This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties and are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about the general economy, our industry and other beliefs and assumptions of our management. These include, but are not limited to: global business and economic conditions; operating results; new product introductions and sales; competitive conditions; manufacturing capacity, utilization and costs; capital expenditures and resources; customer demand and inventory management; intellectual property rights of third parties; successful integration of acquired businesses and technology; and other risk factors as further described in our filings with the SEC. As a result of these risks and uncertainties, actual results could differ from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements. Unless otherwise required by law, we undertake no obligation to publicly revise these statements for future events or new information after the date of this Form 10-K.
