

Second Dedication: 3/15/05

I dedicate this collection to my friends Orville and Evelyn Brynelson and my parents George and Marion Greenwald. I especially thank James Steckel, Barbara Zhibkowski, Gustavo Betancourt, and Joshua Ellis, colleagues and computer experts extraordinaire, for their invaluable assistance. Kathy Hart, MUHS librarian, was most helpful in suggesting sources. I further thank Gaylan DuBose, Ed Long, Hugh Himwich, Susan Schearer, Gardy Warren, and Kaye Warren for their encouragement and advice. My former students and now Classics professors Daniel Curley and Anthony Hollingsworth also deserve mention for their advice, assistance, and friendship. My student Michael Kocorowski encouraged and provoked me into beginning this dictionary. Certamen players Michael Fleisch, James Ruel, Jeff Tudor, and Ryan Thom were inspirations. Sue Smith provided advice. James Radtke, James Beaudoin, Richard Hallberg, Sylvester Kreilein, and James Wilkinson assisted with words from modern foreign languages. Without the advice of these and many others this dictionary could not have been compiled. Lastly I thank all my colleagues and students at Marquette University High School who have made my teaching career a joy.

Basic sources:

American College Dictionary (ACD)
American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language (AHD)
Oxford Dictionary of English Etymology (ODEE)
Oxford English Dictionary (OCD)
Webster's International Dictionary (eds. 2, 3) (W2, W3)
Liddell and Scott (LS)
Lewis and Short (LS)
Oxford Latin Dictionary (OCD)
Schaffer: Greek Derivative Dictionary, Latin Derivative Dictionary

In addition many other sources were consulted; numerous etymology texts and readers were helpful. Zeno's Word Frequency guide assisted in determining the relative importance of words. However, all judgments (and errors) are finally mine. Many internet sites added variety. Vobis multas gratias.

Underlined words from genus (OED, OLD, W3), from genu (ODEE.)

N.B. I am not confident that I have divided the words from genus and γενος correctly. OED says suffixes -gen, -generous, -gene are all ultimately from γενος. For most words I have followed that guideline, although it goes against my instincts. Like pono/παυω perhaps a lot of fire about very little!

OLD says germanus from germen which may be from either gero or gigno. Gigno, gens, and genus are all related.

inhibeo: control; praebeo: furnish; prohibeo: forbid

N.B. Many words compound -able, -ible, -ability, -ibility.

-ability, ability, -able, able, able-bodied, ableism, -ably, ably, adhibit, avoirdupois, binnacle, cohabit, cohabitant, cohabitation, cohabitee, cohabiter, disability, disable, disabled, disablement, disabler, disenable, dishabile, disinhibit, disinhibition, doable, enable, enablement, enabler, exhibit, exhibition, exhibitionism, exhibitionist, exhibitionistic, exhibitive, exhibitor, exhibitory, habeas corpus, habena, habenula, habile, habiliments, habilis, habilitate, habilitation, habilitative, habit, habitability, habitable, habitancy, habitant, habitat, habitate, habitation, habitative, habitee, habitual, habitually, habitualness, habituate, habituation, habitude, habitue, habitus, homo habilis, -ibility, -ible, -ibly, inability, inhabit, inhabitability, inhabitable, inhabitance, inhabitancy, inhabitant, inhabitation, inhabitiveness, inhibit, inhibited, inhibitedly, inhibitingly, inhibition, inhibitionism, inhibitive, inhibitor, inhibitory, maladive, malady, microhabitat, nonhabitual, opium habit, overability, overinhibited, possibility, possible, possibilism, possibilist, possibilistic, possibly, prebendary, prohibit, prohibition, prohibitionism, prohibitionist, prohibitive, prohibitively, prohibitor, prohibitory, provender, redhibition, rehab, rehabilitant, rehabilitate, rehabilitation, topoinhibition, unable, uninhabitable, uninhabited, uninhibited, uninhibitedly

OLD denies that dubito = duo + habeo. See also debeo.

W2 lists average from habeo; OED, ODEE, W3 disagree.

N.B. The suffix -able (-ible), -ably (-ibly), -ability, (-ibility) is used in thousands of words, including many whose root is not derived from Latin. If the root is not derived from Latin, the word is omitted. Most derived from Latin are omitted here; they are indicated in the reverse index with an underlining.

Have is not a derivative of habeo; have is cognate with capio.

LS suggests ripa and rivus are related; OLD separates them completely.

ODEE, OED, and W3 agree on separating the two Latin words and also agree on the derivation of English words from each. But common sense would seem to say that ripa and rivus, if not originally related, clearly have merged for purposes of derivation. For the purist two separate lists are maintained.
