THE OPENING KICKOFF

- Houston and Baylor are meeting for the 29th time in the history of the programs and first since Oct. 14, 1995. The Bears lead the all-time series 14-13-1. Since Houston won three straight from 1988-90, Baylor has responded by winning four of the last five (1991-95).
- When Houston and Baylor's 2020 season openers were each canceled due to COVID, the programs agreed to compete seven days later – Sept. 19, 2020, in Waco. The matchup was slated to be the first of its kind with games typically scheduled 5-10 years in advance. The historic contest was eventually canceled on Friday (Sept. 18) afternoon due to COVID concerns within Baylor's program.
- Former West Virginia running back and current Cougar Tony Mathis Jr. registered a career day against Baylor a season ago, rushing 22 times for 163 yards and two touchdowns en route to being named Big 12 Co-Offensive Player of the Week.
- Despite not meeting in nearly three decades, Houston's 28 all-time matchups against Baylor rank tied for seventh among all opponents. Among current Big 12 programs, the 28 meetings trail only Houston's 35 against Texas Tech.
- Among other notable history against Baylor, UH's Byron Beaver set an NCAA record, still standing today, with five interceptions as part of legendary Head Coach Bill Yeoman's first victory as the Cougars defeated the Bears, 19-0, on Sept. 22, 1962. Houston's inaugural Southwest Conference victory came at Baylor as the Cougars defeated the Bears, 23-5, in Waco, on Sept. 11, 1976. Houston wideout Manny Hazard's five touchdown receptions against Baylor on Oct. 7, 1989, rank tied for the most in program history.
- Houston looks to snap its two-game losing streak on Saturday. The Cougars need to win three of their final four games to reach their 31st bowl all-time. Houston's 15 bowl appearances since 2005 rank tied with TCU for the most in Texas.
- In their inaugural season in the Big 12, the Cougars are finding out first-hand the challenges of the league. All five of Houston's Big 12 opponents entering Saturday have either been ranked or received votes this season. At the time of the matchup, the Cougars have faced three league opponents receiving votes and another (#8 Texas) which was nationally ranked. A season ago, Tulane, which received votes, was the only American competitor receiving votes or ranked at the time of Houston's matchup.
- Houston, which led the nation with a combined 10 road victories between 2021-22, is still in search of its first win away from home this season. The Cougars mounted a 28-point fourth quarter comeback in an eventual 43-41 double overtime loss at Rice. UH scored 28 first-half points in a 49-28 loss at Texas Tech. Houston was shut out for the first time since Sept. 23, 2000, as part of a 41-0 defeat at Kansas State.
- Houston ranks 14th nationally with just seven turnovers lost. The Cougars have lost just two fumbles on the season, which ranks as the 11th fewest nationally. Houston had not lost the turnover battle through its first six games but has done so in each of its last two matchups. Houston senior defensive lineman David Ugwoegbu scooped up Kansas State's first fumble of the season last time out.
- Last Saturday at K-State, freshman defensive lineman Justin Benton (16 snaps), sophomore quarterback Ui Ale (12 snaps) and freshman wide receiver Jonah Wilson (12 snaps) made their second appearances of the season. Cougars appearing in their third games included redshirt freshman defensive lineman Cavan Tuley (10 snaps) redshirt freshman center Demetrius Hunter (12 snaps), sophomore offensive lineman David Ndukwe (12 snaps) and freshman wide receiver Ja'Ryan Wallace (9 snaps). Sophomore offensive lineman Jaylen Garth (4 snaps) and freshman wide receiver Ja'koby Banks (6 snaps) made their fourth appearances. Redshirt freshman walk-on wide receiver Dalton Carnes, who has appeared in all eight games, made his first collegiate start at wide receiver.
- Houston's top five leaders in all-purpose yardage are all underclassmen. Of Houston's 3,767 all-purpose yards, 3,152 (83.6%) are courtesy of freshmen or sophomores. Sophomore wide receiver Matthew Golden (710), sophomore wide receiver Samuel Brown (678) and freshman running back Parker Jenkins (492) lead the way.

TEAM NOTES

• Houston is not alone in its ups and downs during its inaugural season of the Big 12 play. The Cougars hold the only win among league newcomers from The American with Cincinnati and UCF both sitting at 0-5. Houston's win came in dramatic fashion courtesy of a 49-yard tip-drill Hail Mary as time expired to beat West Virginia, 41-39, on Thursday, Oct. 12.

• Saturday's matchup may be the first between Houston and Baylor on the gridiron in nearly three decades, but the two schools have faced off in several notable matchups in recent history. No. 2-seed Houston Men's Basketball battled top-seed Baylor in the NCAA Tournament Final Four before falling 78-59 on April 3, 2021. Houston Baseball tallied its largest margin of victory in NCAA postseason history, routing Baylor, 17-3, on June 3, 2017, at the NCAA Houston Regional. Houston Volleyball and No. 6 Baylor played a memorable five-set match in their last meeting as the Bears overcame a 2-0 deficit for a 3-2 victory on March 18, 2021, in Houston.

• After playing five of its first seven games at home, and six of its first seven in the City of Houston (at Rice on Sept. 9), Houston is in the midst of closing out its season with three of five on the road including consecutive road tilts at K-State (Oct. 28) and Baylor (Nov. 4).

• Houston has converted on 12 of its last 14 (85.7%) red zone opportunities over its last five games including 2 of 3 against a Texas defense ranked 13th nationally on Oct. 21. The turnaround comes after the Cougars managed to score on just 9 of 14 (64%) chances in their first three games.

• Houston, which leads the nation with eight kickoff return touchdowns since the start of the 2019 season, continues to be dangerous on kick return. UH sophomore Matthew Golden leads the nation with two kickoff return touchdowns, helping the Cougars rank third in the Big 12 with 23.43 yards per return. Against West Virginia, Golden became the eighth Cougar all-time with a 100-yard return.

• UH student-athletes are making their presence felt during the program's first season in the Big 12. The Cougars lead the conference with three players ranked inside the top 10 in receptions per game including Samuel Brown's 5.63 which ranks second.

Rank	Student-Athlete	Category	Total
1.	Samuel Brown	Receiving yards per game	84.75
	Samuel Brown	Receiving yards	678
	Donovan Smith	Pass completions	190
	Matthew Golden	Kickoff return touchdowns	2
	Nelson Ceaser	Sacks per game	0.79
2.	Samuel Brown	Receptions per game	5.63
	Donovan Smith	Passing touchdowns	16
	Donovan Smith	Offensive touchdowns	20
3.	Donovan Smith	Passing yards	2,067
	Donovan Smith	Total offense	2,254
	Matthew Golden	Receiving touchdowns	6
	Matthew Golden	Kickoff return yards	321

• Houston quarterback Donovan Smith has been among the biggest transfer portal pickups nationally under center this season. Among first-year transfer quarterbacks, Smith ranks sixth in points responsible for (120), eighth in passing yards (2,067), 10th in passing touchdowns (16) and 10th in completion percentage (64.8).

• Among Houston notables defensively, defensive back A.J. Haulcy ranks eighth nationally with 5.6 solo tackles per game. Defensive backs Malik Fleming and Isaiah Hamilton are tied for 17th nationally with three interceptions each. Defensive lineman Nelson Ceaser is 19th nationally and tops in the Big 12 with 0.79 sacks per game.

• Among Power 5 true freshmen running backs, Houston's Parker Jenkins ranks second nationally with 13 rushes of 10+ yards after totaling three last time out at Kansas State. He is third with 4.8 yards per rush (min. 50 rushes) and third with 205 yards after contact. His 71.9 run grade by PFF ranks fourth (min. 50 rushes).

• Houston left tackle Patrick Paul, who started his 40th career game last Saturday against Kansas State, leads the nation among tackles with a 96.2 pass block grade from PFF. His 85.0 offensive grade ranks sixth. Paul has allowed just two pressures and has not permitted a sack in 336 opportunities.

• The 2023 season is Head Coach Dana Holgorsen's 17th coaching in the Big 12 Conference. Holgorsen has coached four of the league's 14 schools, totaling a combined 75 Big 12 victories as a head coach or assistant coach at Houston, (2023), West Virginia (2012-18), Oklahoma State (2010) and Texas Tech (2000-07). As a head coach, Holgorsen is 21-16 in league games dating to Nov. 7, 2015.

• Coming into the season, Houston's wide receivers' room was touted as the team's strong point. Through eight games, eight different receivers and 15 total players have caught a pass. Five different Cougar wideouts have logged a receiving touchdown including walk-on redshirt freshman Dalton Carnes who has emerged as a reliable target, hauling in 14 receptions for 161 yards and a touchdown over the last four contests.

AGAINST THE BEARS

• Houston Head Coach Dana Holgorsen faced Baylor seven times at the helm of West Virginia, going 5-2 against the Bears, including three consecutive victories to close out his tenure (2016-18). In his last visit to Waco, Holgorsen's #23/23 Mountaineers staved off a furious Baylor rally, halting the Bears on a 2-point conversion attempt with 17 seconds remaining as part of a 38-36 victory.

• As referenced on Page 1, then-West Virginia running back Tony Mathis Jr. rushed 22 times for 163 yards and two touchdowns in a 43-40 win over #rv/23 Baylor on Oct. 13, 2022. His 163 rushing yards were the most for a Mountaineer since the 2020 season.

• Former Oklahoma linebacker David Ugwoegbu has totaled 20 tackles including 14 solo stops and 2.5 tackles for loss in five career games against the Bears. Ugwoegbu has registered 6.0 tackles in each of the last three meetings.

HOUSTON (AP) – Junior quarterback Donovan Smith threw for 233 yards and two touchdowns, Samuel Brown had 106 yards receiving and Houston held on for a 17-14 win over UTSA on Saturday night in a season opener and the Cougars' first game as a Big 12 Conference member.

Smith, who was 22-of-34 passing, threw touchdown passes of eight yards to Joseph Manjack IV in the first quarter and six yards to Matthew Golden in the third as Houston built a 17-7 lead. The Cougars finished with 334 yards of offense.

Frank Harris was 18 of 36 for 209 yards passing with a touchdown, but he was intercepted three times. Kevorian Barnes rushed for 103 yards and a touchdown for UTSA, which finished with 417 yards.

After UTSA cut the lead to three on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Harris to Joshua Cephus with 5:42 remaining, Houston was able to run out the clock, including a crucial 3-yard gain by Smith to just get the first down with 1:45 remaining.

Houston has beaten UTSA in consecutive season openers after outlasting the Roadrunners, 37-35, in triple overtime last season in San Antonio.

THE TAKEAWAY

UTSA: The Roadrunners, which joined the American Athletic Conference this season, had issues staying on the field going 4 for 13 on third downs. UTSA had an even offense with 209 yards passing and 208 yards rushing.

Houston: The Cougars' defense kept Harris under pressure for most of the night, which contributed to the three interceptions. Two of the interceptions were by Malik Fleming. Houston had issues rushing the ball, finishing with 101 yards on the ground.

LOVE YOU, HOUSTON

The Cougars wore alternate "Love You, Houston" uniforms, which paid homage to the City of Houston. The jerseys are a light blue with Houston in italics on the helmet.

HOUSTON – After mounting a 28-point comeback to tie the game late in the fourth quarter, the University of Houston Football program was unable to hold off Rice in double overtime, falling 43-41 in the Bayou Bucket in Rice Stadium.

Trailing 28-0 late in the second quarter, the Cougars (1-1) rallied to tie the game at 28-28 on junior quarterback Donovan Smith's 1-yard touchdown run with just 15 seconds remaining in regulation.

After trailing by four scores with 2:43 left in the second quarter, the Cougars rallied for 28 unanswered points to close regulation and force overtime for just the second time in the history of the Bayou Bucket.

Golden started the scoring with a 10-yard reception from Smith to get Houston on the board, 28-7, with 2:42 remaining in the first half. The Cougars' defense kept it a three-score game heading into halftime as Hamilton leaped for an interception in the end zone with nine seconds on the clock.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Cougars rallied in the fourth. Starting a drive with a fumble recovery in the waning seconds of the third, Houston's Smith fought his way in with a 1-yard rush to cut the Cougars' deficit to 28-14 with 14:05 left in the fourth quarter. Sneed followed it up two drives later with a 14-yard rushing touchdown of his own to put Houston down by seven with 3:46 remaining.

The Cougar defense forced a three-and-out for Rice (1-1) on the ensuing possession, giving Houston a chance to tie it with 2:49 remaining in regulation. Smith and the offense rattled off a eight-play, 40-yard drive, capped by a 1-yard scramble by Smith, to tie the game with 15 seconds left.

Houston opened overtime by taking its first lead of the contest as Golden caught his second touchdown of the game on a 2-yard pass from Smith, but Rice forced a second extra period as Daelen Alexander scored on a 3-yard rush to even the score at 35-35.

Alexander scored again for the Owls to start the second OT frame and took it in himself for the two-point conversion to put Rice up 43-35 and put the game back into the Cougars' hands. While Smith rushed for his third TD of the game on Houston's 20T possession, the Cougars failed on their two-point attempt to give Rice the win.

Rice started the scoring on the opening drive as Luke McCaffrey, younger brother of the San Francisco 49ers Luke McCaffrey, caught a 10-yard pass from JT Daniels.

The Owls extended their lead to 21-0 by the end of the first quarter as Alexander ran in for a one-yard touchdown, and McCaffrey found the end zone again on a 32-yard reception. Rice capped its regulation scoring with a 15-yard pass from Daniels to Braylen Walker to put the Owls up, 28-0.

HOUSTON (AP) – TCU quarterback Chandler Morris threw for 314 yards and two touchdowns as the Horned Frogs spoiled Houston's Big 12 Conference debut with a 36-13 victory on Saturday night.

TCU (2-1, 1-0) won its second straight game after a season-opening loss to Colorado.

TCU's offense had a fast-paced opening drive that ended with a 33-yard touchdown pass from Morris to Warren Thompson, just 1:31 into the game. Morris finished 24 of 37, threw one interception and added 53 rushing yards on 12 carries.

Houston's only touchdown came late in the first half on a 98-yard kickoff return by Matthew Golden, cutting TCU's lead to 13-10. TCU immediately answered with a 16-yard touchdown run by Emani Bailey, and the Horned Frogs led 20-13 at halftime.

Bailey ran for 126 yards on 23 carries.

TCU's defense held the Cougars in check. Quarterback Donovan Smith completed 18 of 35 passes for 245 yards, while the Cougars (1-2, 0-1 Big 12) totaled 35 rushing yards on 26 carries.

Houston was trying to bounce back from a double-overtime loss to cross-town rival Rice.

Houston receiver Samuel Brown entered the game leading the Big 12 with 15 receptions and 244 yards through his first two games. Brown had another active game against TCU, making five catches for 99 yards.

Griffin Kell made three of five field-goal attempts for TCU, including a 53-yarder.

THE TAKEAWAY

TCU: After entering Saturday's game ranked 126th in the nation in allowing 343.5 passing yards per game, TCU's secondary showed much improvement against Houston, aided in part by a much more aggressive pass rush up front. TCU had six sacks and eight tackles for loss.

Houston: The Cougars have one more non-conference game against Sam Houston before finishing out the season with eight Big 12 games.

HOUSTON – The University of Houston Football team closed its non-conference schedule with a 38-7 win over Sam Houston on Saturday night at TDECU Stadium. The Cougars snapped a two-game losing skid while posting a season-high 538 yards of offense in the contest.

Freshman running back Parker Jenkins became the first Cougar in program history to rush for three touchdowns in his first start – with all coming in the first half. He became the 15th Houston player with 3+ rushing scores in a half. Jenkins also matched the program record for rushing touchdowns by a freshman.

Junior quarterback Donovan Smith narrowly missed out on his first 300-yard passing game as a Cougar, tallying 294 yards while going 31-for-40 with a touchdown. Meanwhile, sophomore quarterback Ui Ale used his second collegiate pass to throw a 58-yard touchdown, Houston's longest offensive play of the year.

Houston opened the game with a 13-play, 69-yard drive that ended with junior Jack Martin splitting the uprights from 23 yards out to put the Cougars up 3-0. Sam Houston responded on its opening drive, briefly taking a 7-3 lead on a 2-yard rush from Trapper Pannell.

The Cougars wasted no time in answering as Jenkins carried in his first touchdown, a 2-yard scramble, that gave Houston a 10-7 lead it would never relinquish. Jenkins would ultimately carry in two more touchdowns in the first half, a 1-yard rush with 7:22 left and another 2-yard score to put Houston up 24-7 at the break.

Houston continued to cruise in the second half. Smith earned his first passing touchdown of the game in the Cougars' first drive of the third quarter, finding sophomore Matthew Golden for a 6-yard touchdown. Ale capped Houston's scoring in the fourth quarter, sending his first collegiate completion to sophomore Stacy Sneed for a 58-yard touchdown, Houston's longest offensive play of the season, cementing the Cougars' 38-7 win.

LUBBOCK, Texas – University of Houston junior quarterback Donovan Smith threw for 335 yards and a career-high-tying four touchdowns, but it would not be enough as Texas Tech took a 49-28 win over the Cougars inside Jones A&T Stadium on Saturday evening.

Playing for three seasons with the Red Raiders before transferring to Houston, Smith led the Cougars to touchdowns on their first three and four of their first five possessions. The Las Vegas native completed 12 of his first 15 pass attempts and finished with touchdown tosses to Bryan Henry, Samuel Brown, Joseph Manjack IV and Dalton Carnes.

Completing 29-of-40 passes, Smith recorded his first 300-yard passing game as a Cougar and the fifth of his career. It was the third highest total of his career, trailing only 359 yards with Texas Tech against Kansas State on Oct. 1, 2022, and 350 yards against the Cougars in Lubbock on Sept. 10, 2022.

Smith tied his personal best with four touchdown tosses, equaling his total against Murray State in the 2022 season opener with Texas Tech.

With the loss, Houston fell to 2-3 overall and 0-2 in Big 12 play. Texas Tech improved to 2-3 overall and 1-1 in league action.

In an offensive slugfest early, Houston outgained the Red Raiders 489-400 and held the ball for more than 35 minutes. The two teams combined for five touchdowns and nearly 350 yards of total offense in the second quarter alone.

However, Texas Tech was equally efficient offensively in the first half and took advantage of a 100-yard kickoff return and blocked punt return for touchdown in the first 30 minutes en route to the win.

Brown led all receivers with nine catches for 113 yards.

Texas Tech running backs Tahj Brooks and Cam'Ron Valdez tied for game-high honors with 106 rushing yards each with Brooks posting two touchdowns and Valdez adding a 41-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter to cap the day's scoring.

	WEST VIRGINIA	39
	HOUSTON	41

HOUSTON – In the historic first meeting between the two programs, the University of Houston Football team used a last-second Hail Mary to take down rv/rv West Virginia, 41-39, for the Cougars' first Big 12 Conference win.

The Cougars (3-3, 1-2 Big 12), down 39-35 with 12 seconds remaining, used a two-play, 57-yard drive capped by a 49-yard, tip-drill touchdown pass from junior quarterback Donovan Smith to sophomore wide receiver Stephon Johnson to seal the two-point victory over the Mountaineers (4-2, 2-1 Big 12).

Smith finished the game 21 for 27 for 253 yards and five total touchdowns (four passing, one rushing), marking his third career four-TD game. After starting with five completions on 11 attempts, Smith went a perfect 16 for 16 with all four touchdowns and 214 yards during the rest of the game.

Johnson tallied two touchdown catches, including the first of his Cougar career, on four receptions, narrowly missing out on his first 100-yard receiving game with 96 yards. Sophomore wide receivers Joseph Manjack IV and Samuel Brown caught the other two touchdowns for the Cougars.

Defensively, junior defensive back Isaiah Hamilton caught his third interception of the season while sophomore safety A.J. Haulcy tallied a season-best 15 tackles. Sophomore Matthew Golden continued to shine on special teams, recording his second kick return touchdown of the season, a 100-yard scramble in the first quarter.

Houston's offense found success against a West Virginia team that has stifled offenses this season. West Virginia entered Thursday ranked 23rd nationally in first downs defense. However, the Cougars offense put up 20 first downs, including 18 in the final three quarters. Houston's 41 points was the most allowed by the Mountaineers this season, a defense that ranked 30th nationally entering the day by allowing only an average of 19.0 points per game. The Cougars also continued to protect the ball well as the offense delivered zero turnovers for the fourth time this season.

Houston and West Virginia traded blows in the second half. The Mountaineers scored first in the second half on a 35-yard pass from Garrett Greene to Traylon Ray. The Cougars fought back as Manjack caught his third touchdown of the season to put Houston back on top, 21-17.

Trailing 35-24 with 7:28 remaining, West Virginia mounted a comeback and seemed to secure the win with a 50-yard touchdown catch by Hudson Clement with 12 seconds left that put the Mountaineers up 39-35. After an 18-yard return on the ensuing kickoff that was pushed back 15 yards due to a West Virginia unsportsmanlike penalty on its go-ahead score, Houston mounted the thrilling walk-off touchdown drive to snag the win.

Houston finished 3-of-3 in red zone opportunities in the game. After going 9 of 14 on red zone chances in its first three games, Houston has gone 10 of 11 in its last three contests.

UP NEXT

Houston remains at home next weekend to battle #9/#11 Texas at 3 p.m. Oct. 21 inside TDECU Stadium. The Cougars will celebrate Heroes Night, honoring military and first responders.

Oct. 21, 2023 - TDECU Stadium - Houston
	#8/8 TEXAS	31
	HOUSTON	24

HOUSTON – University of Houston junior quarterback Donovan Smith threw for 378 yards and three touchdowns, but it would not be quite enough as a valiant Cougar comeback fell short in a 31-24 loss to #8/8 Texas inside TDECU Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Texas running back CJ Baxter rushed 16 yards for a touchdown with 5:37 left in the game and the Longhorns halted a Cougar drive on 4th-and-1 inside the Texas 10 in the final minute to seal the win.

Houston (3-4, 1-3 Big 12) fell behind 21-0 midway through the second quarter, but Smith threw scoring passes of 32 and 3 yards to Matthew Golden, and a 21-yarder to Joseph Manjack IV as the Cougars tied it at 21 with 12:29 remaining in the third quarter. Manjack caught six passes for 88 yards, Samuel Brown caught four passes for 80 yards, and Golden caught seven passes for 88 yards for Houston.

Houston outgained Texas 392-360 in total yards while the Longhorns the Cougars 141-14 in rushing yards

After the teams traded field goals, Baxter rushed for a 16-yard TD to give Texas a late 31-24 lead.

Jonathon Brooks rushed for 99 yards and Xavier Worthy had 92 receiving yards and a touchdown for Texas (6-1, 3-1 Big 12). Quinn Ewers was 23 of 29 for 211 yards and two touchdowns, but exited after taking a hit on a scramble late in the third quarter. Ewers was replaced by Maalik Murphy on the Longhorns' first drive of the fourth quarter.

Ewers threw touchdown passes of 14 and 42 yards in the opening quarters, and Savion Red scored on a 1-yard run as Texas built a 21-0 lead with 12:49 left in the first half.

THE TAKEAWAY

Texas: The Longhorns dominated the opening 22½ minutes as they built a 21-0 lead. Texas' secondary struggled against Houston's passing offense. Texas committed six penalties for 60 yards and struggled on third downs, going 3 of 12. Texas was 3 of 5 on fourth downs.

Houston: The Cougars were able to get back into the game by almost completely abandoning the run game. Houston committed one penalty for 15 yards. Houston also struggled on third downs, going 4 for 13. The Cougars were 2 of 3 on fourth downs.

HEAD COACH DANA HOLGORSEN

FIFTH SEASON AT HOUSTON (30-25) | 13TH SEASON OVERALL (91-66)

- Named head coach at Houston on Jan. 1, 2019, after eight seasons at West Virginia.
- Has tutored 23 All-Americans, 11 national award winners and 14 national award finalists. In four NFL Drafts since taking the helm at Houston, 11 Cougar players have been selected including five in the top three rounds.
- Houston has won 20 games over its last two seasons (2021-22) marking the program's third highest total in a two-year span. The run has featured back-to-back bowl victories (2021 Birmingham Bowl; 2022 Independence Bowl) for the first time since 2014-15. With a win in the Independence Bowl on Dec. 23, 2022, Holgorsen became the first Houston Head Coach since Bill Yeoman to register multiple bowl victories.
- Houston went 13-3 over its final 16 American Athletic Conference contests (2021-22). The Cougars won a national-best 10 road contests between 2021-22 including six consecutive matchups from Oct. 1, 2021-Oct. 22, 2022, which ranked as the nation's second longest streak in that timeframe.
- Since Holgorsen's arrival in 2019, Houston is the only program nationally to boast a punt return touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in four consecutive seasons (2019-22).
- Guided Houston to an 8-5 record and Independence Bowl victory in 2022. The Cougars won six of their final eight games while ranking eighth nationally in passing offense (314.0), 10th in punt returns (15.0 per return), 11th in team tackles for loss (7.2 per game), 12th in passing efficiency (158.38) and 16th in scoring offense (36.1).
- As part of his commitment to the future of Houston Football, Holgorsen pledged $1 million towards University of Houston's "Houston Rise" campaign towards the development of the program's state-of-the-art Football Operations Center (FOC).
- Under his leadership in 2021, the Cougars won 12+ games for just the third time in program history. Houston won 11 consecutive games, its longest stretch since 2011, en route to an appearance in The American Football Championship.
- In the 2021 Birmingham Bowl, Houston knocked off Auburn to clinch the program's first bowl victory since 2015.
- Houston was one of six teams nationally to rank in the top 20 in both points per game (35.9) and opponent points per game (20.4).
- For the second time in his coaching career, Holgorsen tutored a Paul Hornung Award winner as consensus All-American Marcus Jones captured the award in 2021.
- Closed his tenure at West Virginia as the second-winningest coach in Mountaineer history with an eight-year record of 61-41. His 61 wins trailed only College Football Hall of Famer Don Nehlen for most wins in West Virginia history.
- Led the Mountaineers to bowl games in seven of his eight seasons including his final five seasons. His first season at West Virginia ended with a 70-33 rout of Clemson in the Orange Bowl.
- West Virginia had 10 NFL draft picks in first three rounds in his final seven years, the second most in Big 12, including at least one Top-15 draft pick in four of his final seven years. In all, he had four NFL Top-15 draft picks during a seven-year stretch, the most in the Big 12, and 20 players drafted in seven years at WVU, tied for second-most in the Big 12 during that span.
- An offensive genius, his passing offenses and total offensive output have ranked in the Top 10 nationally all but four years during the 14-year span since he became offensive coordinator at Texas Tech in 2005.
- He's had eight quarterbacks pass for 4,000 or more yards and 10 throw for 30 or more touchdowns in a season with 20 receivers finishing with 1,000 or more yards in a season, including 11 finish with 90 or more receptions and 16 finish with double figure TD receptions in a season.
- He is the only coach in West Virginia history to have coached a team with at least 450 rushing yards in a game (Oklahoma, 2012) and at least 450 yards passing in a game (six times).
- He had 10 wins over Top 25 opponents in his eight-year tenure at WVU.
- West Virginia was ranked in both major polls at least one week in seven of his eight years including the entire 2018 season with several weeks inside the top 10.
- In 2018, Holgorsen led a West Virginia team that was ranked every week during the season and finished the regular season with a No. 15/16 ranking in both major polls.
- Under his leadership, quarterback Will Grier finished No. 4 in the Heisman Trophy race and was a finalist for the Maxwell Award, The Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, the Senior CLASS Award and the Manning Award. Grier was ranked in the top 10 nationally in 11 offensive categories and seven categories in the top five.
- Outside of football, Holgorsen served as the chair of the WVU Medicine Children's capital campaign, raising $60 million to build a new home for pediatric and maternal services.
- In 2016, the AFCA District 4 Regional Coach of the Year and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year finalist led the Mountaineers to a 10-3 overall mark and 7-2 record in the Big 12.
- His 2016 team achieved the ninth 10-win season in school history, becoming one of six WVU teams to do it in the regular season. Holgorsen is one of three WVU coaches, along with Nehlen and Rich Rodriguez, to post multiple 10-win seasons.
- In 2012, Holgorsen led WVU into its first year of competition in the Big 12 Conference, guiding West Virginia to a 7-6 overall record and an appearance in the New Era PinStripe Bowl. Five Mountaineers earned 25 All-America honors and three were drafted in the top three rounds of the NFL draft.
- Holgorsen had a successful first season at WVU in 2011, coaching the Mountaineers to a 10-3 record, the Big East championship and a 70-33 Orange Bowl rout of Clemson. The victory was WVU's third Bowl Championship Series championship in school history and earned Holgorsen the First-Year Coach of the Year award by the Football Writers Association of America.
- Before West Virginia, Holgorsen spent the 2010 season as offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State. He was a finalist for the 2010 Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant, and also named the Rivals.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year.
- During his two-year tenure with Houston, his offenses put up explosive numbers, accounting for 563 yards of total offense per game, passing for 433.7 yards per game and totaling more than 42.2 points per game. His offense ranked No. 3 in total offense in 2008 and No. 1 in 2009. His quarterback, Case Keenum, led the nation in total offense in 2008 and 2009, totaling 403.2 yards per game as a sophomore and 416.4 yards his junior season. He also ranked among the Top 10 nationally in pass efficiency both years.
- Holgorsen was a member of the coaching staff at Texas Tech from 2000-07, serving as the inside receivers coach from 2000-04, before being elevated to co-offensive coordinator in 2005 and offensive coordinator in 2006-07.
- Holgorsen also spent time at Valdosta State (1993-95) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach, Mississippi College (1996-98) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach and at Wingate (1999) as the quarterbacks and receivers coach.
