Julie Wilson serves as our Director of Finance and Administration. With a combination of public accounting, legal and in-house experience in finance, she brings a broad base of technical and practical know-how with an unwavering commitment to excellence.

Julie leads our finance operations. She is responsible for many of the internal functions including accounting, finance, human resources and IT.

Analytical by nature, Julie is always looking for ways to improve processes. She is energized by collaborating with others and enjoys using technology to create efficiencies. With her keen attention to detail, she's skilled at turning voluminous technical data into valuable insights.

Prior to joining our firm, Julie spent almost two decades in a finance leadership role with a nurse consulting firm that specializes in litigation support. Her work included financial and operational oversight, developing and implementing financial strategies, policies and procedures, and optimizing operational efficiency.

Julie started her career at a Big Four accounting firm in audit for nine years, working with a diverse portfolio of clients, ranging from Fortune 500 companies to startups. During college, she worked full-time as a paralegal at a Portland law firm, assisting attorneys with legal research, drafting legal documents, and managing complex litigation cases.
