THE LAZY BEAR WINE

Welcome to Lazy Bear. Our wine list contains over 1,700 selections from our back yard, and from around the world. We strive to bring you selections that are rare, intellectually stimulating, and delicious. The list is especially focused on vintage depth, particularly within California, but also extending to the rest of the wine universe. Please inquire about special vintages, especially if you would like to celebrate your birth year, anniversary, or any other occasion.

Should you choose to enjoy an evening free of decisions, the Lazy Bear Sommelier Team has you covered. Each night, we dig deep into our cellar to find wines that highlight not only each dish but also the dynamic progression of the menu our chefs have put together. Our team of sommeliers will offer some context for each of those pairings as the evening progresses.

THE PAIRING will include a healthy tasting pour of seven beverages. For those concerned about over-imbibing, one pairing is designed to include 3 glasses over the course of your meal. If you would like to share a pairing, that can be arranged, the cost is $155 per pairing.

We also realize that YOLO is a truth these days! If you want to treat yourselves, please inquire about our very special old and rare pairing available for $500 per pairing.

MADEIRA The most storied, well-traveled, longest-living fortified wine of all time.	12

SPARKLING

- NON-VINTAGE CHAMPAGNE 13
Crisp multi-vintage blends and non-rosé styles of bubbly from Champagne, France.
- VINTAGE CHAMPAGNE 16
Sparkling wines from Champagne, France with a minimum three years in bottle on yeast for extra complexity and that brioche goodness.
- ROSÉ SPARKLING WINE 21
Wines with a bit of skin contact and color from Champagne, France and the rest of the world.
- REST OF THE SPARKLING WORLD 23
Made the same way as Champagne, just brought to you from elsewhere.

WHITE WINE

- RIESLING 24
German Riesling is listed first with a focus on the Mosel. DRY Riesling from Alsace, Austria, and Australia (the bloody-driest) follow.
- LEANER, CRISP WHITES 29
Crisp, semi-aromatic unoaked whites great with seafood. Think Grüner-Veltliner, Albariño, Pinot Blanc, etc
- WHITE BURGUNDY 32
Chardonnay and Aligoté produced in Burgundy, France. Listed north to south, generally. A couple of their friends from the Jura are thrown in as well.
- CHARDONNAY, US AND THE REST OF THE WORLD 42
Domestic, Aussie, and Kiwi versions, in that order.
- CHENIN BLANC 49
First, the Loire Valley in France, then comes the new world- check out the Steen from S. Africa!
- SAUVIGNON BLANC 52
Aromatic wines from the Loire Valley, Bordeaux, Austria, The United States, and South Africa.
- RHÔNE VARIETIES 55
Viognier, Marsanne, Roussanne, Grenache Blanc, and Clairette based blends, from France first, but also featuring some great examples from California.
- MUSCAT, GEWÜRZTRAMINER 58
Sweet and/or Dry Wines from France (either), Italy (dry), Austria (dry), and the USA (either)
- RICH, TEXTURED WHITES 60
A list of full bodied whites from native grapes from all over. Pinot Gris from Alsace, for example...
- OXIDATIVE WHITES 62
A list rich, nutty, dry wines made with oxygen contact. Think the best Sherry, Jura, and the like!

ORANGE/ROSÉ

ORANGE	64
Orange wine: white wine that drinks like a red, made with significant skin contact to produce an intense flavor and texture
ROSÉ	64
Rosé wine: red wine that drinks like a white, made with less skin contact to produce a light flavor and texture.

RED WINE

FRENCH & GERMAN PINOT NOIR	65
Red Burgundy and its up and coming neighbor to the east.
NEW WORLD PINOT NOIR	77
Juicier versions from the US, Australia, and New Zealand.
OTHER LIGHTER REDS	86
Leaner, brighter wines from Beaujolais, Jura, Austria, Germany, Coastal Portugal, and more!
GRAPES OF THE WESTERN MEDITERRANEAN	89
Wines based on Grenache, Carignan, and Mourvèdre from France, Spain, then the world!
SYRAH/SHIRAZ	94
Northern Rhône first, then the rest of Europe, the US, and finally our solid Aussie selection.
NATIVE ITALIAN	103
Native Italian grapes such as Nebbiolo, Corvina, Sangiovese, Aglianico, and their amici, including a few homegrown versions of Italian grapes as well.
ZINFANDEL	110
One of our proudest moments, our Noble Cali grape listed by producer from oldest to youngest!
IBERIAN INTERIOR	119
Tempranillo in its many forms as well as Mencia, Touriga, and other reds from Spain & Portugal.
THE BORDEAUX FAMILY OF FRANCE	123
Classics are classic for a reason, French Cabernet Franc, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon & Malbec.
BORDEAUX GRAPES AWAY FROM FRANCE	129
The whole family of grapes is represented here: Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Malbec, and Carmenère, excluding the French versions.
AMERICAN CABERNET SAUVIGNON	135
A bit of Washington, then an impressive collection of California back into the 1960s.
OFF THE FULL BEATEN PATH	153
Looking for all the Alicante Bouchet and Petite Sirah you've always wanted? They have friends too... including Château Musar wines from Lebanon!

CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM

Today, Château d'Yquem remains one of the pre-eminent names in the entire wine world. The only white wine to be listed as a Première Supérieure growth in Emperor Napoleon's 1855 Classification was d'Yquem. In fact, it was the only white wine to be categorized at all. One of the greatest sweet wines to be affected by Botrytis Cinerea, a type of fungus, a benevolent one, that attaches itself to grape bunches later in the growing season and dehydrates them thus concentrating the flavor profile and giving the wines a characteristic spice and aromas of honeycomb, saffron, and ginger.

If you can't tell, we're obsessed with Château D'Yquem. So much so that we have gotten our hands on as much of this rare golden liquid as possible, dating back to WWII-era!

MADEIRA

What doesn't kill you makes you Madeira! Our Madeira selection is proof that this is the longest-living wine of all time. The process of making the wine, and its singular flavor profile, is inherent to the voyage these wines first undertook. The voyage from Madeira to the colonies took around three months. If you can imagine what three months as ballast on the side of a trade ship does to wine... well it exposes it to everything you should not do to wine. Heat, light, turbulence, temperature variation, oxidation, the wine literally starts to cook from the inside out. The sugar molecules start to slowly caramelize, and the wine is essentially exposed to a process similar to BBQ, slow and low. As a result the liquid that emerges after is literally indestructible. There is nothing you can do to it that wasn't already done to it by design.

Today these wines are on the verge of extinction. Only 400 hectares are planted to vines in the current day. It'd be a shame to see this wine disappear because it is literally like drinking history!

NON-VINTAGE CHAMPAGNE

Champagne; in victory, you deserve it. In defeat, you need it. As you look through these selections, please note the two-letter producer codes listed. This is how we organize our list:

- 1. RM: Récoltant Manipulant (grower-producer). Small family growers putting out every style of wine under the sun. One quick hint, notoriety does not equal the top of the line in quality, especially at the value prices.
- 2. NM: Négociant Manipulant (producer who purchases grapes to make wine). Big houses do make great wines, sometimes there is a need to state the obvious...

More producer styles are represented in the next section, and one is by no means better than the other, it is just a nice nod to a system already in place in Champagne, and a way to put the smaller guys up front!

VINTAGE CHAMPAGNE

Vintage selections are often some of the best wines that come out of Champagne, period. We have racked up a few “Têtes de cuvées,” the best from the big houses, but we are especially proud of our “specials.”

1. SPECIAL CLUB. In 1971, a group of small grower-producers in Champagne, France, decided to band together to create an organization based on principles of quality, accountability, and solidarity. Today, the Club Trésors, or the “Special Club,” represents the top of the pyramid for small grower-producers, and for vintage Champagne in general. We are thrilled to bring you 17 of the 28 members’ current and library offerings. One of the requirements of the Special Club labeling is that this bottling is the best wine the house releases that year. You’ll find our Special Club selections directly below, at the beginning of the Vintage Champagne section of our list.

2. RÉCOLTANT MANIPULANT (RM): Récoltant Manipulant (grower-producer). Small family growers putting out every style of wine under the sun.

a. MARQUE D’ACHETEUR (MA): Marque d’Acheteur (private label made by a larger producer for others). While technically its own category, we choose to list these with the category of the producer.

3. RÉCOLTANT COOPÉRATEUR (RC): Récoltant Coopérateur (a group of grower-producers that pool their resources, making a single label).

4. NÉGOCIANT MANIPULANT (NM) Big houses also make great wines! We tend to focus on the best of the best, with some age to boot!

5. COOPÉRATIVE MANIPULANT (CM): Cooperative Manipulant (a group of producers who share resources, and purchase grapes in concert to make wines).

SPARKLING WINE

ROSÉ SPARKLING WINE

One of the gems of the wine world. Sparkling rosé is often made from mostly white grapes with the addition of some still red wine—highly illegal anywhere else in France except Champagne. The resulting flavors range from bright and ethereal to bold and ostentatious.

Pay close attention and you will see some real unicorns, like Special Club rosé, a specialty that only three producers have ever pulled off.

1. CHAMPAGNE, FRANCE

a. RÉCOLTANT MANIPULANT

b. NÉGOCIANT MANIPULANT

2. OUTSIDE CHAMPAGNE. This is where we start to diverge into quite different styles of wine altogether. The wine making styles range from the same as Champagne, to the Charmat Method that produces crisp floral wines like Moscato, to Pet-Nat- a bit more hip and rough around the edges.

SPARKLING WINE

REST OF THE SPARKLING WORLD

It's not just Champagne that likes to make bubbles. The same method is used all over the world to make serious wines. Sometimes this provides a great value. In other cases, the wines are equal if not better than their Champenoise counterparts (see Recaredo).

From the UK, to the country of Georgia, to our own backyard (but not the state of Georgia), great bubbles are all around. Take a chance, and enjoy the rewards!

1. CHAMPAGNE METHOD. Same process, different place, styles do vary but if you like Champagne, take a chance.

2. OTHER WAYS OF MAKING BUBBLES. Fruity, funky, sometimes red, the world of bubbles is as diverse as any other style!

RIESLING

One common phrase we hear tableside is, "I don't like Riesling, it's too sweet." Do these people not enjoy fresh fruit, either? Or Coca-Cola? At some point in time, it became uncouth to enjoy the sweeter side of life, and we think that's unfortunate. But alas, more for us! It often seems that the greatest grape to express terroir, or sense of place, happens to do it just as well outside of Germany.

1. GERMANY. German Riesling spans the entire gamut of styles and sweetness levels. From the ethereal, to the grandiose, from the sporty Z3 to the hulky X5, anything you want is in the lot. Check out the selections from Grosses Gewächs (the wines that have "GG" in the title). Those are powerful, dry wines, and are a source of pride for us on our list.

a. MOSEL. We try not to make too many sub-categories to our already numerous categories, but this is a stylistic apples-and-oranges situation. The meandering Mosel river and its tributaries, the Saar and the Ruwer, produce a style of wine unlike anything else in the world. These wines are racy, electric, and the ultimate pinnacle of a highwire tightrope in a glass.

b. OTHER GERMANY. The rest of the country is as diverse as the rest of the world in style, please ask your favorite sommelier for guidance and suggestions if so desired. A quick lesson on German labels: Kabinett = light and racy, Spätlese = more weight or sweetness, Auslese = luscious and sweet. If dry is what you are seeking, look for the word "Trocken."

2. ALSACE. Ripe, mineral, earthy, full-bodied version. For the elegant and powerful, look to F.E. Trimbach. For the extravagant and ostentatious, try Domaine Zind-Humbrecht.

3. AUSTRIA. Citrusy, lean, mean, and clean. Weingut Hirsch is a favorite of ours here.

4. AUSTRALIA. Bloody dry, mate! It's like throwing rocks and limes into a blender. But the style produces some of the best apéritif wines in the world. Just ask Grosset.

WHITE WINE

LEANER, CRISP WHITES

For those who spend their days dreaming of seafood towers. These wines are just begging to be sipped by the ocean. This is a big category! Sure, Muscadet with oysters = classic. But also take a look at Albariño, quite possibly the world's best wine to pair with shellfish. If you are looking for a great way to start your evening, or an easy end of the night bottle that won't weigh you down, this is the spot for you.

1. FRANCE

2. GERMANY

3. AUSTRIA. Then there's Gruner. Oh, how great this Austrian rock star can shine when dealing with complexly-flavored foods. Savory, mineral-driven, and the best pairing out there for veggie-centric menus.

4. ITALY & GREECE. Now, go South, to Italy, the land of why-use-seven-ingredients-when-three-will-do. Italian white wines are inherently linked to food. Simplicity paired with transparency is a wonderful thing.

5. IBERIA. Spain and Portugal produce some of the best seafood in the world, especially in tins, so it makes sense that some of the most seafood friendly wines come from here as well.

WHITE WINE

WHITE BURGUNDY

One could call white Burgundy the Meryl Streep of the wine world. Timeless, elegant, and some of the greatest representations of Chardonnay the world has ever seen.

This section of our wine list travels from North to South. Northernmost, the wines of Chablis, where you'll find Chardonnay in its most pure expression, driven by the fossilized oyster shell soils and judicious oak treatment. Further South, the great triumvirate of the Côte de Beaune; deciding which of these centuries-old villages is the best is harder than picking your favorite Meryl Streep film.

1. REGIONAL

2. CHABLIS

3. CÔTES DE NUITS

4. CÔTES DE BEAUNE

a. MEURSAULT. Continuing with the Meryl theme, we particularly like Meursault, a.k.a. "The Devil Wears Prada." While there, check out the ever-growing selection of Domaine Roulot!

b. PULIGNY-MONTRACHET. The voluptuous opulence here definitely makes this "Mama Mia!"

c. CHASSAGNE-MONTRACHET. The Oscar-winning rigidity of "The Iron Lady" mirrors the taut structure and precision of the appellation.

5. MACON AND NEARBY. Looking for a great value? These wines hail from even a bit further from the nexus of luxury above, still amazing producers from these villages dabble in the gentle hillsides of the Côte Maconnais and a bit further to the east in the Jura, where we get the term Jurassic!

CHARDONNAY, US AND THE REST OF THE WORLD

If winemakers are artists, then Chardonnay is perhaps their preferred medium. Like a block of marble or blank canvas, this grape has the potential to be sculpted into the statue of David, or to express the subtlety of a perfect Mona Lisa smile. And boy, do we feature some Michaelangelos, Yayoi Kusamas, and Warhols on our list.

For a wide range of styles, explore the wines of the Pacific Coast, from Yamhill-Carlton in Oregon, to the Napa Valley, to our friends at Racines and Liquid Farm in the Sta. Rita Hills! Whether you like your wine stony and powerful, or buttered and round, have no fear. We've got you.

1. OREGON

2. CALIFORNIA

a. MENDOCINO & SONOMA

b. NAPA If opulence is the goal, get it straight from the source. The region that started the California Chardonnay craze in the 1970s by beating out the French in the Judgement of Paris is still producing rich, full bodied, beauties today.

c. CENTRAL COAST

d. SANTA BARBARA Oft overlooked in deference to their counterparts above, a counter movement is in full swing down here. Gone are the days of California Chardonnay being seen as one-dimensional and based on ripeness of fruit. These producers orient themselves much more around the concept of terroir driven wines, letting the land speak for itself. Some of the most exciting Chardonnay being made in the state today hails from the south!

3. AUSTRALIA/NEW ZEALAND. South of the equator, there is a revolution happening in Chardonnay. New Zealand has always produced crystalline and laser-like takes on this grape. Be sure to check out the thunder from down under as well! A clean, lean, and mean style of Chardonnay thrives in Australia. Check out Vanya Cullen's "Kevin John" for an example of modern greatness.

CHENIN BLANC

The old adage goes, “an apple a day keeps the doctor away.” If you’re just too busy, or if you’re a sommelier, look no further than Chenin Blanc! It’s a grape of true integrity, with a pillar of apples, pears, and racy lemon that allows this wine to age with grace!

1. LOIRE VALLEY. Chenin Blanc is the darling of the Loire Valley in France. As you flip between the powerful, dry styles of Anjou-Saumur and the complex and varying levels of sweetness of Vouvray and Montlouis, be sure to check out the rockstars of the Loire, like Domaine Huet and Francois Chidaïne.

2. SOUTH AFRICA. Not only can these wines age, but so can their vines! For old-vine Chenin Blanc, head over to South Africa to explore the rich wines of Alheit, or Mullineux!

SAUVIGNON BLANC

For those seeking to chase the lightning! With Sauvignon Blanc's electric mouthfeel, screaming tropical fruit, and razor sharp minerality, this is the wine for adrenaline junkies. Sancerre is the archetype for France.

Across the Loire River, peep the wines of racecar driver turned winemaker Didier Dagueau. The late, great winemaker is the face behind the wines of Pouilly Fumé.

Then, take a backpacking trip and lean into texture with the Grand Cru Classé blends of Bordeaux. Climb a mountainside and taste the mineral-driven wines of Austria, or sit back and relax with the ripe fruit profile of California Sauvignon Blanc. Go on, Mr. Worldwide!

RHONE VARIETIES

Viognier, Marsanne, Roussanne, Grenache Blanc. These may seem out of the box, but in reality they tie together the best of what we want from Chardonnay and, let's say, Sauvignon Blanc. Ever feel like you keep drinking the same thing, and wishing for a different result? Aside from that being evidence of your possible insanity, you'll find that these wines are great options to get out of those doldrums.

1. FRANCE. Floral, honeyed, spicy, filled with notes of melon and peach, these wines are big, fun, and inherently unique. Looking for a new infatuation? Look no further. The wines of Condrieu may well be the best expression of Viognier in the world. If Roussanne is your game look to the iconic wines of the late Laurent Vaillé of Domaine de la Grange des Pères.

2. UNITED STATES. For a very rare treat, check out the cold climate wines of our friends at Peay Vineyards, some of the best California has to offer!

WHITE WINE

MUSCAT, GEWURZTRAMINER

Aromatics are a wonderful thing. Flowers are still a great gift, and these wines are a bouquet in a glass. Intense, heady, ripe, we love this stuff.

1. FRANCE, ALSACE. Alsace is the epicenter for these grapes. Nowhere else are these wines held in such esteem. The Goldert Vineyard in Alsace has been planted since 700 A.D.!

2. AUSTRIA & ITALY. Austria does well, too! Gewurztraminer, as Deutsch as it sounds, is an Italian Alpine grape. Gewürztraminer is inreference to Tramino, a village high in the Dolomites of Alto Adige where the grape hails from, with the German word for spice attached! We feature the best examples, just with a bit of maturity for the best expression of their unique qualities.

RICH, TEXTURED WHITES

A catch-all category that includes big wines. Whether thanks to botrytis, ripeness, or stylistic choices, these are hefty and girthy. Pinot Gris from Alsace, France is the great example here. If you like wines that smell or taste unlike anything else you have tried, this is a great section for you.

Lest you think that this category implies that other wines are lesser than what is here, that's not our intention at all. Wine is great sometimes because of its contradictions. Think of these pages as the great undiscovered versions of Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, or Chenin. Just bigger, older versions. This may be the most underrated category of the whole list.

- 1. FRANCE. Alsace is again leading the way, but look to places like Jura and SW France as well.
- 2. OTHER OLD WORLD. Looking for interesting wines of texture? Take a look at the Slovenian, Spanish and Portuguese wines that also impart body through use of oak, skins, and other techniques. Then there is Musar, from Lebanon which is an amazing experience in its own right.
- 3. USA

OXIDATIVE & FLOR AGED

Some magical things happen with our wonderful friend, yeast. For thousands of years, people thought that juice turning into wine was a gift from the gods. Perhaps they were right. But alongside that foundational miracle of beverages, what we have here is yet another feat accomplished by yeast. This section features wines matured under a layer of yeast formed on top of the wine.

The best example is Sherry. But that is by no means the only example. This process of aging under flor, an oxygen-blocking layer of yeast, happens naturally all over the world. This section includes some of the best examples of full-bodied, complex wines that are great with dishes like fondue (a frequent favorite on our menus), and anything else that causes tension between texture and flavor.

1. FLOR-AGED. These wines are salty, nutty, and full of flavor, but have the distinction of not being fortified. They are all nods to the mystical yeast imparting flavor without needing the “extra help” of alcohol.
2. JEREZ-XÉRÈS-SHERRY. To place these wines solely in an aperitif or digestif category is a mistake. These can be some of the most complex and food-stimulating wines out there. A hidden gem as a side bottle, as it impresses from the beginning to end of the meal. We are proud to feature the wines of El Maestro Sierra, a unique stratosphere in Jerez both in quality and impact. Some of the wines on this list are released in the quantities of 50 liters per year to the whole world!

ROSE WINE

ORANGE

Smells like a red, drinks like a white. These are wines made with white grapes, but with some skin in the game.

Get groovy and weird with us, with a bottle of orange wine! Extended skin contact makes for glossy, spiced, aromatic wine. We're big fans of the Paolo Bea!

ALHEIT

La Colline Vineyard Skin Contact, Semillon Blanc Blend 2015 | Western Cape, South Africa

ROSE

Smells like a white, drinks like a... white. Just a bit more tinged with red grape aromatics.

Rosé wine can be so much more than a picnic in a glass. That's why we built a selection of often refreshing, and surprisingly terroir-driven styles! If you're looking for something bright and sunny, you can't go wrong with a rosé from the South of France.

FRENCH & GERMAN PINOT NOIR

Hop in your car and cruise with us down the D974! It's not a long ride to get from the top of the Côte de Nuits to the bottom of the Côte de Beaune, but along the way you'll pass through the most storied and epic lands known for Pinot Noir.

This section is organized just as you'd be driving North to South down the highway in Burgundy, starting with Gevrey-Chambertin and Chambolle-Musigny. You'll soon pass Vosne-Romanée, where you'll find rare treasures and the heart of Burgundy's acclaim. Eventually you'll get to our collection of Pommard and Volnay, which are some of our most beloved wines!

For a range of selections, check out the bottlings we have from Pousse d'Or and Méo-Camuzet! Both producers offer a breadth that encompasses the whole of Burgundy, representing many different villages and single-vineyard sites.

If you're looking to dive into the deep end of Burgundy, it won't take you long to find the treasure trove that is our selection of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, Marquis d'Angerville, and even special vintages of Domaine Faiveley.

Looking for something similar, yet slightly different? Look to France's neighbor to the east. These wines consistently provide a value and a different take on making wines in a colder climate. Are they Burgundy? Not, really. Are they worth a closer look? Ja!

NEW WORLD PINOT

Pinot Noir is as much a spectrum as it is a variety. Whether it's juicy California, or the woody expressions of Oregon, you'll find that these wines tend divergently toward both the unique and to the familiar.

Take a walk on the wild side and try a Pinot Noir from the edges of the world such as Australia or Patagonia. However, if you feel like a staycation in a glass, our friends at Peay make some of the most suave and gratifying Pinot Noirs North of the Golden Gate Bridge.

Disclaimer: If you happen to get our head sommelier Jacob Brown started on the enchantments of Santa Barbara County, you might just end up with some Whitcraft in your glass.

OTHER LIGHTER REDS

There are no bad days in this section of our wine list! Welcome to the Jura, to Beaujolais, and to so many other exciting, unadulterated wine regions. The wines are light, fun, and ever useful on a table with discourse.

With a range of varietals such as Gamay, Gamay that's secretly Valdiguie, and Trousseau (also known as "trou love"), you'll find wines that are playful, and often a bit sassy, too. Many of the varieties in this section have the most unique names and stories. We bet you can't say "Xinomavro" three times fast!

One example is Colares, a tiny and quickly disappearing region on the outskirts of Lisbon. It's not disappearing due to climate change, or disease, but due to urban sprawl! Apparently, beachfront property is worth more than vineyard space. The grapes are literally grown on the sandy beaches of the Atlantic!

GRAPES OF THE WESTERN MEDITERRANEAN

We're going to share a secret with you. Are you ready? This section is the treasure trove of our wine list. Quite often, the Western Mediterranean is overlooked for the more fashionable or luxurious wine regions of the old world. Somehow, this beautiful landscape of garrigue and galets is still one of France's best kept secrets!

As Grenache, Carignan, and Mourvèdre begin to mature, they transition from being generously fruity to being spiced, fiery, and rugged. It's that frontier-like spirit of the Southern Rhône that has inspired pioneering "Rhône rangers" around the world, and keeps us begging for more. It's that spirit of the wild and untamed with which we connect.

Many of the heavyweights of Châteauneuf du Pape and Bandol are featured in this section, with an exciting span of vintages ranging from the 1990s and early 2000s. If you're feeling like something bold and heroic, check out any of the five vintages of Château de Beaucastel or the three vintages of Vieux Télégraphe!

The latter half of this section features cult Rhône rangers of the new world such as Ridge Vineyards, Clarendon Hills, and even the illustrious Sine Qua Non. Let us light your fire for the grapes of the Western Mediterranean, and you'll see why these wines are reserved for the bold at heart.

SYRAH

No other varietal embodies culinary sensations akin to pepper, smoke, and savory cuisine like Syrah does. In fact, it's impossible to drink a bottle of Syrah without reminiscing over backyard barbecues, or long nights by the campfire.

1. FRANCE. Legends of the Northern Rhone defined Syrah amongst their lonely, terraced hillsides and roasted slopes. Nightly, the winds of "le mistral" whip through the valley of the Northern Rhone, chiseling out not only the landscape, but also the vignerons. As Jean-Louis Chave said, "We are who we are because of what we own."

- d. CORNAS
- e. CÔTES DU RHÔNE
- f. LANGUEDOC

2. SWITZERLAND.

3. UNITED STATES. Variety is the spice of life, and the diversity of styles of this grape found in the American West is as vast as the landscape. We often talk about backyard BBQ influencing a sense of nostalgia during our dining experience. We present you with one of the most ideal matches of sensory recall.

- a. WASHINGTON STATE
- b. MENDOCINO

c. SONOMA. Speaking of backyard BBQ, Sonoma has become the epicenter for modern expressions of Syrah. Coastal Producers such as Pax and Peay are taking advantage of the Pacific Ocean's chilling influence to produce ultra-savory, ultra-violet styles.

d. NAPA

e. CENTRAL COAST. We like big wines and we cannot lie, the rest of Cali can't deny that the inner portions of the state like Paso Robles have this style on lock.

f. SANTA BARBARA

4. AUSTRALIA. Let us know if you're looking for something big. Like, really big. Australian Shiraz is overt and generous, and we are generous with our offerings! Many of the vineyards planted down under have survived to be over a century old! Old vines can make old wines, and our vintage selections from Elderton and Yarra Yering are drinking in their prime.

NATIVE ITALIAN

Ah, Italy! A vacationer's dream, and a budding sommelier's nightmare. We share a love for the simple, elegant, yet somehow infinitely complex selection of indigenous grapes. Our Italian selections are organized more or less North to South.

- 1. PIEDMONT & LOMBARDY. First, there is the king of grapes and the grape of kings, Nebbiolo. Hailing from Piedmont and stretching back into the 1940's.
- 2. VENETO. From there, we work our way over to the powerful Quintarelli wines of the Veneto.
- 3. TUSCANY. Then the star grape of Tuscany, Sangiovese, with its many different faces, from Brunello the rockstar to Chianti the legend.
- 4. THE REST OF ITALY. The lesser known regions, as well as the South, and Sicily round out the Italian selections.
- 5. NATIVE ITALIAN GRAPES NOT FROM ITALY. Selections from the USA made from Nebbiolo, Barbera, etc... Italian craving not fixed? Hint, you can find French grapes grown in Italy in other sections of this list. The Bordeaux grapes for example, are further back with their similar grape brethren.

ZINFANDEL

You have come upon one of our greatest sources of pride!

Nowhere else in the world does this grape achieve the heights it does in our own back yard. Originally from Croatia, this immigrant workhorse has come up through humble beginnings to be one of the most recognizable vines in the United States. As you drive through Sonoma or Mendocino, hundred-plus year-old vines are not uncommon through the iconic landscapes.

We regularly see California Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Pinot Noir, and others in their maturity, and indeed we feature many on this list. But elsewhere, we rarely see this gem, Zinfandel, that is uniquely our own in Northern California. As the wine comes into maturity (10+ years at least), the fruit dominant characteristics give way to forest floor and cigar box aromas reminiscent of great old Grenache or Tempranillo from the old world.

Lazy Bear is proud to present one of the best selections of mature Zinfandel in the world. Our list is alphabetical by producer, and listed from most mature to youngest within each winery.

The largest selections come from our friends at Frog's Leap, Ravenswood, and the legendary Ridge, but there are plenty of other gems to discover as well. Constantly underestimated in their aging potential, remember that for these wines there's no such thing as too old.

We realize that many portions of our list separate California into regions. Here, we think the producer really controls the style and we would like to list all of the wines by producer together for ease of browsing.

IBERIAN INTERIOR

Why not just have Spanish and Portuguese sections? Well, because so many similarities exist between the two neighboring countries. While you will see Tempranillo (in its many names) in both countries, this where indigenous Iberian grapes shine. You won't find any French varieties here, look for those in "Grapes of the Western Mediterranean."

First up, Mencia. Somewhere between Syrah and Cabernet Franc in flavor, it's the darling of Galicia, as well as Dão, Portugal. Then Rioja, and Ribera del Duero, Spain's equivalents of Napa Classic and Napa Modern, respectively.

Finally, there are full-bodied blends based on Touriga Nacional. These are the up-and-coming rockstars to discover from Portugal. These wines are the next big thing, no pun intended, from Europe.

THE BORDEAUX FAMILY OF FRANCE

Classics are classic for a reason: they're good! For so long, this section of the wine list has been looked at as the "have beens" by hip young sommeliers. We are here to buck the trend.

The Cabernet Franc wines of the Loire Valley are second to none, and Clos Rougeard leads the way here.

For Bordeaux, you will find the Merlot behemoths of Pomerol and Saint-Emilion, followed by the great Cabernet Sauvignon producing communes of the Médoc, North to South. Here, we group our wines by classification rank, though this doesn't always correspond perfectly to quality. Check out the little gem from Château Palmer a bit further down.

Finally, tread from the beaten path to France's other regions producing these grapes.

BORDEAUX GRAPES AWAY FROM FRANCE

This category covers all of the wonderful wines of the Bordeaux family of varietals that are not from the bastions of Bordeaux, the Loire Valley, or Southwest France. We are purposely leaving out American Cabernet Sauvignon to give it its own section up next.

First up are our non-Bordeaux French friends. Then the Italian stallions including the unicorn bottlings of "Alzero" by Giuseppe Quintarelli. A quick stop on the Iberian peninsula is followed by our selection of Merlot and Cabernet Franc from the United States.

Specifically highlighted are the wines of Duckhorn Vineyards and Groth. These two wineries provide great insight into how well the Merlot from our back yard can age!

All of our Southern Hemisphere friends round out this whopper of a section.

AMERICAN CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Our Cabernets are listed by state, and alphabetically. We make it a point to showcase the producers, and their vintage depth, that make Lazy Bear's cellar unique.

1. WASHINGTON

2. CALIFORNIA

We do strive to showcase wines in their prime. For us that means focusing on our favorite recent vintage, 2011, and those that came before. We focus on some of our favorite producers more than others, but that is subject to availability and demand.

Check out the following producers whose libraries are particularly deep (6+ selections) and growing:

Beaulieu Vineyard

Beringer Vineyards

Bond Wine

Cardinale

Corison

Louis M Martini Vineyards

Ridge Vineyards

And our proud offerings from 2011:

Anthem Winery, Arnot-Roberts, Bond, Cardinale, Diamond Creek, Freemark Abbey, Harlan Estate, Robert Keenan Winery, Promontory, and Rudd Oakville Estate.

RED WINE

OFF THE FULL BEATEN PATH

Looking for all the Alicante Bouchet and Petite Sirah you've always wanted? They have friends, too! Including Château Musar wines from Lebanon!

If you have not yet had the pleasure of delving into Musar, it is one of the true joys and works of art in the wine world. Started by Gaston Hochar in 1939, it was elevated to world fame by his son Serge. Serge was decanter magazine's first winemaker of the year in 1984. Every vintage is unique, and has a life of its own.

His son Marc once said, "Musar is unintelligible until about 8 years old, progresses to be moody but still develops until about 20 years, then starts to shine and only gets better and wiser with age." Sounds just like the rest of us. More vintages to come!
