NOTES

- Records prior to 1960 are not currently available even though Gonzaga has fielded a collegiate baseball team since the late 1890's.

- Gonzaga was a member of the Big Sky Conference from 1964 through 1974, the Nor-Pac Conference from 1975 through 1981, and the Pacific-10 Conference from 1982 through 1995. The Bulldogs joined the West Coast Conference in 1996 and were in the conference's Coast Division from 1999 to 2005.

Marco Gonzales (2011-13) is the Zags' only multi-time All-American and first All-West Region POY, as well as the program's only Olerud Two-Way POY winner.

MARK MACHTOLF

GONZAGA HEAD COACH - 20TH YEAR

Mark Machtolf enters his 20th season as the Gonzaga University baseball head coach and 32nd on staff in 2023. Machtolf, a five-time WCC Coach of the Year (2009, 2013, 2017, 2021, 2022), sits as the second-winningest coach in program history with a career 558-435-2 record entering 2023. His .562 career winning percentage is also third-best all-time in Gonzaga history. During his tenure as head coach of the Bulldogs, Machtolf has produced 124 All-WCC selections, including 17 First Team All-Conference selections, 17 Freshman All-WCC selections, six WCC Pitchers of the Year, four WCC Players of the Year, three WCC Defensive Players of the Year and two WCC Freshmen of the Year. In addition, Machtolf has coached 17 All-American selections, eight Freshman All-Americans, five Academic All-Americans, 10 All-West Region selections, two United States Baseball National Team members, an ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove recipient and the 2013 College Baseball Hall of Fame's John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year winner. There have been 51 players under Machtolf who have been selected in the Major League Baseball draft, including three first-round selections. Of those 44 draftees, 17 were picked in the first 10 rounds of their respective drafts. Ten of Machtolf's former players have reached the big leagues — Clayton Mortensen, Steve Ames, Cody Martin, Tyler Olson, Marco Gonzales, Taylor Jones, Brandon Bailey, Eli Morgan, Wyatt Mills and Ryan Carpenter. Since 2016, Machtolf-coached Gonzaga teams have gone 210-137 overall and 112-50 in WCC regular-season play, winning 5 WCC championships, 8 WCC Yearly Awards, making 4 NCAA Regionals and producing 23 MLB Draft picks in that span.

The Bulldogs have made the NCAA Tournament on five occasions under Machtolf, most recently in 2022.

After first qualifying with an autobid in 2009, the Zags earned their first-ever at-large bid to the tournament in 2016, finishing with a 36-21 record and a share of the WCC regular season title. Gonzaga opened the Fort Worth Regional with a 5-1 win over Arizona State. Just a week earlier, the Zags reached the title game of the WCC Tournament for the first time in the competition's four-year history. 2016's run began a streak of league dominance for the Zags, who lead the league in conference wins, titles, WCC Tournament appearances and Regionals in that span. The Zags also earned the automatic bid to the tournament in 2018 after defeating No. 1 seed Pepperdine 17-2 in the title game of the WCC Baseball Championship. Gonzaga advanced to the Minneapolis Regional and faced elimination following a loss to No. 2 UCLA, but kept their season alive with an 8-2 win over No. 4 Canisius. Gonzaga closed the season with a loss to the Bruins, finishing the 2018 campaign with a 33-24 overall record for its ninth 30-win season under Machtolf.

GU earned its highest-ever seeding in a Regional in 2021, when the Zags were the No. 2 seed in the Eugene Regional after winning the WCC regular season title. The Zags defeated No. 3 LSU 3-0 before falling 7-3 to No. 1 Oregon and being eliminated by the Tigers in a rematch. That year, Machtolf was named WCC Coach of the Year, while Zags Alek Jacob and Brett Harris earned Pitcher of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year, respectively. Both earned Collegiate Baseball All-American honors in addition. With a 20-7 record in conference play, the Zags won the WCC Pennant in lieu of a tournament to punch their tickets to the NCAA Tourney.

After winning the WCC Regular Season title for the second consecutive year in 2022, the Bulldogs then matched that feat with a No. 2 seed in the Blacksburg Regional, winning a game in the NCAA Tournament in consecutive years for the first time in program history after defeating Wright State 11-9. That season, the Bulldogs reached a program-best national ranking of No. 10 in Baseball America's poll -- the highest GU has ever been ranked under Machtolf. First-year Zags Connor Coballes and Cade McGee took home DPOY and Freshman of the Year honors, respectively.

In addition to guiding the Zags to the postseason and to league titles, Machtolf was also instrumental in the construction of Gonzaga's new state-of-the-art facility: Patterson Baseball Complex and Washington Trust Field. Machtolf assisted with shaping the new home of Bulldog baseball, which opened in 2007.

In the summer of 2006, Machtolf was named one of the assistant coaches for the USA Baseball Team. Under Machtolf's guidance, the National Team posted a 28-2-1 record, including going a perfect 8-0 at the Federation Internationale du Sport Universitaire (FISU) World Championships in Havana, Cuba. The .919 win percentage for the season was the best posted by a USA Baseball collegiate team and the tournament win was another first for a USA Baseball National Team in Cuba.

Prior to being named head coach on Aug. 7, 2003, the Spokane native served 13 years as an assistant coach for the Zags. Machtolf entered the coaching ranks as the hitting coach at Gonzaga for the 1988 season and worked with the Zags until the completion of the 1990 campaign. Following one season as an assistant coach at Spokane's Whitworth College (now University), Machtolf accepted the head coaching position at Gonzaga Prep and coached through the 1995 season. While at Prep, he volunteered with Gonzaga for two seasons before returning to the Zag dugout fulltime in 1996. He was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 1998 campaign and earned the head job six years later.

A 1987 graduate of Stanford University, Machtolf was a member of the Cardinal 1987 College World Series championship team and was an All-CWS selection. A four-year baseball letterman and two-year football letterman, Machtolf received his B.A. in history in 1987. He received a Masters of Education degree in 1990 from Whitworth.

Machtolf has three sons – David, Steven and Jack.

BRANDON HARMON

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH - 11TH YEAR

Brandon Harmon will begin his first season as Associate Head Coach and 11th season overall on the baseball staff in 2023. He was elevated from volunteer assistant in September 2015, and elevated from pitching coach to associate head coach in July 2022.

Harmon has helped guide the Zags to five West Coast Conference titles in his seven years coaching GU's pitchers – 2013, 2016, 2017, 2021 and 2022 – his pitching staff played a large role in the Zags' first-ever at-large bid to an NCAA Regional in 2016 as well as their highest-ever seeding in a Regional in 2021 and 2022.

In 2022, Harmon's staff shattered the previous record for strikeouts with 596 and finished Top-50 in ERA (4.32, 35th), hits allowed per nine innings (8.35, 28th) and top-10 in shutouts (6, 10th) and strikeouts per game (10.6, 9th) led by First Team All-American Gabriel Hughes, who finished ninth in the nation with 138 strikeouts. Hughes was one of four of Harmon's pitchers to be drafted in the 2022 MLB Draft, becoming the highest draft pick in GU history with his 10th overall selection by the Rockies. Following him were Trystan Vrieling (Round 3, Pick 100) to the Yankees, Will Kempner (Round 3, Pick 106) to the Giants and Brody Jesse (Round 10, Pick 303) to the Reds.

In 2021, Harmon-coached pitchers took home a bevy of honors, led by WCC Pitcher of the Year and Second Team All-American Alek Jacob and Freshman All-American Gabriel Hughes. In the 2021 season, Zag pitchers combined for a WCC-leading nine shutouts.

Also in 2016, Harmon's pitching staff broke the program record with 501 strikeouts, and they eclipsed the old mark once again a year later. He tutored three of the pitchers among the top five on Gonzaga's single season strikeouts list (No. 2 Eli Morgan, No. 4 Brandon Bailey and No. 5 Daniel Bies), along with one of the top closers in school history in Wyatt Mills.

Under Harmon's tutelage, 10 pitchers have been selected in the MLB Draft: Mills (3rd Rd.; 2017), Bailey (6th; 2016), Bies (7th, 2018), Morgan (8th; 2017), Hunter Wells (23rd; 2016), Casey Legumina (8th, 2019), Alek Jacob (16th, 2021), Hughes (1st, 2022), Vrieling (3rd, 2022), Kempner (3rd, 2022) and JesseFour signed with major league organizations (Justin Vernia, Diamondbacks; Sam Hellinger, Rangers; Mac Lardner and Nick Trogrlic-Iverson, Cardinals) and Bailey, Mills and Morgan have all earned the call-up to the big leagues for their respective organizations.

Harmon is a former player and graduate of Gonzaga. He completed his undergraduate work in 2007 with a degree in sports management and followed that up with a master's degree from Gonzaga in 2009 in Sport and Athletic Administration. During his days as a pitcher for the Bulldogs (2005-08), he etched himself into the program's record book. Harmon is one of two atop the all-time career appearances category with 88 and owns the most innings in a season, pitching 123.1 frames in 2007. He was named All-WCC Honorable Mention in 2006 and 2007 and finished his career with a 13-17 overall record with 10 saves.

SEAN WINSTON

ASSISTANT COACH - 8TH YEAR

Sean Winston enters his first season as a full-time assistant and eighth on the staff in 2023. Winston directly coaches the squad on baserunning and serves as the third base coach while assisting with the hitters, infielders, and defensive positioning.

With Winston on the staff, Gonzaga has won two West Coast Conference regular-season titles and one WCC Baseball Championship title. With titles in both 2016 and 2017, they earned their first back-to-back conference titles since 1973-74 and first ever as members of the WCC.

Winston has helped the Zags to four NCAA tournament berths (2016, 2018, 2021, 2022) including their first-ever at-large bid in 2016. The Zags finished Top-20 in the nation in fielding percentage in 2021 and 2022, posting the second-best fielding percentage in program history (.981, 7th in the nation) in 2021 and the third-best (.979, 18th in the nation) in 2022.

Winston has helped coach some of the best fielding teams in recent program history. In 2018, Gonzaga set the program record for fielding percentage, fielding at a .984 clip. In his first season in 2016, Gonzaga equaled its previously highest fielding percentage since the 2008 season, finishing with a .975 fielding percentage. 2017's mark of .973 is the fourth-best since 2008.

Winston came to Spokane with five years of coaching experience. Most recently, he was an assistant coach at Paradise Valley Community College in Phoenix where he helped lead the Pumas to the ACCAC Championship in 2015. At Paradise Valley, Winston was in charge of coaching third base and running the offense, served as the recruiting coordinator, and also coached individual skill positions in the infield and at the plate. The 2015 season was actually his second stint at the school; he also helped coach the Pumas from August 2010 until December 2012. Over his three seasons at Paradise Valley, Winston coached one NJCAA National Gold Glove Award winner and three finalists.

Before coaching, Winston played for two years at Hawaii Pacific in Honolulu, where he was a two-time First Team All-Conference second basemen and helped the Sea Warriors to a Pac-West Conference Championship and a second-place finish at the 2010 Western Regional. Before heading to the Islands, Winston spent two years at Lower Columbia College in Longview, Wash., where he led the Red Devils to two division titles and a second-place finish in the NWAC Championship in 2008.

EVAN WELLS

DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS - FIFTH YEAR

Evan Wells enters his fourth season with the Bulldogs in 2022, having joined Gonzaga ahead of the 2019 season after a stint as an assistant coach at Longwood University. Wells brings with him seven years of collegiate coaching experience, previously coaching at Dartmouth College, Creighton, the University of Washington, and Whitworth.

While at Dartmouth, Wells assisted the Big Green to a division championship in three of his five seasons, working primarily with infielders and hitters. Dartmouth led the league in fielding percentage four of Wells' five years as an assistant and finished second in 2016 with a .972 percentage. In 2012 Dartmouth set a school record with 32 wins and posted a .979 fielding percentage.

Before heading to Dartmouth, Wells worked as a volunteer assistant at Creighton University, and was an assistant at the University of Washington in the 2011 season. In his time at Washington, Wells assisted with camps, recruiting, and defensive drills for all position groups.

As the assistant coach at Whitworth University, Wells was the infield and hitting coach, assisting with the recruitment of student-athletes.

A native of Olympia, Wash., Wells graduated summa cum laude from Gonzaga University in 2009 with a degree in journalism. A three-year starter at second base and lead-off hitter, Wells finished his career with a .310 batting average and helped lead the Bulldogs to the 2009 NCAA Regionals. A left-handed hitting infielder, Wells began his collegiate career at Lassen Community College, where he hit .307 in one season and was named first team all-conference. Wells is married to Ashley Lammers and they have two sons, Dean and Reid.

QUICK FACTS ON THE PROGRAM

- The Bulldogs have made three of the last four NCAA tournaments that have been held, and were nationally ranked in multiple polls for the third season in a row in 2022.
- Since 2016, GU boasts a 249-178 record, with five WCC titles (2016, 2017, 2018, 2021, 2022) and four NCAA Tournament appearances (2016, 2018, 2021, 2022). 23 former Zags have been selected in the MLB Draft since then, with four making their major league debuts during the 2020 and 2021 seasons. The Zags have a 137-98 record against WCC opponents in that span.
- The Bulldogs have led the WCC four separate times in strikeouts since 2016, including Brandon Bailey's 125 strikeouts in 2016, which was tied for seventh in the nation.
- In the past decade, 52 Zags have been selected All-WCC, with 14 earning WCC First-Team honors, 11 making the WCC Second Team, and 27 honorable Mentions. In 2021, GU picked up a program-record nine All-WCC honors while taking three of the five major awards.
- Coach Machtolf has earned WCC Coach of the Year five times during his tenure at GU, including three times since 2017. In addition, Gonzaga has had two WCC Players of the Year, three Defensive Players of the Year, two Freshmen of the Year, and three Pitchers of the Year in the past decade.
- GU has had five Collegiate Baseball All-American selections in the past decade, including two second-team and three third-team selections. Gonzaga has also had two Academic All-Americans and two Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American selections since 2011 to go with seven total All-West team selections, including Marco Gonzales' 2012 All-West Coast Player of the Year season.
