MEDIA INFORMATION

The Arizona Athletic Media Relations Office will assist media throughout the season in its coverage of Arizona women's basketball including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press row operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services. Questions about media policies should be directed to Associate Director of Communications Services Hailey Loftin at hloftin@arizona.edu or (919) 801-3125.

FACILITIES ACCESS FOR MEDIA

The team locker room, sports medicine center and strength and conditioning center are off limits to media unless special arrangements have been made through the Athletic Media Relations office.

WEEKLY MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES

Head coach Adia Barnes and select players will be available before each contest to preview the upcoming game. These media opportunities will take place in the media center at the McKale Center. Each media opportunity will be scheduled on an individual basis and the media will be notified with ample time to plan.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews and photo requests must be arranged through Hailey Loftin. Interviews and photos can be conducted before or after practice or around class schedules, depending on the availability of the requested player. Player home or cell phone numbers will not be shared. Players are not available on game days until after contests.

COACHING STAFF INTERVIEWS

All coach interviews and photo requests must be arranged through Hailey Loftin. Coach home or cell phone numbers will not be given out.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Postgame press conferences for home games will take place in the McKale Center media room.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for press, radio, television and photographer credentials should be emailed at least 48 hours in advance to Hailey Loftin in the Communications Services Office at hloftin@arizona.edu. Passes are available for working media only and are required for all contests.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking on campus from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday is handled through the UA Office of News Services, Room 413, University Services Building, North Euclid Avenue at University Boulevard. All media needing parking at these times must obtain a permit from that office. All parking tickets are the responsibility of the perpetrator, not the Communications Services Office.

Parking access around the McKale Center on game day is on a first-come, first-served basis. There are no parking passes available for home games. Media parking for road games will be administered through the home SID.

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS

Any professional scouts wishing entry to an Arizona women's basketball game must contact Hailey Loftin to obtain credentials. Requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance and can be emailed to hloftin@arizona.edu. No parking passes are available. Scouts will have seating in the stands.

VISITING RADIO

Visiting radio stations wishing to broadcast any contests need to contact Brian Jeffries at (520) 626-7660 to make arrangements for telephone lines. You must specify the number of lines needed, as well as whether ISDN or regular phone lines are required.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Game notes and rosters will be available online only. Final stats will be posted online. No hard copies will be printed.

DIRECTIONS TO MCKALE CENTER

From Tucson International Airport: Follow Tucson Boulevard out of Tucson International Airport to Kino Parkway (three miles). Turn right on Kino Parkway and head north (Kino Parkway eventually becomes Campbell Avenue) for four miles. After crossing Sixth Street, take the first left and McKale center will be on your immediate right.

From Phoenix: Take I-10 south (approximately 100 miles). When arriving in Tucson, take the Speedway Boulevard exit. Turn left onto Speedway and go two and a half miles to Campbell Avenue. Turn right onto Campbell and go approximately one-third of a mile. Entry to McKale Center will be the first right after the light at Third Street.

Head Coach Adia Barnes

Adia Barnes was introduced as Arizona's head women's basketball coach on April 4, 2016 and agreed to a contract extension to lead the program through 2026 in May of 2021. The leading scorer in Arizona women's basketball history and a WNBA Champion, Barnes came to Tucson after serving as an assistant coach at the University of Washington for five seasons.

Barnes led the Wildcats to the National Championship game in the 2021 NCAA Tournament, the first time Arizona advanced past the Sweet 16 in school history.

Through her first six seasons as head coach, Barnes has won 110 games, the most of any

Arizona coach in program history in their first six seasons. She is also the only coach in school history to win at least 20 games four times in her first six seasons.

The 2021-22 season was another banner season that saw Barnes become the first coach in program history to win 20 or more games in four consecutive seasons. Arizona hosted and participated in the opening weekend of the NCAA Tournament in McKale Center for the first time since 1998 while reaching a record-breaking AP national ranking as high as fourth in the nation.

Her sixth season at the helm of the program also included a capturing of the Pac-12 attendance crown with an average crowd of 7,822, which ranked sixth nationally. Barnes also continued her world-class coaching experience with another stint with Team USA Basketball, working as a court coach for the U.S. Women's National Team's spring training camp.

In her fifth season, Barnes was a finalist for the WBCA Coach of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year. Heading into the NCAA Tournament, she became the 11th coach to play and coach in the NCAA Tournament at their alma mater. Once the Wildcats reached the National Championship game, she became the fourth coach to lead her alma mater to the title game.

Barnes became the youngest coach since 2014 to make the Final Four and was also the first coach since 2016 to reach the Final Four in their first five years as a head coach. She also helped Arizona become the first team ever to reach the National Championship game after missing the previous 10+ NCAA Tournaments.

During the 2021 NCAA Tournament, Arizona defeated UConn in the Final Four, which was the first time in school history Arizona knocked off both the No. 1 team in the nation as well as a 1-seed in the NCAA Tournament.

During the shortened 2020-21 season, Arizona still managed to win 20 games for the third year in a row, a feat that hasn't been seen since 2005. The Wildcats were ranked in the AP Top 10 14 times as well as ranked in the Top 25 all season long.

The Wildcats finished in second place in the loaded Pac-12, their highest finish since the 2003-04 season when Arizona won the Pac-10. During the year, Arizona swept the regular season series vs. Oregon for the first time in 10 years and also swept Oregon and Oregon State in the same weekend for the first time in 10 years.

Individually, Aari McDonald was named Pac-12 Player of the Year and Co-Defensive Player of the Year while being named an All-American by the WBCA, Associated Press and the USBWA. She became Arizona's first three-time AP All-American and two-time First Team WBCA All-American.

Sam Thomas was named Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was awarded the Elite 90 Award at the Final Four, which goes to the student-athlete with the highest GPA among everyone competing in the Final Four. Thomas was named All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 All-Defense for the second year in a row and was a Senior CLASS Award Candidate.

Cate Reese was named All-Pac-12 for the second year in a row, Trinity Baptiste was named honorable mention All-Pac-12 and Lauren Ware was named honorable mention Pac-12 All-Freshman to wrap up postseason awards for the Wildcats. Arizona has now been represented on the All-Freshman team four years in a row.

In her fourth season at the helm, Barnes led Arizona to one of the most successful seasons in school history as the Wildcats finished the season with a 24-7 record, tied for the second-most wins in school history. Arizona finished in fourth place in a loaded Pac-12 for the first time since 2011 and advanced to their first Pac-12

Tournament Semifinals since the 2011 edition of the tournament.

Because of that, Barnes was named a finalist for the WBCA and Naismith Coach of the Year Award.

For the first time since 2005, Arizona won at least 20 games for the second year in a row and won at least 24 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in school history. The Wildcats won three games over top-10 opponents for the first time in school history and also beat their first top-five team in program history after beating No. 4 Stanford in overtime at McKale Center.

Additionally, Arizona's win in Corvallis over No. 9 Oregon State was the first time in school history Arizona beat a top-10 team on the road.

The Wildcats entered the AP Poll for the first time since 2004 and spent the final 16 weeks of the season ranked. Arizona finished the year ranked No. 12 in both the AP and Coaches poll, which is the highest final ranking since the 1998 season. The Wildcats reached No. 11 in the AP Poll on Feb. 17.

Attendance at McKale Center was the highest it has ever been as the Wildcats finished second in the Pac-12 and 12th in the nation in average attendance (5,944). On Jan. 24, 10,160 fans packed the stands to watch Arizona take down Arizona State in the largest regular season crowd in school history. The top 11 attended games in school history have come during the Adia Barnes era, which six of them came during the 2019-20 season.

The Wildcats were on track to compete in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2005 and had a strong chance to host the first two rounds, but the tournament was canceled due to COVID-19.

The Wildcats won the 2019 WNIT title in front of record-breaking crowds at McKale Center. The six postseason wins were played in front of a total crowd of 45,602 fans. Arizona broke program and Pac-12 attendance records with a sellout crowd of 14,644 for the championship game victory over Northwestern.

Barnes joined the staff at Washington in 2011 and helped boost the Huskies profile in the Pac-12 and nationally, culminating in a trip to the Final Four this year. After three seasons on staff, Barnes was promoted to recruiting coordinator, where she handled all aspects of recruiting including budget, compliance and planning, in addition to her role in player development.

Prior to Barnes' arrival for the 2011-12 season, Washington hadn't posted a 20-win season in six years. Since then, the Huskies have posted five straight, including a 26-win season this year.

While at Washington, Barnes coached Kelsey Plum, who was Washington's first ever WBCA All-American in the 2015-16 season. She led the conference and was fourth in the nation as she scored 25.9 points per game during the 2015-16 season and led the country in free throws made with 266. Plum became the fastest player in the Pac-12 and the seventh-fastest player in NCAA history to reach 2,000 points. As a sophomore, she was named a Wooden Top-15 Nominee as she averaged 22.6 points per game and set a Washington school record as she scored 45 points on Nov. 14, 2015. Plum set the Washington single-season and Pac-12 record for points with 712 and was named Pac-12 Freshman of the Year.

Barnes also coached Chantel Osahor, who became a star in the 2016 NCAA Tournament. As a junior, she started every game and averaged a double-double with 10.1 points and 11.3 rebounds per game. She broke the Washington single-season record with 417 boards in 2015-16. Osahor was named the NCAA Lexington Region MVP as she averaged 14.5 points and 15 rebounds per game. She dominated in the Regional Final as she scored 24 points and grabbed 18 boards.

A three-time all-conference selection and '98 graduate of Arizona, Barnes was voted USBWA first-team All-American and Pac-10 player of the year in 1997-98. Her 2,237 career points currently rank ninth on the Pac-12's all-time scoring list. Following her collegiate career, Barnes played professionally for 12 seasons in the WNBA and overseas. She won a WNBA Championship with the Seattle Storm in 2004, was named to the Storm's All-Decade Team, and also played for Cleveland, Minnesota and Sacramento. Her overseas career included stops in the Ukraine, Israel, Turkey, Russia and Italy.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Barnes is married to Salvo Coppa, who coached for 14 seasons, including 10 professionally in Italy and with three separate national teams. She is the mother of one son, Matteo and one daughter, Capri.

Assistant Coaches and Staff

Salvo Coppa was named Adia Barnes' assistant coach on April 2016.

Coppa's professional experience includes coaching Italian First Division (A1), National teams in Europe and Asia and NCAA Division I college basketball. He has won three gold medals with three different teams. In seven seasons as the Associate Head Coach of Trogylos Priolo, a professional club in Italian Division 1, he coached WNBA All-Star Tari Phillips. He also coached Michelle Greco, Kristine Haynie and Florina Pascalau, all of whom played in the WNBA.

The 2021-22 season was another banner year for the Wildcats with Coppa as the top assistant. Arizona eclipsed the 20-win mark for a fourth consecutive season for the first time in program history while hosting and playing in the NCAA Tournament in McKale Center for the first time since 1998. The program continued its defensive prowess, ranking second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense, third in defensive rebounding, second in steals and first in turnover margin.

In his fifth year, Coppa was a key reason Arizona saw its best season in school history that included a trip to the National Championship game. He led the defense and worked daily with three-time All-American guard Aari McDonald.

During the shortened 2020-21 season, Arizona still managed to win 20 games for the third year in a row, a feat that hadn't been seen since 2005. The Wildcats were ranked in the AP Top 10 on 14 occasions and in the Top 25 all season long. Arizona finished in second place in the Pac-12, its highest finish since the 2003-04 season when Arizona won the Pac-10.

Individually, Aari McDonald was named Pac-12 Player of the Year and Co-Defensive Player of the Year while being named an All-American by the WBCA, Associated Press and the USBWA. She became Arizona's first three-time AP All-American and two-time First Team WBCA All-American.

The Wildcats also placed two on the Pac-12 All-Defense team as McDonald and Sam Thomas made it for the second year in a row while McDonald was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year for the second-straight season.

In his fourth season as assistant coach, Coppa helped Arizona to a 24-7 record, tied for the second-most wins in school history. Arizona finished fourth in a loaded Pac-12 for the first time since 2011 and advanced to its first Pac-12 Tournament Semifinals since the 2011 edition of the tournament.

For the first time since 2005, Arizona won at least 20 games for the second year in a row and won at least 23 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time this century. The Wildcats won three games over top-10 opponents for the first time in school history and defeated their first top-five team in program history after beating No. 4 Stanford in overtime at McKale Center.

Additionally, Arizona's win in Corvallis over No. 9 Oregon State was the first time in school history the program beat a top-10 team on the road.

During his third season with the Wildcats, Coppa helped Arizona's defense become one of the best in the Pac-12. He helped coach Aari McDonald to a Pac-12 All-Defense selection as she was second overall in steals per game. He also helped grow Thomas as a defender as she was the only player in the Pac-12 to average at least 1.4 steals and blocks per game.

As a head coach of Ecocontrol Priolo in 2010, he won the B Italian Championship with an 18-2 record. He brought several regional championships home and reached the Italian State Finals twice as the head coach of Trogylos Priolo U-19 and U-17 teams.

Prior to working at Montana State, Coppa spent a year as a skill development coach for the two time World Champion Seattle Storm in the WNBA and as a consultant to the head coach Brian Agler.

Before Coppa started coaching in the United States, he was the head coach of the Thailand Women's National Team, who won the Gold Medal at the South-Eastern Asian Games in 2011. It was Thailand's first Gold Medal in 16 years.

Coppa was the associate head coach for Trogylos Priolo, Professional Italian Club in D1 from 2003-10. He helped lead the team to five playoff appearances, including one playoff final appearance, one semifinals appearance and three quarterfinals appearances. He also helped lead the team to the quarterfinals of the FIBA Cup in 2006. Coppa handled recruiting and defensive coordination and was heavily involved with individual workouts and scouting.

In 2010, Coppa was the head coach for the Sicilia Women's Basketball Team, who won the Gold Medal at the Fiba Island Games in Portugal.

From 2006-11, Coppa was also the head coach of the Trogylos Priolo Junior Team in Italy. He coached them to five-straight Regional Championships and went to the state finals in 2008 and 2011.

Coppa was also the head coach for the Malta Women's U18 Team. During his time there, he led Malta to the Gold Medal at the European Championship C in 2007. It was Malta's first European Championship.

Coppa earned his Bachelor's and Master's Degree in Public Relations (Laurea in Relazioni Pubbliche) from IULM University in Milan, Italy. He is a FIBA Certified Coach and is fluent in Italian, English, Spanish and French.

Coppa is married to head coach Adia Barnes, and has one son, Matteo and one daughter, Capri. His father is the European legend of women's basketball, Coach Santino Coppa.

Erin Grant was hired as an assistant coach at Arizona on April 21, 2021.

In her first season in Tucson, Grant was on staff for a banner season for the Wildcats. Arizona eclipsed the 20-win mark for a fourth consecutive season for the first time in program history while hosting and playing in the NCAA Tournament in McKale Center for the first time since 1998. The program continued its defensive prowess rankings second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense, third in defensive rebounding, second in steals and first in turnover margin.

Grant worked as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at USC for the two seasons prior to joining the Wildcats staff.

In her two years at USC she coached two young stars in the Pac-12 in Endiya Rogers and Alissa Pili. As freshmen in the 2019-20 season Rogers and Pili were the team's two top scorers, averaging a combined 29 points per game while Pili was named the 2020 Pac-12 Freshman of the Year. As sophomores in 2020-21, they combined to average 26 points per game as Rogers was named All-Pac-12 and Pili was honorable mention All-Pac-12.

"Erin is a fantastic addition to our staff," Barnes said. "Her player development stands out to me, she is a great recruiter, and overall a very talented coach. Not only was Erin an All-American and a professional, she is one of the best players to come out of the state of Texas, and her experiences on and off the court will be incredibly valuable for our program. Who she is and what she stands for directly aligns with our family at Arizona, and I can't wait to get started with her because the future is extremely bright."

Grant was a major part in securing one of the best 2021 recruiting classes in the nation as she helped bring in two McDonald's All-Americans and the No. 7 class in the country to USC.

"I am honored to be joining Coach Barnes and the championship culture of the Wildcat family," Grant said. "My immense respect for Adia as a person, a coach and a mother drew me to Tucson. I will be dedicated to the continued efforts to recruit student-athletes, win championships and graduate young women."

Grant had an impressive playing career as a standout point guard, earning All-America honors while at Texas Tech before being selected 39th in the 2006 WNBA Draft by the Seattle Storm. She also got early international experience as a member of the 2005 USA Basketball World University Games team, which won gold in Turkey. While playing at Texas Tech, the Arlington native was a two-time All-Big 12 First Team selection and was the 2003 Big 12 Co-Freshman of the Year. She also was a three-time All-Academic First Team honoree.

As a pro, Grant was named MVP as she helped Stockholm 08 win a Swedish championship, and she played the 2006 season in the WNBA with the Houston Comets. After concluding her professional playing career, Grant was an assistant at UT Arlington for four seasons (2008-11), helping the program reach the 2009 WNIT. Grant went on to serve as an assistant at Memphis for four seasons (2013-16) in addition to spending three seasons as an assistant at New Mexico (2012, 2017-18) before landing back at her alma mater, Texas Tech, as recruiting coordinator.

In 2018, Grant was inducted into the Texas Tech Hall of Fame for her prestigious playing career in Lubbock. She set the Texas Tech program record for career assists (844) and scored 1,108 points while leading the Lady Raiders to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2005.

She is an active member of Coaches 4 Change, a group of collegiate basketball coaches around the nation who are dedicated to social justice issues through focus on education, engagement, empowerment and evolution within their respective teams, campuses and communities.

Grant joined a program that played in its first-ever Final Four in 2021 as the Wildcats advanced all the way to the National Championship. Not only was it Arizona's first Final Four, it was the first time in program history that the Wildcats made it past the Sweet 16.

Assistant Coaches and Staff

Ashley Davis was hired as an assistant coach on June 24, 2021 after coaching at Oklahoma State for six seasons.

In her first season at Arizona, Davis was on staff for a successful season for the Wildcats. Arizona eclipsed the 20-win mark for a fourth consecutive season for the first time in program history while hosting and playing in the NCAA Tournament in McKale Center for the first time since 1998. The program continued its defensive prowess rankings second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense, third in defensive rebounding, second in steals and first in turnover margin.

Her final season at Oklahoma State (2020-21) saw the Cowgirls make the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2018. Davis also helped coach Natasha Mack, who was a second-round pick in the WNBA Draft and was also named the WBCA and Naismith Defensive Player of the Year.

In her six seasons at Oklahoma State, the Cowgirls played in three NCAA Tournaments and one WNIT. Davus helped coach four All-Americans, five All-Big 12 selections, three WNBA Draft picks and five 1,000-point scorers during her time in Stillwater. Davis also helped recruit and coach Braxtin Miller, who was on the Big 12 All-Freshman team and became an All-American.

Prior to her time at Oklahoma State, Davis coached at North Texas for two seasons and was the associate head coach for the 2014-15 season. She was an assistant coach for four seasons at Georgetown and helped the Hoyas to 20-win seasons in all four years. During her time with the program, Georgetown made three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 berth in 2011, and reached the quarterfinals of the WNIT in 2009.

A native of San Antonio, Texas, Davis was a four-year letterwinner at TCU and was twice named an all-conference selection. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 2005 and received her master's in educational administration in 2007.
