Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

Christmas Cup is the stakes race for two time winning 3YO and upper, is conducted at 1,600m turf course at Nakayama.

My favourite is SOUTHERN STATE. He graduated the class for one time winners at Nakayama on 10th September and finished second in the stakes race for two time winners at Nakayama on 24th September. The latter was a good effort and I thought the 4YO colt by AMERICAN PATRIOT would graduate the class for two time winners soon. However, SOUTHERN STATE was beaten ninth in the allowance race for two time winners at Nakayama on 10th December. I understand there were two reasons why he ran poorly. Firstly, it was the first start for him since 24th September and he needed the race. Secondly, he had a traffic problem on homestretch and could not have a smooth run. I am not surprised if SOUTHERN STATE graduates this class on Sunday.

My second choice is CONTRAPPOSTO. This 3YO colt has started only seven times and finished within first four in all seven starts. I regard his form in the allowance race for two time winners at Tokyo on 25th November highly, as it was the first start for CONTRAPPOSTO in the class for two time winners and the competition was quite tough. CONTRAPPOSTO won the allowance race for one time winners over the same course and distance as Christmas Cup and I judge this is his favourite track.

My third choice is SAAI ROANG, who finished second in the allowance for two time winners at Tokyo on 25th November. While the 4YO gelding by DEEP IMPACT is not a consistent horse as there is a temperament issue, he is good on his day. If he re-produces his form as last start on Sunday, I believe he has a good chance to finish within the first three.

My fourth choice is STUNNING STAR. The British-bred filly has a gorgeous pedigree on her background, as her sire is mighty FRANKEL and her dam is STACELITA, winner of six G1s in France and USA. And she is full-sister to SOUL STIRRING, JRA Champion Filly at 2 and 3. To be honest, her race record so far is disappointing, however, I think she has shown a part of her hidden ability when she finished second in the allowance race for two time winners at Tokyo on 15th October. While light weight, 117lbs, and rain-softened ground might help her, strong pace was not suitable for her who tracked leaders from third position and finished only neck behind the winner. I have seen a lot of well-bred runners improved dramatically in short term.

LYRA STAR is my fifth choice. The 4YO gelding finished within the first four in the three starts in a row this spring, although the race surface were dirt. Though this is the first start for him since 12th August, he has been trained well since last month at Miho Training Centre and I believe he is ready to run his race on Sunday.
