

Six Volunteers Participate In Chapel Hill Heat Stress Test

Six "top-condition" marines of Hq. Bn., MCB, have just returned from the University of North Carolina, where they took part in heat stress tests for the Naval Medical Field Research Laboratory here.

Object of the two-week study was to determine to what degree armored vests, newly developed by the research lab, affect the performance of combat marines operating in hot, humid weather. To simulate a tropical climate, the tests were conducted indoors under carefully controlled conditions.

Lt. Cdr. J. J. Martorano, MSC, USN, head of the project, reported "preliminary analysis of the data indicates that the assault garment (armored vest) did not significantly decrease the performance of the marines at the temperatures and humidity used."

The fully equipped test subjects were individually tested in a specially constructed "heat chamber," in use for some years at UNC. In the chamber was a treadmill, which for this project was set at a slight incline and operated about 3.5 miles per hour. After preliminary conditioning, the men walked the treadmill 45 minutes each time they entered the chamber.

They were tested with and without full equipment for temperatures of 80, 85, 90 and 95 degrees, but humidity was left constant at 75 percent. Electronic equipment wired to the subject's body measured skin and body temperatures. In addition, chemical tests were made to indicate overall body stress. Pfc Thomas P. Crowley took each subject's pulse every five minutes, as well as checked chamber temperature and humidity.

The volunteers carried a load of 54 pounds, including their clothing, two full canteens, ammunition, rations, entrenching tool, extra clothing, rifle, helmet and the assault garment. The 15-pound garment, a combination of body armor and a load carrying system, was used in place of the standard "USMC armored vest" and 782 gear.

Out of the chamber, the subjects' lives were regimented but undemanding, according to lab officials. They were allowed to eat what they pleased, but were required to get at least 4,000 calories a day. During "off" hours they swam in the university pool or played basketball, but were required to be in the "sack" at 10 nightly.

The six subjects were selected from 40 original volunteers and (See HEAT STRESS TEST, Page 9).

Red Cross Fund Drive Starts Here

A month-long American National Red Cross fund raising drive will officially start at a drive chairmen's committee meeting in Bldg. 1 Monday.

During the meeting overall drive chairmen Col. H. W. G. Vadnais will coordinate plans for the coming campaign which will last until April 8.

Unit co-chairmen of the drive are: Maj. D. B. Cooley, MCB; Maj. Louis A. Rann, 2nd Division; Maj. Thomas B. Sparkman, Force Troops, and Maj. Clifford D. Corn, MAG-26.

Similar Red Cross drives are under way at most military establishments throughout the world and are heartily supported by civilian and military leaders of our defense establishment.

Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy, voicing his unqualified endorsement of the drive, said, "The work of the Red Cross, like that pertaining to national defense, is a responsibility of every American who has the interests of our country at heart."

Last year, according to Colonel Vadnais, the Camp Lejeune Red Cross chapter spent over $95,000 helping local servicemen solve personal and family problems, granting emergency loans and gifts, verifying leaves and working with other agencies or individuals on problems affecting local men.

Reserve Training Conference On

Inspector-instructors and Reserve unit commanding officers are meeting here today and tomorrow to formulate plans for the annual Reserve Air-Ground Exercise, major project during summer training of reserve units at Camp Lejeune.

The exercise is scheduled for July 20-31, with 11 units participating.

Another two-day conference of Reserve officials is slated for April 15-16, to coordinate programs for the 49 units training here but not participating in the air-ground maneuver.

2000 Headed For Vieques As Amphib Squadron Ten

Spearheaded by the amphibious assault ship USS Boxer, six ships of Amphibious Squadron-10 loaded aboard more than 2,000 men of the 10th Provisional Marine Brigade, including units of the Lejeune-based 2nd Marine Division, at Morehead City, yesterday.

Under the command of Col. J. R. Little from MCAS, Cherry Point, the marines will proceed to Vieques, and launch an amphibious assault near Camp Garcia in Phase "A" of BRIGALEX 2-59. The landing will emphasize the vertical assault with troop-carrying helicopters.

Troops of the 8th Provisional Marine Brigade, temporarily based at Camp Garcia and commanded by Col. G. W. Killen, USMC, will be embarked on ships of Amphib Sqd. 10 on March 11. Following an operation visit to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, March 15-17 for routine resupply, they will hit Onslow Beach March 21 in Phase "B" of BRIGALEX 1-59.

Troops of the 8th and 10th Provisional Marine Brigades will be landed during both assaults by HMR(L)-262, commanded by Lt. Col. Jim Dyer. The squadron is normally based at the New River MCAF.

BRIGALEX 2-59 is the second in a series of three amphibious assault landing exercises scheduled to terminate in mid-June by Amphib Sqd. 10. The participating ships will return to Norfolk at the conclusion of each exercise phase.

Sgt.'s Daughter OK After Rabies 'Scare'

Five-year-old Pamela Taylor, threatened with possible rabies infection last week, is now safe at home with her parents.

The girl was the object of a two-state search last week when it was learned that a dog which had bitten her on the lip at Parris Island had died. She and her parents, Act. SSgt. and Mrs. Willis Taylor, had already left the recruit depot under orders to Camp Lejeune at the time of the dog's death.

Island medical authorities notified the Base that the dog may have had rabies. Police, radio, TV and the press joined in the search.

The Taylors, unaware of their daughter's possible peril, brought the girl to the local Naval Hospital for treatment of a simple lip abrasion shortly after their arrival here. Rabies treatment was started immediately, but stopped when laboratory reports from the State Health Dept., Columbia, S. C., proved negative.

If you ask me...

IN THE SPRING YOUR FANCY TURNS TO THOUGHTS OF ... ?

ACT. SGT. THOMAS F. MULVIHILL, Hq. Bn. MCB — Spring always brings to me thoughts of the first holidays of the coming summer. Being able to look forward to beach parties or just a get-together with a few of your friends makes the rest of the week a lot more pleasant.

ACT. CPL. MICHAEL MAGILL, Hq. Bn. MCB — Being able to work on my car again and fix up a few things that I've not had the chance to do during the winter months. Spring also means the coming of the track season and being able to play a little baseball after having been cooped up in the barracks for the duration of the winter.

ACT. CPL. JOSEPH SMITH JR., Hq. Bn. MCB — The coming of spring turns my thoughts to the excitement of a tense baseball game, and the crowd cheering their favorite team to victory. It also means that the great baseball players who have retired for the winter will be back for another year to help their teams try for another successful season.

ACT. CPL. GEORGE ANTONIK, Hq. Bn. MCB — In the spring I try to devote the greatest amount of my time to the great outdoors and take advantage of the sunshine and fine weather. The coming of warm weather also allows the fisherman to return to his favorite fishing spot.

ACT. CPL. PHILIP M. COYNE, Hq. Bn. MCB — The foremost thing on my mind this spring will be the opening of baseball season. This year I will have a good friend playing for the St. Louis Cardinals, and hope to be able to take in a few of the games in which he plays.

PFC W. T. CURRY, Hq. Bn. MCB — Spring always reminds me of nature and what seems to be the rebirth of the trees and flowers. It also means that it won't be long before I will be able to take in a few of the summer recreational pleasures such as swimming.

Supply, Med Facilities To Be Inspected

Quad-Command supply and medical facilities will be inspected next week.

Maj. Gen. R. M. Gulick, quartermaster general of the Marine Corps, is scheduled to arrive here late tomorrow afternoon for a week-long visit to Base, 2nd Division and Force Troops commands.

The Base and MCAF dispensaries and the Naval hospital will be also inspected next week by Rear Adm. Herbert J. Van Peenen, Fifth Naval District medical officer. He is scheduled to arrive at the Air Facility Monday.

Tentatively, General Gulick is scheduled for a Base honors ceremony Monday at 8:30 a.m. to be followed by a Bldg. 1 briefing, and a Base tour.

Tuesday's schedule calls for visits to Division and Force Troops, a supply officers' cocktail party and dinner with supply duty colonels. A visit to 2nd FSR activities, and another Division visit will round out General and Mrs. Gulick's itinerary on Wednesday. They will depart for Cherry Point Thursday.

Admiral Van Peenen will inspect Air Facility medical operations immediately upon his arrival Monday. He will be met at MCAF by Capt. R. R. Callaway, MC, USN, Base medical officer.

Tuesday, he will inspect the Base Dispensary and will tour the Naval hospital on Wednesday. The admiral will leave the Lejeune area the next morning.

MCI Adds 10 New Courses For Infantry

The 39-year-old Marine Corps Institute which recently obtained its 700,000th marine enrollee, a local sergeant, has announced the addition of 10 new off-duty courses for marine infantrymen, plus four other miscellaneous MOS courses.

Off-duty courses now available through the Base Education Office for marines with the 03 MOS are: Infantry Battalion Organization and Communication, and Crew Served Weapons, (03.6); 30 Caliber Machine Guns, (03.1); Functions of the Infantry Staff NCO, (03.10); Tactical Employment of 30 Caliber Machine Guns, (03.2); Land Mine Warfare and Demolitions, (03.4); and The Infantry Noncommissioned Leader, (03.5).

Also included in the 03 MOS group are: 81mm Mortars, (03.9); Weapons of the Antitank Assaultman I, (03.12); Tactics of the Marine Rifle Platoon, (03.13); and Weapons of the Antitank Assaultman II, (03.14).

In the miscellaneous group such courses as Bakery Management, Bread, (33.11) are now offered. For the communications minded marine there is now available the Field Teletype Operator, (25.11), course. And for the marine optical instrument repairmen who want to advance their knowledge the Ordnance Maintenance of Straight Tube Telescopes and the Gunner's Quadrant, (21.26), course is now available.

Only one new aviation study course, Aircraft Structural Mechanic II, (64.16), is being offered.

Within the past two years the Institute has added over 200 new MOS courses to their growing curriculum.

Annual Scholarships Set For Irish Male Dependents

Two annual scholarships of $4,000 each are available to male dependents of regular Marine Corps officers, announced in MCBul 1755.

High school seniors, juniors and sophomores are considered for the award. Seniors will be given preference in first selections, since it is desired to award the scholarship for the 1959 fall semester.

One of these scholarships will be awarded to the Protestant descendant of a family which originated in the North of Ireland. The second educational award will be given to a Catholic descendant of a family which originated in the South of Ireland.

The scholarships are available through an estate. Certain criteria are listed for eligibility purposes and no exception or modifications may be made.

Included are: a personal letter with necessary supporting papers to substantiate interest in scholarship; evidence that applicant is worthy young man; evidence of need for the money to further his education; proof of Irish ancestry (birth certificates; marriage certificates; affidavits or older members of family, or court or church records).

Other information to be included is a statement that the applicant is graduating in the upper third of his class if a senior, or that he is in upper fourth of class if a junior or sophomore, and evidence of matriculation in particular accredited university or college if a senior in high school.

Payments will be made by the executor directly to the university or college on a quarterly basis with total yearly amount not to exceed $1,000. Recipients must remain in good standing with their schools at all times.

Applications will be addressed to: Mr. Bernard S. Barron, Barron, Rice and Rockmore, Counselors at Law, 10 East 40th Street, New York 16, N. Y.

HQMC has directed that commanding officers establish screening boards for applicants to insure that only qualified dependents apply.

The executor desires that each CO indicate preferences among applicants of his command for the scholarships. Applications should reach Mr. Barron no later than August 25.

United States Treasurer Here

Mrs. Baker Priest, Treasurer of the United States, arrived here on February 24 for an afternoon tour of the training camp. Priest and her husband were greeted by Maj. James P. Riseley, MCB commanding general.

After a briefing by Col. Ray Murray, Base chief of Camp Lejeune, Mrs. Priest was taken to the mess hall where she boarded a plane for a trip across New York to the Air Facility.

Mrs. Priest was greeted at the airport by Col. R. D. Strickler, commanding officer, 1st Infantry Regiment. Colonel Strickler escorted Mrs. Priest to the mess hall where she observed training activities including live firing exercises, rifle range, and close combat.

On her arrival at Camp Lejeune, Mrs. Priest visited the Cherry Point Station where she prepared for 90.8 per cent of the Cherry Point employees in the Savings program.

Mrs. Priest was appointed Treasurer of the United States by President Eisenhower in 1953.

Judge Advocate General To Address Bar Association

The Judge Advocate General of the Navy, Rear Adm. Chester Ward, will address members of the Camp Lejeune-Cherry Point Bar Association at their meeting in the Paradise Point Officers club Monday evening.

Admiral Ward spoke before the local barristers more than a year ago. His speech on "Operation Tapeout in Streamlining Military Justice" created quite a stir among association members, which led to less offenses and faster case processing, according to Lt. Col. A. W. Valentin.

As legal advisor to the Chief of Naval Operations, Admiral Ward is reportedly familiar with all military legislation. In addition, he is closely familiar with the proposals of the "Hump Bill" now pending in Congress. Following his talk Monday, the admiral will open the meeting to questions from the floor.

Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m., followed by a roast beef dinner at 7:30. Reservations can be made by calling 7-5803, Base; 7-3656, 2nd Division; 7-5892, Force Troops.

Formed in September, 1957, the bar association is the only military group of its kind in the United States. Besides Admiral Ward, many renowned guest speakers have appeared at the organization's monthly meetings. Among them were: Judge Robert E. Quinn, head of the U. S. Court of Military Appeals, two other USCMA judges, and Malcolm B. Seawell, attorney general of the State of North Carolina.

Objective of the association is the advancement of military lawyers through informal discussions and studies on military law and discipline. By keeping military lawyers abreast of current legal developments, the organization aims to advance its members professionally.

To further accomplish its goal, the association aims to coordinate with other bar associations, including civilian groups; formulate methods of improving military legal services and form liaison with those chiefly concerned with legal and disciplinary matters.

Membership in the group is limited to the Camp Lejeune complex area, including Cherry Point. Armed Forces officers certified in accordance with UCMJ provisions, on active or inactive duty, are eligible to join.

Although not part of the American Bar Association, the local organization adheres to the Canons of Professional and Judicial Ethics of the American Bar Association.

Supply School Officer Holds Unique Purple Heart Award

On August 7, 1782, General George Washington issued the following order:

"The general, ever desirous to cherish a virtuous ambition in his soldiers, as well as to foster and encourage every species of military merit, directs that, whenever any singularly meritorious action is performed, the author of it shall be permitted to wear on his facing, over his left breast, the figure of a heart in purple cloth or silk, edged with narrow lace or binding."

One hundred six years later, Cpl. Jack F. Bailey became the only marine in World War II to receive the Purple Heart for other than combat wounds.

The former enlisted marine is now a captain and the assistant officer in charge of the Officers' Instructional Section, Supply School Co., MCSS.

Captain Bailey actually received the award from the Army in 1954, following years of clearing musty war records.

The captain escaped Bataan with the Fourth Marines who helped take over the defenses on Corregidor. He was awarded the Purple Heart for his action during an intense enemy air raid and artillery barrage which scored direct hits on an ammunition depot. Amidst flames and small arms explosions, Captain Bailey separated boxes of ammo and threw dirt on the fires, saving the "dump."

A month later he received the Bronze Star for the heroic rescue of three comrades, wounded and trapped in a cave-bomb shelter.

In May, 1942, Captain Bailey won his second Purple Heart award for wounds received while defending Corregidor. Captured in this Japanese offensive, Captain Bailey remained in prison camps for the rest of the war.

It is not known whether any other marine in history received the Purple Heart for meritorious service. After the Revolution the award was no longer given. On Washington's 200th birthday in 1932, President Herbert C. Hoover ordered it back into effect.

It was used by the Army prior to the early part of WWII and the adoption of the Legion of Merit and Bronze Star Medal.

William Chapman Named Ass't Camp Commissary Officer

Mr. William R. Chapman, former Sales Supervisor of the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard Commissary Store, recently became Camp Lejeune's Assistant Commissary Officer.

The 52-year-old Civil Service employee who is responsible for the administrative, purchasing and selling problems of this Base's commissary has been affiliated with the grocery business almost constantly since graduating from Peabody High school, Pittsburgh, in the early 20's.

Immediately after graduating he accepted his first grocery job as a sales clerk with the large Pittsburgh Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. During his 10 years with A&P he advanced to the position of manager.

Upon leaving A&P he opened his own grocery store which he operated until World War II when he entered the Navy as a hospital corpsman. He served with the Navy until 1946, spending the major portion of that time at the Naval hospital in Portsmouth. Since that time he has held positions in Norfolk's Colonial stores and later the shipyard commissary.

Recon's Alfa Co. Field Meet Winner

Alfa Co. was overall winner in the 2nd Recon. Bn. field meet held recently. Carrying full field marching packs, cartridge belts and rifles, company "trackmen" ran off with cross-country honors.

The company also topped the field in the tug-of-war, the mile relay, push-ups and sit-ups and the "king of the circle" event, which involved tossing opponents outside a chalk ring. Individually, Pfc Art Gilmore took sit-up honors with 1,125.

Capt. Bayard Pickett's Charlie Co. outpaddled the competition by a thousand yards in the nine-man rubber boat race, from Sneads Ferry Bridge to the Recon. boat docks. H&S Co., led by Lt. Col. E. Kirby-Smith, battalion commanding officer, won the volley ball championship, which they also hold throughout the Division.

A battalion party at Stone Bay messhall concluded the events.

Divvy Private Decorated

DECORATED FOR HEROISM—A 2nd Division marine, who rescued three men from asphyxiation in Lebanon last summer, has been awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Medal, highest naval decoration for heroism not involving combat. Pvt. Paul R. Brown, 2nd Landing Support Co., received the medal Friday morning at a company formation from Col. Kenneth E. Martin, commanding officer of the 2nd Service Bn. While serving with the 3rd Bn., Sixth Marines, near Beirut, Brown was instrumental in removing three Lebanese from a monoxide-filled well. Hearing the anguished cries of village women, he rushed to the scene, descended into the well and turned off a small motor which was filling the well with the deadly fumes. With the help from other marines, he then brought the men to the surface where they received artificial respiration. All were treated by a local doctor and quickly recovered.

Commend Courtesy

A captain stopped on a crowded company street yesterday to talk to a young man who had rendered a hand salute.

Standing at rigid attention, the corporal answered the officer's questions. After perhaps a minute, he saluted, turned and went his way.

This morning we found out what the conversation was about. The captain had stopped the corporal to compliment him on the excellent manner of saluting. We learned also that the captain had taken time from a busy schedule to drop a memorandum to the lad's commanding officer.

This is something we haven't seen in a long time, something well worth copying. And, the salute need not necessarily have been rendered to you. Senior non-commissioned officers might well adopt the habit of letting a man know when he has been observed to display exceptional military courtesy.

This, of course, also applies when military courtesy becomes lax, perhaps to a greater degree.

On the Base today there is a young man who has just been congratulated by his commanding officer. A commanding officer who is proud that he has a young non-com in his company. And a captain who figures five minutes of his time yesterday were very well spent.

Chances are the corporal, the captain and the company commander are telling others about yesterday's little incident. Maybe you've already heard.

At any rate, let's pass the word about the corporal, the captain and the company commander.

WASHINGTON REPORT

A proposed new law which would extend GI Bill educational, vocational rehabilitation, home loans and mustering out pay privileges to peacetime ex-servicemen has been introduced by Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Navy Times reports.

At the same time, Yarborough, chairman of the Veterans Affairs subcommittee of the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee, announced that his unit will hold hearings late this month on his post-Korea GI Bill "package."

He said he plans to call not only peacetime veterans but educators, housing, labor, government and military officials to testify.

The plan would extend these rights through July 1, 1963, coinciding with the new draft termination date voted by the House.

The measure provides for an education allowance of $110 monthly for single ex-servicemen, $135 for those with one dependent, and $165 for those with two or more dependents. A maximum of 36 months' college training would be available under the bill.

The measure also provides for mustering out pay of $100 for each veteran with 60 or more days' active service. However, this provision would not be retroactive.

Educational, loan guaranty and rehabilitation provisions will be retroactive in the proposed legislation.

DECENCY OR GOODNESS?

How much more deeply real goodness goes than mere decency is something that only the good man, not the merely decent man, can know. Liberal Christians in our times occasionally try to make the Church's faith over into something which resembles a blend of Rotarian chumminess, and military self-discipline. They seem to say, "Be friendly, watchful and self-controlled; that is the sum of religion."

On the other hand, Jesus avoided laying down specific rules for conduct. He gave only one commandment, and that more in the nature of a goal set before us, than a directive. He said: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart . . . and thy might as thyself."

The ordinary citizen, without religion, can attain the community respectability. He can drink moderately, or not at all. He can keep only to his wife, or if not married, maintain wholesome relationships with women. He can pay his bills, do his work well, donate occasionally to good causes, and in general, by his own efforts, attain to fundamental human decency.

The good man, on the other hand, lives by no rules; he isn't a victim of the cult of respectability. He follows the sayings of St. Augustine: "Love God and do as you please." When our motives are based on the holiness of God and the ultimate welfare of others, then our lives are not only decent, but good. This is the teaching of the Church, as different from social morality.

ENGINEER PARTY

The Engineer officers in the Camp Lejeune area will hold their annual party in honor of St. Patrick, patron saint of engineers, on March 14, at 6 p.m. in the River and Paradise rooms at the Paradise Point club.

All officers serving in engineer units, and engineer billets, with an MOS 13, 14, or 15 functional field, 3025, and the Civil Engineer Corps, are eligible and invited, and are requested to call Maj. D. L. Hall, 2nd Pioneer Bn., 7-5107 or 6-6632 for further information.

Short Rounds

A bill to continue the six-month Reserve program for an additional four years went to the House for a two-hour hearing before the Armed Services Subcommittee on Reserve Forces.

A nuclear blast and a 75-helicopter troop ament provided the one-two punch that knocked out enemy aggressor forces and ended the five-day maneuvers of PHIBLEX 12-59 at Camp Pendleton. Over 12,000 Navy and Marine Corps personnel participated.

The Amphibious Forces of the Atlantic and Pacific Fleets marked their 17th anniversary on February 20.

A $1,178,246 contract has been awarded the Martin Co. by the Army for research and development on the Pershing missile weapon system. Pershing is a solid propellant ballistic missile for the field Army.

A major step toward this nation's first precision marine hunter-killer plane was taken recently when Navy awarded an $8 million contract for modification of Lockheed's commercial Electra aircraft. The plane will be used to detect, track and "kill" enemy marines.

The 11th annual reunion of Edson's Raiders was at Quantico recently was climaxed by the election of R. W. Skinner, Cdr., USNR, as president. The doctor of the Navy Crossing during action with the raiders was a serviceman other than a marine to be elected president.

Second Lt. Kang Suk Rhee, foster son of the late Rhee, president of the Republic of Korea, is attending the Army's Ft. Benning, Ga., Infantry Officers Leadership School.

The United States No. 1 sled with two marines set a course record of 1:17.42 recently at St. Moritz, Switzerland while winning the world four-man bobsled championships. Marine Lt. Tom Butler, of Camp Pendleton, manned the brakes while another marine, Gary S. from Lake Placid, N. Y., functioned at the No. 2 seat.

Scouting Activities Explained At Camp Jr.-Sr. PTA Meeting

The Camp Lejeune Junior-Senior Parent-Teachers Association held their regular monthly meeting night in the Camp High school auditorium.

Following the regular business meeting, the Girl and Boy Scout troops sponsored by Camp Lejeune presented a program portraying the various activities in which they participate during their Scout training, directed by Col. R. D. Strickler, institutional representative for local Scouting activities.

Girl Scout Troop 152 opened with demonstrations of the various formal and informal procedures undertaken at each meeting, including first aid methods, the use of a triangle bandage, and how to build safe camp fires.

Immediately after the Girl Scout skit, Boy Scouts from Troop 390 entertained PTA members with several Indian dances and customs. Scoutmaster Harry Phugh explained the different meanings of the dances. Each of the Scouts were dressed in brightly colored Indian attire, including war paint.

A short talk on "What Scouting Means to Me" was given by Troop 390's quartermaster, Timmy Finchem, in which he described the advantages of being a Boy Scout.

Col. J. A. Butcher, commanding officer, MCSS, concluded the program with a short summary of the activities of Explorer Scouts at Camp Lejeune.

OWC Presents Fashion Show At Paradise Point

The Officers Wives club will present their annual Spring Fashion Show with the theme "Spring Daydreams" Saturday evening at the Paradise Point Officers club.

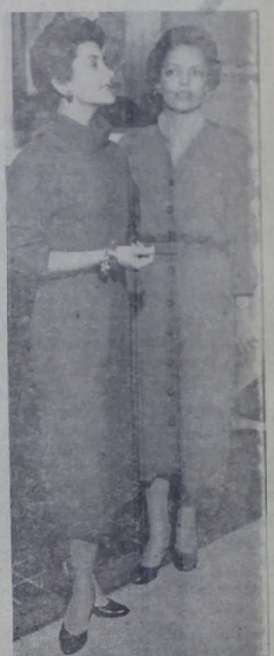

Beginning at 9 p.m., the Fashion Show will feature more than 45 ladies' spring fashions which are to be modeled by some 20 members of the Officers Wives club.

The different creations to be modeled include the latest in spring dresses, formal gowns, cocktail dresses in the various styles, and many others.

Committee heads for the show are Mrs. Beth Massey, in charge of models; Mrs. Martie Powell, chairman of the show committees; Mrs. Joyce Junghans, decorations; Mrs. Sally Gingher, reservations; Mrs. Anne Beaty, publicity director; Mrs. Lois Stedman, program chairman; and Mrs. Ann Tillman was chosen as hostess for the event.

Prior to the fashion show, there will be a social hour beginning at 7 p.m., and a buffet style dinner will be served from 8 to 9 p.m.

To conclude the evening, there will be informal dancing in the River room, and the music is to be provided by records.

ELECTIONS

The club has announced the nominees for the 1959-60 Executive Board by the nine individual group chairmen at a meeting held last week. Votes for the nominees will be cast during the month of March.

A bulletin board with pictures of the prospective officers will be displayed in the Paradise Point club throughout this month. Results of the election will be made public following the March 25th Executive Board meeting of the OWC.

For those unable to attend their March group luncheons, absentee ballots may be obtained by contacting the respective group chairmen. Mrs. R. H. Crockett, president of the OWC, requests the absentee ballots be mailed or taken to Mrs. H. J. T. Ellzey, MOQ 2213.

Annual Cub Banquet Highlighted By Pack Charter Ceremony

Members and their parents of Lejeune's Cub Scout Pack 90 were feted last Friday evening during the pack's annual Blue and Gold Banquet held at the Paradise Point Officers club.

The evening's program was highlighted by the presentation of the pack's chapter to Col. R. R. Van Stockman, committee chairman for Pack 90, by Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley, commanding general, MCB, who was guest speaker for the occasion.

Maj. E. C. Morris, newly appointed Cubmaster for Pack 90 and successor to former Cubmaster Maj. Thomas J. Holt, was master of ceremonies.

As guest speaker, General Riseley congratulated the Cubs on their many accomplishments during the past year along with the vast increase in the pack's membership. General Riseley also extended special praise to the Den Mothers for their guidance and faithful service in Lejeune's Scouting program.

A citation was awarded to Den 10, the pack's honor den for the year, as a result of their excellent display of personal appearance, uniform neatness, and insignias during a pack inspection.

Sojourners Hear FBI Special Agent Talk

Camp Lejeune's National Sojourners, Chapter 329, had Mr. Roy K. Moore, special agent-in-charge of the FBI's Field Office in Charlotte, as their guest speaker during a meeting held at Paradise Point Officers club last Thursday night.

Agent Moore's topic of discussion for the evening dealt with the many hours of investigation required to solve the mass murder by Jack Graham's sabotaging of a United Airlines plane in which 44 persons died.

Agent Moore directed the FBI investigation that led to the conviction and execution of Graham. Ten new members were welcomed to the chapter by Col. K. E. Martin, president.

Dinner Music, La Tab Marine Corps Base

DINNER MUSIC—Act. MSgt. William L. Penney, mess sergeant at 1209, operates the turn table which provides background music for meals at the modernized messhall.

When chow call sounds; when the cow bell klunks; when the dinner bell tinkles; when the triangle clangs or when the firehouse whistles blows its shrill proclamation—whatever the signal used, millions of hungry Americans know it's time to eat.

For the approximately 20,000 marines fed daily in the 25 Quad-Command messhalls, however, a simple glance at the wall clock is all it takes for a man to grab his cover, bound from his office and head for "chow."

Those lucky enough to wind-up at messhall 1209 in the Industrial Area sit down to the same good-tastin' chow that's served at all local messhalls, but with that "little something extra" added. The atmosphere is comparable to the average restaurant—complete with soft music, patterned window drapes and linen covered dining tables.

The staff mess area is decorated by ranged bouquets of flowers that adorn their dining table. A traditional feature of the mess areas are "beige" lounges. Soft chairs, rugs and racks of magazines provide a quiet after-meal situation for the hard-worked staff. Here, coffee and doughnuts are available at anytime between 6 a. m. and 7 p. m.

The messhall's galley deck which is rare among messhalls. The tile, which is used for the serving lines is easier to clean than concrete floors. The most area messhalls have galley decks.

Act. MSgt. William L. Penney, mess sergeant, is preparing the stainless steel hoods over the cooking "coppers." He says the steel hoods are easier to clean and the messmen more tired.

SWABBING THE DECK—Act. Cpl. Donald H. Fletcher and Pfc Jack D. Snider, cooks, said they found swabbing much easier on the messhall's new tile deck.

"LOOKS GOOD"—Pfc Jack D. Snider, cook, removes meat from tray of messhall's new ovens. Admiring the main lunch courses is Act. MSgt. Penney.

WASHING TRAYS—Pvt. Ronald Stone, messman from Service Bn., pulls clean trays from the scullery dishwasher to the large draining area, another time-saving feature at the messhall.

Lab Messhall 1209 Best Modern Eatery

preparation. Local messhalls have to be equipped with modern kitchens with hungry diners when "choice" is on the menu. Not so with Lab 1209. Grills for bacon, eggs, chops and other fried delicacies are located right behind the serving lines. Troops merely wait for their food to be served.

In the messhall are 22 tables for diners: "22 tables," the "food dollar" is the "food dollar" for troops, and "Food is money, don't eat it; don't want to TAKE IT!" Sgt. Penney says. The messhall is friendly and all the good food and service at the Industrial Area cost money. He added that it is a big morale factor, as important to be in food services. The modern features are made last Spring when 1209 underwent renovation. The huge building was gutted by a three-alarm fire in July, 1956.

The hall's operation, including cooks and messmen, is controlled by Service Bn., MCB. At noon hour, however, most marines working in the large Industrial area eat here.

Bldg. 1209 has become as much of a social gathering place as local cafeterias and coffee shops. After morning clean-up in the barracks; during noon chow hours and after supper, and at anytime NCOs have a "break," this is where they go for coffee. Following meals, "guests" lounge in the plush chairs to read, smoke, talk or just lean back and listen to the music.

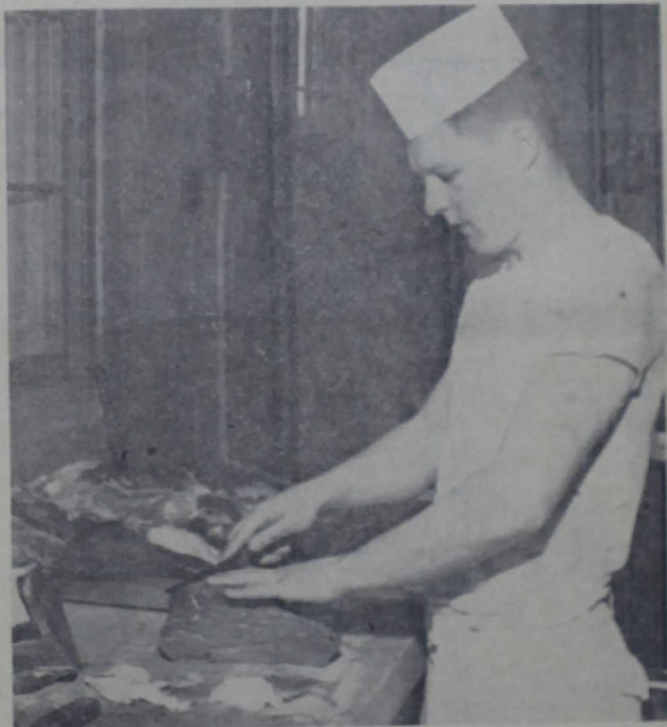

No one, including the messhall staff and diners, is claiming that 1209 is "just like home" or that the food is "just like Mom's," but as one man put it: "The place is close to it."

FRIENDLY REMINDER—Messman, Pfc Patrick J. Calligore of Serv. Bn., reminds Act. Cpl. George G. Takacs, Hq. Bn., 2nd Division, that he is to take only what he can eat.

IN THE "LINE"—No more crowded galleys in the morning as Cpl. Roger A. Guzzo demonstrates one of the new grills located at the serving lines.

BUTCHER SHOP—Act. Cpl. William R. Tillman cuts up steaks in the butcher shop at the messhall.

Hughes and Act. GySgt. R. P. Thurber, all members of the new messhall installation.

Deacon Coach To Address Cage Banquet

A banquet in honor of the Camp Lejeune Marine basketball team will be held Tuesday at 6 p.m. at Marston Pavilion. The affair will officially close out the local cage season, one in which the Marines posted a 35-18 mark.

Horace "Bones" McKinney, who divides his time as a preacher and head mentor of the Wake Forest five, will be the guest-speaker.

McKinney, a former professional basketball player who starred with the now-extinct Washington Capitols and later with the Boston Celtics, current powerhouse in the NBA, is one of the most colorful speakers in sports today.

The presentation of team jackets and trophies will be another highlight of the evening's festivities.

The final statistics for the season, released by Pic Richard J. Boland, team statistician revealed that Rick Benson, 6'7" center and former Florida State U. star, led the individual scoring with 943 points in 50 games for an 18.9 average.

Second place honors were not decided until the final two weeks of the season. Don Greiner took the runner-up position with 647 points in 46 games for a 14.1 average, while Ed Peterson, 1957-58 Lejeune team captain, was a close third with 609 points in 47 tilts for an even 13 points per game.

With eight contests remaining on the schedule, both men were extremely close, as Peterson totaled 514 to Greiner's 513. However, Greiner finished the season with several scoring sprees, including a 34-point output against MCSC, Albany, to move ahead. In these eight games, Greiner tallied 134 points for a 16.8 average, compared to Peterson's 95 points for an 11.8 average.

Both men were coach Earl Rottso's regular backcourt aces during the season.

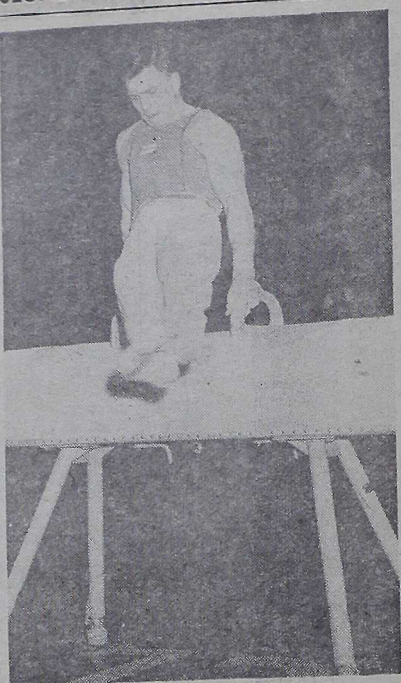

In the foul shooting department, Benson and Greiner were one-two again. Benson led with 74.5 per cent, while Greiner was a close second with 74.1 per cent.

With Camp Lejeune's season officially ended, action still remains in the All-Marine Basketball Tournament which got under way at Quantico Monday. Entered are the hosting Virginians, Hawaii and San Diego.

Quantico concluded play with a 38-3 record, the best ever recorded at the base. Two of Quantico's victories were over NIT-bound college quintets, Providence and Niagara. Hawaii, defending champs, closed out the year with a regular season mark of 33-2 and San Diego had a 32-6 ledger.

Finnish Gymnasts Exhibit Flawless Form In Spectacular At Local Gym

Finland's National Gymnastic team, making their 28th stop on a 33 exhibition itinerary along the East Coast of the United States, put on a demonstration Thursday night at the Goettge Memorial field house before 1,500 persons.

In a flawless performance of gymnastics, the men's and women's teams opened the ceremonies with a march around the gym. Men's exercises included demonstrations on the pommel horse, parallel bars, horizontal bar and individual free standing exercises.

The women's program included exercises on the balance beam, uneven parallel bars, and individual free standing exercises. Rhythmic routines were conducted with music supplied by Elsa Aro, famed Finnish concert pianist. Solo singing by Yrjo Ikonen, basso of the Finnish National Opera, highlighted the evening's music portion of the show.

Mr. Ikonen, who holds the Pro Finlandia, the highest decoration for artists in Finland, presented his country's flag to Maj. Gen. James P. Riseley, commanding general, MCB, upon conclusion of the hour and a half program.

The visiting athletes remained at Lejeune overnight, leaving for Washington, D. C., Friday morning. That night they were feted to a reception in the Finnish Embassy.

Al Greer, former Paradise Point NCOIC, recently won the first 72-hole Burke Open medal golf tournament with a three under par 285.

Judo Players Repeat Over Parris Island 9-3 Win; Meet Pointers

Parris Island felt the brunt of Camp Lejeune's judo players for the second time this year when the visiting Marines slapped a 9-3 defeat on the Islanders last week.

Lejeune's only losses were dealt to "Little Joe" Fournier, Larry Davis and Stan Harris.

Winning for the locals were Harry Reese over F. W. Schwarz; Don Nagle defeated R. J. Kirkman; Ray Robichaud stopped 200-pound Jack Johnson; Bob Green over Jim Pond; Jerry Butler lost to Charlie Spellman; Bob Burke decisioned Bob Isley; Buddy McKain beat John Ayala for the second time this year; Gene Rodriguez dumped Dick Gordon and Mel Meyers defeated Karl Freudenberg.

Meyers went on to stop every player on the Parris Island squad. Coach Ernie Cates duplicated the feat and then challenged his entire team in a blindfold test.

Nagle, holder of the Fourth Degree Black Belt in Karate, demonstrated techniques and ended the exhibition by breaking a two-inch thick concrete slab with the knuckles of his left hand.

Coach Cates accepted a challenge exhibition match against Irvin Stark, referee from Hunter Air Force Base. Stark, a 230-pound giant, is former Grand Champion and heavyweight fittest of the Eighth Air Force. Cates, who had already performed in 22 matches during the course of the evening, lost by a choke-out technique after taking his opponent to the canvas on two occasions.

The local squad will go against Cherry Point tonight in an away encounter and then returns home to engage the same club on March 13 at the Goettge gym.

On March 21, the All-Marine will begin at Parris Island with 100 experts expected to participate.

Grapplers Season Wins 13-10 Victory

Camp Lejeune's team closed out regular season activity by taking Cherry Point squad 13-10 in a 13-10 win Tuesday night. Next agenda is the All-Marine which will be hosted here March 21. The local team won with a 5-3 mark.

George McCreary, 165 lbs, at 125 pounds, pulled out a win in the first match versus Dick Stetson. McCreary placed third in the All-Marine year. Just last week, he took a first in the NAAU at Boston. McCreary took two points in the final in winning the verdict.

Lejeune's Harvey Peterson was pinned by Rob Peterson of the initial period. Peterson, employing a chrisson and half-nelson, pinned and guarded Bob McDermott in the opening action. The pound Peterson was pinned the time, 3-1.

Carroll Campbell (140 lbs) string of Lejeune pins as he stopped Gary Peterson 2:22 with an arm bar and nelson combination.

Ron Mohlin (167 lbs) pinned Ernie Brewington in the initial stanza, while Peterson (177) and the Point's Sam battled to a draw.

Dick Brittain (191 lbs) forfeit. In an exhibition match, McCreary was pinned in the first round by Jim McKee.

Coach Phil Hayes has invited wrestling cadets to try out for the team at the Goettge Memorial field house. The Lejeune mentor to build up the weight class or to the All-Marine.

ROD AND GUN CLUB
Camp Lejeune's Rifle and Gun Club will have as guest Col. C. O. Tozman, special agent to the Secretary of Defense at its next regular meeting, Thursday, March 14, at Marston Pavilion. All interested parties have been invited to attend, whether members or not. The program will begin at 7 p.m.

Force Troops To Host FMFLant Bowling Play

Force Troops will host the 1959 FMFLant Bowling Tournament beginning Tuesday in the Area 1 service club. Action will get under way at 9 a.m. Monday, there will be a team drawing.

Teams entered are 2nd Marine Air Wing, Cherry Point; 2nd Marine Division; H&S Bn., FMFLant, Norfolk, Va.; MAG-32, Beaufort, S. C., and Force Troops.

A team will be formed from the six highest bowlers in this tourney and will participate in the Atlantic Fleet on March 23 at Norfolk.

WIN NUMBER TWO—Parris Island's Bob Isley is thrown by Lejeune's Robert Burke during matches last week at the Depot. The local judo players picked up win number two over the Islanders, 9-3.

Locals Conclude Basketball Season Posting 35-18 Mark

By PFC RICHARD J. BOLAND
Sports Publicist

In their final week of play, the Camp Lejeune Marine quintet won two games at home and dropped an equal number on the road as the 1958-59 season concluded with the Marines posting an overall 35-18 record.

All four games hit the century mark as Lejeune walloped the Marine Corps Supply Center, Albany, Ga., by 102-61 and 107-77 scores last Tuesday and Wednesday nights at Goettge Memorial field house.

The tables were turned when the locals faced the Ft. Gordon Signalares in Augusta, Ga. The Army five stopped the Marines in a two-game series Thursday and Friday nights, 120-91 and 110-85, respectively.

Don Greiner, 6'2" guard, tallied 50 points in the two home tilts, to pace the Lejeune scoring. It was his 34 points, on 11 field goals and 12 free throws, which made the difference in the second encounter.

In the first game, John Ritch paced the local attack with 18 markers. Greiner followed with 16, while Angelo Cuttaia and Ed Peterson had 14 each and Hugh McIntyre 11.

Peterson followed Greiner's splurge in the second game with 17 points, while McIntyre and Ritch chipped in 14 and 12, respectively.

Greiner continued his sizzling pace in the initial Ft. Gordon contest, taking high scoring honors with 21 points, in a game which saw the Marines down at halftime, 53-35. Cuttaia scored 18 while Peterson and Rick Benson tossed in 16 and 15, respectively.

The Marines came back in the second game and held a 28-27 lead with 8:35 remaining in the half. They lost the lead but stayed within distance, 47-41, with four minutes to go. At this point the Signalares, behind Tom Nixon, former St. Francis college (Pa.) star, opened up to a 59-44 intermission lead.

A trio of Signalare players, Nixon, Ernie Wiggins, and Bob Keller, proved too much for the locals as Ft. Gordon moved to an 86-65 lead half way through the second half. The trio accounted for 91 points between them, with Nixon pacing the attack with 37 markers. Keller dropped in 29 and Wiggins 25.

Ritch paced the local attack with 19 points, while Cuttaia and Benson had 16 and 15, respectively. Greiner and Bill Reeves followed with 11 apiece.

CONCLUDING PLAY—Camp Lejeune's Angie Cuttaia, left, and Charley Buechlein battle Marine Corps Supply Center's Al Gladstone for a rebound during the final home game of the season last Wednesday night. John Ritch, right, is looking at the action. The locals downed the Marines from Albany, Ga., 107-77.

PERFORMANCES—Camp Lejeune's Gerry Smith shows managers Hal Glasgow, right, and Curt Salyer how he solved his strength last year. Smith, in his second season here, was a winningest hurler since New York Yankees' Bob Grim found in the early '50's for the local nine. Posting a record, Smith's victories included two no-hitters. The Lejeune team is depending on the big righthander as the anchor man of that appears to have the balance and talent for producing onship club.

Marine Nine Features Advanced Hurling Staff

Hal Glasgow's Camp Lejeune baseball squad sojourned in Albany, Ga., for a week's workout prior to meeting college in the season's opener Tuesday afternoon, with the club were 11-pitchers are young and inexperienced but have shown a great deal of potential, adding depth to the club.

Beimel picked up his experience at Clarion State Teachers college where he doubled as a third baseman, hitting .310. Mugford, no stranger to these parts, was an outstanding athlete at Camp Lejeune High school.

Sellers, a high school product of Robert E. Lee in Montgomery, Ala., will be making his service debut. Emigholz played for Boys High in Brooklyn, N. Y., prior to his enlistment.

Members Max Eller and Bob were expected to take up the left of the departing "Big Four." Eller or hurler at Wake Forest and two years of professional with the Raleigh Capimer was a heavy duty pitcher for the 1958 Quantico possible starters are re-rover Mason and Jim Ader-latter has three years of "pro ball behind him. Callum can fill in either as pitcher or reliever. Last season led an 11-0 mark with San 1 the previous season had cord with the same squad.

Baseball Team Opens Against Rollins Tuesday; First Home Game, March 19

Camp Lejeune's gypsy baseball team will open in an away game Tuesday against Rollins college, inaugurating the first of 100 games for the local nine. The 1959 schedule calls for 51 home contests and 49 away, excluding tournament action that may include the N. C. State Semi-Pro Tournament, Atlantic Fleet Tournament and All-Marine.

Of the 100 tilts, 64 will be night games. Lejeune fans will not see their club in action until March 19 when Virginia Polytechnic Institute invades Harry Agganis field for a three-game series.

Four round-robin tournaments are slated for the local park with such top teams as Indiana university, Springfield college, i-thaca college and Cornell university moving into Agganis park.

Up until April 22, all games at home will be played in the afternoon. After that date, tilts will be moved up to 8 p.m.

Appearing on the schedule are the finest service nines on the East Coast including Ft. McPherson, Bolling AFB, Ft. Lee, Ft. Meade and the perennial powers, Parris Island and Quantico.

Copes, Beach Lead Bowlers In Tourney

Bill Copes of 2nd Division's No. 2 team, paced all bowlers after first day action in the Quad-Command Bowling Tournament with a total of 1,185 pins in six games and a 197.6 average. Frank Beach of team No. 1, Division, had a 186.1 average for runner-up honors.

First day leader was MCAF's No. 1 keg group with a total pin fall of 5,124. However, Copes' team was only one pin behind the pace setters. Division's No. 2 team had 4,840 as it ran third in the standings.

The tourney, being held at the Service club Area 1 alleys, will conclude tomorrow afternoon.

Quad-Command Cagers Inaugurate Action Mon.

The Quad-Command Basketball Tournament will begin Monday night at the Goettge Memorial field house with six of the best intramural teams entered from the four commands.

Representing the 2nd Marine Division are the Second Marines, who won their third straight championship two weeks ago, and the runner-up Tenth Marines, defending Quad-Command titlists. From Force Troops will be 2nd Field Artillery Group, winner of the FT loop, and MAG-26.

MCB's 2nd FSR, with a 10-1 record, is assured of a berth. However, a down-to-the-wire battle has been staged between USNH and 1st ITR for the second slot representing the Base.

The Hospital quintet, posting a 9-2 ledger, faces ITR (7-3) Friday night at the Goettge gym beginning 8:15 p.m. The Infantrymen upset a previously unbeaten FSR five last week, 62-56, and in the event they stop USNH, it will necessitate a play-off Saturday night at 6 p.m.

Game time for the Quad-Command event is 7 and 8:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and on Friday at 4 and 8 p.m.

Team rosters including full name, rank, and jersey number must be submitted to the Base Athletic Office by 4 p.m. tomorrow. Rules governing the double elimination tourney will be those adopted by the NCAA.

Ducky Miller Entered In PI Pro-Am Event

Paradise Point's Ducky Miller will compete in the Fifth Annual Pro-Am Golf Tournament hosted by Parris Island starting today. Thirty-one pros are entered in the popular classic representing Marine Corps installations along the Eastern seaboard.

Among the well-known linksters in addition to Mr. Miller is Hillman Robbins, former National Amateur champ and winner of the FI hosted Inter-Service championships in 1957.

Atlantic Fleet Tournament Three Bouts Open Tourney Action Tues.

UNPRECEDENTED—Welterweight Dick Gilford, Youngstown, Ohio, works out in preparation for the Atlantic Fleet Boxing Tournament scheduled for the Goettge gym Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Gilford was out to win the title two years in a row, a feat never before accomplished in the welter division in the tourney. In six outings this year, Gilford has dropped only one decision.

A miniture atom bomb exploded in the Goettge Memorial field house Tuesday night as two first round technical knockouts and a unanimous decision inaugurated action in the Atlantic Fleet Boxing Tournament. The championship bouts were scheduled for Wednesday night in 10 weight divisions. Results were not available at GLOBE presstime.

Two of Lejeune's finest, welterweight and defending champ Dick Gilford and 178-pound and unbeaten Jerry Eley, saw action Tuesday night before an estimated 750 boxing fans. Fighting in the first match of the evening, Gilford took complete charge from the opening bell over MineLant's Joey Branch of Richmond, Va. The Youngstown battler decked his opponent for the mandatory eight-count at 1:15 with a sweeping left. A straight right by Gilford floored Branch again at 2:05.

The local Marine methodically chopped his man at will until the MineLant coach threw in the towel at 2:45, with Branch bleeding from the mouth.

Eley, fighting in the last bout on the card, was his usual self, as he took a unanimous decision from DesLant's Jim Roseette. This marked Eley's 11th straight victory.

In Roseette, Eley faced a good unbeaten southpaw who held the USA DesLant light middleweight title in 1954 and '55, and who was Southern AAU champ in '56.

Eley and Roseette fought evenly throughout the first round with the former finally finding the range during the second stanza. The marine was the complete master in the final round with Roseette visibly tiring.

In the only other match, Harold Glover, representing DesLant, stopped MineLant's Bob "Cochise" Chapman at 38 seconds of initial action. Chapman took two rights and a left cross at 10 seconds and wound up on the canvas for the eight-count. Referee Ray Russ awarded a TKO to Glover at 38 seconds as the DesLant flash banged away on the hapless Chapman.

Glover holds the DesLant West Coast Inter-Service championship and the Pacific Fleet light middleweight title.

The DesLant team came into the tourney with a 5-1 record and is defending titlist.

BASEBALL: This is the time when all sports readers the writers are candid, head shrinker. Reporters covering spring training their annual predictions of things to come for they are following. Not to be outdone, this depa go out on the well worn limb, hoping that it isn't before the end of the season.

The local Marines will open Tuesday in Flo Rollins college. The first seven games will be as Lejeune will meet some of the best competition try on their home ground. However, early season-icate the same desire and hustle that marked las cessful team.

There is better potential here than the that finished with a 78-23 record. Power, depth eran pitching are the three bright factors the Hal Glasgow and Curt Salyer have to work w positions remain to be ironed out, catching and and second base slots. If the players that are fill posts live up to their capabilities, the local nine well on its way towards a championship season.

The hardest thing to do is predict when lit reported from the enemies' camps. Manager gained the reputation of bringing a cross section gether, molding it and producing it as a winner squad should be no exception.

Last year's team proved its worth as a spec when every record at Harry Agganis field was same spirit that typified this has rubbed off on the bers of the 1959 club. Hustle and harmony are for a winning nine. Coach Glasgow's Marines have already, even before they have been under fire.

Opening date here, March 19, against VPI. D favor. Support a top caliber club that has the being the best Camp Lejeune has ever fielded.

Boxers Try For Seventh Consecutive All-Mar Title

Camp Lejeune's once-beaten boxing stable will leave this afternoon for the West Coast and a try at their seventh straight All-Marine title at San Diego, beginning Monday. Coach Ray Rogers has two All-Marines who will be out for a repeat performance among the 14 pugs representing this Base.

Gerry Moore, 112 pounds of craftyness, and Billie Hailes, 139 pounds and a ring-wise veteran who fought out of Quantico last season, will be gunning for win No. 2 in the annual ring classic. Moore, who had to defeat sparring mate Bobby Tuell for the victory last year, boasts a 7-1 record, excluding the Atlantic Tournament results of Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Hailes, a Cleveland native, has posted three victories while dropping a lone split decision.

Strong contenders from the Lejeune stable includes the Boston slugger and unbeaten Rocky Fiorentino at 125 pounds; the unpredictable Dick Gilford, 147 pounds; 156-pound Jimmy Flood, a crowd pleaser and terrific mixer, and undefeated Jerry Eley at 165 pounds.

This quartet has rung up a combined win-loss record of 28-2 in helping pace the locals to an 8-1 season.

Dark horses for top honors are Bobby Tuell (119) and Luchion Green (156). Tuell has a 6-3 mark while Green has dropped one decision in five bouts.

Also making the trip are Adrian Hassel (123), Blackie Zangler (132), Bobby Punch (132), Norm Harris (139), Bobby Burns (139), and Bobby Long (147).

Hassel, Newport, R. I., has taken two matches out of three fights. Zangler was seen in action against Quantico, winning a split decision in his only outing. Punch will be making his initial appearance this year at San Diego.

Harris has a 3-1 ledger, while Burns stands 2-1. Long has six wins against three defeats.

Quote of the Week: In answer to a scribe's query on how the Kentucky Wildcats manage to obtain so many All-America basketball players, head coach Adolph Rupp peered upward at an imaginary halo and replied solemnly, "I look up into the hills from whence cometh my help."

Golf Slices

By JIM BUTLER

This past week's rainy weather curtailed activity at the Paradise Point golf course. Due to this, qualification for the Azalea Open had to be extended until yesterday. The names of the traveling group will appear in next week's GLOBE.

Intramural golf gets under way April 1. Interested linksters should contact their special services officers for further information.

Players participating in the intramural program shall play at all times without undue delay as the traffic on the course will increase a great deal. Note: Usually the biggest tieups occur between the completion of a hole and driving off the next tee.

Eighth Engrs., MAG-26 Capture Bowling Honors

Eighth Engrs. and MAG-26 walked off with top honors as the Force Troops intramural bowling season was concluded. The Engineers took first place in the handicap with a .767 percentage. Runner-up was 2nd FSR with a .687.

In the Scratch League, the Airmen, with a percentage of .964, captured honors with FSR in the second slot with a .750.

Second FAG's M. E. Whiting had high individual average in the handicap with 171. C. Smith, of the same outfit, rolled the best game, recording a 256. He also took high series with 621.

Top individual kegler in the Scratch loop was Jim Wray of MAG-26. His series of 652 also was high in the league. J. A. Eulberg, MAG-26, bowled the best game, a 277.

Dreamers Shut Out Pace-Setting Pickers In OWC Keg Loop

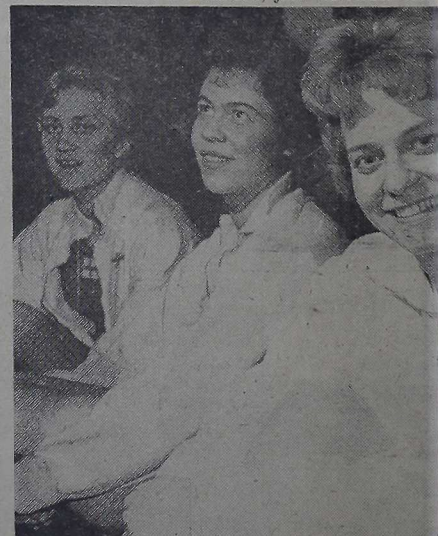

The Dreamers moved closer to the pace setting Pin Pickers when they shut out their opponent, 4-0, to highlight last week's play in the OWC Bowling League. The Yak Yaks also recorded a whitewash when they stopped the Meyhems. The Hot Shots defeated the Bowling Belles, 3-1, and the Alley Bis knotted with the Sad Sacks.

Top bowlers were Dottie Triel with a 209 game and Audrey Sweeney's 503 series, both with handicap.

There will be an election meeting March 16 in the Paradise Point Officers club, beginning at 7 p.m.

In WGA action, Grace Kirk won "A" flight in a "Blind Bogey" tournament with Pat Lindsey, Hap Haight, Flo Rodweller and Adria Law all placing second.

Elaine McRae took "B" flight honors with Jan Faber runner-up. Joyce BandDyke captured "C" flight honors and "D" flight went to Lynelle Colmer.

 WO-3 Charles B. Willingham, USN, retired recently after serving in the Navy 21 years.

MARINE CORPS BASE:

The first in a series of chess and checker matches between Hq. Bn., MCB, and 8th Comm. Bn., FT, resulted in a draw recently. MCB members included: Act. Sgt. E. A. Chresoulis, Act. Cpl. K. J. Broz, 1st Lt. W. C. Bryson, 1st Lt. J. J. Ackell, and Act. SSGT. R. A. Ward. Eighth Comm. Bn. team members were: 1st Lt. R. E. Haverkamp, Pfc M. A. De Breney, Act. Sgt. K. Saw, 1st Lt. C. W. Doyle, and Pfc D. W. Dowless.

This old farmer's proverb is as true today as it has always been. Don't throw away the many valuable assets your service in the Marine Corps is accumulating for you. Be smart now—REENLIST—and don't be caught "too soon old."

**Old Pennsylvania Dutch proverb*

It's a good career... stay with it!

What They're Saying . . .

"Atomic weapons, guided missiles and air transport have revolutionized strategic and tactical concepts. Their impact upon the art of war has not even yet been fully assessed. But this we do know—that the highest professional competence and the soundest possible judgement on the part of leaders charged with responsibility for the lives of men in battle, and the success of our mission, are of even more vital importance than they have been at any time in the whole past."
 Wilber M. Brucker, Secretary of the Army.

Buddy Bair Orchestra Featured Dance At Marston Pavilion Tonight

Buddy Bair and his orchestra will entertain at Marston Pavilion tonight to midnight, featuring female vocalist Jacque Lynn.

Bair's orchestra, including instrumentation of three saxes and clarinets, plus piano, base and drums, gives the dance band a sound resembling a mixture of Guy Lombardo, Jan Garber, and Lawrence Welk.

The chief reason for this distinctive sound is attributed to the musical arrangements by Gus Donahue, who also supplies his talents in music to the Lawrence Welk orchestra.

Well known to many service audiences, Bair has appeared here previously on several engagements and at other military installations including Shaw AFB, S. C.; Ft. Bragg, N. C.; Ft. Benning, Ga., and Parris Island.

Marston Pavilion's main bar and lounge are open Wednesday through Friday between 5:30 and 10 p.m. Saturday and Sunday and on all holidays, the club is open from 2 until 10 p.m. The Pavilion is closed Monday and Tuesday for unit parties.

All sergeants and below, their guests and dependents are welcome.

WAR OF THE WORLDS A science fiction movie based on the weapons, communications and transportation of the future. Gene Barry and Ann Robinson star in this action-packed, color movie.

GUNMAN FROM LAREDO Robert Knapp and Gene Moorehead head the cast of this typical western. The story features a gunman in the usual unsettled West, versus the law-abiding citizens who want to clean up the country. There should be plenty of action and humor to brighten the scenes.

THE BADLANDERS This outdoor adventure finds Alan Ladd and Ernest Borgnine portraying a couple of adventurers who had known and disliked each other while in an Arizona prison, joining forces with Nehemiah Persoff, as a Mexican mining worker, to carry out an unusual robbery.

Ladd, who has been a mining engineer, knows the secret location of a rich gold ore deposit in an abandoned shaft. The catch is that the legal owners of the mine are working it in a section near the spot Ladd and his cohorts want to loot. (83 min.)

SUSAN SLEPT HERE A comedy in color with laughter and love in very unusual circumstances. Debbie Reynolds plays Susan and wherever she goes there is turmoil. She comes to Dick Powell in the rain, under force, and as a juvenile delinquent of sort.

PLUNDERERS OF PAINTED FLATS The movie stars John Carroll and Corinne Belmont. No further information is available.

PARIS HOLIDAY Bob Hope gets into all kinds of predicaments when he teams up with Anita Ekberg and Fernandel in this story of a trip to Paris. Besides the excitement about the De de France, Hope encounters strange searchers who go through his luggage, a runaway taxi cab ride and a very comical interlude in an insane asylum.

MOVIE TIME at the Camp theater on March 6 are 5:15 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

RIDE LONESOME A 70-minute western, starring Randolph Scott and Karen Steele. No other information available. Movie times for this show while at the Camp theater on March 6 are 5:15 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

JEANNE EAGLES This is a story of Jeanne Eagler's brief career as a Broadway star, from a heady contest at a traveling carnival in Kansas City to her suspension by Equity because of her drunkenness and drug use. Lasting 114 minutes, the plot is based on fact and fiction and stars Kim Novak, Jeff Chandler and Agnes Moorehead.

CAMP THEATER p.m., "The Kettles starring Marjorie M. Kilbride. Also show Zorro," No. 10.

CAMP GEIGER: Same as above.

PETERFIELD POINT 2 p.m., "Jumping Dean Martin and "Wild Bill Hickcock,"

AIR FACILITY: "Billy the Kid," Taylor and Brian D.

A combination of science fiction and some known space facts starring Bill Edwards, Marshall Thompson and Marla Landi. The plot deals with two rocket pilots who are lost when they pass out of the earth's atmospheric limits. Their return to earth was undiscovered until a recurrence of several grisly murders that lead officials to believe they had been turned into space-created monsters.

AN EXCELLENT melodrama with a good cast. Kirk Douglas, Ralph Meeker, and Adolph Menjour in a realistic film about an incident during World War I. A French advance is being blocked by Germans entrenched on a huge hill known as the "Ant Hill." Kirk Douglas is defense counsel for three men in a court martial for not making a success of the attack. Realistic and sincere, it is a portrayal of a drive for justice and human right. (96 min.)

ONE DATE back just a few years but is said to have carried a good public opinion when released by Universal. The 109-minute movie stars Van Heflin and Susan Hayward.

IT JUST might appeal to anyone who hasn't anything planned or no where to go. NATALIE WOOD plays the role of an 18-year-old who tries to get into show business in this highly rated film which won top honors as a novel. During the show Miss Wood manages to fall in love with several enterprising men, namely Gene Kelly who she meets while at summer camp. She follows Kelly through several bouts with the bottle, many girls and across Europe before learning her lesson.

TECHNIRAMA Gregory Peck, Jean Simmons, and Carol Barker star in this 166-minute Technirama spectacular, accentuating the colorful southwest. Peck plays the role of a former sea captain who becomes involved in a bitter feud between proud and stubborn ranchers who are fronting as righteous individuals but in the end turn out to be quite arbitrary and ruthless. Violence comes to the scene in a fight between Peck and a ranch foreman over the latter's designs on Carol Barker.

THE BIG COUNTRY The Big Country will be shown at 1:15 p.m., 5:15, and 8:30 p.m. due to the length of the running time during the Camp Theater play date.

TORPEDO ZONE If on the same level as MGM's Torpedo Run, it could prove to be a real action filled submarine thriller. In the event that they are using a ship other than a sub, and weapons other than torpedoes, who knows what the outcome will be.

A 1951 Paramount release which stars Montgomery Clift, Elizabeth Taylor and Shelly Winters in a 122-minute portrayal of deep emotional young love.

THE BRITISH touch is used in this 74-minute release highlighting the methods employed to commit murder without suspicion and make it look like suicide. A twin air-intake and exhaust tube device, normally used by underwater swimmers, known as a snorkel, becomes the perfect means by which the killer played by Peter Van is able to breathe while his victim is subjected to asphyxiating gases.

MARDI GRAS This story combines the atmosphere of Virginia Military Institute cadets and all the excitement and fancy of the New Orleans Mardi Gras. Presented by his 900 fellow cadets in this late 1953 release, the title it could contain including rocket shipmen. Motion Picture 74-minute film as fair.

TENNESSEE Williams brings a complex drama of love in the turn-of-the-century. Marlon Brando is starred "beatnik" character Steve Brodie and Shelly Winters is co-starred with Leigh.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE Tennessee Williams brings a complex drama of love in the turn-of-the-century. Marlon Brando is starred "beatnik" character Steve Brodie and Shelly Winters is co-starred with Leigh.

STEVE BRODIE and Shelly Winters in this late 1953 release, the title it could contain including rocket shipmen. Motion Picture 74-minute film as fair.
