, Kellen Larson, Victor Loiola, Moni Nikolov, Jake Pazanti, and Isaiah Preuitt will join the Beach for the 2025 season.

Three players, in Larson, Loiola, and Preuitt, have played for the USA Boys National Team as Larson anchored the USA defense as libero, while Loiola was a top point scorer at outside hitter, and Preuitt was a stalwart at the net as a middle. Meanwhile, Nikolov is a member of the Bulgarian Boys National Team.

"We are excited to unite these young men and their families with our Long Beach community, athletic department, and men's volleyball family," said Knipe. "This signing class will assist Long Beach State with maintaining sustainable success for years to come.

"They have set the highest standards in our craft; set on a path of winning national championships, competing at the highest international level, and becoming Olympians. They join our family bringing a wealth of experience in the USA and International volleyball pipelines, many of them having played in some major tournaments thus far.

"They have set major aspirations in the classroom and for post-volleyball careers; looking to enter in our colleges of business, engineering, real estate, and the medical field.

"Just as important, they are all incredible, holistic people; they will join us ready to improve their physical, mental, and spiritual self. They look to becoming amazing fathers, husbands, and leaders that will make a positive impact in our world.

"It is with these traits of high volleyball standards, high academic goals, and being a holistic young man, that we are excited to announce your recruiting class of 2024!"

NEXT UP

Long Beach State will continue its five-match homestand on Friday, February 23 when the Beach host No. 13 Lewis at the Walter Pyramid. First serve is slated for 7 p.m. The match will be broadcast live on ESPN+.

ALAN KNIPE
Head Coach | 21st Year | 402-166 (.708)

Three-time AVCA National Coach of the Year Alan Knipe has created a winning culture at Long Beach State. A living part of Long Beach State men's volleyball history, Knipe is the only person in program history to have been a part of all three LBSU National Championships. Knipe was a player on the 1991 squad that captured the program's first-ever National Title, before coming back to his alma mater as a head coach and leading the Beach to the school's first-ever back-to-back NCAA National Championships in 2018 and 2019.

In 18 seasons at the helm of the Long Beach State men's volleyball program, Knipe has guided the Beach to six NCAA Final Fours – five in the last six seasons – a pair of conference tournament championships, 13 MPSF tournament appearances, four Big West Tournament appearances, and three NCAA Championships.

Under Knipe's tutelage, Long Beach State has posted a 372-160 record as Knipe boasts a .699 winning percentage. In conference action, the Beach is 223-120 (.650) with Knipe on the bench. He has served as head coach of the Beach since 2001, with a brief hiatus from 2010-12 in which he coached the U.S. Men's National Team.

As head coach of the Beach, Knipe has coached six National Players of the Year in Alex Nikolov (AVCA, 2022), Josh Tuaniga (AVCA, 2018), TJ DeFalco, (AVCA, 2017 & 2019) Taylor Crabb (AVCA, 2013), Paul Lotman (AVCA, 2008) and Tyler Hildebrand (Volleyball Magazine, 2006). Additionally, Knipe has coached 63 All-America selections, 24 All-Big West Conference selections, and 58 All-MPSF selections.

During his tenure as head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team, Knipe guided the Americans to the quarterfinals of the 2012 Olympic Games in London as they advanced to the knockout round after finishing first in Pool B, which also featured Brazil and Russia, who were ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the world, respectively.

With Knipe at the helm, the United States also qualified for the World League Finals on three occasions (2009, 2011 and 2012). In 2012, they claimed the FIVB World League silver medal, marking their second-best finish since the World League began in 1990. Additionally, the U.S. won the gold medal at the 2012 NORCECA Continental Olympic Qualification Tournament, securing their eighth consecutive berth to the Olympics.

Knipe played three years (1990-92) at Long Beach State under Ray Ratelle, where he was a key member of the 1991 National Championship team. In the 1991 title match, Knipe racked up 16 kills, nine digs, eight blocks and hit .636 (16-2-22) as LBSU topped USC, 3-1.

As a student-athlete at LBSU, Knipe received numerous honors including all-conference (First Team, 1992), All-American (Frist Team, 1992; Second Team, 1991) and All-NCAA Tournament (1991) accolades. He also helped the Beach advance to the 1990 NCAA Finals.

Knipe continued his playing career following his graduation from Long Beach State as he was a member of the United States National Team from 1992-93. He also played on the Bud Light 4-Man Pro Beach Volleyball Tour and won seven USVB National Open Championships with Team Paul Mitchell. In 1993, he was named the United States Volleyball Association Player of the Year. Two years later, Knipe played overseas for Spoleto in the Italian Pro League and played for the Zellik Club in Belgium the following year.

In October 2006, Knipe was inducted into the inaugural Long Beach State Men's Volleyball Wall of Honor which recognizes former players who represented Long Beach State men's volleyball with unparalleled success or achievement. He was also inducted into the Long Beach State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2011.

Knipe graduated from Marina High School in Huntington Beach, Calif., and spent one year at Orange Coast College before transferring to Long Beach State, where he received his bachelor's degree in speech communications in 1992.

Knipe and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Aidan and Evan.
