A note from the Artistic Director

On behalf of ALL of us at McCarter, welcome.

Whether you've been coming for years or are new to our home, we are so glad you are here.

Amidst all the is going on in our lives right now, we are ready – ready to share theater, music, dance, conversations, laughter, community – because we believe that it is more important than ever to share stories that remind us of our humanity and connections to each other in these times. And we are so proud to support the work of brilliant, essential artists.

I moved across the country in the pandemic to be McCarter's new Artistic Director because I believe deeply in the legacy and potential of this truly special place. I believe in the magic of artists and audiences connecting.

As a director, I can't wait to be an artist in this hallowed place. And as an audience member, I am delighted by the expansive range of artists joining us. We kickstarted the season with an array of special music, dance, spoken word, and family performances, plus dynamic theater productions of What the Constitution Means to Me and Dreaming Zenzile, and we are looking forward to Ride the Cyclone coming up next.

You have made it possible for live arts to return to McCarter. We are moved by the support you've shown us. We also thank you for helping McCarter stay safe and social by showing proof of vaccination and wearing a mask at today's performance.

Thank you for being here, and see you back again soon.

Warmly,

Sarah Rasmussen

| About The Artist

The MARK MORRIS DANCE GROUP was formed in 1980 and gave its first performance that year in New York City. The company's touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities in the United States and around the world, and in 1986 it made its first national television program for the PBS series Dance in America. In 1988, MMDG was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium and spent three years in residence at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels. The Dance Group returned to the United States in 1991 as one of the world's leading dance companies. Based in Brooklyn, New York, MMDG maintains strong ties to presenters in several cities around the world, most notably to its West Coast home, Cal Performances in Berkeley, California, and its Midwest home, the Kranert Center for the Performing Arts at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. MMDG also appears regularly in New York, Boston, Seattle, and Fairfax. In New York, the company has performed at New York City Center's Fall for Dance Festival, regularly performs at Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts's Mostly Mozart and White Light Festivals, and collaborates yearly with BAM on performances and master classes. From the company's many London seasons, it has received two Laurence Olivier Awards and a Critics' Circle Dance Award for Best Foreign Dance Company. Reflecting Morris's commitment to live music, the Dance Group has featured live musicians in every performance since the formation of the MMDG Music Ensemble in 1996. MMDG regularly collaborates with renowned musicians, including cellist Yo-Yo Ma, pianist Emanuel Ax, mezzo-soprano

Stephanie Blythe, and jazz trio The Bad Plus, as well as leading orchestras and opera companies, including the Metropolitan Opera, English National Opera, and the London Symphony Orchestra. MMDG frequently works with distinguished artists and designers, including painters Robert Bordo and the late Howard Hodgkin, set designers Adrienne Lobel and Allen Moyer, costume designers Martin Pakledinaz and Isaac Mizrahi, and many others. MMDG's film and television projects include Dido and Aeneas, The Hard Nut, Falling Down Stairs, two documentaries for the U.K.'s South Bank Show, and PBS's Live from Lincoln Center. In 2015, Morris's signature work L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato had its national television premiere on PBS's Great Performances. While on tour the Dance Group partners with local cultural institutions and community organizations to present arts and humanities-based activities for people of all ages and abilities.

The MMDG MUSIC ENSEMBLE, formed in 1996, is integral to the Dance Group. "With the dancers come the musicians... and what a difference it makes" (Classical Voice of North Carolina). The Ensemble's repertory ranges from 17th and 18th century works by John Wilson and Henry Purcell to more recent scores by Ethan Iverson, Lou Harrison, and Henry Cowell. The musicians also participate in the Dance Group's educational and community programming at home and on tour. The Music Ensemble is led by Colin Fowler, who began to collaborate with MMDG in 2005 during the creation of Mozart Dances.

Sarah Rasmussen

(Artistic Director)

Sarah joined McCarter as Artistic Director in the summer of 2020. She is a director, producer and educator, with a penchant for inventive storytelling and a generous exchange between actor and audience. Rasmussen is the former Artistic Director of the Jungle Theater in Minneapolis, MN where she commissioned, directed, and produced new work. She was recently named Star Tribune's Artist of the Year and is an inaugural recipient of the BOLD Leadership Circle grant. Directing credits include Oregon Shakespeare Festival, the Guthrie, Dallas Theater Center, Actors Theater of Louisville, and the La Jolla Playhouse. Awards include MN Theater Award for The Wolves, Princess Grace, an Ivey Award for Overall Excellence, Drama League and Fulbright fellowships. New work development with Playwrights' Center, The O'Neill, The Lark, and many others. Alum of the Women's Project, SoHo Rep., and Lincoln Center Directing Labs. She was formerly the Resident Director for Oregon Shakespeare Festival's Black Swan Lab new work development program and Head of MFA Directing at the University of Texas at Austin.

Michael S. Rosenberg

(Managing Director) joined McCarter in 2018. Prior to returning to New Jersey, he was the Managing Director of La Jolla Playhouse in San Diego for nine years where he helped develop and produce projects like the musical COME FROM AWAY, the city-wide WithOut Walls Festival. During his tenure, the Playhouse was awarded multi-million dollar grants to commission multi-ethnic projects, increase audience diversity, expand opportunities for military families and build the capacity to sustain community engagement programs in off-site locations. Previously, Mike was Co-Founder and Executive Director of Drama Dept., a New York non-profit theater collective, where for fourteen years he produced new works by the likes of Douglas Carter Beane, Warren Leight, Isaac Mizrahi, Paul Rudnick, David & Amy Sedaris and the Tribeca Film Festival. He is on the International Advisory Board for the collaborative Arts Management program of HEC Montreal, Southern Methodist University, and SDA Bocconi School of Management and he is a Trustee of Cubing USA, the Twisty Puzzle Speed Solving Non-profit. Follow him on Twitter: @MrMikeRosenberg.

William W. Lockwood, Jr.

(Special Programming Director) Bill has been responsible for McCarter's special programs for almost half a century and is currently the senior arts presenter in the United States in terms of continuous service. As Special Programming Director, his association with McCarter goes back more than sixty years to the days when he produced his first events at the venue while a Princeton undergraduate. Since 1963, he has brought thousands of world-renowned and emerging artists in every genre to McCarter audiences—music (both classical and pop), dance, jazz, variety, family, cabaret, and even film. Mr. Lockwood is McCarter's unofficial historian and the author of McCarter Theatre: 1930-2005, a memoir published at the time of the building's 75th anniversary in 2005. From 1966 to 1993, he served as Programming Director for Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, a tenure during which he helped create the Great Performers Series and the Mostly Mozart Festival (which he named). In 1997, he helped inaugurate the New Jersey Performing Arts Center in Newark (NJ PAC) and served as its Principal Programming Associate for twenty-five years. He also served in the same capacity as the Chief Programming Officer for the first two seasons of the Kimmel Center in Philadelphia.

Mr. Lockwood served for 40 years as the Graduate Treasurer and Resident Faculty

McCarter Theatre Center

McCarter's mission is to create stories and experiences that enliven minds, expand imaginations, and engage communities. An independent not-for-profit performing arts center located between New York City and Philadelphia – and on the campus of Princeton University – McCarter is a multi-disciplinary creative and intellectual hub offering theater, music, dance, spoken word, and educational programs for all ages. Celebrated for developing new work, and winner of the 1994 Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre, world premieres include Christopher Durang's Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike (Tony Award, Best Play), Tarell Alvin McCarey's The Brother/Sister Plays, and Emily Mann's Having Our Say. Renowned artists who have appeared at McCarter include: Alvin Ailey, Yo-Yo Ma, Audra McDonald, David Sedaris, The Moth, Terence Blanchard, Roseanne Cash, the rock band Lake Street Dive, Shawn Colvin and many more. McCarter connects with the community year-round with a Shakespeare Reading Group, digital programming, a free outdoor concert series, and in-school residencies. McCarter and Princeton University share a long history of unique partnerships and creative collaborations. MORE: www.mccarter.org
