

Hammock Snakeroot

Description: native; leaves have serrated edges and give off a musky smell; blooms in late fall; formerly in the genus Eupatorium but reclassified to Ageratina.

Family: Asteraceae

Scientific name:
Ageratina jucunda

For more information about NATL plants, visit <http://natl.ifas.ufl.edu/plants.htm>