CONTRIBUTORS

This book DESCENDANTS OF THE REVEREND BENJAMIN DOGGETT of VIRGINIA. Owe its existence to the wishes and combined efforts of many individuals.

MARTHA McDANIEL THOMPSON (A CERTIFIED GENEALOGIST) took my collection of Doggett books and files of collecting over the years, she organized the material. She spent a good many days with microfilm, putting in the missing links, she found in her travels all over the United States. She put the material all together with an index and typed it. Martha is a housewife, retired teacher, raised five children, helped her husband with his business in construction and is now writing books for sale on her many family names. Our longtime friendship cannot be adequately expressed.

RETIRED ARMY MAJOR CARAWAY GEORGE with his lovely wife LOUISE have contributed many years re-historical records of families in Siskiyou County, census, great registers and cemeteries, all being published in the Genealogical Society of Siskiyou Quarterly. He wrote me many letters with family information. He also placed a U.S. Veteran Bronze Plaque on the grave of my great grandfather John Doggett for his service in the Mexican War, who is buried in the Doggett Ranch Graveyard, and contains about thirty people, family and neighbors.

ANNA DOGGETT DOGGETT, one of the first who sent material from her DOGGETT book, she was sure we might be related and have found we are! She was a great lady. She sent her picture and many letters.

GEORGE H. DAGGETT and wife SIDNEY went thousands of miles all over the United States collecting Daggett-Doggett material. They generously shared their material and encouraged me. They revised and published original Doggett-Daggett book, also a supplement of JOHN DAGGETT of MARTHA'S VINEYARD. Another SUPPLEMENT TO THOMAS DOGGETT OF MARSHFIELD and WILLIAM DOGGETT OF SACO.

JAMES DEAN DOGGETT, shared material, letters and sources of other that fitted into my lineage. James is more than a busy man, I wish him luck in his genealogical projects.

CHARLES N. EDMONSTON and wife VIVIAN, who is a Doggett descendant shared records collected in many states. The humorous experiences of places and genealogy were also shared.

GRAYCE PEARL McCARTHY, Beal my cousin who is more like a sister, for years has sent clippings, copies of Bible records, copies of family pictures and much encouragement.

PEARL DOGGETT CONROY my sister, RUSSELL DOGGETT and FRANK DOGGETT my brothers all sent clippings, notes of people, stories and pictures.

MRS. ADA LANGE BLACK, loaned books, helped with history of people.

MRS. MINNIE LANGE CRAWFORD gave excellent information on her family and others, and furnished pictures.

ELBERTA YARBROUGH BOSCH, compiled and typed her family, brothers and sisters also notes on some of her cousins Freshours.

MAXINE FRESHOUR MEEK, compiled her whole family and stories of each brother and sister.

ALICE FRANCES DOGGETT FRESHOUR, one of the first to start sending Doggett information also her encouragement. I wish she could have seen it finished.

CHESTER BARTON provided many pictures and stories of early day pioneers.

BERT JACKSON, loaned pictures to copy and many stories.

"JOE" JULIUS LANGE, stories of John Clarke Doggett and his own family.

MRS. FRED JENSEN loaned pictures from the Elizabeth Hetchel Jensen Collection.

The LDS CHURCH in Salt Lake and Redding very helpful many times.

The SHASTA COUNTY LIBRARY for many long hours spend using their books.

The SONOMA COUNTY LIBRARY in Santa Rosa spent many hours there.

SUTRO LIBRARY STAFF loaned books and copied a few pages from books, too precious to send out.

CALIFORNIA STATE HISTORICAL LIBRARY in Sacramento very helpful.

The MISSOURI STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY helped many times. Columbia Mo.

BERYL RAMEY BELDEN, who publishes her own books on the family names copied every Doggett name she ran across.

The SISKIYOU COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY, Yreka, CA. Permission to use notes of stories on the Doggett's.

MRS. HOWARD WOODRUFF, Independence, MO sent bits of Doggett she found. Her books are great.

MRS. WM. WOOD, genealogist, Columbia, MO sent excellent material.

GEORGE ELY RUSSELL furnished Russell material never found before, other names.

FRANCES RUSSELL NELSON, quarterlies furnished Russell, Campbell lines with her many other names she prints.

The NEW ENGLAND HISTORICAL and GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY was used the most often for family histories.

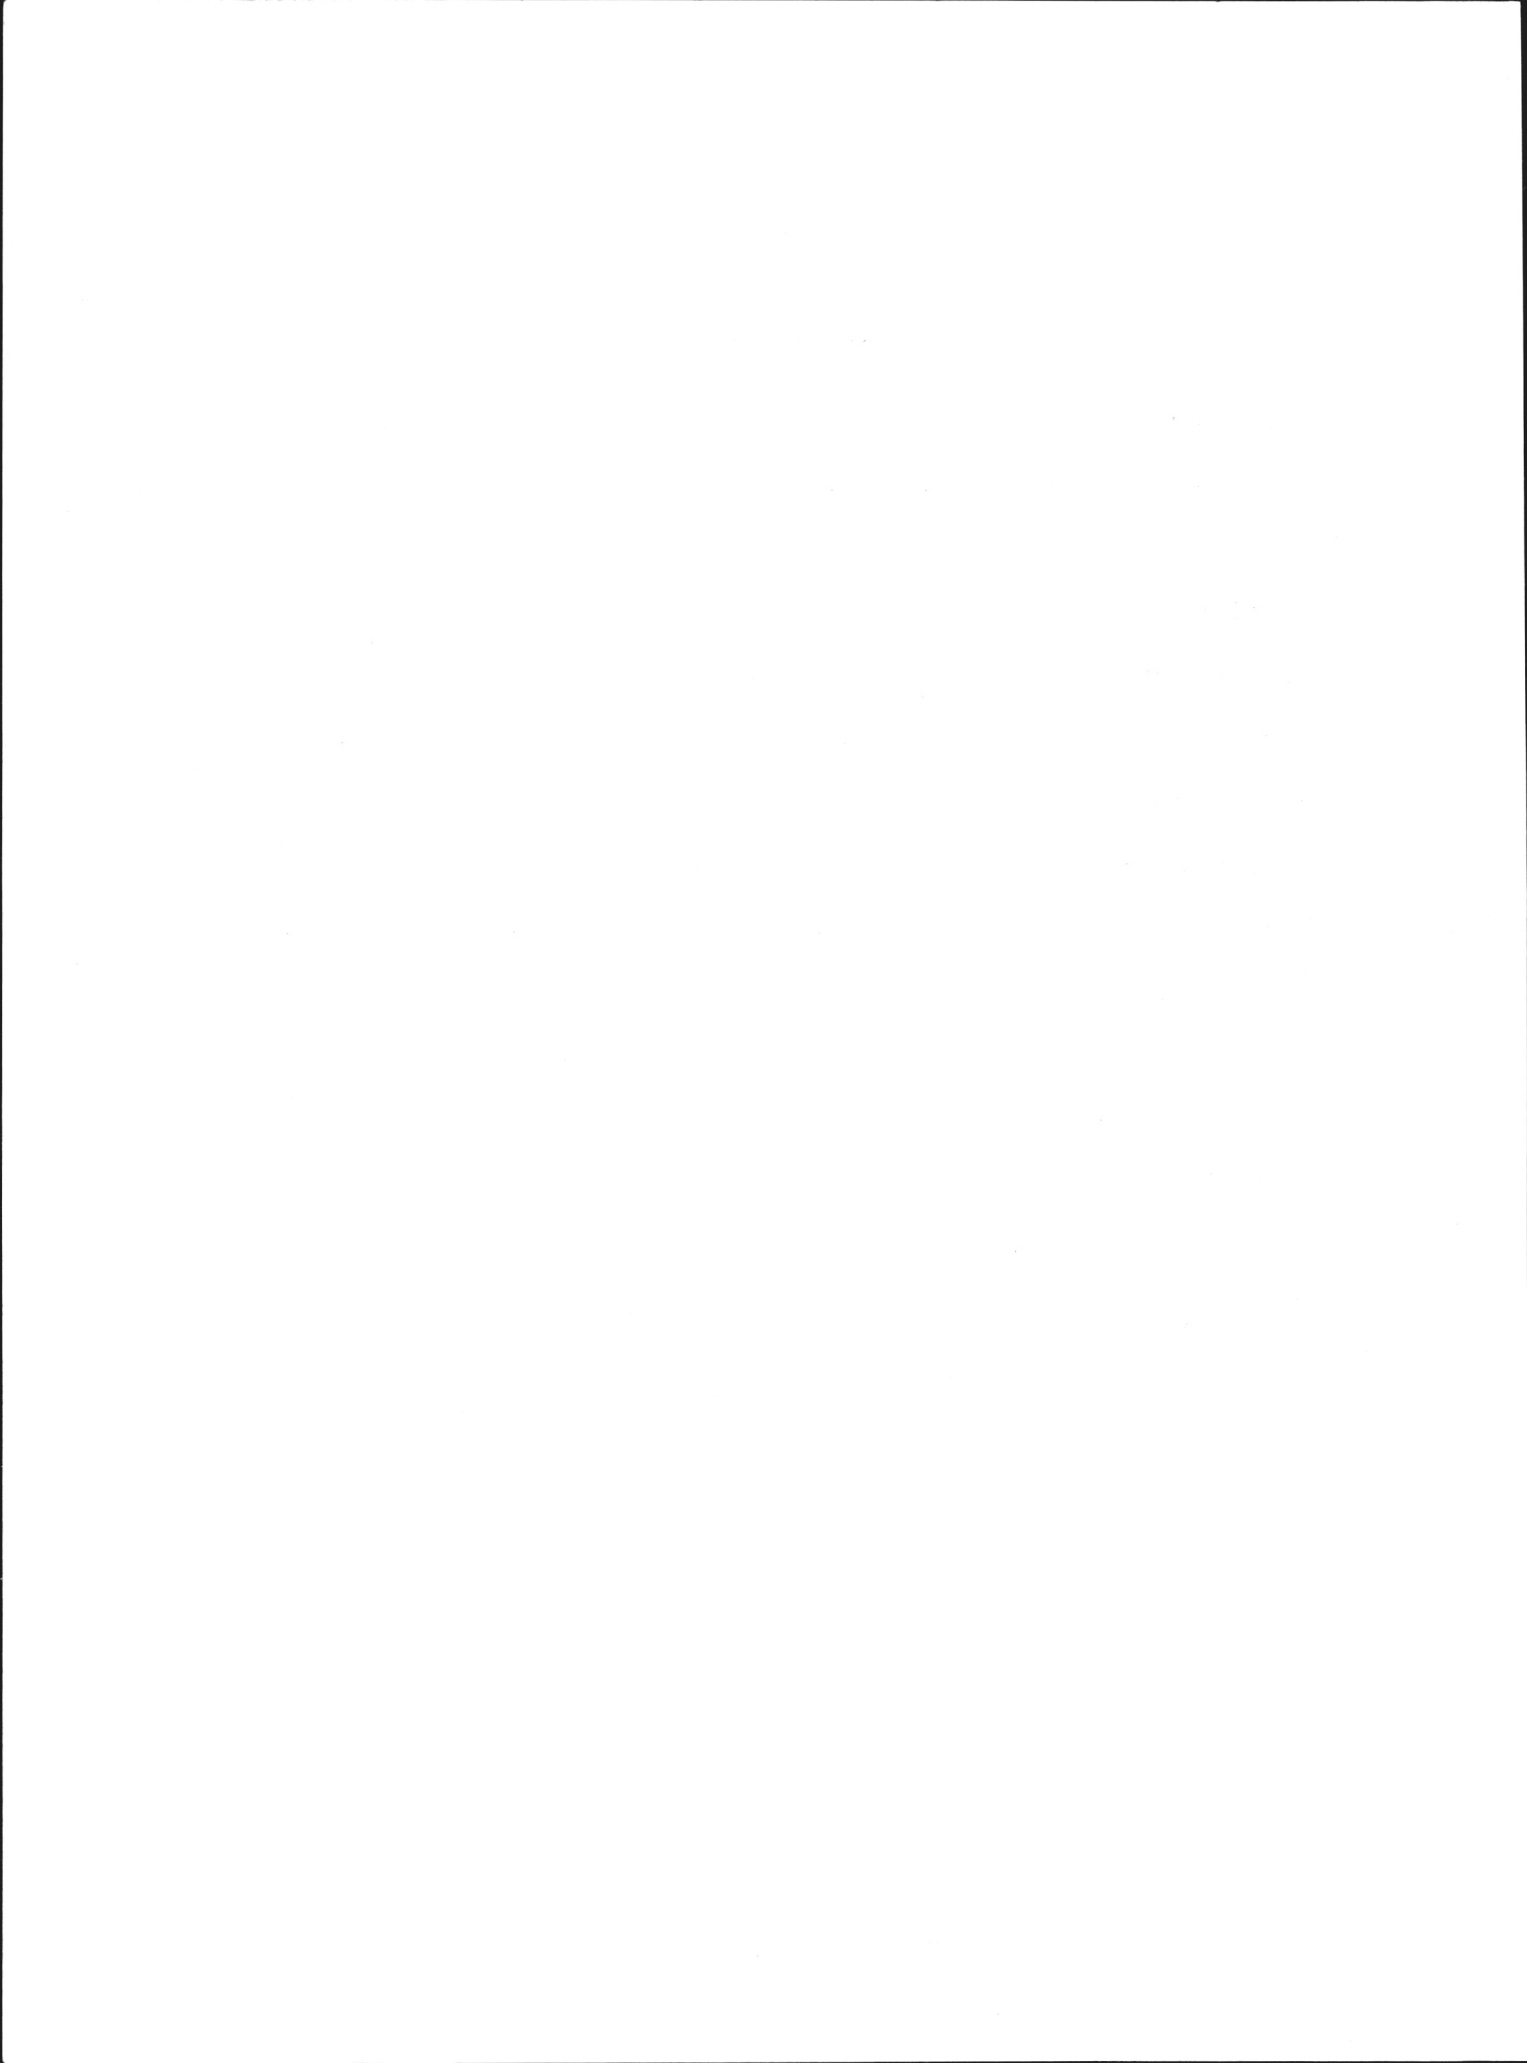

LINCOLN HEFLIN, my husband sat through years of papers piled all over the flat surfaces handy. Waited patiently at Libraries and photocopiers. Even cooked some and washed dishes now and then. When I became too tired he gathered me for a short drive to get away for a while. Lincoln passed away 29th June 1987

Many people, not mentioned, I thank you all, you made this book possible.

MONA MAE WILDER a close friend and talented genealogist who gave the most training over many years. She knew all the good genealogists who were accurate and dependable. She was one of the largest contributors of materials in the Dr. Wilder book on Wilders. Her sister and she covered the United States ten times in the summers after being school teachers all winter. Her notes list towns, buildings, books, pages and volumes.

REV. BENJAMIN DOGGETT'S FAMILY

Chapter 1. Rev. Benjamin Doggett in England and America.

Information on two Doggett families in America was collected and compiled by Samuel Bradlee Doggett in the History of the Doggett/Daggett Family. They were the families of John Doggett of Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts who was a pioneer in Watertown, Massachusetts in 1630 and of Rev. Benjamin Doggett who was in Lancaster, County, Virginia by 1670.

John was the uncle of Rev. Benjamin Doggett. It is known by the St. Mary le Power Church records of Ipswich, County Suffolk, England that Rev. Benjamin Doggett was christened there on 28 October 1637. He was the son of William Doggett baptized at Boxford, County Suffolk in 1599. William was the brother of John who was baptized at Boxford, County Suffolk in 1602. William and John were sons of William Doggett and Avice Lappadge of Boxford.

DOGGETT SURNAME:

The Doggett surname is one of the oldest in England. It is in the records as early as the 12th century. The name first appears as Duchet (Ducket) and as late as 1601 there was some confusion in regards to "Doggett" and "Duckett".

COAT OF ARMS:

The coat of arms pictured is one of about a dozen Doggett/Daggett English Coat of Arms.

The greyhound figures prominently in their coat of arms. In olden times the greyhound was not allowed to be possessed by any save the princes and nobles until much later times. The killing or maiming of one was a felony punishable with death. The use of the greyhound is coursing. The great event in coursing circles in England is the "Waterloo Cup" of considerable value, which is run for at Altear, near Liverpool, annually.

The term "greyhound" is a corruption of the word "gazehound" signifying that it pursues its games by sight and not by scent.

Description of arms: Sable, two greyhounds combatant, or.

Note: The pay of Rev. Benjamin Doggett was evidently in tobacco. The pay of an earlier minister was 10,000 pounds of tobacco "in cask". The Vestry men were supposed to collect the tobacco and deliver it in casks ready for sale. A boxed compartment for receiving tobacco was built in Old Christ Church. All persons were required to attend church services on Sundays. A fine of 50 pounds of tobacco was imposed on those who failed to attend. Frances Jane Doggett was raised on the Doggett Ranch when times were hard. She helped with the ranch work and was an excellent horse back rider. At eleven years of age she was very much alone so her brother "Dick" Wm. Davis decided she should get some schooling and arranged for her to attend a school academy in Yreka as her father was spending all his time mining. John soon married a Mrs. Sarah Jane Redman. - 675b Harry William Doggett Jr. b Yreka, CA 23 Feb. 1913 d Yreka CA 27 Jul. 1922. On July 27, 1922 Harry William Doggett Jr. had a tragic accident. When he was cutting willows in a gulch in the hayfield at the Doggett Oaks Ranch, a snake suddenly struck him in the head without warning. During July, the snake season, they are apt to act quickly. The mowing machine run by the hired man was also making a lot of disturbing noise. The snake was very large, and its fangs punctured the left side of the brain. Despite the best efforts of the family, neighbors and the doctor, Harry Jr. died at 5 o'clock the next am.

Bishop David Seth Doggett was born in the old family homestead and received his elementary education in the neighboring schools there. After the death of his father, he was placed in the Northumberland academy. At age 17 he was converted to the Methodist Episcopal Church. He spent a year teaching school in Orange Co. VA while studying for the ministry. On Feb. 1829 he was admitted on trial into the Virginia Conference and appointed junior preacher in the Roanoke Circuit in NC being in the bounds of the VA Conference. He became a very popular minister. He returned to VA and continued his ministry there throughout his life.

The Yancey Family

Ann Yancey m George Doggett

According to this family's tradition four Welchman, Charles, William, Joel and Robert Yancey came to Virginia in 1642 with Sir William Berkeley, afterwards Governor, and settled in the James River region and prospered. There must have been another brother John for in the "Crawford Book" there is a "John Yances came from Wales about the middle of the 17th century". His family is known. From one of the original four was a son Lewis Davis Yances in Culpeper County, Virginia about 1710.

2.1 Charles Yancey

Lewis Davis Yancey was the sone of one of the above four Yanceys of family tradition. It was probably Charles Yancey because of the prominence of the name Charles to the exclusion of the other three names William, Joel and robert.

3.1 Lewis Davis Yancey was in Culpeper County, Virginia ca 1710.

m Mildred Kavanaugh d/o Charles Kavanaugh of Irish Parentage who owned a large estate of 40,000 acres in Culpeper County. This trace extended westward and above the Beverly line up Muddy Run to Judge Field's Mills, across by Poor Town to Gibson's Mill on Mountain Run. A portion of this land he bequeathed to his daughter Mildred, which portion has never been out of the Yancey Family and is still owned by Benjamin M. Yancey, a great great grandson. Lewis Davis lived and was buried on the estae of Benjamin, "Arlington".

ROBERT DELBERT FRESHOUR BY HIS DAUGHTER MAXINE FRESHOUR MEEK

"My father wasn't quite four-months old when his mother died. An old Indian women (she was young then) named Nelson nursed him and cared for Walter and May until their father married. I remember Grandma Nelson (as everyone called her). She had a blue ink marknumber "111" put on her chin by the government. She tried to remove the number 111 from her chin. I was told she used lye. She got rid of the 111, but her lower lip and chin were deformed. She had a grandson named Gorman Nelson that she cared for and raised. I remember my parents saying what a handful he was to raise. She was a good person — wish I knew more about her.

"My father was a great one for mining. I know he worked in the Doggett mines. Also one Joseph Freshour Jr had theirs on the Klamath River. He had a mine up Greenhorn Creek, back of Yreka. He had what was called a stamp hill. He did pretty well here. He also with my brothers John and Robert built a large log cabin.

"The men went back down the Klamath at Walker. We went to the same school house my mother attended. It was a one room school house. There's a plaque now where the school was.

"My sister Hazel Freshour White and husband have a home built above the place where the school was."

My oldest son Ron works for the State Highway. He likes to plow snow. I worked for the Collins Pine Company in the sawmill as a millwright or welder's helper. The mill closed down during the holidays and that is when we have to repair it. My youngest son is here working for the flakeboard division of Collin's Pine, so we have relatives close. Most of us have been here since May 1968."
