THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A life-long Catholic friend of mine recently mumbled to me, "I can't stand all these converts to the faith. They're always rocking the boat." It surprised me because he is dedicated to evangelization, and yet he struggles with openness to new Catholics. It made me realize how easily I close my heart to those whom I perceive to be outsiders who become new members of the Catholic community. Almost unconsciously, I reduce the world to the categories of "us" and "them." The result is that meaningful community silently shrinks in my life. Don't we all do that to some degree?

This week, Jesus' punchy parable about the two sons blows up that black and white world. One son said he wouldn't get to work and then did. The other said he would, and then he did not. "Which did the will of his father?" asks the Lord. Like so many of us, in identifying the first as the answer, the religious authorities manifest hidden hypocrisy in refusing to follow Jesus. They — like us — intuit the correct path but simply won't do it. The tax collectors and prostitutes are indeed following Jesus and thereby getting to work in the kingdom of God. Everyone is called to do God's will regardless of the labels we may apply to them.

This week, let's reject the convenient but damaging categories of "insiders" and "outsiders." Instead, let's embrace a grateful attitude that Jesus is calling fallen, weak, and broken men and women like you and me. Then we begin to see that the tax collectors and prostitutes aren't them. They are us. And Jesus wants all of us working in his boat, no matter the rocking.

~ Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, October 8th Readings

Sunday: Is 5:1-7/Ps 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20 (Isaiah 5:7a)/Phil 4:6-9/Mt 21:33-43

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 8th

- The prophet Isaiah uses the metaphor of a vineyard to express God's anger with Israel. How do you communicate your displeasure with a loved one?
- Paul teaches the Philippians that prayer and a positive attitude is key to settling our anxious hearts and minds. What have you been anxious about this week that using Paul's advice could help?
- In the parable of the tenants, Jesus harshly criticizes the chief priests and elders of Jerusalem and traps them with their own judgment. How well do you accept legitimate criticism?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

TESTIMONIAL BY PARISHIONER MARY ANN BECKMAN

Time. It is our most precious asset. The time we spend with our family and friends (think of meals, tucking kids into bed, playing a game, chatting over coffee) is what creates the bond we have with them. The depth of this bond is directly related to the amount of time we've spent together. There is no substitute for it, it can't be rushed, it happens incrementally. This is exactly what happens in adoration. Just sitting in the presence of the One who created me is such a privilege that I spend time in awe of the idea. Time discussing life, family, work, gratitude, struggles, goals, and asking Him about each of these. Time telling Him thank you, I'm sorry, help me more. Sometimes I fall asleep, and when that happens, I thank Him for the rest.

When I leave adoration, the rest of the day has a different feeling because of the time I've had with our Lord. That time changes me, but I can't wait for the perfect time to visit. Part of the beauty of adoration is having a scheduled time and being faithful to it no matter how I am feeling. The benefits are cumulative; the days I'm dry and the days I am overwhelmed with love, days I complain, days I am happy and grateful all work together to deepen my friendship with the Lord. Is there a better way to spend time?

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Refried Beans, Toilet Paper, Paper Towels, Cleaning Supplies, Small Jars of Creamy or Crunchy Peanut Butter

The Gospel today on the Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time is a great example of saying "actions speak louder than words." As part of our St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP) Society Mission Statement, members witness God's love by embracing all works of charity and justice. The Society collaborates with other people of good will in relieving need and addressing its causes, making no distinction among those served because, in them, members see the face of Christ.

As you put your gifts in the SVDP Poor Boxes, know that you are putting your faith into action.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of job or an illness? If so, please contact the St. Charles Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 262-367-0800, we want to help! The SVDP pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and is open on Tuesday morning between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm.
