Letter from the Publishers

Dear Readers,

As we begin our 21st year as the publishers of the Performing Arts Magazines, we want to stop and take a moment to say thank you. Thank you to the arts groups for the incredible shows they produce for our enjoyment each year. Thank you to the ticket buyers and and the patrons of the arts for their love of the performing arts, and thank you to our advertisers who have loyally supported our publications throughout the years.

When asked if advertising in the Performing Arts Magazines works, we simply point to an incredible statistic...over 90 percent of our annual advertisers renewed last year, and even more amazing...over 80 percent of our major advertisers have advertised consistently for more than 10 years. Reading between the statistical lines...clearly the business community understands that the performing arts' audience is a very important market to reach. If you want to learn more about how your company can benefit from an annual ad buy please go to: GloverGroupEntertainment.com or give us a call at 615-373-5557. We provide Nashville and Franklin with a one-stop option for arts and entertainment information as well as advertising.

In addition to the Performing Arts Magazines, it's also our great pleasure each year to provide local readers and visiting tourists with an annual guide to arts and entertainment. Be sure to pick up a copy of Nashville Arts & Entertainment Magazine at your favorite newsstand location, or go to: NAEmag.com. We are also pleased to be the official magazine in all 800 rooms of the Omni Hotel.

TPAC PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the Tennessee Performing Arts Center where, to quote the brochure for our current HCA/TriStar Health Broadway at TPAC series, we encourage you to be yourself – to challenge, celebrate, express, and find yourself at TPAC.

This message also describes our exciting work in arts education. Children who take part in our programs learn more about themselves as they explore characters and work together to put on a performance through TPAC Education's Disney Musicals in Schools. In the classroom, TPAC teaching artists collaborate with educators, using arts integration to weave school subjects into exciting learning projects. In addition to documented improvements in academic achievement and graduation rates, arts education encourages self-expression, confidence, creative problem solving, and critical thinking – all vital to a child's success in school and life.

When football superstar Eddie George received our 2014 Applause Award in August for his work in theatre over the past decade, he noted:

"Actors influence what people become in life. Whether that's a cop, an astronaut, a doctor, an actor, or a poet, the characters played by actors have the power to influence what children become. In terms of social responsibility – like when political issues are explored in a theatrical fashion, in storytelling – children see where they come from and they're inspired to carry the torch for what they will become. That's so important... There's a saying I love: 'Inspiration begets creativity.' When you are inspired, that inspiration propels you. That's important for children and for people of any age."

As he so beautifully expressed, children see themselves on stage. Seeds are planted. Inspiration from watching a performance, putting on a musical, or taking part in an arts-based learning propels an exciting, fruitful process.

Whatever your age, I hope your TPAC experience is inspiring, challenging, and fun. Enjoy every minute of... just being yourself!

These scenes from Aladdin KIDS, The Aristocats KIDS, and The Little Mermaid JR capture the fun and excitement of Disney Musicals in Schools (DMIS) sponsored by the CMA Foundation. In addition to performing one musical number at TPAC for the annual Student Share in May, the musicals were performed for classmates and the general public at their schools. ## CLASSROOM LEARNING

History, science, social studies, literature, and math: All of these basic subjects taught in schools come to life on stage for student audiences at the Tennessee Performing Arts Center.

During the 2014-15 school year, the world's greatest operas and William Shakespeare's Hamlet lend insight into required literature.

Math and science take the spotlight through the experimental movement of young, athletic dancers and the scientific experiments of a zany character.

Students will venture into the fabled lessons of an African folk tale and the depths of the ocean.

History and social studies leap from page to stage when young people meet the masters of jazz, legendary singers, and the principals in a courtroom drama about an actual Tennessee trial.

Learning comes to life with fun performances and serious resources for educators, including guidebooks with detailed lesson plans.

"Even a quick look at the performance schedule reveals connections to curriculum and to the lives that our children lead," said Roberta Ciuffo, TPAC's Executive Vice President for Education and Outreach. "This year's season is especially exciting to me because the works of art meet children where they are. Each performance

ACTIVE, HANDS-ON LEARNING WITH

The education of our children is a leading priority for Nashville, Tennessee, and the nation. The challenges often seem overwhelming. At a time when new trends and standards seem to surface every year, TPAC Education is a constant, offering proven methods to improve academic achievement and pose children for success later in life.

This year, Project Based Learning (PBL) is getting a lot of attention. PBL training for teachers is now a major emphasis in school systems nationwide, including Metro Nashville Public Schools, where the approach has resulted in improved grades, attendance, and school involvement at the innovative Academies in local high schools.

What is Project Based Learning? PBL applies skills essential to success in school and the workplace – communication, collaboration, critical thinking and building confidence – to understanding of academic content. Integrating curriculum in more than one subject, PBL ties them together through one final project. A driving question focuses the process and leads to cross-curricular connections.

As the teaching method gains momentum, TPAC Education is uniquely positioned to offer educators opportunities to apply PBL through the arts. Take Swimmy by Leo Lionni, for example. Through TPAC Education, the staging of the classic children's story last year inspired the production of classroom puppet shows, integrating lessons in language and marine science, while encouraging creativity, collaboration, and other skills.

"We begin with a specific work of art and use a teaching method built on inquiry, interaction, and hands-on experience geared to different learning styles. Students are actively – not passively – learning. They take ownership and are more likely to retain what they've learned. Really, it's a common sense approach," said Leigh Jones, director of the

on the schedule is directly linked to academic requirements. Most are historically significant and all of them are relevant to the lives of children today and what they're learning."

The full 2014-15 schedule of TPAC Education's Season for Young People is:

Hangin' with the Giants, October 28-30, 2014, an interactive introduction to jazz from JazzReach, dedicated to the uniquely American art form;

Fisk University Jubilee Singers®, November 3, 2014, featuring Nashville's world renowned choral ensemble which first introduced spirituals to the world in 1871;

Before the People Came, November 11-14, 2014, a musical for the stage adapted by Nashville's Dr. jeff obafemi carr from an African folktale which emphasizes sharing, teamwork, and the value of diversity;

GOLD, December 4-5, 2014, from an internationally known dance company Cas Public of Montreal, featuring five young, athletic men and women who tap, spin, and tumble across the stage with daring physicality;

Hamlet, February 23-27, 2015, from American Shakespeare Center, recreating the festive sense of theatre in the Renaissance, with the audience sharing the same light as the actors;

Walking the Tightrope, March 4-6, 2015, winner of multiple Los Angeles theatre awards for Mike Kenny's play about a widower and his granddaughter who discover the meaning of family, celebrate life, and learn to accept death;

Look Out! Science is Coming! Doktor Kaboom, April 14-15, 2015, an engaging tour of the scientific method, mixing in equal parts of fact and fun;

Bleu!, April 28 - May 1, 2015, tracing a sailor's journey beneath the sea, revealing marine world and ancient Greek legends with music, dance, and a magic carpet with built-in sensors; and Burden of Justice: 1863, an in-school tour of a play by Nashville's Carolyn German adapted from the actual transcripts of a military trial about an incident in Dickson County, Tennessee, during the Civil War.

Before the People Came, Bleu!, GOLD, and Walking the Tightrope are also ArtSmart Focus Works.

Advocate! Encourage the teachers in your community to provide powerful learning experiences through TPAC Education programs at little or no cost to schools and students.

The 2014-15 Season for Young People is sponsored by

TPAC EDUCATION

TPAC Education program ArtSmart, the first affiliate of an arts education program pioneered by the Lincoln Center Institute. Through the program, classroom educators collaborate with TPAC teaching artists to meet learning goals across the curriculum.

ArtSmart units are available for specific performances in TPAC Education's annual Season for Young People.

For more information, contact Leigh Jones at LJones@TPAC.org or 615-687-4285.

Additionally, guidebooks provided to educators free of charge by TPAC Education contain traditional, detailed lesson plans and outlines for Project Based Learning.

Last school year, one of the performances on the Season for Young People was Give Yourself a High Five, adapted for the stage from TPAC Education's awardwinning CD for preschool children.

MEET THE 2014 TPAC TEACHER OF THE YEAR

Nelda Lee Sturgeon, a Prekindergarten Teacher at Robertson Academy, has been named the 2014 Teacher of the Year by the Tennessee Performing Arts Center.

Chosen for her standards of excellence in arts education, Sturgeon received the award from TPAC president and chief executive officer Kathleen O'Brien at the concert of Give Yourself a High Five in April and was recognized at TPAC Gala in August.

"I involve my students in TPAC Education programs because they offer a rich world of creativity and expression to each child. They foster a child's natural curiosity while being attentive to all learning styles. The total child is taught in a deep and meaningful way – individualized, yet engaging the entire group," said Sturgeon, who teaches gifted children through Metro Nashville Public School's ENCORE and has participated in TPAC's ArtSmart – the first national affiliate of a model developed by the Lincoln Center Institute – for more than 30 years.

"Arts education makes a huge difference to gifted children, who have special abilities and special needs—how they connect with other people and express themselves in ways that they are understood by others, setting the stage for how they handle challenges throughout their lives," she said. "ArtSmart units are developmentally appropriate, intellectually stimulating, and up to the challenge of meeting gifted criteria for higher-level thinking. I consistently find that all of my curriculum objectives are met."

A life-long resident of Nashville, Sturgeon was introduced to the arts at a young age herself by parents who took her to marionette shows at Nashville Public Library and plays at Chaffin's Barn Dinner Theatre. Her father Bob Lee, a salesman in the trucking industry, was, in fact, the first person to buy season tickets to Chaffin's where he often entertained clients.

"THEY'RE PROUD OF TPAC EDUCATION"

Combined, donations from members of "The Applause Society" exceed any other individual level of support for TPAC's educational mission as a non-profit organization.

Made in conjunction with the purchase of season tickets to the series of HCA/TriStar Health Broadway at TPAC, their donation gives them access to the best seats in Andrew Jackson Hall, complimentary valet parking, drink vouchers and other benefits. The grand total of gifts from Applause Society members adds up to 30% of all donations received from individuals.

"When we talk to our Applause Society donors, they constantly remind us that their gifts are not primarily about the incentives. They're proud of TPAC Education. They want to make a positive impact in our community through their direct support of our education and outreach efforts," said Charles Stewart, TPAC's vice president for institutional advancement.

"Our donors are investors in TPAC's mission. That's what they are – investors. They play a leading role in our mission to serve Tennessee students and teachers."

To invest in TPAC's mission at any donor level, visit TPAC.ORG/Donate or contact Angie Weeks at 615-687-4315 or AWeeks@TPAC.org.

Sure, we've long been known for our undergraduate academic success. But there's another group of students, already in the workplace, looking for a next step in their career. Many of them have found it with a master's degree from Lipscomb.

Last year, close to 1,700 professionals chose Lipscomb for an advanced degree—whether an entrepreneurial-driven MBA, a unique biomolecular science master's that has already attracted students from around the country, an informatics and analytics master's helping IT specialists meet head-on real-world data trends and challenges, or one of more than 25 others offered on nights, weekends and online.

In fact, our master's programs have been so successful they've grown by 685% since 2005. A large number, indeed. But not all that surprising from a university whose growth has always been measured by how well it's mastered its future.

WE'VE MASTERED OUR GROWTH IN WAYS YOU MAY NOT EXPECT.

Elevating education to a fine art.

It should come as no surprise that a school known for its academics is equally recognized for its fine art programs. Whether art, chorus, band, drama or theater, students are able to discover and pursue their own creative talents in new and exciting ways. As part of Lipscomb University, they are also able to do it on a much larger stage with access to first-class art studios, a variety of performance venues and collegiate-level instructional experiences.

Our choruses continue to receive high honors and top state rankings, outstanding musicals are performed year-round and, most recently, our band received superior ratings and was asked to perform at the state concert festival held at Vanderbilt's Blair School of Music.

Come by the campus for a tour, meet a few of our faculty or attend an upcoming information session. See just how we elevate our students to reach their potential...and beyond.

THE BOOK OF MORMON: THE TESTAMENT OF A BROADWAY MUSICAL

In celebration of the making of The Book of Mormon, the authors, production team, and entire original cast recount their experiences as they grew their show from the initial idea to opening night on Broadway. With the complete book and lyrics annotated by the full creative team and cast, along with more than 700 photographs and illustrations, they share the journey that began one night in a Manhattan bar and culminated seven years later in the achievement that is The Book of Mormon.

Cyndi Lauper's Tony Award-winning hit KINKY BOOTS arrives at TPAC FEBRUARY 3-8

Kinky Boots is the exhilarating Broadway musical that will lift your spirits to new high-heeled heights! Winner of six 2013 Tony Awards, including Best Musical, and inspired by a true story, Kinky Boots features a joyous, Tonywinning score by Cyndi Lauper, direction and Tony-winning choreography by Jerry Mitchell, and a hilarious, uplifting book by four-time Tony winner Harvey Fierstein.

"Kinky Boots deserved every Tony Award it won. It is a fun, fabulous show with a strong message," said Kathleen O'Brien, TPAC president and chief executive officer. "This musical shares strong values of friendship, love, and self-identity. I absolutely love this show and am proud that TPAC is an investor in the Broadway show as well as the tour."

In Kinky Boots, Charlie Price reluctantly inherits his father's shoe factory, which is on the verge of bankruptcy. Trying to live up to his father's legacy and save his family business, Charlie finds inspiration in the form of Lola, a fabulous entertainer in need of some sturdy stilettos. Lola turns out to be the one person who can help Charlie become the man he's meant to be. As they work to turn the factory around, this unlikely pair finds that they have more in common than they ever dreamed possible and discovers that when you change your mind about someone, you can change your whole world.

Experience Kinky Boots during its one-week engagement February 3-8, 2015, and discover why sometimes - the best way to fit in is to stand out!

TENNESSEEREPORG

Jose wanted to be a doctor, and he was hoping to get a soccer scholarship to Vanderbilt, but on June 4, 2007, his life changed forever. He was jogging when a driver stopped him and demanded money. When Jose said he didn't have any, the man pulled out a gun and started shooting. Jose was shot in the back and left paralyzed from the waist down "I was two weeks away from graduating with my medical assistant degree," he said. "I had something good going, but unfortunately that didn't happen, and it was a huge change for me." Jose couldn't find a job until Goodwill gave him a chance. As an employee at Goodwill Career Solutions, he now gets to help others find a job. "When I was in their shoes, Goodwill gave me strength to continue with life," he said. "It's nice to be able to pay it forward."
