After finishing the 1993-94 season with a third-place finish in conference play, Western Illinois head coach Regina Miller led the Westerwinds to the program's first regular-season title in 1994-95.

The 1994-95 team scored 1,887 points, the sixth most points in school history. The team also set WIU records in steals (438) and in rebounds (1,224) - records that still stand to this day.

Oberon Pitterson led Western with 14 points and 12.6 rebounds per game during the season.

In 2002-03, Western would start the beginning of a string of four-consecutive regular-season titles.

The team posted a 21-9 overall record and 12-2 conference mark in large part to shooting a WIU-best 46 percent from the field.

After losing to Valparaiso in the conference tournament, the Westerwinds advanced to the team's first WNIT. Western would drop a double-overtime game at Missouri, 72-69.

Head coach Leslie Crane took away her first conference 'Coach of the Year' honor at the conclusion of the season.

Coach Leslie Crane led her team to a second-consecutive regular-season title in 2003-04 by posting a 13-3 conference record.

Western set a school record with 1,943 points throughout the season led by conference 'Player of the Year' Tiffany Cornelius. Cornelius averaged 14.7 points per game during the season.

The Westerwinds were upset in the conference tournament by Oral Roberts in overtime, 72-70.

Crane would take home her second consecutive 'Coach of the Year' honor in 2003-04.

The 2004-05 women's basketball team posted a Western Illinois-record 11-consecutive wins on its way to a third consecutive regular-season title.

Conference 'Player of the Year' and 'Defensive Player of the Year' Zane Teilane led the team to a 19-9 overall record and 13-3 mark in conference play.

Teilane averaged 15.6 points and 9.3 rebounds per game during the season.

The Westerwinds ended the season earlier than expected as the team was defeated by Oral Roberts in the conference tournament in a low-scoring affair, as the Golden Eagles held Western to its fewest points all season, 43-37.

At seasons end, Coach Leslie Crane collected her third conference 'Coach of the Year' honor.

For the first time in 10 seasons, and the first time under head coach JD Gravina, the Leathernecks returned to the postseason when they were selected to participate in the Women's Basketball Invitational.

The Leathernecks opened WBI play in thrilling fashion, defeating in-state foe Southern Illinois in overtime, 99-97. Mallory Boyle's layup with .3 seconds left sent WIU to its first postseason victory in DI history, men's or women's.

WIU's run came to a close on March 19 when the Leathernecks were narrowly edged, 81-78.
