2019 NFL DRAFT

Former T Richmond Webb will announce Miami's second-round pick

Miami Dolphins FOOTBALL UNITES™ community partners participating in a cultural tour

DAY 2 DRAFT PICK ANNOUNCERS

In 2019, the Miami Dolphins will have an alumnus announce a draft selection on behalf of the team for the ninth-consecutive year. Former tackle Richmond Webb will announce the team's second-round selection.

Since the NFL began the tradition of having notable alumni from each franchise announce teams' picks in 2011, former Dolphins who have stepped to the podium include defensive back Sam Madison, who held the honor in 2011, Hall of Fame guard Larry Little in 2013, 2014 and 2017, Hall of Fame center Dwight Stephenson in 2012 and 2015, and Hall of Fame fullback Larry Csonka in 2016.

Miami Dolphins running back Kenyan Drake is scheduled to announce the team's third-round selection. Drake was a third-round pick (73rd overall) by Miami in the 2016 NFL draft and has played in 48 consecutive games – every game of his three-year NFL career.

MANNING THE PHONES

If you watch the NFL draft, you might notice the cameras focusing in on club representatives who are on the phones at NFL Draft headquarters in Nashville, as the picks of each NFL team get closer. What are they saying and who are they on the phone with?

These are the people responsible for submitting their team's draft choices to NFL personnel. Not only is it their job to fill out the card with their team's selections, but they also keep their club executives abreast of other teams' choices as well as any trades that take place during the course of the draft.

The two people responsible for this function for the Dolphins are equipment manager Joe Cimino and team operations manager Matt Langer. It will be the 16th time on the draft floor for Cimino and Langer's third draft on the phone. Cimino is in his 26th season with the Dolphins, while Langer is in his sixth season with the club.

DAY 3 DRAFT PICK ANNOUNCERS

The Day 3 draft pick announcers will honor the Miami Dolphins community theme of #TeamWorkAtWork, an initiative to level the playing field through the power of teamwork to inspire a healthier, more educated and united South Florida community.

The Miami Dolphins Foundation tapped 16-year-old cancer survivor and Dolphins Cancer Challenge (DCC) participant Sonia Rodriguez to make a draft announcement. The DCC was founded in 2010 by the Miami Dolphins organization as the signature initiative of the Foundation's health area. The DCC's mission is to improve people's lives through financial support for innovative cancer research at South Florida's only academic-based cancer center – Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center, part of UHealth -- the University of Miami Health System. Since its inception, the DCC has raised more than $27.5 million, donating 100 percent of participant-raised funds to Sylvester.

Several members of the Miami Dolphins FOOTBALL UNITES™ partners also will be on hand to make draft announcements throughout the day as well. Through FOOTBALL UNITES™, the Dolphins have created opportunities for South Florida-based groups to strengthen and expand their impact around community engagement, education and justice reform. Below are the organizations that will have representatives on hand:

- 5000 Role Models
- ADL Women of Tomorrow
- Miami Gardens Police Dept. Explorers
- Pridelines
- Special Olympics

Additionally, the seventh round draft pick will be announced from Nashville by Dolphins fan Jon Roure and his 10-year-old son Luc Roure.

2018 NFL DRAFT BREAKDOWN

DOLPHINS IN THE FIRST ROUND

THE DOLPHINS' TOP CHOICE

The Dolphins have used a first-round pick to select a variety of positions with the offensive and defensive lines producing 11 players each – the most of any position. Miami has used its top pick overall to select an offensive lineman 13 times, which is tops in franchise history. Conversely, the Dolphins have never used their top pick to select a kicker or punter and only once has the team used their first selection in a draft to pick a tight end. The only tight end selected with the team's top pick came in 1970 when Jim Mandich was the team's second-round pick.

The chart on the right shows the breakdown of the Dolphins' top picks as well as first-round selections by position.

2019 NFL COMPENSATORY PICKS

The NFL awarded a total of 32 compensatory choices to 16 teams in the 2019 NFL draft. Since 1994, when the NFL began awarding compensatory picks, Miami has made 20 compensatory selections. The Dolphins were not awarded any compensatory picks in the 2019 NFL draft.

Under the rules for compensatory draft selections, a team losing more or better compensatory free agents than it acquires in the previous year is eligible to receive compensatory draft picks.

The compensatory picks will be positioned within the third through seventh rounds based on the value of the compensatory free agents lost.

Compensatory picks may be traded. A rule change approved by clubs in 2015 permits compensatory draft picks to be traded beginning in 2017.

Compensatory free agents are determined by a formula based on salary, playing time and postseason honors. The formula was developed by the NFL Management Council. Not every free agent lost or signed by a club is covered by this formula.

DOLPHINS COMPENSATORY PICKS HISTORY

The Dolphins have been awarded 20 compensatory picks since 1994 when the NFL instituted the current formula for awarding teams that have net losses during free agency. The Dolphins only selected players with 19 of those, as they traded one during the 2017 NFL draft.

The 2019 NFL draft was the 15th time in 26 drafts (since 1994) the Dolphins were not awarded a compensatory selection. The most compensatory selections made by the team in one draft occurred in 2003 when four players were selected with compensatory picks.

The highest compensatory selection made by the Dolphins came in 1997 when linebacker Derrick Rodgers was picked in the third round with the 92nd overall selection.

DT Davon Godchaux was selected with the 178th pick, the second of Miami's compensatory selections in 2017.

LB Derrick Rodgers was the team's highest compensatory selection in history, going 92nd overall in the 1997 NFL draft.
