

We are looking for a Media & Entertainment superstar who loves Mondays

Data and consumer insight are one of the most important value drivers for Media & Entertainment. We are looking for you who starts every week with thinking about how to make sense and value from all the data our clients have and inspire both your clients and coworkers with your vision and solutions.

Who we are

Nepa is a company at the crossroads of research, consulting and IT. We use technology and industry expertise to develop innovative and efficient research solutions that go beyond insights and enable action.

By combining survey, behavioral and business data, we make our clients truly customer-centric by tying what consumers say to what they actually do. Connecting the dots between data sets transforms the voice of the consumer into a concrete tool for decision-making with real financial impact. We call it the Action Hub™.

Headquartered in Stockholm, we have ongoing assignments in over 50 countries across four continents. Local presence in Sweden (HQ), Denmark, Finland, India, Norway, Oslo and the United Kingdom ensures hands-on service for our clients. Today we are 165 people working at Nepa globally having a turnover of 155 MSEK in 2015.

Our Swedish office is now looking for a Head of Media & Entertainment Sweden to join our office in Stockholm. You can read more about Nepa here

What you would do at Nepa

As Head of Media & Entertainment Sweden your main task will be to take our Media & Entertainment business to the next level. You will work with attracting new clients as well as developing our existing portfolio covering client such as TV4, MTG, Unibet, Sony Music and HBO Nordic and you will lead our local Media & Entertainment team. You will also be an integral part of our international expansion by collaborating closely with our Media & Entertainment experts throughout the world. You take pride in delivering high level of services. You are not afraid to work hard to achieve goals in a rapid growth environment while being humble, unpretentious and team-oriented.

What we are looking for

We are looking for someone who is passionate about media with 5+ years of experience from the media industry, with an emphasis on digital media. You have a degree within business, economics, engineering or equivalent. You have a strong drive to develop yourself and the ones around you, you have a genuine interest in the digital media landscape, you are in close touch with the latest trends and you are not afraid to work hard to achieve your goals. We are proud of our core values (Passion, Innovation and Cooperation) and assume that you share these values with us.

You are fluent in Swedish and English, both in writing and speech, as English is the corporate language.
